

I strongly oppose creating a legislative management study to determine whether libraries under the direction of the State Board of Higher Education need to retain original texts in their collection. Many others who have already submitted testimony in opposition have lined out perfectly the many pitfalls of researching this topic. I ask you to vote NO on this issue.

Sandi L. Bates
Private citizen