

I support this legislation because these horses are a living tribute to Theodor Roosevelt. They symbolize Roosevelt's conservation legacy and the untamed spirit of the American West.

Unlike other wild horse herds, they have no federal protection. TRNP

S horses are not covered under the Wild Free Roaming Horses and Burros Act. Without protection, they can be removed at any time.

These horses are a major tourism draw, bringing visitors to Medora and surrounding areas, which boosts North Dakota's economy.
