

An on duty law enforcement officer having probable cause to suspect an individual has vexatiously provided a false report about another individual to a law enforcement officer or security official shall report the information to the state's attorney of the county in which the violation occurs.