

I support SB 2359

We must do everything we can to prepare for the future and get in on the ground floor of new energy solutions.

Not doing so will only cost everyone in the future, with our lives and with our dollars.