

When I was growing up there weren't any school shootings. The morals in our country have changed. Having the 10 Commandments displayed again will be a huge step toward morals coming back in the lives of people. Please say yes to this Bill.