

My favorite part of Theodore Roosevelt National Park is the wild horses. Park management has been aggressively trying to eliminate the herd of wild horses for years, even though the majority of ND residents and park visitors have repeatedly stated they want the herd to remain. I believe SB 2331 should pass so the wild horses are finally protected and remain in the park forever.

Michelle Jennison
Fargo, ND

