

SPECIALIST JON P. FETTIG
ARMY NATIONAL GUARD
JANUARY 1973-JULY 2003
OPERATION IRAQI FREEDOM

On July 22 2003 Jon lost his life when his unit was ambushed outside of Ramadi while traveling to the Euphrates River. He was in an Expanded-Mobility Tactical Truck delivering supplies and dropping off Soldiers to relieve others with the 957th Multi-Role Bridge Company on river patrol when they were hit by a rocket-propelled grenade.

Jon is resting in the Saint Joseph Cemetery in Dickinson ND.