

Intelligent design is a gentler way of saying religious indoctrination. Keep religion and the state separate. Anyone pushing for this legislation is an embarrassment to our country. I encourage legislators who are in favor of this bill to resign from their positions and seek employment outside of government.