

In opposition to Senate Bill 2307

I recommend that Senate Bill 2307 not be passed. The library community already has a process in place for citizens to challenge materials since the Legislature passed HB 1205 in 2023. It should be up to parents to decide what their children should read.