4. A petition for recall must include, before the signature lines for the qualified electors as provided in subsection 2, the name of the individual being recalled, the office from which that individual is being recalled, and a list of the names and addresses of not less than five qualified electors of the state, political subdivision, or district in which the official is to be recalled who are sponsoring the recall.
5. For the recall of an elected official under article III of the Constitution of North Dakota, circulators have one year to gather the required number of signatures of qualified electors on the recall petition from the date the secretary of state approves the recall petition for circulation. For the recall of an elected official under section 44-08-21 or section 3 of this Act, circulators have ninety days from the date the secretary of state approves the recall petition for circulation to submit the recall petition to the appropriate filing officer.
6. A petition may not be circulated under the authority of article III of the Constitution of North Dakota ~~or~~ section 44-08-21, or section 3 of this Act by an individual who is less than eighteen years of age, nor may the affidavit called for by subsection 3 be executed by an individual who is less than eighteen years of age at the time of signing. All petitions circulated under the authority of the constitution and of this section must be circulated in their entirety.
7. When recall petitions are delivered to the secretary of state or other filing officer with whom a petition for nomination to the office in question is filed, the chairman of the sponsoring committee shall submit to the secretary of state or other filing officer an affidavit stating that to the best of that individual's knowledge, the petitions contain at least the required number of signatures. The chairperson also shall submit a complete list of petition circulators which must include each circulator's full name and residential address. The residential address must be in this state and identify the circulator's street address, city, and zip code. Upon submission of the petitions to the appropriate filing officer, the petitions are considered filed and may not be returned to the chairman of the sponsoring committee for the purpose of continuing the circulation process or resubmitting the petitions at a later time. An elector's name may not be removed by

- 1 the elector from a recall petition that has been submitted to and received by the 2 appropriate filing officer.
- 3 8. The filing officer has a reasonable period, not to exceed thirty days, in which to pass
4 upon the sufficiency of a recall petition. The filing officer may conduct a representative 5 random sampling of the signatures contained in the petitions by the use of 6 questionnaires, postcards, telephone calls, personal interviews, or other accepted 7 information-gathering techniques, or any combinations thereof, to determine the 8 validity of the signatures. Signatures determined by the filing officer to be invalid may 9 not be counted and all violations of law discovered by the filing officer must be 10 reported to the state's attorney for possible prosecution.
- 11 9. The filing officer shall call a special recall election to be held no sooner than ninety-five 12 days nor later than one hundred five days following the date the filing officer certifies
13 the petition valid and sufficient. No special recall election may be called if that date 14 would be within ninety-five days of the next scheduled election.
- 15 10. A notice of the recall election must be posted in the official newspaper thirty days
16 before the candidate filing deadline, which is by four p.m. on the sixty-fourth day
17 before the election. The official notice must include the necessary information for a 18 candidate to file and have the candidate's name included on the ballot.
- 19 11. A special recall election may not be held if candidate filings are not received by the 20 filing officer before the candidate filing deadline. The filing officer shall declare the 21 recall petition ineffective, and the elected or appointed official may continue to serve
22 the remainder of their term. A notice of cancellation of the recall election due to no
23 candidate filing received must be posted in the official newspaper within fifteen days 24 following the candidate filing deadline.
- 25 12. An official may not be recalled if the recall special election would occur within one year
26 of the next regularly scheduled election in which the official could be re-elected.

27 SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 44-08-21 of the North Dakota Century
28 Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

- 29 1. An elected official of a political subdivision, except a township officer, an individual 30 serving as a member of a governing body of a city, park district, or as a member of a
31 school board subject to recall under section 3 of this Act, or an official subject to recall 32 under section 10 of article III of the Constitution of North Dakota, is subject to recall by

1 petition of electors equal in number to twenty-five percent of the voters who voted in 2 the most recent election that the official sought to be recalled was on the ballot, not 3 including other recall elections. An official who was appointed to fill a vacancy is 4 subject to recall by petition of electors equal in number to twenty-five percent of the 5 voters who voted in the most recent election that the office of the official sought to be 6 recalled was on the ballot, not including other recall elections. The provisions of 7 section 16.1-01-09.1, as they relate to signing and circulating recall petitions, apply to 8 petitions under this section.

9 SECTION 3. A new section to chapter 44-08 of the North Dakota Century Code is created 10 and enacted as follows:

11 Recall of elected members of a governing body of a city, park district or school 12 board.

- 13 1. An individual serving as a member of a governing body of a city, park district, or school 14 board is subject to recall by petition of electors equal in number to thirty-five percent of 15 the voters who voted in the most recent election that the member sought to be recalled
16 was on the ballot, not including other recall elections. A member who was appointed to 17 fill a vacancy is subject to recall by petition of electors equal in number to thirty-five 18 percent of the voters who voted in the most recent election that the office of the 19 member sought to be recalled was on the ballot, not including other recall elections.
20 The provisions of section 16.1-01-09.1, as they relate to signing and circulating recall 21 petitions, apply to petitions under this section, except petitions circulated under this 22 section must have fifteen petition sponsors if the city population is greater than 23 two hundred fifty or the school district has a fall enrollment of greater than two hundred 24 fifty. Each petition sponsor shall provide on the petition the sponsor's name and 25 address. Each petition sponsor must be a qualified elector of the city, park district, or 26 the school district in which the member subject to the recall is serving.
- 27 2. A recall petition must include a stated reason for the recall and be approved as to form 28 before circulation by the secretary of state. The secretary of state shall complete the 29 review of the form of a recall petition in not less than five, nor more than seven, 30 business days, excluding Saturdays. To be effective, a recall petition must be 31 submitted to the filing officer within ninety days after the date the recall petition is 32 approved for circulation by the secretary of state.

- 1 3. Once circulated, the recall petition must be filed with the filing officer with whom a 2 petition for nomination to the office in question is filed. The filing officer shall pass on 3 the sufficiency of a petition by reviewing every signature affixed to the petition. Except 4 as otherwise provided in this section, the filing officer shall call a special election to be 5 held not sooner than ninety-five days nor later than one hundred five days following
6 the date the filing officer certifies the petition valid and sufficient. A special election
7 may not be called if that date would be within ninety-five days of the next scheduled 8 election. An elector's name may not be removed from a recall petition that has been 9 submitted to and received by the filing officer.
- 10 4. The name of the member to be recalled must be placed on the ballot unless the 11 member resigns within ten days after the filing officer certifies the petition is valid and 12 sufficient. Other candidates for the office may be nominated in a manner provided by 13 law and shall file nominating papers with the appropriate filing officer by the sixty-14 fourth day before the scheduled recall election. A special recall election may not be 15 held if candidate filings are not received by the filing officer before the candidate filing
16 deadline. The filing officer shall declare the recall petition ineffective, and the member 17 may continue to serve the remainder of the member's term. A notice of cancellation of 18 the recall election due to no candidate filing received must be posted in the official 19 newspaper within fifteen days following the candidate filing deadline.
- 20 5. If the member resigns, the filing officer may call a special election or appoint an 21 individual to complete the unexpired term of the office. When the election results have 22 been officially declared, the candidate receiving the highest number of votes is elected 23 for the remainder of the term.
- 24 6. A member is not subject to recall twice during the term for which the member was 25 elected. A member whose office is on the ballot at a regularly scheduled election 26 occurring within one year is not subject to recall if the recall special election would 27 occur within one year of the next regularly scheduled election in which the member 28 could be re-elected.
