8 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

9 SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Section 12-44.1-01 of the North Dakota Century Code is
10 amended and reenacted as follows:

11 12-44.1-01. Definitions.

12 As used in this chapter:

- 13 1. "Administrator" means the sheriff, chief of police, administrator, superintendent, 14 director, or other individual serving as the chief executive officer of a correctional 15 facility.
- 16 2. "Adult lockup" means a secure temporary-hold nonresidential facility that does not 17 hold individuals overnight and includes a facility with cuffing rails or cuffing benches.
- 18 3. "Correctional facility" means a city or county jail or detention center, regional 19 corrections center, or juvenile detention center for the detention or confinement of 20 persons in accordance with law. The use of the term does not imply and may not be 21 used to require the provision of services including treatment, counseling, career and 22 technical education, or other educational services, except as may otherwise be

- 1 required or provided for under this chapter. The term does not include transitional 2 facilities.
- 3 4. "Correctional facility staff" means correctional personnel with titles such as jailer, 4 deputy, counselor, correctional officer, or any other title, whose duties include the 5 ongoing supervision of inmates in a correctional facility.
- 6 5. "Court holding facility" means a secure facility, other than an adult correctional facility
7 or adult lockup, used to temporarily detain individuals before or after a detention 8 hearing or other court proceedings, and is not used to detain individuals overnight.
- 9 6. "Individual justice planning" means a process to identify, accommodate, and develop 10 appropriate consequences for behaviors caused by or related to an individual's mental 11 or cognitive impairment.
- 12 7. "Inmate" means any individual, whether sentenced or unsentenced, who is detained or 13 confined in a correctional facility. The term does not include an individual who is under 14 the supervision of the correctional facility and is supervised under home detention, 15 electronic monitoring, or a similar program that does not involve physical detention or 16 confinement in the facility.
- 17 8. "Jail" means a correctional facility, including a county or city jail or a regional 18 corrections center.
- 19 9. "Juvenile detention center" means a publicly maintained correctional facility for the 20 detention of juveniles. The term does not include the North Dakota youth correctional 21 center.
- 22 10. "Regional corrections center" means a correctional facility established and maintained 23 by more than one county or city, or a combination of counties and cities, for the 24 confinement of inmates.
- 25 11. "Trained correctional facility staff" means correctional personnel who have completed 26 a course of training approved by the peace officer standards and training board.
- 27 12. "Transitional facility" means an organization a halfway house, assessment center, reentry facility, transitional living facility, or similar facility, operating under contract, in 28 partnership with, or under the direction of the department of corrections and 29 rehabilitation or a correctional facility, which offers education, counseling, or other 30 programs, with unsecured or minimum security housing, for offenders.

1       SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Section 12-47-18.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is
2 amended and reenacted as follows:

3       12-47-18.1. Transfer of persons between correctional facilities.

4       ~~The~~Subject to statutory limitations, the director of the department of corrections and 5 rehabilitation may transfer an offender to any facility under the department's control or contract
6 to transfer an offender to another correctional facility for purposes of safety, security, discipline,
7 or medical care, or when the director determines it may be in the best interests of the public, the 8 ~~offender, or the department.~~

9       SECTION 3. AMENDMENT. Section 12-48.1-01 of the North Dakota Century Code is
10 amended and reenacted as follows:

11       12-48.1-01. ~~Director may provide certain~~Work release and education or rehabilitation
12 services for offenders.

13       1. The director of the department of corrections and rehabilitation may participate in 14 programs in which ~~eligible offenders~~ an offender committed to the legal and physical custody of 15 the department may be gainfully employed or participate in an educational or other 16 rehabilitation program ~~either in or outside facilities~~ in the facility under the control of the department in which the offender resides.

17       ~~The~~For eligible offenders, the director may obtain or contract with separate facilities
18 with minimum security for housing offenders granted release privileges. In areas 19 where facilities are not within reasonable proximity of the place of employment or 20 training of an eligible offender so released, the director may arrange for the housing of the offender in local confinement facilities.

21       2. For purposes of this chapter, an "eligible offender" means an offender who:

22       a. In accordance with section 12.1-32-09.1, has served eighty-five percent of the 23 offender's sentence of imprisonment or had the offender's sentences commuted;

24       or

25       b. Is serving a sentence only for one or more violations of section 12.1-06.1-08, 26 12.1-11-01, 12.1-11-07, 12.1-15-02, or 12.1-15-03; subdivision c of subsection 1 27 of section 12.1-21-02; section 12.1-21-03.1; subdivision b of subsection 1 of 28 section 12.1-21-05; section 12.1-21-06.1, 12.1-22-05, 12.1-23-02, 12.1-23-04, 29 12.1-23-07, 12.1-23-08, or 12.1-24-01; subsection 7 of section 19-03.1-23; or 30 section 19-03.4-03 or 39-08-01.
31

- 1        3. The department of corrections and rehabilitation shall provide to the attorney general
2                    and the legislative council each quarter a report, including the names, locations, and
3                    sentences of each individual who meets the criteria in subdivision b of subsection 2.

4        SECTION 4. AMENDMENT. Section 12-48.1-02 of the North Dakota Century Code is
5 amended and reenacted as follows:

6        12-48.1-02. Conditions of eligibility for participation in release programs.

- 7        1. An eligible offender, except an offender sentenced to a penalty of life imprisonment
8                    without the opportunity for parole as the result of conviction of a class AA felony under 9                    section 12.1-20-03 or of murder under section 12.1-16-01, may ~~be eligible for~~ 10                   ~~programs~~ participate in a program outside ~~facilities~~ a facility under the control of the 11                    department of corrections and rehabilitation when the department determines, with a 12                    high degree of reliability, the eligible offender is not a high security risk, not likely to 13                    commit a crime of violence, not likely to escape, and is likely to be rehabilitated by 14                    such program. An eligible offender may apply to the director of the department for 15                    permission to participate in such programs.
- 16        2. The director of the department may authorize participation in outside programs for an 17                    eligible offender who has ten years or less remaining on a sentence and has been 18                    committed to the legal and physical custody of the department. The parole board, with 19                    the approval of the director of the department, may authorize participation in outside 20                    programs for eligible offenders who have more than ten years remaining on a 21                    sentence and have been committed to the legal and physical custody of the 22                    department.
- 23        3. The offender shall submit a signed application which must include a statement that the 24                    eligible offender agrees to abide by all terms and conditions of the particular plan 25                    adopted for the eligible offender, and must include such other information as the 26                    parole board or the director of the department may require.
- 27        4. The parole board may approve, disapprove, or defer action on an application 28                    approved by the director of the department. The director of the department or the 29                    parole board may revoke approval of the application at any time after granting the 30                    application. The department shall prescribe rules of conduct and treatment for all 31                    eligible offenders on release programs and shall prescribe objective and subjective

1           criteria for which revocation of approval to participate in release programs is 2           mandatory. A rule violation indicating the eligible offender likely will commit a crime of 3           violence or is likely to attempt to escape must result in revocation of approval to 4           participate in release programs. The department shall document all violations of the 5           rules of conduct and treatment.

6           5. The director of the department may grant short leaves, not to exceed seventy-two 7           hours, to eligible offenders who have been committed to the legal and physical 8           custody of the department for ten years or less. The parole board, upon the approval 9           of the director of the department, may grant short leaves, not to exceed seventy-two 10          hours, to offenders committed to the legal and physical custody of the department for 11          more than ten years. Short leaves granted under this subsection may not be granted 12          consecutively to the same individual.

13          6. All rules adopted by the parole board and the director of the department relating to 14          release programs and short leaves must conform, to the extent allowable by law, with 15          executive order no. 11755 issued by the President of the United States.

16          SECTION 5. AMENDMENT. Section 12-54.1-01 of the North Dakota Century Code is
17          amended and reenacted as follows:

18          12-54.1-01. Sentence reduction for good time.

19          ~~Except as provided under~~ Subject to the requirements of section 12.1-32-09.1, an offender
20          committed to the legal and physical custody of the department of corrections and rehabilitation
21          is eligible to earn sentence reductions based upon satisfactory fulfillment of performance criteria
22          established through department and penitentiary rules. Performance criteria ~~includes~~ must 23          include participation in court-ordered or staff-recommended treatment and education programs
24          and good work performance. The department may credit an offender committed to the legal and 25          physical custody of the department who is eligible for sentence reduction up to five days good 26          time per month for each month of the sentence ~~imposed~~ served, up to a maximum of fifteen 27          percent of the offender's sentence. Sentence reductions may not be awarded before they are 28          earned. The department may credit an offender with sentence reduction for time spent in 29          custody before sentencing and commitment to the legal and physical custody of the 30          department. The department may not credit an offender with any sentence reduction for time 31          spent on probation under the supervision and management of the department.

1       SECTION 6. AMENDMENT. Section 12-54.1-03 of the North Dakota Century Code is
2 amended and reenacted as follows:

3       12-54.1-03. Meritorious conduct sentence reduction.

4       ~~Except as provided under section 12-1-32-09.1, offenders~~Offenders committed to the legal 5 and physical custody of the department of corrections and rehabilitation may receive a lump
6 sum or a monthly rate of meritorious conduct sentence reduction for outstanding performance 7 or heroic acts ~~or as a special control and security measure~~, as provided by penitentiary and 8 department rules and upon written recommendation of a department multidisciplinary team.
9 Meritorious sentence reductions are in addition to sentence reductions under section 10 12-54.1-01 and may be made only after a written recommendation is made by the warden and 11 approved by the director of the department. Any sentence reduction ~~for special control or~~ 12 ~~security measures~~under this section may not exceed ~~two days~~one day good time per month per 13 offender.

14       SECTION 7. AMENDMENT. Section 12.1-08-02 of the North Dakota Century Code is
15 amended and reenacted as follows:

16       12.1-08-02. Preventing arrest or discharge of other duties.

17       ~~4.~~ A person is guilty of a class A misdemeanor if, with intent to prevent a public servant
18 from effecting an arrest of himself or another for a misdemeanor or infraction, or from 19 discharging any other official duty, he creates a substantial risk of bodily injury to the public
20 servant or to anyone except himself, or employs means justifying or requiring substantial force
21 to overcome resistance to effecting the arrest or the discharge of the duty. A person is guilty of a 22 class C felony if, with intent to prevent a public servant from effecting an arrest of himself or 23 another for a class A, B, or C felony, he creates a substantial risk of bodily injury to the public
24 servant or to anyone except himself, or employs means justifying or requiring substantial force
25 to overcome resistance to effecting such an arrest.

26       ~~2.1.~~ It is a defense to a prosecution under this section that the public servant was not 27 acting lawfully, but it is no defense that the defendant mistakenly believed that the 28 public servant was not acting lawfully. A public servant executing a warrant or other 29 process in good faith and under color of law shall be deemed to be acting lawfully.

- 1        2. A conviction under this section carries a penalty of at least fourteen days'
2                    imprisonment and, if there is an underlying conviction, the imprisonment must be
3                    consecutive to any sentence of imprisonment for the underlying conviction.

4        SECTION 8. AMENDMENT. Section 12.1-17-01 of the North Dakota Century Code is
5 amended and reenacted as follows:

6        12.1-17-01. Simple assault.

- 7        1. A person is guilty of an offense if that person:
8            a. Willfully causes bodily injury to another human being; or 9            b. Negligently causes bodily injury to another human being by means of a firearm, 10                 destructive device, or other weapon, the use of which against a human being is 11                 likely to cause death or serious bodily injury.
12        2. The offense is:
13            a. A class C felony when the victim is a peace officer or correctional institution 14                 employee acting in an official capacity, which the actor knows to be a fact; an 15                 employee of the state hospital acting in the course and scope of employment, 16                 which the actor knows to be a fact, and the actor is an individual committed to or 17                 detained at the state hospital pursuant to chapter 25-03.3; a person engaged in a 18                 judicial proceeding; or a member of a municipal or volunteer fire department or 19                 emergency medical services personnel unit or emergency department worker in 20                 the performance of the member's duties.
21            b. A class B misdemeanor except as provided in subdivision a.
22            c. A conviction under subdivision a carries a penalty of at least thirty days'
23                 imprisonment and, if there is an underlying conviction, the imprisonment must be
24                 consecutive to any sentence of imprisonment for the underlying conviction.

25        SECTION 9. AMENDMENT. Section 12.1-32-02.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is
26 amended and reenacted as follows:

27        12.1-32-02.1. Mandatory prison terms for armed offenders.

- 28        1. Notwithstanding any other provision of this title, a term of imprisonment must be 29                 imposed upon an offender and served without benefit of parole when:

- 1 a. In the course of committing an offense, the offender inflicts or attempts to inflict 2 bodily injury upon another, threatens or menaces another with imminent bodily 3 injury with a dangerous weapon, explosive, destructive device, or firearm; or
- 4 b. An offender prohibited from possessing a firearm under section 62.1-02-01 5 possesses a firearm while in the course of committing any felony offense under 6 subsection 1; or 3, or 7 of section 19-03.1-23.
- 7 2. This requirement applies only when possession of a dangerous weapon, explosive, 8 destructive device, or firearm has been charged and admitted or found to be true in 9 the manner provided by law, and must be imposed as follows:
  - 10 a. If the offense for which the offender is convicted is a class AA, class A, or class B 11 felony, the court shall impose a minimum sentence of four years' imprisonment.
  - 12 b. If the offense for which the offender is convicted is a class C felony, the court 13 shall impose a minimum sentence of two years' imprisonment.
- 14 3. This section applies even when being armed is an element of the offense for which the 15 offender is convicted.
- 16 4. This section applies even if the offender is prosecuted for a violation of section 17 62.1-02-01 for the same conduct.
- 18 5. An offender serving a sentence subject to this section ~~may be eligible to participate in~~ 19 ~~a release program under section 12-48.1-02 during the last six months of the~~ 20 ~~offender's sentence~~ is not an eligible offender under subdivision b of subsection 2 of 21 section 12-48.1-01.

22 SECTION 10. AMENDMENT. Section 12.1-32-09.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is
23 amended and reenacted as follows:

24 12.1-32-09.1. Sentencing of violent offenders Truth in sentencing.

- 25 1. Except as provided under ~~section~~ sections 12-48.1-01 and 12-48.1-02 and pursuant to 26 ~~rules adopted by the department of corrections and rehabilitation,~~ an offender who is 27 sentenced as a dangerous special offender or habitual offender under section
28 12.1-32-09, or is convicted of a crime in violation of section 12.1-16-01, 12.1-16-02, 29 subsection 2 of section 12.1-17-02, section 12.1-18-01, subdivision a of subsection 1
30 or subdivision b of subsection 2 of section 12.1-20-03, section 12.1-22-01, 31 subdivision b of subsection 2 of section 12.1-22-02, or an attempt to commit the

- 1 offenses, and who receives a sentence of imprisonment is not eligible for release from 2 confinement on any basis until eighty-five percent of the sentence imposed by the 3 court has been served or the sentence is commuted. All other offenders are not 4 eligible for release from confinement on any basis until:
- 5 a. Fifty percent of the sentence imposed by the court is served, not including any 6 time credited under section 12-54.1-01, and the offender is paroled;
  - 7 b. The offender's sentence is commuted and the offender served the commuted 8 sentence;
  - 9 c. Eighty-five percent of the sentence imposed by the court is served; or
  - 10 d. The offender is pardoned.
- 11 2. In the case of an offender who is sentenced to a term of life imprisonment with 12 opportunity for parole under subsection 1 of section 12.1-32-01, the term "sentence 13 imposed" means the remaining life expectancy of the offender on the date of 14 sentencing. The remaining life expectancy of the offender must be calculated on the 15 date of sentencing, computed by reference to a recognized mortality table as 16 established by rule by the supreme court.
- 17 3. Notwithstanding this section, an offender sentenced under subsection 1 of section 18 12.1-32-01 may not be eligible for parole until the requirements of that subsection 19 have been met.
- 20 4. ~~An offender who is convicted of a class C felony in violation of section 12.1-17-02, or~~ 21 ~~an attempt to commit the offense, and who has received a sentence of imprisonment~~
22 ~~or a sentence of imprisonment upon revocation of probation before August 1, 2015, is~~ 23 ~~eligible to have the offender's sentence considered by the parole board.~~
- 24 5. ~~Notwithstanding subsection 4, this section does not apply to a sentence imposed upon~~
25 ~~revocation of probation.~~ For purposes of this section "confinement" does not include 26 placement or residence in a transitional facility, halfway house, or other organization or 27 similar facility, operating under contract, in partnership with, or under the direction of the 28 department of corrections and rehabilitation or other correctional facility, that offers 29 education, counseling, or other programs, with unsecured or minimum security housing, 30 for
31 offenders.
5. Notwithstanding subsection 4, placement or residence at the James River correctional center, Missouri River correctional center, Heart River correctional center, or

Sixty-ninth
Legislative Assembly

Dakota women's correctional and rehabilitation center, or county jail is "confinement" for purposes of this section, provided the order to place the inmate in the center or jail is approved by an identifiable employee of the department of corrections and rehabilitation after the employee determines, with reasonable certainty, that the placement will not pose a danger to the public.

1       SECTION 11. AMENDMENT. Section 39-10-71 of the North Dakota Century Code is
2 amended and reenacted as follows:

3       39-10-71. Fleeing or attempting to elude a peace officer - Penalty.

4       1. A driver of a motor vehicle who willfully fails or refuses to bring the vehicle to a stop, or 5 who otherwise flees or attempts to elude, in any manner, a pursuing police vehicle or 6 peace officer, when given a visual or audible signal to bring the vehicle to a stop, is 7 guilty of a:

8       a. Class A misdemeanor for a first offense and a class C felony for a subsequent 9 offense within three years;

10       b. Class C felony if the driver violates this section while willfully fleeing during or 11 after the commission of a felony; or

12       c. Class C felony if, at any time during the flight or pursuit, the driver willfully
13 operates the vehicle in a manner constituting an inherent risk of death or serious 14 bodily injury to a third person.

15       2. A signal complies with this section if the signal is perceptible to the driver and:

16       a. If given from a vehicle, the signal is given by hand, voice, emergency light, or 17 siren, and the stopping vehicle is appropriately marked showing it to be an official 18 police vehicle; or

19       b. If not given from a vehicle, the signal is given by hand, voice, emergency light, or 20 siren, and the officer is in uniform or prominently displays the officer's badge of 21 office.

22       3. A felony conviction under this section carries a penalty of at least thirty days'

23 imprisonment and, if there is an underlying conviction, the imprisonment must be
24 consecutive to any sentence of imprisonment for the underlying conviction.

25       4. Upon a motion by a state's attorney, a court may order that a motor vehicle used in the 26 commission of a violation of this section be impounded by a peace officer for up to six 27 months.
