Please Protect the Theodore Roosevelt National Park Wild Horses

- These Horses Are a Living Tribute to Theodore Roosevelt

They symbolize Roosevelt's conservation legacy and the untamed spirit of the American West. Protecting them honors the park's namesake and his contributions to public land preservation.

- Wild Horses Boost North Dakota's Economy

These horses are a major tourism draw, bringing visitors to Medora and surrounding areas. Their removal could negatively impact local businesses and jobs.

- Public Support Is Overwhelming

North Dakotans and people across the country want these horses protected.

Thank you,
