authorized to act at such meeting, and they may adjourn from day to day until they shall finish the hearing of all cases presented on that day; provided, that they shall complete the equalization within ten days. All complaints and grievances of individuals, residents of the town or districts, in reference to the assessments of personal property, shall be heard and decided by the town board; provided, further, that the complaints of nonresidents in reference to the assessment on any property, real or personal, and of others, in reference to any assessment made after the meeting of the town board of review, shall be heard and determined by the county board. The clerk of the city, town and township boards of equalization shall keep accurate record of the proceedings of said boards, showing the facts and evidence upon which their action is based, a copy of which shall be furnished the assessor and filed by him with the county auditor as part of the assessment returns. [R. C. 1905, § 1523; 1897, ch. 126, § 40; R. C. 1899, § 1217.]

As empowering county board to hear and act on complaints in respect to assessments. First Nat. Bank v. Lewis, 18 N. D. 390, 121 N. W. 836.

Scheme of classification to be used by local board of review in equalizing assessments, must be same as that outlined in section 1496, subdiv. 11. Advance Thresher Co. v. Beck, 21 N. D. 55, 128 N. W. 315, Ann. Cas. 1913B, 517.

§ 2134. Notice of meeting of board of review to be posted. The assessor shall cause, at least ten days previous, notice of the time and place of the meeting of the township board of review to be given by posting notice in at least three public places in each township or district; but failure to give such notice or hold such meeting shall not vitiate such assessment, except as to the excess of valuation of tax thereon shown to be unjustly made or levied. [R. C. 1905, § 1524; 1897, ch. 126, § 41; R. C. 1899, § 1218.]

As to notice to taxpayer of tax proceedings. Begg v. Paine, 15 N. D. 436, 109 N. W. 322.

§ 2135. Assessor's statement and return to auditor. The assessor shall add and note the amount of each column in his assessment books after making the corrections made by the town board of review. He shall also make in each book, under proper headings, a tabular statement showing the footings of the several columns upon the page, and shall add and set down under the respective headings the total amount of the several columns, and on or before the last Monday of June he shall make return to the county auditor of his assessment books, and deliver therewith the lists and statements of all persons assessed, all of which shall be filed and preserved in the office of the county auditor; except in cities having charters, the assessor's returns shall be made to the county auditor not later than July tenth. Such returns shall be verified by his affidavit substantially in the following form:

§ 2137. Auditor to examine assessment books and have returns corrected. The county auditor shall carefully examine the assessment books when returned to him by the assessors, and if he discovers that the assessment of any property has been omitted he shall enter the same upon the proper list and forthwith notify the assessor making such omission, who shall immediately proceed to ascertain the value of such property and make the necessary correction. [R. C. 1905, § 1527; 1897, ch. 126, § 44; R. C. 1899, § 1221.]

No authority is given to place upon tax list any property for other than current year. Pierson v. Minnehaha County, 28 S. D. 534, 38 L.R.A. (N.S.) 261, 134 N. W. 213.

§ 2138. County board of review and equalization. The board of county commissioners of each county at its regular meeting in July shall constitute a board of review and equalization of the assessments made within their respective counties and an accurate record of all its proceedings in pursuance of the provisions of this section shall be separately entered upon its minute book. Such board shall perform the duties prescribed by section 2133 as respects all assessments made in districts not embraced in an incorporated city, town or village or civil township having a board of review; and in addition thereto such board shall examine and compare the assessments returned by the assessors of all the districts within the county, including those embraced in incorporated cities (whether organized under general law or special charter), and in incorporated towns and villages and civil townships, and proceed to equalize the same throughout the county between the several assessment districts, subject to the following rules:

1. They shall raise the valuation of each tract or lot of real property which, in their opinion, is returned below its true and full value to such price and sum as they believe to be the true and full value thereof.

2. They shall reduce the valuation of each tract or lot of real property which, in their opinion, is returned above its true and full value to such price and sum as they believe to be the true and full value thereof.

3. They shall raise the valuation of each class or article of personal property which, in their opinion, is returned below its true and full value to such price and sum as they believe to be the true and full value thereof, and they shall raise the aggregate value of the personal property of each individual whenever they believe that such aggregate valuation is less than the valuation of the taxable personal property of such individual to such amounts as they believe was the true and full value thereof; provided, however, that the value of the property of any person or corporation shall not be raised until due notice shall be given to the owner or agent thereof.

4. They shall reduce the valuation of each class of personal property enumerated in section 2103 which, in their opinion, is returned above its true and full value to such price and sum as they believe to be the true and full value thereof; and upon complaint of any party aggrieved they shall reduce the aggregate valuation of the personal property of such individual, who, in their opinion, has been assessed at too large a sum, to such sum or amount as they believe is the true and full value of his personal property.

5. Except as provided in the second and fourth subdivisions of this section, they shall not reduce the aggregate value of the real property, or the aggregate value of the personal property of their county below the aggregate value thereof as returned by the assessors, except as it may be necessary to make the valuation in the different townships equal with the additions made thereto by the auditor as hereinbefore required, but they may raise the aggregate valuation of such real property and of each class of personal property of said county or any town or district thereof, whenever they believe the sum is below the true and full value of said property or class of property, to such aggregate amount as they believe to be the true and full value thereof.

6. The county auditor shall keep an accurate journal or record of the proceedings and orders of said board, showing the facts and evidence upon which their action is based; and said record shall be published the same as other proceedings of county commissioners, and a copy of such published proceedings shall be transmitted to the auditor of the state, with the abstract of assessment herein required. The county board of equalization shall continue in session until such equalization has been completed, and upon completion of such equalization the county commissioners must proceed to make the levy for taxes for the current fiscal year as in this chapter provided. [R. C. 1905, § 1528; 1897, ch. 126, § 45; R. C. 1899, § 1222.]

Board of equalization cannot lawfully assemble at a time and place other than that fixed by statute. Power v. Larabee, 2 N. D. 141, 49 N. W. 724.

Does not provide for county board of assessment. Pierson v. Minnehaha County, 28 S. D. 534, 38 L.R.A. (N.S.) 261, 134 N. W. 212.

Taxpayer assessed proportionately higher than others must ask board of equalization to equalize valuations before applying to court for relief. Sioux Falls Sav. Bank v. Minnehaha County, 29 S. D. 146, 135 N. W. 689.

§ 2139. Town and municipal officers to advise with board. The chairmen of the boards of township supervisors, the presidents of city councils and the presidents of the boards of trustees of towns and villages in each county may attend the meetings of the board of equalization in such county, and it shall be the duty of each of such officers to advise with such board of equalization in regard to the equalization of the assessment of such county, the amount of taxes to be levied in such county, and the best means of caring for the poor of such county. Any such officer who shall attend the meeting of such board, as herein prescribed, shall be allowed as full compensation for all services in connection therewith his actual expenses while in attendance, to be paid as other bills are paid, by such township, city, town or village. [R. C. 1905, § 1529; 1897, ch. 149; R. C. 1899, § 1223.]

County commissioners, sitting as board of county commissioners, have no power to reduce individual assessments or abate individual taxes, except in certain instances. Minot v. Amundson, 23 N. D. 236, 133 N. W. 551.

§ 2140. Corrected lists. Abstracts for state auditor. The county auditor shall calculate the changes of the assessment lists determined by the county board of equalization, and make corrections accordingly. Having made such corrections he shall make duplicate abstracts of the real and personal property lists, one copy of which he shall file in his office and one copy he shall forward to the auditor of the state, on or before the last day of July following each county equalization. [R. C. 1905, § 1530; 1899, ch. 137; R. C. 1899, § 1224.]

§ 2141. State board of equalization, how constituted. Meetings. Rules for equalizing. The governor, state auditor, state treasurer, attorney-general and commissioner of agriculture and labor shall constitute the state board of equalization, a majority of which shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The governor shall be ex-officio president of said board, and the state auditor shall act as secretary. The said board shall meet annually on the first Tuesday in August, at the office of the state auditor, and shall then examine and compare the returns of the assessment of the property in the several counties of the state, and proceed to equalize the same, so that all taxable property in the state shall be assessed uniformly, and at its true value in money. In the performance of their duties they shall be governed by the following rules:

1. They shall raise the valuation of each class of personal property of every county, which in their opinion is returned below its true and full value, to such price and sum as they believe to be the true and full value thereof.

2. They shall reduce the valuation of each class of personal property enumerated in section 2103 of every county, which in their opinion is returned above its true and full value, to such price and sum as they believe to be the true and full value thereof.

3. They shall add to the aggregate valuation of the property of every county which they believe to be valued below its true and full value in money, such per centum in each case as will bring the same to its true and full value in money.

4. They shall deduct from the aggregate valuation of the property of every county, which they believe to be valued above its true and full value, such per centum in each case as will reduce the same to its true and full value in money.

5. They shall not reduce the aggregate valuation of all the property in the state, as returned by the several county auditors, more than one per centum on the whole valuation thereof.

6. Upon the completion of such equalization and determination of the aggregate valuation of all the property of the state, the said board shall then decide upon the rate of the state tax to be levied for the current year, together with any other general or special state taxes required by law to be levied. [R. C. 1905, § 1531; 1897, ch. 126, § 47; R. C. 1899, § 1225; 1903, ch. 182.]

An amendment to this section was vetoed in Laws 1913, ch. 298.

"State board of assessment" does not exist in this state. Pierson v. Minnehaha County, 28 S. D. 534, 38 L.R.A.(N.S.) 261, 134 N. W. 212.

§ 2142. Record of proceedings to be published. Synopsis to be sent to county auditors. The secretary shall keep a record of the proceedings of the board, which shall be published in the annual report of the state auditor, and upon final adjournment he shall transmit to each county auditor an abstract of such proceedings specifying the per centum added to or deducted from the valuation of the real property of each of the several counties, in case an equal per centum has not been added to or deducted from each, and specifying also the per centum added to or deducted from the several classes of personal property, in each of the counties in the state, and such other information as will enable each auditor to properly equalize the valuation in their respective counties and the taxable rates thereof. [R. C. 1905, § 1532; 1897, ch. 126, § 48; R. C. 1899, § 1226.]

§ 2143. Duty of county auditor after equalization by the state board. Upon receipt of the report of the proceedings of the state board of equalization it shall be the duty of the county auditor to add to or deduct from each tract or lot of real property in his county the required per centum on the valuation thereof, as it stands after the same has been equalized by the county board of equalization, adding in each case any fractional sum of fifty cents, or more, and deducting in each case any fractional sum of less than fifty cents, so that the value of any separate tract or lot shall contain no fraction of a dollar, and shall also add to or deduct from such class of personal property in his county the required per centums on the valuation thereof, as it stands after the same has been equalized by the county board of equalization, adding or deducting in manner as aforesaid, any fractional sum, so that the value of any separate class of personal property shall contain no fraction of a dollar. [R. C. 1905, § 1533; 1897, ch. 126, § 49; R. C. 1899, § 1227.]

ARTICLE 7.—ASSESSMENT OF EXPRESS AND OTHER COMPANIES.

§ 2144. Express, telegraph, telephone, freight line and equipment companies, assessment of. The state board of equalization shall at its annual meeting in August in each year assess at its actual value the franchise and all property within the state of all express companies, freight line companies, car equipment companies, sleeping car companies, dining car companies, telegraph or telephone companies. To enable said board to make a correct valuation of such franchises and property, it shall have access to all reports of such corporations which may be on file in any public office of the state, and they shall have power to compel and require every such company, on reasonable notice, to report to them a full statement of the property and mileage operated by it within this state, and shall have power to summon and compel the attendance of witnesses, and may examine such witnesses under oath in any matter relating to the value of such property. In estimating the value of such franchises and property the board shall be governed by the same rules as are provided for the government of county and township assessors in valuing other property in this state. It shall cause a record to be made of the estimated value placed upon each of the items which go to make up the aggregate valuation of such assessments. [R. C. 1905, § 1534; 1901, ch. 26, § 1.]

§ 2145. Valuation, how apportioned. The board of equalization shall divide the valuation so found and determined of each continuous line by the number of miles of such line contained in the state, and the result shall be the valuation per mile for which said line shall be assessed. Such valuation per mile shall be apportioned to each county according to the number of miles of such line contained in such county. [R. C. 1905, § 1535; 1901, ch. 26, § 2.]

county to the county auditor, also certify to the number of miles of line operated by each of the companies before mentioned contained in said county and the valuation per mile as determined by the state board of equalization, and the county auditor of such county shall apportion such valuation to the cities, towns, villages, townships and districts through which such lines run according to the number of miles contained in each, as a part of the valuation of such city, town, village, township and district for the purpose of taxation, and the same shall be taxed as personal property is taxed in each county. [R. C. 1905, § 1536; 1901, ch. 26, § 3.]

§ 2147. Valuation in unorganized counties. Taxes for state purposes only. The valuation so apportioned to unorganized counties shall be taxed for state purposes only; and such tax shall be levied annually by the state auditor at the same rate as other property is taxed for state purposes and the state auditor shall notify each company so taxed of the amount of such tax on or before the first day of December in each year, and such tax must be paid to the state treasurer at the same time, and subject to the same penalty, as is prescribed by law for the collection of personal property taxes in organized counties, and the state treasurer shall have the same powers and it shall be his duty to collect such tax in the same manner as county treasurers are authorized by law to collect personal property taxes. [R. C. 1905, § 1537; 1901, ch. 26, § 4.]

Assessment not invalid because value fixed was less than actual value when there is doubt as to liability of property taxation. Schuttuck v. Smith, 6 N. D. 56, 69 N. W. 5.

A telephone company neglecting to file a statement cannot complain of assessment. Iowa & Dakota Tel. Co. v. Schamber, 15 S. D. 588, 91 N. W. 78.

Mileage tax does not cover lands to be used for railroad purposes in future. St. Paul, M. & M. R. Co. v. Howard, 119 N. W. 1032, 23 S. D. 34.

ARTICLE 8.—RATE OF TAXATION AND LEVY.

§ 2148. Taxes to be levied in specific amounts. Rate, how determined. All county, township, town, city and school district taxes, except special taxes for local improvements, in cities or villages, or unless specially provided for by law, shall be levied or voted in specific amounts and the rate per centum shall be determined from the amount of property as equalized by the state board of equalization each year. The state tax shall be levied by the state board of equalization at its annual meeting in August of each year, and the rate of such tax shall be certified by the state auditor to each county auditor on or before the first day of September annually. In levying said tax the state board of equalization shall be limited by the amount necessary to raise for the purpose of meeting the appropriations made by the legislative assembly and the estimated general expenses of the state, as made by the auditor. Such levy shall be made in a specific amount, and the rate shall be determined by the state auditor; provided, that if the amount is greater than the rate prescribed in the constitution will raise, then the state auditor shall only certify the limited rate. The county taxes shall be levied by the county commissioners at the time of their meeting in July in each year. Such taxes shall be based upon an itemized statement of the county expenses for the ensuing year and a general statement of the outstanding indebtedness of the county, which statements shall be included in the published proceedings of said board, and no greater levy of county tax shall be upon the taxable property of any county than will equal the amount of such expense, plus five per cent of such amount, together with the amount of one year's interest upon, and ten per cent of the principal sum of its outstanding indebtedness. The taxes voted by incorporated cities, villages, townships or school districts shall be certified by the proper authorities to the county auditor on or before the twentieth day of July in each year. The rate per centum of all taxes, except the state tax and such other taxes, the rate of which may be fixed by law, shall be calculated and fixed by the county auditor, according to the limitations hereinafter prescribed; provided, that if any county, city, town or school district shall return a greater amount than the prescribed rate will raise, then the county auditor shall only extend such amount of tax as the limited rate will produce. Any city, village, town, township or school district officer required by law to report the amount of taxes to be levied for such city, town, township, village or school district, and neglecting or refusing to make such report within the time required by this section, shall be subject to a penalty of not less than twenty-five dollars for such refusal or neglect, to be recovered on complaint of the county auditor before any court of competent jurisdiction. [R. C. 1905, § 1538; 1897, ch. 126, § 50; R. C. 1899, § 1228.]

Tax upon roadbed, franchise, real estate, rolling stock and other railroad property tax upon personal property. Minn. St. P. & S. Ry. Co. v. Dickey County, 11 S. D. 107, 90 N. W. 260.

§ 2150. State and county tax. Rate. Road tax. Sinking fund. The rate of the general state tax shall not be more than four mills on the dollar valuation; and for ordinary county revenue, including the support of the poor, not more than eight mills on the dollar; and for roads and bridges, a poll tax of one dollar and a half, or one day's work, on every male person between the ages of twenty-one and fifty years; a bridge tax not to exceed two mills on the dollar, and a road tax not to exceed five mills on the dollar, valuation, to be paid in money, or in labor at the rate of one dollar and a half per day, at the option of the person taxed, and the certificate that the person named therein has actually performed eight hours' labor for each day's work so certified, shall be received by the county treasurer in discharge of said tax to the amount so certified; and a further tax of not to exceed two mills on the dollar upon all taxable property in the county for emergency purposes; for county sinking fund, such rate as may be fixed by any funding act passed by the legislative assembly, or in the absence of a provision in any such act, or in counties that shall have not funded their indebtedness, then such rate as, in the estimation of the board of county commissioners, will pay one year's interest on all the outstanding debts of the county, with ten per cent on the principal sum of such debts. [R. C. 1905, § 1539; 1897, ch. 126, § 51; R. C. 1899, § 1229; 1901, ch. 151.]

in an adjoining township; provided, further, that the amount of tax for road purposes shall not exceed eight mills, and for bridge purposes shall not exceed two mills, and that the levy of all township taxes shall be in the manner prescribed in section 2148, and that the township clerk shall notify the county auditor of all such levies as provided in section 4237; provided, further, that none of the provisions of this section shall be construed as conflicting with the provisions of article 9, chapter 19, of the political code [sections 2004-2034 herein]; provided, also, that the board of county commissioners shall have the same jurisdiction in relation to roads and bridges, and the same power to levy road taxes in the unorganized parts of counties, as the township supervisors now have in organized townships. [R. C. 1905, § 1540; 1883, sub-ch. 1, ch. 112, §§ 13, 101; 1895, ch. 91, § 3; R. C. 1899, §§ 2542, 2640, 2670; 1901, ch. 151, § 2; 1903, ch. 172.]

On right to raise money for highway purposes at annual town meeting, and disposition of fund illegally raised. Miner v. Clifton Twp., 30 S. D. 127, 137 N. W. 585.

§ 2152. Tax list made out by county auditor. Form. As soon as practicable after the taxes are levied, the county auditor shall make out the tax lists according to the prescribed form, and to correspond with the assessment districts of the county. The rate per cent necessary to raise the required amount of the various taxes shall be calculated on the assessed valuation of property as determined by the state board of equalization; but in calculating such rates, no rates shall be used resulting in any fraction of less than one-half of one-tenth of a mill; and in extending any tax whenever it amounts to the fractional part of a cent it shall be made one cent. The tax list shall also be made out to correspond with the assessment book, in reference to ownership and description of property, with columns for the valuation and for the various items of tax included in the total amount of all taxes set down opposite such description of property. The amount of special taxes shall be entered in the proper columns, but the general taxes may be shown by entering the rate per cent of each tax at the head of the proper columns without extending the same, in which case a schedule of the rates per cent of such taxes shall be made on the first page of each tax list; such tax lists shall also show in a separate column the years for which any piece or parcel has been sold for taxes, if the same has not been redeemed or deeded for such taxes. The county auditor shall on or before the first day of November in each year, make and transmit to the state auditor, in such form as the state auditor may prescribe, a complete abstract of the tax list of his county. [1911, ch. 112; R. C. 1905, § 1441; 1883, sub-ch. 2, ch. 112, § 31; 1887, ch. 158, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 1141.]

State of North Dakota, }
 County of } ss.:

I, auditor of county, state of North Dakota, hereby certify that the following is a correct list of the taxes levied on the real and personal property in the town (or district as the case may be) of for the year

Witness my hand and the official seal this day of 19...
 County Auditor.

§ 2154. Tax lists, when delivered to treasurer. The county auditor shall deliver the tax lists of the several districts of the county to the county treasurer on or before the first day of December in each year, taking his receipt therefor; and such list shall be full and sufficient authority for the county treasurer to receive and collect taxes therein levied. [R. C. 1905, § 1543; 1897, ch. 126, § 54; R. C. 1899, § 1232; 1903, ch. 164.]

ARTICLE 9.—THE COUNTY TREASURER AND HIS DUTIES.

§ 2155. Notice of rates of taxation and time for payment. Deputy treasurer. On receiving the tax lists from the county auditor, the treasurer shall give notice in one or more official newspapers of the county, once in each of three successive weeks, specifying particularly in said notice the rates of taxation for all general purposes, and the amounts raised for each specific purpose, also designating a day on which he or his deputy will attend at the place of holding elections, or at some other convenient place in each town or district, which day shall not be prior to the first day of January in each year, for the purpose of receiving such taxes, and the treasurer or his deputy shall attend, for the purpose aforesaid, on the day and at the place named in said notice. The county treasurer shall, if directed by the county commissioners, have duplicate tax lists made, at the expense of the county, for his use while collecting taxes away from the county seat; and he may appoint one or more deputies to assist him in the collection of taxes, and may take such bond as security from the person so appointed as he deems necessary for his indemnity, and shall in all cases be liable and accountable for the proceedings and misconduct of his deputies in office. [R. C. 1905, § 1544; 1897, ch. 126, § 55; R. C. 1899, § 1233.]

As to notice to taxpayer of tax proceedings. Beggs v. Paine, 15 N. D. 436, 109 N. W. 322.

§ 2156. County treasurer collector of taxes. The county treasurer shall be the receiver and collector of all taxes extended upon the tax lists of the county, whether levied for state, county, city, town, school, poor, bridge, road or other purposes, notwithstanding anything in the charter of any city, or town, or in any other act heretofore passed to the contrary, including the special taxes of local improvements in cities as provided for by law, and also of all fines, forfeitures or penalties received by any person or officer for the school fund or for the use of his county and he shall proceed to collect the same according to law, and place the same when collected to the credit of the proper funds; but this provision shall not be construed so as to include any fines or penalties accruing to any municipal corporation for the violation of its ordinances. All tax receipts issued by the county treasurer shall be numbered consecutively, commencing with number one on the first receipt issued for the taxes of any one year, and he shall not receipt for more than one year's taxes on the same property in one tax receipt, but shall keep a separate and distinct series of numbers of receipts issued for the taxes of each year, for which the same has been levied and assessed in this state. [R. C. 1905, § 1545; 1897, ch. 126, § 56; R. C. 1899, § 1234.]

County not authorized to retain from amounts collected as taxes for school district any portion of expenses incurred in making collection. Mineral School Dist. No. 10 v. Pennington County, 19 S. D. 602, 104 N. W. 270.

§ 2157. Tax receipts, what to specify. Numbered consecutively. Duplicates. The county treasurer, upon the payment of any tax, shall give to the person paying the same a receipt therefor, specifying therein the land, town or city lot, or other property on which said tax was levied, according to its description on the tax list, or in some other sufficient manner, and the year or years for which the tax was levied, and each year's tax shall be on a separate receipt and the receipts for each year shall be numbered from one upwards, until the tax list is returned to the auditor. Each receipt shall also specify the years for which any of the real estate described therein has been sold for taxes and not redeemed. The said receipt shall be made in duplicate, showing the name of the person, description of property, and the amount and date of payment; and the county treasurer shall return all such duplicate receipts, made by himself or deputies, to the auditor at the end of each day, who shall file and preserve them in his office, charging the treasurer with the amount thereof. [R. C. 1905, § 1546; 1897, ch. 126, § 57; R. C. 1899, § 1235.]

§ 2159. Treasurer to keep a cash book. The county treasurer is required to keep a cash book, in which he shall enter an account of all moneys by him received, specifying, in proper columns provided for that purpose, the date of the payment, the number of the receipt issued therefor, by whom paid, and the several items as the same appear on the tax list, and the amount paid in road orders and supervisor's receipts, each in a separate column, and the total amount for which the order or receipt was given in another column, and the treasurer shall keep his account of money received for and on account of taxes levied and assessed for any one year separate and distinct from those levied or assessed for any other year, and all entries in said cash book of moneys received for taxes shall be in the numerical order of the receipts issued therefor. [R. C. 1905, § 1548; R. C. 1899, § 1237.]

the date of their receipt and the name of the person from whom received. [R. C. 1905, § 1551; 1897, ch. 126, § 58; R. C. 1899, § 1240.]

City warrant upon general fund should be received by county treasurer in payment of city taxes. Western Town Lot Co. v. Lane, 7 S. D. 599, 65 N. W. 17.

§ 2163. Erroneous assessment, how and by whom corrected. If on the assessment roll or tax list there is any error in the name of the person assessed or taxed, the name may be changed and the tax collected from the person intended, if he is taxable and can be identified by the assessor or treasurer; and when the treasurer, after the tax list is committed to him, shall ascertain that any land or other property is omitted, he shall report the fact to the county auditor, who, upon being satisfied thereof, shall enter the same upon his assessment roll and assess the value, and the treasurer shall enter it upon the tax list and collect the tax as in other cases. [R. C. 1905, § 1552; R. C. 1899, § 1241.]

Assessment of real estate in name of another than owner does not render tax void. Hartzler v. Freeman, 12 N. D. 187, 96 N. W. 294.

ARTICLE 10.—TAX PAID BY MISTAKE.

§ 2164. Tax paid by mistake. Correction. When any tax upon land for a given year shall have been paid through error or mistake of the county treasurer or auditor or by reason of the mistake of the party so paying the same, the county commissioners, upon affidavit of the party paying said tax and sufficient showing thereon and upon the filing of a satisfactory bond in the penalty of three times the face of the tax to indemnify the county, and all parties interested, shall cause to be corrected such error or mistake and may make proper application of the tax payment according to the affidavit of the party paying said taxes, and the books in the office of the county treasurer and auditor shall be corrected by making proper notation in red ink. Provided, that the treasurer, upon making any such correction, shall immediately cause a written notice of the same to be served personally or by registered mail upon the record owner of the land upon which the tax payment was cancelled. [1911, ch. 296.]

ARTICLE 11.—DELINQUENCY, PENALTY AND LIEN OF TAXES, DISTRESS AND SALE.

County commissioners, sitting as board of county commissioners, have no power to reduce individual assessments except in special instances. Minot v. Amundson, 22 N. D. 236, 133 N. W. 551.

As to powers of board of county commissioners. Hagler v. Kelly, 14 N. D. 218, 103 N. W. 629.

County commissioners sitting as board of county commissioners have no power to reduce individual assessments except in special instances. Minot v. Amundson, 22 N. D. 236, 133 N. W. 551.

Fee owner of land not subject to taxation may recover money paid to redeem from tax sale, although sale was not declared void. Tisdale v. Ward County, 20 N. D. 401, 127 N. W. 512.

§ 2166. Delinquent personal property taxes. When due. Penalty. Distress. All personal property taxes shall become due on the first day of December in each and every year for which the tax was levied, and become delinquent on the first day of March next after they become due, and thereupon a penalty of five per cent shall attach and be charged upon all delinquent taxes, and thenceforth there shall be charged interest at the rate of one per cent per month on the original amount of the tax until the same is paid. The county treasurer shall, during the month of January preceding the time when such tax shall become delinquent, give notice of the fact by mailing to each person, firm or corporation, a written notice stating the amount of tax due from each person, firm or corporation, and the date when same shall become delinquent. On or before the first day of September in each year the county treasurer shall make out a list of the unpaid delinquent personal property taxes, in the same order as they appear on the tax list, and shall, on or before the fifteenth day of September thereafter, notify by mail each of the delinquents that unless such taxes are paid on or before the fifteenth day of October, such taxes will be placed in the hands of the sheriff for collection, and the county treasurer shall on said fifteenth day of October deliver such list of delinquent taxes to the sheriff of his county, who shall immediately proceed to collect all such delinquent personal property taxes, and if such taxes are not paid upon demand he shall distrain sufficient goods and chattels belonging to the person, firm or corporation charged with such taxes if found within the county, to pay the same, with the said penalty of five per cent and all accruing interest and costs, and shall immediately proceed to advertise the same by posting notices in three public places in the town or district where such property is taken, stating the time when, and the place where, such property shall be sold, and the amount of said delinquent tax, together with the penalty and accruing interest, which place of sale shall be at the residence or place of business of the person, firm or corporation whose goods have been distrained, or in case such person, firm or corporation has no residence or place of business within the town or district where such goods have been distrained, then at the place of sale of mortgaged chattel property within such town or district and no personal property shall be exempt from distraint and sale; and if the tax for which said property is distrained, together with the penalty and accrued interest and costs is not paid before the day appointed for such sale, which shall not be less than ten days after the taking of such property, such sheriff or his deputy shall proceed to sell such property at public vendue, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient to pay such taxes, penalty and costs of such distress and sale, and any surplus arising from said sale shall be disposed of as in case of sale of mortgaged personal property. On the first day of each month after receiving such list from the county treasurer such sheriff shall make out and file with the county treasurer a statement of the personal property tax collected by him, since the date of his last preceding statement, giving the name, town or district and post office address of each person, firm or corporation from whom collected, and the amount of the tax, including the penalty and interest collected from each, and at the same time turn over to the county treasurer the moneys collected as shown by such statement, and the treasurer shall issue receipts for the same as provided in section 2157, mailing such receipt to the person, firm or corporation entitled thereto. Such sheriff shall, at the time of filing such statement with the county treasurer, file a duplicate thereof with the county auditor, and shall on or before the first day of January next after receiving such list from the county treasurer file his annual statement of taxes collected as herein provided, together with the list of uncollected taxes as provided in section 2169; provided that all personal property taxes shall be a lien upon the property assessed from and after the date upon which assessment is made and it shall be the duty of the sheriff when any person to whom personal property shall have been assessed is, in his opinion, about to sell, barter or remove said property from the county, to collect such taxes at any time after the property shall have been assessed. The sheriff shall retain in his office the original delinquent tax list furnished him by the county treasurer, and it shall be his duty to collect at any time any taxes remaining uncanceled, unabated or unpaid, and on sending his notice for each succeeding year he shall include any unpaid balances together with interest, penalties and costs, with the new delinquent amount, and they shall be collected in the same manner as the current delinquent tax. [1911, ch. 300; 1909, ch. 197; R. C. 1905, § 1554; 1899, ch. 134; R. C. 1899, § 1243; 1903, ch. 134; 1905, ch. 145.]

Injunction against sale of property for illegal taxes. 69 Am. Dec. 198; 49 Am. Rep. 287; 23 Am. Rep. 622; 53 Am. Rep. 110.

§ 2167. Sheriffs shall file tax receipts. What to specify. Numbered consecutively. Triplicates. Every sheriff, upon the payment of any delinquent personal property tax collected by him or his deputy, shall give to the person paying the same a receipt therefor, specifying therein the name of the person paying the same, the year's tax, and the amount and date of payment; each year's tax shall be on a separate receipt, which receipt shall be numbered consecutively from one upwards; each receipt shall be made in triplicate showing the name of the person, year's tax, and the amount and date of payment; and the sheriff shall return all duplicate receipts made by himself or his deputy to the auditor at the end of each month and keep the triplicate receipts on file in his office; and the auditor shall carefully compare and check such duplicate receipts with the report filed with the county treasurer each month by the sheriff for the collection of said taxes and the auditor shall file and preserve them in his office and give to the sheriff a receipt therefor. [1911, ch. 274, § 1.]

§ 2169. List of uncollected taxes, how disposed of. If the sheriff is unable to collect any of the taxes appearing in the list of delinquent taxes delivered to him by the treasurer, he shall write on the margin opposite the name of each person against whom such tax is assessed the word "uncollected," and append to such list his affidavit, or the affidavit of his deputy intrusted with the collection thereof, stating that he has made diligent search and inquiry for goods and chattels out of which to make collection of the taxes so remaining uncollected, and is unable to make or collect the same; he shall also note on the margin of such list the place to which any delinquent taxpayer has moved, with the date of removal, if he can ascertain such facts, and shall on or before the first day of January following the receipt of such lists, deliver the same with the affidavit aforesaid to the county auditor. The county auditor shall exhibit such list to the board of county commissioners at its next meeting and the board shall thereupon examine and compare the same with the sheriff's return of taxes collected, to the auditor and treasurer, and may cancel on said list such taxes as they are satisfied cannot be collected, furnishing such lists of cancellation to the sheriff, who shall note on his list that such taxes have been cancelled, and it shall be the duty of the county auditor to certify to the state auditor the amount of state taxes so cancelled and the state auditor shall enter the same to the credit of the county accordingly. [R. C. 1905, § 1555; 1897, ch. 126, § 61; R. C. 1899, § 1244; 1903, ch. 134; 1905, ch. 145.]

§ 2170. Removal or disposal of personal property on which taxes are unpaid a misdemeanor. Any person who shall remove from the state or dispose of any personal property that has been assessed for the purpose of taxation while such person shall be owing any personal property taxes within the state shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor; provided, such property be so removed or disposed of with the intention of avoiding the payment of personal property taxes. [R. C. 1905, § 1556; 1905, ch. 144.]

See also section 2187.

§ 2171. Lien of state and county for personal taxes. The right of the state and each and every county thereof to enforce the collection of personal property taxes shall take and have precedence of any and all liens on or against personal property of a tax debtor; provided, that any person holding a lien on personal property of any tax debtor may demand and require the property of the tax debtor not covered by a lien to be first exhausted in the payment of such taxes. [R. C. 1905, § 1557; 1901, ch. 150.]

Preference created was right merely to extent of taxes assessed against particular property covered by lien and property included in same class and assessed with it as one indivisible item as disclosed by assessment list. Advance Thresher Co. v. Beck, 21 N. D. 55, 128 N. W. 315, Ann. Cas. 1913B, 517.

§ 2172. Delinquent personal taxes. Collection. Whenever it is deemed expedient by the board of county commissioners of any county to collect delinquent personal taxes by action, they shall have the power to institute such an action in the name of the county for and on behalf of the county. § 2173. Contract for collection. In any county where for any reason personal property taxes that have been delinquent more than one year remain unpaid, uncanceled or not put into personal property tax judgment, or in any county where delinquent taxes have been put into tax judgment, the commissioners of such county may contract with the sheriff of the county to pay him a percentage of such delinquent personal property taxes, or personal property tax judgments, as compensation for collecting the same, in lieu of or in addition to the compensation now provided by law. And such expense of collection shall be borne pro rata by the state, county, city, village, township or school district in which such tax is laid. [R. C. 1905, § 1559; 1901, ch. 164.]

§ 2174. Lien for delinquent personal taxes. After the county commissioners have cancelled so much of the delinquent taxes as they deem uncollectible as provided in the preceding section, the county auditor shall extend to and enter upon the tax list in the hands of the treasurer for the same year in an appropriate column or columns for remarks, opposite each description of real property belonging to any person owning such uncollected personal property tax, words showing the year for which the same remains due, and the principal sum of such tax, as for example, "personal tax, 1896, twelve dollars and seventy-eight cents." And when the delinquent afterwards acquires any real property in the county such delinquent taxes may be entered in like manner upon any subsequent tax list; and from the time of such entry the delinquent taxes so entered shall become a lien on any real property of the delinquent against which they are so entered in the same manner and to the same extent as the taxes upon such real property, and collection thereof shall be enforced accordingly by sale of the lands against which they are so entered, or so much thereof as may be necessary, at the time when the lands are sold for delinquent taxes, and in the same manner as if originally charged against such lands. [R. C. 1905, § 1560; 1897, ch. 126, § 62; R. C. 1899, § 1245.]

for which they were levied, and any refusal or neglect on the part of the sheriff to perform the duties herein provided, whereby he fails to collect such delinquent taxes, shall be deemed malfeasance in office and he shall be liable to the county for the whole amount of tax, penalty and interest that he may neglect or refuse to collect. A failure of an assessor to return his assessment to the county auditor, or of the county auditor to report the changes made therein to the state auditor, or to return to the state auditor an abstract of the tax lists of his county, or to deliver said lists to the county treasurer, or a failure of the treasurer to return the same to the county auditor at the time or times specified in this article, or a failure on the part of the treasurer to do any of the things prescribed in section 2155 and section 2166, or a failure on the part of the sheriff to make an affidavit prescribed by section 2169, or to return his list at the time therein prescribed, or to make collection of any taxes appearing thereon, or a failure on the part of any officer to do any act at the particular time specified in this chapter, shall in no manner invalidate any tax levy or any certificate of tax sale or tax deed. And when any notice is required to be published in a newspaper by the provisions of this article, if the same is printed in a supplement mailed and distributed with and as a part of the newspaper receiving the same for publication, such publication shall be deemed sufficient. [R. C. 1905, § 1561; 1897, ch. 126, § 63; R. C. 1899, § 1246.]

§ 2176. Removal of delinquent taxpayer to another county. Duty of auditor. In case of the removal of any delinquent taxpayer from the county in which his personal property was taxed to any other county in the state, it shall be the duty of the assessor to immediately make proper effort to ascertain the place of his destination and report the same to the county auditor, and thereupon it shall be his duty to make out and forward to the clerk of the district court of any county in this state to which any delinquent taxpayer may have removed, a statement of the amount of such delinquent taxes, including all penalties, interest and costs that may have attached, specifying the value of property on which said taxes were levied. [R. C. 1905, § 1562; 1897, ch. 126, § 64; R. C. 1899, § 1247.]

§ 2177. Manner of collecting from such person. On receipt of any such statement or account, the clerk of the court receiving the same shall issue his warrant to the sheriff of his county, and the sheriff shall immediately proceed to collect the same of the person so charged with said taxes and per centum, together with a fee of twenty-five cents for each warrant so issued; which sum, when collected, shall be paid to the clerk as his fee for issuing the same, and all taxes thus collected shall be by him remitted to the treasurer of the county to which said taxes belong; and at the same time he shall return the original statement or account to the auditor of the county from which it was received, stating the amount of his collections, and if any taxes remain unpaid, the reason why said taxes could not be collected, certifying in his official capacity to the same; and the auditor shall charge the treasurer to whom such remittance is made with the amount thereof, and cancel said taxes from the list; provided, that in all cases of delinquent taxes collected by the sheriff receipts shall be issued to him and payment shall be made in the manner provided in section 2157. [R. C. 1905, § 1563; 1897, ch. 126, § 65; R. C. 1899, § 1248.]

§ 2178. Fees of sheriff. The sheriff or his deputy shall be allowed the same fees for making distress and sale of goods and chattels, for the payment of taxes, as are allowed by law for making levy and sale of property on execution; provided, however, that the traveling fees shall be five cents a mile for each mile actually and necessarily traveled, and that in no case shall the mileage herein provided for be charged more than once under any pretext whatever, which fees shall be added to any tax and collected by the sheriff, and it shall be the duty of the sheriff or his deputy to furnish the county commissioners, together with his bill for such services, a full and complete description of his route traveled, and in no case shall mileage be charged more than once from the county seat of the county in which the services required in this article are performed; provided, further, however, that when the sheriff collects delinquent personal tax without distress and sale he shall receive a fee of one dollar on such collection, to be paid by the delinquent. [R. C. 1905, § 1564; 1897, ch. 126, § 66; R. C. 1899, § 1249; 1903, ch. 170.]

§ 2179. Payment of taxes after judgment. Duty of treasurer. Upon payment to the county treasurer of any personal property tax for which judgment has been obtained, the treasurer shall deliver a certificate of the fact of such payment to the clerk of the court, who shall satisfy the judgment upon the margin of the record thereof, by stating the date of payment, and number of the receipt given therefor, and file such certificate. [R. C. 1905, § 1565; 1897, ch. 126, § 67; R. C. 1899, § 1250.]

Distress may be made without actual seizure of bulky property. Elevator Co. v. Bottineau County, 9 N. D. 346, 83 N. W. 212.

§ 2181. Accounts to be kept by auditor and treasurer with township. The county auditor and county treasurer shall keep accounts with the state and county, and with each township, city, incorporated village and school district in the county; and immediately after the settlement as provided in the preceding section they shall credit the collections to the proper funds; and upon application of any town, city, village or school district treasurer, the auditor shall give him an order on the county treasurer for the amount due such township, city, village or school district, and shall charge them respectively with the amount of such order; and at the same time shall notify the clerk of each township, city, village or school district of the issuance of such order; provided, that the county auditor shall not issue his order as in this section provided until the bond of the person applying for such order shall have been filed as required by law. [R. C. 1905, § 1567; 1897, ch. 126, § 69; R. C. 1899, § 1252.]

§ 2182. When treasurer shall pay over the funds collected. The county treasurer shall immediately after each settlement pay over to the treasurer of the state, upon warrant of the state auditor, and to any municipal corporation or organized township, or any body politic, on the order of the county auditor, all moneys received by him arising from taxes levied and collected, belonging to the state, or to such municipal corporation or organized township or school district. If any county treasurer shall willfully and negligently fail to settle with the state treasurer at the times and in the manner prescribed by law, he shall forfeit to the use of the state the sum of five hundred dollars, which sum may be recovered of him or his sureties on suit brought by the state treasurer in the name of the state, in any court in this state having jurisdiction; or, in case of failure of the state treasurer to bring such suit, then any citizen of the state may bring the same. [R. C. 1905, § 1568; 1897, ch. 126, § 70; R. C. 1899, § 1253.]

County not authorized to retain from amounts collected as taxes for school district any portion of expenses incurred in making collection. Mineral School Dist. No. 10 v. Pennington County, 19 S. D. 602, 104 N. W. 270.

state purposes, excepting such amounts as are certified to be unavailable, double or erroneous assessments as hereinafter provided. If any county treasurer proves to be a defaulter to any amount of state revenue, such amount shall be made up to the state within the next three coming years by additional levies in such manner in annual amounts as the board of commissioners may direct. In such case the county can have recourse to the official bond of the treasurer for indemnity. [R. C. 1905, § 1569; R. C. 1895, §§ 1248, 1249; R. C. 1899, § 1254.]

§ 2184. County treasurer's final settlement, how made. When the county treasurer goes out of office, he shall make a full and complete settlement with the board of commissioners, and deliver up all books, papers, moneys and all other property pertaining to the office to his successor, taking his receipt therefor. The board of commissioners shall make a statement so far as state dues are concerned to the state treasurer, showing all charges against the treasurer during his term of office, and all credits made, the delinquent taxes and other unfinished business charged over to his successor, showing to what year and to what account the amount so paid over belongs. They shall also see that the books of the treasurer are correctly balanced before passing into the possession and control of the treasurer-elect. They shall witness and attest the actual transfer and delivery of accounts, books, vouchers and all funds by any outgoing treasurer to his successor in office, whether the treasurer is succeeded by himself or another; and they shall cause to be entered of record their full compliance with the requirements of this section. [R. C. 1905, § 1570; 1895, § 1254; R. C. 1899, § 1255.]

Special assessments bear simple interest at 7 per cent per annum from time that they must be paid. Hackney v. Elliott, 23 N. D. 373, 137 N. W. 433.

§ 2186. Taxes a perpetual lien. Vendor and vendee. Taxes upon real property are hereby made a perpetual paramount lien thereupon against all persons and bodies corporate, except the United States and the state, and taxes due from any person upon personal property shall be a lien upon any and all real and personal property owned by him at the time the tax became due, or which may be subsequently acquired by him, and the title to any of which personal property so owned or subsequently acquired remains in him at the time of the distraint. All taxes shall, as between vendor and purchaser, become a lien upon real estate on and after the first day of December in each year. [R. C. 1905, § 1572; 1897, ch. 126, § 72; R. C. 1899, § 1257.]

Lien for personal property taxes not invalid because county auditor filed no return showing them uncollectible out of personal property. Danforth v. McCook County, 11 S. D. 258, 76 N. W. 940, 74 Am. St. Rep. 808.

The lien of a county not lost by bidding in land at tax sale. Rochford v. Fleming, 10 S. D. 24, 71 N. W. 317.

Lien for personal taxes is superior to subsequent mortgage. Iowa Land Co. v. Douglas County, 8 S. D. 491, 67 N. W. 52.

Holder of tax certificates, paying taxes, acquires lien on building removed from lot after levy and before payment of tax by owner. Easton v. Crammer, 19 S. D. 224, 102 N. W. 944.

Owner of tax sale certificates may pay subsequent delinquent general taxes, without paying subsequent special assessments, and receipts for such taxes constitute additional lien. State ex rel. Moore v. Furstenau, 20 N. D. 540, 129 N. W. 81.

Lien upon tax debtor's property was not preferential. Advance Thresher Co. v. Beck, 21 N. D. 55, 128 N. W. 315, Ann. Cas. 1913B, 517.

§ 2187. Shipment of emigrant movables. Tax receipt required. That it shall be the duty of the agent of any transportation company, or common carrier within and operating in the state of North Dakota, to require of the shipper of, or person or persons offering for shipment any emigrant movables, live stock or household goods, in weight more than one thousand pounds, that the party or parties offering such shipment for transportation shall before the same is received for shipment deposit with the agent of such transportation company the paid tax receipt for the current year in which such shipment is offered for transportation. [1911, ch. 250.]

An emergency section attached to the foregoing section in Laws 1911 recites that "there now being no law by which shipment of emigrant movables and live stock on which taxes are due, can be prevented."

See, however, the threat in section 2170.

"Personal taxes of A. B. for (giving the year or years) unpaid." And, after comparing the tax lists with his duplicate receipts on file in the county auditor's office, he shall, at the July meeting of the board of county commissioners, exhibit such lists to the board and the county auditor, and the auditor shall make the entries concerning personal taxes as prescribed by section 2174 without regarding any payment of taxes on such real property. On the first day in December in each year the treasurer shall return the tax lists of the preceding year to the county auditor, and thereafter any person desiring to pay his delinquent taxes charged on said lists may pay the same to the treasurer at any time before the sale of the real property charged therewith, as in this chapter prescribed, on first obtaining from the auditor a statement of the amount due, including penalties and costs of advertising. [1913, ch. 220, § 1; R. C. 1905, § 1573; 1897, ch. 126, § 73; R. C. 1899, § 1258.]

ARTICLE 12.— TAX SALE.

§ 2189. Auditor's notice of sale; publisher thereof must give bond. The county auditor, under the direction of the board of county commissioners, or a majority thereof, shall give notice of said sale in a legal newspaper in said county, having at least three hundred bona fide subscribers. In case no newspaper published in the county has three hundred bona fide subscribers, then such tax list shall be published in a legal newspaper in the county to be selected by the board of county commissioners. Each legal newspaper in said county desiring to be considered by the board of county commissioners as an applicant for the publication of the tax list of the current year, shall under oath state the average number of such paper's bona fide subscribers for the year last past, not including exchanges, free subscribers and sample copies, and shall, when requested so to do by the board of county commissioners, submit the subscription book or books of such paper to the board of county commissioners as proof of such bona fide subscription list. The newspaper in which said delinquent tax sale notice is to be printed shall be selected at the regular October meeting of each year. Said delinquent tax sale notice shall be printed for the three successive weeks immediately preceding the tax sale. If there be no newspaper printed in the county the county auditor shall give notice of such delinquent tax sale by a written or printed notice posted on the door of the court house or the building in which terms of court are usually held, or the usual place of meeting of the board of county commissioners. In case the newspaper designated to print the tax list has a daily edition, then such delinquent tax list shall be published in one issue of the daily edition and in two consecutive issues of the weekly edition of the same paper. The publisher or publishers of the newspaper selected by the board of county commissioners for the publication of said tax list shall give bond to the county in the sum to be fixed by the board of county commissioners of not less than five hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, to be approved by the board of county commissioners, or a majority thereof, for the correct and legal publication of such tax list in conformity with a copy furnished by the county auditor. Said notice shall contain the information that all lands on which the taxes of the preceding year (describing the same) remaining unpaid, shall be sold and the time and place of sale shall be the second Tuesday in December following. Such notice of delinquent tax sale shall contain a list of the lands to be sold, the name of the owner, as the records appear, and the amount of taxes and penalty due, to which the auditor shall add to each description of land so advertised the sum of twenty-five cents, and for each description of town lot the sum of ten cents, to defray the expenses of advertising. The cost of such advertising shall be paid by the county commissioners at the expiration of the sale upon the affidavit of the publisher; provided, that in no case shall the property so advertised be charged for such advertising an amount exceeding the sum actually paid for the same. To give further notice to the public of such tax sale, it shall be the duty of the county treasurer to mail to each owner, as the records appear, whose lands or lots are to be sold, a notice giving a legal description of the land offered for sale, said notice to be mailed not earlier than October first, nor later than October fifteenth, prior to date of sale. Provided, further, that in case the auditor's copy furnished to the publisher of the delinquent tax lists contains matter other than description of the land to be sold and total and amount due thereon, including penalty, interest and costs, which shall be printed, in one sum total, then the extra space required to print the same shall be paid for by the county at the rate required for other legal printing. [1913, ch. 220, § 2; 1911, ch. 301; 1909, ch. 196; R. C. 1905, § 1574; 1897, ch. 126, § 74; R. C. 1899, § 1259.]

Publication must be for twenty-one days preceding the sale. Finlayson v. Peterson, 5 N. D. 587, 67 N. W. 953; Dever v. Cornwell, 10 N. D. 123, 86 N. W. 227.

§ 2190. Penalty and interest, disposition of. All penalty and interest collected on taxes shall belong to the county and become a part of the general fund, or such other fund as the county commissioners may direct; except the penalty and interest collected on taxes and parts of taxes and special assessments due to organized townships and incorporated villages, towns and cities and school districts therein and special assessments made for drains and other improvements. Such penalties and interest shall be paid to the township, village, town, city or school district therein, or drainage or other improvement fund for which was levied the tax or special assessment upon which the penalty and interest is collected. [1911, ch. 298; R. C. 1905, § 1575; 1899, ch. 4; R. C. 1899, § 1260.]

Special assessments bear simple interest at seven per cent per annum from time the same should be paid. Hackney v. Elliott, 23 N. D. 373, 137 N. W. 433.

All penalties and interest, except on special assessments, belong to the county collecting them. Fargo v. Ross, 11 N. D. 369, 92 N. W. 449.

Special assessments are not taxes within meaning of general tax provisions, and penalty or interest collected on special assessments does not belong to county. State ex rel. Viking Twp. v. Mikkelsen, 24 N. D. 175, 139 N. W. 525.

Prior to this amendment no authority existed in absence of sale, for collection of any interest or penalty on special drain assessments. Hackney v. Elliott, 23 N. D. 373, 137 N. W. 433; State ex rel. Viking Twp. v. Mikkelsen, 24 N. D. 175, 139 N. W. 525.

penalty and costs, the amount sold for, date of sale, to whom sold, number of the certificate, to whom assigned, date and amount of redemption (if redeemed), and by whom redeemed. All lists, books and records pertaining to tax matters shall be turned over to the county auditor for the purposes of this chapter, who shall have authority to make redemptions and assignments of tax sale certificates and tax deeds thereon according to law. [R. C. 1905, § 1580; 1897, ch. 126, § 80; R. C. 1899, § 1265.]

§ 2196. Who may not purchase. Effect of purchase by owner. Any person except county auditors, county treasurers, and each of their deputies or clerks, may become the purchaser at such sale. If the owner purchase, the sale shall have the effect to pass to him (subject to redemption as herein provided) every right, title and interest of any and every person, company or corporation, free from any claim, lien or incumbrance, as the owner so purchasing may be legally or equitably bound to protect against such sale, or the taxes for which such sale was made; and no such sale of real estate for taxes shall be considered invalid on account of the same having been charged in any other name than that of the rightful owner; provided, that nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to prevent any officer or his deputy or clerk from becoming the purchaser at such sale of any lands of which he may be the owner, or upon which he may have a lien; provided, further, that no county auditor, county treasurer, their deputies or clerks, shall act as agent or attorney for the purchasers at such sale. § 2197. Redemption of real estate. If at said sale any piece or parcel of land shall be sold to a purchaser, the same may be redeemed at any time within three years from the date of sale by any person or corporation having an interest therein who shall pay into the treasury of the county for the credit of the person thereto entitled, the amount paid by the purchaser at the time of sale, with a penalty of five per cent and interest thereon at the rate specified in such certificate of sale together with all amounts of subsequent taxes, penalties and interest paid by the holder of such certificate of sale up to the date of redemption with interest at the rate of one per cent per month from the date of payment of such subsequent tax, which date of payment shall not be prior to the day upon which such subsequent tax became delinquent. In case any piece or parcel of land was not sold for want of bidders, then any person or corporation having an interest therein shall have the same right of redemption from the county, and on the same terms, as from a purchaser at a tax sale. The county auditor shall certify to the amount due upon such redemption, and on payment of the same to the county treasurer, he shall make duplicate receipts for the certified amount, describing the property redeemed, one of which shall be filed with the county auditor, which shall have the effect to annul the sale. If the amount so paid for the purpose of redemption be less than required by law it shall not invalidate such redemption, but the county auditor shall be liable for the deficiency to the person entitled thereto. Minors, insane persons or persons in captivity, or in any country with which the United States is at war, having an estate in, or liens on lands sold for taxes, may redeem the same within three years after such disability ceases; but in such cases the right to redeem must be established in a suit for that purpose, brought against the party holding the title under sale. Any person who has or claims an interest in, or lien upon, any undivided estate in any piece or parcel of land sold, may redeem such undivided estate by paying into the treasury a proportionate part of the amount required to redeem the whole and in such case the certificate of redemption shall express the estate or interest redeemed. [1909, ch. 199; R. C. 1905, § 1582; 1897, ch. 126, §§ 83-85; 1899, ch. 136; R. C. 1899, § 1267; 1905, ch. 158.]

§ 2199. Rights of purchaser when land is not redeemed. The purchaser of any piece or parcel of land shall, if there be no redemption, be entitled to the possession, rents and profits at the end of three years from the date of the certificate, and if on demand of such purchaser to the party or parties in possession such party or parties refuse or neglect to render such possession, such party or parties may be proceeded against as parties holding over after the determination of his or their estate, which proceedings may be instituted and prosecuted pursuant to the provisions of law in such case made and provided; provided, however, that all rights of such purchaser and his assigns to possession, title or lien of any kind of, to or upon such piece or parcel of land, shall cease absolutely and be deemed forfeited and extinguished (and the auditor shall cancel such lien from his records), unless possession thereof be taken by him or them, or proceedings for such possession be by him or them instituted or deed therefor be executed and delivered to him or them by the proper officer, prior to the expiration of six years from and after the date of such certificate, or in case of sales heretofore made and where five years or more have already elapsed since the date of such certificate, then prior to the expiration of one year after the taking effect of this section. § 2200. Void sales. Void taxes. Repayment. When any sale of land for taxes is adjudged to be void, the judgment shall state the reason why it is void, and in all such cases and in cases where, by mistake or wrongful act of the county treasurer or auditor, land has been sold upon which no taxes were due, and in cases where taxes have been or may be paid on lands not subject to taxation, or on lands where subsequent to payment the entry has been or may be cancelled, the money so paid and all subsequent taxes, penalties and costs which have been or which may be paid, shall be refunded, with interest at seven per cent per annum from the date of payment to the person making such payment, his heirs or assigns and the same shall be refunded out of the county treasury to which such money was paid, on an order from the county auditor, and a pro rata share of the money so refunded shall be charged to the state and to any incorporated city, town, village or school corporation which may have received any part of such void tax. Whenever any sale of land or certificate or tax deed made or delivered under this chapter is adjudged to be void, unless the judgment declares the tax to be illegal, the tax and all subsequent taxes returned to the purchaser or assignee, shall remain and be a lien upon the land sold, and the county auditor shall advertise and resell the same at the next succeeding annual sale for the full amount of taxes, penalties and costs due thereon. All lands which may have been or may be bid in for the state or any county in the state by virtue of the provisions of law, may be disposed of by the county auditor at public or private sale as the county commissioners may direct, subject to such rules and restrictions as they may prescribe. § 2202. Sale of property bid in for the county. All pieces or parcels of real property bid in for the county under the provisions of this chapter, and not redeemed or assigned within three years from the date of the certificate of sale, shall, upon the giving of the required notice of expiration of redemption, become the absolute property of the county and may be disposed of by the county auditor at public or private sale, as the county commissioners may direct, subject to such rules and restrictions as they may prescribe. The county auditor shall execute deeds for all property so sold to the purchasers thereof, in the same manner and with like effect as upon other certificates of purchase of tax sale, and the proceeds of such sale shall be paid into the county treasury, and the amounts due the state, or any city, township, incorporated village or school district from the taxes for which the same were sold, or their just proportion thereof, shall be apportioned and placed to the credit of the state, city, township, incorporated village or school corporation entitled thereto, and the remainder shall go into the general fund of the county. Any person having an interest or lien upon any piece or parcel of forfeited land may redeem the same any time after forfeiture, and before the sale thereof, by paying the amount due thereon. [R. C. 1905, § 1587; 1897, ch. 126, § 89; R. C. 1899, § 1271; 1903, ch. 168.]

§ 2203. Property bid in for the county. Assignment form. At any time after any piece or parcel of land shall have been bid in for the county, and before such piece or parcel of land shall become forfeited to the county, and while such tract or parcel of land shall remain unredeemed, the county auditor may assign and convey the same and all the right of the county in such piece or parcel of land acquired at such sale, to any person (except the county auditor, county treasurer, their deputies and clerks) who shall pay the amount for which the same shall have been bid in, and the amount of all subsequent delinquent taxes, penalties, interest and costs upon the same; and shall execute to such persons a certificate of conveyance for each piece or parcel which may be substantially in the following form:

I, auditor of the county of, state of North Dakota, do hereby certify that at the sale of real estate for the delinquent taxes thereon for the county of and state aforesaid, which sale was held at the in said county of on the day of A. D. 19.... for the taxes of the year, the following described piece or parcel of land situate in said county of, state of North Dakota, to wit: (insert description) was offered for sale to the highest bidder above the amount for which the same was subject to be sold; and no one bidding upon such offer an amount equal to that for which the said piece or parcel was subject to be sold, the same was then bid in for the county at such amount, being the sum of and the same still remaining unredeemed, and on this day having paid into the treasury of said county the amount for which the same was bid in, and all subsequent taxes, penalties, interest and costs, amounting in all to dollars; therefore, in consideration thereof, and pursuant to law, I do hereby assign and convey all the right, title and interest of said county to said piece or parcel of land acquired therein at said sale to the said his heirs and assigns, subject to redemption as provided by law.

And I further certify that unless redemption is made of said real estate in the manner provided by law, the said or assigns will be entitled to a deed therefor on and after the expiration of the time for redemption, as provided by law, and upon the surrender of this certificate. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this day of 19....

ARTICLE 13.—TAX DEED.

“Whereas, did on the day of, A. D., 19.., produce to the undersigned,, county auditor of the county of, in the state of North Dakota, a certificate of purchase, in writing, bearing the date of the day of, A. D., 19.., signed by, who at the last mentioned date was county auditor of said county, from which it appears that did on the day of A. D., 19.., purchase at public auction at the office of the county auditor (or the usual place of holding court in the same building), the tract, parcel or lot of land lastly in this indenture described, and which lot was struck off and sold to for the sum of dollars, being the total amount of taxes, penalties and costs charged against said land, including any personal taxes specified in the lists and in the advertisement, constituting a lien thereon for the year (or years), 19...., to wit: (Herein insert the description of the land offered for sale); and that the said did at the time and place of said public auction, as a part of his bid, agree to accept the lowest rate of interest on the amount of such taxes, penalties and costs so paid by him, to wit: The rate of per cent per annum, and it appearing that the said is the legal owner of the said certificate of purchase, and the time fixed by law for redeeming the land herein described having now expired and proof of legal notice of expiration of the period of redemption having been filed in the office of the county auditor prior to the maturity of such certificate as provided by law, and said land not having been redeemed from such purchase pursuant to law, and the said having demanded a deed for the tract of land mentioned in said certificate; and it appearing that said lands were legally liable for taxation, and had been duly assessed and properly charged on the tax book or duplicate for the year (or years), A. D., 19.., and that said lands had been legally advertised for taxes and were sold on the day of A. D., 19.., to the said

Now, therefore, this indenture, made this day of A. D., 19.., between the state of North Dakota, by, as county auditor of the said county, party of the first part, and the said, party of the second part:

WITNESSETH, That the said party of the first part, for and in consideration of the premises and the sum of one (1) dollar, in hand paid, has granted, bargained and sold and by these presents does grant, bargain, sell and convey unto the said party of the second part, heirs and assigns, forever, the tract or parcel of land mentioned in said certificate, and described as follows, to wit: in county, in the state of North Dakota.

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD SAID mentioned tract or parcel of land, with the appurtenances thereto belonging, to the said party of the second part,, heirs and assigns, forever, in as full and ample manner as the said county auditor of said county is empowered by law to sell the same.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, the said, as county auditor of the said county of, has hereunto set his hand and seal of the said county, on the day and year aforesaid.

(Seal.)
 County Auditor of

Attest: (Seal.)

Which deed shall be acknowledged by said county auditor before some one authorized by law to take acknowledgments of deeds, for which said deed said county auditor shall be entitled to a charge of fifty cents, to be paid by the grantee in such deed. In case the land is bid in for the county and the certificate assigned under the provisions of section 1588 of the Revised Codes of North Dakota for 1905 [section 2203 herein], the language of such deed inappropriate to such sales shall be stricken out and the following inserted in lieu thereof:

“ Offer for sale to the bidder who agreed to accept the lowest rate of interest on the amount of such taxes, penalties and costs so paid, the following described tract or parcel of real property (insert description), which property was returned delinquent for the nonpayment of taxes for the year 19.., amounting to dollars, including interest and penalty thereon and the costs charged against said land including personal property taxes specified in the list and in the advertisement constituting the lien thereon, for the year (or years) 19...., and no one bidding upon such offer an amount equal to that for which said piece or parcel of land was subject to be sold, the same was bid in for the county. And it appearing by said certificate that the right, title and interest of the county, in said tract or parcel of land acquired therein at said sale was on the day of, 19... assigned to for the sum of dollars, being the amount due thereon at that time.”

Which deed shall be acknowledged as aforesaid. In case the certificate of purchase is assigned by the purchaser then a statement shall be inserted in such tax deed briefly describing each assignment of such certificate, which may be in substantially the following or other equivalent form:

“And which said certificate of purchase issued to said, purchaser, at said tax sale and the right, title and interest of the said, purchaser, in said tract or parcel of land acquired therein at said sale was on the day of, A. D., 19..., assigned to” Which said deed shall be acknowledged as aforesaid. [1913, ch. 281; R. C. 1905, § 1591; 1899, ch. 155; R. C. 1899, § 1275.]

An emergency section attached to the foregoing in Laws 1913 recites that the supreme court of the state has held that deeds issued in the form prescribed by R. C. 1905, § 1591 — for which the foregoing section is substituted — are invalid.

Statutory form of tax deed must be substantially pursued. Rector & Wilhelmy v. Maloney, 15 S. D. 271, 88 N. W. 575.

Tax deed void upon its face may constitute color of title. Parker v. Vinson, 11 S. D. 381, 77 N. W. 1023.

Deed reciting a sale at a time legally impossible and that two town lots were sold as one parcel is void on its face. Salmer v. Lathrop, 10 S. D. 216, 72 N. W. 570.

Tax deed regularly issued cuts off delinquent taxes for prior years. Emmons County v. Bennett, 9 N. D. 131, 81 N. W. 22.

Tax deed cuts off all interest under prior tax deed. Meldahl v. Dobbin, 8 N. D. 115, 77 N. W. 280.

Treasurer cannot sell and deed part of city lot which was assessed in solido. Roberts v. Bank, 8 N. D. 504, 79 N. W. 1049.

Recitals in tax deed cannot be controverted although they show that sale was made in contravention of later statutes. Reckitt v. Knight, 16 S. D. 395, 92 N. W. 1077.

Tax deed must show that entire tract was sold to one offering to pay taxes, etc., at lowest rate of interest bid. King v. Lane, 21 S. D. 101, 110 N. W. 37.

Tax deed regular on its face is prima facie evidence that proper notice had been given and served. Bandow v. Wolven, 23 S. D. 124, 120 N. W. 881.

Validity of tax deed unaffected by omission of seal therefrom. Northwestern Mortg. Trust Co. v. Levtzow, 23 S. D. 562, 122 N. W. 600.

Variance in description between tax deed and assessment record makes tax deed void. Sheets v. Paine, 10 N. D. 103, 80 N. W. 118.

In equity action the absence of assessor's affidavit from assessment roll does not invalidate sale or levy. Fatal in law action. Douglas v. Fargo, 13 N. D. 467, 101 N. W. 919.

To cancel and set aside tax sale and levy in equity, complaint must show tender. Legal portion of tax must be tendered as condition to equitable relief. Idem, 13 N. D. 467, 101 N. W. 919.

Separate parcels sold to same person may be included in one deed. Bennett v. Darling, 15 S. D. 1, 86 N. W. 751.

Including property described in different certificates of sale in one tax deed does not show that property was sold together for gross sum. Cornelius v. Ferguson, 17 S. D. 481, 97 N. W. 388.

Provision for tax deed to “assigns” includes executors. Blakemore v. Cooper, 15 N. D. 5, 4 L.R.A.(N.S.) 1074, 125 Am. St. Rep. 574, 106 N. W. 566.

Recital in tax deed that purchaser bid full amount of taxes and recital as to rate of interest were not essential to validity of tax deed. Sobek v. Bidwell, 24 S. D. 469, 124 N. W. 431.

Recital in tax deed that property was “duly assessed” as effectually establishes the fact as would verbal evidence of assessor or county auditor. Peters v. Lohr, 24 S. D. 605, 124 N. W. 853.

§ 2207. County auditor to keep tax deed record. It shall be the duty of the county auditor to keep a record to be known as the "tax deed record," in which the county auditor shall record at length all tax certificates as they may be presented for tax deed, the notice of expiration of the time for redemption issued thereon, and the return of such service of the notice of the expiration of the time for redemption as may be made. [R. C. 1905, § 1592; 1905, ch. 157, § 1.]

§ 2208. Certified copy prima facie evidence. A certified copy of said record, or any part thereof, under the hand and seal of the county auditor, shall be prima facie evidence of the matters and things therein contained in the courts of North Dakota. [R. C. 1905, § 1593; 1905, ch. 157, § 2.]

§ 2209. Fees of auditor. For services of and recording these instruments the auditor shall be entitled to receive from the applicant for such deed the same fees as are allowed by law to the register of deeds for placing instruments of record. [R. C. 1905, § 1594; 1905, ch. 157, § 3.]

§ 2210. Taxes paid by occupant or tenant. When any tax on any real estate is paid by or collected of any occupant or tenant, or any other person, which, by agreement or otherwise, ought to have been paid by the owner, lessor or other party in interest, such occupant, tenant or other person may recover by action the amount which such owner, lessor or party in interest ought to have paid, with interest thereon at the rate of twelve per cent per annum, or may retain the same for any rent due and accruing from him to such owner or lessor for real estate on which such tax is so paid, and the same shall, until paid, constitute a lien upon said real estate. [R. C. 1905, § 1595; 1897, ch. 126, § 93; R. C. 1899, § 1276.]

Right of purchaser of property to recover the amount he has paid to relieve land from tax lien, from one who should have paid the same, but with whom he had no contractual relationship. 22 L.R.A. (N.S.) 562.

§ 2211. Taxes paid by mortgagees or others having liens. Any person who has a lien by mortgage or otherwise upon any real property that has been sold for taxes or on which the taxes have not been paid, may redeem from such sale, or may pay such taxes and the interest, penalty and costs thereon, and the receipt of the county treasurer or the certificate of redemption, as the case may be, shall constitute an additional lien on such land to the amount therein stated, and the amount so paid and the interest thereon at the rate specified in the mortgage or other instrument, shall be collected with, as part of, and in the same manner as the amount secured by the original lien. [R. C. 1905, § 1596; 1897, ch. 126, § 94; R. C. 1899, § 1277.]

Owner of tax sale certificates may pay subsequent delinquent general taxes without paying subsequent special assessments, and receipts for such taxes constitute additional lien. State ex rel. Moore v. Furstenuau, 20 N. D. 540, 129 N. W. 81.

§ 2212. Duty of county auditor. When any deed, patent or final decree of distribution is presented to the county auditor for transfer he shall ascertain from the books and records in the office of the county treasurer if there are any current taxes due on the land described therein, or any special assessment due thereon; he shall also ascertain from the books and records in the auditor's office if there be delinquent taxes on the said land described within, or special assessments due thereon, or if it has been sold for taxes, and if there are current taxes, delinquent taxes or special assessments due or installments of special assessments due, he shall certify to the same, and when the receipt of the county treasurer shall be produced for the said current taxes, delinquent taxes or special assessments or installments of special assessments and for any other current or delinquent taxes, or special assessment or installments of special assessments that may be in the hands of the county treasurer or county auditor for collection, the county auditor shall enter on every deed, patent or final decree of distribution of real property so transferred, over his official signature, "taxes and special assessments or installments of special assessments, paid and transfer entered," or if the land described has been sold for taxes, "paid by sale of the land described within," or if it is an instrument entitled to record without regard to taxes, "transfer entered," and unless such entry is made upon any deed, patent or final decree of distribution, the register of deeds shall refuse to receive or record the same. A violation of the provisions of this section by the register of deeds shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof he shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars and not exceeding one thousand dollars, and he shall be liable to the grantee of any instrument so recorded for the amount of any damage sustained; provided, that sheriff's or referee's certificates of sale on execution decrees or foreclosures of mortgages may be recorded by the register of deeds without any such certificate from the county auditor. The county auditor shall keep a record of such transfers in a book kept for that purpose, showing the names of the grantor and grantee, a description of the property and the date of transfer, and shall collect twenty-five cents for each certificate, from the person or persons presenting the same for certification, and said money so collected shall be by him paid into the office of the county treasurer at the end of each month and be placed to the credit of the general funds of the county. [1913, ch. 115; 1911, ch. 302; R. C. 1905, § 1597; 1899, ch. 135; R. C. 1899, § 1278; 1901, ch. 144; 1903, ch. 167.]

§ 2213. Division of valuation where part of a tract is transferred. When the transfer of any land or town lot or any part thereof becomes necessary by reason of a sale or conveyance and is of less value than the whole tract or lot, or part thereof as charged in the tax list, said county auditor shall transfer the same whenever the seller and purchaser agree thereto in writing, signed by them, or personally appear before the auditor and agree upon the amount of valuation to be transferred therewith; but if the seller and purchaser do not agree as to the amount of valuation to be transferred the auditor shall make such divisions of the valuation as may appear to him just. If the county auditor is satisfied that the proportion of valuation agreed by the parties in interest to be transferred is greater than the proportional value of the land or lot to be transferred therewith, and that such agreement was made by collusion of the parties and with a view fraudulently to evade the payment of any taxes which might be legally assessed on the entire tract or lot, he may refuse to make such transfer, and when any such transfer has been procured by fraudulent agreement the same shall be cancelled by the auditor and the land or lot so transferred be charged with taxes in the same manner as though said transfer had not been made. [R. C. 1905, § 1598; 1897, ch. 126, § 96; R. C. 1899, § 1279.]

§ 2214. Irregularities of land to be platted into lots if required. In all cases where any tract or lot of said land is divided into irregular shapes that cannot be described except by metes and bounds, also any town addition or subdivision that has already been platted into blocks and lots and subsequently sold into parts of blocks or lots which cannot be described only by metes and bounds, or that the courses, distances and sizes of each lot and fractional lot is not given or marked upon said plat so that the precise location of each and every lot and fractional lot can be accurately ascertained, surveyed or laid out, it shall be the duty of the owner of such tract or tracts upon the request of the county auditor to have such land platted or replatted, as the case may be, into lots or blocks as per deeds on record, if such plat cannot be made without actual survey of the land then they shall have the same surveyed, platted and the plat thereof recorded. If the owners of any such tract shall refuse or neglect to cause such plat and survey when necessary to be made and recorded within thirty days after such request, the county surveyor shall, or some other competent surveyor may, upon the request of the county auditor, make out such plat from the records of the register of deeds if practicable; but if it cannot be made from such records then he shall make the necessary survey and plat thereof, and the said auditor shall have the same recorded; such plat being duly certified and recorded and description of the property in accordance with the number and description set forth in such plat shall be deemed a good and valid description of the lots or parcels of land so described; provided, that no such plat or description as herein provided for shall bear the same name or number that has already been applied to any plat or description previously made and recorded as a part of any such town, village or city. When the owners of such land shall fail to comply with the provisions of this section the costs of surveying, platting and recording shall be paid by the county, upon allowance by the county commissioners, and the amount thereof shall be added to the tax upon such tracts or lots the ensuing year, which tax, when collected, shall be credited to the county fund. Said county surveyor or other surveyor shall be entitled to receive for his services in making such survey of plat the same compensation as is now allowed by law for doing other county surveying or platting, and such fees shall become a legal charge upon such tracts of land as herein provided for. [1911, ch. 287; R. C. 1905, § 1599; 1897, ch. 126, § 97; R. C. 1899, § 1280.]

ARTICLE 14.—ABBREVIATIONS IN DESCRIPTIONS AND PROCEEDINGS IN CASE OF FALSE LISTS AND RETURNS.

§ 2215. Abbreviations in describing lands. It shall be sufficient to describe land in all proceedings relative to assessing, advertising or selling the same for taxes by initial letters, abbreviations and figures to designate the township, range, section or parts of sections, and also the number of lots and blocks. Whenever the abbreviation "do" or characters "," or other similar abbreviations or characters shall be used in any such proceedings, they shall respectively be construed and held as meaning and being the same name, word, initial, letter or letters, abbreviations, figure or figures as the last preceding such "do" or "," or other similar characters. [R. C. 1905, § 1600; 1897, ch. 126, § 98; R. C. 1899, § 1281.]

§ 2217. Property omitted. Taxes added to subsequent years' taxes. The county auditor of each county shall keep a book to be called "assessment roll of property which has escaped taxation," in which he shall each year enter all property, real or personal, which shall have been omitted in the assessment of any previous year or years, or the assessment of which shall have been set aside by the judgment of any court, and such property shall have thereby escaped taxation, noting therein the year or years in which such property shall have escaped taxation as aforesaid; and such auditor shall present such assessment roll to the county board of equalization at its first

regular meeting in July for review and equalization, and said board of equalization shall thereupon, during its session, proceed to equalize such assessments and hear all complaints that may be made with reference thereto, and for the purpose of equalizing the same shall have power to change and reduce or increase such assessments as it deems just; and the county auditor shall, at the time of making the annual tax list, enter and extend against such property so assessed, taxes for the year or years in which the same has escaped taxation at the same rate and for all the purposes for which taxes were levied upon property in his county in said year or years designating therein the year or years for which such taxes are so entered in said tax list, and if any taxes on any property liable to taxation are prevented from being collected for any year or years by reason of any erroneous proceedings or other cause, the amount of such taxes which such property should have paid shall be likewise entered and extended upon such tax list, and all taxes entered upon such tax list, under the provisions of this section, shall be collected as other taxes. [R. C. 1905, § 1602; 1897, ch. 126, § 100; R. C. 1899, § 1283; 1903, ch. 156; 1905, ch. 149.]

Unpaid taxes for any preceding year may be included in annual sale for delinquent taxes. Scott & B. Mercantile Co. v. Nelson County, 14 N. D. 407, 104 N. W. 528.

§ 2218. Debts of municipalities void if entailing taxation beyond the rate fixed by law. It shall be unlawful for any city, town or village officer or for the officers of any school district, unless specially and expressly authorized by law, to contract any debt or incur any pecuniary liability, for the payment of either the principal or interest, for which during the current year, or any subsequent year, it shall be necessary to levy on the taxable property of such county, township, city, town or village or school district, a higher rate of tax than the maximum rate prescribed by law, and every contract made in contravention of the provisions of this section shall be utterly null and void in regard to any obligation thereby imposed on the corporation on behalf of which such contract purports to be made; but every commissioner, officer, agent, supervisor or member of any municipal corporation that makes or participates in making or authorizes the making of any such contract, shall be held individually liable for its performance; and every commissioner, supervisor, director or member of any city, town or village council, or other officer or agent of any such municipal corporation present when any such unlawful contract was made or authorized to be made, shall be deemed to have made or to have participated in making, or to have authorized the making of the same, as the case may be, unless, if present, he dissent therefrom and entered or caused to be entered such dissent on the records of such municipal corporation, or of its council, supervisors or other officer. [R. C. 1905, § 1603; 1897, ch. 126, § 101; R. C. 1899, § 1284.]

School district voters by authorizing bond issue of $7,000 for school site and building did not impliedly forbid expenditure of more than that amount. McCavick v. Independent School Dist., 25 S. D. 449, 127 N. W. 476.

Personal liability of public officer on contract which he attempts to make for public in excess of his authority. 23 L.R.A. (N.S.) 428.

§ 2220. Neglect of duty by officers. Every county, district or township officer who in any case refuses or knowingly neglects to perform any duty enjoined upon him by this chapter, or who consents to or connives at any evasion of its provisions whereby any proceeding required by this chapter is prevented or hindered or whereby any property required to be listed for taxation is unlawfully exempted, or the valuation thereof is entered on the tax list at less than its true value, shall for every such neglect, refusal, consent or connivance, forfeit and pay to the state not less than two hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, at the discretion of the court, to be recovered before any court of competent jurisdiction. [R. C. 1905, § 1605; 1897, ch. 126, § 103; R. C. 1899, § 1286.]

§ 2221. Suits against officers defended at expense of county. Whenever civil action is brought against any person holding the office of county treasurer, county auditor or any town or district officer for performing or attempting to perform any duty authorized or decreed by any statute of this state for collection of the public revenue, such treasurer, auditor or other officer may, in the discretion of the court before whom such action is brought, by an order made by said court and entered in the minutes thereof, be allowed and paid out of the county treasury, reasonable fees for counsel and other expenses of defending such action. [R. C. 1905, § 1606; 1897, ch. 126, § 104; R. C. 1899, § 1287.]

§ 2222. When auditor to forward list of new taxable lands. A list of all lands becoming taxable for the first time in any county of the state shall be procured by the state auditor from the proper land officers and forwarded by him to the county auditor of the proper county on or before the fifteenth day of March of each year.

Provided, further, that a list of all lands which have been taxable in any county of the state, but upon which patents or final proofs have been cancelled by the government, shall be procured by the state auditor from the proper land officers and forwarded by him to the county auditor of the proper county on or before the fifteenth day of March of each year. [1911, ch. 292; R. C. 1905, § 1607; 1897, ch. 126, § 105; R. C. 1899, § 1288.]

Section 653g makes an appropriation for expense of the list of new taxable lands.

§ 2223. Notice of expiration of redemption, certificate holders. Auditor. Every person holding a tax certificate shall, at least ninety days before the expiration of the time for the redemption of the lands therein described, present such certificate to the county auditor and thereupon the auditor shall prepare, under his hand and official seal, a notice to the person in whose name such lands are assessed, specifying the description of such lands, the amount for which the same were sold, the amount required to redeem such lands from sale, exclusive of the costs to accrue upon such notice, and the time when the redemption period will expire, which notice the auditor shall cause to be delivered to the sheriff or his deputy who shall serve it personally upon the owner, if known to be a resident of the state, but which may if the owner be a nonresident be given by registered letter, addressed to such owner at his last known post office address, and by publication once in each week, for three consecutive weeks, in some newspaper printed and published in the county where such lands are situated, if there be one; if none, then in some newspaper printed and published at the capital of the state, and in case the property covered by such certificate is occupied, then service of such notice shall, in addition to the foregoing provision, be made upon the person in possession thereof. Proof of notice herein provided for must be filed in the office of the county auditor prior to the maturing of such certificate, and no deed shall issue until such proof has been duly filed. The fees for serving and the printers' fees for publishing such notice shall be added to the amount required to redeem such land, and shall be paid by the party offering to redeem such land before any certificate of redemption shall be issued. In case of failure on the part of the holder of any tax certificate to present the same to the auditor at the time hereinbefore provided, the same may be so presented at any time hereafter, and thereupon such notice shall be issued and served as hereinbefore provided, and the time for redemption of such lands shall expire ninety days after such notice; provided that the county shall not be liable for any expense incurred under the provisions of this section. Provided, further, that said tax certificates, also any subsequent taxes paid by the holder thereof, shall continue to draw interest until said taxes are paid or redeemed. Provided, further, that in case said tax certificate should for any reason be declared void the interest thereon shall cease from and after three (3) years from the date of such certificate. [1911, ch. 295; R. C. 1905, § 1608; 1897, ch. 126, § 106; R. C. 1899, § 1289; 1901, ch. 166.]

Must be strictly construed against one claiming title by tax purchase thereunder. Archer v. N. S. Tubbs Sheep Co., 25 S. D. 399, 126 N. W. 577.

Tax deed is void unless notice as to amount due conforms to statute and describes land. Blessett v. Turcotte, 20 N. D. 151, 127 N. W. 505.

Notice of time when redemption from tax sale must be made must be served on non-resident owner by registered letter, and personally upon person in possession. Hodgson v. State Finance Co., 19 N. D. 142, 122 N. W. 336.

Notice of redemption omitting section, town and range insufficient. Stokes v. Allen, 15 S. D. 421, 89 N. W. 1023.

Failure to give notice for proper time does not prevent a tax deed from constituting color of title; question of good faith one of fact. Meadows v. Osterkamp, 13 S. D. 571, 83 N. W. 624.

Published notice, addressed "to whom it may concern," not sufficient. Rector & Wilhelmy v. Maloney, 15 S. D. 271, 88 N. W. 575.

Deed by city for nonpayment of assessments is valid although no notice was given that deed would be demanded. Kirby v. Waterman, 17 S. D. 314, 96 N. W. 129.

Title to land sold for delinquent taxes does not pass by virtue of certificate but only after proof of giving of proper notice has been filed prior to maturity of certificate. Hardy v. Woods, 28 S. D. 151, 132 N. W. 692.

Tax title is not good where proof of service of maturity of certificate of sale was not served for five years after expiration of year for redemption from sale. Joy v. Midland State Bank, 26 S. D. 244, 128 N. W. 147.

§ 2224. Redemption when owner dies after sale. Auditor's certificate.

Whenever the lands of any person have been heretofore or shall be hereafter sold for taxes and the owner of such lands, after such sale and before the expiration of the period of redemption, heretofore has deceased or hereafter shall decease, the executor or administrator of such owner or any person interested in his estate as heir or devisee, or creditor, may redeem such lands from any such sale at any time within four years from the date thereof. If such redemption be made by a creditor, the amount paid to effect such redemption, with interest thereon at the rate of seven per cent per annum, shall constitute a valid claim against the estate of the deceased. If such redemption be made by an executor or administrator he shall at the time of the making thereof produce his letters testamentary, or of administration to the county auditor; if made by another person he shall make and file with such auditor an affidavit stating under what right or claim such redemption is made. Upon any such redemption being made, the county auditor shall make and deliver to the person making such redemption a certificate containing the name of the person redeeming, a statement of the claim or right upon which such redemption was made, the amount paid to redeem, a description of the land redeemed, the date of the sale of such lands and the year in which the taxes were levied for which such sale was made, which certificate shall have the effect to annul any such sale, and such certificate may be recorded as other deeds of real estate, and with like effect as evidence or otherwise. ARTICLE 15.—ASSESSMENT AND TAX LEVY IN UNORGANIZED COUNTIES.

§ 2225. Assessment and taxation in unorganized counties. Any property not exempt from taxation, which is situated or kept in any unorganized county in this state, shall be listed and assessed by an assessor, to be appointed by the board of county commissioners of the organized county to which such unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes; and the taxes due and payable on property in such unorganized county shall be paid to and collected by the treasurer of such organized county, but such property shall be assessed and taxed for state purposes only. The board of county commissioners of the county to which such unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes shall, at the time and place it equalizes and corrects the assessment roll of its county, equalize and correct the assessment roll of such unorganized county, and at the same time and place it makes its tax levy for county purposes levy a tax upon the assessed property of such unorganized county for state purposes only, and in the same manner and form that it makes levy for state purposes in its own county; and when the tax list is completed the board of county commissioners shall attach to such list its warrant under its hand and official seal in general terms requiring the county treasurer of such unorganized county to collect the tax therein levied according to law; and it shall require an additional bond from such county treasurer in such amount as it may deem necessary for the faithful discharge of his duties in collecting such tax and it shall audit and allow the necessary expenses of the assessor, auditor and treasurer for the assessment and collection of such taxes, which shall be paid upon its warrant out of the taxes so assessed and collected. [R. C. 1905, § 1610; 1897, ch. 126, § 109; R. C. 1899, § 1291.]

County tax cannot be levied in unorganized county for use of organized county to which attached. Farris v. Vannier, 6 D. 186, 42 N. W. 31, 2 L.R.A. 713.

Unorganized county subject to taxation for state purposes in nearest organized county. Dupree v. Stanley County, 8 S. D. 30, 65 N. W. 426.

Personal property belonging to a resident of Meade county, but situated in the unorganized county of Geoby, is taxable in Meade county. Meade County v. Hoehn, 12 S. D. 468, 81 N. W. 886.

§ 2226. Duplicate tax list. The county auditor of the county to which such unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes shall prepare a tax list in duplicate, with the warrant of the county commissioners attached, and deliver the duplicate thereof to the county treasurer on or before the first day of December following the date of the levy for the current year, and such duplicate tax list shall be full and sufficient authority for the collection by the treasurer of all taxes therein contained. The original tax list shall be kept by such auditor as the property of such unorganized county. It shall be the duty of the county treasurer, upon receipt of the tax list aforesaid, to collect such tax in the same manner and form in which other taxes are collected, and he shall pay the warrants drawn by the county commissioners upon such tax for necessary expenses of assessing and collecting the same, and remit the remainder of such tax to the state treasurer. [R. C. 1905, § 1611; 1897, ch. 126, § 109; R. C. 1899, § 1291.]

ARTICLE 16.—TAXING LIVE STOCK OF NONRESIDENT OWNERS.

§ 2227. Nonresident owners of live stock pay for ranging. Amount. Collection by seizure. Any owner of live stock nonresident of this state, who shall enter any county in the state of North Dakota with horses, mules, cattle or sheep for the purpose of herding or feeding them upon the range of said state, or who shall permit or suffer any stock owned by him to enter any county of the state of North Dakota and feed upon the range thereof, shall pay into the treasury of the county thus entered the sum of fifty cents per month for each head of stock so entering and feeding on such range, for each and every month said stock so fed, which tax shall be in addition to other taxes now or hereafter imposed by law. Said amount of fifty cents per head per month as herein provided shall be paid monthly in advance. Should the owner of such stock fail to comply with the provisions of this article within ten days after the time, as herein provided, said tax shall become due, the county treasurer of the county so entered by such stock shall immediately proceed to collect said tax by seizure and sale in the same manner as delinquent personal property taxes are collected by law. [R. C. 1905, § 1612; 1901, ch. 155.]

ARTICLE 17.—LEGALIZING IRREGULARITIES IN ASSESSMENTS AND LEVIES.

§ 2228. Tax levy of 1895 legalized. The levy of taxes as made in the various counties for the year 1895 is hereby legalized and made valid for all intents and purposes the same as if made in conformity to the law then in force. [R. C. 1905, § 1613; 1897, ch. 99; R. C. 1899, § 1312.]

Curative statutes, power of legislature to supply defects in assessments. 76 Am. Dec. 527.

§ 2230. Assessments and levies in certain unorganized counties for county purposes.—Assessment of taxes. All assessments and tax levies for state and county purposes heretofore made within any territory within the state of North Dakota, over which any county has exercised jurisdiction in criminal and civil matters, and which has to all intents and purposes been treated as a portion of said county for not less than four years last past, shall be and the same is hereby in all respects legalized. [R. C. 1905, § 1615; 1901, ch. 158.]

§ 2231. How collected. It shall be the duty of the treasurer of the county exercising such jurisdiction as is mentioned in section 2230 to make out a list of such taxes in the same order as it appears in the tax list, and deliver said list of unpaid delinquent personal taxes to the sheriff of his county, whose duty it shall be to collect such delinquent personal taxes by distraining sufficient goods and chattels belonging to the persons charged with such taxes, together with penalty and interest and all accruing costs and interest, and shall immediately proceed to advertise the same in three public places in said county and in the official newspapers, if there be any in said county, for a period of ten days before such sale, stating the time and place where such property shall be sold, which place of sale shall be at the county seat of said county, and no personal property shall be exempt from such distraint and sale; and if on the date of sale such taxes remain unpaid, then the sheriff shall sell said property, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay such taxes, together with the interest and penalty and accruing costs, at public auction. [R. C. 1905, § 1616; 1901, ch. 158.]

ARTICLE 18.—VALIDATING ASSESSMENTS SINCE 1889.

§ 2232. Validating assessments since 1889. Every assessment of real or personal property for the purpose of taxation, and every assessment roll, heretofore and since the year 1889 made by any officer authorized by law to assess the property described in such assessment roll for the purpose of taxation, and returned to the county auditor of any county in this state, and acted upon and adopted by the board of equalization of such county as an assessment, or assessment roll, is hereby made valid; provided, such assessment or assessment roll, if it purports to be an assessment of real property, contains sufficient data from which can be definitely ascertained the description of the property intended to be assessed, and the valuation fixed thereon by the assessor; and if it is an assessment of personal property, contains the name of the owner of the property assessed, and the valuation of such property. [R. C. 1905, § 1617; 1903, ch. 158, § 1.]

heretofore and since the year 1889 made by the state board of equalization, or by any county board of equalization, are hereby made valid; provided, it can be definitely ascertained from the official records of the proceedings of such officer or board, what amount of taxes, or what rate per cent of taxation was intended to be levied; and provided, further, that this article shall not be construed to validate any tax levy made for any purpose unauthorized by law, or which is in excess of the amount allowed by law to be levied. [R. C. 1905, § 1618; 1903, ch. 158, § 2.]

§ 2234. Fatal defects enumerated. In all actions hereafter tried, in which the validity of any tax heretofore levied comes in question, no tax shall be held invalid unless it shall be made to appear, by the party objecting thereto, that one or more of the following defects exist, to wit:

1. That the property assessed was not subject to taxation; or in the case of an assessment of personal property that the person assessed was not liable to taxation at the time such assessment was made, for the property or some part thereof assessed to him.

2. If the tax is upon real property, that the description of the property intended to be assessed, or the valuation thereof, cannot be definitely ascertained from the assessment roll which is the basis of such tax; and if the tax is upon personal property, that the assessment roll containing the assessment of the property upon which the tax is levied, does not contain either the name of the owner of such property or the valuation thereof.

3. That it cannot be definitely ascertained from the official record of the proceedings of the board or officer levying the tax, what amount of taxes, or what rate per cent of taxation was intended to be levied.

4. That such taxes have been paid.

5. That the valuation of the property assessed upon which such taxes were levied was unfair and unequal; provided, however, that no claim of any unfairness or inequality of any valuation of property in the assessment roll shall be heard, unless it appears, either that there was no meeting of the board of equalization authorized by law to equalize such assessment at the time fixed by law to hear and determine such complaint, or if there was such a meeting of such board of equalization, that such board acted in excess of its powers in relation to the valuation objected to; or that the valuation as fixed by the proper board of equalization has been unlawfully increased; but in all such cases the court shall hear the evidence and determine therefrom the amount that is justly due for such taxes, and the tax list containing the record of such taxes shall be prima facie evidence of the amount thereof justly due.

§ 2236. Taxes, when delinquent. All taxes which are validated by this article shall become and be delinquent on the first day of July, 1903, and if then unpaid there shall attach thereto a penalty of five per cent, and thereafter such taxes shall be subject to the same penalties and interest as taxes of like nature under the laws which may then be in force; provided, however, that the provision of this section shall not apply to cases where part of a tax, only, is held valid, as provided in the preceding section, but in all such cases such part of a tax so held valid shall become and be delinquent on the first day on which penalties attach to delinquent taxes of like nature under the laws then in force, next succeeding the entry of a judgment declaring such part of tax valid, and thereupon and thereafter such penalties and interest, or either, shall attach thereto as attach to other delinquent taxes of like character under the laws then in force. [R. C. 1905, § 1621; 1903, ch. 158, § 5.]

§ 2237. Taxes held valid. Exception. In all cases where real property has been sold for delinquent taxes which shall have been validated by this article, and such sale shall be adjudged void, and such taxes shall be adjudged valid under the provisions of this article, in any action, such taxes so held valid, shall remain and be a lien upon the land so sold, and be subject to the penalties and interest, if any, as in the preceding section provided, unless the party to such action claiming such sale to be invalid, shall have tendered to and deposited in the office of the county treasurer, before commencing such action, the full face amount of such taxes, and unless the action in which the validity of such sale, or of such taxes comes in question shall have been commenced before January first, 1904; provided, that the provisions of this article shall not apply to any action or proceeding now pending between the fee owner of land, and any person or corporation holding a tax certificate or tax deed therefor, involving the validity of such tax certificate or tax deed. [R. C. 1905, § 1622; 1903, ch. 158, § 6.]

ARTICLE 19.—VALIDATING FUTURE ASSESSMENTS AND TAX LEVIES.

§ 2238. Assessments valid, when. Every assessment of real or personal property for the purposes of taxation, and every assessment roll, hereafter made by any officer authorized by law to assess the property described in such assessment roll for the purpose of taxation, and returned to the county auditor of any county in this state, and acted upon and adopted by the board of equalization of such county as an assessment, or assessment roll, shall be held valid; provided, such assessment or assessment roll, if it purports to be an assessment of real property, contains sufficient data from which can be definitely ascertained the description of the property intended to be assessed, and the valuation fixed thereon by the assessor; and if it is an assessment of personal property, contains the name of the owner of the property assessed, and the valuation of such property. [R. C. 1905, § 1623; 1903, ch. 157, § 1.]

§ 2239. Taxes valid, when. All taxes, levied for any purpose, hereafter made in this state, by any board or officer authorized by law to make the same, shall be held valid, provided it can be definitely ascertained from the official records of the proceedings of such officer or board, what amount of taxes, or what rate per cent of taxation was intended to be levied; and provided, further, that this article shall not be construed to validate any tax levy made for any purpose unauthorized by law or which is in excess of the amount allowed by law to be levied. [R. C. 1905, § 1624; 1903, ch. 157, § 2.]

§ 2240. Tax held invalid, when. In all actions in which the validity of any tax hereafter levied comes in question, no tax shall be held invalid unless it shall be made to appear, by the party objecting thereto, that one or more of the following defects exist, to wit:

1. That the property assessed was not subject to taxation; or in the case of an assessment of personal property, that the person assessed was not liable to taxation at the time such assessment was made, for the property or some part thereof assessed to him.

2. If the tax is upon real property, that the description of the property intended to be assessed, or the valuation thereof, cannot be definitely ascertained from the assessment roll which is the basis of such tax; and if the tax is upon personal property, that the assessment roll containing the assessment of the property upon which the tax is levied, does not contain either the name of the owner of such property, or the valuation thereof.

3. That it cannot be definitely ascertained from the official record of the proceedings of the board or officers levying the tax, what amount of taxes, or what rate per cent of taxation was intended to be levied.

4. That such taxes have been paid.

5. That the valuation of the property assessed upon which such taxes were levied, was unfair and unequal; provided, however, that no claim of any unfairness or inequality of any valuation of property in the assessment roll shall be heard, unless it appears, either that there was no meeting of the board of equalization authorized by law to equalize such assessment at the time fixed by law to hear and determine such complaint, or if there was such a meeting of such board of equalization, that such board acted in excess of its powers in relation to the valuation objected to; or that the valuation as fixed by the proper board of equalization has been unlawfully increased; but in all such cases the court shall hear the evidence and determine therefrom the amount that is justly due for such taxes, and the tax list containing the record of such taxes shall be prima facie evidence of the amount thereof justly due.

§ 2241. Portion of tax valid. Delinquent, when. In all cases where part of any tax hereafter levied is declared void by the court, the remainder of such tax shall be valid, and shall be enforced against any property liable therefor in the same manner that taxes of like nature are now or hereafter may be enforced, and in all such cases such part of a tax so held valid shall become and be delinquent on the first day on which penalties attach to delinquent taxes of like nature under the laws then in force, next succeeding the entry of a judgment declaring such part of tax valid, and thereupon and thereafter such penalties and interest, or either, shall attach thereto as attach to other delinquent taxes of the character under the laws then in force. [R. C. 1905, § 1626; 1903, ch. 157, § 4.]

ARTICLE 20.—ASSESSMENT OF RAILROAD PROPERTY.

§ 2242. Railroads, how assessed. The state board of equalization shall at its annual meeting in August in each year, assess at its actual value the franchise, roadway, roadbed, rails and rolling stock of all railroads operated in this state, including electric and all other street and interurban railways. To enable said board to make a correct valuation of such property, they shall have access to all reports, estimates and surveys of such lines of railroads as may be on file in the office of the commissioners of railroads and shall have power to summon and compel the attendance of witnesses, and may examine such witnesses under oath in any matter relating to the value of such property. In estimating the value of such railroads, branches and sidetracks thereof they shall be governed by the same rules as are provided for the government of county and township assessors in valuing other property in this state. They shall cause a record to be made of the estimated value placed upon each of the items set forth in this section which go to make the aggregate valuation of such assessments. [R. C. 1905, § 1627; 1890, ch. 135, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1313; 1905, ch. 151.]

§ 2243. Apportionment to counties according to mileage. The board of equalization shall divide the valuation so found and determined of each continuous line by the number of miles of such line contained in the state, and the result shall be the valuation per mile for which said line shall be assessed. The value of each branch line shall be determined in the same manner, and such valuation per mile shall be apportioned to each county according to the number of miles of such line or branch line contained in such county. [R. C. 1905, § 1628; 1890, ch. 135, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 1314.]

§ 2244. Mileage and valuation, how certified to various political subdivisions for taxation. The state auditor shall at the time of certifying the equalized value of each organized county to the county auditor, also certify the number of miles of each main line of railroad, and branches and sidetracks thereof contained in said county and the valuation per mile of such line or branch line as determined by the state board of equalization and the county auditor of such county shall apportion such valuation to the cities, towns, townships and districts through which such railroads run according to the number of miles contained in each, as a part of the valuation of such city, town, township and district for the purpose of taxation, and the same shall be taxed as personal property is taxed in each county. [R. C. 1905, § 1629; 1890, ch. 135, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 1315.]

The franchise, roadway, roadbed, rails and rolling stock of a railroad are personal property for purposes of taxation. M. & S. Ste. M. Ry. Co. v. Dickey County, 11 N. D. 107, 90 N. W. 260; Milwaukee Ry. v. Cass County, 8 N. D. 18, 76 N. W. 239.

§ 2245. Taxation in unorganized counties. The valuation so apportioned to unorganized counties in this state shall be taxed for state purposes only; and such tax shall be levied annually by the state auditor at the same rate as other property is taxed for state purposes, and the state auditor shall notify each railroad company so taxed of the amount of such tax, on or before the first day of December in each year, and such tax must be paid to the state treasurer at the same time and subject to the same penalty as is prescribed by law for the collection of personal property taxes in organized counties, and the state treasurer shall have the same powers, and it shall be his duty to collect such tax in the same manner as county treasurers are authorized by law to collect personal property taxes. [R. C. 1905, § 1630; 1890, ch. 135, § 4; R. C. 1899, § 1316.]

§ 2246. Provisions of this article inoperative, when. If at any time the legislative assembly shall provide by law for the payment of a per cent of gross earnings by railroads as authorized by section 176 of the constitution of this state, then and during the time such law shall be in force the provisions of this article shall be inoperative. [R. C. 1905, § 1631; 1890, ch. 135, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 1317.]

ARTICLE 21.—ASSESSMENT AND TAXATION OF PUBLIC UTILITIES.

§ 2247. Express, freight line and equipment, telegraph and telephone companies defined. Any person or persons, joint stock association, company or corporation, wherever organized or incorporated, engaged in the business of conveying to, from or through this state, or any part thereof, money, packages, gold, silver, plate or other property by express, on and by passenger and mail trains, shall be deemed an express company; any person or persons, joint stock association, company or corporation, wherever organized or incorporated, engaged in the business of operating cars which are not subject to assessment and taxation under the provisions of sections 2242, 2243, 2244 and 2245, for the transportation of freight, whether such freight be owned by such company or any other person or company, over any railway line or lines in whole or in part within this state, such line or lines not being owned, leased or operated by such company, whether such cars be termed box, flat, coal, ore, tank, stock, gondola, furniture or refrigerator cars or be known by some other name, shall be deemed a freight line company; any person or persons, joint stock association, company or corporation, wherever organized, engaged in the business of furnishing or leasing cars of whatsoever kind or description to be used for the transportation of freight or for the transportation, accommodation, convenience, comfort or safety of passengers, whether such cars be termed freight, sleeping, tourist, palace, parlor, chair or buffet cars, or be known by some other name, in the operation of any railway line or lines wholly or partially within this state, such line or lines not being owned, leased or operated by such company, and such cars not being subject to taxation under said sections of the revised codes of North Dakota, shall be deemed an equipment company; any person or persons, joint stock association, company or corporation, wherever organized or incorporated, engaged in the business of conveying telegraphic messages, shall be deemed a telegraph company; and any person or persons, joint stock association, company or corporation, wherever organized or incorporated, engaged in the business of conveying messages by the use of the telephone or any similarly constructed instrument or device, shall be deemed a telephone company. [1907, ch. 216, § 1.]

of such companies doing business in this state with reference to the value of such property on the first day of June of such year. On the meeting of the board of equalization the state auditor shall lay before it the statements and schedules returned to him under section two of this act [section 2248]. The said board shall proceed to ascertain the value of the property of each of said companies in North Dakota and in determining the value of the property of each company to be taxed within the state and assessed as herein provided said board shall be guided by the value of said property as determined by the value of the entire capital stock of said company and such other evidence and rules as will enable said board to arrive at the true value in money of the entire property of said company within the state of North Dakota in the proportion which the same bears to the entire property of said company as determined by the value of the capital stock thereof and the other evidence and rules aforesaid. The board may adjourn from time to time until the business before it is finally disposed of. In case a company fails or refuses to make the statement required by law or furnish the board any information requested the board shall inform itself as best it may on the matters necessary to be known in order to discharge its duties with respect to the assessment of the property of such company. At the annual meeting of the board of equalization aforesaid and before the assessment of the property of any such company is determined, any company or person interested shall have the right, upon written application, to appear before the board of equalization and be heard in the matter of the valuation of the property of any company for taxation. [1907, ch. 216, § 3.]

§ 2250. Penalty for failure to file statement. In case any company required to file a statement under the provisions of section two hereof [section 2248] fails to make and file such statement on or before the thirtieth day of June such company shall be subject to a penalty of five hundred dollars and an additional penalty of one hundred dollars for each day's omission after said thirtieth day of June to file such statement, said penalty to be recovered in the name of the state and on collection paid into the state treasury to the credit of the school fund. The attorney-general shall institute such action against any company so delinquent. The state board of equalization shall have power to require the president, secretary, treasurer, receiver, superintendent, managing agent, or other officer or employee or agent of any such company, to attend before such board and produce for the instruction of the board any books or papers of such company in his possession, custody or control, and to testify under oath touching the business, property, moneys, credits and value thereof of such company. Any member of the board is authorized and empowered to administer such oath. Any officers, employe or agent of the company so required to appear before such board as aforesaid who shall refuse to produce and submit for the inspection of the board any such books or papers of such company in his possession, custody or control, or shall refuse to answer any question or questions put to him by the state board of equalization, or any member thereof, touching the business, property, moneys, credits and the value thereof of such company, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof before any court of competent jurisdiction shall be fined for each such refusal not more than five hundred dollars or imprisoned in the county jail not more than thirty days, or both such fine and imprisonment. [1907, ch. 216, § 4.]

§ 2251. State auditor certifies ascertained valuation to county auditors. The state auditor shall certify to the county auditor of each county within this state the total value of the property of such company in North Dakota as ascertained and assessed by said board, at the same time he certifies the assessed valuation of other property assessed or equalized by said board, and shall also certify the number of miles over which such company operates in such county. The total value of the property of said company in North

Dakota as assessed by the state board of equalization shall be apportioned by the state auditor among the several counties in which the company does business in the proportion that the number of miles over which such company operates in each county respectively bears to the entire number of miles over which such company operates in the state, and the county auditor, upon receiving such certificate shall apportion the valuation therein stated among the cities, towns, villages, townships and other tax districts of his county in proportion to the number of miles operated in each, and the county auditor shall place the apportioned valuation on the tax list and taxes shall be levied and collected thereon, at the same rate and in the same manner as taxes are levied and collected on other property within the state, which taxes shall be in lieu of all other taxes upon all property liable to taxation under this article. [1907, ch. 216, § 5.]

§ 2252. Valuation taxed for state purposes only in unorganized counties. The valuation so apportioned to unorganized counties in this state shall be taxed for state purposes only, and such tax shall be levied annually by the state auditor at the same rate as other property is taxed for state purposes and the state auditor shall notify each company so assessed of the amount of such tax on or before the first day of December in each year, and such tax must be paid to the state treasurer at the same time and subject to the same penalty as is prescribed by law for the collection of personal property taxes in organized counties, and the state treasurer shall have the same powers and it shall be his duty to collect such taxes in the same manner as county treasurers are authorized by law to collect personal property taxes. [1907, ch. 216, § 6.]

ARTICLE 22.—TAXATION OF BANKRUPT STOCKS.

§ 2253. Bankrupt stocks, etc., how assessed. All itinerant, transient or other merchants, salesmen or other persons, and all merchants or salesmen of bankrupt stocks of goods or merchandise, or of stocks of goods or merchandise claimed to have been injured by fire or otherwise, who shall bring into this state any stock of goods at any time after the annual assessment is made and returned shall be liable to taxation upon such stock of goods and merchandise, and the assessor of the township or city, in which such goods or merchandise are offered for sale, shall immediately assess such stock at the same rate at which other merchandise of the same character has been assessed and forthwith return his assessment roll thereof, if an assessor in an incorporated city, to the city auditor, and if not, then to the county auditor. [R. C. 1905, § 1632; 1890, ch. 141, § 1; 1893, ch. 111, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1318.]

§ 2254. Proceedings by city council. If such assessment roll is returned to the city auditor he shall immediately notify the mayor thereof, who shall thereupon call a meeting of the city council for the purpose of equalizing or correcting such assessment. Such meeting shall be held not less than three nor more than ten days after the return of such assessment, and not less than twenty-four hours' notice of the time and place and purpose of such meeting shall be given to the owner of such stock, which notice must be in writing and may be served personally or by leaving a copy thereof with any person in charge of such stock or employed in selling the same. The city council shall at such meeting hear any complaint as to the assessment of such stock and equalize and assess the same, and may adjourn from day to day until the same is completed; and in the absence of a quorum such meeting may be adjourned from day to day by the city auditor and upon the completion of such equalization the city auditor shall immediately certify such equalized assessment roll to the county auditor, who shall thereupon add such assessment to the tax list for the current year, and extend the taxes for such year thereon, and on the duplicate thereof, or if such duplicate has been delivered to the county treasurer, shall certify the same to such treasurer, who shall thereupon immediately, upon the receipt of such duplicate or certificate, demand such taxes and collect the same by distraint and sale in default of payment thereof on demand. [R. C. 1905, § 1633; 1893, ch. 111, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 1319.]

§ 2255. Assessment by township assessor. If such assessment is made by a township assessor he shall return the same to the county auditor, who shall thereupon call a meeting of the board of county commissioners in the manner and within the time provided in the preceding section for calling a meeting of the city council, and thereupon the same proceedings shall be had by the board of county commissioners for the equalization of such assessment, and the same notice given of such equalization as provided in said section, and upon the equalization thereof the county auditor shall enter such assessment on the tax list as provided in said section, and the same proceedings shall be had for the collection of such tax as therein provided. [R. C. 1905, § 1634; 1893, ch. 111, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 1320.]

ARTICLE 23.—TAXATION OF GRAIN.

See article 5 of the amendments to the state constitution.

§ 2258. Duty of county auditor. It shall be the duty of the county auditor to extend taxes on the tax lists upon all grain, as shown by the assessment roll, at the rate fixed by this article. [1907, ch. 217, § 13.]

§ 2259. Taxes apportioned. All sums received or collected by the county treasurer under the provisions of this article shall be apportioned and distributed pro rata among the several funds, state, county, school, township and municipal, in proportion to the rates of taxation in the taxing district for which the same is collected. [1907, ch. 217, § 4.]

ARTICLE 24.—COUNTY COMMISSIONERS TO LEVY TAXES IN CERTAIN CASES.

§ 2260. Tax in incorporated towns and cities to be levied by the county commissioners, when. Whenever any incorporated city, town or village having an existing liability or indebtedness and authorized to levy taxes for the payment of the indebtedness for which such city, town or village may be liable, fails or refuses to elect proper officers for the government of such city, town or village, it shall be the duty of the board of county commissioners of the county in which such city, town or village is located, upon a proper showing by any person having a legal or subsisting claim against such city, town or village, that there are no legal officers in such city, town or village authorized to levy a tax for the payment of such indebtedness, to levy a tax in the same manner and for the same purposes that the board of directors, trustees or city council would be authorized to levy the same for the payment of such indebtedness; and any person having a claim against such municipality shall have the same right to enforce the levy of such tax by the board of county commissioners that he would have had to compel such levy by the proper authorities of such city, town or village, had they been properly elected and qualified. [R. C. 1905, § 1635; 1890, ch. 143, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1321.]

ARTICLE 25.—GOPHER TAX.

§ 2261. County commissioners levy gopher tax. The board of county commissioners of every county in this state may, at any time fixed by law for levy and assessment of taxes, levy a tax not exceeding one-half of one mill on the dollar of assessed valuation upon all real estate in such county, the proceeds of which shall be used solely for the purpose of promoting the destruction of gophers and prairie dogs in said county; the fund provided to be raised in accordance with this section shall be denominated the "gopher and prairie dog destruction fund," and shall be kept separate and distinct by the county treasurer and shall be expended by the board of county commissioners at such time and in such manner as is by said board deemed best to secure the abatement and extermination of the gopher and prairie dog pest. [R. C. 1905, § 1636; 1890, ch. 144, §§ 1, 2; R. C. 1899, § 1322; 1901, ch. 107; 1905, ch. 114, § 1.]

See State v. Ryan, 9 N. D. 419, 83 N. W. 865.

§ 2262. Petition required. It shall be the duty of the board of county commissioners of any county, on receiving a petition signed by not less than thirty-five per cent of the total number of votes cast at the last general election held in such county requesting them to do so, to offer a bounty or reward for each gopher and prairie dog destroyed during the months of April and May. The board of county commissioners when so petitioned, as herein provided, shall publish in the local papers of the county during the month of March of each year, the amount of bounty or reward to be paid for each gopher and prairie dog destroyed, the manner of ascertaining the number of gophers and prairie dogs destroyed and the manner of procedure necessary to obtain such reward. [R. C. 1905, § 1637; 1905, ch. 114, § 2.]

ARTICLE 26.—TAXATION FOR PROMOTION OF DIVERSIFIED FARMING.

§ 2263. County commissioners levy tax on petition. The board of county commissioners for any county in this state may in its discretion, or, upon petition of twenty-five per cent of the taxpayers of said county, shall, annually make an appropriation and levy a tax upon all the taxable property of the county for the purpose of promoting diversified farming and agricultural development through the employment of a person or persons to carry on scientific agricultural work within said county. The amount of tax so levied shall not exceed one-half mill upon the dollar of assessed valuation. [1913, ch. 117, § 1.]

ARTICLE 27.—APPROPRIATIONS BY COUNTIES TO PREVENT SPREAD OF TUBERCULOSIS.

§ 2266. Report to county commissioners and action thereon. In case any town, district, county or state anti-tuberculosis society or association or other society or associations organized and existing for the purpose of controlling the spread of tuberculosis in this state considers it necessary to secure the services of visiting nurse or nurses, or to disinfect any building, room, residence, hotel, or other place in such county infected with tuberculosis such society shall report such fact to the chairman of board of health and to the board of county commissioners, and shall in such report recommend the course of action advisable to be adopted by the board of county commissioners in relation thereto, and in accordance with the provisions of this article; and such board of county commissioners shall at the next meeting of such board consider such report and recommendation and act on the same, and such board of county commissioners is authorized and empowered to audit and allow bills for services rendered in carrying into effect the action of such board in relation thereto. [1913, ch. 124, § 1.]

§ 2267. County commissioners may appropriate money. The boards of county commissioners of the several counties of this state may appropriate money out of the general revenue fund of the county for the purpose of paying for the services of visiting nurses or other necessary medical attention or advice in preventing the spread of tuberculosis in such county, or for the purpose of disinfecting any building, room, residence, hotel, or other place in such county infected with tuberculosis. [1913, ch. 124, § 2.]

ARTICLE 28.—ADJUSTMENT OF DELINQUENT TAXES DUE THE STATE FROM COUNTIES.

§ 2270. Statement of taxes charged. The state auditor shall furnish the board of county commissioners of each county with a statement showing the amount of state or territorial taxes charged to such county for each year preceding the fourth day of November, 1889; also, showing the amount received by the state treasurer on account of such year's taxes, and the balance still unpaid as shown by the books in his office; such statement shall also show the amount of abatements claimed and allowed, if any; also the amount of penalty and interest paid each year. [R. C. 1905, § 1639; 1891, ch. 102, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 1324.]

§ 2271. Statement of unpaid taxes. It is the duty of the board of county commissioners of each county on receipt of such statement to prepare or cause to be prepared at the expense of such county, a statement of the unpaid taxes for each of the years mentioned in the preceding section, showing the amount of unpaid personal property taxes, the amount of abatements remaining in the hands of the treasurer for collection or the amount stricken from the list under the provisions of any law heretofore in force; also showing the amount of taxes on real property uncollected for each year, the amount of abatements or taxes refunded each year and the reasons therefor. Said statement shall be made on such forms and in such manner as may be prescribed by the commission and forwarded to the state auditor as soon as completed. [R. C. 1905, § 1640; 1891, ch. 102, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 1325.]

§ 2272. Abatements, how allowed. Upon the receipt of the statements provided for above, it shall be the duty of the commission carefully to compare the same with the accounts of the state treasurer now in the auditor's office, and if it is satisfied that the abatements claimed are just and reasonable, it may allow the same and the state auditor shall credit each county with such abatements and notify the county auditor of each county of the adjustment as so determined, and the amount due each fund in the county and each township, city or school district shall be determined and adjusted on the same basis. [R. C. 1905, § 1641; 1891, ch. 102, § 4; R. C. 1899, § 1326.]

§ 2274. Consolidated tax account. When the true balance due from each county to the state shall have been determined, the state auditor shall open an account with each county, and charge the balance due for each year in one account to be known as the "consolidated tax account," and all taxes collected by the counties for the years so adjusted shall be credited to such account and may be reported as collections on account of the "consolidated tax account." [R. C. 1905, § 1643; 1891, ch. 102, § 6; R. C. 1899, § 1328.]

§ 2275. Attorney-general to enforce payment, when. In the event of the refusal or neglect of any county to furnish the statement herein required, such commission shall have power to have such statement made at the expense of the county, and in case of the refusal of any county to pay the expense of the county so incurred, the attorney-general shall proceed to enforce such payment according to law. [R. C. 1905, § 1644; 1891, ch. 102, § 8; R. C. 1899, § 1329.]

ARTICLE 29.—REFUNDING OF OUTSTANDING BONDED AND OTHER INDEBTEDNESS OF THE STATE.

§ 2276. Refunding indebtedness. To provide for refunding at a lower rate of interest, if possible, the outstanding bonds of the state the payment of which was assumed by the state of North Dakota under the provisions of the report of the joint commission which was approved by the people of the states of North Dakota and South Dakota, and further to provide for the payment or refunding of any maturing bonds of the state, and the capitol warrants issued pursuant to the provisions of chapter 24 of the laws of 1889, the payment of which was assumed by this state, the state treasurer is hereby authorized and empowered and it is made his duty to prepare for issue, and to issue from time to time as occasion requires, the negotiable bonds of the state of North Dakota for such amounts as may be necessary to refund all such outstanding indebtedness, matured or maturing, or subject to the call of the state, or soon to become subject to such call, and for such amounts as may be necessary to refund all the outstanding bonds, whenever the rate of interest can be reduced, or when they become absolutely due, in accordance with the provisions of this article. Such bonds shall be made payable to the purchaser or bearer, be payable in not less than ten years nor more than thirty years from the date of their issue, and bear interest at a rate not exceeding four per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, on the first day of January and July of each year, with coupons attached for each interest payment, and they may be made payable anywhere in the United States. Such bonds shall be executed under the great seal of the state by the governor and treasurer, shall be attested by the secretary of state, and shall be negotiated by the treasurer. [R. C. 1905, § 1645; 1897, ch. 133, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1355h.]

§ 2277. Sealed proposals. Such bonds shall be exchanged by the state treasurer, at not less than their par value for an equal amount of the indebtedness of the state permitted to be refunded under the provisions of this article, or such bonds may be sold by him for the highest cash price obtainable, but not less than par, and the proceeds shall be applied solely to the payment of such outstanding indebtedness. If such bonds or any part thereof are to be sold for cash, as provided in this section, the state treasurer shall receive sealed proposals for the purchase of the same, and shall give public notice of the sale for at least thirty days preceding such sale, in two or more newspapers of general circulation, one of which shall be published in the city of New York, giving date of such sale, and such bonds shall be sold to the highest bidder for cash. [R. C. 1905, § 1646; 1897, ch. 133, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 1355i.]

§ 2278. Board of equalization. The state board of equalization at the time the other taxes are levied shall levy a sufficient tax annually to pay the interest on such bonds as the same becomes due, which tax shall be collected in the same manner as other state taxes are collected. Such board shall before the maturity of such bonds provide a sinking fund sufficient to retire and pay such bonds at their maturity, and for such purpose shall annually levy a tax sufficient to provide such fund. No tax or fund provided for the payment of such bonds or interest thereon shall be used for any other purpose. [R. C. 1905, § 1647; 1897, ch. 133, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 1355j.]

§ 2279. Cancellation of coupons. Whenever the interest coupons attached to such bonds become due or any of such bonds mature, it shall be the duty of the state treasurer to pay the same on presentation out of any funds in his hands applicable thereto, and to cancel them when paid. Whenever any of such bonds become subject to the call of the state and funds are in the hands of the treasurer to be applied to the payment thereof, he shall call in for payment and cancellation such portion of the same as he may have funds to pay; and, if to the advantage of the state he may purchase any of said bonds at their market value and retire and cancel the same, with the sinking fund tax, as the same shall be collected and received by him. [R. C. 1905, § 1648; 1897, ch. 133, § 4; R. C. 1899, § 1355k.]

§ 2280. Appropriation. There is hereby appropriated out of the state treasury all of the funds realized by the sale of the bonds provided for in this article for the purposes in this article provided. [R. C. 1905, § 1649; 1897, ch. 133, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 1355l.]

ARTICLE 30.—TAX FOR BONDED INDEBTEDNESS AND SINKING FUND.

§ 2281. State board of equalization to levy tax for bonded indebtedness. The state board of equalization, at the time the other taxes are levied, shall levy a tax in 1902 and annually thereafter, equal in amount to one-thirtieth of the present bonded indebtedness of the state, which tax shall be collected in the same manner as other taxes are collected, and when collected shall be used to retire and pay any state bonds at their maturity to the extent of the tax then collected and available for that purpose. No tax or fund provided for the payment of such bonds shall be used for any other purpose. Nothing in this section shall be construed to repeal any prior law for the levying of a sinking fund, but in no case shall the board levy a double tax for the same purpose. [R. C. 1905, § 1650; 1901, ch. 43.]

§ 2282. Bond interest, normal schools. The state board of equalization at its meeting in 1903, and annually thereafter, is hereby authorized and required to include in the tax levy for bond interest, a sufficient amount to pay the interest on the state normal school bonds issued under the provisions of section 10, chapter 89, session laws of 1891. [R. C. 1905, § 1651; 1903, ch. 125, § 1.]

§ 2283. Sinking fund, normal schools. The state board of equalization at its meeting in 1903, and annually thereafter, is hereby authorized and required to include in the tax levy for bond sinking fund a sufficient amount to create a fund to pay the state normal school bonds issued under the provisions of section 10, chapter 89, session laws of 1891, at maturity. [R. C. 1905, § 1652; 1903, ch. 125, § 2.]

§ 2284. Duties of state treasurer. The state treasurer is hereby authorized and required to pay all interest that may hereafter become due upon the state normal school bonds issued under the provisions of section 10, chapter 89, session laws of 1891, out of the state bond interest fund, and he is further authorized and required to pay said bonds at maturity out of the state bond sinking fund as provided in section 2283. [R. C. 1905, § 1653; 1903, ch. 125, § 3.]

ARTICLE 31.—STATE REVENUE BONDS.

§ 2285. State bonds authorized. The governor, state auditor and state treasurer are hereby authorized and empowered to prepare for issue negotiable bonds of the state of North Dakota to the amount of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars. Such bonds shall be made payable to the purchaser or bearer and payable in twenty years from date of issue and shall bear interest at a rate not to exceed four per cent per annum, interest payable semi-annually on the first day of January and July of each year, with coupons attached for each interest payment, said interest coupons together with the principal of said bonds to be made payable at the office of the state treasurer in Bismarck. Said bonds shall be executed under the great seal of the state by the governor and treasurer, and shall be attested by the secretary of state, and shall be negotiated by the treasurer. [R. C. 1905, § 1654; 1905, ch. 55, § 1.]

§ 2286. State treasurer authorized to sell. The state treasurer is hereby authorized and empowered to offer the bonds herein provided for to the board of university and school lands and said board is authorized to purchase said bonds for cash at not less than their par value, with accrued interest to date of delivery. [R. C. 1905, § 1655; 1905, ch. 55, § 2.]

§ 2287. Tax for interest and sinking fund. The state board of equalization, at the time other taxes are levied, shall levy a sufficient tax annually, to pay the interest on said bonds as the same shall become due, which tax shall be collected in the same manner that other state taxes are collected. Also, five years before the maturity of the said bonds, said board shall provide a sinking fund sufficient to retire and pay said bonds at their maturity, and for such purpose shall annually levy a tax sufficient to provide such funds. No tax or fund provided for the payment of such bonds or the interest thereon shall be used for any other purpose. [R. C. 1905, § 1656; 1905, ch. 55, § 3.]

§ 2288. Cancellation of coupons and bonds. When the interest coupons attached to such bonds become due, and whenever said bonds mature, it shall be the duty of the state treasurer to pay the same on presentation out of any funds in the treasury applicable thereto, and to cancel the same when paid. [R. C. 1905, § 1657; 1905, ch. 55, § 4.]

§ 2289. Residue of fund and subsequent taxes collected to be transferred to general fund of the state. When said bonds are all redeemed and all interest thereon paid, the residue of said fund and all subsequent collections of said tax shall be transferred to the general revenue fund of the state. [R. C. 1905, § 1658; 1905, ch. 55, § 5.]

§ 2290. Style of bonds. Said bonds shall be known and styled "North Dakota Revenue Bonds, series of 1905," and shall be of denominations as may be required by the purchaser of the same. [R. C. 1905, § 1659; 1905, ch. 55, § 6.]

ARTICLE 32.—PROVIDING FOR ASSESSMENT, LEVY AND COLLECTION OF TAXES WHERE TAXABLE PROPERTY FOR ANY REASON ESCAPED TAXATION FOR THE YEAR 1889 AND PRIOR YEARS.

§ 2291. When assessment omitted. In all cases when any buildings or lands in this state have heretofore been subject to taxation for the year

1889, and subsequent years, but the assessment or levy of taxes therein for any year or years has been omitted, or such assessment and levy has for any cause been omitted, or set aside, and such property has thereby escaped taxation when subject to taxation, all such taxes the assessment or levy of which has heretofore or may hereafter be omitted or set aside, including all buildings on lands heretofore declared forfeited to the state and omitted from assessment by reason thereof, shall hereafter be assessed and levied upon such buildings and lands and collected in the manner hereinafter provided. [R. C. 1905, § 1660; 1897, ch. 28, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1355m.]

§ 2292. Auditor to make list. Duty of county commissioners. Publication of notice. It shall be the duty of each county auditor, on or before the first day of June next, after the passage of this act, to make a separate list of all lands in his county since the year 1889, and of all buildings standing upon lands owned by parties other than the owners of such buildings, upon which taxes were not assessed and levied for any such year or years, or were for any cause set aside, or omitted, or has for any reason escaped taxation, but which were subject to taxation for such year. Upon the completion of such list or lists, it shall be the duty of the county auditor to forthwith notify each county commissioner of his county of such completion, and thereupon a special meeting of the board of county commissioners of such county for the purpose set forth in this article, shall be called in the manner prescribed by law, to be held at a time and place in such call designated, not less than two weeks from the time of the making of such call and not later than the fifteenth day of July next, after the passage of this act. After any such meeting shall have been called, it shall be the duty of the county auditor of the county to give notice of the time and place of such meeting, by publication in a newspaper published in his county, if there be any newspaper published therein, and if there be none, then in a newspaper published in the judicial district. Such notice shall be published at least three times before the day appointed for such meeting, and at intervals of not less than five days. Such notice may be in the following form:

State of North Dakota, }
 County of..... }
 Office of County Auditor. }

Notice is hereby given that a special meeting of the board of county commissioners of the county, for the purpose set forth in an act of the legislative assembly, entitled "An act to provide for the assessment, levy and collection of taxes upon property in cases where such property was subject to taxation, but the assessment and levy of taxes thereon have been omitted, or when such property has from any cause escaped assessment and taxation, approved, eighth day of March, A. D. 1897," will be held at the court house in..... county, commencing on the day of.....A. D. 1897, at o'clock, a. m.

§ 2293. Meeting of county commissioners. The board of county commissioners shall meet at the time and place appointed therefor in such call, and at such meeting shall add to the list aforesaid, furnished by the county auditor, a description of each tract of land within the county, owned by parties other than the owners of such buildings, not already upon such list, upon which taxes were not assessed and levied for the year or years for which such list shall have been made, which were subject to taxation for such year, but no accidental failure or omission by either the county auditor or the board of county commissioners to place upon any such list any tracts of land or buildings within the county, subject to be placed therein under the provisions of this act, shall in any manner affect the validity of anything done under the provisions of this article with reference to such lands and buildings as are actually placed upon such list. [R. C. 1905, § 1662; 1897, ch. 28, § 4; R. C. 1899, § 1355o.]

§ 2294. Shall ascertain cash value. After such list shall have been perfected as hereinbefore provided, such board shall proceed at such meetings to ascertain the true and actual cash value for each year for which such lists shall have been made, of each tract of land and of each building described in such list, and for that purpose may summon before it and examine under oath such witnesses as it may deem necessary for its information in regard to such value. In making such valuation the board shall have due regard for the average valuation of real property in the county, made according to law, for the year for which such lists shall have been made, for the purpose of taxation, and also for the relative situation, quality of soil, improvements and natural advantages possessed by such tract and lot. Any person interested in any lands or any buildings on such list shall have a right to be present at such meeting, and to be heard as to the valuation of such lands or buildings, and to swear and examine witnesses before such board upon the question of such valuation. After the valuation of any tract of land or building upon such list shall have been ascertained, as hereinbefore provided, such value shall thereupon be entered upon such list opposite to the description of such tract or building, in a column set apart for that purpose. When the valuation of all of the several tracts of lands and buildings upon such lists shall have been ascertained and entered thereon, such list and valuation shall be authenticated by the signature of the chairman of the board, which shall be a sufficient authentication thereof for all purposes. Such meeting may be adjourned from day to day, but shall not continue longer than for ten days, and the valuation of all tracts of lands and buildings upon such list shall be fully completed and authenticated in the manner hereinbefore provided, on or before the first day of August next, after the passage of this article. [R. C. 1905, § 1663; 1897, ch. 28, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 1355p.]

§ 2295. Duty of state board of equalization. After such list and valuation shall have been completed, as hereinbefore provided, the same shall remain in the custody of the county auditor of the county, and he shall on or before August first of each year, make a certified copy of such list and valuation, and forward the same to the state auditor. At the next session of the state board of equalization it shall be the duty of the state auditor to lay before the same all certified copies of such lists and valuation as shall have been received by him, and it shall thereupon be the duty of such state board to equalize the valuation of the property contained in each of such lists with the valuation of the property throughout the state, made according to law for purposes of taxation for the year for which such lists shall have been made, which equalization shall be made in the same manner as near as may be, as is provided by law for equalization of values of property throughout the state by such board. [R. C. 1905, § 1664; 1897, ch. 28, § 6; R. C. 1899, § 1355q.]

§ 2296. Lists returned to county auditor. When the state board shall have completed its equalization of the property contained in each of such lists as hereinbefore provided, the state auditor shall return each of such copies of lists received by him as aforesaid to the auditor of the county wherein the property therein described is situated, together with a statement specifying the per centum, if any, to be added to or deducted from the valuation as made by the county board as determined by such state board, and upon the receipt of such copy and statement it shall be the duty of the county auditor to add to or deduct from each tract and building upon such list the required per centum on the valuation thereof as made by the county board, and the value of each tract of land and of each building upon such

§ 2297. Authenticated by county auditor. After the valuation of such property shall have been corrected as hereinbefore provided, it shall be the duty of the county auditor to ascertain and set down in a list, opposite to the description thereof, in columns provided for that purpose, the rate of taxation for all purposes to which each tract of land and each building upon such list was subject for the year for which such list shall have been made, and such auditor shall thereupon calculate the amount of tax upon each of such tracts of land and buildings at such rate, and set down such amount upon such list, opposite to the description of the tract or building upon which such amount of taxes is so calculated, in columns appropriated for that purpose. When such amounts shall have been so calculated and set down on such list the same shall be authenticated by the signature to such list by such auditor, which shall be deemed a sufficient authentication thereof for all purposes. [R. C. 1905, § 1666; 1897, ch. 28, § 8; R. C. 1899, § 1355s.]

§ 2299. Notice to be published. In case any tax upon any such duplicate shall not be paid within three months after the receipt of such duplicate by the county treasurer, such tax shall thereafter draw interest at the rate of twelve per cent per year, and it shall be the duty of such treasurer to apply to the district court of the county, at the next term after the receipt by him of such duplicate, for judgment against the tract of land or building upon which such tax shall have been assessed for the aggregate amount of the taxes and interest thereon, upon all duplicates in his hands made under the provisions of this act. Notice of such application shall be given by publication in a newspaper published in the county, if any there be published, and if no newspaper be published in such county, then in a newspaper published in the judicial district. Such notice shall be published at least three times, at intervals of at least five days, the last publication being made at least ten days before the term of court at which such application for judgment is made. Such notice may be in the following form:

State of North Dakota, }
 County of } ss.:
 Treasurer's Office, }

Notice is hereby given that in pursuance of an act of the legislative assembly entitled (quote title) I shall apply to the district court in and for this county, at a term thereof to be held at in in this county, commencing on the day of A. D. 189., on the first day of such term, for judgment against each and every one of the tracts of land and buildings hereinafter described for all taxes levied thereon, under provisions of said act, remaining unpaid, together with interest thereon, and costs as allowed by such act. The following is a description of the lands and buildings against which judgment will be applied for:

Dated at this day of A. D. 189...

..... County Treasurer.

No service of summons nor notice other than publication of the notice in this section provided for shall be necessary to give the court to which such application is made jurisdiction to receive and act upon the same as hereinafter provided. [R. C. 1905, § 1668; 1897, ch. 28, § 11; R. C. 1899, § 1355u.]

§ 2300. Application. The application referred to in the previous section may be in the following form:

To the district court in and for the county of..... The application ofcounty treasurer, in and for county:

That in pursuance of an act of the legislative assembly entitled (quote title), certain taxes were levied upon each of the several tracts of lands and buildings hereinafter described, situated in said county, and duplicate lists of such tracts and buildings, and such taxes were placed in my hands in accordance with such act for the collection of such taxes; that more than three months have elapsed since the receipt by me of such duplicates, and there remains unpaid upon each of the following described tracts of lands and buildings, taxes charged against the same in such duplicates to the amount in aggregate in the sum hereinafter set opposite the description of such tract or building; and that said duplicates were placed in my hands on the day ofA. D. 189...

The following is a list of the lands and buildings referred to, and of the amount of the tax charged against the same upon such duplicates remaining unpaid. (Insert list.)

The applicant therefore prays the judgment of the court that the respective amounts above specified, together with interest thereon from the..... day of 189.. at the rate of twelve per cent a year, be adjudged to be a lien upon the respective tracts of lands and buildings opposite to the description of which the same are set, and that such lands and buildings be sold for the payment thereof.

..... County Treasurer.

All taxes remaining unpaid upon such duplicates shall be included in one application. [R. C. 1905, § 1669; 1897, ch. 28, § 12; R. C. 1899, § 1355v.]

§ 2301. Filing of application and proof. Upon filing such application with the court, together with proof of publication of the notice hereinbefore provided for, which may be by the affidavit of the publisher of the newspaper in which the same shall have been published, or the foreman, clerk or business manager thereof, the court shall forthwith proceed to enter judgment against each tract of land or building in such application described for which no objection shall be filed, as provided for in the next section; adjudging that the amount of tax stated in such application to be due therein, together with interests thereon as hereinbefore provided, and costs be a lien upon such tract of land or building, as the case may be, and the whole thereof, and that such tract of land or building, as the case may be, be sold for the payment of the same. All the several tracts of lands and buildings described in such application, for which no objection shall be filed, shall be included in one judgment. [R. C. 1905, § 1670; 1897, ch. 28, § 13; R. C. 1899, § 1355w.]

may at the time mentioned in such notice of application, appear in court and file objections in writing against the rendition of judgment against such tract or building, as the case may be, and thereupon the court shall proceed to try and determine the issue raised by such objections, and shall render judgment according to law and the rights of the parties. All the several tracts of lands and buildings in such application, for which objections shall be filed, but against which judgment shall be rendered upon the trial thereof shall be included in one judgment. No appeal, certiorari or other proceedings to review any judgments shall stay proceedings upon such judgment. The costs included in any such judgment shall consist of the expense of publication, of notice of application for judgment and fees of officers of the court, as allowed by law for like services in civil actions; such costs shall be apportioned among the several tracts of land and buildings in such judgment described according to the amount of the tax and interest for which judgment is rendered against the same. [R. C. 1905, § 1671; 1897, ch. 28, §§ 14, 15; R. C. 1899, § 1355x.]

§ 2303. Duties of all officers. All tracts of land or buildings against which any judgment shall be rendered shall be sold by the sheriff of the county to satisfy such judgment, together with costs and expenses of advertisement of and sale, in the same manner and upon like notice as is now or may hereafter be prescribed by law for sales of real estate for nonpayment of taxes; and purchasers at such sales shall acquire like rights as are acquired by purchasers of lands at sales of real property made under the laws of this state for nonpayment of taxes, and the duties of all officers in reference to such sales shall be the same as the duties in reference to the sales of real property under the laws of the state for nonpayment of taxes; and such lands and buildings shall be subject to redemption within three years from the time of such sales, in like manner as redemption of real property from sales made under the laws of this state for nonpayment of taxes; provided, however, that the holder of any certificate for any piece or parcel of land sold under any tax judgment must, ninety days preceding the maturity of such certificate, give personal notice to the owner, if a resident of the state, of the expiration and maturity of such certificate, and if the owner of any such piece or parcel of land is a nonresident of the state, such notice may be given by registered letter, addressed to such owner at his last known post office address, and in case the property covered by such certificate is occupied, the service of such notice shall in addition to the foregoing provision be made upon the person in possession thereof; also, by publication of the maturity of such certificate in some newspaper published in the county where the land is situated; or otherwise as hereinbefore provided, at least thirty days preceding the expiration and maturity of such certificate, and the owner may redeem such certificate by paying the amount named therein, together with accrued interest and costs. Proof of the notice herein provided for must be filed in the office of the clerk of the district court prior to the maturity of such certificate. The fee simple of any piece or parcel of land named in any certificate shall not vest in the holder thereof until the notice provided for herein is given and due proof thereof filed with the clerk of the district court. [R. C. 1905, § 1672; 1897, ch. 28, § 16; R. C. 1899, § 1355y.]

§ 2304. Moneys, how accounted for. Article, how construed. All moneys collected or received by the county treasurer under the provisions of this article shall be distributed and accounted for in like manner as taxes levied and collected under the laws of this state. This article shall not be construed to charge taxes against any property which at the time the same may have been purchased in good faith and prior to the taking effect of this article, appeared upon the books of the county as clear and free from any prior taxes thereon. [R. C. 1905, § 1673; 1897, ch. 28, §§ 17, 18; R. C. 1899, § 1355z.]

ARTICLE 33.—PROTECTION OF PUBLIC CREDIT.

§ 2305. Funding warrants, when issued. The state treasurer, with the advice and consent of the governor and state auditor, is authorized and directed to pay all state warrants legally issued, that may have been or may hereafter be presented to him for payment; provided, that the money to pay the same can be obtained at a rate of interest not to exceed eight per cent; and the auditor is authorized and directed to issue funding warrants in lieu of the warrants so paid and the treasurer is authorized and directed to apply all state funds by him received and not otherwise lawfully appropriated, to the payment and cancellation of the so-called funding warrants; provided, further, that nothing in this chapter shall authorize said treasurer, nor shall said auditor and governor consent to issue funding warrants in excess of eighty thousand dollars, nor shall they anticipate the needs of the state for a longer period than sixty days at any one time. [R. C. 1905, § 1674; 1879, ch. 58, § 2; 1890, ch. 113, § 1; 1891, ch. 94, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 13'0.]

ARTICLE 34.—PROPERTY SOLD TO STATE OR COUNTY FOR TAXES.

§ 2306. County commissioners to institute and conduct proceedings. The board of county commissioners in any county in this state is hereby authorized to cause the proceedings hereinafter provided to be instituted and conducted, whenever in the judgment of the said board it is advisable to do so. Whenever the board of county commissioners desire such proceedings to be instituted, it shall, at some regular meeting, pass a resolution to that effect, and the proceedings hereinafter provided shall be thereupon instituted forthwith. [R. C. 1905, § 1675; 1901, ch. 161, § 1; 1903, ch. 161, § 1.]

Not unconstitutional as delegating legislative power to county boards. Picton v. Cass County, 13 N. D. 242, 100 N. W. 711, 3 A. & E. Ann. Cas. 345.

§ 2307. County auditor to make list of lands. Contents. The county auditor shall make a list of every tract of land which appears upon the records of said county to have been sold to the state or county more than three years prior to the date of such resolution, and upon which land the taxes for which it was sold have not been paid to the county by redemption or assignment to an actual purchaser, subsequent to the sale. Such list shall include all such pieces or parcels which may at such tax sale or sales have been struck off or declared to have been forfeited to the state or county, whether such sale or forfeiture was valid or invalid. The list shall contain a description of each piece or parcel of land upon which said taxes shall not have been paid as aforesaid, the name of the person in whose name the piece or parcel was last assessed at the time of filing the list, or if assessed to unknown owner, so state, and the amount of tax for each year up to but excluding the taxes for the year in which the list is filed, with accrued penalty and interest. The county auditor shall attach to said list his affidavit to the effect that the same is correct. He shall immediately file such list in the office of the clerk of the district court in his county, or in the county to which his county is attached for judicial purposes. The filing of such list shall have the force and effect of the filing of a complaint in an action by the county against each piece or parcel of land in such list described, to enforce against it the taxes therein appearing against it, and the penalties and interest for the several years for which such taxes remain unpaid and also the effect of notice of pendency of such action to all parties interested in such lands or who may become interested therein subsequent to the filing of such list. [R. C. 1905, § 1676; 1897, ch. 67, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1331; 1901, ch. 161, § 2; 1903, ch. 161, § 2.]

§ 2308. Duty of county clerk. When the list required in section 2308 shall have been filed the clerk shall forthwith make a copy thereof, and attach thereto a notice which may be in substantially the following form:

State of North Dakota, } ss.: District Court, County of }Judicial District.

The state of North Dakota, to all persons, companies or corporations who have or claim any estate, right, title or interest in, or claim to, or lien upon any of the several pieces or parcels of land in the list hereto attached described.

Pursuant to a resolution of the board of county commissioners of county, adopted on the day of, 19.., the county auditor of said county has filed in my office a list of all real property heretofore sold to the state or county for taxes, and remaining unredeemed for more than three years, a copy of which list is hereto attached. Therefore you, and each of you, are hereby required to file in the office of the clerk of said court within thirty days after the last publication of this notice, your answer in writing, setting forth any objections or defense you may have to the taxes or any part thereof, or the penalties or interest thereon upon any piece or parcel of land described in such list, in, to or on which you have or claim any estate, right, title, interest, claim or lien, and in default thereof, judgment will be entered against each piece or parcel of land for taxes in such list appearing against it, for penalties and cost.

§ 2309. County auditor shall publish list. Publisher shall make affidavit of publication. The county auditor shall cause the said notice and list to be forthwith published once in each of three consecutive weeks, in some newspaper of general circulation, printed in the English language, published in the county in which the proceedings are instituted, or if there be no such newspaper published in either county, then in some newspaper published within the judicial district. The newspaper in which such publication shall be made shall be designated by a resolution of the board of county commissioners of the county in which the taxes are laid, at least ten days before the publication of such list; a copy of which resolution, certified by the county auditor, shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the district court. The owner, publisher, manager or foreman in the printing office of the newspaper in which such notice and list shall be published, shall make and file with the clerk of the district court an affidavit of such publication, stating the day in which each publication was made, and shall also file with the clerk three copies of each number of the paper in which the notice and list shall have appeared. [R. C. 1905, § 1678; 1897, ch. 67, § 4; R. C. 1899, § 1334; 1901, ch. 161, § 4; 1903, ch. 161, § 4.]

§ 2310. Answer of defense. Any person, company or corporation having any estate, right, title, or interest in, or lien upon any piece or parcel of land embraced in such list as published, may within thirty days after the last publication of such notice, file in the office of the clerk of the district court an answer verified as pleadings in civil actions setting forth the defense or objections to the tax or penalty against such piece or parcel of land, which answer need not be in any particular form, but shall clearly refer to the piece or parcel of land intended and shall set forth in ordinary and concise language the facts constituting the defense or objections to such taxes or penalties; and if the list shall embrace the taxes for two or more years, the defense or objections may be to the taxes or penalties for one or more of such years. [R. C. 1905, § 1879; 1897, ch. 67, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 1335; 1901, ch. 161, § 5; 1903, ch. 161, § 5.]

§ 2311. County clerk shall enter judgment, when. Form of. Upon the expiration of thirty days from the last publication of such notice and list, the said clerk shall, the affidavit of publication being filed, enter judgment against each and every one of such pieces or parcels as to which no answer shall have been filed for the amount of taxes, interest and penalty appearing from the list to be due thereon and the costs of the proceedings, which judgment shall include all of such pieces or parcels and shall be substantially in the following form:

State of North Dakota, } District Court,
County of } ss.:Judicial District.

In the matter of proceedings to enforce payment of taxes on real property sold to the state or county and remaining unredeemed for more than three years.

A list of real property sold to the state or county for taxes and remaining unredeemed more than three years, in the county of, having been duly filed in the office of the clerk of this court, and the notice and list required by law having been duly published as required by law, and no answer having been filed by any person, company or corporation as to the taxes upon any pieces or parcels of land hereinafter described, and more than thirty days having elapsed since the publication of such notice and list, it is hereby adjudged and decreed that each piece or parcel of land hereinafter described is liable to taxes, interest, penalties and costs to the amounts set opposite the same, as follows: (Here insert correct description of each piece or parcel and the aggregate amount due thereon.)

And the amount of taxes, interest, penalties and costs to which as hereinbefore stated each of such pieces or parcels of land is liable, is hereby declared a lien upon such piece or parcel of land as against the estate, right, title, interest, claim or lien of whatever nature in law or in equity of every person, company or corporation whatsoever. And it is adjudged that unless the amount to which each of such pieces or parcels is liable, be paid, each of such pieces or parcels be sold as provided by law, to satisfy such amount to which it is liable.

Clerk of District Court, County of.....

Such judgment shall be entered by the clerk in a book to be kept by him to be called the "real estate tax judgment book," and shall be dated and signed by the clerk. The judgment shall be written out on the left hand pages of said book, leaving the right hand pages blank for entries hereinafter provided; provided, however, that if any person shall desire to pay the taxes charged against any piece or parcel in said list before judgment is entered, he shall procure from the clerk a statement, showing the amount so charged, for the several years against such tract in said list, including accrued costs, and upon the payment of the original taxes so charged, with interest thereon from the time each of the same became delinquent and accrued costs, to the county treasurer, the treasurer shall issue his receipt to such person showing said taxes to be paid in full and shall file a duplicate of such receipt in the clerk's office, the filing of which duplicate shall be equivalent to a dismissal of the proceedings as to the tract on which the taxes have been paid, and such tax shall be omitted from the judgment entered by the clerk. [R. C. 1905, § 1680; 1897, ch. 67, § 6; R. C. 1899, § 1336; 1901, ch. 161, § 6; 1903, ch. 161, § 6.]

Publication and filing affidavit authorizes entry of judgment. Order for judgment not necessary; clerk acts ministerially. Emmons Co. v. Thompson et al., 9 N. D. 598, 84 N. W. 379.

§ 2312. Commissioners employ attorney, when. Court to dispose of case. If an answer shall be filed within the time hereinafter provided, as to the taxes and penalties upon any piece or parcel of land embraced in said list as published, the issue raised by the answer shall stand for trial at any general or special term appointed to be held in said county. The county commissioners of the county in which such taxes are laid may employ any other attorney to assist the state's attorney therein. At the term at which such proceedings come on for trial, they shall take precedence of all other business before the court. The court shall proceed without delay, without a jury, and summarily hear and determine the objections or defenses made by the several answers, and shall dispose of all said answers, and direct judgment accordingly at said term, and in the trial thereof shall disregard all technicalities and matters of form not affecting the substantial merits, and any person making answer as herein provided shall be entitled to a separate trial upon the issues raised by his answer. [R. C. 1905, § 1681; 1897, ch. 67, § 7; R. C. 1899, § 1337; 1901, ch. 161, § 7; 1903, ch. 161, § 7.]

§ 2313. Judgment against land, when. If after a hearing the court shall sustain the taxes and penalties in whole or in part against any piece or parcel of land, judgment shall be rendered against each of such pieces or parcels for the amount which the court decides is chargeable against the same, which judgment may be substantially in the form prescribed in section 2311, except that it shall, in addition, state that the same was rendered after answer and trial; and, after the description of each piece or parcel shall be stated the name of the person, company or corporation answering as to said piece or parcel. If the court sustains the defense or objection to the taxes and penalties as to any piece or parcel of land, the judgment shall after the statement of the lands against which judgment is given, state that all other pieces or parcels not embraced in that or the prior judgments of the court, and which are described in the list as published, are discharged from the taxes in said list set down against such other pieces or parcels, and from all penalties, and the court may in its discretion award disbursements against the county laying such taxes, and in favor of the party answering as to the pieces or parcels so discharged. [R. C. 1905, § 1682; 1897, ch. 67, § 8; R. C. 1899, § 1338; 1901, ch. 161, § 8; 1903, ch. 161, § 8.]

§ 2314. List filed with clerk prima facie evidence. Tax invalid, when. In all proceedings under this article the list filed with the clerk of the district court shall be prima facie evidence of the validity of all taxes charged therein. No tax involved in such proceedings shall be held invalid by reason of any irregularity in the assessment or assessment roll, or levy; provided, the assessment roll contains sufficient data from which can be definitely ascertained the description of the property intended to be assessed and the valuation fixed thereon by the assessors; and provided, the levy of such tax was made by any board or officer authorized by law to make the same, and it can be definitely ascertained from the official records of the proceedings of such officer or board what amount of taxes or what rate per cent of taxation was intended to be levied; and, provided, such levy was for a lawful purpose and within the limit authorized by law. No tax involved in proceedings under this article shall be held invalid unless it be made to appear by the party objecting thereto that one or more of the following defects exist, to wit:

1. That the property was not subject to taxation.
2. That the description or valuation of the property cannot be definitely ascertained from the assessment roll.
3. That it cannot be definitely ascertained from the official record of the proceedings of the board or officer levying the tax what amount of taxes or what rate per cent of taxation was intended to be levied.

4. That such taxes have been paid.

5. That the valuation of the property for taxation was unfair or unequal; provided, however, that no claim of any unfairness or inequality of any valuation of property shall be heard unless it appears either, that there was no meeting of the board of equalization authorized by law, to hear and determine such complaint, or if there was such meeting of such board, that it acted in excess of its powers in relation to the valuation objected to; or, that the valuation fixed by the proper board has been unlawfully increased; but in all such cases the court shall hear the evidence and determine therefrom the amount that is justly due for such taxes.

6. That the tax or some part thereof is in excess of the amount limited by law, or for a purpose unauthorized by law; but in such cases the court shall not cancel the taxes except as to such excess or as to such unlawful purpose.

§ 2315. Judgment final. Exceptions. The judgment which the court shall render shall be final, except that upon application of the county, or other party against whom the court shall have decided the point raised by any defense or objection, the court may, if in its opinion the point is of great public importance, or likely to arise frequently, make a brief statement of the facts established, hearing on the point and of its decisions, and forthwith transmit the same to the clerk of the supreme court, who shall enter the same as a cause pending in such court, and place the same on the term calendar of such court for the term then in session, or for the first term thereafter. And the same shall be entitled to preference over any other business before such court, and shall be decided by such court at the term for which it shall be entered on the calendar. As soon as it shall be decided, the clerk of the supreme court shall enter the proper order and forthwith transmit a certified copy of such order to the clerk of the proper district court; provided, that such proceedings if applied for by a party objecting to the taxes shall not stay the entry of judgment nor stay the sale thereunder unless the party applying therefor shall execute and file with the clerk of the district court an undertaking with at least two sufficient sureties to be approved by the judge of the district court, conditioned, that such party will pay all taxes, penalties, interest and costs awarded against him in such proceedings if the decision of the district court is affirmed in whole or in part. The same costs and disbursements shall be allowed to either party on such proceedings as are allowed by law in appeals to the supreme court. [R. C. 1905, § 1684; 1897, ch. 67, § 10; R. C. 1899, § 1340; 1901, ch. 161, § 10; 1903, ch. 161, § 10.]

§ 2316. Tax judgments. Duty of clerk of court. When the tax judgment pursuant to this article shall be entered against those tracts as to which no answer has been filed, the clerk of the district court shall forthwith deliver to the sheriff of the county a certified transcript of such judgment, written on the left hand pages of a book to be provided by the county, and the sheriff upon receipt of such transcript shall proceed as hereinafter provided. [R. C. 1905, § 1685; 1897, ch. 67, § 11; R. C. 1899, § 1341; 1901, ch. 161, § 11; 1903, ch. 161, § 11.]

Sheriff's certificate issued under statute as evidence of valid judgment. State Finance Co. v. Beck, 15 N. D. 374, 109 N. W. 357.

§ 2317. Taxes paid before sale. If before sale, any person wishes to pay the amount adjudged against any piece or parcel of land, such person may pay the same to the sheriff, with interest and accrued costs, if any; and the sheriff shall thereupon give a receipt for such payment and pay the amount collected, after deducting his fees, to the county treasurer. [R. C. 1905, § 1686; 1901, ch. 161, § 12; 1903, ch. 161, § 12.]

§ 2318. Sheriff shall sell land, when. After thirty days from the date of any tax judgment, if the amount therein charged shall not have been paid, the sheriff shall sell the piece or parcel of land upon which the taxes stand charged in such judgment; before making such sale he shall give notice thereof by posting such notice, one copy in the office of the clerk where the judgment shall have been entered; one copy in the office of the treasurer; and one copy at the county seat of the county, in some conspicuous place, at least ten days before the day of sale; and by publishing such notice, once in each of three consecutive weeks, the last publication to be not less than ten days before the day of sale, in some newspaper printed in the English language and of general circulation, published in the county where such lands are situated, to be designated by resolution of the board of county commissioners; if there be no such newspaper published in the county where the proceedings are instituted, then in some newspaper published within the judicial district, which notice may be substantially in the following form:

TAX JUDGMENT SALE.

Pursuant to a real estate tax judgment of the district court in the county of entered on the day of, 19.., in proceedings for enforcing payment of taxes upon real estate sold for taxes to the state or county and remaining unredeemed, I shall on the day of..... at ten o'clock in the forenoon, at, in the town of, and county of, sell the lands which are charged with taxes in said judgment and on which such taxes shall not have been previously paid.

 Sheriff of County.

At the time and place appointed in such notice, the sheriff shall commence the sale of such land, and proceed to the sale thereof from day to day (Sundays and legal holidays excepted), until the whole shall be sold. [R. C. 1905, § 1687; 1897, ch. 67, § 12; R. C. 1899, § 1342; 1901, ch. 161, § 13; 1903, ch. 161, § 13.]

§ 2319. Sale by public vendue, how. The sheriff shall sell by public vendue each piece or parcel of land separately in the order in which they are described in the judgment and by the description therein, but if the sum bid for any piece or parcel shall not be paid before the sale closes, he shall again offer such piece or parcel for sale. In offering the lands for sale, he shall state the amount for which each piece or parcel is to be sold; he shall then offer the same in fee to the highest bidder, who shall bid not less than the amount for which the same is to be sold. If no bidder shall bid an amount equal to that for which the piece or parcel is to be sold, then the county treasurer shall bid in the same for the county at such an amount. The treasurer shall attend at the sale and receive all money paid thereon. [R. C. 1905, § 1688; 1897, ch. 67, § 13; R. C. 1899, § 1343; 1901, ch. 161, § 14; 1903, ch. 161, § 14.]

This act annulled all rights obtained by the state under prior sales. McHenry v. Kidder County, 8 N. D. 413, 79 N. W. 875.

Sheriff not entitled to a fee of five dollars, for selling each piece of land. Wilson v. Cass County, 8 N. D. 456, 79 N. W. 985.

§ 2320. Sheriff executes certificate to purchaser. Form. The sheriff shall execute to the purchaser of any piece or parcel a certificate which may be substantially in the following form: I, sheriff of the county of, North Dakota, do hereby certify that at a sale of land pursuant to the real estate tax judgment entered in the district court in the county of , North Dakota, on the day of 19.., in proceedings to enforce payment of taxes on lands forfeited to the state or county for taxes, which sale was held at in said county of , North Dakota, the following described piece or parcel of land in said county, to wit: (Insert description) was struck off and sold to , for the sum of dollars; and in consideration thereof, and pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided, I do hereby convey the above described piece or parcel of land to said , his heirs and assigns, to have and to hold the same unto the said , his heirs and assigns forever, subject, however, to redemption as provided by law.

Witness my hand this day of , 19...

 Sheriff of County, North Dakota.

Such certificate in case the land shall not be redeemed, shall pass to the purchaser or county the absolute title to the land therein described without any other act or deed whatever, subject, however, to any taxes levied thereon for the year in which the list is filed and subsequent years. Such certificate shall be acknowledged and may be recorded as other deeds of real estate. If any purchaser shall at such sale purchase more than one piece or parcel or if more than one shall be bid in for the county, all of the pieces or parcels so purchased or bid in for the county may be included in the same certificate; but in all cases the certificate must state the amount at which each piece or parcel was sold or was bid in for the county. [R. C. 1905, § 1689; 1897, ch. 67, § 14; R. C. 1899, § 1344; 1901, ch. 161, § 15; 1903, ch. 161, § 15.]

Affidavit of mailing notice of expiration of time to redeem from tax sale as competent evidence of mailing. Nind v. Myers, 15 N. D. 400, 8 L.R.A. (N.S.) 157, 109 N. W. 335.

Service of notice of expiration of time to redeem from tax sale on grantees in void recorded tax deeds, is insufficient. State Finance Co. v. Beck, 15 N. D. 374, 109 N. W. 357.

§ 2321. Redemption, notice how. Not more than ninety days preceding the expiration of one year from the day of sale, the owner of such certificate of sale, except the county, shall give notice of the expiration of the time for redemption as follows: He shall deliver to the sheriff of the county for service a notice in writing containing a description of the land sold, the date of sale, the amount sold for, the amount of any subsequent taxes paid by the purchaser or assigns, with date of payment, and further stating that the time for redemption will expire one year from the date of sale; or if the notice is served less than sixty days before the expiration of the year, then sixty days after the service of said notice; said notice to be signed by the holder of the certificate or his agent or attorney. The said notice shall be served by the sheriff on the occupant of the land therein described in the same manner as a summons in a civil action is served; but if the land is unoccupied the sheriff shall post a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place on the premises. Immediately after completing service of the notice the sheriff shall return the notice to and file the same with the county auditor, together with his return of service thereon, which return shall show when and how the notice was served, and shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein recited. The time for redemption from any such sale shall not expire until the expiration of sixty days from the date of service of such notice. After the period of redemption shall have expired and no redemption made, the county auditor shall issue to the holder of the certificate of sale a certificate to the effect that the right to redeem has expired, which auditor's certificate of no redemption may be recorded in the office of the register of deeds as an instrument affecting real property. Such certificate or the record thereof shall be prima facie evidence that the right to redeem has expired and after the expiration of two years from its date shall be conclusive evidence of the service of the notice and failure to redeem. [R. C. 1905, § 1690; 1901, ch. 161, § 16; 1903, ch. 161, § 16.]

In order to establish title to premises through tax proceedings, it is necessary to prove service of such notice and filing thereof with clerk, as required by statute. McKenzie v. Boynton, 19 N. D. 531, 125 N. W. 1059.

First and last days in computing time for redemption from tax sale. 49 L.R.A. 237.

§ 2322. Auditor not to extend notations for regular annual tax sales against lands sold under judgment for same. Whenever in order to comply with the provisions of section 16 of chapter 161 of the Laws of 1903 (being section 1690 of the Revised Codes of 1905 [section 2321 herein]), any county auditor shall issue his certificate, or where theretofore there shall have been issued a county auditor's certificate to the holder of a certificate of sheriff's real estate tax judgment sale (provided for under section 15 of said act [section 2320 herein]) to the effect that the right to redeem the land therein described has or had expired the county auditor shall thereupon at the place of entry of tax against said land upon the original collection tax list of each and every year included in, and for which such judgment against said land was taken, write or stamp the words, "judgment sale," and the date of such judgment sale, and he shall not thereafter make or extend against said land upon the tax list of any subsequent year any entry or notation of the regular annual tax sale or sales originally made to either the state or county for the year or years included in, and for which such judgment was taken. [1913, ch. 114, § 1.]

§ 2323. Empowers auditor to erase, cancel and annul notation. And if at the time of issuing said certificate of no redemption to the holder of such sheriff's certificate of judgment sale as under section 2322 the tax lists of any subsequent years shall have had extended or noted against said land any sale or sales to either the state or county for any year or years included in such judgment sale, then the county auditor is hereby empowered and directed to erase, cancel and annul any such extensions and notations against said land upon the tax lists for any and all years subsequent to the year last included in such judgment. [1913, ch. 114, § 2.]

§ 2324. Certificate evidence of compliance. The certificate of sale shall in all cases be prima facie evidence that all the requirements of law with respect to the sale have been duly complied with. And no sale shall be set aside or held invalid unless the party objecting to the same shall prove, either that the court rendering the judgment pursuant to which the sale was made had no jurisdiction to render the judgment, or that after the judgment, and before the sale such judgment had been satisfied; and such certificate shall be conclusive evidence that due notice of sale, as required by this article, was given and that the piece or parcel of land was duly offered for sale and sold, and the validity of any sale shall not be called in question unless the action in which the validity of the sale shall be called in question shall be brought, or the defense alleging its invalidity be interposed within three years from the date of sale. [R. C. 1905, § 1691; 1897, ch. 67, § 15; R. C. 1899, § 1345; 1901, ch. 161, § 17; 1903, ch. 161, § 17.]

Certificate of sale for taxes is prima facie evidence of valid sale without proof of precedent judgment. Nind v. Myers, 15 N. D. 400, 8 L.R.A.(N.S.) 157, 109 N. W. 336.

Validity of tax sale cannot be questioned after three years. State Finance Co. v. Beck, 15 N. D. 374, 109 N. W. 357.

A sale of land for taxes and a tax certificate issued thereon are void where the assessment was void for failure to designate the township and range, notwithstanding above provision limiting the grounds upon which a tax sale can be attacked. Paine v. Germantown Trust Co., 136 Fed. 527.

§ 2325. Duty of sheriff. The sheriff shall immediately after such sale set out in his transcript of judgment book opposite the description of each piece or parcel of land, to whom and for what amount the same was sold, and shall deliver the book to the county auditor, who shall keep the same as one of the records of his office; and the sheriff shall also, as soon as possible after the sale, file with the clerk of the district court a report of his proceedings on such sale showing the completion of the same and accompanied by a copy of the notice of sale as published, and an affidavit of the owner, publisher, manager or foreman in the printing office of the newspaper in which such notice was published, showing the date on which the same was published; the clerk shall then mark said judgment satisfied on his records. [R. C. 1905, § 1692; 1897, ch. 67, § 16; R. C. 1899, § 1346; 1901, ch. 161, § 18; 1903, ch. 161, § 18.]

§ 2327. Auditor assigns right to unredeemed lands. Form of assignment. After any piece or parcel of land shall have been bid in for the county, at any time before the time to redeem expires, and while the same shall remain unredeemed, the county auditor shall assign the right of the county in such piece or parcel of land to any person who shall at any time before the time for redemption expires pay the amount for which the same shall have been bid in, with interest and the amount of any subsequent taxes, penalties and interest upon the same, and shall execute to such person an assignment which may be substantially in the following form:

Whereas, at the sale of land pursuant to the tax judgment entered in the district court in the county of on the day of in proceedings to enforce the payment of taxes for the county of which sale was had on the day of, the following described piece or parcel of land situated in the county of, state of North Dakota, to wit: (Here insert description) was bid in for the county, and on this day having paid into the treasury of said county the amount for which the same was bid in, and all subsequent taxes, penalties and interest, amounting in all to dollars.

Therefore, pursuant to the law in such cases made and provided, the whole right, title and interest of said county of in or to said piece or parcel of land, acquired at said sale, is hereby assigned to said, his heirs and assigns forever.

(Signed)

Auditor of the County of.....

Which assignment shall be acknowledged and may be recorded as deeds of real estate. Such assignee of the county shall succeed to all rights acquired by the county at such sale, but as a condition precedent to acquiring any absolute title to the lands sold, he must give the same notice of the expiration of the time of redemption as is herein required to be given by a purchaser at the sale. [R. C. 1905, § 1694; 1897, ch. 67, § 19; R. C. 1899, § 1349; 1901, ch. 161, § 20; 1903, ch. 161, § 20.]

Assignment valid when required payment made. Darling et al. v. Purcell et al., 13 N. D. 288, 100 N. W. 726.

§ 2328. Redemption, how. Any person having any estate or interest in the property, wishing to redeem from such sale, may make such redemption at any time within one year by paying into the treasury of the county, to the use of the person entitled thereto:

1. If such piece or parcel shall have been bid in for the county, and the right of the county shall not have been assigned, the amount for which the same was bid in, with interest, and the amount of subsequent taxes, penalties and interest.

2. If the right of the county shall have been assigned, the amount paid by the assignee with interest from the day when so paid, and, if he shall have paid any taxes, penalties or interest, accruing subsequent to the assignment, the amount so paid by him, with interest from the day of such payment, and all unpaid taxes, interest and penalty that may have accrued on such piece or parcel after such assignment, including the fees, if any, for serving notice of expiration of redemption.

3. If the same shall have been sold to a purchaser the amount paid by such purchaser, with interest, and if he shall have paid any taxes, penalties or interest, accruing subsequent to sale, the amount so paid by him, with interest from the day of paying the same and all unpaid taxes, interest and penalties accruing subsequent to such sale including the fees, if any, for serving notice of expiration of redemption.

Upon receipt of such payment from a redemptioner, the treasurer shall deliver to him a receipt therefor and upon the production of such receipt to the county auditor, he shall execute to the person redeeming a certificate which may be substantially in the following form:

I,, auditor of the county of, state of North Dakota, do hereby certify that on the day of, 19..., paid into the treasury of the county the sum of dollars, for redemption of the following described piece or parcel of land situated in the county of, state of North Dakota, to wit: (Insert description of land,) from the sale thereof made on the day of, pursuant to a tax judgment entered in the district court in the county of on the day of, in proceedings to enforce payment of taxes for the county of, and that said piece or parcel of land is redeemed from such sale pursuant to law.

§ 2329. Minors, insane persons, etc., redeem, when. Minors, insane persons, idiots, or persons in captivity or in any country with which the United States is at war, having any estate in, or lien on lands sold for taxes, may redeem the same within one year after such disability shall cease, but in such cases the right to redeem must be established in a suit for that purpose, brought against the party holding the title under the sale. [R. C. 1905, § 1696; 1901, ch. 161, § 22; 1903, ch. 161, § 22.]

§ 2330. Person interested may redeem, how. Any person who has an interest in or lien on an undivided estate in any piece or parcel of land sold or an estate or interest in any part thereof, may redeem such part of the undivided estate by paying into the treasury a proportionate part of the amount required to redeem the whole estate, and in such case the certificate shall express the estate, portion of, or interest redeemed. [R. C. 1905, § 1697; 1897, ch. 67, § 22; R. C. 1899, § 1351; 1901, ch. 161, § 23; 1903, ch. 161, § 23.]

§ 2331. Procedure in redemption. Upon application of the party entitled thereto, the treasurer upon the order of the auditor shall pay to such applicant any money paid into the treasury on the sale of any piece or parcel of land in excess of the amount due thereon. The procedure upon redemption except as herein otherwise provided shall be the same as that prescribed by law in respect to sales for delinquent taxes. [R. C. 1905, § 1698; 1897, ch. 67, § 23; R. C. 1899, § 1352; 1901, ch. 161, § 24; 1903, ch. 161, § 24.]

§ 2332. Person in possession may redeem, when. Any person in possession under a lease of any piece or parcel of land, or any part thereof, against which a judgment pursuant to this article shall have been rendered, may before the time to redeem shall expire, redeem the same. And the amount paid by him shall, unless by the terms of the lease he is bound to pay such taxes, operate as a payment of the same amount of rent to the party from whom he leases. [R. C. 1905, § 1699; 1897, ch. 67, § 24; R. C. 1899, § 1353; 1901, ch. 161, § 25; 1903, ch. 161, § 25.]

Redemption expires and title passes when statutory notice of redemption given and proof thereof filed. Cruser & Baker v. Williams, 13 N. D. 284, 100 N. W. 721.

§ 2333. Fees of clerk of court. The fees charged by the clerk of the district court in said proceedings shall be as follows: For making a copy of list for publication, the sum of five cents for each piece or parcel of land described in said list. For entry of judgment against tracts as to which no answer was filed, five cents for each piece or parcel as to which judgment is entered. For making transcript of judgment for sheriff, the sum of five cents for each piece or parcel described in said transcript. For filing an answer, ten cents; for entering judgment against any tract as to which an answer is filed, fifty cents, and said fees shall be included in the amount charged to each tract in the judgment. The auditor shall charge for preparing and filing the list aforesaid, the sum of ten cents for each tract therein described, and said fees shall be included in the amount charged to each tract in the judgment. All such fees shall be retained by the county wherein such proceedings are instituted. [R. C. 1905, § 1700; 1897, ch. 67, § 25; R. C. 1899, § 1354; 1901, ch. 161, § 26; 1903, ch. 161, § 26.]

§ 2334. County commissioners award advertising, how. The county commissioners shall award the advertising, provided in sections 2309 and 2318, to the publisher or publishers of some newspaper, daily if there be one published in the county, if not, then in some weekly newspaper, which shall have been published for at least six months prior to the time of such publication, the sum of twenty cents per folio of nonpareil type for each of the three publications, as provided in sections 2309 and 2318, and who shall give a bond to the county, with at least two sureties, freeholders of the county, to be approved, and in an amount to be fixed by said county commissioners, conditioned for the correct and faithful performance of such advertising. And in any suit by the county on such bond, for breach of the conditions thereof, the county shall recover as damages, one-half of the taxes, penalty and interest upon each piece or parcel of land in the copy list made by the clerk which may be affected by an error in the publication of the notice and list, or either, mentioned in section 2308, wherein the printer departed from the copy furnished him. § 2335. Clerk delivers transcript to sheriff, when. When judgment shall have been entered on the issue raised by answer to any tract under the provisions of this article, the clerk shall deliver to the sheriff a transcript thereof in the same manner as is provided by section 2316, and the same proceedings shall thereupon be taken as to such additional tract as is herein provided as to the tracts as to which no answer was made; provided, however, that the clerk may withhold the transcript of any judgment entered in contested cases until all or a convenient number of pending cases are determined and may include all such judgments in one transcript. And the notice of sale in such cases to be posted and published by the sheriff shall specifically describe each tract to be sold. [R. C. 1905, § 1702; 1901, ch. 161, § 28; 1903, ch. 161, § 28.]

§ 2336. Fees of sheriff. The sheriff for all acts required of him under the provisions of this article shall receive the following compensation:

First, for receiving and collecting of money under the provisions of section 2317, the same fees as are allowed by law upon an execution in a civil action.

Second, for making the sale and issuing the certificate, the sum of seventy-five cents for each piece or parcel of land sold, which sum shall be included in the amount for which the tract is offered for sale, and shall be paid to the sheriff out of the general fund of the county.

Third, for serving notice of expiration of redemption, or posting same, the same fees as are allowed by law for service of summons in a civil action. [R. C. 1905, § 1703; 1901, ch. 161, § 29; 1903, ch. 161, § 29.]

§ 2337. Purchaser entitled to possession, when. When any piece or parcel of land shall be sold, the purchaser, after the time for redemption shall have expired, shall be entitled to immediate possession of the piece or parcel purchased by him, and if, on demand and presentation of the certificate of sale, the person in possession of the piece or parcel refuses or neglects to deliver such possession, such person may be proceeded against as a person holding over after the termination of his estate, which proceeding may be instituted and prosecuted as prescribed in the code of civil procedure. [R. C. 1905, § 1704; 1897, ch. 67, § 27; R. C. 1899, § 1355a; 1901, ch. 161, § 30; 1903, ch. 161, § 30.]

§ 2338. Purchase price refunded when sale declared void. When a sale of lands as provided in this article is for any cause declared void by judgment of court, the money paid by the purchaser at the sale, or by the assignee of the state or county, upon taking the assignment, shall, with interest at the rate of seven per cent per annum from the date of such payment be refunded to the purchaser or assignee or the party holding his right out of the county treasury on the order of the county auditor, and so much of such money as has been paid to the state, city, village, township and school district shall be charged to the same respectively, and deducted from the next money due the state, city, village, township and school district respectively on account of taxes; provided, that if such purchaser or assignee or party holding his right, shall after such purchase or assignment from the county have paid the taxes, penalties and interest upon such piece or parcel of land, he shall have a lien upon such piece or parcel for the amount of taxes, penalties and interest so paid, with interest at the rate by this article allowed, and may enforce such lien by action, or if he is in possession of such piece or parcel shall not be ejected therefrom until such amount and interest shall be paid. [R. C. 1905, § 1705; 1897, ch. 67, § 28; R. C. 1899, § 1355b; 1901, ch. 161, § 31; 1903, ch. 161, § 31.]

Right of purchaser at invalid tax sale, in absence of statute, to be reimbursed by taxing authority for the purchase price, or for taxes subsequently paid by him. 31 L.R.A.(N.S.) 1141.

Right of one holding under invalid tax deed to be reimbursed for improvements. 34 L.R.A.(N.S.) 550.

Has no application to any collections made as penalty and interest in absence of sale. State ex rel. Viking Twp. v. Mikkelson, 24 N. D. 175, 139 N. W. 525.

§ 2339. Taxes, who pay. When. Whenever the proceeding herein provided for shall have been directed to be instituted by the board of county commissioners, any person may pay the taxes mentioned in section 2307, on or before the day when the list is filed with the clerk of the district court as provided in section 2307, by paying the amount of the tax for the several years, with interest at the rate of seven per cent per annum from the time when the taxes of each year became delinquent, and without any other interest, penalty or costs; and such payment shall relieve the piece or parcel of land on which the taxes shall be so paid from any forfeiture to the county whether valid or invalid. Judgment rendered pursuant to this article shall bear interest at the rate of two per cent per month; the amount for which any piece or parcel shall have been sold or bid in shall bear interest at the same rate from the date of the sale. All subsequent taxes paid by the purchaser or an assignee shall bear interest at the same rate from the date of such payment; the amount paid by any person taking an assignment of the right of the county shall bear interest at the same rate, from the time of such payment. [R. C. 1905, § 1706; 1897, ch. 67, § 29; R. C. 1899, § 1355c; 1903, ch. 161, § 32; 1903, ch. 161, § 32.]

§ 2340. Proceedings in assignment. Whenever an assignment of any right derived from a sale provided in this article, shall be made before the time for redemption expires, the assignee shall present the assignment to the auditor, who shall note on the copy of the judgment book provided by section 2316, the name of the assignee, and the date of the assignment, and indorse on such assignment the word "countersigned," and sign his name to the same; and no such assignment shall be recorded by the register of deeds until such indorsement is made. [R. C. 1905, § 1707; 1897, ch. 67, § 30; R. C. 1899, § 1355d; 1901, ch. 161, § 33; 1903, § 33.]

§ 2342. Local assessments deemed taxes. Local assessments shall be deemed taxes for all the purposes of this article. [R. C. 1905, § 1709; 1897, ch. 67, § 32; R. C. 1899, § 1355f; 1901, ch. 161, § 35; 1903, ch. 161, § 35.]

§ 2343. Duty of clerk. The clerk shall attach together and keep in his office the list, notices, affidavit of publication, one copy of the newspaper in which the notice and list were published, all answers, all orders made in the proceedings, and all affidavits and other papers filed in the course of the proceedings. [R. C. 1905, § 1710; 1897, ch. 67, § 33; R. C. 1899, § 1355g; 1901, ch. 161, § 36; 1903, ch. 161, § 36.]

§ 2344. Proceedings, how often. The proceedings provided in this article shall not be resorted to in any county oftener than once in six years. [R. C. 1905, § 1711; 1903, ch. 161, § 37.]

§ 2345. Powers of county commissioners. Forfeit lands. This article shall not be construed so as to repeal any existing laws with respect to the power of county commissioners to dispose of lands forfeited to the state or county for taxes. [R. C. 1905, § 1712; 1903, ch. 161, § 38.]

§ 2346. Valid judgment not waived. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to waive the conclusive effect of any valid judgment heretofore entered against any of the lands affected by this article in proceedings under chapter 67 of the general laws of 1897, and in entering judgment in proceedings under this article against such lands for taxes included in a judgment entered against such lands under said former act, the amount of such taxes included in said former judgment with the interest accrued thereon under said act shall be included in the judgment under this article. [R. C. 1905, § 1713; 1903, ch. 161, § 39.]

THE MILITARY CODE.

The title of Laws 1909, ch. 165, is "The Military Code" (and see section 2435). It expressly repeals nearly all of the three articles constituting chapter 35 of the Revised Codes of 1905 entitled "the militia." Inasmuch as the act of 1909 likewise legislates for the "militia" (see section 2350), the few sections in R. C. 1905, ch. 35, that were not expressly repealed, but were impliedly continued in force by their omission from the enumerated sections repealed by section 97 of the "Military Code," quoted below in this note, have been incorporated in appropriate places in this chapter, although some of them are evidently superseded in part by the provisions in the Military Code as enacted in 1909.

The last section (97) of the Military Code, Laws 1909, ch. 165, provides as follows:

"Sections 1714, 1715, 1716, 1718, 1719, 1720, 1721, 1722, 1723, 1724, 1725, 1726, 1727, 1728, 1729, 1730, 1732, 1733, 1735, 1736, 1738, 1739, 1741, 1742, 1743, 1744, 1745, 1747, 1748, 1749, 1750, 1751, 1752, 1753, 1756, 1757, 1758, 1759, 1760, 1761, 1762, 1763, 1764, 1765, 1766, 1767, 1768, 1769, 1770, 1771, 1772, 1773, 1774, 1775, 1776, 1777, 1778, 1779, 1782, 1783, 1784, 1785, 1786, 1788, 1794, 1795, 1796 and 1798 of the revised codes of 1905 are hereby repealed."

Section 71 of the same chapter is also a repealing section and is quoted in section 2412 note.

§ 2347. Persons subject to military duty. Exemptions. All able bodied male citizens and able bodied males of foreign birth who have declared their intention to become citizens, who are more than eighteen or less than forty-five years of age, and who are residents of this state, shall constitute the militia, subject to the following exemptions:

1. Persons exempted by the laws of the United States.
2. Persons exempted by the laws of this state. [1909, ch. 165, § 1; R. C. 1905, § 1714; 1891, ch. 86, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1356.]

§ 2349. Notice of enrollment. Exemption claims. The assessor making the enrollment shall, at the time of making the same, serve a notice of such enrollment upon each person enrolled, by delivering such notice to him or leaving it with some person of suitable age and discretion, at his place of residence. All persons claiming exemption must, within fifteen days after receiving such notice, file a written statement of such exemption, verified by affidavit, in the office of the county auditor. Such auditor shall thereupon, if such person be exempted according to law, mark the word "exempt" opposite his name, and the remainder of all thus enrolled, and not thus found to be exempt, shall constitute the militia of the state, and such auditor shall transmit a certified copy of such corrected roll to the adjutant-general on or before July first of each year. [1909, ch. 165, § 3.]

§ 2350. Designation and classification of the militia. The militia of the state shall be divided into two classes: the active and the reserve militia. The active militia shall consist of the organized and uniformed military forces of the state, which shall be known as the North Dakota national guard; the reserve militia shall consist of all those liable to service in the militia, but not serving in the national guard of the state. [1909, ch. 165, § 4.]

state, territory or district shall be permitted to enter the state for the purpose of doing military duty therein, without the permission of the governor, unless such force is part of the United States army or is acting under the authority of the United States. [1909, ch. 165, § 5; R. C. 1905, § 1719; 1891, ch. 86, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 1360.]

§ 2352. Staff of the governor. The staff of the governor shall consist of one adjutant-general, with the rank of brigadier-general, who shall perform the duties of inspector-general; one chief of ordnance; one judge advocate-general, with the rank of colonel, who shall perform the duties of inspector-general; one chief of supply, with the rank of colonel, who shall perform the duties of paymaster-general and commissary-general, and, when a vacancy shall occur in the office of chief of supply, by reason of the death, resignation or promotion of the present chief of supply, the title of this office shall thereafter be paymaster-general, and the said paymaster-general shall thereafter perform the duties of commissary-general and chief of supply. The personal staff of the governor shall consist of nine aides-de-camp. Three of such number shall be detailed by him from the commissioned officers of the national guard holding commissions on the active list of the grade below that of colonel, and shall have the rank of colonel, and their appointment shall operate as commission as aides-de-camp, but shall not add to the actual grade in the guard of the officers so appointed. Such aides-de-camp shall not be relieved from duty with their respective organizations when such organizations shall be performing any ordered duty. The governor is also authorized to appoint additional aides-de-camp, with the rank of lieutenant-colonel, not to exceed six in number, and without restriction as to source of selection. All of these staff officers shall be appointed by the governor, shall hold office during his pleasure, and their commissions or detail as staff officers shall expire with the term of office of the governor appointing them. [1909, ch. 165, § 6; R. C. 1905, § 1719; 1891, ch. 86, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 1360.]

§ 2353. Power of the governor in case of invasion, etc. The governor shall have power, in case of insurrection, invasion, tumult, riot, or breach of the peace, or imminent danger thereof, to order into the active service of the state any part of the militia that he may deem proper. When the militia of this state or a part thereof is called forth under the constitution and laws of the United States, the governor shall order out for service the active militia or such part thereof as may be necessary, and if the number available be insufficient, he shall order out such part of the reserve militia as he may deem necessary. During the absence of organizations of the national guard in the service of the United States their state designations shall not be given to new organizations. [1909, ch. 165, § 7; R. C. 1905, § 1761; 1891, ch. 86, § 43; R. C. 1899, § 1399.]

Forces other than state militia not entitled to subsistence. Stanton v. State, 5 S. D. 515, 59 N. W. 738.

Power of governor, in exercise of power to suppress insurrection, to authorize arrest and detention of persons without turning them over to the civil authorities. 12 L.R.A. (N.S.) 979.

§ 2354. Method of drafting reserves for service. Whenever it shall be necessary to call out any portion of the reserve militia for active duty the governor shall direct his order to the adjutant-general, who, upon receipt of same, shall forthwith cause to be drafted by lot, by mustering officers detailed for that duty from the national guard, as many of the reserve militia, or accept as many volunteers as are required by the governor, and the adjutant-general shall forthwith forward to the governor a list of persons so drafted or accepted as volunteers. [1909, ch. 165, § 8.]

§ 2355. Punishment for failure to appear. Every member of the militia ordered out, or who volunteers, or is drafted under the provisions of this act [chapter] who does not appear at the time and place designated by his commanding officer, the adjutant-general or mustering officer, within twenty-four hours of such time, or who does not produce a sworn certificate of physical disability from a physician in good standing, showing his disability to appear, shall be taken as a deserter and dealt with as prescribed in the articles of war of the United States. [1909, ch. 165, § 9; R. C. 1905, § 1763; 1891, ch. 86, § 45; R. C. 1899, § 1401.]

§ 2356. Organization of reserve militia when ordered out. The portion of the reserve militia ordered out or accepted into the service, as indicated in sections eight and nine of this article [sections 2354, 2355], shall be immediately mustered into the service of the state for three years or such less period as the governor may direct, and shall be organized into batteries or companies, which may be arranged in battalions or regiments, or assigned to organizations of the national guard already existing. The governor is authorized to appoint the officers necessary to commence or complete any organization thus created. Such new organization shall be equipped, disciplined and governed according to this military code and the military regulations of the state. [1909, ch. 165, § 10.]

§ 2357. Proclamation of state of insurrection. Whenever any portion of the militia is employed in aid of the civil authority, the governor, if in his judgment the maintenance of law and order will thereby be promoted, may by proclamation declare the county or city in which the troops are serving, or any specified portion thereof, to be in a state of insurrection. [1909, ch. 165, § 11.]

§ 2358. Occasion when the articles of war of the United States are to be in force. Whenever any portion of the militia shall be on duty under or pursuant to the orders of the governor or shall be on duty or ordered to assemble for duty in time of war, insurrection, invasion, public danger, or to aid the civil authorities on account of any breach of the peace, tumult, riot, resistance to process of this state, or imminent danger thereof, or for any other cause, the articles of war governing the army of the United States, as far as such regulations are consistent with this chapter and the regulations issued thereunder, shall be in force and regarded as a part of this chapter until said forces shall duly be relieved from such duty. As to offenses committed when such articles of war are so in force, courts-martial shall possess, in addition to the jurisdiction and power of sentence and punishment herein vested in them, all additional jurisdiction and power of sentence and punishment exercisable by like courts under such articles of war or the regulations or laws governing the United States army or the customs and usages thereof, but no punishment under such rules and articles which shall extend to the taking of life, shall, in any case, be inflicted except in time of actual war, invasion, or insurrection, declared by proclamation of the governor to exist, and then only after the approval by the governor of the sentence inflicting such punishment. Imprisonment other than in guardhouse shall be executed in jails or prisons designated by the governor for the purpose. [1909, ch. 165, § 12.]

Part of this section was evidently found in R. C. 1905, § 1717, which constitutes the following section herein.

Articles of War of the United States do not govern militia of national guard in times of peace. State ex rel. Poole v. Peake, 22 N. D. 457, 40 L.R.A.(N.S.) 354, 135 N. W. 197.

§ 2358a. How governed. The militia while in active service shall be governed by the military law of the state, and the rules and articles of war of the United States; and when any troops are in the field for the purposes aforesaid, the senior ranking officer of the troops present shall take command; provided, that no person shall be eligible to a command in the militia of this state, except citizens of the United States or persons who have declared their intention to become such. [R. C. 1905, § 1717; 1891, ch. 86, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 1358.]

This was R. C. 1905, § 1717, which was not expressly repealed by the Military Code of 1909. See note immediately preceding section 2347 herein.

Articles of War of United States do not govern militia of national guard in times of peace. State ex rel. Poole v. Peake, 22 N. D. 457, 40 L.R.A. (N.S.) 354, 135 N. W. 197.

§ 2359. Relief from civil or criminal liability. Security for costs. Members of the militia ordered into active service of the state by any proper authority shall not be liable, civilly or criminally, for any act or acts done by them while on duty. When a suit or proceeding shall be commenced in any court by any person against any officer of the militia, for any act done by such officer in his official capacity in the discharge of any duty under this act [chapter], or against any person acting under the authority or order of any such officer, or by virtue of any warrant issued by him pursuant to law, the defendant may require the person prosecuting or instituting the suit or proceeding to file security for the payment of the costs that may be awarded to the defendant therein, and the defendant in all cases may make a general denial and give the special matter in evidence. In case the plaintiff shall be nonsuited, or have a verdict or judgment rendered against him, the defendant shall recover treble costs. Active service under this act [chapter] shall be deemed to be service in case of or to prevent insurrection, riot or invasion, under order of the commander in chief, communicated through the proper military channels. [1909, ch. 165, § 13; R. C. 1905, §§ 1761, 1773; 1891, ch. 86, §§ 43, 55; R. C. 1899, §§ 1399, 1411.]

Homicide in discharge of military duty. 67 L.R.A. 295.

§ 2360. The adjutant-general. The adjutant-general shall be in control of the military department of the state. He will perform such duties as pertain to the adjutant-general and the other chiefs of staff departments, under the regulations and customs of the United States army. He will superintend the preparation of all returns and reports required by the United States from the state and will perform all the duties prescribed for him in this military code. He shall receive the sum of nine hundred dollars per annum for the purpose of defraying his personal expenses in the discharge of the duties pertaining to his office and for other necessary expenses, to be paid quarterly without the filing of any itemized statement.

See section 2360a and note.

1. He shall keep a register of all the officers of the militia of the state, and keep in his office all records and papers required to be kept and filed therein, and make a report on or before the thirty-first day of December in each year to the governor, including a detailed statement of all the expenditures for military purposes during that year.

2. He shall, at the expense of the state, when necessary, cause the military law, the general regulations of the state, and articles of war of the United States, to be printed, indexed and bound in proper and compact form and distributed to the commissioned officers of this state at the rate of one copy to each, and to each commissioned officer and headquarters he shall issue one copy of the necessary text books and of such annual reports concerning the militia as the governor may direct.

3. He shall cause to be prepared and issued all necessary blank books, blanks, forms and notices required to carry into full effect the provision of this chapter. All such books and blanks shall be and remain the property of the state.

4. The seal now used in the office of the adjutant-general shall be the seal of his office, and shall be delivered by him to his successor.

5. The adjutant-general may have the necessary clerks and employes and as many laborers as may be required from time to time.

6. In order that the national guard of the state may receive the benefit of the funds provided by congress, it shall be the duty of the adjutant-general of the state to submit a plan of proposed field or camp service of instruction prepared by the commanding officer of the national guard for the ensuing year, with an estimate of funds required for payment, subsistence and transportation of the portion of the national guard participating therein, said estimate to furnish the details and to be made out in the form required by instructions from the secretary of war.

7. He shall make such regulations relating to the preparation of reports and returns and to the care and preservation of property for military purposes, whether belonging to the state or to the United States, as in his opinion the conditions demand, such regulations to be operative and in force when promulgated in the form of general orders, circulars or letters of instructions.

8. The adjutant-general shall, in addition to other duties, organize and conduct a bureau of pensions, for the purpose of assisting ex-soldiers or sailors, residents of the state, who may apply for pensions on account of wounds or disability incurred in the service of the United States, in establishing their claims, without fee or commissions.

See section 2360a and note.

9. All military property of the state which, after a proper inspection, shall be found unsuitable for the use of the state, shall, under the direction of the governor, be disposed of by the adjutant-general at public auction after suitable advertisement of the sale, daily for ten days, in at least one newspaper published in the English language in the city or county where the sale is to take place; or the same may be sold at private sale when so ordered by the governor. He shall bid in the property or suspend the sale whenever, in his opinion, better prices may or should be obtained. He shall, from time to time, render to the governor a just and true account of the sales made by him, and shall expend the proceeds of the same in the purchase of other military property, as the governor may direct. He shall be responsible for all the arms, ordnance, accoutrements, equipments and other military property which may be issued to the state by the secretary of war in compliance with law; and it shall thereafter be his duty to prepare returns of said arms and other property of the United States at the times and in the manner requested by the secretary of war. He shall, upon the order of the governor, turn into the ordnance department of the United States army the rifles, carbines, bayonets, bayonet scabbards, gun slings, belts and such other necessary accoutrements and equipments, the property of the United States and now in possession of the state, which may be replaced from time to time, by new arms, equipments, etc., sent by the United States in substitution thereof, and cause the same to be shipped, under instructions from the secretary of war, to the designated arsenal or depot at the expense of the United States, and when the national guard of the state shall be fully armed and equipped with standard service magazine arms, and the standard equipment and accoutrement of the United States army, he shall cause all the remaining arms, equipments, etc., the property of the United States and in possession of the state, to be transferred and shipped as above directed.

10. He shall issue and cause to be issued all military property and make purchase for that purpose. No military property shall be issued to persons or organizations other than those belonging to the active militia, except to such portions of the reserve militia as may be called out by the governor. Purchases of property not exceeding one hundred dollars in value shall be made in such manner as the adjutant-general shall direct. If such purchase requires an expenditure exceeding one hundred dollars and not exceeding five hundred dollars, he shall procure written proposals to furnish such property from at least two parties, and shall purchase such property from the lowest responsible bidder. If such purchase shall require the expenditure of a sum exceeding five hundred dollars, he shall publicly advertise, for not less than ten days, for sealed proposals for the furnishing of such property. Such proposals shall be publicly opened by the adjutant-general at the place, day and hour designated in such advertisement. The adjutant-general shall, if the governor approve, make contract with the lowest responsible bidder to furnish such property. All proposals and contracts made under the authority hereby conferred shall be filed in the office of the adjutant-general. The adjutant-general is authorized and directed whenever, in his opinion, it shall be to the interest of the state, to require a party who shall agree or contract to furnish such property, to give bond to the people of this state, in such sum and with such surety as he shall direct, conditioned for the faithful performance of such agreement or contract. In case default is made, such bond shall be prosecuted by the attorney-general and all moneys recovered shall be applied by the adjutant-general to the benefit of the national guard. All property purchased under the authority hereby granted shall be inspected by an inspector or an officer detailed for that purpose by the commanding officer of the national guard, and no payment shall be made therefor until it shall appear by the certificate of such officer that such property is of the kind and quality specified in such agreement or contract. In case of insurrection, invasion, tumult, riot, breaches of the peace or imminent danger, or other exigency, the governor may, upon the certificate of the commanding officer of the national guard, temporarily suspend the operation of this paragraph and direct the adjutant-general to purchase such military property as may be required in open market. He shall report such action, with the reason therefor, and a statement of the property purchased and the prices paid therefor, to the legislature at its next session.

11. He shall render annually to the governor a statement in detail showing the acquisition and disposition of all clothing, ordnance, arms, ammunition and other military property on hand or issued.

As to report to the governor, see sections 95, 97, 98.

12. He shall keep in his office a list of the retired officers of the organized militia, showing their age, military experience and training. He shall annually request the commandant of cadets of the agricultural college and state university to furnish him with the names of two graduates qualified to act as officers, and shall request from any other state educational institution that maintains an efficient military department, the name of one graduate similarly qualified. The names of the persons so reported to him, together with any others designated by the war department of the United States, shall be added to the list of persons eligible for appointment as officers. In case of a call upon the governor of North Dakota by the president of the United States for volunteers, all regiments organized, in addition to the then organized militia of North Dakota, shall be officered above the rank of second lieutenant by officers selected and commissioned by the governor by and with the advice of the adjutant-general, from the persons whose names are listed in the adjutant-general's office under this section, or from the officers and non-commissioned officers of the organized militia; provided, that no person shall be commissioned colonel of a volunteer regiment who has not served at least two years as a field officer in either the organized militia or volunteers or as a captain or field officer in the regular army of the United States, and that no person shall be commissioned major in a volunteer regiment who has not served at least two years as either captain or first lieutenant in either the organized militia, volunteers or regular army of the United States. [1909, ch. 165, § 14; R. C. 1905, §§ 1736, 1737; 1891, ch. 86, §§ 19, 20; R. C. 1899, §§ 1374, 1375; 1905, ch. 12.]

§ 2360a. Adjutant-general's salary and expenses. [The adjutant-general shall, in addition to his other duties, organize and conduct a bureau of pensions, for the purpose of assisting ex-soldiers or sailors, residents of the state, who may apply for pensions on account of wounds or disability incurred in the service of the United States, in establishing their claims without fee or commissions.] The salary of the adjutant-general shall be eighteen hundred dollars per annum, which, with the necessary expenses incurred in conducting the bureau of pensions, office and clerk hire, furniture, light, fuel, postage and other office expenses, shall be paid from the general fund by warrants drawn by the state auditor on the state treasurer, on the order of the governor. [1911, ch. 1; R. C. 1905, § 1737; 1891, ch. 86, § 20; R. C. 1899, § 1375; 1905, ch. 12.]

The provision in brackets is repeated in section 2360, par. 8. Section 2360a was chapter 1 of Laws 1911 (amending and re-enacting R. C. 1905, § 1737), which is expressly repealed in sections 653e, 653i. See appropriations in sections 653e, 653f, and as to the temporary character of the repealing provisions in sections 653e, 653i, see comments in note to section 653a.

This was R. C. 1905, § 1740, which was not expressly repealed in the Military Code of 1909. See note immediately preceding section 2347 herein. The chief of supply is mentioned in section 2352. But see the duties of the adjutant-general specified in section 2360, par. 10.

§ 2361. Paymaster-general. The paymaster-general shall, before entering upon the discharge of his duties, file in the office of the adjutant-general a good and sufficient bond payable to the state of North Dakota in a penal sum of not less than ten thousand dollars, approved by the governor, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties.

1. He shall file at least quarterly with the state auditor receipts for all state funds paid out by him signed by the parties to whom payment was made.

2. His books and vouchers shall be at all proper times subject to inspection by the adjutant-general, or any representatives of the commander in chief.

3. The paymaster-general shall from time to time file with the state auditor a written requisition, approved by the adjutant-general, for such amount of money standing to the credit of the national guard on the books of the state auditor or state treasurer as he may deem necessary to draw to pay indebtedness incurred or about to be incurred.

4. Immediately upon the filing in his office of said requisition, the state auditor shall draw a warrant on the state treasurer for the amount named in said requisition and forward same to the paymaster-general.

5. It is hereby made the duty of the public examiner to examine said books and accounts at least once each year, and upon said examination to deliver to the paymaster-general a certificate as to the correctness of the same.

6. The paymaster-general shall make all purchases of commissary stores and supplies as may be necessary, under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the commander in chief.

7. No funds appropriated by the legislature for the maintenance of the militia shall be drawn except upon the requisition of the paymaster-general. He shall file with the adjutant-general an annual financial report showing all receipts and disbursements. [1909, ch. 165, § 15.]

so constituted shall take charge of the erection and completion of all such property, as may hereafter be authorized to be erected and of all such property, the erection or completion of which is in progress at the time this act takes effect under any general or special law, and as to such work as is in progress, such commission is hereby invested with all the powers conferred by law on any officers, boards or commissions heretofore charged with such work or any part thereof. It shall keep in good repair the arsenals, armories, quarters, camp grounds and rifle ranges in its charge, and all moneys appropriated heretofore or which may be appropriated hereafter for the erection or repair of such buildings, grounds or ranges shall be expended by said commission in the same manner as other moneys appropriated for military purposes are authorized to be expended, except as herein otherwise provided. Every such commission is hereby authorized to appoint, and at its pleasure discharge, its own architects and inspectors. When ordinary repairs not exceeding one hundred dollars in cost are necessary, the officer in charge of the building or grounds shall report to the adjutant-general what is required to be done, submitting estimates from at least two responsible parties, and the adjutant-general may authorize the officer to cause the repairs to be made, designating the party who shall do the work. When repairs, the cost of which will amount to over one hundred dollars, but not more than five hundred dollars, are required, a full statement of the necessity thereof must be made by the officer in charge to the adjutant-general, who shall cause estimates of the cost thereof to be prepared by two or more parties, and then cause the work to be done under a contract entered into by him for that purpose. When repairs are to be made, the expenditures for which will exceed the sum of five hundred dollars, the commission shall advertise for proposals, bids shall be received and contracts regularly entered into. During and upon completion of the work, the expenditure for which will exceed five hundred dollars, it shall be inspected from time to time by an inspector selected by the commission, and payment shall not be made until it appears by the certificate of such inspector that such work has been properly performed and according to the contract. Payment for repairs, the expenditure for which does not exceed five hundred dollars, shall only be made upon a like certificate of the officer in charge of the building or grounds where the same were made. All bills for work done on any of the arsenals, armories, quarters, camp grounds or rifle ranges of the state exceeding one hundred dollars, must be verified by a certificate setting forth that the work has been properly performed, and that the amount charged is reasonable and just. Copies of all contracts and agreements made for the repair or alteration of arsenals, armories, quarters, camp grounds or rifle ranges of the state shall be immediately filed in the office of the adjutant-general. Whenever any real property is taken for the purpose of erecting a state armory thereon, the building on such property, or the old materials in the same, may be sold at public or private sale, for the best price that can be obtained, and if the property is taken by the state, the net sum realized therefrom shall be paid into the state treasury, and if taken by a county, to the county treasurer of such county, or it may be used for the improvement of the property taken by the authorities authorized to erect such armory. When real property shall be required for the purpose of a state camping ground, or for rifle practice or other military purposes in connection with any state arsenal or armory, which is deemed necessary by the armory commission, and such armory commission is unable to agree with the owners for the purchase thereof, title thereto shall be acquired by the attorney-general in the name of the people of the state by condemnation, on the written application of the armory commission. The cost of all real property so taken and damages and expenses incurred by and awarded in any proceedings for the condemnation of any such property, shall be paid by the state. The words "armory commission " when used in this chapter shall be construed to refer to the commission provided for by this section. [1909, ch. 165, § 16.]

§ 2364. Audit and payment of accounts. No officer of the militia shall incur any expense whatsoever to be paid by the state, except such as are authorized in this chapter, without first obtaining the authority of the governor. In extreme emergencies, however, the commanding officer of any organization or detachment of the active militia may make purchases of such necessities as are absolutely required for the immediate use and care of his command. A report of such action, containing a statement of the articles purchased and the price thereof, must be made forthwith through the channel to the adjutant-general. The commander in chief of the state shall be the auditor of all accounts for property purchased by the adjutant-general, and the copies of the orders or contracts under which such purchases are made shall be filed in the office of the paymaster-general. All other military accounts payable by the state shall be audited by the adjutant-general. Military accounts thus audited shall be paid by the paymaster-general of the state from the proper appropriation made by the legislature, upon the warrant of the auditor. [1909, ch. 165, § 18.]

§ 2365. The national guard, how composed. The national guard of the state shall consist of one brigadier-general, an adjutant-general's department, a judge-advocate-general's department, a pay department, a corps of engineers, a hospital corps, the commissioned officers heretofore or hereafter retired or rendered supernumerary, the organization now forming the national guard at this date, and such others as may be organized hereafter and such persons as are enlisted and commissioned therein. The governor shall have power to alter, divide, annex, consolidate, disband or reorganize any organization or corps and create new organizations or corps when required by the provisions of this chapter, and he shall have power to change the organization of any organization or corps so as to conform to any organization, system of drill or instruction now or hereafter adopted by the army of the United States, or prescribed by the laws of the United States, for the government of the militia, and for that purpose the number of officers and noncommissioned officers of any grade in any organization or corps may be increased to the extent made necessary by the new positions thus created. The governor shall have power to fix, from time to time, and to alter the maximum number of enlisted men which shall form part of any organization, irrespective of but not exceeding the maximum prescribed therefor in this chapter. The governor shall have power, in case of war, insurrection, invasion or imminent danger thereof, to increase the maximum now established by law, and to organize the same, with the proper officers, as the exigencies of the service may require. [1909, ch. 165, § 19; R. C. 1905, § 1718; 1891, ch. 86, § 4; R. C. 1899, § 1359.]

As not including personal staff officers of governor. State ex rel. Poole v. Peake, 18 N. D. 101, 120 N. W. 47.

§ 2365a. Commander-in-chief may discharge or consolidate, when. Whenever any troop, battery or company shall have less than the minimum number of privates fixed for each organization, the commander-in-chief may at his discretion discharge or consolidate such organizations, and all officers and men honorably discharged under the provisions of this section shall be entitled to receive a certificate of discharge, showing length of service, which time shall be credited to them in case of re-entering the service. [R. C. 1905, § 1731; 1891, ch. 86, § 14; R. C. 1895, § 1369.]

This was R. C. 1905, § 1731, which was not expressly repealed by the Military Code of 1909. See note immediately preceding section 2347.

There is no "troop" in the national guard as now composed. See the following two sections.

§ 2366. Organization. The military units of the national guard shall be composed and organized as follows:

Infantry — The minimum strength of a company shall be as follows:

§ 2368. Hospital corps. The hospital corps shall consist of sergeants of the first class, sergeants, corporals, privates of the first class and privates, in such number that there shall be enlisted not to exceed one sergeant of the first class, four sergeants, five corporals, twenty privates of the first class, and privates for each regiment of infantry; and for each separate battalion not to exceed one sergeant of the first class, two sergeants and six privates, first class, and privates; for each separate battery of field artillery, one corporal and two privates, first class, and privates. [1909, ch. 165, § 22.]

§ 2370. Eligibility required to receive a commission. Commissioned officers must be citizens of the United States and of the age of twenty-one years and upward. No person who has been expelled or dishonorably discharged from any military organization of the state shall be commissioned unless he has re-enlisted and subsequently served as provided in this chapter. No person shall be commissioned unless he shall possess the additional requirements herein prescribed for the particular office to which he is to be commissioned. A brigadier-general at the time of his appointment must be an officer in active service in the national guard of this state of the grade of field officer, and for five successive years immediately preceding his appointment he must have been in active service in said national guard as a commissioned officer. A colonel of a regiment, at the time of his appointment, must either be an officer in active service in the national guard of this state, and for three successive years immediately preceding his appointment must have been in active service in said national guard as a commissioned officer, or, if not in active service at the time of his appointment, must have had prior service of at least six years in the national guard of this state, or in the army of the United States, or in both combined, as a commissioned officer. A lieutenant-colonel and major of the line, at the time of his appointment, must either be an officer in active service, and for two successive years immediately preceding his appointment must have been in active service in the national guard of this state, as a commissioned officer, or, if not in active service at the time of appointment, must have had prior service of at least six years in the national guard of this state, or in the army of the United States, or in both combined, as a commissioned officer. Staff officers or officers below the rank of brigadier-general, except medical officers and chaplains, must have served one year immediately preceding their appointments in the national guard of this state. Staff officers of the brigadier-general, except judge-advocates, surgeons and engineers, must be selected from the commissioned officers in active service in the national guard of this state, who, for one year immediately preceding their appointments, have been in active service in such national guard as commanding officers. A judge-advocate must be a counsellor at law of the supreme court of this state of at least ten years' standing if of the grade of lieutenant-colonel; of at least five years' standing if of the grade of major. Surgeons and assistant surgeons must be graduates of an incorporated school of medicine, and of at least fifteen years' practice if of the grade of colonel; of at least ten years' practice if of the grade of lieutenant-colonel; of at least five years' practice if of the grade of major; of at least three years' practice if of the grade of captain; and of at least two years' practice if of the grade of first lieutenant. An engineer officer of the national guard must have been educated as a military or civil engineer. A signal officer must have a knowledge of signaling, telegraphy, topography and map making. A chaplain must be a regularly ordained minister of some religious denomination. [1909, ch. 165, § 24.]

§ 2371. Examination. Before receiving a commission consequent upon an original appointment or election, or before being commissioned to a higher grade as a result of promotion, every officer above the rank of first lieutenant must have passed a satisfactory examination before a board as to his knowledge of military affairs, and general knowledge and physical and other fitness for the service, and any one failing to pass such examination shall not be eligible for an office in the militia of the state, or for promotion for the period of one year from the date of such failure. Judge-advocates and medical officers shall be examined as to their general and professional knowledge and fitness for the service only. The following are exempt from examination: General officers, chaplains and those enlisted men who may be commissioned by brevet, and upon the completion of twenty-five years of good and faithful service as hereinafter provided. First and second lieutenants shall be examined by the judge-advocate-general. [1909, ch. 165, § 25.]

§ 2373. Elected officers. The adjutant-general shall have personal charge of his office at the state capitol, and shall be appointed by the commander in chief from the commissioned officers of the national guard of this state, and such adjutant-general shall have been a commissioned officer of the field or line in active service in the guard of this state for a period of at least three years immediately preceding his appointment, and such appointee shall be the officer highest in rank who will accept such appointment, and the judge-advocate and paymaster-general shall be appointed from the commissioned officers of the national guard of this state, each of whom shall have been a commissioned officer in the national guard of this state for a period or at least three years immediately preceding such appointment; provided, that on the expiration of the term of office of the adjutant-general he shall not be eligible for reappointment, but shall be placed on the retired list. Colonels and majors of battalions shall be appointed according to seniority, and captains and lieutenants of batteries or companies shall be elected by members of these organizations who shall have performed during the period of not more than twelve months immediately preceding the election (if such organization has been in existence for such period), at least sixty per cent of the duty required of them; provided, that if an organization shall not have been in the service for a period of twelve months immediately preceding the date of election, then those voting shall be required to have performed sixty per cent of duty for the time organized. [1909, ch. 165, § 27.]

§ 2375. Elections. The adjutant-general shall issue orders for the election of all elective officers and shall detail an officer to preside thereat who shall give or cause to be given at least five days' notice to all the qualified voters when and where and for what office the election is to take place. Such notice shall be served on the persons entitled to vote at such election in the same manner as warnings for duty are given. The person or persons serving such notice shall make returns of the persons notified and of the manner of service. The return, if made by a commissioned officer, shall be authenticated by his certificate on honor; if by a noncommissioned officer, by the oath of the person making such service. The oath may be administered by any person authorized to take the acknowledgment of deeds or by any commissioned officer, and such return shall be presented to the officer directed to preside at such election before the polls for such election shall be opened. The commanding officer of the organization in which such election is held shall, before the polls are opened, present to the officer directed to preside, a list of the persons qualified to vote thereat and a list of persons disqualified, with a statement of the facts constituting such disqualification. At the time fixed for the election, the officer ordered to preside thereat, or, in his absence, an officer authorized by him to act for him, or in the absence of such an officer, the commissioned officer highest in rank of those present, shall announce the purpose in hand and open the polls. If it shall happen at any election that legal notice has not been given to all the persons entitled to vote thereat, the presiding officer shall adjourn the meeting and cause such notice to be given; but the presence of a person entitled to vote at any election shall be deemed a waiver of his right to take exception to the want of legal notice to him. If any person offering to vote at any election shall be challenged as unqualified by any person entitled to vote thereat, the presiding officer shall declare to the person so challenged the qualifications of an elector, and if he shall state himself duly qualified, and the challenge shall not be withdrawn, the presiding officer shall examine him under oath and determine as to his qualifications as such elector. As soon as all the electors have cast their votes, or at the expiration of one hour from the opening of the polls, the presiding officer shall declare the polls closed, and at once publicly canvass the votes and declare the result of the election. A majority of the votes of all persons present voting at an election shall be necessary to a choice. The presiding officer shall forthwith make return thereof to the adjutant-general. If a person elected at any such election shall not, within ten days after being notified of his election, signify his acceptance to the adjutant-general, he shall be considered as declining the office to which he has been chosen, and a new election be held; provided, that in the event of an election, on the first ballot, failing to secure a majority of those present and entitled to vote, in favor of any one candidate, then the presiding officer is empowered to proceed with the taking of further ballots whenever, in the judgment of said officer, there is a reasonable expectation of a majority being obtained. Should there be no choice, the presiding officer shall adjourn the meeting to a reasonable date, and at that meeting open the polls for another election, and if such second meeting shall result in no choice, the governor shall be notified and may then fill the vacancy by appointment. The presiding officer shall forward the proceedings of an election in such manner as is provided in the regulations issued under this chapter. [1909, ch. 165, § 29.]

§ 2376. Appeal from election. Every person thinking himself aggrieved by the proceedings at an election may appeal to the governor, by filing at the time of an election with the presiding officer thereat notice of such intended appeal and forwarding a full statement of the grounds of such appeal within ten days from the date on which the election took place. The governor may direct upon such appeal, an officer to take testimony in the case and to report his findings, and such officer shall have the same power to take evidence, administer oaths, issue subpoenas and compel witnesses to attend and testify and produce books and papers, and punish their failure to do so, as is possessed by a general court-martial. [1909, ch. 165, § 30; R. C. 1905, § 1745; 1891, ch. 86, § 28; R. C. 1899, § 1383.]

§ 2377. Oath of office. Every officer duly commissioned shall within ten days after his commission is tendered to him, or within ten days after he shall have been notified personally or by mail that the same is held in readiness for him by a superior officer, take and subscribe the constitutional oath of office. Such oath shall be taken and subscribed before an officer authorized by law to administer an oath, or some general or field officer, or an officer who shall hold the assimilated grade of a field officer, who has taken the oath himself and who is hereby authorized to administer the same. In case of neglect or refusal to take and subscribe such oath within the time mentioned, such commission shall be cancelled by the governor, and a new appointment shall be made or a new election shall be ordered to fill the vacancy. [1909, ch. 165, § 31; R. C. 1905, § 1749; 1891, ch. 86, § 32; R. C. 1899, § 1387.]

§ 2378. Supernumerary officers. Commissioned officers who shall be rendered surplus by reduction or disbandment of organization or in any manner provided by this chapter now or hereafter, shall be withdrawn from active service and placed upon the supernumerary list. The governor may, upon the recommendation of the commanding officer of the national guard, detail supernumerary officers for active duty, in which case they shall rank in their grade from the date of such detail, and he may relieve them from such duty and return them to the supernumerary list at his discretion. [1909, ch. 165, § 32.]

§ 2379. Resignations. A commissioned officer tendering his resignation, if the governor accept it, shall receive an honorable discharge; provided, he shall not be under arrest or returned to a military court for any deficiency or delinquency; and provided, further, that he be not indebted to the state in any manner, and that all his accounts for money or for public property be correct. In computing the time served, service as an enlisted man shall be allowed, and the service is not required to be continuous. If the governor accept the resignation of an officer who at the time shall be under arrest, under charges or returned to a military court for any offense, delinquency or deficiency such officer shall then cease to be an officer of the militia, and shall receive a discharge in such form as the governor shall direct, nor shall he be again eligible to receive a commission, unless he first re-enlist, as provided in this chapter in the case of enlisted men dishonorably discharged, and until he shall have performed at least sixty per cent of duty in each year under such enlistment for two successive years. [1909, ch. 165, § 33.]

§ 2380. Retirement and discharge. Any officer of the active militia who has reached the age of sixty-four years shall be placed upon the retired list by the governor. Any commissioned officer who shall have served for the continuous period of eight years in the military service of the state as a commissioned officer, may, at his own request, be placed upon the retired list with an advance in grade, and withdrawn from active service and command by the governor. Any commissioned officer who has become or shall hereafter become disabled, and incapable of performing the duties of his office, shall be withdrawn from active service and command and placed upon the retired list. Any commissioned officer who has become or who shall hereafter become unfit or incompetent, and thereby incapable of performing the duties of his office, shall be placed upon the retired list upon the recommendation of his commanding officer or the recommendation of an inspecting officer. Such retirement shall be by the order of the governor, and shall be subject to the provisions of this chapter. Before making such order, a board of not less than five commissioned officers, one of whom shall be a surgeon, shall be appointed, whose duty it shall be to determine the facts as to the nature and cause of the incapacity of such officer as appears disabled, or unfit, or incompetent from any cause to perform military service, and whose case shall be referred to it. No officer whose grade or promotion would be affected by the decision of such board, in any case that may come before it, shall participate in the examination or decision of the board in such case. Such board is hereby invested with the powers of courts of inquiry and courts-martial, and whenever it finds an officer incapacitated for actual service shall report such fact to the governor, stating cause of incapacity, whether from disability, unfitness or incompetency, and if he approves such finding, such officer shall be placed upon the retired list as provided in this article. The members of the board shall, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, be sworn to an honest and impartial performance of their duties as members of such board. No officer shall be placed upon the retired list by the action of such board without having had a full and fair hearing before the board if upon due notice he shall demand it. It shall not be necessary to refer any case for the action of the board arising under this section unless the officer designated to be placed upon the retired list shall, within twenty days after being notified that he will be so retired, serve on the adjutant-general a notice in writing that he demands a hearing and examination before such board. Boards for the national guard shall be appointed by the governor. Vacancies created by the operation of this section shall be filled in the same manner as other vacancies. [1909, ch. 165, § 34; R. C. 1905, § 1751; 1891, ch. 86, § 34; R. C. 1899, § 1389.]

§ 2380a. Retired officers subject to orders of commander in chief only. The officers on the retired list shall only be subject to detail for duty by orders from the commander in chief, and he shall cause to be issued such orders as he may deem necessary detailing them for duty upon boards of officers for military purposes, courts-martial, and courts of inquiry, and for such other military duties as in his judgment may be advisable. When, however, officers on the retired list are detailed for active duty, other than upon boards of officers, courts-martial, and courts of inquiry, they shall only be entitled to the rank which properly belongs to the office the duties of which they are detailed to perform. When the duty ends, or the detail is canceled, the officer shall again return to the retired list, with his former retired rank. A roster of all officers on the retired list shall be kept in the adjutant-general's office. [R. C. 1905, § 1797; 1905, ch. 135, § 4.]

§ 2381. Examination and discharge of officer. The governor may, whenever he may deem that the good of the service requires it, order any commissioned officer before a board of examination, to consist of not more than five nor less than three general or field officers, which is hereby invested with the powers of courts of inquiry and courts-martial, and such boards shall examine into the moral character, capacity and general fitness for the service of such commissioned officer, and record and return the testimony taken and a record of its proceedings. If the findings of such board be unfavorable to such officer and be approved by the governor, he shall be placed on the retired list. No officer whose grade or promotion would in any way be affected by the decision of the board, in any case that may come before it, shall participate in the examination or decision of the board in such case. Failure to appear when ordered before a board constituted under this section shall be sufficient ground for a finding by such board that the officer ordered to appear be retired. [1909, ch. 165, § 35.]

§ 2382a. Rank determined by date of election or appointment. The respective rank of all officers shall be determined by the date of their election or appointment and the length of time of service in the North Dakota national guard as a commissioned officer of such rank; provided, that in case of re-election or reappointment his rank shall be determined by the date of the first commission. [R. C. 1905, § 1746; 1891, ch. 86, § 29; R. C. 1899, § 1384.]

This was R. C. 1905, § 1746, which was not expressly repealed by the Military Code of 1909. See immediately preceding section 2347.

§ 2383. Enlistments. Any man who is a citizen of the United States or has declared his intention to become a citizen, if more than eighteen and less than forty-five years of age, able-bodied, free from disease, of good character and temperate habits, may be originally enlisted in the national guard of this state, under the restrictions of this article [chapter], for a term of not less than three years; except that men may be enlisted as musicians if more than sixteen years of age. No minor shall be enlisted without the written consent of the parent or guardian. A man who has been expelled or dishonorably discharged from any military organization of the state or United States shall not be eligible for enlistment or re-enlistment unless he produces the written consent to such enlistment of the commanding officer of the organization from which he was expelled or dishonorably discharged and of the commanding officer who approved such expulsion or issued such dishonorable discharge. Men who have been discharged by reason of disbandment may be enlisted and shall then receive credit for the period served at the time of such disbandment. A man discharged for physical disability shall, if such disability cease, and he again enlists, or a man discharged upon his own request shall, if he again enlists, receive credit for the period served prior to such discharge. Bandmasters, drum majors, chief trumpeters, member of the hospital corps and musicians may be enlisted as such. [1909, ch. 165, § 37; R. C. 1905, § 1732; 1891, ch. 86, § 15; R. C. 1899, § 1370.]

§ 2384. Re-enlistments. Any man who has served the period of his original enlistment may be re-enlisted for a term of one year or more. [1909, ch. 165, § 38; R. C. 1905, § 1732; 1891, ch. 86, § 15; R. C. 1899, § 1370.]

§ 2385. Enlistment papers. Every person who enlists or re-enlists shall sign and make oath to an enlistment paper which shall contain an oath of allegiance to the state and the United States and be in such form as may be prescribed in the regulations issued under this chapter. Such oath shall be taken and subscribed before a field officer, or the commanding officer of a signal corps, battery or company, who are hereby authorized to administer such oath; but no enlistment shall be valid until it be approved by the commanding officer of the organization to which the signal corps, battery or company is attached or of which it forms a part. A person making a false oath as to any statement contained in such enlistment paper shall, upon conviction, be deemed guilty of perjury. [1909, ch. 165, § 39; R. C. 1905, § 1750; 1891, ch. 86, § 33; R. C. 1899, § 1388.]

§ 2386. Transfers. Enlisted men may be transferred upon their own application in the same regiment or battalion not part of a regiment, from one company to another, by the commanding officer of such regiment or battalion; from one regiment or battalion not part of a regiment, signal corps, battery or separate company, to another in the same brigade, by the commanding officer of the brigade. Noncommissioned officers must be returned to the ranks before they can be transferred. [1909, ch. 165, § 40; R. C. 1905, § 1734; 1891, ch. 86, § 17; R. C. 1899, § 1372.]

§ 2387. Noncommissioned officers. Commanding officers of regiments and of battalions not part of regiments shall appoint and warrant the noncommissioned staff officers of their respective regiments or battalions, and they shall in their discretion, warrant the noncommissioned officers of the batteries and companies of their respective regiments and battalions from the members thereof, upon the written nomination of the commanding officers of the batteries and companies respectively. In batteries and companies not part of a regiment or battalion and in signal corps, the noncommissioned officers shall be warranted by the commanding officer of the brigade, in his discretion, from the members thereof, upon the written nomination of the commanding officer of the battery, company or signal corps. To be eligible for appointment as sergeant, first class, of the hospital corps, a candidate must be a registered pharmacist. A sergeant of the hospital corps must be appointed from the hospital corps. The officer warranting a noncommissioned officer shall have power to reduce to the ranks, for good and sufficient reasons, the noncommissioned officers named in this section, but such as were enlisted as noncommissioned officers shall be discharged. Noncommissioned officers who shall be dropped vacate their positions. [1909, ch. 165, § 41.]

§ 2388. Dropping from the rolls. An enlisted man who shall remove his residence to such distance from the armory of his organization as to render it impracticable for him to perform his duties properly, or who, after due diligence, cannot be found, or who shall be expelled from his organization in accordance with by-laws lawfully adopted, may be dropped from the rolls of his company, battery or signal corps by order of the commanding officer of the brigade, regiment or battalion not part of a regiment. [1909, ch. 165, § 42; R. C. 1905, § 1734; 1891, ch. 86, § 17; R. C. 1899, § 1372.]

§ 2388a. Officers and men may be transferred or discharged, when. Officers and men removing from one location to another in the state may be transferred from one organization to another on application to the adjutant-general, approved by their respective commanding officers. Any member of the guard moving permanently out of the state or the vicinity of the station of the organization to which he belongs, may be discharged and a certificate of service furnished upon his own application, but any member of the national guard who moves away from the vicinity of his company or other permanent headquarters, or absents himself from all duty for six months, shall unless proper explanation is accepted by his immediate commanding officer, be dropped from the rolls without discharge or certificate of service. [R. C. 1905, § 1734; 1891, ch. 86, § 17; R. C. 1899, § 1372.]

This was R. C. 1905, § 1734, which was not expressly repealed by the Military Code of 1909. See note immediately preceding section 2347.

§ 2389. Taking up from dropped. An enlisted man dropped by reason of removal may be taken up at any time within three years after such removal, in his former or any other organization, obtaining in the latter case first the written permission of his former commanding officer approved by the officer upon whose order he was dropped. An enlisted man dropped for removal may be taken up at any time after three years after such removal, upon his own application, approved by the officer upon whose order he was dropped, or his successor, after passing a physical examination. The taking up shall be done under the orders of any officer who is authorized to order the dropping of men, and men thus taken up shall receive credit for the time served before having been dropped. [1909, ch. 165, § 43.]

§ 2390. Retirement. The governor may appoint enlisted men and commission them, without examination, second lieutenants by brevet, upon the recommendation of their respective commanding officers, and place them upon the retired list at the same time, provided they have well and faithfully served the state in the national guard for a period of twenty-five years. [1909, ch. 165, § 44.]

§ 2391. Discharges. An enlisted man who has not returned all the public property for which he is responsible shall, under no circumstances, receive a full and honorable discharge. A discharge, or an honorable discharge, at the discretion of the officer discharging him, shall be granted to the following: A noncommissioned staff officer or a noncommissioned officer, who, had he not been enlisted as such, would be reduced to the ranks; an enlisted man at his own request, provided he assign sufficient and valid reason for such request; an enlisted man who by reason of disability is no longer able to perform his military duties properly; an enlisted man who by the reduction of his regiment or battalion has become surplus, or whose signal corps, battery or company shall be disbanded, provided he is not entitled at the time to a full and honorable discharge; an enlisted man who has served the time for which he enlisted or re-enlisted and is not entitled to a full and honorable discharge. A full and honorable discharge shall be granted to the following: An enlisted man who shall have performed in each year at least sixty per cent of the duty of his signal corps, battery company, company or battalion not part of a regiment, or regiment has been required by law and orders to perform during the term of his enlistment or re-enlistment, or during his total service in case the same has been extended beyond the term for which he enlisted. An enlisted man who fails to perform sixty per cent of duty during any year of his service may continue in service at the option of his commanding officer and make up such deficiency. An enlisted man who continues in service after the expiration of his term of enlistment or re-enlistment shall, in case he desires a discharge, give fifteen days' notice of application therefor to the officer authorized to grant the same, and such officer may, in his discretion, grant such discharge forthwith or hold the same until the expiration of said fifteen days. An enlisted man shall be held for service until his discharge is granted and issued. Dishonorable discharges shall be given to the following: An enlisted man whose immediate commander applies to have him discharged for the good of the service, after giving him ten days' notice of such application and an opportunity to be heard in defense of his conduct. The discharges mentioned above shall be granted to the commanding officer of the regiment or battalion not part of a regiment in case of signal corps, separate batteries and separate companies, by the commanding officer of the brigade to which they are attached. Enlisted men may be dishonorably discharged pursuant to the sentence of a general court-martial. [1909, ch. 165, § 45.]

§ 2392. War service. For all purposes under this act, officers and enlisted men of the active militia who entered the United States service in the Spanish-American war, or other war, shall, on re-entering the active militia, be entitled to credit for time served in the forces of the United States in that war, as if this service had been rendered in the active militia. [1909, ch. 165, § 46.]

§ 2393. Responsibility for efficiency. The officer commanding the national guard may cause those under his command to perform any military duty and shall be responsible to the governor for the general efficiency of the national guard and for the drill, instruction, small arms and artillery practice, movements, operations and care of the troops. Commanding officers of organizations shall be responsible to their immediate commanders for the equipment, drill, instruction, movements and efficiency of their respective commands. All commissioned officers and enlisted men shall be responsible to their immediate commanding officers for prompt and unhesitating obedience, proper drill and the preservation and proper use of the property of the state or organization in their possession. [1909, ch. 165, § 47.]

§ 2395. Practice marches required. Every battery or company not especially excused by the governor will be required to participate for at least five consecutive days annually in practice marches or camps of instruction, under such regulations as the governor may prescribe, and under such instructors as he may appoint. [1909, ch. 165, § 49.]

§ 2397. Conduct of commanding officer in aid of civil authorities. In case of any breach of the peace, tumult, riot or resistance to process of this state, or imminent danger thereof, a sheriff of a county, or mayor of a city, may call for aid upon the commanding officer of the national guard stationed therein or adjacent thereto. Such call shall be in writing. The commanding officer upon whom the call is made shall order out, in aid of the civil authorities, the military force or any part thereof under his command, and shall immediately report what he has done and all the circumstances of the case to the governor and the commanding officer of the national guard. If it appears to the governor that the power of the county is not sufficient to enable the sheriff to preserve the peace and protect the lives and property of the peaceful residents of this county, or to overcome the resistance to process of this state, the governor must, on the application of the sheriff, order out such military force from any other county or counties as is necessary. When an armed force is called out for the purpose of suppressing an unlawful or riotous assembly, it must obey the orders in relation thereto of the civil officer calling it out and render the required aid. The orders of the civil officer may extend to a direction of the general specific object to be accomplished and the duration of service by the active militia, but the tactical direction of the troops, the kind and extent of force to be used and the particular means to be employed to accomplish the object specified by the civil authorities are left solely to the officers of the active militia. [1909, ch. 165, § 51; R. C. 1905, §§ 1761, 1762; 1891, ch. 86, §§ 43, 44; R. C. 1899, §§ 1399, 1400.]

Liability of commanding officer for acts done by militia. 66 Am. Dec. 366.

§ 2398. Case of insurrection or invasion. In case of insurrection or invasion or imminent danger thereof within the limits of any command, the senior commanding officer of such command shall order out for the defense of the state the forces under his command, or any part thereof, and immediately report his action and the circumstances of the case to the governor and the commanding officer of the national guard. [1909, ch. 165, § 52.]

§ 2399. Warning for duty. Orders for duty may be oral or written. Officers and enlisted men may be warned for duty as follows: Either by stating the substance of the order, or reading the order to the person warned, or by delivering a copy of such order to such person or by leaving a copy of such order at the last known place of abode or business of such person with some one of suitable age and discretion, or by sending a copy of such order or a notice containing the substance thereof to such person by mail, directed to him at his last known place of abode or business, or to the post office nearest thereto. Such warning may be given by any officer or noncommissioned officer. The officer or noncommissioned officer giving such warning shall make a return thereof containing the names of the persons warned, and the time, place and manner of warning. Such return shall be verified by oath, which may be administered by any commanding officer; such verified return shall be as good evidence, on the trial of any person returned as a delinquent, of the facts therein stated, as if such officer or noncommissioned officer had testified to the same before the delinquency court on such trial. Every commanding officer shall make the like return on honor and with like effect, of every delinquency and neglect of duty of his officers and noncommissioned officers, and also of every enlisted man who shall refuse or neglect to perform such military duty as may be required. [1909, ch. 165, § 53; R. C. 1905, § 1759; 1891, ch. 86, § 41; R. C. 1899, § 1397.]

§ 2401. Discipline and exercise. The system of discipline and exercise of the national guard of this state shall conform generally to that of the army of the United States as it is now or may hereafter be prescribed by the president, and to the provisions of the laws of the United States, except as otherwise provided in this chapter. [1909, ch. 165, § 55; R. C. 1905, § 1752; 1891, ch. 86, § 35; R. C. 1899, § 1390.]

§ 2402. Military courts. The military courts of this state shall be:

1. General courts-martial.
2. Garrison courts-martial.
3. The summary court.
4. Courts of inquiry.
5. Delinquency courts, which are of two kinds: (1) For officers; (2) for enlisted men.

The constitution and jurisdiction of courts-martial, the form and manner in which the proceedings of military courts shall be conducted and recorded and the forms of oath and affirmations taken in the administration of military law by such courts, the limits of punishment and the proceedings in revision shall be governed by the articles of war and the law and procedure of the courts-martial of the United States, except as hereinafter provided. [1909, ch. 165, § 56; R. C. 1905, § 1764; 1891, ch. 86, § 46; R. C. 1899, § 1402.]

Enforcement of discipline in organized militia by fine and imprisonment, imposed by court-martial, was not exercised until enactment of Military Code. State ex rel. Poole v. Peake, 22 N. D. 457, 40 L.R.A. (N.S.) 354, 135 N. W. 197.

§ 2404. Presumption of jurisdiction. The jurisdiction of the courts and boards established by this chapter shall be presumed and the burden of proof shall rest on any person seeking to oust such courts or boards of jurisdiction in any action or proceeding. [1909, ch. 165, § 58.]

§ 2405. Fines. All fines imposed by sentence of the aforementioned courts shall be collected by the presiding officer and remitted without delay to the adjutant-general, who will remit them to the state auditor on the last days of February, April, June, August, October and December of each year, with a statement of the source from which collected. All sums thus collected as fines shall be credited to the general fund for maintenance of the militia and expended as authorized therefor; provided, further, that such portion of the sentence imposed by the aforementioned courts as prescribes confinement shall be executed in such county jails as the reviewing authority may direct, and the expenses of such confinement shall be borne by the commonwealth. A commitment in writing shall be executed by the presiding officer of the court to the sheriff or jailer where temporary restraint is deemed necessary, but where the confinement is the result of the confirmed action of the reviewing authority an official copy of the order publishing the sentence of the court shall be furnished the sheriff or jailer. The presiding officer is empowered to accept a bond for the delivery of the accused upon demand after the final action of the court, and pending the action of the reviewing authority, when his jurisdiction terminates. This bond will not be accepted in capital cases, nor for a less sum than twice the amount involved; provided, further, that the sentence of any courts-martial shall not, in time of peace, exceed that prescribed by the president for like offenses and that these substitutes obtain: two days' confinement for one dollar forfeiture or the reverse. [1909, ch. 165, § 59; R. C. 1905, § 1765; 1891, ch. 86, § 47; R. C. 1899, § 1403.]

§ 2406. Courts-martial, governor institutes. Number to constitute. The governor is empowered to institute general courts-martial, garrison courts-martial, summary courts-martial, courts of inquiry and delinquent courts, and to review the proceedings of each of these courts. A general court-martial shall consist of not less than three nor more than seven commissioned officers and a judge advocate. The garrison court-martial shall consist of not less than one nor more than three commissioned officers and a judge advocate. The summary court-martial shall consist of one commissioned officer. Courts of inquiry may be instituted by the commander-in-chief of not more than three commissioned officers, whose duties will be defined with the order convening such court. Delinquent courts shall consist of not more than three nor less than one commissioned officer. [1909, ch. 165, § 60; R. C. 1905, § 1764; 1891, ch. 86, § 46; R. C. 1899, § 1402.]

§ 2407. Organizations. All organizations shall be provided by the state with such arms, equipments, colors, camp and garrison equipage, books of instruction and of record, and other supplies as may be necessary for the proper performance of the duty required of them by this chapter; and each organization shall keep such property in proper repair and in good condition. [1909, ch. 165, § 61.]

§ 2408. Commissioned officers. Every commissioned officer shall provide himself with the arms, uniforms and equipments prescribed and approved by the governor. [1909, ch. 165, § 62.]

§ 2409. Enlisted men. Every enlisted man who enters the service of the state for three years shall be furnished by the state with a service uniform corresponding in make and general appearance to the service uniform of the United States army. [1909, ch. 165, § 63.]

§ 2410. Responsibility for public property. Every officer and enlisted man to whom public property of the state has been issued shall be personally responsible to the state for such property, and no one shall be relieved from such responsibility, except it be shown to the satisfaction of the governor that the loss or destruction of such property was unavoidable and in no way the fault of the person responsible for the same; in all other cases the value of the property lost or destroyed shall be charged against the person at fault or to the organization to which it had been issued, and such person or organization, if not relieved from such charge by the governor, shall pay the value of such property to the adjutant-general within two years after such loss or destruction. The value of lost or destroyed property and the person or organization to be charged therewith shall be determined by a board to consist of an inspector on the staff of the commanding officer of the national guard and the commanding officer of the organization in which such property is lost. In case of disagreement, such value shall be fixed by the commanding officer of the national guard. [1909, ch. 165, § 64.]

§ 2411. Purchase of uniforms and equipments. All uniforms and equipments used by the national guard of this state shall be procured by the adjutant-general from the United States government, or other source, and shall conform to those in use by the regular army of the United States. [1909, ch. 165, § 65.]

§ 2412. Board of armory supervisors created. The governor, adjutant-general and colonel commanding the regiment are hereby constituted a board of armory supervisors, whose duty it shall be to approve the selection of all armory sites and the purchase of buildings thereon; to approve the plans and specifications for the erection of all armories, and to audit and approve all bills, claims and accounts in connection with the construction or purchase of all armories before such bills, claims and accounts shall be paid, and to perform such other duties as the provisions of this act require. [1909, ch. 165, § 66; 1907, ch. 174, § 1; R. C. 1905, § 1789; 1903, ch. 48, §§ 1, 2.]

Section 71 of the Military Code, Laws 1909, ch. 165, expressly repeals "sections 1789, 1790, 1791, 1792 and 1793 of the Revised Codes of 1905." The same sections had already been expressly repealed in Laws 1907, ch. 174, § 6, which chapter, though nowhere expressly repealed in the Military Code of 1909, is evidently superseded in toto by the foregoing section 2412 and the following sections 2413-2416 inclusive.

But sections 2 and 4 of Laws 1907, ch. 174, above cited, seem to have been treated as still in force for purposes of amendment. See veto in Laws 1911, ch. 325, p. 518.

§ 2413. Appropriation. To every company, battery or regimental band of the North Dakota national guard who shall have first deposited with the state treasurer the sum of two thousand dollars as an evidence of good faith, and shall have conveyed to the state of North Dakota by a good and sufficient deed of warranty the title to a site for an armory, which site shall have first been approved by the board of armory supervisors, or shall have conveyed to the state an armory site with armory buildings thereon, such buildings to be of the value of not less than seven thousand dollars, and to be first approved by the board of armory supervisors, there is hereby appropriated the sum of five thousand dollars; provided, that only one such appropriation shall be made for armory purpose in any one city or town; and provided, further, that no more than thirteen state military organizations shall receive the benefit of this act; and provided, further, that no more than three state military organizations shall receive appropriations in the amount specified in the year A. D. 1908, and two in each year thereafter, until the thirteen state military organizations shall each have received an appropriation of five thousand dollars; and provided, further, that the board of armory supervisors shall designate which state military organizations shall receive aid in any one year and in determining which shall receive aid first, they shall take into consideration the proficiency of the military organization asking for aid and its needs; and provided, further, there is hereby appropriated out of the state treasury in the year A. D. 1908 the sum of fifteen thousand dollars, and the sum of ten thousand dollars annually thereafter for five years. [1909, ch. 165, § 67; 1907, ch. 174, § 2.]

See note to section 2412.

§ 2414. Duty of state treasurer. The state treasurer shall keep a separate account with each company, battery or regimental band that shall avail itself of the provision of this act, crediting the same with two thousand dollars deposited by the company, battery or regimental band with the state treasurer, together with the appropriation made under the provisions of this act [chapter] and all bills for the construction or purchase of armories, or the paying of debts or mortgages against armories shall, after being approved, be paid out of the said account or fund upon the warrant of the state auditor. [1909, ch. 165, § 68; 1907, ch. 174, § 3; R. C. 1905, § 1790; 1903, ch. 48, § 3.]

See note to section 2412.

§ 2415. Transfer of armories when company, battery or regimental band is mustered out of service. Whenever any company, battery or regimental band which has availed itself of the provisions of this act [chapter] and has received the appropriation provided herein shall be mustered out of service of the state and it shall appear that there is no probability of a new company, battery or regimental band being organized in the city or town in which the armory is located, then and in that case the board of armory supervisors shall have the authority, and are hereby empowered to transfer the said property to the municipality in which the same is located for public purposes upon the repayment to the state of the said appropriation provided in this act [chapter] without interest. [1909, ch. 165, § 69; 1907, ch. 174, § 4.]

See note to section 2412.

§ 2416. Providing for mortgaging armories to the state when owned by any company, battery or regimental band. Whenever any such company, battery or regimental band shall own any site with armory buildings thereon of the value of ten thousand dollars, exclusive of the value of the land, and such buildings and site have been approved by the board of armory supervisors as sufficient and desirable for armory purposes, then, such company, battery or regimental band may, with the approval of the board of armory supervisors, obtain the benefits of the appropriation hereinbefore provided by executing to the state of North Dakota a mortgage on such property for the sum of five thousand dollars, payable on demand, and during the life of said mortgage said building and site shall be under the control and supervision of such company, battery or regimental band. [1909, ch. 165, § 70; 1907, ch. 174, § 5.]

See note to section 2412.

§ 2417. Pay and allowances. Duty pay. Each officer and enlisted man ordered for duty by the governor, or under his authority, by the commanding officer of the national guard, shall receive the duty pay herein specified for every day actually on duty, except when so ordered for inspection, muster or small arms practice, or parade or review or field service not extending beyond one day: A musician or private, seventy-five cents; a corporal, ninety cents; an assistant hospital steward, color bearer or sergeant, one dollar; a first sergeant, guidon sergeant, veterinary sergeant, drum major, band master, hospital steward, ordnance sergeant, commissary sergeant, quartermaster

When on duty assembled therefor in case of riot, tumult, breach of peace, insurrection, invasion, war, whenever called in aid of the civil authorities or when engaged in actual field or camp service for instruction as contemplated in section fourteen of the act of congress approved January twenty-first, 1903, commissioned officers shall be entitled to and shall receive at least the same pay as commissioned officers of the army of the United States of equal grade. Each officer and enlisted man, mounted and equipped, shall be paid a reasonable compensation per day for each horse actually used by him. [1909, ch. 165, § 72; R. C. 1905, § 1774; 1891, ch. 86, § 56; R. C. 1899, § 1412.]

As to meaning of "staff officer." State ex rel. Poole v. Peake, 18 N. D. 101, 120 N. W. 47.

Terms "actual service" and "active service" mean service in time of war or public danger. State ex rel. Poole v. Peake, 22 N. D. 457, 40 L.R.A.(N.S.) 354, 135 N. W. 197.

§ 2418. Pay when aiding the civil authority. All officers and enlisted men, while on duty or assembled therefor, pursuant to the orders of the governor of the state, sheriff of a county, or mayor of a city, or any other civil officer authorized by law to make such a demand on the military forces of the state in case of riot, tumult, breach of the peace, resistance to process or whenever called upon in aid of civil authorities, shall receive the pay set forth in section seventy-two of this chapter [section 2417]; and such compensation and the necessary expenses incurred in quartering, caring for, warning for duty, and transporting and subsisting troops, as well as expenses incurred for pay, care and subsistence of officers and enlisted men temporarily disabled in the line of duty, while on such duty, as set forth in section eighty-three of this chapter [section 2428] shall be paid by the county where such service is rendered. The county treasurer of such county shall, upon presentation to him of vouchers and pay rolls for such expenses and compensation, certified by the officers commanding such forces, and approved by the commanding officer of the brigade, forthwith execute, in behalf of and in the name of such county, a certificate or certificates of indebtedness for the money required to pay such vouchers and pay rolls; such certificates shall bear interest at the rate of not to exceed six per cent per annum and shall be made payable on the first day of February following the expiration of two months from their issue, and the amount thereof shall be raised in the next tax budget of said county succeeding their issue, and applied to the payment of such certificates. Said county treasurer shall sell such certificates at public or private sale, and apply the proceeds thereof to the payment of such expenses and compensation. Any county treasurer or public officer who shall neglect or refuse to perform any of the duties required by this section shall be personally charged with the cost and all necessary disbursements of any action or proceeding brought to compel such performance, together with a reasonable additional allowance to the plaintiff or relator in such action or proceeding, to be fixed by the court. [1909, ch. 165, § 73; R. C. 1905, § 1777; 1891, ch. 86, § 59; R. C. 1899, § 1415.]

§ 2419. Pay of officers serving on boards, commissions and courts. All officers detailed to serve on any board or commission ordered by the governor, or under his authority by the commanding officer of the national guard, or on any court of inquiry, or delinquency court, ordered by proper authority in pursuance of any provision of this chapter, shall be paid a sum equal to one day's duty pay for each day actually employed in such board or court, or engaged in the business thereof, or in traveling to and from the same. The sum shall in no case exceed ten days' pay and actual traveling expenses and subsistence, unless, upon application of the judge advocate of a court-martial or the presiding officer of a delinquency court, or the presiding officer of the board, the officer appointing the court or board has authorized such court or board to sit for a longer period, or in case of such delinquency court, the governor or the officer ordering such court has authorized such court to sit for a longer period than ten days. An officer detailed to serve on a delinquency court for the trial of enlisted men shall be paid for each day actually employed therein, engaged in the business thereof, or in traveling to and from the same and traveling expenses and subsistence when such court shall be held at a place other than the city or town of his residence. An officer whom a warrant for the collection of fines, dues or penalties under the sentence of a military court is delivered shall be paid, by retaining to his own use twenty-five per cent of the fines, dues or penalties collected by him. Said percentage shall be taxed by the officer issuing the warrant and indorsed thereon and added to the amount collected by him. Said percentage shall be taxed by the officer issuing the warrant and indorsed thereon and added to the amount collectible to satisfy the sentence of the court. In addition to this percentage a marshal of a military court shall be paid two dollars for each day actually employed in the execution of the duties required of him, and mileage or actual necessary traveling expenses while engaged in executing any process or mandate of a military court. Mileage shall be computed at the rate of ten cents for each mile necessarily traveled going and returning to serve any process or mandate of a military court, the distance to be computed from the place where it is served to the place where it is returnable. [1909, ch. 165, § 74; R. C. 1905, § 1776; 1891, ch. 86, § 58; R. C. 1899, § 1414.]

§ 2420. Payment of expenses of delinquency courts for enlisted men. The compensation and necessary expenses of the officer holding a delinquency court for enlisted men, and of the clerk and marshal thereof, and the actual expenses of the court for the time engaged in the trial of enlisted delinquents, and the necessary business connected therewith, shall be paid by the organizations of which the delinquents are members, and to whose military funds fines collected from such delinquents are paid, from the military fund of such organization, in the same manner as other accounts are paid from such fund. [1909, ch. 165, § 75.]

§ 2421. Pay of officers and enlisted men assigned to special duty. Any commissioned officer assigned to special duty by the governor or under his authority shall be paid duty pay for the time actually employed, and his necessary traveling expenses and subsistence, when such payment is authorized by the governor. Judge advocates shall be paid for services in bringing any suits provided for in this chapter, and for services in actions or proceedings by habeas corpus, certiorari or otherwise, such compensation as shall be approved by the governor. All staff officers shall be paid duty pay for special service ordered by competent authority with the approval of the governor. Enlisted men, on duty under the orders of the governor, but not at the time serving with troops, shall receive duty pay, their actual traveling expenses and subsistence. [1909, ch. 165, § 76.]

performed eighty per centum of all ordered duty, and been in active service as such a calendar year of twelve months, beginning with the first day of January. [1909, ch. 165, § 77.]

§ 2423. Pensions. Every member of the militia who shall be wounded or disabled while in the service of the state in case of riot, tumult, breach of the peace, resistance to process, invasion, insurrection or imminent danger thereof, or whenever called upon in aid of the civil authorities, shall be taken care of and provided for at the expense of the state, and every such member who shall be wounded or disabled or has been so disabled in the performance of any actual service of this state within ten years preceding the application for a pension under this act [chapter] in cases of riots, tumults, breach of the peace, resistance to process, invasion, insurrection or imminent danger thereof, or whenever called upon in aid of the civil authorities, or while engaged in any lawfully ordered parade, drill, encampment or inspection, shall upon proof of the fact, as hereinafter provided, be placed on the roll of invalid pensioners of the state, and shall receive out of any moneys in the treasury of the state not otherwise appropriated, upon the audit of the adjutant-general and approval of the governor, the like pension or reward that persons under similar circumstances receive from the United States; and in case of any wound, injury or disease causing death, then the widow or minor children of such member of the militia shall receive such pension and reward from the time of receiving the injuries on account of which such pension or reward is allowed. [1909, ch. 165, § 78.]

§ 2424. Proof required. Striking from roll. Before the name of any person is placed upon the roll under this article [chapter] proof shall be made, under such regulations as the adjutant-general may from time to time prescribe, that the applicant is entitled to such pension. The adjutant-general, with the approval of the governor, shall cause to be stricken from the pension roll the name of any person whenever it appears by satisfactory proof that such name was put upon such roll through false or fraudulent representations. The adjutant-general, with the approval of the governor, may increase or reduce or withdraw any pension, according to right and justice and the practice in the United States pension office. [1909, ch. 165, § 79.]

§ 2425. Pension examiners and examining boards. The adjutant-general is authorized to appoint pension examiners, whose duty it shall be to inquire into the merits of any claim for pay and care and pension, whether pending or adjudicated, and any person so appointed shall have power to administer oaths, to orally examine witnesses, to issue subpoenas and to take affidavits and depositions in the course of such examinations. The adjutant-general shall further appoint examining boards, consisting of not more than three medical officers of the national guard, who shall under his direction make such examination of claimant as he shall require, and certify the result in such form as he shall prescribe, and any person adversely affected by the report of one medical officer shall be entitled to an examination upon his request before a board consisting of three medical officers. [1909, ch. 165, § 80.]

§ 2426. Pay and care when injured or disabled in service. A member of the national guard who shall, when on duty or assembled therefor, in case of riot, tumult, breach of the peace, insurrection or invasion, or whenever ordered by the governor, commanding officer of the national guard, or called in aid of the civil authorities, receive an injury or incur or contract any disability or disease by reason of such duty or assembly therefor, or who shall without fault or neglect on his part be wounded or disabled while performing any lawfully ordered duty which shall temporarily incapacitate him from pursuing his usual business or occupation shall, during the period of such incapacity, receive the pay provided by this chapter and actual necessary expenses for care and medical attendance. All claims arising under this section shall be inquired into by a board of three officers, at least one being a medical officer, to be appointed upon the application of the member claiming to be so incapacitated by the commanding officer of the brigade to which such member is attached. Such board shall have the same power to take evidence, administer oaths, issue subpoenas and compel witnesses to attend and testify and produce books and papers and punish their failure to do so, as is possessed by a general court-martial. The findings of the board shall be subject to the approval of the officer convening it when the claim is payable by a county, and in all other cases to the approval of the commanding officer of the national guard. The reviewing officer may return the proceeding of the board for revision and for taking further testimony. The amount found due such member by said board to the extent that its findings are approved by the reviewing officer thereof, shall be a charge against and be paid in the manner provided in this chapter, by the county in which such duty was rendered, in every case where a county is by this chapter made liable to pay for the performance of military duty. In all other cases such sums shall be paid by this state, in like manner as other military accounts are paid. [1909, ch. 165, § 81.]

§ 2426a. Medals for service. Appropriation. The commander in chief of the national guard of the state of North Dakota may issue an order providing suitable mark of distinction for all officers and enlisted men who have served in the national guard for an aggregate period of ten, fifteen and twenty years, respectively, and for a like service hereafter. There is hereby appropriated out of the funds in the state treasury, not otherwise appropriated, the sum of one hundred dollars for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this section, the same to be paid out on the order of the commander in chief, who shall file vouchers with the state auditor. [R. C. 1905, § 1799; 1905, ch. 36.]

This was R. C. 1905, § 1799, which was not expressly repealed by the Military Code of 1909. See note immediately preceding section 2347.

§ 2427. Exemption from civil process. No person belonging to the active militia of the state shall be arrested on any civil process while going to, remaining at, or returning from any place at which he may be required to attend for military duty. [1909, ch. 165, § 82; R. C. 1905, § 1783; 1891, ch. 86, § 65; R. C. 1899, § 1421.]

§ 2428. Right of way. Freedom from interference. Commanding officers of any portion of the active militia parading or performing any military duty in any street or highway may require any or all persons in such street or highway to yield the right of way to such militia; provided, the carriage of the United States mail, the legitimate functions of the police and the progress and operations of the hospital ambulance and fire departments and apparatus of the insurance patrol shall not be interfered with thereby. All others who shall hinder, delay or obstruct any portion of the active militia wherever parading or performing any military duty, or who shall attempt so to do, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. [1909, ch. 165, § 83.]

§ 2429. Free passage through toll gates, etc. Any person belonging to the military forces of the state, going to or returning from any parade, encampment, drill or meeting which he may be required by law to attend shall together with his conveyance and military property of the state in his charge be allowed to pass free through all toll gates and over all toll bridges and ferries, if he is in uniform or presents an order for duty or certificate of membership in the active militia. [1909, ch. 165, § 84.]

§ 2430. Exemption from jury duty. Every member of the active militia shall be exempt from all jury duty, provided, he shall furnish the certificate of his immediate commanding officer that he has performed the duties required of him for the year immediately preceding a summons to act as a jurymen, and every such member who shall have received a full and honorable discharge shall be exempt forever after from all jury duty. [1909, ch. 165, § 85; R. C. 1905, § 1782; 1891, ch. 86, § 64; R. C. 1899, § 1420.]

§ 2431. Unlawful conversion of military property. Unlawful wearing of uniforms and devices indicating rank. Any person who shall secrete, sell, dispose of, offer for sale, purchase, retain after demand made by a commissioned officer of the national guard, or in any manner pawn or pledge any arms, uniforms, equipments or other military property issued under the provisions of this chapter, and any person who shall wear any uniform or any device, strap, knot or insignia of any design or character used as a designation of grade, rank of office, such as are by law or by general regulation duly promulgated, prescribed for the use of the active militia or similar thereto, except members of the army and navy of the United States and the national guard of this or any other state, officers of the independent military organizations so designated in section eighty-two of this chapter [section 2427]; members of associations wholly composed of soldiers honorably discharged from the service of the United States and members of the order of Sons of Veterans, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and in addition thereto shall forfeit to the people of this state one hundred dollars for each offense, to be sued for in the name of the people by a judge-advocate. All moneys recovered by an action or proceeding under this section shall be paid to the adjutant-general, who shall apply the same to the use of the active militia. [1909, ch. 165, § 86; R. C. 1905, § 1785; 1891, ch. 86, § 67; R. C. 1899, § 1423.]

§ 2432. Trespassers and disturbers to be placed in arrest. Liquors and huckster sales prohibited. The commanding officer upon any occasion of duty may place in arrest during continuance thereof any person who shall trespass upon the camp ground, parade ground, armory or other place devoted to such duty, or shall in any way or manner interrupt or molest the orderly discharge of duty by those under arms, or shall disturb or prevent the passage of troops going to or returning from any duty. [1909, ch. 165, § 87; R. C. 1905, § 1757; 1891, ch. 86, § 39; R. C. 1899, § 1395.]

§ 2432a. The governor controls encampment ground and appoints military board. The governor as commander in chief shall have full control of the state encampment grounds on Rock Island, Ramsey county, North Dakota, and may from time to time appoint an advisory board of three officers to manage the same under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe; provided, that all moneys received from the sale of timber, stone or other material taken from the grounds shall be paid into the state treasury and be kept as a separate fund for the improvement of the property for military uses, and shall be paid out upon proper vouchers approved by the governor. [R. C. 1905, § 1754; 1895, ch. 80, § 4; R. C. 1899, § 1392; 1901, ch. 32.]

This was R. C. 1905, § 1754, which was not expressly repealed by the Military Code of 1909. See note immediately preceding section 2347.

§ 2432b. Compensation of members of the board. The compensation of the members of such military board when in actual attendance at meetings of the board, shall be such as prescribed by law for field duty and their actual traveling expenses in going to and returning from the place of meeting. [R. C. 1905, § 1755; 1895, ch. 80, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 1393; 1901, ch. 32.]

This was R. C. 1905, § 1755, which was not expressly repealed by the Military Code of 1909. See note immediately preceding section 2347.

§ 2433. Military parades by unauthorized bodies prohibited. No body of men, other than the regularly organized corps of the national guard and militia and the troops of the United States, shall associate themselves together as a military company or organization, or parade in public with firearms in any city or town of this state. No city or town shall raise or appropriate any money toward arming or equipping, uniforming or in any other way supporting, sustaining or providing drill rooms or armories for any such body of men; but associations wholly composed of soldiers honorably discharged from the service of the United States or members of the order of Sons of Veterans may parade in public with firearms on Decoration Day or upon the reception of any regiments or companies of soldiers returning from such service, and for the purpose of escort duty at the burial of deceased soldiers; and students in educational institutions where military science is a prescribed part of the course of instruction may, with the consent of the governor, drill and parade with firearms in public under the superintendence of their teachers. This section shall not be construed to prevent any organization authorized to do so by law from parading with firearms, nor to prevent parades by the national guard of other states. Any person violating any provision of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor. [1909, ch. 165, § 88.]

§ 2434. Separate companies. The words "separate company," wherever used in this act [chapter] shall be construed to apply to and mean separate companies existing, organized and reorganized by the governor as such, irrespective of their being now or hereafter part of a regiment or battalion and to such similar organizations as may have been since or may be hereafter created, and as may be certified by the adjutant-general to be separate companies within the meaning of this section, irrespective of their being or becoming parts of a regiment or battalion. [1909, ch. 165, § 89.]

§ 2435. Provision as amendatory and repealing statutes. No section or provision of this chapter or any part thereof shall be deemed to be repealed, altered or amended by any statute passed by the legislature unless such statute explicitly refers to this chapter as the military code, or by its other titles as part of the general laws or annual legislation and explicitly repeals, alters or amends the same or some part thereof. [1909, ch. 165, § 90.]

See note to section 653c.

§ 2436. Duties by title of office. The duties assigned to an officer by title in this chapter shall devolve, in case of absence or disability to command of the officer named, upon the line officer next in rank, except as otherwise provided in this chapter. [1909, ch. 165, § 91.]

§ 2437. Formation of association. By-laws. The officers of any regiment or battalion not part of a regiment, and members of any regiment, company, signal corps, hospital corps or field music may organize themselves into an association, of which the commanding officer shall be president, and by a vote of two-thirds of all their members, form by-laws, rules and regulations not inconsistent with this chapter, and which shall conform to the system prescribed in general regulation and be submitted to the commanding officer of the national guard for his approval, and when approved by him, such by-laws, rules and regulations shall be binding upon all commissioned officers and enlisted men therein, but they may be altered in the manner provided for their adoption, from time to time, as may be found necessary. [1909, ch. 165, § 92.]

§ 2438. Violation of by-laws. Expulsion. For violation of by-laws, rules and regulations of associations organized pursuant to this chapter, enlisted men, in addition to trials by a military court, may also be expelled from the organizations to which they belong by a vote of the majority of all its members and upon such action being confirmed in orders by the commanding officer of the regiment, or battalion not part of a regiment, and in case of an organization not part of a regiment or battalion by the officer to whose command it is attached, the name of such person shall be stricken from the roll of the organization not part of a regiment or battalion by the officer in whose command it is attached, the same of such person shall be stricken from the roll of the organization of which he is a member, his certificate of membership shall be surrendered and canceled, and he shall cease to be a member thereof, and his time of service in the same shall not be allowed. [1909, ch. 165, § 93.]

§ 2439. Rules and regulations. The governor is hereby authorized to make such rules and regulations as he may deem expedient, but such rules and regulations shall conform to this act [chapter], and, as nearly as practicable, to those governing the United States army, and when promulgated shall have the same force and effect as the provisions of this chapter. Such rules and regulations shall not be repealed, altered, amended or added to, except by the commanding officer of the national guard with the approval of the governor. The rules and regulations in force at the time of the passage of this chapter shall remain in force until new rules and regulations are approved and promulgated. [1909, ch. 165, § 94.]

§ 2440. Custom and usage of the United States army. All matters relating to the organization, discipline and government of the national guard, not otherwise provided for in this act [chapter] or in the general regulations, shall be decided by the custom and usage of the United States army or navy, respectively. [1909, ch. 165, § 95.]

§ 2441. Organization not attached to a brigade. Organizations not part of or attached to any brigade shall be under the commanding officer of the national guard for all purposes. [1909, ch. 165, § 96.]

§ 2442. Appropriations. For the purpose of paying the expenses of the maintenance of the national guard, there is hereby appropriated annually the sum of thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) out of any moneys in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, and all warrants against such appropriation shall be drawn by the state auditor upon the state treasurer, upon the voucher of the chief of supply or the paymaster-general, certified to by the adjutant-general and approved by the governor, said sum of thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) per annum to remain subject to warrants drawn as herein provided, until expended. [1913, ch. 33; 1909, ch. 166; R. C. 1905, § 1787; 1891, ch. 87, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1425; 1903, ch. 32.]

This section was an amendment of R. C. 1905, § 1787, which latter was not expressly repealed in the Military Code of 1909. See note immediately preceding section 2347.

Abandonment and forfeiture of mining claims. 87 Am. St. Rep. 403.

§ 2446. Certificate void, when. Any location certificate of a lode claim which shall not contain the name of the lode, the name of the locator, the date of location, the number of lineal feet claimed on each side of the discovery shaft, the number of feet in width claimed, the general course of the lode and such descriptions as shall identify the claim with reasonable certainty shall be void. [R. C. 1905, § 1803; R. C. 1899, § 1429.]

Certificate of location void when boundaries not marked as prescribed, and no minerals of required classes are within the boundaries. Regan v. Whittaker, 14 S. D. 373, 85 N. W. 863.

§ 2447. Manner of locating claim. Before filing such location certificate the discoverer shall:

1. Locate his claim by first sinking a discovery shaft thereon sufficient to show a well-defined mineral vein or lode.

2. By posting at the point of discovery on the surface, a plain sign or notice containing the name of the lode, the name of the locator and the date of discovery, the number of feet claimed in length on either side of the discovery and the number of feet in width claimed on each side of the lode.

3. By marking the surface boundaries of the same. [R. C. 1905, § 1804; 1881, ch. 96, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 1430.]

In suit to determine adverse claims, where defendant's location rests on alleged lode location prior to plaintiff's burden is on defendant to establish actual discovery prior to initiation of plaintiff's location. Sands v. Cruikshank, 15 S. D. 142, 87 N. W. 589.

In absence of fraud, decision of United States Land Department as to boundaries is conclusive. Golden Reward Min. Co. v. Buxton Min. Co., 79 Fed. 868.

Notice of location of mining claim. 7 L.R.A.(N.S.) 832.

§ 2448. Marking surface boundaries. Such surface boundaries shall be marked by eight substantial posts hewed or blazed on the side facing the claim and plainly marked with the name of the lode and the corner, end or side of the claim that they respectively represent and sunk in the ground as follows: One at the corner and one at the center of each side line and one at each end of the lode. When it is impracticable on account of rock or precipitous ground to sink such posts, they may be placed in a monument of stone. [R. C. 1905, § 1805; 1881, ch. 96, § 4; R. C. 1899, § 1431.]

Marking location of mining claim upon the ground. 7 L.R.A.(N.S.) 856.

§ 2449. Requisites of location. Any open cut, cross-cut or tunnel at a depth sufficient to disclose the mineral vein or lode, or an adit of at least ten feet in along the lode, from the point where the lode may be in any manner discovered, shall be equivalent to a discovery shaft. [R. C. 1905, § 1806; R. C. 1899, § 1432.]

§ 2450. Time within which labor must be performed. The discoverer shall have sixty days from the time of uncovering or disclosing a lode in which to sink a discovery shaft thereon. [R. C. 1905, § 1807; 1881, ch. 96, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 1433.]

§ 2451. Certificate construed to contain what. The location or location certificate of any lode claim shall be so construed as to include all surface ground within the surface lines thereof, and all lodes and ledges throughout their entire depth, the top or apex of which lies inside of such lines extended vertically, with such parts of all lodes or ledges as continue by dip beyond the side lines of the claim, but shall not include any portion of such lodes or ledges beyond the end lines of the claim or the end lines continued, whether by dip or otherwise, or beyond the side lines in any other manner than by the dip of the lode. [R. C. 1905, § 1808; R. C. 1899, § 1434.]

§ 2452. Claim not extended beyond the exterior line. If the top or apex of the lode in its longitudinal course extends beyond the exterior lines of the claim at any point on the surface, or as extended vertically downward, such lode may not be followed in its longitudinal course beyond the point where it is intersected by the exterior. [R. C. 1905, § 1809; R. C. 1899, § 1435.]

§ 2453. Owner of land may demand security of miner. When the right to mine is in any case separate from the ownership or right of occupancy to the surface, the owner or rightful occupant of the surface may demand satisfactory security from the miner and if it is refused may enjoin such miner from working until such security is given. The injunctive order shall fix the amount of bond. [R. C. 1905, § 1810; R. C. 1899, § 1436.]

Rights of owner of surface as against owner of minerals thereunder. 135 Am. St. Rep. 131.

§ 2454. Amended certificate may be filed. If at any time the locator of any mining claim heretofore or hereafter located, or his assigns, shall apprehend that his original certificate was defective, erroneous, or that the requirements of the law had not been complied with before filing, or shall be desirous of changing his surface boundaries, or of taking in any part of an overlapping claim which has been abandoned, or in case the original certificate was made prior to the passage of this law, and he shall be desirous of securing the benefit of this chapter, such locator or his assigns may file an additional certificate subject to the provisions of this chapter; provided, that such relocation does not interfere with the existing rights of others at the time of such relocation; and no such relocation nor the record thereof shall preclude the claimant from proving any such title as he may have held under previous locations. [R. C. 1905, § 1811; R. C. 1899, § 1437.]

Burden of proving forfeiture or intention to abandon is on adverse claimant. Axiom Min. Co. v. White, 10 S. D. 198, 72 N. W. 462.

§ 2456. Relocating abandoned claims. The relocation of abandoned lode claims shall be made by sinking a new discovery shaft and fixing new boundaries in the same manner as if it were the location of a new claim, or the relocater may sink the original shaft, cut or adit to a sufficient depth to comply with sections 2447 and 2451, and erect new or adopt the old boundaries, renewing the posts if removed or destroyed. In either case a new location stake shall be erected. In any case, whether the whole or part of an abandoned claim is taken, the location certificate must state that the whole or any part of the new location is located as abandoned property. [R. C. 1905, § 1813; R. C. 1899, § 1439.]

Co-owner by attempting to exclude another by a relocation does not abandon land. Hulst v. Doerstler, 11 S. D. 14, 75 N. W. 270.

Cotenant relocating claim holds as trustee for all cotenants. McCarthy v. Speed, 11 S. D. 362, 77 N. W. 590, 50 L.R.A. 184.

Right of cotenant, agent, or person standing in other fiduciary relation, to relocate a mining claim for his own benefit to the exclusion of other party. 50 L.R.A. 184.

Respective rights of one who relocates mining ground before, and one who relocates it after, the abandonment or forfeiture of a senior location. 16 L.R.A. (N.S.) 162.

When mining claim becomes segregated from public domain so as to be no longer subject to requirements for assessment work or liable to relocation. 38 L.R.A. (N.S.) 1121.

Relocation of mining claim as abandoned or forfeited. 68 L.R.A. 833.

§ 2457. Certificate can contain but one location. No location certificate shall claim more than one location, whether the location is made by one or several locators; and if it purports to claim more than one location it shall be absolutely void, except as to the first location therein described; and if they are described together, or so that it cannot be told which location is first described, the certificate shall be void as to all. [R. C. 1905, § 1814; R. C. 1899, § 1440.]

§ 2458. Fee for recording. The register of deeds shall be entitled to receive the sum of one dollar for each location certificate recorded and certified by him and shall furnish the locator with a certified copy of such certificate when demanded, for which he shall be entitled to receive fifty cents. [R. C. 1905, § 1815; R. C. 1899, § 1441.]

ARTICLE 2.—DISPUTED MINING PROPERTY.

§ 2459. Judge may order survey of mines in cases of disputed property. In all actions in any district court of this state wherein the title or right of possession to any mining claim shall be in dispute, the court or judge thereof may, upon application of any of the parties to such suit, enter an order for the underground as well as surface survey of such part of the property in dispute as may be necessary to a just determination of the question involved. Such order shall designate some competent surveyor not related to any of the parties to such suit or in anywise interested in the result of the same and upon the application of the party adverse to such application, the court may also appoint some competent surveyor, to be selected by such adverse applicant, whose duty it shall be to attend upon such survey and observe the method of making the same; such second survey shall be at the cost of the party asking the same. It shall also be lawful in such order to specify the names of witnesses named by either party not exceeding three on each side, to examine such property, who shall be allowed to enter into such property and examine the same; such court or the judge thereof may also cause the removal of any rock, debris or other obstacle in any of the drifts or shafts of such property, when such removal is shown to be necessary to a just determination of the question involved; provided, however, that no such order shall be made for survey and inspection except upon notice of the application for such order of at least six days, and not then except by agreement of parties or upon the affidavit of two or more persons that such survey and inspection is necessary to the just determination of the suit, which affidavit shall state the facts in such case and wherein the necessity for survey exists; nor shall such order be made unless it appears that the party asking therefor had been refused the privilege of survey and inspection by the adverse party. [R. C. 1905, § 1816; R. C. 1899, § 1442.]

Power of court of equity to order survey not abridged. Duggan v. Davey, 4 Dak. 110, 26 N. W. 887.

§ 2460. Writs of injunction may be issued for affirmative relief. The district court or the judge thereof in vacation shall have, in addition to the powers already possessed, power to issue writs of injunction for affirmative relief, having the force and effect of a writ of restitution, restoring any person to the possession of any mining property from which he may have been ousted by force and violence or by fraud or from which he is kept out of possession by threats or whenever such possession was taken from him by entry of the adverse party on a Sunday or legal holiday or while the party in possession was temporarily absent therefrom. The granting of such writ shall extend only to the right of possession under the facts of the case in respect to the manner in which the possession was obtained, leaving the parties to their legal rights on all other questions as though no such writ had issued. [R. C. 1905, § 1817; R. C. 1899, § 1443.]

DRAINS.

§ 2461. When drains may be constructed. Water courses, ditches and drains for the drainage of sloughs and other low lands may be established, constructed and maintained in the several counties of this state whenever the same shall be conducive to the public health, convenience or welfare under the provisions of this chapter. The word "drain" when used in this chapter shall be deemed to include any natural water course opened, or proposed to be opened, and improved for the purpose of drainage and any artificial drains constructed for such purpose. [R. C. 1905, § 1818; 1895, ch. 51, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1444.]

Drainage warrants no county liability created thereby. Constitutionality of the law. Redmond v. Chacy, 7 N. D. 231, 73 N. W. 1081; Erickson v. Cass County, 11 N. D. 494, 92 N. W. 841.

Not unconstitutional as depriving property owners of property without due process of law. Erickson v. Cass County, 11 N. D. 494, 92 N. W. 841.

Not unconstitutional as delegating legislative powers to board of drain commissioners. Soliah v. Cormack, 17 N. D. 393, 117 N. W. 125; affirmed 222 U. S. 522, 56 L.ed. 294, 32 Sup. Ct. Rep. 103.

Courts will not determine constitutionality of statutory provisions at instance of persons not beneficially interested or damaged. Turnquist v. Drain Com'rs, 11 N. D. 514, 92 N. W. 852; Ely v. Rosholt, 11 N. D. 559, 93 N. W. 864; State v. McNulty, 7 N. D. 169, 73 N. W. 87; State ex rel. McClory v. Donovan, 10 N. D. 203, 86 N. W. 709; State v. Becker, 3 S. D. 29, 51 N. W. 1018.

Improving water course after it passes beyond drainage district, into foreign territory, for purpose of making improvement of water course in this state efficacious, is not unreasonable exercise of power of securing outlet for drain purposes. Freeman v. Trimble, 21 N. D. 4, 129 N. W. 83.

Findings of drainage commissioners of essential facts cures defects in their omission from petition. Hackney v. Elliott, 23 N. D. 373, 137 N. W. 433.

§ 2462. Board of drain commissioners, how appointed. The board of county commissioners of any organized county in this state shall have power and is authorized at any meeting of the board by a majority vote of all the members, upon its own motion or on the petition of any person interested, to appoint three freeholders of the county as a board of drain commissioners of such county, who shall hold office for two years and until their successors are appointed and qualified. The board of county commissioners may remove any or all of such drain commissioners, and in case of a vacancy may fill the same by appointment. The board of county commissioners shall provide an office for said board of drain commissioners at the county seat, suitable for its use and the keeping of its records, and shall provide suitable record books for its use. [1907, ch. 93; R. C. 1905, § 1819; 1895, ch. 51, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 1445.]

§ 2463. Oath. Bond. Organization. Legal advice. Any person appointed as a member of the board of drain commissioners shall within ten days after his appointment take, subscribe and file in the office of the county auditor an oath faithfully to perform the duties of a drain commissioner under the law, and within the same time make, execute and file in the auditor's office a bond to the county with sureties to be approved by the auditor in such sum as shall be ordered by the board of county commissioners, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties as drain commissioner. The members of the drainage board shall organize by electing from their number a chairman and a secretary; they shall keep an office at the county seat and shall keep a record of its acts and proceedings and a separate record of the proceedings relating to each separate drain, all of which shall be open for public inspection and such records shall have the same force and effect as other public records. Two members of said board shall at all times constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Said board may, when it is necessary, employ a clerk and fix his compensation; it may also employ and call to its assistance a competent surveyor. The state's attorney of each county shall, so far as his other duties will permit, act as the legal advisor of the board. The board may, however, by and with the consent of the county commissioners, employ other counsel to advise and represent it in its proceedings. [1911, ch. 124; 1907, ch. 93; R. C. 1905, § 1820; 1895, ch. 51, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 1446.]

§ 2464. How established. A petition for the construction of a drain may be made in writing to the board of drain commissioners, which petition shall designate the starting point and terminus and general course of the proposed drain. If among the leading purposes of the proposed drain are benefits to the health, convenience or welfare of the people of any city or other municipality, the petition shall be signed by a sufficient number of the citizens of such municipality or municipalities to satisfy the board of drain commissioners that there is a public demand for such drain. If the chief purpose of such drain is the drainage of agricultural, meadow, grazing or other lands, the petition shall be signed by at least six or more freeholders whose property shall be affected by the proposed drain. Upon the presentation of a petition as hereinbefore provided and filing of the same, the board of drain commissioners shall, personally, as soon as practicable, proceed to examine the line of the proposed drain, and if in its opinion it is necessary for the public good, it shall enter a resolution to that effect, and shall also enter a resolution designating a competent surveyor who shall survey the line thereof and establish the commencement and terminus and determine the route, width, length and depth thereof.

Provided, that the board of drain commissioners shall require a bond from the petitioners in a sum sufficient to pay all expenses of the surveys and of the drainage commissioners if it should appear after the surveyor's report is filed, that the proposed drain would cost more than the amount of the benefit to be derived therefrom. For the purpose of making examinations or surveys the board of drain commissioners, surveyors and their employes may enter upon any land traversed by any such proposed drain or upon other lands when necessary. Such surveyor shall prepare profiles, plans and specifications of the proposed drain, an estimate of the cost thereof and a map or plat of the lands to be drained in duplicate, showing the regular subdivisions thereof, one copy of which shall be filed in the office of the county auditor in the county in which the drain is proposed to be constructed and the other with the board of drain commissioners, subject to inspection. In locating a drain a board of drain commissioners may, under the advice of the surveyor, vary from the lines described in the petition as it seems best. When the line proposed is along highways already established the drain shall be located at a sufficient distance from the center of such highway to permit a good road along the central line thereof. When the length of the line described in the petition does not give sufficient fall to drain the land sought to be drained, the board of drain commissioners may extend the drain below the outlet named in the petition far enough to obtain a sufficient fall and outlet. Drains shall as far as practicable be located on dividing lines between sections or regular subdivisions thereof, but the general utility of the drain must not be sacrificed to avoid crossing any tract of land in such direction as the board of drain commissioners find advisable. Upon the filing of the surveyor's report the board of drain commissioners shall fix a date and public place for hearing objections to the petitions, and such place for hearing shall be located at some point in the vicinity of the land which will be affected by such drain and that will be the most convenient point for the majority of the land owners affected by the proposed drain to attend. At least ten days' notice of such hearing shall be given by causing five notices to be posted along the line of the proposed drain at such points as will be likely, in the opinion of the board, to secure the greatest publicity, and in addition a notice shall be sent by registered mail to the last known address of each and every owner of land which may be affected by the proposed drain. Notices of this hearing shall contain a copy of the petition and a statement of the date of filing of the surveyor's report and the date when the board will act upon the petition, and must be signed by the members of the board or a majority thereof. All persons, whose land may be affected by any such drain, may appear before the board of drain commissioners and fully express their opinion and offer evidence upon the matters pertaining thereto. Should two-thirds of the land owners, whose land is subject to assessment for the construction of the proposed drain, believe that the benefits to be derived are not equal to the expense of the construction, they may petition the board of drain commissioners to have further proceedings discontinued, whereupon the said board shall by resolution order further proceedings discontinued. [1911, ch. 125, § 1; 1907, ch. 93; R. C. 1905, § 1821; 1899, ch. 79; R. C. 1899, § 1447; 1903, ch. 80.]

§ 2465. Showing required to establish drain. If upon the examination by the board of drain commissioners before the survey has been made, or if upon the hearing upon the petition or upon the trial in the district court it shall appear that there was not sufficient cause for making such petition, or that the proposed drain would cost more than the amount of benefit to be derived therefrom, the board of drain commissioners shall deny the petition, and the petitioners shall be jointly and severally liable to such board for all costs and expenses incurred in the proceedings, to be recovered by such board by action. If it shall appear that there was sufficient cause for the making of such petition and that the proposed drain will not cost more than the amount of the benefits to be derived therefrom the board of drain commissioners shall thereupon make an order establishing the drain, accurately describing it, and give the same a name by which it shall be recorded and indexed. [1907, ch. 93; R. C. 1905, § 1822; 1899, ch. 79; R. C. 1899, § 1448.]

§ 2466. Right of way. The right of way for the construction of any proposed drain, if not conveyed to the county by the owner, may be acquired in such manner as may now or hereafter be prescribed by law. Such right of way, when acquired, shall be the property of the county. [1907, ch. 93; R. C. 1905, § 1823; 1895, ch. 51, § 6; R. C. 1899, § 1449.]

Improvement of water courses for drainage purposes may be made without securing right of way through land as for drains. Freeman v. Trimble, 21 N. D. 1, 129 N. W. 83.

§ 2467. Assessment of damages, how made. Upon the assessment by the jury, court or referee, of the amount of damages to which the respective owners of the right of way to be used for the construction of any proposed drain are entitled, the board of drain commissioners may issue warrants in a sum sufficient to pay the damages assessed for right of way, drawn upon the proper county treasurer, and payable out of any funds in the hands of the treasurer, for the construction of the drain for which such right of way is sought to be obtained, and shall negotiate the same at not less than the par value thereof, and pay into court for the benefit of the owners of the right of way the amount to which each is entitled according to the assessment of damages, paying the surplus, if any, to the county treasurer, who shall place the same to the credit of the proper drain fund. If warrants cannot be negotiated, the board of drain commissioners shall assess the per cent of the cost of acquiring the right of way in the manner provided in section 2469, making return to the county auditor containing all that is required in section 2470, and make, serve and file the list provided for in section 2474, and no further proceedings shall be taken until the special tax levied to pay for the right of way is collected and paid into court for the benefit of the owners of the right of way. [R. C. 1905, § 1824; 1899, ch. 79; R. C. 1899, § 1450.]

§ 2468. Assessment of benefits subject to review. The assessments of benefits provided for in this chapter shall be subject to review, and ten days' notice of the time and place, when and where such assessment will be reviewed by the board of drain commissioners, shall be given by publishing in some newspaper of general circulation in the county, and printed notices, not less than five in all and at least one in each township or municipality interested in such drain, shall be posted in such township and municipality at such points as may be likely, in the opinion of the board, to secure the greatest publicity for each notice. Printed notices shall also be sent by registered mail to the last known address of each and every land owner whose land shall be affected by construction of the proposed drain. The place appointed for such hearing shall be located at some point in the vicinity of the land which shall be affected by such drain and that will be the most convenient point for the majority of the land owners affected by the proposed drain to attend. At the time and place appointed such board shall proceed to hear all complaints relative to such assessment and correct or confirm the same. Should two-thirds of the land owners, subject to assessment for the construction of the proposed ditch, believe that the assessment had not been fairly or equitably made, or that the drain is not properly located or designed, they may appeal to the state engineer by petition to make a review of such benefits and assessments and to examine the location and design of the proposed drain. Upon the receipt of such petition the state engineer shall proceed to examine the lands assessed and the location and design of the proposed drain, and should it appear to him that such assessments have not been equitably made, he may proceed to correct the same and his correction and adjustment of said assessments shall be final. Should it appear that, in the judgment of the state engineer, the drain has been improperly located or designed, he may order a relocation and design, which location and design shall be followed in the construction of the proposed drain. For his services in making such review of assessments and examination of location and design, the state engineer shall be allowed ten dollars per day and actual and necessary expenses during the time he is engaged upon this work. All moneys received by the state engineer for this work shall be paid into the state treasurer and credited to the general fund. [1911, ch. 125, § 2; R. C. 1905, § 1825; 1895, ch. 51, § 8; R. C. 1899, § 1451.]

Failure to post notices of time and place of review of special percentage assessment, is noncompliance with statute, rendering proceedings to review invalid. Edwards v. Cass County, 23 N. D. 555, 137 N. W. 580.

§ 2469. Accruing benefits. Upon acquiring the right of way, if the assessment of benefits has not already been made under the provisions of section 2467, the board of drain commissioners shall assess the per cent of the cost of constructing and maintaining such drain, and of providing the right of way therefor, which any county, township, city, village or town shall be liable to pay by reason of the benefits of such drain to the public health, convenience or welfare, and which any railroad company shall be liable to pay by reason of benefits to accrue to its property, and which any lot, piece or parcel of land shall be liable to pay by reason of benefits to accrue thereto, either directly or indirectly, by reason of the construction of such drain, whether such lands are immediately drained thereby, or can be drained only by the construction of other and connecting drains, but such assessment shall be subject to review by the commissioners as hereinafter provided. [R. C. 1905, § 1826; 1899, ch. 79; R. C. 1899, § 1452.]

Assessments are special to land assessed and not "conjectural" or "speculative." Erickson v. Cass County, 11 N. D. 494, 92 N. W. 841.

§ 2470. Return of assessment of benefits. After the assessment of benefits has been made, as provided in the last section, and has been confirmed upon the hearing, and the specific amounts of each assessment has been extended as hereinafter provided, the board of drain commissioners shall make return thereof to the county auditor, who shall record the same in a book to be provided by the county for that purpose. Such return shall contain the petition for the drain, the minutes of the survey signed by the surveyor, a copy of the order establishing the drain, conveyance of the right of way, if any, and the assessment of benefits. [1907, ch. 93; R. C. 1905, § 1827; 1899, ch. 79; R. C. 1899, § 1453.]

Failure to make record of filing of return of proceeding had concerning assessment of benefits does not make assessment invalid. Hackney v. Elliott, 23 N. D. 373, 137 N. W. 433.

§ 2471. Notice of construction. After completing the percentage assessment as hereinbefore provided, the board of drain commissioners shall without delay divide the line thereof into convenient divisions for construction, make diagrams of the same with specifications of the width of excavation at the bottom, the slope of the sides, and such other matters as may be necessary for the proper construction of the drain, and set suitable stakes in such places as may be necessary. Such board shall give at least ten days' notice of the time when and the place where they will meet parties for the purpose of letting contracts for such construction. Such notice shall be published in some newspaper of general circulation in the county and printed notices not less than five in all and at least one in each township or municipality interested in such drain shall be posted in such township or municipalities at such points as will be likely, in the opinion of the board, to secure the greatest publicity for such notice. At least ten days' time shall intervene between the hearing upon the review of the assessments before the contracts shall be let. [1911, ch. 125, § 1; 1907, ch. 93; R. C. 1905, § 1828; 1899, ch. 79; R. C. 1899, § 1454.]

Alleged defects in right of way deeds do not invalidate proceedings of board. Erickson v. Cass County, 11 N. D. 494, 92 N. W. 841.

Failure to post notices of time and place of review of special assessment in one township of three comprising drainage district, renders review in such township invalid. Edwards v. Cass County, 23 N. D. 555, 137 N. W. 580.

§ 2472. Commissioners may defer letting of contract. At the time and place appointed the board of drain commissioners shall proceed to hear all complaints relative to such assessments, unless a hearing has already been had under the provisions of section 2468, and correct and confirm the same. Such board shall then proceed to let contracts for the construction of the drain by divisions as it shall have divided the same, to the persons who will do the work according to the specifications, for the lowest price and give adequate security for the performance of the same within such time as the contract shall specify. Such board may adjourn such letting in whole or in part and from time to time to such other time and place, to be by it at the time of such adjournment publicly announced, as shall to it seem proper and it may reserve the right to reject any and all bids. The parties who are to be assessed for the construction of such drain and who may be bidders for contracts thereon shall, if equal bidders with other parties, be preferred in the awarding of such contracts; provided, that contracts for the building of bridges and culverts mentioned in section 2482 may be deferred, until the construction of the drain has reached such a stage of completion that the character of the bridges and culverts which will be needed can be determined. As soon as the character of such bridges and culverts can be determined such board shall cause plans and specifications of the bridges and culverts to be constructed in connection with such drain to be prepared and shall give at least ten days' notice of the time and place when and where it will meet parties for the purpose of letting contracts for such construction. Such notice shall be published in some newspaper of general circulation in the county. Such contracts shall be let to the lowest bidder as hereinbefore in this section provided. [R. C. 1905, § 1829; 1895, ch. 51, § 12; R. C. 1899, § 1455.]

Necessity of county commissioners letting contract to lowest bidder. Alstad v. Sim, 15 N. D. 629, 109 N. W. 66.

§ 2473. General duties of commissioners. After the letting of such contracts or a major portion thereof such board shall make a computation of the cost of such drain which shall include all the expenses of locating and establishing the same, including the cost of right of way, the drain commissioners' fees, cost of survey, cost of building bridges and culverts, interest on all warrants issued or to be issued by the board of drain commissioners on account of the drain, accumulated or to accumulate prior to the time when the tax levied or to be levied to pay for the right of way or construction of the drain is collectible by law and all other expenses and the amount of the contracts and in case contracts shall not have been let for the construction of the whole of the drain or of the bridges and culverts, the board of drain commissioners shall estimate the cost of such unlet portion and of the bridges and culverts, predicating its estimate so far as may be upon the cost of those portions that have been let or upon similar work. The sum of all the costs and expenses incurred or to be incurred shall be the cost of the construction of the drain. [R. C. 1905, § 1830; 1895, ch. 51, § 13; R. C. 1899, § 1456.]

§ 2474. Apportionment and taxation of costs. After fixing the cost of the construction of the drain, as provided in the preceding section, the board of drain commissioners shall carry out upon the assessment list the specific amount which each municipality and lot or tract of land benefited by the drain for which the tax is levied is liable to pay on account of procuring the right-of-way or the construction of any drain, or both, according to the per cent which by section 2469 it is required to fix and determine, a copy of which shall be served on the clerk or auditor of each municipality against which taxes are to be assessed. Such list shall thereupon be filed in the office of the county auditor of the county in which the municipalities and lands benefited by the drain are situated, and the auditor shall thereupon extend upon the tax lists as a special tax as provided by law the several amounts shown by the drain commissioners' list, specifying in such tax lists the particular drain for the construction or procurement of the right-of-way of which the special tax is assessed, which special tax shall be collected and enforced in the same manner as other taxes. When such special tax is for the right-of-way, the same shall when collected be paid by the county treasurer into court for the benefit of the owners of the right-of-way, and the common council or other proper taxing authorities of each city or other municipality against which such assessment is made as aforesaid, shall include in the first general tax levy thereafter made in said city or municipality the amount so assessed against it by the board of drain commissioners, and the same shall be extended upon the tax lists of the county for the current year by the county auditor against all the taxable property in such city or municipality in the same manner and with the same effect as other taxes are extended. [1907, ch. 93; R. C. 1905, § 1831; 1899, ch. 79; R. C. 1899, § 1457.]

Apportionment of special benefits when made, not being based upon estimated or actual costs of project, fact that actual costs may exceed estimated costs cannot affect validity of apportionment. Hackney v. Elliott, 23 N. D. 373, 137 N. W. 433.

Jury is not authorized to consider benefits to tract of land about to be condemned in determining full compensation. Heskin v. Herbrandson, 21 N. D. 232, 130 N. W. 836.

Special assessments bear simple interest at 7 per cent only from time that they must be paid. Hackney v. Elliott, 23 N. D. 408, 137 N. W. 433.

§ 2475. Collection of drain taxes. Payment of expenses. The drain taxes shall be collected by the county treasurer, and all moneys so collected shall be credited to the drain fund to which they belong, and the county treasurer shall be the treasurer of such drain funds. Payment of all expenses and costs of locating and constructing any drain shall be made by the board of drain commissioners issuing warrants in such amounts and to such persons as by such board may be found due, which warrants shall be signed by the chairman and secretary. All warrants drawn by such board in payment for the right-of-way or construction of any drain shall be payable from the proper drain fund and shall be receivable for the taxes levied for the right-of-way or construction of such drain by the treasurer. All such warrants after presentation to the county treasurer for payment, if not paid for want of funds, shall be registered by the county treasurer and shall thereafter bear interest at the rate of seven per cent per annum. [1907, ch. 93; R. C. 1905, § 1832; 1895, ch. 51, § 15; R. C. 1899, § 1458.]

Penalty paid as part of drain assessment into particular drain fund must remain in hands of county treasurer until disbursed for drainage purposes. State ex rel. Viking Twp. v. Mikkelsen, 24 N. D. 175, 139 N. W. 525.

§ 2476. Additional assessment. When necessary. In case the amount realized from the assessment made for right-of-way or for the construction of any drain shall not be sufficient to pay for such right-of-way or to complete such drain, and to pay fees and all incidental expenses, or to pay and retire any bonds issued in connection with the construction of such drain, or in case an enlargement or deepening of such drain or an extension of the line thereof becomes necessary, a further assessment shall be made to meet the deficit or additional expense and the amount thereof shall be levied and collected in the manner hereinbefore provided. [1911, ch. 124, § 1; R. C. 1905, § 1833; 1895, ch. 51, § 16; R. C. 1899, § 1459.]

§ 2477. Extension of time to contractors. The board of drain commissioners shall have power to grant a reasonable extension of time for the completion of any contract. When any contract shall not be finished within the time specified, or to which it may be extended, the board of drain commissioners may in its discretion at any time thereafter, relet such unfinished portion or any part thereof, after not less than five days' notice thereof to the lowest responsible bidder and shall take security as before. The cost of completing such parts over and above the contract price, and the expense of notices and reletting shall be collected by the board of drain commissioners of the parties at first contracting; provided, that in no case shall the board of drain commissioners forfeit and annul a contract without five days' notice to the contractor, if found, and if not found, then by written notice left at his last place of residence, if known to be within the county. [R. C. 1905, § 1834; 1895, ch. 51, § 17; R. C. 1899, § 1460.]

§ 2478. Extension of powers when necessary. The powers conferred by this chapter for establishing and constructing drains shall also extend to and include the deepening and widening of any drains which have heretofore been or may hereafter be constructed; also to straightening, clearing out and deepening the channels of creeks and streams and the construction, maintaining, remodeling and repairing of levees, dykes and barriers for the purpose of drainage, and the board of drain commissioners may locate or extend the line of any drain if the same is necessary to provide a suitable outlet, and shall cause a survey thereof to be made, and may establish a drain upon the line of an abandoned drain, and complete the same, or in whole or in part upon the line of an invalid drain. It may also establish and construct lateral drains with outlets in drains heretofore constructed; provided, however, that all proceedings under this section affecting the rights of persons and property shall only be taken upon the petition and in accordance with the procedure governing the establishment and construction of drains in the first instance. Whenever the widening, extending or deepening of a main drain is made necessary by the construction of a lateral drain, the petition for the lateral drain shall contain a request for such widening, deepening or extension, and the cost of such widening, deepening or extension shall be charged as a part of the cost of construction of the drain petitioned for and assessed against the property benefited thereby as a part of the cost of the construction. [1907, ch. 93; R. C. 1905, § 1835; 1895, ch. 51, § 18; R. C. 1899, § 1461.]

§ 2479. Joint powers of drain commissioners in two or more counties. Apportionment of cost.—Whenever it shall be deemed necessary by the boards of drain commissioners of two or more counties in this state, to construct or extend a drain through or into two or more counties in this state, it shall be lawful and the several boards of drain commissioners in the counties into or through which such proposed drain may extend when completed, are empowered to establish, construct and maintain such drain through or into two or more counties in manner following, to wit: There shall first be presented to the several boards of drain commissioners in each of such counties a petition for the establishment of such drain in their several counties as provided by law and such commissioners of such several counties shall determine upon the necessity or expediency of the establishment of such drain as provided by law. The several boards of drain commissioners of all counties through or into which such proposed drain may run shall then meet and agree upon the proportion of damages and benefits to accrue to the lands affected in each county affected and for this purpose they shall consider the entire course of said drain through all said counties as one drain. They may apportion the cost of establishing and constructing such entire drain ratably and equitably upon the lands in each county in proportion to the benefits to accrue to such lands, and when they have so apportioned the same they shall make written reports of such apportionment to the auditors of the several counties affected, which reports shall show the portion of cost of such entire drain to be paid by tax upon the lands in each of such counties and such reports shall be signed by the boards of drain commissioners of all counties affected. Upon the filing of such reports, the several boards of drain commissioners shall meet and assess against the lands in each of such counties ratably and equitably as provided by law an amount sufficient to pay the proportion of cost of such drain in each of such counties so fixed by all said commissioners. [R. C. 1905, § 1836; 1905, ch. 97.]

Joint boards of drain commissioners have power to secure outlet to drain established in their district, in foreign territory by deepening or widening stream. Freeman v. Trimble, 21 N. D. 1, 129 N. W. 83.

Tri-county board does not deal with individual tracts as such, but with county apportionment of benefits, considering collectively each county's lands benefited. Hackney v. Elliott, 23 N. D. 373, 137 N. W. 433.

§ 2480. Condemning right of way under certain conditions. Any person, firm or corporation, either alone or in company with others, may petition the drainage board for a drain, and deposit with the chairman of the drainage board a good and sufficient bond to be approved by the drainage board, conditioned that the petitioner will pay all costs of the proposed drain. Then the drainage board shall, within ten days, commence proceedings for the construction of said drain according to the provisions of chapter 23 of the Code of North Dakota of 1905. No person, firm or corporation, except the petitioners above mentioned, shall dig or construct any lateral ditch or drain that will conduct the flow of water from any land or lands into any drain constructed under the provisions of this section, provided, that any person or persons, firm or corporation, may petition the drainage board for the privilege of digging ditches or lateral drains into the original ditch; and thereupon the drainage board shall estimate and determine the proportionate share of the cost of the main or original drain and the exact amount which should be paid by such petitioners. The said petitioners may pay into the county treasury the amount so determined, and they shall then be allowed to connect their lateral ditches or drains with the main drain under the direction and superintendence of the drainage board, but at their own cost and expense. The money paid into the county treasury, as aforesaid, shall be divided among those persons, their heirs or assigns, who paid for the original or main drain, in proportion to the amount paid by each.

The preceding sections 2461-2479 and the following sections 2481-2495 constitute chapter 23 of the Code of 1905 to which reference is made in section 2480.

See note to section 2490.

§ 2481. Duty of railroad companies. Drains may be laid along, within the limits of or across any public road, and when so laid out and constructed or when any road shall thereafter be constructed along or across any drain it shall be the duty of the board of county commissioners, or township supervisors, as the case may be, to keep the same open and free from all obstructions. A drain may be laid along any railroad when necessary, but not to the injury of such road, and when it shall be necessary to run a drain across a railroad it shall be the duty of such railroad company, when notified by the board of drain commissioners to do so, to make the necessary opening through said road and to build and keep in repair suitable culverts or bridges. [R. C. 1905, § 1837; 1895, ch. 51, § 19; R. C. 1899, § 1462.]

Construction of drains in streets as additional burden on easement. 17 L.R.A. 479.

§ 2482. Construction of bridges and culverts. When any drain crosses a highway the cost of constructing the necessary bridge or culvert shall be charged in the first instance as part of the cost of constructing such drain, after which such bridge or culvert shall be maintained as part of the highway. The board of drain commissioners shall construct such bridges or culverts over or in connection with each drain as may in its judgment be necessary to furnish a passage from one part to another of any farm or tract of land intersected by such drain and the cost of the construction thereof shall be charged as part of the cost of constructing such drain and such bridge or passageway shall be maintained under the authority of the board of county commissioners or township supervisors, as the case may be, and the necessary expense thereof shall be deemed a part of the cost of keeping such drain open and in repair. [R. C. 1905, § 1838; 1895, ch. 51, § 20; R. C. 1899, § 1463.]

§ 2483. Blind drains, how constructed. Blind drains may be constructed by the use of drain tile or sewer pipe, when the nature of the ground will admit of so doing. When blind drains are constructed the entrance shall be protected from drift wood and other debris. [R. C. 1905, § 1839; 1895, ch. 51, § 21; R. C. 1899, § 1464.]

§ 2484. Legal drains defined. Record. All drains regularly established, opened or constructed under the provisions of any law shall be deemed legal drains and shall be under the control and charge of the county commissioners, and it shall be the duty of all boards of county commissioners in cases where the records of any drain may not have been preserved, to see that such record is made in the best manner practicable in the office of the county auditor, and whenever necessary it shall be their duty to complete the records of such drain so as to show their legal character. Said board shall provide a book to be known as "record of drains," in which such records shall be recorded. [1907, ch. 93; B. C. 1905, § 1840; 1895, ch. 51, § 22; R. C. 1899, § 1465.]

§ 2485. Tax or assessment void, when. New proceedings. The collection of no tax or assessment levied or ordered to be levied to pay for the location and construction of any drain laid out and constructed under this chapter, shall be perpetually enjoined or declared absolutely void in consequence of any error of any officer or board in the location and establishment thereof, nor by reason of any error or informality appearing in the record of the proceedings by which any drain shall have been located or established, nor for want of proper conveyance or condemnation of the right of way, but the court in which any proceeding may hereafter be brought to reverse or to declare void the proceedings by which any drain has been located or established or to enjoin the tax levied to pay the labor and cost and expenses shall on application of either party appoint such person or persons to examine the premises, or to survey the same, or both, as may be deemed necessary and the court shall on a final hearing make such order in the premises as shall be just and equitable, and may order such tax to remain on the tax list for collection, or any part thereof, or if the same shall have been paid under protest shall order the whole or such part thereof as may be just and equitable to be refunded, the costs of said proceedings to be apportioned among the parties as justice may require. If any proceeding for the location, establishment or construction of any drain under the provisions of this chapter, have been heretofore, or shall be hereafter enjoined, vacated, set aside, declared void or voluntarily abandoned by the board of drain commissioners, in consequence of any error, irregularity or want of jurisdiction affecting the validity of such proceedings, and if any drainage warrants have been or shall hereafter be issued in connection with such aforesaid invalid or abandoned proceedings, the board of drain commissioners may nevertheless proceed under the provisions of this chapter to locate, establish and construct drains under the same or different names, and in the same or different locations from those described in the invalid or abandoned proceedings; provided, however, such new proceedings shall be in accordance with the general provisions of this chapter. In case new proceedings shall be had, resulting in the location and establishment of a drain in the same or substantially the same location as that described in the invalid or abandoned proceedings, then the board of drain commissioners shall proceed to ascertain and determine the real value of services rendered, moneys expended and work done under such invalid or abandoned proceedings, and the extent to which the same have contributed or will contribute to the construction and completion of such drain, as subsequently established and constructed. A meeting of said board of drain commissioners shall be held for the purpose of determining and fixing the value aforesaid, at which meeting all persons interested, whether as holders of warrants issued under invalid or abandoned proceedings, or as owners of land benefited or to be benefited by such drain, may appear and be heard. Ten days' notice of such meeting shall be given, in the manner, at the time and as a part of the notice provided for in sections 2468 or 2471, and the notice as published shall state briefly the purpose of such meeting, and that all persons interested may appear and be heard. The board shall thereupon, and after such hearing, by an order made and entered in their minutes, find and determine: (1) the real value of all work done, money expended and services rendered under such invalid or abandoned proceedings, to the extent only to which they contribute to the drain as subsequently located and established; (2) the names of all persons or corporations owning or holding drain warrants issued under such invalid or abandoned proceedings, and the dates and several amounts of such warrants. The board shall then proceed to issue warrants to an amount not exceeding the value of the work done, moneys expended and services rendered under such invalid or abandoned proceedings, and deliver such new warrants to the owners or holders of the old warrants upon surrender and return of the latter; provided, however, that the value of any service rendered, or money expended, or work done, shall in no case be declared to be greater than the warrant issued therefor, under the invalid or abandoned proceedings, and if found to be less, the new warrant shall not be issued or delivered except upon the surrender and return of the old warrant, in lieu of which it is issued. The real purpose and intent of this section is to afford compensation for services rendered, work done and moneys expended, under invalid or abandoned proceedings, to the extent only to which the same contributes to the completion of a drain located and established in pursuance of the provisions of this chapter. [R. C. 1905, § 1841; 1899, ch. 79; R. C. 1899, § 1466.]

§ 2486. Drain kept open and in repair. Cost of. All drains that may have been constructed under any law of this state, or that may be constructed under the provisions of this chapter and situated in this state, shall, except as otherwise provided, be under the charge of the board of county commissioners and their successors in office and be by them kept open and in repair. In all cases when any completed drain is or may be situated in more than one county the care of the portion thereof lying within any county is hereby assigned to the board of county commissioners of such county to be by it kept open and in repair. The cost of such keeping open and in repair shall in all cases be assessed, levied and collected in the same manner as is provided in this chapter for the construction of drains in the first instance, and in cases when no assessments of benefits shall have been made, the board of commissioners having charge of or to whose care such drain may be assigned shall make such assessment. [R. C. 1905, § 1842; 1895, ch. 51, § 24; 1899, § 1467.]

Maintenance of drainage ditches. 69 L.R.A. 806.

§ 2487. Rules and regulations. The board of county commissioners of any county may make rules and regulations on the subject of drainage within such county, as it may deem proper, not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter and especially with regard to clearing out and keeping clear the channels of streams and the construction and maintenance of dams thereupon, with reference to their capacity for drainage and may require of the owners of such dams reasonable service in cleaning and keeping such streams clear as a consideration for the right to erect dams thereupon. [R. C. 1905, § 1843; 1895, ch. 51, § 25; R. C. 1899, § 1468.]

§ 2488. Liability of drain commissioner. Each board of drain commissioners shall make a report to the board of county commissioners of all drains begun, in process of construction or finished and shall also render a full account of all moneys which shall come into its hands; and every drain commissioner shall be liable on his bond for any misapplication of money coming into his hands as such commissioner. The report required by this section shall include an itemized statement of all expenses and warrants drawn on account of each and every drain. [R. C. 1905, § 1844; 1895, ch. 51, § 26; R. C. 1899, § 1469.]

§ 2489. Compensation of commissioners and publishers. [Drain commissioners shall receive for their services such amount not less than three nor exceeding four dollars per day for the time spent by them in the performance of the duties of their office, such per diem to be fixed by the board of county commissioners.] Publishers of newspapers shall receive for publishing legal notices and furnishing evidence of such publication the fees prescribed by law for legal advertisements. [1907, ch. 94; R. C. 1905, § 1845; 1895, ch. 51, § 27; R. C. 1899, § 1470.]

The foregoing section was substituted by amendment for R. C. 1905, § 1845, which fixed the rate of compensation "at not less than two nor exceeding three dollars per day." The words in brackets are re-enacted in the following section 2490. The latter purports to be independent legislation; it seems, therefore, that the provision as to compensation of publishers in section 2489 is existing law.

§ 2490. Compensation. The drain commissioners shall receive for their services such amount not less than three nor exceeding four dollars per day for the time actually spent by them in the performance of the duties of their office, such per diem to be fixed by the board of county commissioners; provided, the said drain commissioners shall render an itemized and verified statement showing the date or dates when their services were rendered, and not more than the compensation for one day shall be allowed to them for services rendered in any one calendar day of twenty-four hours. [1911, ch. 125, § 4; 1907, ch. 94; R. C. 1905, § 1845; 1895, ch. 51, § 27; R. C. 1899, § 1470.]

The foregoing section 4 in Laws 1907, ch. 125, was preceded by a section which constitutes section 2480 herein.

§ 2491. Penalty. If any person shall willfully and maliciously remove any surveyor's stake set along the line of any drain laid out under the provisions of this chapter, or obstruct or injure any such drain, he shall for each and every such offense be subject to a penalty not exceeding ten dollars together with such sum as will be required to repair such damage and costs of suit, which penalty may be recovered in an action by the board of drain commissioners or county commissioners as the case may be. Whenever the amount of any recovery shall be collected it shall be deposited with the county treasurer to the credit of the proper drain fund. [R. C. 1905, § 1846; 1895, ch. 51, § 28; R. C. 1899, § 1471.]

§ 2492. State and county officers not eligible. No person holding any state or county office shall be eligible to the office of drain commissioner, and any drain commissioner accepting any state or county office shall thereupon be considered as having vacated the office of drain commissioner. [R. C. 1905, § 1847; 1895, ch. 51, § 29; R. C. 1899, § 1472.]

§ 2493. Power to administer oath. Drain commissioners shall have power to administer any oath required in any proceeding had before them or in which they may be called to act officially. [R. C. 1905, § 1848; 1895, ch. 51, § 30; R. C. 1899, § 1473.]

§ 2494. Bonds, when and how authorized. The board of county commissioners of any county in which any such drain is proposed to be located and constructed is authorized to issue bonds which shall be known as drainage bonds, in such sums as may be necessary for the purpose of defraying the expenses incurred or to be incurred in obtaining the right of way or in locating or constructing any such drain, said word "expenses" to be construed to mean and to cover every item of cost of such drain from its inception to its completion as hereinbefore provided, which bonds shall be paid out of the revenues to be derived from taxes levied, or to be levied, and collected from that portion of the county found by the board of drain commissioners to be benefited thereby. Such bonds shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding seven per cent and shall be divided in such amounts and payable at such periods not exceeding fifteen years, as the board of county commissioners may determine; provided, that any land owner who may desire to pay the entire amount assessed against his land for the entire cost of such drain, including warrants and interest thereon, may, prior to the sale of such bonds, pay into the county treasury the amount of said assessments for which the treasurer shall give his receipt in full, and such lands shall not be included in the list of the lands assessed. The county auditor shall give notice of the determination of the board of county commissioners to issue bonds by publishing a notice in the official newspaper of the county at least fifteen days before the date of selling said bonds. Said notice shall designate the drain proposed to be bonded, and in general terms notify all persons interested of their right to pay their total assessment prior to the date of the sale of said bonds, as provided in this section. The money paid in shall be used to take up warrants, and the bonds issued shall be for such an amount as will pay the remainder of the cost of construction; and the said board shall provide sinking funds for the payment at maturity of each series of bonds issued and for the payment of the annual interest on the same. The bonds issued under the provisions of this chapter shall be signed by the chairman of the board of county commissioners of such county and countersigned by the county auditor, who shall keep a record of the bonds issued under the provisions of this chapter. Such board shall have the power to negotiate such bonds at not less than the par value thereof as it may deem for the best interest of all persons interested in such drain. Such bonds shall contain a recital that the same are issued in accordance with the provisions and pursuant to the authority of this chapter and that they are to be paid out of sinking funds to be created as in this chapter provided. Whenever such bonds shall be issued the tax hereinbefore provided for shall not be collected all in one year, but shall be divided into parts corresponding with the amounts and maturities of the bonds, and such parts shall be extended year by year upon the tax lists by the county auditor against the proper parcels of land and property liable to taxation for that purpose and collected in such year, and such fund shall constitute the sinking fund provided by this section. [1907, ch. 93; R. C. 1905, § 1849; 1895, ch. 51, § 31; R. C. 1899, § 1474; 1901, ch. 39.]

Twenty year bonds bid in and accepted in Oct., 1900, are valid although not signed and delivered until Nov., 1901. May v. Cass County, 12 N. D. 137, 96 N. W. 292.

Issuance of bonds for cost of construction. Postponement of assessments and division thereof not taking property without "due process of law." Erickson v. Cass County, 11 N. D. 494, 92 N. W. 841.

Accrued interest as part of par value within prohibition against sale of bonds at less than par. 35 L.R.A. (N.S.) 789.

§ 2495. Levy of tax for interest. Sinking fund. The board of county commissioners shall in each year at the time of levying the taxes, levy upon the property liable to taxation on account of the location and construction of any drain a tax sufficient to pay the annual interest on any bonds which may have been issued for the purpose of locating and constructing the drain. Separate sinking funds shall be provided for each separate drain for the construction of which bonds shall have been issued, and no funds in any such sinking fund shall be applied to any other purpose than the payment of the bonds for the payment of which such fund was created. No county shall be liable for the payment of any bonds issued under the provisions of this chapter, but such bonds shall be paid only out of the sinking funds created as in this chapter provided. [R. C. 1905, § 1850; 1895, ch. 51, § 31; R. C. 1899, § 1474; 1901, ch. 39.]

§ 2500. Legal residence. The question of whether an applicant for poor relief has legal residence in the township, so as to entitle him to relief, shall be determined by the overseers of the poor according to the provisions of chapter 183 of the Laws of 1907, subject to appeal to the county commissioners who may bring action in the district court to determine the legal residence of applicants for poor relief, when the question is an issue between the overseer of the poor in two or more townships and when an agreement cannot be effected. When an action is brought for the purpose herein provided, the county commissioners may direct the overseers of the poor of the township where the application for relief was first filed, to contribute to the support of such poor during the pendency of such action, subject to reimbursement by the township where it is finally determined that such applicant has legal residence, if such action is decided favorably to the township contributing to the maintenance of such poor person. [1913, ch. 121, § 5.]

"Chapter 183 of the Laws of 1907" referred to in the foregoing section now constitutes the following section 2501.

§ 2501. Residence acquired. Married women and children. Residence may be acquired in any county so as to oblige such county to relieve and support the persons acquiring such residence in case they are in need of relief, as follows:

1. The residence of a married woman follows that of her husband if he has any within the state, otherwise her own at the time of her marriage, and if she then had any residence it shall not be lost or suspended by the marriage; and in case the wife shall be removed to the place of her residence, and the husband shall need relief, he shall receive it in the place where his wife shall have her residence.

2. Legitimate children shall follow and have the residence of their father if he has any within the state, until they gain a residence of their own, but if the father has no residence they shall in like manner follow and have the residence of their mother if she has any.

3. Illegitimate children shall follow and have the residence of their mother at the time of their birth, if she then has any within the state; but neither legitimate nor illegitimate children shall gain a residence by birth in the place where they were born, unless their parent or parents had a residence therein at the time.

4. Each male person and each unmarried female over the age of twenty-one years, who shall have resided one year continuously in any county in this state, shall thereby gain a residence in such county. Each minor whose parents, and each married woman whose husband has no residence in this state, who shall have resided one year continuously in any county in this state, shall thereby gain a residence in such county. Every person who has resided one year continuously in the state, but not in any one county, shall have a settlement in the county in which he has longest resided within such year. The time during which a person has been an inmate of a hospital, poorhouse, jail, prison or other public institution and each month during which he has received relief from the poor fund of any county, shall be excluded in determining the time of residence hereunder. Every minor not emancipated and settled in his own right shall have the same settlement as the parent with whom he has last resided.

5. Each minor who shall be bound as an apprentice to any person shall immediately upon such binding, if done in good faith, thereby gain a residence where his master has a residence.

6. Each residence when once legally acquired shall continue until it is lost or defeated by acquiring a new one in this state, or by voluntary absence from the county in which such residence had obtained for one year or more; and upon acquiring a new residence, or upon the happening of such voluntary absence, all former residence shall be defeated and lost, and the provisions of this section shall apply to cases of residence begun to be acquired or lost or defeated, as well heretofore as hereafter. [1907, ch. 183; R. C. 1905, § 1854; R. C. 1895, § 1478.]

Settlement of servants. 4 L.R.A.(N.S.) 698 and particularly 704, 708, 709, 712, 715, 720, 721, 723.

Liability to poor person for failure to furnish, or negligence in furnishing, relief. 39 L.R.A.(N.S.) 168.

§ 2503. Complaint in behalf of the poor. Duty of overseers. It shall be the duty of the overseers of the poor, on any complaint made to them in behalf of the poor, to examine into the ground of such complaint, and if in their judgment the poor have not been sufficiently provided with the common necessaries of life, or have in any respect been illtreated by the person under whose charge they have been placed, to withhold any part of the compensation allowed to the person keeping them, as such overseers may deem reasonable and proper, and remove such poor and place them in the care of some other person. [R. C. 1905, § 1857; R. C. 1899, § 1481.]

§ 2504. Overseer to make investigation. Whenever a claim for poor relief shall be made upon an overseer of the poor for the benefit of any person or families of persons claiming to be poor and in distress, it shall be the duty of the overseer of the poor to carefully investigate the circumstances of such poor persons, so as to ascertain their legal residence, their physical condition of health, their present and previous occupation, their ability and capacity for labor, their ages and nationality, and the names and ages and ability and capacity for labor of all members of their family, the names and addresses and occupation of their parents, brothers, sisters, sons or daughters, and if such claimants for relief are found to be in distress the cause of their condition, if the same may be ascertained; the overseer of the poor shall also require and ascertain if the relatives of such claimants are able and willing to assist them. [1913, ch. 121, § 7.]

§ 2505. Temporary aid. Whenever an overseer shall ascertain by investigation that any poor person or family require assistance, he shall furnish to them such temporary aid as may be necessary for the relief of immediate and pressing suffering; before any further final or permanent relief in any case be given, the overseer shall consider whether distress can be relieved by other means, than by expenditure of township funds. [1913, ch. 121, § 8; R. C. 1905, § 1861; R. C. 1895, § 1485.]

§ 2506. Persons must work. If the poor persons applying are in good health, or if any members of their family are so, the overseers shall insist that those able to labor shall seek employment and he shall refuse to furnish any aid until he is satisfied that the persons claiming help are endeavoring to find work for themselves. The overseer in such cases shall make all possible effort to secure employment for the able bodied in the township where they reside and may call upon residents of the townships to aid him in finding work for such persons as are able to labor. [1913, ch. 121, § 9.]

§ 2508. Schedule to county commissioners. County pays seventy-five per cent. Whenever an overseer of the poor shall give aid to any poor person or family to the amount of the value of fifteen dollars, it shall be unlawful for him to furnish any further aid to such poor person or family until he shall have presented a statement of the case to the board of county commissioners with a report or schedule of said case containing the facts and information indicated in section 2504. The board of county commissioners shall have the power and authority to refuse to appropriate county funds for the aid and maintenance of any poor person who has received aid from the overseer of the poor, if it shall appear to the board after examining the report of the said overseer, that aid is necessary. The board of county commissioners shall also have the authority to reduce or increase any allowance for aid and maintenance of the poor made by the overseer of the poor, where justice seems to require it; and the board, by a majority vote of all the members, shall also have the power to grant relief to poor persons who have been refused aid by the overseer of the poor if justice and humanity require such relief, and the township where such poor person has a legal residence shall pay a sum equal to twenty-five per cent of the amount allowed by the board of county commissioners and the county shall pay seventy-five per cent thereof. If, after the report herein required to be made to the board of county commissioners, it appears to said board that relief should be granted to such poor person, the board shall appropriate an amount equal to seventy-five per cent of the total amount granted for the aid and maintenance of such poor person by the overseer of the poor, and the amount so appropriated shall be paid by the county treasurer to the treasurer of the township. When the board of county commissioners shall reduce or increase the amount allowed for the support and maintenance of a poor person by the overseer of the poor, the said board shall appropriate a sum equal to seventy-five per cent of the amount finally allowed and the balance shall be paid by the township as hereinbefore provided, and no credit shall be given, the township by the board of county commissioners for any amounts allowed for the aid and maintenance of the poor persons under the provisions of this act in excess of twenty-five per cent of the total amount finally allowed by said board after examining the reports submitted by the overseer of the poor, as hereinafter required. [1913, ch. 121, § 11.]

§ 2509. Aid for able bodied nonresidents unlawful. It shall be unlawful for any overseer of the poor to aid any person who is not a resident of the township where he is found otherwise than by some form of labor, unless such person shall be sick, aged, injured or crippled and unable to travel; and all overseers of the poor shall endeavor to provide some form of manual labor at which they shall set any able bodied nonresident who may apply for relief to them. It shall be unlawful for any overseer of the poor to furnish any able bodied nonresident with transportation at the cost of the township. [1913, ch. 121, § 12.]

§ 2510. Legal residence must be ascertained. It shall be unlawful to furnish any nonresident who may be sick, aged, injured or crippled, with transportation at the cost of the township until after the overseer shall, by correspondence or otherwise, have ascertained beyond a reasonable doubt the legal residence of the person applying, and any transportation furnished to such person or persons shall be in direction of their legal residence, unless it be shown beyond reasonable doubt that the person in distress has some valid claim for support or some means of support in some other place towards which he or she shall ask to be sent. [1913, ch. 121, § 13.]

§ 2511. Records must be kept. Every overseer of the poor and every person who administers relief from the public funds to the poor, sick and needy who are not inmates of any public institutions, shall keep a record in which shall be entered the full name, age, sex, color, whether married or single, and nationality of every person to whom such officer or disbursing officer of public funds gives relief, the date of giving relief in each instance, and the amount, if the relief be in form of money, or the value and kind, if such relief be in the form of articles of use or value. In the instance that relief is given to the person for the use of others, the records shall show the number of such recipients of relief, with the age and sex of each, if the relief be restricted to a single family, and the name, age, sex, color and nationality of each person partaking of such relief who is not a member of the family of the person into whose hands relief is given by the overseer of the poor or other disbursing officer of public funds. That said record also be made to show the reason for the giving of relief in each instance. [1913, ch. 121, § 14; R. C. 1905, § 1858; R. C. 1899, § 1482.]

§ 2512. Copies of record filed with auditor. Two copies of the record so kept shall be filed in the office of the auditor of the county wherein such relief is given by every person keeping such a record, at least once every three months; and it is hereby made unlawful for the board of county commissioners of any county to approve or allow the payments from the county treasury of the expense of relief to any person until two copies of such records, fully conforming to that described in the last preceding section, shall have been filed in the office of the auditor of the county in which such relief is given. [1913, ch. 121, § 15.]

§ 2513. Application to the board of county commissioners. If any poor person shall feel that he or she is entitled to the benefit of the laws for the relief of the poor, and the overseer of the poor of the township in which he or she resides shall refuse to give such person the benefit thereof, upon application of such person the board of county commissioners, or a majority thereof, may, if it shall think proper, direct the overseer to relieve him or her, on his or her application therefor. [1913, ch. 121, § 16; R. C. 1905, § 1859; R. C. 1899, § 1483.]

§ 2514. When residence is uncertain. If any one within the description of the poor persons specified in this act shall be found in any township and the overseer of the poor of such township shall be unable to ascertain and establish the place of legal residence of such person, he shall proceed to provide for such poor person in the same manner as other persons are hereby directed to be provided for. [1913, ch. 121, § 17; R. C. 1905, § 1860; R. C. 1899, § 1484.]

plaint of any overseer of the poor, any justice of the peace may, by his warrant directed to and to be executed by any constable or by any other person therein designated, cause any poor person found in the township of such overseer likely to become a public charge, and having no legal residence therein, to be sent and conveyed at the expense of the county, to the place where such person belongs, if the same can be conveniently done; but if he or she cannot be so removed, such persons shall be relieved by such overseer whenever such relief is needed. [1913, ch. 121, § 18; R. C. 1905, § 1862; R. C. 1899, § 1486.]

§ 2516. Appeal to the district court. If any overseer of the poor of any township in any county in North Dakota, to which any pauper shall have been removed, as above provided, shall feel himself aggrieved by such order of removal, he may at any time within twenty days after such removal shall be known to him, appeal from the decision of the justice of the peace ordering such removal, to the district court of the county from which the removal was ordered to be made; such appeal to be taken, tried and determined and costs adjudged as in other cases of appeals from judgment of the justice of the peace, and the order of removal may be vacated or affirmed according to law and the right of the cause. [1913, ch. 121, § 19; R. C. 1905, § 1863; R. C. 1899, § 1487.]

§ 2517. Appeal heard, how. Such appeal shall be heard at the term of court next after the same is filed therein, if in the opinion of the court reasonable notice of the appeal has been given to the opposite party; but if not thus given, the cause shall stand continued until the next term of the court. [R. C. 1905, § 1864; R. C. 1895, § 1488.]

§ 2518. When order of removal defective. If the order of removal is defective, the court shall permit the same to be amended without costs, and after such amendment is made the appeal shall be heard and determined as in other cases. [R. C. 1905, § 1865; R. C. 1895, § 1489.]

§ 2519. Overseer must receive person having legal residence. If any person be removed by virtue of the provisions of this act from any county, township or place to any other place within the state, by warrant or order under the hand and seal of any justice of the peace, as hereinbefore provided, the overseer of the poor of the township or place to which said person shall be removed is required to receive such person if he have a legal residence in his township. [1913, ch. 121, § 20; R. C. 1905, § 1866; R. C. 1899, § 1490.]

As to what constitutes "this act" to which the section refers, see note to section 2508.

§ 2521. Settlement. The overseer of the poor shall make settlement with the board of county commissioners, quarterly, at the regular meetings or oftener as said board of county commissioners shall direct, of all poor relief of the past quarter, and file all vouchers therefor as required by this or any other law; and the board of county commissioners are hereby directed to settle with the overseer of the poor in the several townships of their respective townships at least once every quarter and oftener if they shall deem the same necessary, and the said board shall pay the township treasurer, quarterly, seventy-five per cent of all money advanced for the aid and maintenance of the poor in such township for the preceding quarter. [1913, ch. 121, § 22; R. C. 1905, § 1867; R. C. 1895, § 1491.]

habitant of his township is lying sick therein or in distress, without friends or money so that he or she is likely to suffer, to examine into the case of said person, and grant such temporary relief as may be required. And if any person shall die in any township who shall not leave money or other means necessary to defray his or her funeral expenses, it shall be the duty of the overseer of the poor of such township to provide some person to provide for and superintend the burial of such deceased person, the necessary and reasonable expenses whereof shall be paid by the township, and upon the order of such overseer, provided that the expenses of such funeral to be borne by the township shall not exceed twenty-five dollars. [1913, ch. 121, § 23; R. C. 1905, § 1870; R. C. 1899, § 1494.]

§ 2523. Compensation of overseers. Overseers of the poor shall receive two dollars per day each for every day during which they shall be necessarily employed in the discharge of their duties as such overseers, to be allowed by the supervisors of the township and paid out of the township treasury, and each overseer of the poor shall have power and authority to grant temporary relief, and no special meetings shall be called by said overseer of the poor for the consideration of poor relief, but the question of relief shall be acted upon at the regular quarterly meetings of the board of township supervisors. [1913, ch. 121, § 24; R. C. 1905, § 1868; R. C. 1899, § 1492.]

§ 2525. Blanks. All blanks for reports, schedules and information required under this act shall be prepared and printed by the county and the expense thereof shall be paid out of funds of the county. The county auditor shall distribute said blanks among the overseers of the poor in each township. The board of control of state institutions shall prepare all the forms for blanks to be used by the overseers of the poor under this act, and such forms shall be sent to the county auditors promptly after the passage and approval of this act, who shall thereupon print and distribute the said blanks hereinbefore required. [1913, ch. 121, § 26.]

As to what constitutes "this act" to which the section refers, see note to section 2508.

§ 2526. County commissioners. Overseers of the poor. In counties where township organization has not been effected, the county commissioners shall be ex-officio overseers of the poor and shall perform all duties with reference to the poor within their jurisdiction that are by the provisions of this act imposed upon township supervisors and the provisions of this act relative to legal residence, method and conditions of granting relief to the poor, filing of records, and salaries of the overseers of the poor, shall apply and the expense of such relief shall be paid by the county. [1913, ch. 121, § 27.]

As to what constitutes "this act," see note to section 2508.

§ 2527. Application of certain provisions herein. The provisions of this act relative to the duties of township supervisors as ex-officio overseers of the poor shall apply to the city council or city commissioners, as the case may be, in cities, and to the village trustees in villages of this state; and the method of making application for relief, the percentage paid by such city or village and the county, the report or schedule required to be submitted to the county commissioners shall be the same as is provided herein in the case of the overseers of the poor in the townships of this state; and the seventy-five per cent of such relief paid by the county shall be paid to the city or village treasurer, as the case may be; and the provisions of this act relative to legal residence, appeals, settlement with the county commissioners, records to be kept, and investigations to be made, shall apply in the case of relief or applications for relief to the city council or city commissioners in cities, and to village trustees in villages in this state. [1913, ch. 121, § 28.]

As to what constitutes "this act," see note to section 2508.

§ 2528. Independent poor relief districts in cities. The council or the city commissioners, as the case may be, of any city of five thousand or more inhabitants, may, or upon being petitioned by not less than ten per cent of the legal voters residing therein, shall at the next regular election held in such city, submit to the qualified electors thereof, the question of whether such city shall become an independent poor relief district, and if a majority of the electors voting thereon at such regular election are in favor of the proposition the city shall become an independent poor relief district. [1913, ch. 121, § 29.]

ARTICLE 2.—ASYLUM AND POOR FARM.

§ 2529. Election. Management. It shall be lawful for the board of county commissioners in the several counties in the state after having submitted the question to the legal voters of the county at any special, county or general election whenever the commissioners may deem it advisable, and if at such election a majority of the legal voters shall vote in favor of the proposition, to purchase a tract of land in the name of the county and build, establish and organize thereon an asylum for the poor and to employ some humane and responsible person, a resident of the county, to take charge of the same upon such terms and under such restrictions as the board shall consider most advantageous for the interest of the county, who shall be called superintendent of the county asylum; and it shall be lawful for the county commissioners of two or more counties, after having been so authorized, by a majority of the legal voters of their respective counties, in the manner prescribed in this section, jointly to purchase lands and erect asylums and to continue such joint ownership during their pleasure; and to do such other things necessary and proper for the relief of the poor within such counties as might be done by a county acting alone. [R. C. 1905, § 1871; 1899, ch. 6; R. C. 1899, § 1495.]

§ 2530. Duty of superintendent of asylum. The superintendent shall receive into his care and custody all persons who may become a county charge as paupers, and take such measures for the employment and support of such paupers, and perform such other duties as the board of county commissioners shall from time to time order and direct, consistent with the laws of this state; provided, that the superintendent shall not admit a patient or pauper without first obtaining an order from the commissioner of the district where such patient or pauper resides or belongs, except in cases where immediate attention is required, the superintendent may admit such paupers or patients but shall immediately thereafter notify such commissioner. [1907, ch. 65; R. C. 1905, § 1872; R. C. 1899, § 1496.]

§ 2533. Assessment of tax for purchase of poor farm. To raise the sum necessary for the purchase of land and the erection and furnishing of buildings for such asylum, the board of county commissioners in the several counties shall have power to assess a tax on property liable to taxation for raising a county revenue, not exceeding five hundred dollars unless the amount of taxes to be assessed shall be submitted to a vote of the people at the special election held pursuant to section 2529, and a majority of all the votes cast at such election is in favor of such assessment. [R. C. 1905, § 1875; R. C. 1895, § 1499.]

§ 2534. All poor shall go to the asylum, when. As soon as the necessary provisions are made by the erection of suitable buildings, the board shall order and direct that all persons who have become permanent charges as paupers in the county be removed to such asylum, and shall take such measures for the employment and support of such paupers as they may deem advisable, and thereafter the overseers of the poor shall from time to time, as persons may become permanent charges as paupers, have such persons removed to such asylum. [R. C. 1905, § 1876; R. C. 1899, § 1500.]

§ 2535. Superintendent to give bond. The superintendent shall execute a bond to the state in the sum of five hundred dollars, with two or more sureties to be approved by the board, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties, and he shall make to such board at the first and third session in each year a detailed report in writing of the time and manner of the admission of each pauper, his health and fitness to labor, the results of his industry, and the expenses incurred; provided, that such statement shall show the total number of paupers and the commissioner district from which such paupers were taken and the total number of patients who pay for their care and the amount so paid. The members of such board shall in person annually inspect such asylum with regard to its fitness in all respects for the objects of its establishment. [1907, ch. 65; R. C. 1905, § 1877; R. C. 1899, § 1501.]

§ 2536. Children shall be educated, when. Whenever it shall be necessary and practicable, poor children of the asylum who cannot be bound out or whom it may not be expedient to bind out as apprentices, shall be educated thereat. [R. C. 1905, § 1878; R. C. 1899, § 1502.]

§ 2537. Superintendence of the education of children. The superintendent shall superintend and direct the education of such poor children and send them to any common school within the county, during the continuance of its session. [R. C. 1905, § 1879; R. C. 1895, § 1503.]

§ 2538. Discontinuance of asylum. Such asylum or poor farm may be discontinued by such board, and the property real and personal sold, leased or otherwise disposed of or applied in such manner as may be best for the interests of the county. [R. C. 1905, § 1880; R. C. 1895, § 1504.]

§ 2539. Board of county commissioners may levy poor tax. The board of county commissioners may, if it deems it expedient, annually, at its session at which the county tax is ordered to be levied and assessed, levy and assess a tax for the support of the poor of its county. Such tax shall be collected by the county treasurer. [R. C. 1905, § 1881; R. C. 1899, § 1505.]

§ 2540. Board of asylum and poor farm commissioners. Duties. Report. The board of county commissioners shall annually appoint a board of visitors consisting of three residents of the county, one of whom shall be a minister of the gospel, whose duty it shall be to visit at least quarterly each year the asylum in such county and who shall report to the commissioners at least quarterly the condition of such asylum and poor farm and the treatment, management and the condition of the inmates, and make such recommendations in connection with the government of such asylum and the care, treatment and management of the same as they shall deem beneficial to the interests of the inmates thereof; which report shall be considered by the board of county commissioners and shall be published in the official newspapers of the county within two weeks after the regular meetings of the board. [1907, ch. 64; R. C. 1905, § 1882; R. C. 1899, § 1507.]

§ 2541. Compensation. Such visitors shall receive such compensation as the board shall adjudge reasonable. [R. C. 1905, § 1883; R. C. 1899, § 1507.]

§ 2542. Sending pauper out of county is unlawful. No person shall either directly or indirectly send or be instrumental in sending or causing to be sent out of the county where such person properly belongs, any pauper or person who is or is likely to become an object of public charity, into any other county of this state, except in the manner provided for in this article. [R. C. 1905, § 1884; R. C. 1899, § 1508.]

§ 2543. Penalty for violation of last section. Any person who shall violate the provisions of the preceding section is guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be liable to a fine of not exceeding one hundred dollars, or to imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year or both. [R. C. 1905, § 1885; R. C. 1899, § 1509.]

§ 2544. Penalty for bringing pauper into the county. Every person who shall bring into and leave any pauper in any county wherein such pauper has not a lawful residence, knowing such person to be a pauper, shall forfeit and pay the sum of one hundred dollars for each offense, to be sued for and recovered by and for the use of such county, by an action in the name of the county, and no property shall be exempt from seizure and sale in such cases; and it shall be the duty of the board of county commissioners to institute suits for all violations of this section; and any such sum when collected shall be paid into the county treasury for the use of the county. [R. C. 1905, § 1886; R. C. 1899, § 1510.]

ARTICLE 3.—FOR RELIEF OF NEEDY SETTLERS.

§ 2545. Appropriation for. There is hereby appropriated annually out of any funds in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of seven thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to be expended by the commissioner of agriculture and labor by and with the advice and consent of the governor, for the relief of the needy settlers in such counties, as by reason of their having reached their constitutional limit of indebtedness, may be unable to provide the necessaries of life needed by destitute residents of such county. [R. C. 1905, § 1887; 1891, ch. 24, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1511.]

§ 2546. Accounts, how audited. The state auditor is authorized and directed to audit and allow the accounts of such commissioner of agriculture and labor when approved by the governor, secretary of state and attorney-general, and he shall issue his warrants on the state treasurer for the amount of such accounts. [R. C. 1905, § 1888; 1891, ch. 24, § 2; R. C. 1895, § 1512.]

ARTICLE 4.—CARE OF THE INSANE.

§ 2547. Appointment of commissioners of insanity. In each organized county of this state there shall be a board of commissioners consisting of three persons, to be styled "commissioners of insanity," two of whom shall constitute a quorum. The county judge shall be a member of such board and its chairman. The other two members shall be appointed by the board of county commissioners, one of whom shall be a reputable practicing physician, and the other a reputable practicing attorney; and such appointment shall be made from persons residing as near as may be to the county seat. Such commissioners shall be appointed for the term of two years and until their successors are appointed and qualified. The appointment of successors can be made at any time within three months prior to the expiration of the term of the incumbents. In case of the temporary absence of such commissioners or their inability to act, the county judge shall call to his aid a reputable practicing physician or attorney, who, after qualifying as in other cases, may act in the same capacity. In case of the temporary absence from the county of the county judge or his inability to act, the state's attorney shall act in his place and stead, as chairman of said board, and shall have full authority to issue subpoenas and issue commitments, and do all necessary acts as said chairman. He shall take the same oath as that required of the commissioners in section 2548. The records in such cases must show the fact of all absences. [1909, ch. 143; R. C. 1905, § 1889; 1879, ch. 23, § 16; R. C. 1895, § 1513.]

§ 2548. Oath of commissioners. Organization and meetings. Before entering upon the duties of their office the persons so appointed shall take and subscribe an oath to support the constitution of the United States and the constitution of this state, and faithfully to discharge their duties as such commissioners according to law, which oath shall be filed with the county judge, who shall enter a memorandum thereof on the records. On organizing they shall choose one of their number as clerk of such board. They shall hold their meetings at the office of the county judge unless for good reasons they shall fix some other place. If they deem it necessary or advisable, they may hold sessions at such regular times as they may fix. They shall also meet on notice from the chairman of the board. [R. C. 1905, § 1890; 1879, ch. 23, § 17; R. C. 1895, § 1514.]

§ 2550. Duties and powers of commissioners. Such commissioners shall have cognizance of all applications for admission to the hospital or for the safe keeping otherwise of insane persons within their county, except in cases otherwise specially provided for. They shall have power to issue subpoenas and compel obedience thereto, to administer oaths, and do any act necessary and proper in the premises. [R. C. 1905, § 1892; 1879, ch. 23, § 19; R. C. 1899, § 1516.]

§ 2551. Applications for admission to hospital. Applications for admission to the hospital must be made in writing in the nature of an information verified by affidavit. Such information must allege that the person in whose behalf the application is made is believed by the informant to be insane and a fit subject for custody and treatment in the hospital for the insane; that such person is found in the county and has a legal residence therein, if such is known to be the fact; and if such residence is not in the county, where it is, if known, or where it is believed to be, if the informant is advised on the subject. [R. C. 1905, § 1893; 1879, ch. 23, § 20; R. C. 1899, § 1517.]

§ 2552. Investigation by commissioners as to the alleged insanity. On the filing of an information as above provided, the commissioners shall at once investigate the grounds of such information. For this purpose they may require that the person for whom such admission is sought be brought before them, and that the examination be had in his presence, and they may issue their warrant therefor and provide for the suitable custody of such person until their investigation is concluded. Such warrant may be executed by the sheriff or any constable of the county, or if they shall be of opinion from such preliminary inquiries as they may make, and in making which they shall take the testimony of the informant if they deem it necessary or desirable, and of other witnesses if offered, that such course would probably be injurious to such person or attended with no advantages, they may dispense with such presence. In their examination they shall hear testimony for and against such application, if offered. Any citizen of the county or any relative of the person alleged to be insane, may appear and resist the application, and the parties may appear by counsel if they elect. The commissioners.

whether they decide to dispense with the presence before them of such person or not, shall appoint some regular practicing physician of the county to visit such person and make a personal examination touching the truth of the allegations in the information, and touching the actual condition of such person, and forthwith report to them thereon. Such physician may or may not be of their own number, and the physician so appointed and acting shall certify under his hand that he has, in pursuance of his appointment, made a careful personal examination as required, and that on such examination he finds the person in question insane, if such is the fact, and if otherwise, not insane; and in connection with his examination such physician shall endeavor to obtain from the relatives of the person in question, or from others who know the facts, correct answers, as far as may be, to the interrogatories hereinafter required to be propounded in such cases, which interrogatories and answers shall be attached to his certificate. [R. C. 1905, § 1894; 1879, ch. 23, § 21; R. C. 1899, § 1518.]

§ 2553. How patient shall be sent to hospital. On the return of the physician's certificate, the commissioners shall as soon as practicable, conclude their investigations, and having done so they shall find whether the person alleged to be insane is insane; whether, if insane, a fit subject for treatment and custody in the hospital; whether the legal residence of such person is in their county, and if not in their county, where it is, if ascertained. If they find such person is not insane, they shall order his discharge, if in custody. If they find such person insane, and a fit subject for treatment and custody in the hospital, they shall forthwith issue their warrant and a duplicate thereof, stating such finding, with the residence of the person, if ascertained; and if not ascertained, their information, if any, in regard thereto, authorizing the superintendent of the hospital to receive and keep such person as a patient therein. Such warrant and duplicate with the finding and certificate of the physician shall be delivered to the sheriff of the county, who shall execute the same by conveying such person to the hospital and delivering him with such duplicate and physician's certificate and finding to the superintendent thereof. The superintendent over his official signature shall acknowledge such delivery on the original warrant, which the sheriff shall return to the county judge with his fees and expenses indorsed thereon. If neither the sheriff nor his deputy is at hand, or if both are otherwise engaged, the commissioners may appoint some other suitable person to execute the warrant in his stead, who shall take and subscribe an oath faithfully to discharge his duty, and shall be entitled to the same fees as the sheriff. The sheriff or any other person so appointed may take to his aid such assistance as he may need to execute such warrant; but no female shall thus be taken to the hospital without the attendance of some other female, or some relative of such person. The superintendent in his acknowledgment of delivery must state whether there was any such person in attendance, and give the name, if any. If any relative or intimate friend of the patient, who is a suitable person, shall so request, he shall have the privilege of taking and executing such warrant in preference to the sheriff or any other person, and without taking such oath, and for so doing he shall be entitled to his necessary expenses, but no fees. [R. C. 1905, § 1895; 1879, ch. 23, § 22; R. C. 1899, § 1519.]

provided for otherwise until such admission can be had, or until the occasion therefor no longer exists. Such patients may be cared for either as public or private patients. Those shall be treated as private patients whose relatives or friends will obligate themselves to take care of and provide for them without public charge. In the case of any one treated as a private patient, the commissioners shall appoint some suitable person a special custodian, who shall have authority and whose duty it shall be in all suitable ways to restrain, protect and care for such patient in such manner as best to secure his safety and comfort, and in such manner as best to protect the persons and property of others. In the case of public patients the commissioners shall require that they be in like manner restrained, protected and cared for by the overseers of the poor, at the expense of the county, and they may accordingly issue their warrants to such overseers of the poor, who shall forthwith comply with the same. If there is no poor house for the reception of such patients, or if no more suitable place can be found, they may be confined in the county jail in the charge of the sheriff, or such commissioners, in their discretion, may require that such persons be taken to the asylum of any state that may be designated by the governor, who is hereby authorized and empowered to make the best terms he can with the authorities of any asylum in any state for the admission of such patients. [R. C. 1905, § 1896; 1879, ch. 23, § 25; R. C. 1899, § 1520.]

§ 2555. Insane persons cared for by county. On application to the commissioners, on behalf of persons alleged to be insane and whose admission to the hospital is not sought, made substantially in the manner above prescribed and asking that provision be made for their care as insane, either public or private, within the county, and on proof of their insanity and need of care as above provided, the commissioners may provide for their care, protection and restraint as in other cases. [R. C. 1905, § 1897; 1879, ch. 23, § 26; R. C. 1899, § 1521.]

§ 2556. Commissioners to provide for insane persons. On information laid before the commissioners of any county that a certain insane person in the county is suffering for want of proper care, they shall forthwith inquire into the matter, and if they find the information well founded they shall make all needful provision for the care of such person as provided in other cases. [R. C. 1905, § 1898; 1879, ch. 23, § 27; R. C. 1899, § 1522.]

§ 2557. Insane not to be restrained of liberty except by proper authority. No person supposed to be insane shall be restrained of his liberty by any other person otherwise than in pursuance of authority obtained as herein required, excepting to such extent and for such brief period as may be necessary for the safety of persons and property until such authority can be obtained. [R. C. 1905, § 1899; 1879, ch. 23, § 28; R. C. 1899, § 1523.]

§ 2559. Transfer of insane under county care. Insane persons who shall have been under care either as public or private patients, outside of the hospital, by authority of the commissioners of any county, may on application be transferred to the hospital whenever they can be admitted thereto, on the warrant of such commissioners. Such admission may be had without another inquest at any time within six months after the inquest already had, unless the commissioners shall deem a further inquest advisable. [R. C. 1905, § 1901; 1879, ch. 23, § 30; R. C. 1899, § 1525.]

the following interrogatories, so far as they can be obtained by examination of the patient and other witnesses, and shall accompany the physician's certificate; and if on further examination, after the answers are stated, any of them are found to be erroneous, the commissioners shall cause them to be corrected. All questions under the heading "property statement" must be fully answered and a statement thereof and the certificate accompany the patient before the patient is entitled to admission to the hospital. A failure on the part of the county commissioners of insanity to fully inquire and report upon the property of the patients, their estate or husbands, parents, guardians or relatives, shall be a sufficient excuse for refusal to receive such patients at said hospital:

1. What is the patient's name? Married or single? If any children, how many? Age of youngest child, and age of patient.
2. Where was the patient born?
3. Where is his place of residence?
4. What has been the patient's occupation?
5. Is this the first attack? If not, when did others occur and what was their duration?
6. When were the first symptoms of this attack manifested, and in what way?
7. Does the disease appear to be increasing, decreasing or stationary?
8. Is the disease variable, and are there rational intervals? If so, do they occur at regular periods?

§ 2561. Insane nonresident, disposition of. Whenever any person shall be found by the commissioners of insanity to be insane, and a fit subject for custody and treatment in the hospital for the insane, and such person has no legal residence within this state, such person shall be sent, at the expense of the state, to the place where such person belongs in every case where such place of residence can be ascertained. And it shall be the duty of the commissioners of insanity at the inquest, to ascertain the place where such person belongs when the same can be conveniently done. The sheriff of the county shall convey such person to the place where he belongs, and shall charge the same fees for such services as he is now allowed by law for transporting patients to the hospital for the insane, which shall be paid out of the state treasury. [R. C. 1905, § 1903; 1903, ch. 107.]

§ 2562. Proceedings for release of persons alleged not to be insane. On a statement in writing verified by affidavit, addressed to the county judge of the county in which the hospital is situated, or of the county in which any person confined in the hospital has his residence, alleging that such person is not insane and is unjustly deprived of his liberty, such judge shall appoint a commission of not more than three persons in his discretion, to inquire into the merits of the case, one of whom shall be a physician and if two or more are appointed, one shall be an attorney. Without first summoning the person to meet them, they shall proceed to the hospital and have a personal interview with such person so managed as to prevent him, if possible, from suspecting its object; and they shall make any inquiries and examinations they may deem necessary and proper of the officers and records of the hospital, touching the merits of the case. If they shall deem it prudent and advisable they may disclose to the person the object of their visit, and in the presence of such person make further investigation of the matter. They shall forthwith report to such county judge the result of their examination and inquiries. Such report shall be accompanied by a statement of the facts and signed by the superintendent. After the receipt of such report, and before finding such patient sane or ordering his discharge, the county judge shall notify by registered letter, the nearest relative or friend of such patient, together with all persons appearing as witnesses at the hearing at which such patient was found to be insane, to appear before him not less than five (5) days after the mailing of such notice, to give testimony respecting the character of insanity of the patient, at and prior to the time such patient was committed, particularly with respect to matters affecting the question of whether the symptoms and actions of such patient at such time disclosed a character of insanity in which a recurrence would be expected, and which might render the discharge of such patient dangerous to his own or the public safety. If on such report and statement and hearing of the testimony, if any is offered, the county judge shall find the person sane, he shall order his discharge. If he shall find him insane he shall authorize his continued detention. The finding and order of such judge with the report and other papers, shall be filed in his office, and entered on his records and he shall forthwith notify the superintendent of his findings and order and the superintendent shall carry out such order. The commissioners appointed as provided in this section shall be entitled to their necessary expenses and a reasonable compensation to be allowed by such judge and paid by the state out of any funds not otherwise appropriated; provided, that the applicant shall pay the same if the judge shall find that such application was made without probable grounds, and shall so order. [1913, ch. 129; R. C. 1905, § 1904; 1879, ch. 23, § 33; R. C. 1899, §.1527.]

Provisions for proceedings in absence of person whose mental condition is involved, is not for that reason in violation of constitutional guaranty of due process of law. McMahon v. Mead, 30 S. D. 515, 139 N. W. 122.

§ 2564. Insane persons entitled to habeas corpus. All persons confined as insane shall be entitled to the benefit of the writ of habeas corpus, and the question of insanity shall be decided at the hearing, and if the judge or court shall decide that the person is insane, such decision shall be no bar to the issuing of the writ a second time, whenever it shall be alleged that such person shall have been restored to reason. [R. C. 1905, § 1906; 1879, ch. 23, § 35; R. C. 1899, § 1529.]

Order of circuit court on writ of habeas corpus is res judicata on subsequent application, except that where release of lunatic from asylum is sought, court may consider question of present sanity. McMahon v. Mead, 30 S. D. 515, 139 N. W. 122.

§ 2565. Salaries and fees, by whom paid. The commissioners of insanity shall each be allowed the sum of two dollars per day for the time actually employed in the duties of their office. The county judge, in addition to what he is entitled to as commissioner of insanity, shall be allowed one-half as much more for making the required record entries in all cases of inquest, and of meetings of the board for any purpose, and for the filing of any papers required to be filed. He shall also be allowed twenty-five cents for such notice or process given or issued under seal as herein required. The examining physician shall be entitled to five dollars for each case examined, and mileage at the rate of ten cents per mile each way. The sheriff shall be allowed for services, other than conveying a patient to the hospital and returning therefrom, the same fees as for like services in other cases. Witnesses shall be entitled to the same fees as witnesses in the district court. The compensation and expenses provided for above shall be allowed and paid out of the county treasury in the usual manner, except the fees and expenses of the sheriff for conveying the patient to the hospital for the insane, or to the authorities of another state, which shall be paid out of the state treasury in the usual manner. [R. C. 1905, § 1907; 1879, ch. 23, § 41; 1885, ch. 58, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1530; 1903, ch. 58.]

§ 2567. Terms "insane" and "idiot" defined. The term "insane" as used in this article includes any species of insanity or mental derangement. The term "idiot" is restricted to persons supposed to be naturally without mind. No idiot shall be admitted into the hospital for the insane. [R. C. 1905, § 1909; 1879, ch. 23, § 45; R. C. 1899, § 1532.]

ARTICLE 5.—COUNTIES LIABLE FOR EXPENSES OF INSANE.

See also sections 1761, 1762.

§ 2568. Each county pays charges for its own patients. The expense for the care, board and treatment of all patients in the state hospital for the insane shall be a charge upon each county sending such patient or patients to the state hospital for the insane, as hereinafter provided for. [1907, ch. 137, § 4.]

§ 2569. Statements sent counties. It shall be the duty of the superintendent to furnish to the county auditor of each county having patients in the state hospital for the insane a quarterly statement giving the number of patients and the names of each patient belonging to such county, and the cost of maintenance of same. [1907, ch. 137, § 5.]

§ 2570. Legal residence determined. When the superintendent of the state hospital for the insane has been duly notified that a patient sent to the state hospital for the insane from one county has a legal residence in another county, he shall thereafter hold and keep such patient at the expense of and as from the latter county, and such holding shall apply to the expense already incurred in behalf of such patient and remaining unadjusted. [1907, ch. 137, § 6.]

§ 2571. Adjustment between counties. Expense incurred by one county on account of insane persons whose legal residence is in another county shall be refunded by the county of such residence and shall be presented to the board of commissioners of the county sought to be charged, allowed and paid the same as other claims. [1907, ch. 137, § 7.]

§ 2572. Levy of tax to pay charges. The superintendent shall certify to the state auditor on the first day of January, April, July and October of each year the amount not previously certified to by him that is due the said hospital for the insane from the several counties having patients chargeable thereto, and said state auditor shall pass the same to the credit of the state hospital for the insane. The state auditor shall thereupon notify the county auditor of each county so owing, of the amount thereof, and charge the same to said county, and the board of county commissioners shall, at the time of levying the county taxes as provided in section 2148, include in the itemized statement of county expenses upon which the county taxes are required to be based by the provisions of the said section, an estimate of the total amount which will be chargeable to the county during the ensuing year for the care, board and treatment of patients for such county at the state hospital for the insane. If any county fails to levy such taxes as herein provided sufficient to pay the amount estimated to become chargeable to such county during the ensuing year at the time of levying other county taxes, it shall be the duty of the attorney-general to bring action in the name of the state against such county, to enforce the making of the estimates and the levying of taxes as provided herein. [1913, ch. 119, § 1; 1907, ch. 137, § 8.]

§ 2573. Penalty for failure to pay. Upon the failure of any county to pay into the state treasury the amount chargeable to such county for the care, board and treatment of patients at the state hospital for the insane at the times prescribed in this act, it shall be the duty of the state auditor to charge such delinquent county with a penalty of two per cent per month upon the amount of indebtedness, then thirty days overdue, for each month, until payment thereof, including the penalty, has been made. [1913, ch. 119, § 2; 1907, ch. 137, § 9.]

§ 2574. Time of payment. It shall be the duty of the county treasurer to pay into the state treasury upon the first day of January, April, July and October in each year, the amount which on each of such days is due the state and chargeable to and owing from the county for the care, board and treatment of all patients in the state hospital for the insane, and it shall be the duty of the state auditor and the state treasurer upon the first day of February, May, August and November in each year to transfer the full amount received from the counties under the provisions of this article to the account of the state hospital for the insane. [1913, ch. 119, § 10; 1907, ch. 137, § 10.]

§ 2576. Improper charges, how determined. Whenever the superintendent of the state hospital for the insane has held and treated a patient as from one county and the county commissioners of such county make claim that such patient is not a proper charge against the said county, and such county commissioners shall notify the state auditor that it is claimed by them that such patient is not a proper charge against their county, and shall claim that the said patient is a proper charge against some other county, or that such patient is a proper charge against the state at large on account of being a resident of some portion of the state which is not in an organized county, or having no legal residence in any county of the state, it shall be the duty of the state auditor to give notice to the county auditor of each of said counties to file such proofs as they may have with the state auditor within thirty days from the time of such notification, and thereupon it shall be the duty of the state auditor to investigate the question of the residence of such patient and to determine of what county said patient is a proper charge, and shall thereupon notify each of said counties of such determination, and shall notify the superintendent of the state hospital for the insane of such determination, and the superintendent of the state hospital for the insane, and the state auditor and the counties as aforesaid shall thereafter treat and regard such patient as of the county, according to the determination of the state auditor; and if the state auditor shall find that such patient is not a proper charge against any county in the state, such patient shall thereafter be regarded as a proper charge against the state at large. [1907, ch. 137, § 12.]

§ 2577. Right of appeal. If any county or the state of North Dakota shall be dissatisfied with the determination of the state auditor in regard to the finding aforesaid, such county or the state of North Dakota may appeal from the determination of the state auditor to the district court of the said county by serving a notice of appeal upon the state auditor and upon one of the members of the board of county commissioners of the county adversely interested, within thirty days from the date of such finding, and thereupon it shall be the duty of the district court to determine the residence of such patient and determine to what county such patient is a proper charge, and such determination shall be conclusive unless an appeal shall be taken therefrom in the same manner as now provided for by law for appeals in civil actions. [1907, ch. 137, § 13.]

§ 2578. To whom provisions apply. The two preceding sections shall apply to all patients now or heretofore in the state hospital for the insane in reference to which a dispute may exist, as well as cases hereafter to arise, and the state auditor shall make his charges against the counties in accordance with the determination made as herein provided. [1907, ch. 137, § 14.]

§ 2579. Expenses chargeable against the estate of insane persons. The amount of expense incurred by any county in this state for treatment and maintenance of any insane person in the state hospital for the insane shall be charged against the estate of such insane person; provided, that the insane person has no heirs within the United States dependent upon said estate for support; and provided, further, that no real property shall be sold during the life of the insane person, except for the maintenance and support of the family of said insane person, when it is shown to be for the best interests of the state upon order of the proper court; and further provided that no personal property shall be sold under five years from the date of sending such insane person to the state hospital for the insane, unless by order of the proper court, where such property is liable to deteriorate in value during the time above specified, and when sold as above the county court shall order the proceeds thereof to be safely invested for the benefit of such insane person, or be used for the support and maintenance of the family of such insane person. [1913, ch. 187; 1907, ch. 137, § 15.]

ARTICLE 6.—POSTAL RIGHTS OF INSANE PERSONS.

§ 2580. Postal rights, how secured. Each inmate of the hospital for the insane shall be allowed to choose one individual to whom he may write when or whatever he desires, and over letters to or from such individual no censorship shall be exercised or allowed by any person and each inmate shall have the right to make a new choice of such individual every three months if he so desires; and it is the duty of the superintendent to furnish each inmate with suitable material for writing letters, sufficient for the writing at least of one letter a week if the same is requested, unless he is otherwise furnished with such materials; and all such letters shall be dropped by the writers thereof, accompanied by an attendant when necessary, into a post office box provided by the state at the hospital, and kept in some place of easy access to all patients. The attendant is required in all cases to see that each letter is directed to the patient's correspondent, and if it is not so directed it must be held subject to the superintendent's disposal; and the contents of these boxes shall be collected once every week by an authorized person from the post office department and by him placed in the hands of the United States mail for delivery. [R. C. 1905, § 1913; 1887, ch. 122, § 1; R. C. 1895, § 1533.]

§ 2581. Duty of superintendent of hospital. It is the duty of the superintendent to keep registered and posted in some public place at the hospital a true copy of the names of each individual chosen as the inmates' correspondent, and by whom chosen; and to inform each of the individuals so chosen of the name of the person choosing him. The superintendent shall request each person so chosen to write his name on the outside of the envelope of each letter written to the inmate; and all letters bearing the individual writer's name on the outside shall be delivered, or caused to be delivered, by the superintendent to the inmate to whom directed without being opened, unless there is reason to believe the letter contains some foreign substance which might be used for medication, in which case the letter shall be opened in the presence of a competent witness and the substance, if any, shall be delivered to the superintendent. [R. C. 1905, § 1914; 1887, ch. 122, § 2; R. C. 1895, § 1534.]

§ 2582. Penalty for violation. Any person refusing or neglecting to comply with, or willfully or knowingly violating any of the provisions of this article, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and be ineligible to any office in the hospital afterwards. A printed copy of this article shall be framed and kept posted in each ward of the hospital. [R. C. 1905, § 1915; 1887, ch. 122, §§ 3, 4; R. C. 1895, § 1535.]

ARTICLE 7.—STATE TUBERCULOSIS SANITARIUM.

§ 2583. Established and located. There is hereby established a sanitarium known as the North Dakota state tuberculosis sanitarium for the treatment of pulmonary tuberculosis, to be built upon the site secured at Dunseith in the county of Rolette in said state by the temporary board provided for in chapter 137 of the Laws of 1909. [1911, ch. 44, § 1.]

The sanitarium was first established, but not located, by Laws 1909, ch. 137, which also provided for its temporary government "for the purpose of its location, the purchase of a site for the same," etc., and made an appropriation for carrying out the provisions of the act.

§ 2584. Board of trustees. The general supervision and government of this sanitarium shall be vested in a board of trustees which shall consist of five members appointed by the governor, one of whom shall be a member of the state board of health, and at least two other members shall be licensed physicians, graduates of a reputable medical college, and who shall hold their offices for the term of one, two, three, four and five years, respectively, beginning with the first day of April, 1911, and continuing until their respective successors are appointed and qualified. Previous to the first day of April in each year thereafter the governor shall appoint one member to hold office for the term of five years beginning with the first day of April of the year of his appointment and continuing until his successor is appointed and qualified. Any member of the board of trustees may be removed by the governor for such cause as he may deem sufficient and any vacancy occurring from any cause in said board shall be filled as hereinbefore provided for the unexpired term. No member of the board of trustees shall receive any compensation for his services, but all expense incurred in the discharge of his official duties shall be paid from the current expense fund of the institution upon the presentation of vouchers properly certified. [1911, ch. 44, § 2.]

The board of trustees no longer exists, and all its powers are vested in the state board of control. See sections 243, 244.

§ 2585. Financial management. All matters pertaining to the financial management of the sanitarium, including the erection and equipment of buildings and the maintenance of the institution shall be under the immediate direction of the board of trustees. [1911, ch. 44, § 3.]

But see note to section 2584.

§ 2586. Superintendent, assistants and employes. Report. The appointment and removal of the superintendent of the sanitarium and his compensation shall be fixed by the board of trustees. The superintendent of the sanitarium shall appoint subject to the approval of the board of trustees such medical assistance as the board of trustees may consider necessary. All other employes necessary for the sufficient management of the institution shall be selected by the superintendent. The number of employes and compensation for such medical assistance and employes shall be determined by the board. The superintendent shall have general charge of the sanitarium and grounds, and the direction, control and discipline of all persons, employes and patients. He shall maintain salutary discipline among all employes and patients of the sanitarium and enforce strict obedience to all rules and regulations of the institution. All rules and regulations relating to the conduct of patients and employes shall be formulated by the superintendent subject to the approval by the board of trustees. The superintendent shall cause complete records to be kept of all persons admitted as patients, which record shall show the period of treatment of each patient, and shall submit to the board reports of the institution in such form as the board may require. The superintendent shall also submit a biennial report to the board giving in detail the methods of treatment of patients, results accomplished and a general account of conditions existing at the institution. Such report shall be included in and made a part of the biennial report of the board, and such board may authorize the printing of a number of copies of the separate report of such institution, which number shall not exceed one thousand and charges for the printing of said separate copies to be paid in the same manner as the reports of the various departments of the state are paid. [1911, ch. 44, § 4.]

But see section 258, and note to section 2584.

§ 2587. Admission to the sanitarium. All persons affected with pulmonary tuberculosis may be admitted to said hospital, but incurable patients must be kept separate and apart from the curable under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the superintendent. Applicants for admission to the sanitarium shall be examined at various places throughout the state designated by the board. Such examinations shall be made by the regular authorized medical examiner, or examiners, of such institution, who shall be a citizen or citizens of the state of North Dakota, and whose duty it shall be to examine all persons applying for admission to the sanitarium. The fee of the examining physician shall not exceed four dollars in any case, said amount to be paid by the applicant. If the applicant is unable to pay such fee, then such fee shall be a charge against the county in which the patient resides. Said examining physician shall be appointed by the board of trustees. [1911, ch. 44, § 5.]

But see note to section 2584.

Admission to cottages, see sections 2592, 2593.

§ 2588. Cost of maintenance of patients. How paid. All patients admitted as patients to the sanitarium shall pay to said institution the cost of their maintenance. The charges for any patient or patients may, however, be paid by any person or persons or society. The determination of each sum shall be made by the superintendent with the approval of the board of trustees. Any person who is unable to pay the charges for his or her support may be admitted to the sanitarium if it has been determined by the examining physician that such person is suffering from pulmonary tuberculosis, provided, however, that before such person shall be admitted to the sanitarium, he or she shall have a statement from the judge of the county court of the county within which he or she resides setting forth the fact that he or she is unable to pay the regular charges. Said judge, upon the presentation of the report of the duly authorized examining physician that such person is afflicted with pulmonary tuberculosis, shall make an investigation and if he finds that such applicant or his legal representatives are actually unable to pay such charges, shall approve in writing the application of such person. Said judge shall immediately forward to the superintendent of the sanitarium a certificate in writing that such patient is unable to pay said charges and that he or she is a resident of the county in which such application has been so approved, the county from which such patient has been so certified shall be charged with the maintenance of such patient at the rate of five dollars per week during the time that he or she remains in said institution as an inmate. Such charge shall be collected in the manner provided in chapter 137 of the Session Laws of 1907, provided, however, the admission of every patient shall be subject to the final approval of the superintendent and the board of trustees. And any person who may be unable to pay the full charge for maintenance may be received upon paying the amount charged for county patients, if the board of trustees shall first find that the patient has truly represented the circumstances and is really unable to pay more than the amount charged for county patients. [1911, ch. 44, § 6.]

But see as to the board of trustees, section 2584.

For chapter 137 of the Session Laws of 1907, to which section 2588 refers, see sections 2568-2579, 1761, 1762.

§ 2589. Board of trustees may accept gifts, donations, etc. The board of trustees is empowered to accept as a trustee any gift, donation or funds from any other source, whether subject to the special provisions of the donors or not, and such gifts, donations or funds shall be placed to the credit of the tuberculosis sanitarium fund and expended by the board of trustees in accordance with the terms of the gift or donation if any, and if no terms are imposed, then for the general maintenance of the institution. [1911, ch. 44, § 7.]

But see as to the board of trustees the note to section 2584.

§ 2591. Application and permit for cottages. Any such fraternal corporation or society desiring to construct a cottage or cottages as provided in section 2590, may make an application in writing to the board of trustees of the state tuberculosis sanitarium at Dunseith, or other governing board, setting forth in such application a description of the cottage or cottages desired by such corporation or society to be erected on such site, and the said board of trustees or other governing board, and the superintendent of the state tuberculosis sanitarium may permit such corporation or society to erect any cottage or cottages, as they may deem proper, and to construct any necessary sewerage, water mains, electric light connections, telephone lines necessary for the use of such cottage or cottages so erected by such fraternal corporation or society; and the board of trustees or other governing board of the state tuberculosis sanitarium is hereby authorized to make a contract with such fraternal corporation or society for the furnishing of such cottage or cottages with heat, light, water, sewerage, as may be necessary to maintain said cottage or cottages, and may contract to furnish medical attendants, medicines, nurses, food and anything else necessary for the care and maintenance of the patients in such cottage or cottages so erected as hereinbefore stated. [1913, ch. 286, § 2.]

But see as to the board of trustees the note to section 2584.

§ 2592. Use of cottages. All members of such corporation or society mentioned in section 2590, and all members (or) in their families affected with pulmonary tuberculosis, may be admitted to said cottage or cottages under rules prescribed by the governing body of such corporation or society, except as otherwise provided in this act [sections 2590-2593]; provided, however, that all incurable patients must be kept separate and apart from the curable patients under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the board of trustees of the state tuberculosis sanitarium, or other governing board. [1913, ch. 286, § 3.]

But see as to the board of trustees the note to section 2584.

§ 2593. Terms of admission to cottages. Such corporation or society may admit to such cottage or cottages all patients eligible to admission to the state sanitarium, under section 5 of chapter 44 of the Session Laws of 1911 [section 2587 herein], upon such terms as may be agreed upon by the trustees of the state sanitarium and the governing body of such corporation or society. [1913, ch. 286, § 4.]

But see as to the board of trustees the note to section 2584.

ARTICLE 8.—MARKS AND BRANDS.

§ 2594. Office for recording brands. A general office for recording marks and brands shall be maintained at the seat of government, and the duties thereof shall be performed by the commissioner of agriculture and labor. [R. C. 1905, § 1916; 1891, ch. 40, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1536; 1901, ch. 124, § 1.]

§ 2595. Brands, how obtained and recorded. Whenever any person desires the exclusive use of any mark or brand, he may make application therefor to the commissioner of agriculture and labor, setting forth a description of the mark or brand of which he desires the exclusive use, accompanying the same with a facsimile thereof and stating for what the same is to be used and the place or position it is to occupy, and it shall be the duty of the commissioner to record such mark or brand with a description of the place or position such mark or brand shall occupy on the animal, consulting always the choice and convenience of the applicant therefor, so far as may be, without conflicting or interfering with any previous mark or brand. [R. C. 1905, § 1917; 1891, ch. 40, § 2; R. C. 1895, § 1537; 1901, ch. 124, § 1.]

Cancellation and re-recording of all brands, see section 2602.

§ 2596. Commissioner of agriculture and labor records brands. The commissioner of agriculture and labor shall keep a record of all marks and brands, showing the names and residences of the persons owning the same, together with a description and facsimile of such mark or brand, and in case of live stock the range occupied by such stock, as near as may be, which record shall be open to the inspection of any person interested, and he shall deliver to the owner of such mark or brand a certificate thereof, which certificate shall be deemed evidence of ownership, for which he shall charge and collect a fee of two dollars. [R. C. 1905, § 1918; 1899, ch. 108; R. C. 1899, § 1538; 1901, ch. 124, § 1.]

§ 2598. When similar brands may be recorded. The commissioner of agriculture and labor shall refuse to receive for record any brand, which, being the same as any previously recorded, shall have added thereto any or either of the following: A bar, a circle, a half circle, a quarter circle, a diamond or a half diamond; provided, that a similar device, figure or letter, but placed on a different part of the animal, may be so received and recorded. [R. C. 1905, § 1920; 1891, ch. 40, § 7; R. C. 1899, § 1541.]

§ 2600. Who have a right to record brands. All persons who have heretofore recorded any mark or brand in any county of this state, shall have the prior right to the exclusive use of such mark or brand; provided, that where two or more of such marks or brands conflict with each other, the one first recorded shall have priority; provided, further, that all stock brands recorded in the office of the secretary of state prior to the first day of December, 1891, under the provisions of law, shall be in no wise invalidated by any of the provisions of this article. [R. C. 1905, § 1921; 1891, ch. 40, § 9; R. C. 1899, § 1542; 1901, ch. 124, § 1.]

§ 2601. Exclusive trade mark obtained, how. Any person desiring to secure within this state the exclusive use of any name, mark, brand, print, designation or description for any article of manufacture or trade or for any mill, hotel property, machine shop or other business as a trade mark, shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the secretary of state a particular description or facsimile of such mark, brand, name, print, designation or description as he desires to use, and if there is not an application already filed for the same or a similar mark, brand, name, print, designation or description, he shall immediately record the same in a book to be provided and kept for that purpose, which book shall be at all times subject to public inspection and examination, and after the same shall have been recorded as herein provided, the person causing the same to be recorded shall have the exclusive right to the use thereof; provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to authorize the use of figures, letters or Roman numerals. [R. C. 1905, § 1922; 1891, ch. 40, § 10; R. C. 1899, § 1543; 1901, ch. 124, § 2.]

Right to protection against use of a particular number as a trade mark by a competitor. 8 L.R.A.(N.S.) 1153.

§ 2602. Cancellation November first, 1913; re-recording owner's preference right to re-record. On the first day of November, nineteen hundred thirteen, each and every live stock brand or mark shall be canceled, and no person, copartnership, company, firm or corporation shall use nor have any right, title or interest in or to any live stock brand or mark previously recorded in this state. Provided, however, that if a person, copartnership, company, firm or corporation may desire to continue ownership thereof, the brand or mark must be re-recorded on or before December first, nineteen hundred thirteen. Failure to re-record any previously recorded live stock brand or mark on or before the time specified, and under provisions hereof, shall be deemed an absolute abandonment to the state of North Dakota of such previously recorded live stock brand or mark. On and after January first, nineteen hundred fourteen, the commissioner of agriculture and labor shall accept regular applications for the issuance to any one of such abandoned live stock brand or mark; and the said commissioner of agriculture and labor is hereby authorized, empowered and directed to issue his certificate for the use of such abandoned brand or mark within this state. [1913, ch. 8, § 1.]

§ 2603. Commissioner to notify present record owners. How. When complete. It shall be the duty of the commissioner of agriculture and labor to notify, on or before August first, nineteen hundred thirteen, each and every record owner of live stock brands or marks of the final date set for cancellation, and also of his, her or their prior right to re-record such previously recorded live stock brand or mark. Such notice shall be given in writing, legibly written, sent by ordinary first-class mail, and addressed to the record owner at the address shown last upon the present records. [1913, ch. 8, § 2.]

§ 2604. Publication of notice of expiration of time for preference right of re-record. It shall be the duty of the commissioner of agriculture and labor to publish in each official county newspaper in every county where brands or marks are in use, a notice of the expiration of the time fixed by law for the re-recording of live stock brands or marks, and of the prior right of record owners to re-record his, her or their previously recorded brands or marks. Such publication shall begin on or about the first of September, nineteen hundred thirteen, and shall continue at least three successive times in each of such newspapers. The commissioner shall also request each newspaper publishing notices to call attention to this law in a news item in the regular columns, for which no charge shall be allowed. [1913, ch. 8, § 3.]

§ 2605. Manner of recording and re-recording; fees. Re-recording of abandoned live stock brands or marks, and the recording of new brands and marks shall conform in all respects to existing provisions of law, and not otherwise. The previously issued certificate must be surrendered to the commissioner of agriculture and labor, accompanied by an application to re-record, and also accompanied by either money order or bankable draft for twenty-five cents. In case the previously issued certificate may have been lost or destroyed the original brand records only shall be prima facie evidence of ownership, except where a fact can otherwise be established. [1913, ch. 8, § 4.]

§ 2606. Fees and running expenses. All fees collected under provisions of this act [sections 2602-2606] shall monthly be turned over to the state treasurer. All expenses for publication of notices, new books, records and files necessary for the establishment and maintenance of a complete system of brand recording and brand re-recording shall first be approved by the commissioner of agriculture and labor, and paid by the state treasurer out of the general funds. [1913, ch. 8, § 5.]

ARTICLE 9.—HERDING AND DRIVING.

§ 2607. Stock grower and drover defined. Each person who shall keep neat cattle, horses, mules, sheep, swine or goats for their growth or increase within the state, shall be deemed a stock grower. Any person who shall drive or bring live stock into or through this state shall be deemed a stock drover. [R. C. 1905, § 1923; 1881, ch. 60, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1544.]

§ 2608. The term drover defined. For the purposes of this article every person having charge or control of any herd of neat cattle, horses or mules, numbering five or more, or any flock of sheep numbering twenty-five or more, as owner, agent or employe, while the same is being driven from one place to another not within the same range or neighborhood, is deemed a drover; and every person having charge or control of any such herd or flock while subsisting on any public or other range land to which he has no right of possession, is deemed a herder, whether personally present with such herd or not. [R. C. 1905, § 1924; 1897, ch. 69, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1544a.]

§ 2609. Shall not entice animals away. No drover or herder of any such herd or flock, or assistant of any such drover or herder, shall drive or entice any animal of like kind, without the owner's consent, away from his premises or the range or other place usually frequented by such animal or suffer such animal to be driven or enticed away, or to follow, join or remain with such herd; and if necessary in order to prevent any such animal belonging to another person from being so driven or enticed away or from following, joining or remaining with such herd, it is the further duty of every person aforesaid to deliver such animal without delay to the owner thereof, if known, or if unknown, to some resident of the neighborhood or peace officer of the county to be by him returned to the owner or disposed of as an estray according to law. [R. C. 1905, § 1925; 1897, ch. 69, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 1544b.]

§ 2610. Uniform brand. It is also the duty of every drover to have all animals in his charge or control branded or marked with one uniform brand or mark. All such horses, mules and cattle shall be branded on a conspicuous place on each, with one distinct ranch or road brand of the owner; and all such sheep shall be marked distinctly with a mark or device sufficient to distinguish the same readily from other sheep. Whenever any animal mentioned in this article shall be found with any herd or flock of like kind, as herein-before defined, proof of such finding, in addition to the fact that such animal was there without the owner's consent, shall be deemed presumptive evidence of a violation of the provisions of section 2609, by each drover, herder or assistant having charge or control of such herd at the time of the finding, and shall be admissible as such in any action herein contemplated. [R. C. 1905, § 1926; 1897, ch. 69, §§ 3, 4; R. C. 1899, § 1544c.]

§ 2613. Driving stock and trespassing. Any person owning or having charge of any cattle, horses, swine or sheep, who shall drive the same into or through any county of which the owner is not a resident or land owner or stock grower, and when the land in such county is already occupied by settlers on ranches, it shall be the duty of such owner or person in charge of such horses, cattle, swine or sheep to prevent the same from mixing with the cattle, horses, swine or sheep belonging to actual settlers, and also to prevent such animals from trespassing on such land as may be the property of an actual settler or may be held by him under a homestead or leasehold right, and used by him for the grazing of animals, growing hay or timber, or other agricultural purposes, or doing injury to the ditches made for irrigation of crops. If any owner or person in charge of any such animals shall willfully, carelessly or negligently injure any resident of the state by driving such animals from the public highways and herding the same on the lands occupied and improved by settlers in possession of the same, it shall constitute a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than twenty-five dollars, at the discretion of the court, and render the owner or person in charge of such animals liable for such damages as may be done to the property of such settler. [R. C. 1905, § 1929; 1881, ch. 60, § 5; R. C. 1895, § 1545.]

§ 2614. Wrongful driving of stock. Penalty. When the stock of any person shall be driven off its range within the state, against his will, by the owners of any drove, and the same shall be found among such drove, every person engaged as drover of such drove shall be liable for damages to the person injured to the amount of the value of the animal for each head so driven off, together with all costs accruing in the trial of such cause, and the owner of the animals so driven off shall have a lien on such herd for the amount of all such damages and costs. [R. C. 1905, § 1930; 1881, ch. 60, § 6; R. C. 1895, § 1546.]

§ 2615. Duty of drover when stock of resident mixes with drove. When the stock of any resident of the state shall mix with any drove of animals, it shall be the duty of any drover or person in charge of such drove to cut out and separate such stock from such drove immediately. Each person, either owner or drover or otherwise connected with such drove, who neglects to comply with the provisions of this section shall be fined in a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars. [R. C. 1905, § 1931; 1881, ch. 60, § 7; R. C. 1895, § 1547.]

§ 2616. Concerning skinned dead animals. It shall be unlawful for any person other than the owner, his agent or employe, to skin or remove from the carcass, the skin, hide or pelt of any neat cattle, swine or sheep found dead, except when such stock is killed by railroad trains, in which case the employes of such railroad may remove the hides from stock so killed. [R. C. 1905, § 1932; 1881, ch. 60, § 8; R. C. 1899, § 1548.]

ARTICLE 10.—HERD LAW.

§ 2617. Unlawful for stock to run at large. It shall be unlawful for cattle, horses, mules, swine, goats and sheep to run at large at any time, except as hereinafter provided. [1913, ch. 178; R. C. 1905, § 1933; 1890, ch. 90, § 1; R. C. 1895, § 1549; 1901, ch. 123, § 1.]

As abrogating provisions of section 8500 in relation to trespass by live stock between December and April. Johnson v. Rickford, 18 N. D. 268, 122 N. W. 386.

Live stock may roam at large; exception. Ely v. Rosholt, 11 N. D. 559, 93 N. W. 864.

Owners of premises are not required to use greater degree of care to protect premises from trespassing cattle, during period cattle may feed on commons, than at any other time. Corbett v. Great Northern R. Co., 19 N. D. 450, 125 N. W. 1054.

Liability for vicious animals. 16 Am. St. Rep. 631.

Liability of owners for damages resulting from animals. 36 Am. St. Rep. 831.

Liability of owners for injuries inflicted by vicious animals. 50 Am. Rep. 605.

§ 2618. Herd law. How and when suspended. The board of county commissioners of each county in the state shall establish stock districts including all of the territory within the county for the purposes hereinafter provided. The boundaries of districts so established shall follow township lines. A stock district may consist of one or more congressional townships, or the entire county may be made to comprise one district, and all districts shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the board of county commissioners for the purposes of this act. If one-fourth of the electors of any such district, as determined by the whole number of votes polled at the general election last held therein, shall file a petition in the office of the county auditor asking that stock be permitted to run at large between certain dates specified in such petition, and that the question of permitting stock to run at large in such district between such dates be submitted to the voters of said district at the next general election, it shall be the duty of the board, within ten days thereafter, at a regular or special meeting, to declare by resolution that stock may run at large within the limits of said district between the dates named in said petition except within the corporate limits of any city or village; but no stallion, jack, boar, ram, bull or other animals known to be vicious, shall be permitted to run at large at any time. Said resolution shall state the date of its taking effect, and shall be effective to permit stock to run at large between said dates from and after the date specified in said resolution until said proposition shall have been voted upon by the electors of said district. Provided, that the board of county commissioners may, at any regular or special meeting, when it is deemed advisable, adopt the resolution herein authorized without being first petitioned so to do. [1913, ch. 178; R. C. 1905, § 1934; 1895, ch. 69, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1550; 1901, ch. 123, § 2.]

Live stock is permitted to run at large between November first and April first, only, except in counties where chap. 45, Code Civ. Proc. has been abolished. Ely v. Rosholt, 11 N. D. 559, 93 N. W. 864.

§ 2619. When submitted to vote. Whenever it shall have been declared lawful for stock to run at large within a certain district between specified dates, then, at the next general election, but at no other time, said question shall be submitted to a vote of the electors of such district. The law governing the giving of notices of general elections shall govern the giving of notice for such election. [1913, ch. 178; R. C. 1905, § 1935; 1901, ch. 123, § 3.]

§ 2620. Form of ballots. Effect of vote. The ballots used at such election shall be in the following form, the dates named in the resolution to be inserted therein:

For stock to run at large between..... ——— Against stock to run at large between..... ———

In voting on the question each voter must place at the right of the proposition he favors the mark "X." If a majority of the ballots cast is in favor of letting stock run at large between said dates, the provisions of chapter 44 of the Code of Civil Procedure [sections 8400-8406 herein] shall not apply during such period, but shall apply at all other times of the year. If a majority of the ballots is against letting stock run at large, the resolution of the board of county commissioners declaring it unlawful for stock to run at large between said dates shall be nullified from and after the canvass of such vote, and said board shall not have authority again to declare a change in the law for a period of two years. [1913, ch. 178; R. C. 1905, § 1936; 1895, ch. 69, §§ 2, 3; R. C. 1899, § 1551; 1901, ch. 123, § 4.]

§ 2621. When proposition may again be submitted. After the electors of any stock district shall have voted to permit stock to run at large as hereinbefore provided, such vote may be nullified and stock prohibited from running at large at any time by resolution of the board of county commissioners and vote of the people upon the proceedings provided for the suspension of the provisions of this article. The result of any election held hereunder shall remain in force until changed at some subsequent election, except as herein otherwise provided. [1913, ch. 178; R. C. 1905, § 1937; 1895, ch. 69, § 4; R. C. 1899, § 1552; 1901, ch. 123, §§ 5, 6.]

§ 2622. When fences shall be sufficient and lawful. In any stock district in which an election has been held under the provisions hereof and in which the result of such election shall have been declared to be in favor of permitting stock to run at large between certain dates a fence constructed as hereinafter described shall be sufficient and lawful. [1913, ch. 178; R. C. 1905, § 1938; 1895, ch. 69, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 1553.]

§ 2623. How fences shall be constructed. The posts or other uprights of reasonable strength and firmness in position shall be not more than thirty-two feet distant from each other, with two suitable stays between posts, nearly equally dividing such space in three parts. Three strands of ordinary barbed fence wire shall be well stretched and firmly fastened to such posts, uprights and stays, with the upper strand not more than forty-eight nor less than forty-two inches above the general surface of the ground thereunder, and the lower strand not more than eighteen nor less than twelve inches above the general surface of the ground, and the middle strand nearly equally dividing the space between the upper and lower strands; provided, that all corral fence exclusively for the purpose of inclosing stacks, if outside of any lawful inclosure, shall not be less than sixteen feet distant from such stack so inclosed, shall be substantially built with posts not more than eight feet distant from each other, and with not less than five strands of barbed fence wire, and shall be not less than five feet high. Any other kind of a fence or barrier which is as effective for the purpose of a fence as that above prescribed is hereby declared sufficient and lawful. [R. C. 1905, § 1939; 1895, ch. 69, §§ 6, 7; R. C. 1899, § 1554.]

Legislative description of sufficient and lawful corral fence. Johnson v. Rickford, 18 N. D. 268, 122 N. W. 386.

Applicable during "open season" to counties in which provisions of section 1933 have not been abolished. Johnson v. Rickford, 18 N. D. 268, 122 N. W. 386.

§ 2624. Liability of owners of stock. Any person owning or having in charge any horses, mules, cattle, sheep or goats, or any such animals, which shall breach or break through, over or under any lawful fence, not the property of the owner of such offending animal, shall be liable to the party having sustained injury by reason of such breaching or breaking, to be recovered in a civil action before any court of competent jurisdiction, and it shall be sufficient in any such action, that it was a lawful fence where the breach was made, and the proceedings shall be the same as in other civil actions, except as herein modified. [R. C. 1905, § 1940; 1895, ch. 69, § 8; R. C. 1899, § 1555.]

Liability of owner for injury to person or property on highway by animal at large thereon in violation of statute. 16 L.R.A. (N.S.) 647.

§ 2625. Trespass of swine. Any person owning or having in charge in any county, adopting the provisions hereof as herein provided, any swine which shall trespass upon the lands or premises of another, including premises in towns, villages and cities, whether such lands or premises are fenced or not fenced, shall be liable to any party sustaining such injury for all damages he may sustain by reason of such trespassing. [R. C. 1905, § 1941; 1895, ch. 69, § 9; R. C. 1899, § 1555.]

§ 2626. Damages by trespassing animals. The persons sustaining damages as aforesaid shall, before commencing an action therefor, notify the owner or person having in charge such offending animals of such damages, and the probable amount thereof if known, and a resident of and within the county, and he may retain and keep in custody such offending animals until the damages so sustained and costs are paid, or until sufficient security is given for the same; provided, that the person so restraining such offending animals shall, without unnecessary delay, notify the owner or person in whose custody the same were at the time the trespass was committed of the seizure of such animals, if such owner or person is known to him to be within or to reside within the county. [R. C. 1905, § 1942; 1895, ch. 69, § 10; R. C. 1899, § 1556.]

Liability of owners of trespassing animals. 28 Am. Rep. 569.

Liability for trespasses of animals. 49 Am. Dec. 248.

§ 2627. Fees. For serving such notice the person making the same shall be entitled to the same fees and mileage as are allowed a sheriff in serving a summons. [R. C. 1905, § 1943; 1895, ch. 69, § 11; R. C. 1899, § 1556.]

§ 2628. Damages a lien upon the animals. Upon the trial of an action under the provisions hereof, the plaintiff shall prove the amount of damages sustained and the amount of expense incurred for restraining and keeping the offending animals, if such have been by him restrained, and any judgment rendered for damages against the defendant shall be a lien upon the animals committing the damages, and they may be sold and the proceeds applied to the satisfaction of the judgment. [R. C. 1905, § 1944; 1895, ch. 69, § 12; R. C. 1899, § 1557.]

§ 2629. Service in case of unknown defendant. If upon the trial it shall appear that the defendant is not the owner or person in charge of such offending animals, he shall be discharged, and the action may proceed against a defendant, whose name is unknown, and, if at the commencement of the action the plaintiff does not know the name of the owner or keeper of such offending animals, he may bring an action against a defendant unknown. In such case service shall be made by publishing a copy of the summons, with a notice stating the nature of the action, in a newspaper, if there is one published in the county, and if not, by posting copies of the summons and notice in three public places in the county, in either case at least ten days previous to the day of trial. [R. C. 1905, § 1945; 1895, ch. 69, § 13; R. C. 1899, § 1558.]

§ 2630. Judgment and costs collected, how. After judgment shall have been rendered against the defendant, unknown as aforesaid, the offending animals, or so many of them as may be necessary, shall be sold as in other civil actions, and after said judgment and costs have been satisfied, if there is any surplus of money, it shall be placed in the hands of the county treasurer, and if the defendant does not appear and call for the same within six months from the day of sale, it shall be paid into the school fund for the use of the public schools of the county. [R. C. 1905, § 1946; 1895, ch. 69, § 14; R. C. 1899, § 1559.]

§ 2634. Stock must be branded. All droves of horses, mules, cattle or sheep which may hereafter be driven from any other state or territory of the United States, or any foreign country, into or through any county of this state, shall be plainly branded or marked with one uniform brand or mark. All such horses, mules and cattle shall be branded with one distinct ranch or road brand of the owner so as to show distinctly in such place as the owner may adopt. All such sheep shall be marked distinctly with such mark or device as may be sufficient to distinguish the same readily should they become intermingled with other flocks of sheep in this state. [R. C. 1905, § 1950; 1895, ch. 50, §§ 1, 2, 3; R. C. 1899, § 1563.]

§ 2635. Fine. Any owner or person in charge of such drove of stock which may be driven into or through this state, who shall fail to comply with the provisions of the last section shall be fined in a sum not less than fifty nor more than three hundred dollars, together with costs of suit. [R. C. 1905, § 1951; 1895, ch. 50, § 4; R. C. 1899, § 1564.]

§ 2636. Duties of county auditor and sheriff. It shall be the special duty of the county auditor, sheriff and any constable of each and every county of this state to enforce the provisions of the last two sections. [R. C. 1905, § 1952; 1895, ch. 50, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 1565.]

ARTICLE 11.—SHEEP HUSBANDRY.

§ 2637. Bounty for killing wolves. The county commissioners of each county shall offer a bounty of two dollars for each wolf or coyote killed within the limits of their county. [R. C. 1905, § 1953; 1890, ch. 157, § 1; 1891, ch. 71; § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1566; 1901, ch. 215.]

§ 2638. Claimant to make affidavit before auditor. Before payment of such bounty the applicant therefor must subscribe and make oath before the county auditor of the county in which the wolf or coyote was killed, setting forth that the wolf or coyote was killed in such county, giving the date thereof, and by whom, and that the two ears of the scalp thereof which are produced before such county auditor are the ears of such wolf or coyote. [R. C. 1905, § 1954; 1890, ch. 157, § 2; R. C. 1895, § 1567.]

§ 2640. Auditor to retain affidavit. Destruction of scalp. The county auditor shall retain such affidavit until the next regular meeting of the board of county commissioners, when the board shall audit the claim and order a warrant drawn upon the county treasurer for the bounty in favor of the person killing such wolf or coyote. The county treasurer is further required forthwith to destroy such ears by burning the same. [R. C. 1905, § 1956; 1890, ch. 157, § 3; R. C. 1895, § 1568.]

§ 2641. When dog may be killed. If any person shall discover any dog in the act of killing, wounding or chasing sheep in this state, or shall discover any dog under such circumstances as satisfactorily to show that it has been recently engaged in killing or chasing sheep, such person is authorized immediately to pursue and kill such dog. [R. C. 1905, § 1957; 1890, ch. 155, § 9; R. C. 1895, § 1569.]

§ 2642. Owner of dog liable. The owner of any dog shall be liable in a civil action for all damages that may accrue to any person by reason of such dog's killing, wounding or chasing any sheep or other domestic animal belonging to such person. [R. C. 1905, § 1958; 1890, ch. 155, § 8; R. C. 1895, § 1570.]

§ 2643. No exemption. No exemption shall be allowed in favor of any person against whom a judgment has been recovered under the provisions of section 2642. [R. C. 1905, § 1959; 1890, ch. 155, § 8; R. C. 1895, § 1570.]

ARTICLE 12.—STATE WOLF BOUNTIES.

§ 2644. County reward for buffalo or timber wolf. The board of county commissioners of any county within the state may offer a reward of a sum, not to exceed twenty dollars, nor less than five dollars, for the destruction of each buffalo or timber wolf killed within their respective counties, and the provisions of sections 2646, 2647, 2648 and 2649 shall apply in every case where the reward is called for under the provisions of this section. [R. C. 1905, § 1960; 1901, ch. 216.]

of North Dakota, for each wolf or coyote killed, the sum of two dollars and fifty cents. [R. C. 1905, § 1961; 1903, ch. 207, § 1.]

§ 2646. Skins to be exhibited. Any person killing any of the aforesaid animals, to obtain the bounty thereon, shall, within ninety days from the date of the killing, exhibit or cause to be exhibited the skins and skulls of said animal or animals, including the tail and the skin from the forehead, including both ears, to the county auditor in the county in which said animal or animals were killed, and shall at the same time file with the auditor an affidavit setting forth that he killed or caused to be killed the animal or animals from which the skin or skins were taken; that the same were killed within the bounds of the county to whose auditor the same are presented. [R. C. 1905, § 1962; 1901, ch. 207, § 2.]

§ 2647. Verification. The county auditor shall, before issuing the certificate hereinafter provided for, require statements of two resident taxpayers of the county that they are acquainted with the person presenting the skin or skins and that to the best of their knowledge and belief the animal or animals from which said skin or skins were taken were killed within the limits of said county. [R. C. 1905, § 1963; 1903, ch. 207, § 2.]

§ 2648. Fraud prevented. The county auditor shall thereupon call to his assistance either the county treasurer, or, in his absence, the clerk of the district court, who being present, both shall, in order to prevent fraud, minutely examine each skin presented; and should examination disclose that the scalps and ears belonging to such skins have not been severed, patched or punched, the county auditor shall there, in the presence of the other officer above named, mark each ear by punching a hole one inch in diameter in the same, and then redeliver the skin or skins to the person presenting the same, and shall at the same time make out and deliver to the said person a certificate showing the number and kind of the skins so punched and the name of the person presenting, the fact of the filing of the affidavits herein provided for, and the examination made as required, said certificate to be duly signed by him in his official capacity, and attested by the officer acting with him; said county auditor shall keep a record in a bound book of all skins so punched, showing the date, number and kinds, the names of the persons presenting them and the names of the witnesses, which book shall be an official record. The holders of the certificates issued under the provisions of this article to be deposited with the county auditor of the county wherein issued, who shall on the first business day of each month forward all such certificates in his possession to the state auditor for registration and payment as hereinafter provided. All services rendered by officials under this article to be without fee. [R. C. 1905, § 1964; 1903, ch. 207, § 3.]

§ 2649. Duty of county auditor. Should any county auditor or officer acting with him have reason to believe that any person presenting a skin or skins as above provided, has evaded the provisions of this article to obtain the bounty unlawfully, such officer shall require satisfactory evidence of the time, place and manner of the killing of said animal or animals. [R. C. 1905, § 1965; 1903, ch. 207, § 4.]

§ 2650. Duty of state auditor. It shall be the duty of the state auditor, upon the written order of the county auditor, to give the person presenting said order a warrant upon the state wolf bounty fund, hereinafter provided for, in the amount required to compensate at the bounty prices by this article provided, for the number of animals mentioned in the order, taking the receipt on the back of the order of the person presenting, for the full amount received; and the state auditor and the state treasurer shall keep an account of all warrants so issued and paid, and list them in their annual report to the governor. [R. C. 1905, § 1966; 1903, ch. 207, § 5.]

§ 2651. Wolf bounty fund created. For the purpose of providing for the payment of said bounty and the warrants thereon drawn, there is hereby created a fund to be known as the state wolf bounty fund. [R. C. 1905, § 1967; 1903, ch. 207, § 6.]

§ 2652. Duties of state board of equalization. It shall be the duty of the state board of equalization, at the time of the levy of the annual tax, to levy a special tax of one-half of one-tenth of one mill on the dollar upon the assessed valuation of all property, and when collected paid into the hands of the state treasurer, who shall at once enter the same into state wolf bounty fund.

Said fund shall be preserved inviolate for the payment of the state bounties provided for herein. [1911, ch. 281; R. C. 1905, § 1968; 1901, ch. 207, § 7.]

§ 2653. Transfer of wolf bounty fund. There is hereby transferred from the state wolf bounty fund of this state, to the general fund of the state, the sum of fifty thousand dollars; provided, that said transfer shall be made by the state auditing board from time to time as a surplus may accumulate in said wolf bounty fund. [1911, ch. 328.]

§ 2654. Animals killed in unorganized counties. Any person claiming the bounties provided for in this article for any of the animals specified herein, killed or caused to be killed in any unorganized county of this state, shall make application to the county auditor of the organized county to which such unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes. [R. C. 1905, § 1969; 1903, ch. 207, § 8.]

§ 2655. Secretary of state to supply blanks. The secretary of state shall provide each county auditor with the necessary blanks for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this article. [R. C. 1905, § 1970; 1903, ch. 207, § 9.]

§ 2656. Penalty for forgery. Any person who shall falsely make, alter, forge or counterfeit any of said certificates or orders shall be deemed guilty of forgery, and any person who shall swear falsely to any affidavit provided herein, or procure the same to be done by another, with the intent of obtaining any one of the said certificates or orders, shall be guilty of perjury; and any person convicted of any of the offenses declared in this section shall be punished by imprisonment in the state penitentiary for a term of not less than one year nor more than five years. Any person or persons who shall patch up any skin or scalp, or who shall present any punched skin or scalp with intent to defraud the state, or any officer who shall sign any certificate herein provided for without first counting the skins, or shall intentionally evade any of the provisions of this article, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not exceeding three months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. [R. C. 1905, § 1971; 1903, ch. 207, § 10.]

ARTICLE 13.—ESTRAYS.

General features and constitutionality of statutes respecting estrays. 8 Am. St. Rep. 271.

§ 2658. Notice of taking up estrays. Each person taking up an estray, horse, mare, colt, ass, mule or neat cattle, sheep, hog or goat shall, within ten days thereafter, give notice of the finding and taking up of said animal, in the nearest weekly newspaper published in the county where such animal is found.

Such notice shall truly describe the animal found by giving its color, sex, probable age and weight, and all the marks and brands thereon. Immediately after the first publication of said notice the publisher thereof shall send by registered mail to the commissioner of agriculture and labor and to the county auditor of the county in which said animal was found, a newspaper clipping containing the same. Unless such animal is earlier claimed the notice shall be published in said paper for three successive weeks, and immediately after the third publication a printed copy thereof shall be forwarded by registered mail to the state estray paper. The registry receipts for the notices sent out of the said state estray paper to the commissioner of agriculture and labor and to the county auditor, as provided for herein, together with proof of publication of such notice for three successive weeks, shall be filed in the office of the county auditor of the county where the estray was found before it can be appraised, or before appraisers can be appointed. Unless such receipts and proof of publication are so filed the publisher of said paper shall forfeit all right to his publication fees, and shall be liable to civil damages for any loss or damage caused by his neglect, and the person taking up said estray, unless he shall cause the same to be filed, shall forfeit all right to reimbursement for charges, costs and damages. Any person taking up an estray who fails to advertise the same, or otherwise comply with the provisions of this section, shall be liable to the owner for all damages caused by such negligence or failure, and shall be guilty of a misdemeanor; provided, if any person shall take up an estray which is apparently worthless, such estray may be at once appraised, and if found worthless may be destroyed. The person taking up the same shall notify some justice of the peace of the county, and such justice shall immediately choose one disinterested freeholder as one appraiser; the party taking up the estray shall choose another disinterested freeholder, and the two so chosen shall appoint a third person living in the vicinity where the estray was taken up, and the three persons so chosen shall constitute a board of appraisers who shall act without compensation. If such appraisers shall appraise the estray as worthless it shall be destroyed by the party taking it up. [1913, ch. 160, § 2; 1907, ch. 117; R. C. 1905, § 1973; 1890, ch. 66, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 1572; 1903, ch. 96; 1905, ch. 112.]

§ 2659. Official estray paper. Payment of fees. A weekly newspaper published in the state shall be designated by the governor as the official newspaper in which all estray notices of the state received by said paper shall be published once. It shall be the duty of the publisher of said paper to transmit one copy, weekly, to the county auditor of each county in the state and to the commissioner of agriculture and labor at his office at the state capitol. If such publisher shall fail to transmit copies thereof as herein provided he shall forfeit all right to his fees for publication of estray notices, and shall be liable in civil damages for any loss or damage caused by his neglect. The board of county commissioners of each county shall, on the first Monday of January each year, appropriate the sum of five dollars to pay the official estray paper for such publications. [1913, ch. 160, § 3; R. C. 1905, § 1974; 1890, ch. 66, §§ 4-6; R. C. 1899, §§ 1573, 1574.]

§ 2660. Owner may take estray, when. Arbitration. Whenever any person shall appear and make claim to any estray so taken up, such claimant and the person taking up such estray may go before a justice of the peace in the county and such claimant shall make affidavit in writing setting forth his name and place of residence and that he is the actual owner of such estray, describing it, and thereupon the person taking up such estray shall be authorized to deliver the same to such claimant on payment of all fees advanced by him and the actual cost of caring for and keeping such estray. If the persons cannot agree as to the amount of such charges the owner of the animal and person taking up such estray shall each choose one disinterested freeholder as arbitrator, and the two so chosen shall choose a third person living in the vicinity where the estray was taken up. The amount assessed by such arbitrators shall be final. [R. C. 1905, § 1975; 1890, ch. 66, §§ 7, 8; R. C. 1895, § 1575.]

§ 2661. Advertiser becomes owner, when. Exception. Appraisal. If such estray shall not be claimed and taken away within one year after advertisement thereof in such official newspaper, and if the person taking up such estray shall have caused the same to be duly advertised as herein provided, and shall not in any respect have violated the provisions of this article, the property therein shall immediately vest in the person taking up the same, provided, the appraised value of such estray does not exceed twenty-five dollars. The person taking up such estray shall notify the board of county commissioners to appraise or appoint some suitable person whose duty it shall be to appraise the value of such estray. [R. C. 1905, § 1976; 1890, ch. 66, §§ 9, 10; R. C. 1899, §§ 1576, 1577; 1903, ch. 97, § 1.]

§ 2662. Charges allowed. Any person taking up estrays may charge for actual time employed and for actual damage done to his crops or premises. He shall also be allowed his actual cost of feeding and caring for such estrays; provided, however, that if any person taking up an estray shall have caused the same while so in his possession to perform any labor for his own benefit, no compensation whatever shall be allowed him for feeding or caring for such estray for any portion of the time after such animal shall have been taken up by him. [R. C. 1905, § 1977; 1890, ch. 66, § 11; R. C. 1899, § 1578; 1903, ch. 97, § 2.]

§ 2663. In case of two or more animals. If two or more animals are taken up at the same time by the same person, they shall be enumerated in the same advertisement, and the same fees are allowed as for the advertisement or appraisal of one estray. [R. C. 1905, § 1978; 1890, ch. 66, § 12; R. C. 1895, § 1579.]

§ 2664. May be sold, when. If the appraised value of any estray exceeds twenty-five dollars, and the same is not called for within one year after the advertisement in the official estray paper, the person taking up such estrays shall notify some justice of the peace of the county, and such justice shall designate a place where such sale shall be held, and shall name the day, and the time of day for such sale, and cause notice of such sale to be published three times in a weekly newspaper, if there is one published in the county; in case no paper is published in the county, this notice shall be posted in three public places in the county at least twenty-two days before such sale, and on the appointed day the person taking up such estray shall have the same present at the place, and the justice shall proceed to sell such estray at public auction for cash, and after paying the proper fees and charges for taking up such estray and feeding and caring for same, to be fixed by such justice, and the fees advanced for the advertisement and appraisal of such estray as herein provided, and after deducting the fees allowed such justice for such sale and advertisement thereof, the residue of the proceeds of such sale shall be paid to the county treasurer, who shall receipt to the justice therefor. All moneys so deposited with the county treasurer shall by him be retained in the treasury for six months thereafter, separate and apart from all other moneys, and if the owner of any such estray shall within such period appear before the board of county commissioners and establish his title to such estray, such board shall order the amount so paid into the treasury to be paid to such owner. If no such person appear within six months after the deposit of such money as herein provided, the same shall be passed to the school fund of the county and shall be accounted for and expended as other school money. [R. C. 1905, § 1979; 1890, ch. 66, §§ 13, 14; R. C. 1899, § 1580; 1903, ch. 97, § 3.]

§ 2665. Record of sold estray. Whenever any sum of money is paid into the county treasury under the provisions of the last section the justice paying the same shall deliver to the county treasurer a certificate setting forth the description of the estray from the sale of which the same was obtained and the marks and brands of such estray and the name of the person by whom such animal was delivered to him to be sold; and such certificate shall be filed by the county treasurer and preserved in his office. [R. C. 1905, § 1980; 1890, ch. 66, § 15; R. C. 1895, § 1581.]

§ 2666. Fees, how paid and collected. The fees of the justice, and for advertising and appraising, shall be paid by the person taking up the estray, and the same shall constitute a first lien upon the estray and shall be paid by the owner before he shall be entitled to take away such estray. [R. C. 1905, § 1981; 1890, ch. 66, § 16; R. C. 1899, § 1582.]

§ 2667. Penalty for violation. If any person not authorized so to do shall take up any estray or lost goods or if any person taking up such estray or lost goods shall willfully neglect to cause the same to be advertised as herein provided, or shall fail to feed sufficiently or properly care for the same, such person shall be liable to the owner thereof for all damages. [R. C. 1905, § 1982; 1890, ch. 66, § 17; R. C. 1895, § 1583.]

§ 2668. Liability in case of death of estray. If any estray after being duly advertised as herein provided, shall, without fault of the person taking up the same, die or be stolen or escape and wander away, the person taking up the same shall not be responsible therefor. [R. C. 1905, § 1983; 1890, ch. 66, § 18; R. C. 1899, § 1584.]

§ 2669. Other personal property governed by this article. The manner of taking up, appraising, advertising and disposing of any lost goods or personal property which may be found upon the highways or in any other place shall be the same as herein provided for estrays. [R. C. 1905, § 1984; 1890, ch. 66, § 19; R. C. 1899, § 1585.]

ARTICLE 14.—CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.

§ 2670. Agent to investigate. Appointment and duties of. The governor shall appoint a discreet and suitable person whose duty it shall be to investigate all cases of violation of the laws against cruelty to animals of which information can be obtained and bring the facts relating thereto before the proper authorities and it shall be the duty of such persons to organize humane societies in different places in the state, where it can be done, whose members shall pledge themselves to the use of all reasonable means for the enforcement of the laws relating to cruelty to animals. It shall be the duty of the state's attorneys in this state to aid and co-operate with such person in the enforcement of such laws. [R. C. 1905, § 1985; 1893, ch. 47, §§ 1, 2; R. C. 1899, § 1586.]

§ 2671. Expenses. Appropriation. The person so appointed shall act without compensation further than the payment of his actual expenses incurred. The state auditor shall issue warrants for such expenses upon presentation of itemized and verified accounts therefor, and there is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated the sum of five hundred dollars annually for the payment of such expenses. [R. C. 1905, § 1986; 1893, ch. 47, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 1587.]

ARTICLE 15.—TEXAS OR CHEROKEE CATTLE.

§ 2672. When unlawful to import or own. It shall be unlawful for any person, railroad company or other corporation or association:

1. To bring into this state any Texas or Cherokee cattle, except between the first day of November of each year and the first day of February following; or,

2. To own or have in possession or control within this state any Texas or Cherokee cattle at any time, which may have been brought into this state at any time except between the first day of November of each year and the first day of February following. [R. C. 1905, § 1987; 1883, ch. 111, §§ 1, 2; R. C. 1899, § 1588.]

State legislation for protection of health of live stock as interference with interstate commerce. 26 L.R.A. (N.S.) 279.

Validity and construction of statutory regulations as to infected animals. 26 L.R.A. 638.

§ 2673. Penalty for violation. Any person who brings into this state or causes to be brought therein, any Texas or Cherokee cattle, except at the time prescribed in section 2672 or who shall own, possess or control any such cattle except as allowed in the preceding section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum not exceeding ten thousand dollars nor less than two hundred dollars, and in addition thereto may be imprisoned in the penitentiary for a period not exceeding three years. Any railroad conductor or employe, agent or officer of any railroad company who brings any such cattle into this state upon any railroad or vessel connected with such railroad, or who carries any such cattle upon any railroad or vessel connecting therewith from one point to another within this state shall be deemed to have possession of such cattle within the meaning of this section. [R. C. 1905, § 1988; 1883, ch. 111, § 3; R. C. 1895, § 1589.]

§ 2674. Who liable for damage caused by such cattle. Whenever in any case any damage is occasioned to any person, resulting in any manner from any such Texas or Cherokee cattle having been brought into this state at any time by any person, railroad company or other corporation or association, then such person so bringing into, or owning, possessing or controlling such cattle in this state shall be liable jointly and severally to any person who may suffer loss or damage by reason of such bringing into or conveying through, possessing, owning or controlling within the state any such cattle; and in any action for the recovery of damages for any loss or damage which may be sustained by any person from any such cattle, it shall be sufficient for the plaintiff to show that the injury of which he complains arose from any such Texas or Cherokee cattle which may have been owned or had in possession or brought into this state at any time within the year by any such defendant, or that such cattle so brought in, owned or possessed had been where such loss or damage had been sustained. And it shall not be necessary for the plaintiff to show that the injury of which he complains accrued while any such Texas or Cherokee cattle were in the possession or ownership or control of any such defendant, it being the intention of this section to make all persons liable in the first instance for any injury which may arise from disease spreading or communicating from such Texas or Cherokee cattle so brought into, owned, possessed or controlled by them in this state. Scienter as a condition of liability for spreading contagious disease among animals. 6 L.R.A. (N.S.) 922.

§ 2675. What no defense. Proof necessary to recovery. The right to bring into this state such cattle between the first day of November and the first day of February following shall in no case be any defense for any loss or damage that may accrue from such cattle to any person; nor shall the right to own, possess or control any such cattle in any case be a defense for any injury or loss which may arise to any person by reason of such right to own, possess or control such cattle. In all actions for any loss or injury which may arise or accrue to any person by reason of any injury or loss done or caused to be done to any native or domestic cattle from or by any such Texas or Cherokee cattle, the proof of the loss of any native or domestic cattle or any damage thereto, and the amount of such loss or damage, and proof that any such defendant brought into this state or owned, possessed or controlled in this state at any time any such Texas or Cherokee cattle which may have caused such injury or loss, shall be prima facie evidence of plaintiff's right to recover. And it shall be competent in the trial of such actions for witnesses to give their opinion as to whether or not any such Texas or Cherokee cattle caused the injury complained of. [R. C. 1905, § 1990; 1883, ch. 111, § 7; R. C. 1899, § 1591.]

§ 2676. Proceedings when Texas cattle are spreading disease. In case any such Texas or Cherokee cattle shall be found spreading or communicating any disease among the native domestic cattle of this state, it shall be the duty of any judge of the district court, or justice of the peace, upon oath of any householder setting forth that such cattle are spreading or communicating disease among native or domestic cattle within this state, and the name of the owner or person in whose possession or control such Texas or Cherokee cattle may be, forthwith to issue a warrant to any sheriff or constable of the county commanding him forthwith to arrest and imprison in some safe place such cattle so spreading or communicating disease and to summon the owner thereof or the person found in the possession of such cattle, to appear before such judge or justice of the peace forthwith and show cause why such cattle should not be impounded until the first day of November following, and after allowing the parties a reasonable time to be heard, such judge or justice shall proceed to hear and determine whether such cattle have so spread or communicated disease. It shall be the duty of such judge or justice of the peace to order the officer in charge of such cattle to impound them and keep them by themselves until the first day of November following, when it shall be the duty of the officer in charge of such cattle to present to the owner or person entitled to the possession thereof a sworn statement of the cost of taking, keeping and impounding such cattle, including the costs of building the pound and providing materials for the same in case the board of county commissioners or township supervisors where such cattle were impounded had ordered the pound to be built for the purpose of impounding such cattle, and demand payment of the same together with the costs of such trial aforesaid; and upon payment of the same he shall deliver such cattle to the owner or person entitled to possession thereof. [R. C. 1905, § 1991; 1883, ch. 111, § 8; R. C. 1899, § 1592.]

Regulations which the state may enforce concerning quarantine of animals. 97 Am. St. Rep. 242.

§ 2677. Texas cattle defined. Texas or Cherokee cattle as mentioned in the foregoing sections shall be taken to mean a class or kind of cattle without reference to where they may have come from; provided, that that portion of this state west of the Missouri river is exempted from the provisions hereof; but the right to bring into, own, possess or control such cattle in such exempted territory shall give no right to send, convey or cause to be sent or conveyed such cattle into that part of the state subject to the provisions hereof, or own or possess the same therein, except that such cattle may be shipped or conveyed by themselves across said river to an inclosure upon the left bank thereof upon the line of any railroad crossing this state and may be conveyed from such inclosure across and without the state by continuous passage in cars upon such railroad. [R. C. 1905, § 1992; 1883, ch. 111, § 9; R. C. 1899, § 1593.]

ARTICLE 16.—LIVE STOCK SANITARY BOARD.

The following sections 2678-2697 consist of Laws 1907, ch. 169, or of express amendments thereto, and are regarded as superseding the entire "Article 15.—District Veterinarians" of chapter 24 in the Revised Codes of 1905 (§§ 1993-2015 therein) except perhaps §§ 2001, 2002 and 2005 thereof, which are, respectively, sections 2697a, 2697b and 2698 in the present compilation.

The act of 1907 above cited expressly repealed only "all acts and parts of acts inconsistent therewith." But the emergency section (§ 22) in the act expressly contemplates the retirement from office of "the present state veterinarians." The comprehensive duties and authority of the live stock sanitary board and its executive officer expressed in sections 2679, 2684, 2686 herein, the power to appoint "officers, agents, or assistants"

(section 2690), and various other provisions herein, are evidently incompatible with the provisions in the Revised Codes of 1905 for a chief state veterinarian, district veterinarians, sheep inspectors to be appointed by the district veterinarians, and the division of the state into veterinarian districts; and since each and every section in article 15 of the Revised Codes of 1905, with exceptions mentioned at the head of this note, postulates the existence of those officers or districts, the sections are omitted in the present compilation.

§ 2678. Live stock sanitary board, how composed. Term of office. A board is hereby established to be known as the "state live stock sanitary board." This board shall consist of five members to be appointed by the governor. One shall be appointed for a term of five years, one for a term of four years, one for a term of three years, one for a term of two years and one for a term of one year, whose term of office shall commence on the first day of April, 1907, and the successor of each shall be appointed for the term of five years thereafter and until their successors are appointed and qualified. Each member of said board shall be a qualified elector of the state of North Dakota. Three members of said board shall be persons who are financially interested in the breeding and maintenance of live stock in the state of North Dakota and the other two members of said board shall be competent veterinarians who are graduates of some regularly organized and recognized veterinary college or university. [1907, ch. 169, § 1.]

§ 2679. Board establishes rules and regulations. It shall be the duty of the said state live stock sanitary board to protect the health of the domestic animals of this state; to determine and employ the most efficient and practical means for the prevention, suppression, control and eradication of dangerous, contagious and infectious diseases among the domestic animals of the state of North Dakota, and for these purposes it is hereby authorized and empowered to make all such rules and regulations for the conduct of the business of said state live stock sanitary board as it may deem expedient. [1907, ch. 169, § 2.]

§ 2680. Publication of regulations. Said state live stock sanitary board shall make the necessary regulations to carry into effect the purpose of this act [sections 2678-2697], and any regulations so made shall be published in some newspaper or in as many newspapers as said board may deem necessary, or they shall be posted in not less than five public places, and such publication shall be deemed a legal notice to all persons. [1907, ch. 169, § 3.]

§ 2681. Meetings. Compensation. The said state live stock sanitary board shall hold its meetings at the state capitol at such times as it may designate, but there shall not be to exceed four regular meetings each year; provided, that the president of the board shall have power to call special meetings whenever in his judgment it becomes necessary. The members of the board shall receive as compensation for their services the sum of three dollars per day for each day employed, and five cents per mile actually and necessarily traveled in attending the meetings of the board, which sum shall be paid out of the state treasury upon vouchers of the board duly certified by the president and secretary thereof. [1907, ch. 169, § 4.]

§ 2682. Oath of office. Qualifications. At the first meeting of the said state live stock sanitary board the members thereof shall take and subscribe the oath of office required of other civil officers and shall then proceed to elect a president, secretary and executive officer. The executive officer shall be a competent and skilled veterinarian who at the time of said election shall be a graduate in good standing of a recognized school of veterinary medicine and surgery, and who shall not be a member of this board. [1907, ch. 169, § 5.]

§ 2683. Salary of executive officer. Bond. Oath. The executive officer of said state live stock sanitary board shall receive for his services such a sum as may be deemed proper by said board. The payment of said salary shall be made from the funds appropriated for the use of this board and in order to carry into effect the purpose of this act [section 2696]. Before entering upon the discharge of these duties he shall give a bond to the state of North Dakota with good and sufficient surety in the sum of five thousand dollars, conditioned on the proper discharge of the same. He shall furthermore receive actual expenses incurred and paid by him in the discharge of his duties, and such amounts shall be paid out of the fund appropriated for said board. Said executive officer shall, upon entering upon his duties, take an oath well and truly to perform all duties required of him under the provisions of this act [sections 2678-2697], which said oath shall be taken before any judge of a district court or notary public within the state and shall be filed with the secretary of state. [1907, ch. 169, § 6.]

§ 2684. Duties of executive officer. The executive officer of said state live stock sanitary board shall act as state veterinarian and it shall be his duty:

1. To ascertain by personal examination or through reports from other accredited representatives of said board all information which he can obtain regarding the existence of contagious, infectious and epidemic diseases of animals.

2. To execute all orders, rules and regulations made by said live stock sanitary board and to present at the quarterly meetings of said board a detailed report of all matters connected with the work done by him or his subordinates during the quarter preceding said meeting. [1907, ch. 169, § 7.]

§ 2685. Bacteriologist and consulting veterinarian. The professor of veterinary science of the state agricultural college shall act as bacteriologist and consulting veterinarian to the said state live stock sanitary board, and it shall be his duty to make bacteriologic or pathologic examination of all diseased animals or portions thereof, or of such material as may be forwarded to him by the said board or its duly authorized agents. It shall also be his duty to furnish material as far as lies in his power for the diagnosis of contagious diseases and instruction as to its use. For the services rendered said bacteriologist shall receive such compensation as the state live stock sanitary board may deem proper, which shall be paid out of the fund appropriated for the use of said board. [1907, ch. 169, § 8.]

§ 2686. Powers of board. Authority is hereby given to said state live stock sanitary board to take all steps it may deem necessary to control, suppress and eradicate any and all contagious and infectious diseases among any of the domestic animals of the state, and to that end said board is hereby empowered to quarantine any domestic animal which is infected with any such disease or which has been exposed to infection therefrom, and to kill any animal so infected; to regulate or prohibit the arrival in or departure from the state, or any portion of the state, of any such exposed or infected animal, and at the cost of the owner thereof to detain any domestic animal found in violation of any such regulation or prohibition. [1907, ch. 169, § 9.]

Regulations which the state may enforce concerning quarantine of animals. 97 Am. St. Rep. 242.

§ 2687. Killing of diseased stock, method of. Selection of experts. Whenever a domestic animal has been adjudged to be affected with a contagious or infectious disease and has been ordered killed by said state live stock sanitary board or by an accredited agent thereof, the owner or keeper of said animal shall be notified thereof, and within twenty-four hours thereafter its owner or keeper may file a protest against the killing thereof with said board or its accredited agent who has ordered such animal killed. Such notice shall state under oath that to the best of the knowledge and belief of the person making such protest, such animal is not infected with any contagious or infectious disease; whereupon an examination of the animal involved shall be made by three experts, one of said experts to be appointed by said state live stock sanitary board, one to be appointed by the person making such protest and the two thus appointed to choose a third, but all experts shall be persons learned in veterinary medicine and surgery and graduates of a regularly organized and recognized veterinary college. [1907, ch. 169, § 10.]

Procedure in case of glanders, see sections 2726-2735.

§ 2688. Expense of experts, how paid. In case all three experts or any two of them declare that such animal is free from any contagious or infectious disease, then the expense of the consultation shall be paid by the state live stock sanitary board out of the funds appropriated for the carrying into effect of this act [section 2696], and in case the three experts or any two of them declare the animal to be affected with a contagious or infectious disease then the expenses incurred in the consultation shall be paid by the person making the protest, and said expenses may be collected the same as in case of appeal in civil action. [1907, ch. 169, § 11.]

§ 2689. Disposal of carcass of diseased animal. It shall be the duty of the owner or keeper of any animal killed by the order of the live stock sanitary board to dispose of the carcass of said animal in the manner prescribed by the board, and whenever the owner or keeper of an animal killed as aforesaid be unknown, the carcass shall be disposed of in the aforesaid manner at the expense of the county in which the carcass is located. [1907, ch. 169, § 12.]

§ 2690. Board may employ agents and assistants. The state live stock sanitary board is further authorized to employ such officers, agents or assistants as it may deem necessary to carry out the purposes of this act [sections 2678-2697], at a compensation to be fixed by the said board and which shall be paid from the funds appropriated for the purpose of carrying into effect the purpose of this act. Said live stock sanitary board is further empowered to grant the same authority as agents of said board to the inspectors of the United States department of agriculture, but when said inspectors are engaged in work by direction or request of the board they shall not receive compensation from the state or be required to give bond. [1907, ch. 169, § 13.]

§ 2691. Board has powers of justices of the peace. The state live stock sanitary board or any member or duly authorized agent thereof, may examine or cause to be examined under oath all persons believed to possess knowledge of material facts concerning the existence or dissemination, or danger of dissemination of disease among domestic animals, and for this purpose shall have all the powers vested in justices of the peace to take depositions and to compel witnesses to attend and testify, and to administer oaths. Witnesses shall receive the same fees for attendance and travel as witnesses before the district courts, and said fees shall be paid out of the general fund of the state. [1907, ch. 169, § 14.]

§ 2692. Power over and of peace officers. The state live stock sanitary board shall have power to call any sheriff, deputy sheriff or constable to execute its orders, and officers shall obey the orders of said board, and the officers performing such duties shall receive compensation therefor as is prescribed by law for like services and shall be paid therefor in like manner. Any officer may arrest and take before any justice of the peace of the county any person found violating any of the provisions of this act [sections 2678-2697], and such officer shall immediately notify the state's attorney of such arrest and he shall prosecute the person so offending according to law. [1907, ch. 169, § 15.]

See prior provision as to prosecutions, R. O. 1905, § 2006.

§ 2693. Annual report. The said live stock sanitary board shall make annual report to the governor of North Dakota of all its proceedings and transactions from the preceding year, on the first day of December, and said report shall be published by the state of North Dakota. [1907, ch. 169, § 16.]

See prior provision as to report R. C. § 2013, and as to time and contents of report, see sections 95, 97, 98, 633 herein.

§ 2694. Duty of owners of stock to report to board. It shall be the duty of any person who discovers, suspects or has reason to believe that any domestic animal belonging to him or any in his charge or that may come under his observation belonging to other parties is affected with any contagious or infectious disease, to immediately report such fact, belief or suspicion to the state live stock sanitary board, or to a member or representative thereof. [1907, ch. 169, § 17.]

"This act" consists of sections 2678-2697.

See appropriation and provision regulating payment of bills against the same in section 653g.

§ 2697. Penalty for violation of law. Any person violating any of the provisions of this act [sections 2678-2697] or any rule or regulation made by the state live stock sanitary board shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars or more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment not less than thirty days or more than ninety days. [1907, ch. 169, § 20.]

§ 2697a. Manner of burial. It shall be the duty of the owner of any cattle or other domestic animals, or any person in the actual charge of such animals, within this state, that die from or on account of any contagious disease (and the death of any such animal from disease shall be presumed to be contagious until the contrary is proven, also any such animal found dead shall be presumed to have died of such disease unless other causes of death are apparent), to cause the same within twenty-four hours after receiving knowledge of the death of such animal to be buried at least four feet below the surface of the ground and covered with dirt to that depth. [R. C. 1905, § 2001; 1899, ch. 36, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1601a.]

The foregoing section was R. C. 1905, § 2001, and is retained in this compilation because its provisions seem not to conflict with anything in the preceding sections of this article. For a similar reason the following section 2697b is retained, although it is to be observed that the "districts" therein mentioned no longer exist. See note immediately preceding section 2678.

§ 2697b. Duty of overseers and coroner. It is also hereby made the duty of all road and street overseers, under whatever name called, and of the county coroner in such districts where there are no road overseers to bury or cause to be buried all animals dying as in section 2697a, when the same have been dead for thirty-six hours and are still unburied by the owner or person in charge thereof. The said road or street overseers and the said coroner are authorized to enter upon or into any premises where such dead cattle may be for the purpose of removing the same for burial and may bury the same on such premises, but must not bury said animals within one thousand feet of any dwelling house or barn. The board of county commissioners of such county shall allow such sums for such services as they may deem reasonable and the same shall be paid as other services for said county are paid. It is further provided that the owner of such animal or animals shall be liable to the county for such expenses, to be recovered in a civil action in the same manner as other debts are collected unless the owner pays said burial expenses within thirty days after being notified by the county auditor of the same, and no property except absolute exemptions shall be exempt from sale for the payment of any judgment that may be recovered against said owner, including costs and such attorney's fee as may be allowed by the court, not exceeding the sum of twenty-five dollars, said attorney's fee to be paid into the general fund of the county. [R. C. 1905, § 2002; 1899, ch. 36, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 1601b.]

See remarks concerning this section in note to § 2697a.

§ 2698. Duty of owners of stock. Animals in transit. Meats to be labeled. The following regulations shall be observed in all cases of disease covered by this article:

First: It shall be unlawful to sell, give away or in any manner part with any animal affected with or suspected of being affected with any contagious or infectious disease, with such exception as shall be provided for by the rules and regulations of the live stock sanitary board, and in case of any animal that may be known to have been affected with or exposed to any such disease within one year or prior to such disposal due notice of the fact shall be given in writing to the person receiving the animal.

Second: It shall be unlawful to kill for butcher purposes any such animals, or to sell, give away or use any part of it or its milk, or to remove any part of the skin, with such exceptions as shall be provided for by the rules and regulations of the live stock sanitary board. Provided that in all cases where, under the rules and regulations of the live stock sanitary board of this state, it shall be lawful to sell, barter or give away for human consumption the meat from any animal affected with contagious or infectious diseases, there shall be placed upon each quarter of the animal so affected in at least ten separate places a stamp or label, clearly showing the words "affected meat." No meat from any affected or diseased animal shall be placed upon the same block or table on which meat not so affected is handled. Failure to observe these provisions shall be a misdemeanor and on conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars, or to be imprisoned in the county jail for a term of not less than thirty days nor more than one year. It shall be the duty of the owner, agent or person having in charge any animal infected or suspected of being infected with any contagious disease, immediately to confine the same in a safe place, isolated from all other animals and with all necessary restrictions to prevent the dissemination of the disease until the arrival of an accredited agent of the live stock sanitary board. [1913, ch. 204; 1909, ch. 162; R. C. 1905, § 2005; 1891, ch. 125, § 10; 1895, ch. 35, § 11; R. C. 1899, § 1604.]

The introductory statement referring to "cases of disease covered by this article" is identical with the introduction to R. C. 1905, § 2005, which was amended in Laws 1909, ch. 162, the latter being amended and re-enacted by this section 2698. "This article," as stated in the note immediately preceding section 2678 herein, is deemed to be superseded by the present article almost entirely. It would seem, however, that the introductory statement may readily be rejected as surplusage.

ARTICLE 17.—REIMBURSEMENT OF OWNERS OF TUBERCULAR CATTLE.

§ 2699. Notice, how served. Whenever any neat animal or animals have been adjudged to be infected with the disease known as tuberculosis by the state live stock sanitary board, it shall be the duty of said board or its duly authorized agent to serve a written notice upon its owner or keeper, of such decision before the killing of said animal or animals condemned, which notice shall contain the provisions for a protest according to section 2703, and if no protest is made by the owner or keeper, such animal or animals shall be appraised according to the provisions contained in section 2700. [1911, ch. 310, § 1.]

§ 2700. Appraisal, how made. Whenever any neat cattle has been adjudged to be infected with the disease known as tuberculosis by the state live stock sanitary board and has been ordered killed by said board and is killed in accordance therewith, the actual value of said animal or animals at the time of appraisal shall be determined by the state live stock sanitary board or its authorized agent, within twenty-four hours after the killing is ordered and before it or they are killed; provided, that if the owner or keeper is aggrieved by such appraisal he may cause a board of appraisers to be appointed according to section 2701. [1911, ch. 310, § 2.]

§ 2701. Appraisers, how appointed. In case the owner of a neat animal or animals to be killed under the provisions of this article, or his agent, is not satisfied with the appraisal made by the state live stock sanitary board or its agents, he may protest against the same, whereupon a board of three appraisers is to be formed, of which one member shall be the agent of the state live stock sanitary board, one member shall be selected by the owner of the animal or animals involved, and a third member shall be selected by the first two members as herein provided. Whereupon an appraisal of the animal or animals involved shall be made by the board of appraisers according to section 2702, and in case all three appraisers or any two of them agree upon a certain valuation, this appraisal shall be regarded as final. [1911, ch. 310, § 3.]

§ 2703. Protest, how made. Providing the owner or his agent is aggrieved with the diagnosis of the state live stock sanitary board, or its agents, said owner may within twenty-four hours make protest against diagnosis; and be entitled to a consultation, in accordance with the provisions of sections 10 and 11 of chapter 169 of session laws of 1907. [1911, ch. 310, § 5.]

"Sections 10 and 11 of chapter 169 of session laws of 1907" are, respectively, sections 2687 and 2688 herein.

§ 2704. Fees, how paid. The two members of this board of appraisers, not connected with the state live stock sanitary board, shall be entitled to one dollar per day for their services, to be paid out of the fund created for the purposes of carrying out this article, upon presentation of vouchers to the state auditor and duly approved by the state live stock sanitary board. [1911, ch. 310, § 6.]

§ 2705. Who may take advantage of this act. The owner of any neat cattle affected with tuberculosis, or so adjudged by the state live stock sanitary board, and appraised in accordance with this article, shall be entitled to the amount named in the appraisal providing that the owner or owners of such neat cattle has applied to the state live stock sanitary board for a tuberculin test to be made under the supervision of said board, and provided further that said owner enters into the following agreement:

In consideration of the assistance by the state live stock sanitary board in the eradication of tuberculosis from my neat cattle by means of the tuberculin test, and in order to secure the state reimbursement for animals killed on account of tuberculosis, I,, of owner of said neat cattle, comprising of do hereby agree as follows:

A. That I will abide by the decision of the state live stock sanitary board whether or not a neat animal should be killed or to be segregated on account of tuberculosis.

B. In any case in which segregation is decided upon, I will cause all animals which react to the tuberculin test to be removed from the herd and portion of the premises or farm upon which the healthy animals of the herd are maintained, and I will cause the diseased animals to be permanently segregated from the healthy animals.

C. In all cases where the milk from such segregated reacting cows is to be used for any purpose whatsoever, I will cause the said milk to be sterilized or pasteurized.

D. In case any reacting bull is used for breeding purposes, I agree to have him held on leash and not permit him to leave the premises reserved for his use, and that the healthy cows bred to such bull will not be unduly exposed to infected premises or to other diseased cattle.

E. I will cause the young from segregated reacting animals to be removed from their mothers at birth, and will not permit the said young to suck their mothers.

F. Any part of my premises contaminated by reacting animals will be submitted by me to a thorough disinfection under the direction or supervision of the state live stock sanitary board at my own expense.

G. I will add no cattle to the said herd which have not passed a tuberculin test administered by an authorized public agent qualified to perform such test, or by an inspector of the bureau of animal husbandry.

H. In case I do not conform with any or all of the above agreements, I voluntarily relinquish any further claim upon the state of North Dakota for the reimbursement of neat cattle ordered killed on account of tuberculosis.

I. I relinquish all claims for the carcasses of animals killed and to be reimbursed for by the state. [1911, ch. 310, § 7.]

§ 2706. Claims, how paid. The return of appraisers made under this article shall be in writing, and signed by the state live stock sanitary board or its agents making the appraisalment or by the board of appraisers in case of protest, also signed by the owner of said neat cattle condemned and certified to by the executive officer of the state live stock sanitary board, to the state auditor, who shall draw a warrant on the state treasurer in favor of the owner for the amount thereof. [1911, ch. 310, § 8.]

§ 2707. Carcasses. How disposed of. All and any money realized by the state live stock sanitary board from the sale of the whole or any part of neat animals killed for tuberculosis and inspected and passed as provided for in section 2005, revised codes of 1905, as amended by chapter 162, session laws of 1909 [section 2698 herein], must be turned in to the state treasurer and by him to be credited to the fund provided for in this article, or may be paid to the owner of said condemned neat cattle, and the amount thereof deducted from the appraised value of said condemned neat cattle. [1911, ch. 310, § 9.]

§ 2708. Owner shall not be indemnified in the following cases. The right to be indemnified shall not exist, and payment shall not be made in the following cases:

First. For animals belonging to the United States, or any county, city, township or village in the state.

Second. When the owner at the time of coming into possession of the animal or animals knew it or them to be diseased or suspected of it or them being diseased.

Third. For animals found to have been diseased at the time of their arrival in this state.

Fourth. When the owner is a nonresident and not engaged in the breeding of live stock in this state.

Fifth. When the animal or animals, at the time of its or their killing, had been in the state less than six months.

Sixth. When the owner shall have been guilty of negligence by willfully exposing his animal or animals to the infection of tuberculosis or violated any of the sections of the agreement contained in section 2705. [1911, ch. 310, § 10.]

vide for the expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of this article, there is hereby created a fund to be known as the bovine tuberculosis fund. [1911, ch. 310, § 11.]

§ 2710. Duty of state board of equalization. It shall be the duty of the state board of equalization at the time of the levy of the annual tax, to levy a special tax of one-twentieth of a mill on the dollar upon the assessed valuation of all property, and when collected paid into the hands of the state treasurer, who shall at once enter the same into the bovine tuberculosis fund, said fund shall be preserved inviolate for the purpose of paying the expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of this article. [1911, ch. 310, § 12.]

ARTICLE 18.—STATE BOARD OF VETERINARY MEDICAL EXAMINERS.

§ 2711. Qualifications of veterinarians. Each person practicing veterinary medicine, surgery or dentistry in any of its departments in this state, shall possess the qualifications required by this article; provided, that any person who has practiced veterinary medicine, surgery or dentistry as a profession in this state for three years immediately preceding the taking effect of this article, and who shall be a citizen of the United States, or shall have declared his intention to become such, shall be deemed eligible to registration, and shall receive a certificate upon presentation of a sworn affidavit and letters of recommendation from five reputable freeholders in his locality, or upon presentation of a diploma from a legally authorized veterinary school, college or university, if made before July first, 1895. [R. C. 1905, § 2016; 1895, ch. 113, §§ 1, 2; R. C. 1899, § 1615.]

§ 2712. Board of examiners, how appointed. Term. The governor shall appoint a board of examiners within thirty days after the taking effect of this article to be known as the state board of veterinary medical examiners. Such board shall consist of three practicing veterinarians, who shall each be the holder of a diploma granted by a legally authorized veterinary school, college or university, who shall hold office, one for one year, one for two years and one for three years, after such appointment, or until their successors are appointed. Thereafter, each year, the governor shall appoint one member of said board to fill the vacancy occasioned by the expiration of the term of office of those previously appointed and is further authorized to fill such vacancies as may occur. [R. C. 1905, § 2017; 1895, ch. 113, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 1616.]

§ 2713. Organization of board. Said board shall elect a president, secretary and treasurer. It shall have a common seal, and the president and secretary shall have power to administer oaths. Said board shall hold meetings for the examination of candidates, on the second Wednesday of April and October of each year, and such other meetings as may be deemed necessary, at such time and place as the board may appoint, no session to exceed two days. The board shall issue a certificate of qualification to all applicants who shall pass the required examination, and who shall be citizens of the United States, or shall have legally declared their intention to become such, and to all applicants who are eligible to registration under section 2711, signed by the president and secretary of the board. Such certificate or diploma shall be conclusive as to the right of the lawful holder of the same to practice veterinary medicine, surgery or dentistry in this state. Said board shall keep a record of all the proceedings thereof, and also a record or register of each applicant for a license, together with his age, name and time spent in the study and practice of veterinary medicine, surgery or dentistry; and if a graduate, the name and location of the school, college or university granting such diploma. Said books and records shall be prima facie evidence of all the matter therein recorded. [R. C. 1905, § 2018; 1895, ch. 113, §§ 4, 6; R. C. 1899, § 1617.]

§ 2715. Diplomas and certificates. Persons presenting diplomas or certificates for examination and registration shall pay to the secretary of said board a fee of fifteen dollars in advance, and annually thereafter, for such time as he shall continue in practice, on such dates as the board may determine, pay a renewal registration fee of three dollars. This renewal registration fee of three dollars applies to and shall be paid by all practicing veterinarians heretofore or hereafter registered under this article. The fees received by said board shall be paid to the state treasurer within thirty days after the receipt of same; said fees shall constitute a special fund for the payment of the expense incurred by the state board of veterinary examiners in carrying out and enforcing the meaning of this act. Each member of said board shall receive from the state treasurer the sum of five dollars a day for each day actually engaged in attending meetings of said board, and all necessary traveling expenses actually incurred in attending such meeting. The secretary of said board shall also receive the sum of five dollars a day for each day actually engaged as a witness in cases of prosecution that originate under this act. The secretary shall certify to the state auditor after each meeting of the board the amount due each member for services and necessary expenses in attending such meetings and necessary expenses of said board. The state auditor shall thereupon issue his warrant on the state treasurer for such sum, providing there has been a sufficient sum paid into the treasury in fees to redeem said warrants. Nothing in this article shall be so construed as to prevent any person who has been registered and who may have forfeited his registration by nonpayment of fees from renewing his registration within two years by paying such fees without examination. [1913, ch. 276; 1911, ch. 282; R. C. 1905, § 2020; 1895, ch. 113, § 7; R. C. 1899, § 1619; 1905, ch. 192.]

§ 2716. Misdemeanor to practice, when. Any person who either:

1. Practices veterinary medicine, surgery or dentistry, in this state without compliance with the provisions of this article; or

2. Willfully and falsely claims or pretends to have or hold a certificate of registration issued by such board; or

3. Willfully and falsely, with intent to deceive the public, claims or pretends to be a graduate of, or to hold a diploma granted by a legally authorized veterinary school, college or university, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction is punishable by a fine of not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars, and in case of nonpayment of such fine, the person so offending shall be liable to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months; provided, that the provisions of this section do not apply to persons practicing castration. All fines received under this article shall be paid into the common school fund of the county in which such conviction takes place. [R. C. 1905, § 2021; 1899, ch. 168; R. C. 1899, § 1620.]

§ 2717. Examination. All persons commencing the practice of veterinary medicine, surgery or dentistry in this state shall be graduates of a legally authorized veterinary school, college or university, and shall subject themselves to such examination as the board may require. [R. C. 1905, § 2022; 1895, ch. 113, § 10; R. C. 1899, § 1621.]

§ 2718. Certificates recorded. Every person holding a certificate from the board of examiners shall have it recorded in the office of the register of deeds in the county in which he resides, within thirty days after the date of said certificate, and the record shall be indorsed thereon. Any person removing to another county to practice shall record within thirty days the certificate in a like manner in the county to which he removes, and the holder of the certificate shall pay to the register of deeds a fee of one dollar for making the record. [R. C. 1905, § 2023; 1895, ch. 113, § 11; R. C. 1899, § 1622.]

§ 2720. Witnesses. Expert fees. Any person complying with the provisions of this article shall be entitled to expert fees as a witness in all civil actions relating to the veterinary profession. [R. C. 1905, § 2025; 1895, ch. 113, § 13; R. C. 1899, § 1624.]

ARTICLE 19.—GLANDERS.

§ 2721. Penalty for having glandered animals in possession. It shall be unlawful for any person to own, have in possession or in any manner keep, use or control any horse, gelding, mare, ass or mule infected with the disease commonly known as glanders; and each person who knowingly owns or possesses or in any manner keeps, uses or controls a glandered animal as aforesaid, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished accordingly and all such diseased animals shall be summarily destroyed as hereinafter provided. [R. C. 1905, § 2026; 1883, ch. 65, § 1; R. C. 1895, § 1625.]

Testimony of state veterinarian of state from which alleged glandered horses came, that he tested certain horses of seller about three months before horses were brought to this state and found them glandered, and that glanders was contagious disease, was admissible. State v. Leavitt, 28 S. D. 216, 133 N. W. 294.

§ 2722. Complaint to justice of the peace. Duty of justice. When complaint in writing is made to a justice of the peace of the proper county, verified by oath or affirmation, stating that any person owns, possesses or in any manner keeps, uses or controls any horse, gelding, mare, ass or mule infected with the disease commonly known as glanders, it shall be the duty of the justice upon filing such complaint immediately to cause notice to be served upon the person so owning, possessing, keeping, using or controlling such animal, which notice shall set forth briefly the allegations of the complaint and command such person forthwith to appear before such justice and show cause why such justice shall not issue a warrant for the destruction of such animal, and either the complainant or the person summoned may demand a trial by jury of six men to whom the hearing of the matter shall be submitted, and both parties shall be entitled to witnesses, to be summoned by subpoena as in other actions and such examination and hearing shall be conducted in all respects as civil actions in such courts, and if the jury or court desires, they may cause such person to bring such animal before them for inspection. Upon the conclusion of the trial the court, or jury, if trial is had by jury, shall forthwith render a judgment or verdict, stating that the charge in the complaint is or is not true, which judgment or verdict shall be final in the matter. [R. C. 1905, § 2027; 1883, ch. 65, § 2; R. C. 1895, § 1626.]

§ 2723. Duty of justice after verdict. In case the verdict of the jury shall be that the complaint is true and that such animal is infected with glanders, the justice shall forthwith direct by warrant that the owner or person having such animal in possession forthwith kill and bury or otherwise destroy the same, which warrant may be served upon such owner or person the same as a summons and in the case of a corporation, each officer thereof shall be responsible in its behalf for the acts of the corporation, and such service may be made upon any officer thereof. [R. C. 1905, § 2028; 1883, ch. 65, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 1627.]

§ 2724. Penalty for disobeying warrant. If the owner or person having possession of such diseased animal, after having been served with a warrant

as hereinbefore provided, shall for the period of twelve hours after such service neglect or refuse to kill and bury or otherwise destroy such animal, such animal shall be forthwith killed and buried or otherwise destroyed by order of the justice directed to the person serving such warrant, or some other competent person to be named by the justice in the order, and the officer or person executing the same shall make return thereof to the justice. The officer or person executing such order shall be entitled to a fee of ten dollars to be audited and paid as hereinafter provided. [R. C. 1905, § 2029; 1883, ch. 65, § 4; R. C. 1899, § 1628.]

§ 2725. Justice to preserve record and certify costs. The justice of the peace before whom any such proceedings shall be had shall enter in his docket a record of all such proceedings, and shall allow and tax all costs of the justice, officers, jurors and witnesses the same as in other cases, together with the fee provided herein for destroying such animal, which costs and fee shall be certified by him to the board of county commissioners, and shall be audited and paid out of the general county fund the same as costs in criminal actions before justices of the peace; but the justice may tax the costs against the complainant if he finds that the action was malicious or without probable cause, and such judgment for costs shall be enforced as judgments for costs in criminal actions, and execution may issue therefor. [R. C. 1905, § 2030; 1883, ch. 65, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 1629.]

§ 2726. Appraisal, how made. Whenever the state live stock sanitary board, or any of its authorized agents, shall deem the slaughter of a horse, gelding, mare, ass or mule necessary under the provisions of section 10, chapter 169, session laws of 1907 [section 2687 herein], the actual value of said animal at the time of appraisal shall be determined by the state live stock sanitary board or its agent within twenty-four hours after the killing or destruction is ordered; provided, that if the owner or keeper is aggrieved by such appraisal he may cause a board of appraisers to be appointed according to section 2727; provided the provisions of this section shall not prevent the owner or keeper of animals condemned and ordered destroyed by the live stock sanitary board from the right of protest and examination as provided for in section 10 of chapter 169, session laws of 1907. [1913, ch. 175, § 1; 1907, ch. 170, § 1.]

This section and the following sections 2727-2735 constitute Laws 1913, ch. 175. The heading of that chapter as printed in the session laws, is "glanders" and section 2728 indicates that the chapter is limited to that disease, although the section in Laws 1907 to which reference is made extends to any contagious or infectious disease.

§ 2727. Appraisers, how appointed. In case the owner, or his agent, of the animal or animals to be destroyed under the provisions of this act [sections 2726-2735] is not satisfied with the appraisal made by the state live stock sanitary board or its agents, he may protest against the same, whereupon a board of three appraisers is to be formed, of which one member shall be the agent of the state live stock sanitary board, one member shall be selected by the owner of the animal or animals involved, and a third member shall be selected by the first two members as herein provided. Whereupon an appraisal of the animal or animals involved shall be made by such board, according to section 2728, and in case all appraisers or any two of them agree upon a certain valuation, this appraisal shall be regarded as final. [1913, ch. 175, § 2; 1907, ch. 170.]

§ 2728. Maximum valuation. In making the appraisement the value put upon the animal or animals shall be the amount that such animal or animals would be worth had they not been affected with glanders; provided, however, that in no case shall the appraised value of any one animal exceed one hundred dollars to be paid by the state as hereinafter provided. [1913, ch. 175, § 3; 1907, ch. 170, § 3.]

§ 2729. Procedure of destruction and certification. It shall be the duty of the state live stock sanitary board or its authorized agent, who ordered the destruction of the animal or animals involved, and who made the appraisal or took part in the same, to give notice of said facts in writing to the owner or keeper of said animal or animals, and to certify to such facts in writing to a justice of the peace of the county in which the said animal or animals are located, describing in said notice the deceased animal or animals with a reasonable degree of certainty, stating the name of the animal when known. [1913, ch. 175, § 4; 1907, ch. 170.]

§ 2730. Duty of owner. It shall be the duty of the owner or keeper of an animal or animals to be destroyed to destroy the same or cause the same to be destroyed and to dispose of the carcass or carcasses or cause the same to be disposed of before two witnesses or before the agent of the live stock sanitary board, in accordance with section 12, chapter 169, Session Laws of 1907 [section 2689 herein], and to make proper affidavit of such facts, which shall be sworn to by such witnesses or the agent of the state live stock sanitary board before the justice of peace to whom the certification provided for in section 2729 was made, within five days after the destruction notice was served upon him. [1913, ch. 175, § 5; 1907, ch. 170.]

§ 2731. Compensation for animals killed. It shall be the duty of the justice of the peace to file with the executive officer of the state live stock sanitary board the certification of the state live stock sanitary board or its authorized agent and the affidavits of the owner or keeper, sworn to according to section 2730, that the animal or animals have been killed and buried in accordance with section 12, chapter 169, Session Laws of 1907 [section 2689 herein]. The executive officer of the state live stock sanitary board, after recording the same upon his docket, shall examine the same, and, if found correct, file the same with the state auditor, who shall issue a warrant on the state treasurer for one-half of the sum named in the appraisers' return. [1913, ch. 175, § 6; 1907, ch. 170, § 2.]

Indemnity appropriations for owners of slaughtered animals afflicted with glanders were made in Laws 1909, ch. 159 and Laws 1911, ch. 42. And see section 2736 and Laws 1913, ch. 21.

"This act" consists of sections 2726-2735.

§ 2734. Proceedings, how conducted. Fees. The justice of the peace to whom certification is made shall enter upon his docket a record of all proceedings and to tax all costs of justices, officers and appraisers other than the authorized agent or agents of the state live stock sanitary board, which costs and fees shall be certified by him to the board of county commissioners, and shall be audited and paid out of the general fund of such county the same as costs in criminal actions before justices of the peace; provided, however, that if it shall appear in any such proceeding that the animal or animals destroyed have not been kept within the county where the proceedings are had for at least sixty days immediately prior to such order of destruction, then the costs of all proceedings hereunder shall be certified by the county auditor of the county wherein the proceedings took place to the state auditor, who shall issue a warrant on the state treasurer for the amount of the costs paid by the county in favor of the county auditor of such county, such warrant to be paid out of the general fund of the state for the purpose of reimbursing said county. [1913, ch. 175, § 9; 1907, ch. 170, § 3.]

§ 2735. Payments, when not made. The right of indemnity shall not exist and payment shall not be made in the following cases:

1st. For animals belonging to the United States or the state of North Dakota, or any city, county, township or village in the state.

2d. When the owner or claimant at the time of coming into possession of the animal or animals knew such animal or animals to be diseased with glanders or exposed to such disease.

3d. When the owner, his agent or claimant failed to make affidavit of the destruction and disposal of the carcass or carcasses before the justice of the peace as provided for in section 2730.

4th. For animals found to have been diseased at the time of their arrival in this state.

5th. For animals that are brought into the state to do contract work.

6th. When the animal or animals at the time of their destruction have been in the state less than six months.

7th. When the owner or owners shall have been guilty of negligence or willfully exposing his or their animal or animals to the influence of infected or contaminated surroundings.

8th. When the owner or claimant is not a resident of the state of North Dakota. [1913, ch. 175, § 10; 1907, ch. 170, § 4.]

§ 2736. Duty of the state board of equalization. It shall be the duty of the state board of equalization, at the time of the levy of the annual tax, to levy a special tax of one-tenth of one mill on the dollar upon the assessed valuation of all property in this state and when collected, paid into the hands of the state treasurer, who shall at once enter the same into a fund known as the glandered horse fund. Said fund shall be preserved inviolate for the payment of claims allowed for the destruction of glandered horses as provided in chapter 170 of the laws of 1907. [1911, ch. 144.]

See note to section 2731.

§ 2737. Testing for glanders. In addition to the powers now conferred by law the state live stock sanitary board is authorized and empowered to test or cause to be tested any and all horses, mules and asses which may have been exposed to glanders, and when requested to do so by the board of supervisors of any organized township or by the board of county commissioners, it shall then be the duty of the state live stock sanitary board to test or cause to be tested any of the horses, mules and asses in said organized township or any such county as shall be exposed to glanders or which such board of supervisors or county commissioners shall be (by) resolution request. [1913, ch. 206, § 1.]

§ 2738. Fees for testing. When any horses, mules and asses shall be tested as provided for in section 2737, the agent of the state live stock sanitary board shall be paid for his services in connection therewith such fees as may be determined by the state live stock sanitary board, provided that such fees shall not exceed five ($5) dollars per day and expenses actually incurred. [1913, ch. 206, § 2.]

mony, same to be audited and approved by the state live stock sanitary board and forwarded to the board of county commissioners in the county where said testing was performed, whereupon the board of county commissioners shall order warrants drawn by the county auditor for one-half the amount of said account and one-half of said account shall be paid out of the live stock sanitary board fund as provided for by law. [1913, ch. 206, § 3.]

§ 2740. Expenses, how paid; when appropriation insufficient. If the funds appropriated and available for the use of the live stock sanitary board have been exhausted or are insufficient to meet the expenses of carrying out the provisions of [this] act [sections 2737-2740], the owner of any exposed animals may have such animals tested under the direction of the live stock sanitary board and the expenses of such testing shall be borne jointly and in equal shares by the owner of the exposed animals and the county wherein said owner resides. The fees for such testing or examination shall not exceed the fee prescribed in section 2738. [1913, ch. 206, § 4.]

ARTICLE 20.—SHEEP INSPECTORS.

§ 2741. Appointment of sheep inspectors. Term of office. The county commissioners of any organized county shall, upon the presentation of a petition signed by ten wool growers of such county, appoint a sheep inspector who is acquainted with the diseases to which sheep are subject and who shall be a resident of the county for which he is appointed, and who shall hold his office for two years unless sooner removed. Such inspector may appoint as many deputies as he may deem necessary. [R. C. 1905, § 2031; 1891, ch. 116, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1630.]

§ 2742. Duties of sheep inspector. It shall be the duty of the sheep inspector, whenever he has knowledge or information that any sheep within his jurisdiction have the scab or any other malignant contagious diseases, to inspect such sheep and report in writing the result of his inspection to the district veterinarian, to be filed by him for reference by the county commissioners or any person concerned, and if such disease continues he shall once every four weeks thereafter reinspect such sheep and report in writing the result and treatment, if any, in the same manner until said disease is reported cured. [R. C. 1905, § 2032; 1891, ch. 116, § 2; R. C. 1895, § 1631.]

§ 2743. Duty of owner or agent of diseased flock. The owner, or his agent, of any sheep reported by the inspector to be so diseased shall immediately herd them so that they cannot range upon or within one mile of any grounds accustomed to be ranged upon by any other sheep, or shall restrain them from passing over or traveling upon or within one mile of any public highway or road, and in case this cannot be done he shall immediately remove said sheep to a locality where they shall not be permitted to range within less than five miles of any other sheep, and such sheep shall continue to be herded under such restrictions until, upon inspection, they shall be reported free from such disease. [R. C. 1905, § 2033; 1891, ch. 116, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 1632.]

§ 2744. Oath and bond of inspector, where recorded. Each inspector before entering upon the duties of his office shall take the oath of office required of other civil officers and shall give bond to the state of North Dakota in the sum of one thousand dollars with good sureties, conditioned that he will faithfully perform the duties of his office; such bond shall be approved by the board of county commissioners, and with the oath indorsed thereon shall be recorded in the office of the county auditor of the county in which the inspector shall reside and may be sued on by any person injured on account of the unfaithful performance of said inspector's duty; provided, that no suit shall be so instituted after more than twelve months have elapsed from the time the cause of action accrued. [R. C. 1905, § 2034; 1891, ch. 116, §§ 8, 9; R. C. 1899, § 1633.]

§ 2745. When infected sheep dipped. Penalty. Every owner of sheep having scab or other malignant contagious disease shall dip or otherwise treat the same upon his own premises; provided, that when he has more than one ranch or set of ranches and the diseased sheep are not upon the ranch where the dipping works or other facilities for treating the disease are situated, he shall have the right to drive through intermediate ranges, but in so doing shall consult the owners or occupants of said range as to where he shall cross the same, and in no case shall he enter another corral or water at his troughs or accustomed watering places with his diseased sheep without the written or otherwise expressed consent of the owner, and for every violation of the provisions herein he shall be subject to a fine of not exceeding one hundred dollars. [R. C. 1905, § 2035; 1891, ch. 116, § 10; R. C. 1899, § 1634.]

§ 2746. Salary of inspector, how paid. The inspector shall receive for his services five dollars per day while necessarily employed in inspecting, which shall be paid out of the county general fund in the same manner as other claims against the county are paid; but the board of county commissioners shall require such sheep inspector to present an itemized statement duly verified of the number of sheep inspected and the number of days actually employed in the performance of his official duties. [R. C. 1905, § 2036; 1891, ch. 116, § 11; R. C. 1895, § 1635.]

§ 2747. Power of inspectors. Five days' notice shall be given to the sheep inspectors by persons intending to bring sheep into any county in this state from another state for the purpose of grazing said sheep upon lands in this state, which notice shall state the place where such sheep are located and the nearest place to the line where the said sheep may be inspected. In all cases where scab or other contagious diseases are found in a flock of sheep, the sheep inspector is hereby empowered to prescribe what dip or other remedy shall be applied and specify the manner of treatment. [R. C. 1905, § 2037; 1891, ch. 116, § 12; R. C. 1899, § 1636; 1901, ch. 182.]

§ 2748. Duty of inspectors. It is hereby made the duty of sheep inspectors of this state to cause to be dipped all sheep that come into the state for the purpose of running upon or grazing on the lands of this state, which dipping shall be done under such rules and regulations as the sheep inspector may prescribe. And after said dipping the said inspector shall cause the sheep so dipped to be quarantined for not less than twenty days, or until the said sheep inspector shall be satisfied that the said sheep are entirely free from disease; provided, that this section shall not apply to sheep while on railway cars or in railway stock yards, accompanied by proper certificates of health and which sheep are not detained in the state more than sixty hours. [R. C. 1905, § 2038; 1897, ch. 130, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1636a; 1901, ch. 182.]

§ 2749. Compensation. For his services under the provisions of the foregoing section the inspector shall receive the same compensation as in other cases, which compensation, together with the costs of dipping, shall be a lien upon the sheep so inspected and dipped and shall be collectible as such in an action before any court of competent jurisdiction. But where the owner is a resident of this state importing such animals for breeding purposes or the ordinary purpose of husbandry and has notified the district veterinarian of the time and place where the same may be inspected, as well as the place where such animals are to be dipped, and they are found free from any infectious or contagious disease, the inspection shall be made free of fee, mileage or per diem to the owner. [R. C. 1905, § 2039; 1897, ch. 130, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 1636b.]

§ 2750. Owners must notify inspectors. In all cases where sheep are brought into any county of this state the owner or person in charge of said sheep shall notify the inspector of the date of the arrival in said county and before being allowed to mingle with other sheep shall be quarantined for a period of not less than forty days, in a location approved of by the sheep inspector of said county; provided, however, where sheep have been ranged for not less than forty days near the county line of the county to which said sheep are to be removed and are known to be free from disease, the provisions of this section shall not apply. [R. C. 1905, § 2040; 1891, ch. 116, § 13; R. C. 1899, § 1637.]

§ 2751. Penalty for violation of. The owner, or his agent or employes, of any flock of sheep to be inspected shall afford the inspector all reasonable facilities for making such inspection, and for every violation of any of the provisions of this article such owner or his agent or employes shall be fined not less than ten dollars nor more than three hundred dollars, and every separate day's offense shall constitute a separate offense, and the written report of an offense made by an inspector under oath shall be prima facie evidence of the commission of such offense, and any justice of the peace of the county in which the offense is committed shall have jurisdiction thereof, and such inspector shall report all violations of the provisions of this article, of which he has knowledge. [R. C. 1905, § 2041; 1885, ch. 135, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 1638.]

§ 2752. Record of official acts of inspector. Every inspector shall keep a fair and correct record of all his official acts, and if required give a certified copy of any record upon payment of the fees therefor, and in case of the inspector's death, resignation or removal said record shall be deposited with the register of deeds. [R. C. 1905, § 2042; 1885, ch. 135, § 8; R. C. 1899, § 1639.]

§ 2753. Fine for false report of inspector. Whenever a sheep inspector shall willfully or falsely report any sheep subject to disease, he shall be subject to a fine of ten times the amount of the fees charged by him for the inspection, and if he shall willfully or falsely report free from disease any sheep inspected by him that are thus infected, he shall be subject to a penalty of not exceeding three hundred dollars for each offense. [R. C. 1905, § 2043; 1885, ch. 135, § 11; R. C. 1899, § 1640.]

§ 2754. Removal of inspector. Cause. If any sheep inspector shall be found guilty of either of the offenses set forth in the last section, or if on complaint in writing by any three wool growers of the county the county commissioners, after allowing the inspector a fair hearing, shall be of opinion that he is incompetent to discharge intelligently and efficiently the duties of his office, or that having sufficient knowledge or information he has for any cause willfully or negligently failed to make the required inspection, or has needlessly made inspections for the purpose of securing fees, or that his reports have been influenced by favors or prejudice, or from any cause he has failed in the proper discharge of the duties of his office, it shall be the duty of the commissioners to declare such office vacant and to make a new appointment. [R. C. 1905, § 2044; 1885, ch. 135, § 12; R. C. 1899, § 1641.]

ARTICLE 21.—LIVE STOCK INSPECTION.

§ 2755. Appointment of inspector. Whenever the board of county commissioners in any county are petitioned so to do by at least ten per cent of the voters of their county, as evidenced by the number of votes cast for congressman at the last general election, they may appoint the sheriff of their county as live stock inspector, and when so appointed, the said sheriff shall perform the duties and receive the compensation therefor as hereinafter prescribed by this article. [R. C. 1905, § 2045; 1901, ch. 121, § 1; 1903, ch. 121, § 1.]

§ 2756. Inspection before shipping. It shall be the duty of said stock inspector to inspect all horses of which he has knowledge are about to be loaded for shipment, or to be driven or shipped out of the county in which he resides, to any other point within the state or to a point outside of the state, before the same is shipped. [R. C. 1905, § 2046; 1901, ch. 121, § 2; 1903, ch. 121, § 2.]

§ 2757. Record of inspection. Said inspector shall make and keep a record in his office in a book expressly for that purpose, which record shall be open to the public and shall contain: First, the marks and brands upon each of said animals; second, if no marks or brands appear thereon, he shall take a general description of the same; third, the owner of said horses, if ascertainable, and if not, he shall so state in his record; fourth, the person in whose name said horses are shipped; fifth, the name of the person in charge of the same; and, sixth, the point of destination, together with such other information as may assure the inspector that the person shipping or driving is the owner, or has lawful right to ship or drive the same. If the inspector shall be satisfied from his inspection that the person shipping or driving said horses is the owner or has lawful right to ship or drive the same, he shall, on payment of the fees hereinafter prescribed, give to such person a permit to ship or drive the same, which permit shall be in writing, and shall set forth the number and description of the animals. [R. C. 1905, § 2047; 1901, ch. 121, § 3; 1903, ch. 121, § 3.]

§ 2758. Unlawful to ship without permit. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to cause to be shipped or driven, any horses from any county in this state to any other county therein, or to a point without said state, without such person or persons first notifying the said stock inspector of the proposed shipment or driving, and request that an inspection of the animals to be shipped or driven be made, and until the permit shall have been issued, as specified in this article, no railway or transportation company shall ship any such stock. But the said stock inspector may at his discretion issue a written permit to drive horses from one county to another within this state without any personal inspection or fees. [R. C. 1905, § 2048; 1901, ch. 121, § 4; 1903, ch. 121, § 4.]

§ 2759. Inspector's fees. The said stock inspector shall be entitled to demand and collect as fees for inspection, ten cents per head for each horse; and he is hereby given a lien upon said animals for such inspection fees and mileage at the rate of ten cents per mile for each mile actually traveled in going to and returning from the place of inspection. [R. C. 1905, § 2049; 1901, ch. 121, § 5; 1903, ch. 121, § 5.]

§ 2760. Penalty. Any person who shall ship any horses from any county in this state without having first procured the inspection of said stock and received a permit authorizing said shipment, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than two hundred dollars, or imprisonment in the county jail for not less than thirty days nor more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. [R. C. 1905, § 2050; 1901, ch. 121, § 6; 1903, ch. 121, § 6.]

ARTICLE 22.—REGULATION OF HEALTH CERTIFICATES OF LIVE STOCK.

§ 2760a. Health certificate. Who may issue. That each and every person who issues a health certificate for live stock of any class in transit entering the state or within the state or before shipment out of the state, without being duly authorized to issue such health certificates by the state live stock sanitary board or by the United States department of agriculture shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. [1911, ch. 180, § 1.]

§ 2760b. Penalty. Each and every person violating the provision of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five ($25) dollars or more than one hundred ($100) dollars or by imprisonment of not less than ten days or more than thirty days in the county jail. [1911, ch. 180, § 2.]

ARTICLE 23.—HEALTH CERTIFICATE FOR PURE-BRED CATTLE.

§ 2761. Certificate of health of pure-bred cattle required. All persons selling pure-bred cattle, or cattle represented to be pure bred, for breeding purposes shall, before delivery, make a report to the state live stock sanitary board on blanks furnished by the board on application, stating the number of cattle sold, their age and sex, and to whom sold, and before delivery thereof such cattle shall be tested with tuberculin, and if found free from disease a certificate of health shall be given by said live stock sanitary board, or some person duly authorized by the live stock sanitary board, to the seller and purchaser, provided that no such certificate shall be required in case the cattle so sold shall have been tuberculin tested and found free from disease within one year, under the direction of the live stock sanitary board and the laws of this state, and a certificate of health granted by said live stock sanitary board within that time, provided further that no certificate shall be required for animals under six months of age. [1913, ch. 205, § 1.]

§ 2762. Penalty for violation of law. Any person who shall sell or dispose of any pure-bred cow or bull for breeding purposes without furnishing a certificate of health as provided for in section 2761 shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five ($25) dollars or more than five hundred dollars ($500), or by imprisonment not less than thirty (30) days nor more than ninety (90) days. [1913, ch. 205, § 2.]

ARTICLE 24.—ADMISSION OF LIVE STOCK INTO THE STATE.

§ 2762a. Horses, mares, mules and asses. All horses, mares, mules and asses being imported into the state of North Dakota must be accompanied by health certificates including mallein test certificates certifying that animals have been examined and mallein tested within thirty days prior to date of shipment and found free from all contagious and infectious disease; also all stallions imported into North Dakota must also be accompanied by certificate that said animal is free from any infectious, contagious, transmissible disease or unsoundness, as specified in section 3, chapter 161, session laws of 1909. [1911, ch. 181, § 1.]

"Section 3, chapter 161, session laws of 1909," has been twice amended and re-enacted and in its present form is section 2765 herein.

§ 2762b. Cattle. All cattle imported into the state of North Dakota for dairy, breeding and feeding purposes must be accompanied by a certificate of health, and in case of cattle for dairy and breeding purposes a certificate certifying that such animals over six months of age have been tuberculin tested within thirty days prior to shipment and found free from tuberculosis and all other contagious and infectious disease. [1911, ch. 181, § 2.]

§ 2762c. Sheep. All sheep imported into the state of North Dakota must be accompanied by certificate of health specifically indicating that they are free from scabies and lip and leg ulcerations and have not been exposed thereto within thirty days prior to shipment, and also free from any indications of any contagious or infectious disease. [1911, ch. 181, § 3.]

§ 2762d. Swine. All swine imported into the state of North Dakota must be accompanied by certificate of health stating that no infectious swine disease exists or has existed in the locality from which said shipment originated within a period of six months save where swine are certified by a duly accredited federal or state veterinarian as having been immunized by the Dorset-McBride-Niles hog cholera serum; then such swine shall be admitted without hindrance and upon the above specified certificate only.

All swine imported into the state of North Dakota for exhibition purposes at state or county fairs must be accompanied by certificate stating that such swine have been immunized by the Dorset-McBride-Niles hog cholera serum, prepared or approved by the United States department of agriculture. To prospective exhibitors from the state of North Dakota the required amount of serum will be furnished free of charge upon application to the live stock sanitary board. [1911, ch. 181, § 4.]

§ 2762e. Cattle, swine and sheep for immediate slaughter. In such cases where shipments of cattle, swine and sheep are for immediate slaughter at any point within the state of North Dakota where no inspection is maintained by federal or state authorities, then a declaration shall accompany the shipment stating such animals are for immediate slaughter. [1911, ch. 181, § 5.]

§ 2762f. Tests. All certificates of health, tuberculin and mallein tests shall be made and signed by a federal, state or deputy state veterinarian or graduate veterinarian whose inspections are endorsed by officers in charge of live stock sanitary work in state where inspection is made. All mallein and tuberculin tests shall be made by federal, state or deputy state veterinarians. Such tests shall consist of three anti-injection temperatures at intervals of not less than two and longer than three hours apart, and not less than five post-injection temperatures two hours apart commencing not to exceed ten hours after time of injection and up to the twentieth hour after injection. [1911, ch. 181, § 6.]

§ 2762g. Serums. All serums used, tuberculin, mallein and hog cholera serums, in conducting tuberculin or mallein tests and immunization for hog cholera shall be manufactured or approved by the United States bureau of animal industry. [1911, ch. 181, § 7.]

§ 2762h. Health certificates and test charts. All certificates must be made on official forms of the state in which shipment originated certifying to the aforesaid inspections and tests, said certificates to be attached to way-bill and accompany shipment to destination, and the test charts must be immediately mailed to the state veterinarian of this state. The owners of stock should also have a copy of certificate to be shown on demand of any state or federal official. [1911, ch. 181, § 8.]

§ 2762i. Penalty. Any one violating the provisions of this article or any rule or regulation made by the live stock sanitary board shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars or more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment not less than thirty days nor more than ninety days. [1911, ch. 181, § 9.]

ARTICLE 25.—STALLION REGISTRATION.

§ 2763. Licenses. Definition. No person, firm, company or corporation, shall stand or travel for profit or gain any stallion or jack to be mated with any mare other than mares owned by the owner of such stallion or jack, or sell, offer for sale, exchange or transfer, any stallion or jack to be used for the above purposes, unless and until the owner of such stallion or jack shall have caused the name, description and pedigree of such stallion or jack to be enrolled by the stallion registration board, which board is provided for in section 2 of said chapter 161 of the Session Laws of 1909 [section 2764 herein].

The word "stallion" whenever used in this article shall be construed to include the term "jack" as well. [1913, ch. 273, § 1; 1911, ch. 279, § 1; 1909, ch. 161, § 1.]

§ 2764. Stallion registration board, how composed. Duties. Compensation. In order to carry out the provisions of this article, there shall be constituted a stallion registration board, whose duty it shall be to verify and register all pedigrees, and to provide the necessary inspection; to issue stallion license certificates; to make all necessary rules and regulations, and to perform such other duties as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this article. Said board shall hold its meetings at the agricultural college; these meetings not to exceed four in number each year; providing that the president of the board has power to call special meetings whenever in his judgment it becomes necessary. The members of the board shall receive as compensation for their services the sum of three dollars per day for each day employed, and five cents per mile actually and necessarily traveled in attending the meetings of the board, which sum shall be paid out of the state treasury upon vouchers of the board, duly certified by the president and secretary thereof. The stallion registration board shall be composed of the professor of animal husbandry of the state agricultural college, who shall be ex-officio secretary and executive officer of this board; the professor of veterinary science of the state agricultural college; the state commissioner of agriculture and labor; the president of the state live stock sanitary board, and the president of the North Dakota live stock association. [1909, ch. 161, § 2.]

See appropriation with provision regulating payment of bills against the same in section 653g.

§ 2765. Veterinary inspection and verification of breeding, standard for verifying pedigree. In order for the owner of a stallion to secure the license herein provided for, the stallion must pass a veterinary examination as herein provided for, and be free from all infectious, contagious or transmissible disease or unsoundness. The owner of such stallion must also furnish to the stallion registration board, the stud book registry certificate or pedigree of the stallion, and all necessary papers relating to the breeding and ownership of such stallion. Upon verification of pedigree and certificate of breeding, in case of pure bred, grade and cross bred stallions, provided the stallion has passed the necessary veterinary inspection, as provided for in this article, a license certificate shall be issued by said board. The presence of any one or more of the following named diseases shall disqualify a stallion from public service and the following named diseases are hereby defined as infectious, contagious, or transmissible diseases and unsoundness for this act: cataract, amaurosis, laryngeal hemiplegia (roaring or whistling), string halt, glanders, sidebone, farcy, maladie du coit, urethral gleet, mange, bone spavin, ringbone and curb when accompanied by curby hock. The stallion registration board shall refuse certificate of enrollment to any stallion affected with any of these diseases specified, and shall revoke a previously issued license certificate of any stallion found upon examination to be so affected.

Provided, however, that in event a pure bred stallion, previously licensed, is found upon re-inspection at the stated time as provided for in section 10 of chapter 161 of the Session Laws of 1909 [section 2772 herein], to be affected with any unsoundness or disease indicated in this section, the stallion registration board may grant the owner or owners of said stallion a license on condition that the result of the veterinary examination be expressed in the license. Said unsoundness to be set in black face type of a size not smaller than the type used in the body of the license. The owner or owners of any grade, scrub or mongrel stallion found to be affected with any unsoundness or disease specified herein on the re-inspection provided for in said section 10 of chapter 161 of the Session Laws of 1909 [section 2772 herein], shall be refused a license certificate.

The stallion registration board or its authorized agents shall recognize as pure bred and registered only such stallions as have been recorded in some stud book, the standing and merit of which has been approved, passed upon and placed upon a recognized list by the stallion registration board. [1913, ch. 273, § 2; 1911, ch. 279, § 2; 1909, ch. 161, § 3.]

§ 2766. Examination of stallions, methods, etc. The veterinary examination of the stallions provided for in this article must be done by a qualified graduate veterinarian who shall be in the employ of the stallion registration board. The stallion must be brought for examination to the nearest point where the inspector will be stationed on specified dates. The stallion owner must be given at least ten days' notice of the dates when the inspector will be at specified towns of the county, in which the owner of the stallion resides. The inspector must not make known the results of the inspection of a stallion to the owner, at the time of inspection, but report to the secretary of the stallion registration board, who will notify the owner at the time he grants or refuses to grant him a license certificate for his horse. [1909, ch. 161, § 4.]

§ 2767. Method of caring for protests. Whenever a stallion has been rejected by the stallion registration board and the owner is not satisfied with the decision of the members of said board, the owner may file with said board a protest accompanied by a deposit of twenty-five dollars, either in currency or a certified draft, against the decision of said board or its official inspector, and a sworn statement from a qualified, graduate veterinarian, stating that he has examined the stallion in question and found said stallion free from the unsoundness or disease for which said stallion was previously refused a license certificate; whereupon an examination of the stallion shall be made by three experts, one expert to be appointed by the stallion registration board, one by the owner of the stallion, and the third to be chosen by the other two experts already appointed, but all such experts shall be graduates of recognized veterinary schools. In case all three or any two of the experts declare the stallion eligible to receive a license, then the expense of the consultation shall be paid by the stallion registration board out of funds as provided for in section 12 of chapter 161 of the Session Laws of 1909 [section 2774 herein]; or if three or any two of the experts declare the stallion to be ineligible in accordance with the provisions of this article, the expense incurred shall be paid out of the deposit as herein provided for, any part remaining thereof to be returned to said owner. [1913, ch. 273, § 3; 1911, ch. 279, § 3; 1909, ch. 161, § 5.]

§ 2769. Posting copies of license certificates. The owner of any stallion standing for public service in this state shall post and keep affixed during the entire breeding season copies of the license certificates of such stallion, issued under the provisions of this article, in a conspicuous place upon the main door leading into every stable or building where the said stallion stands for public service. Said copies shall be printed in bold face and conspicuous types, not smaller than pica, especially the word "pure bred," "grade," etc. [1909, ch. 161, § 7.]

§ 2770. Form of license certificates. The license certificate to be issued a pure bred stallion shall be in the following form:

STALLION REGISTRATION BOARD.

Signed

Professor of Animal Husbandry and Secretary Stallion Registration Board.

[1911, ch. 279, § 4; 1909, ch. 161, § 8.]

§ 2771. Advertisement must contain copy of license. Every bill, poster or advertisement issued by the owner of any stallion licensed under this act, or used by him for advertising such stallion, shall contain a copy of his license certificate and shall not contain illustrations, pedigrees or other matter that is untruthful or misleading. [1909, ch. 161, § 9.]

§ 2772. Fees for granting license and inspection. A fee not exceeding two dollars shall be paid to the secretary of the stallion registration board for the examination and enrollment of each pedigree and the issuance of a license certificate in accordance with the breeding of the stallions as above provided. A fee not exceeding one dollar shall be paid annually for the renewal of pedigree certificate and service license. A fee of five dollars shall also be paid for the veterinary examination of the stallion as provided in this article. This fee shall be collected by the inspector at the time the inspection is made. Stallions shall be examined every three years until ten years of age, and after the first examination they shall be exempt from re-examination if they are ten years of age or over. [1909, ch. 161, § 10.]

§ 2773. Fee for transfer of license. Upon a transfer of the ownership of any licensed stallion under the provisions of this article, the license certificate may be transferred by the secretary of this board to the transferee upon submittal of satisfactory proof of such transfer of ownership upon payment of fifty cents. [1909, ch. 161, § 11.]

§ 2774. How expenses are provided for. Board makes annual report to governor. The funds accruing from the above named fees shall be used by the stallion registration board to defray the expenses of enrollment of pedigrees and issuances of licenses; to pay for the services and expenses of the veterinary inspector; to publish reports or bulletins containing lists of stallions examined; to encourage the horse breeding interests of this state, to disseminate information pertaining to horse breeding, and for any other purpose as may be necessary to carry out the purposes and enforce the provisions of this article. It shall be the duty of this board to make annual report, including a financial statement, to the governor of the state, and all financial records of said board shall be subject to inspection at any time by the public examiner. [1909, ch. 161, § 12.]

As to the time and contents of the report to the governor, see sections 95, 97, 98, 633.

See appropriation for expenses of trustees or members of stallion registration board in section 653g.

§ 2775. Procedure to obtain lien, penalty and foreclosure. The owner of any stallion who shall have complied with all of the provisions of this law, shall have a lien upon the offspring and upon the mare served, upon filing at any time within twelve months after the service, in the office of the register of deeds of the county in which said mare was kept at the time of service, a statement of the account thereof, together with a description of the mare served. Such lien shall exist for a period of one year from the filing of such statement, and shall have priority over all other liens or incumbrances upon the offspring; such lien shall attach at the time of service of such stallion and shall not be lost by reason of the sale, exchange or removal from the county in which such mare was kept at the time of service, or other disposition without the consent of the person holding the lien.

Every person having in his possession or under his control any mare and offspring upon which there is known to him to be an existing lien for the service of a stallion as provided for herein, who removes from the county, conceals, sells, or in any manner disposes of, otherwise than as prescribed by law, such mare or offspring without the consent of the holder of such lien, is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in a sum not less than twenty-five dollars and not more than fifty dollars.

At any time after the filing of such lien when the amount therein specified shall have become due, the lien may be enforced by a sale of property covered thereby, upon the notice and in the manner provided for the foreclosure of mortgages upon personal property, and costs and fees for such foreclosure shall be the same as provided for in section 8132. [1913, ch. 273, § 4; 1911, ch. 279, § 5; 1909, ch. 161, § 13.]

§ 2776. Penalty for violation of law. Violation of any of the provisions of this act shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars for each offense. [1909, ch. 161, § 14.]

"This act" consists of sections 2763-2775, and 2777, but not of sections 2778 and 2779, these latter being first enacted in 1913.

§ 2777. Power over and of peace officers. The stallion registration board shall have power to call any sheriff, deputy sheriff or constable to execute its orders, and officers shall obey the orders of said board, and the officers performing such duties shall receive compensation therefor as is prescribed by law for like services, and shall be paid therefor in like manner. Any officer may arrest or take before any justice of the peace of the county any person found violating any provision of this act, and such officers shall immediately notify the state's attorney of such arrest and he shall prosecute the person so offending according to law. [1909, ch. 161, § 15.]

As to what constitutes "this act," see note to section 2776.

§ 2778. Mongrel and scrubs not to be licensed after January first, 1916. It is hereby provided that after January first, 1916, no scrub or mongrel stallion shall be enrolled and licensed as provided in chapter 161 of the Session Laws of 1909, as amended by chapter 279 of the Session Laws of 1911 and amendments thereto. All licenses for mongrel or scrub stallions issued before that date shall be continued in force if properly renewed, however providing the said stallions meet the requirements provided for by such law. [1913, ch. 273, § 5.]

"Chapter 161 of the Session Laws of 1909, as amended by chapter 279 of the Session Laws of 1911 and amendments thereto" constitute sections 2763-2777.

ARTICLE 26.—DIPPING TANKS.

This article constitutes article 20 of chapter 24 of the Political Code in the Revised Codes of 1905. "A district veterinarian" is mentioned in sections 2780, 2781 and 2785 herein, although it is considered that there is now no officer bearing the title. See note under the title to article 16 immediately preceding section 2678 herein. The existence of a "district veterinarian" has not been recognized in any legislation subsequent to that found in article 20 of the Revised Codes of 1905 as above cited. But as none of the sections in that article has been expressly amended or expressly repealed they are retained in this compilation.

§ 2780. Established, how. Cost, how paid. In any county of the state on the presentation of a petition signed by at least ten per cent of the freeholders of said county, to the board of county commissioners of such county, petitioning for the establishment and construction of public dipping stations for live stock within such county, the board of county commissioners of such county shall within ninety days from the presentation of such petition proceed to establish and construct under the supervision of the district veterinarian in whose district such stations may be located, public dipping stations at convenient places within such county. The cost of such stations shall be paid from the general fund, and warrants drawn on the county treasurer for such work shall be paid only when signed by the county auditor and approved by the board of county commissioners of such county. In the construction of such dipping stations it shall be the duty of the county commissioners to make the work co-operative among farmers or live stock owners as far as possible, and give to the farmers or live stock owners credit against dipping charges for necessary labor performed, it being the purpose of this article to have this work done in the most efficient manner by those most interested in maintaining a good standard of health in the flocks and herds of the community interested, at the least expense; which cost shall be paid from the general funds of such county. [R. C. 1905, § 2051; 1905, ch. 96, § 1.]

§ 2782. Commissioners shall levy dipping fee pro rata. The board of county commissioners shall, in their discretion, levy a dipping fee pro rata, in no case to exceed the actual cost to the county, for material and labor used in constructing and operating such station. [R. C. 1905, § 2053; 1905, ch. 96, § 3.]

§ 2783. Fees chargeable against owner of stock. Lien on animals. The fee for dipping such animals shall be charged against the owner, agent or person in charge of such animals, and, together with the cost of seizure and the expense of holding thereof, become a lien upon such animals, and if not paid within five days from the dipping of such animals, the same shall be foreclosed by the sheriff of such county, the same as any other lien upon personal property. All fees collected under this article shall be paid in to the county treasurer and placed in the general fund. [R. C. 1905, § 2054; 1905, ch. 96, § 4.]

§ 2784. Formula of U. S. bureau of animal industry to be used for dipping solution. The dipping solution used in operating such station or stations shall be in accordance with the rules and formulas adopted by the United States bureau of animal industry. [R. C. 1905, § 2055; 1905, ch. 96, § 5.]

§ 2785. Duty of district veterinarian. The district veterinarian, acting with the board of county commissioners of such county, or the person by them designated to oversee and superintend such dipping station or stations and the dipping thereat, shall, at the completion of such dipping and the payment of the fees hereunder charged, issue a certificate to the owner, agent or person in charge of such animals, certifying to such dipping, which certificate must contain the date of such dipping, the number and kind of such animals so dipped, the formula of the solution used in such dipping thereunto attached, stating the amount of fees so charged and collected for such dipping. [R. C. 1905, § 2056; 1905, ch. 96, § 6.]

ARTICLE 27.—LIVE STOCK ASSOCIATION.

§ 2786. Appropriation. Duty of commissioner of agriculture. The sum of five hundred dollars is hereby appropriated annually out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated for the use and benefit of the North Dakota live stock association. Said association shall publish an annual report of its proceedings together with such information as may be of general interest to its members, keep and publish a directory of all reliable breeders of pure bred live stock who are members of said association and promote the interests of owners and breeders of live stock in general. The appropriation herein mentioned shall be expended under the direction of the commissioner of agriculture, who shall publish and distribute information furnished by the live stock association to an extent not exceeding this appropriation. [1907, ch. 171.]

ARTICLE 28.—LIVE STOCK PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATION.

§ 2787. County live stock protective fund, how raised and expended. In any county in this state having a regular organized live stock protective association composed of residents of the county, the county commissioners of such county may, upon being petitioned by at least five per cent of the personal property taxpayers of said county, appropriate and set aside an amount annually not exceeding two thousand dollars out of the general fund of the county into a special fund, to be known as the county live stock protective fund, to be expended and used for the protection of live stock from theft. [R. C. 1905, § 2057; 1905, ch. 80, § 1.]

§ 2788. Petition, contents of. Such petition may be presented and acted upon at any regular meeting of the board of county commissioners, and must be accompanied with a roll of the membership of the county live stock protective association, together with the name and post office address of its secretary and treasurer and the name of the association, which association shall be the only one that the county commissioners shall recognize in connection with the disbursement of the appropriation herein provided for. [R. C. 1905, § 2058; 1905, ch. 80, § 2.]

§ 2789. Annual report. Reimbursement. Annually at the regular January meeting of the board of county commissioners, the county live stock protective association shall file with the board of county commissioners of their county an itemized report, showing the expenditures of the association for the preceding year, which report shall be verified by its secretary and treasurer, and which report shall be accompanied by the original voucher in each item of expenditure. The county commissioners shall then proceed to classify the expenditures of the association, and ascertain the amount which the association has actually expended in the apprehension of live stock thieves, and shall then reimburse the association to the extent of such expenditures, which amount, however, must not exceed the amount then in the special fund herein created for that purpose. [R. C. 1905, § 2059; 1905, ch. 80, § 3.]

§ 2790. Appropriation made part of general tax levy. At the time of making the annual tax levy and in estimating the amount of the expenses for general county purposes, the amount of the appropriation herein provided for may be made a part of said estimate and levy. [R. C. 1905, § 2060; 1905, ch. 80, § 4.]

ARTICLE 29.—PRAIRIE FIRES.

§ 2791. Prairie fires forbidden. If any person shall set or cause to be set on fire any woods, marsh or prairie, or any grass or stubble lands, except in the months of July or August, except as hereinafter provided, such person shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in a sum not less than ten nor more than one thousand dollars, and be imprisoned in the county jail for a period not exceeding six months, or either or both, at the discretion of the court, and shall also be liable in a civil action to any person damaged by such fire to the amount of such damage. [R. C. 1905, § 2061; Pen. C. 1877, ch. 60, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1654.]

Liability for setting fires which spread to property of others. 21 L.R.A. 255; 36 L.R.A. (N.S.) 194.

§ 2792. Fire permitted, when. For the purpose of destroying any grass or stubble that may be on any piece of land at the time any person commences to break or plow the same, it shall be lawful for such person to set the same on fire at any time in the year; provided, that at the time of setting such grass or stubble on fire there shall be a strip of land well plowed or burned over at least fifty feet in width completely encompassing the place where such fire is set. [R. C. 1905, § 2062; Pen. C. 1877, ch. 60, § 2; R. C. 1899, 1655.]

§ 2793. Accidental damages. If any fire, set as provided in the last section, shall by accident and without any fault or neglect of the person setting the same, get beyond his control, such person shall be liable as provided in section 2791, for all damages done by such fire, but not otherwise. But if such fire is carelessly, negligently or intentionally permitted to spread beyond the bounds of such strip of land mentioned in the last section, then the person setting such fire shall be liable both civilly and criminally, as provided in section 2791. [R. C. 1905, § 2063; Pen. C. 1877, ch. 60, § 3; R. C. 1895, § 1656.]

§ 2794. Grasshopper destruction. It shall be lawful for any person at any time between the twentieth day of April and the twentieth day of June, to set on fire, for the purpose of destroying grasshoppers, any marshes, prairies, grass or stubble lands, owned or occupied by him, or any marshes, prairies, grass or stubble lands adjacent thereto; provided, that the person desiring to set such fire shall give at least twenty-four hours' notice to all persons residing within one and a half miles of the place where the fire is to be set, and shall state at the time of giving such notice the time when and place where such fire will be set. Such person shall take all necessary precaution before the setting of such fire, to prevent damage by the same. [R. C. 1905, § 2064; Pen. C. 1877, ch. 60, § 4; R. C. 1895, § 1657.]

§ 2796. Penalty for violation. Any person violating the provisions of the last section shall be liable in a civil action to any person damaged by such fire to the amount of such damage; and in case any person shall negligently, carelessly, willfully, maliciously or intentionally violate the provisions of the last section, such person shall be liable both civilly and criminally the same as though he had violated the provisions of section 2791. [R. C. 1905, § 2066; Pen. C. 1877, ch. 60, § 6; R. C. 1899, § 1659.]

§ 2797. Penalty for setting fire to woods or prairies. If any person shall willfully, negligently or carelessly set or cause to be set on fire any woods, marsh or prairie in this state, or if any person having made any camp or other fire, shall leave such fire without having thoroughly extinguished the same, so that the fire shall spread and burn any wood, marsh or prairie, the persons guilty of setting or causing to be set such fire or leaving such camp or other fire without having thoroughly extinguished the same, so that the fire shall not spread therefrom, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof is punishable by a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by both in the discretion of the court, and shall also be liable in a civil action to any person damaged by such fire to the amount of such damage. [R. C. 1905, § 2067; 1881, ch. 106, § 1; 1887, ch. 123, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1660.]

§ 2798. Responsibility for damages of person setting fire. If the ranch, building, improvements, fences, timber, marsh or other property of any person shall be injured or destroyed by any such fire, the person who causes or allows the same shall be responsible to the person injured thereby for all damage or injury caused or sustained by reason of such fire. If the cattle range or improvements of any person are injured or destroyed by any such fire, or if the hay upon any such range or the grass growing thereon shall be injured as aforesaid, the person causing or allowing the same shall be responsible to the person owning or claiming the same and injured thereby, for all the damage or injury caused or sustained by reason of any such fire. [R. C. 1905, § 2068; 1881, ch. 106, §§ 2, 3; R. C. 1895, § 1661.]

§ 2799. Proof necessary to sustain claim for damages. In any action instituted in any court to recover damages under the provisions of the foregoing section, it shall not be necessary for the person injured by such fire to allege or prove on the trial of such action, title to the real property over which such fire has spread, but it shall be sufficient in any such action to allege and prove that the person so injured was in the occupancy or possession of such ranch, building, improvement, fencing, timber or other property, claiming the right to and occupying with cattle any such cattle range, it being the purpose and intention to protect the possession as aforesaid, whether such person has title to such land or not. [R. C. 1905, § 2069; 1881, ch. 106, § 4; R. C. 1895, § 1662.]

§ 2801. County divided into districts. Whenever a petition signed by at least ten per centum of the qualified electors of any county in this state as determined by the vote for governor at the last preceding general election is presented to the board of county commissioners of any such county, such board of county commissioners shall, at the time of levying other taxes, in each year, levy an amount not exceeding five mills on the dollar upon all taxable property in the county, for the purpose of making fire breaks in said county in each year, which sum shall constitute and be known as the fire break fund, and said board of county commissioners shall from time to time divide the county into as many districts as may in its judgment be necessary, and each district so formed shall be known and designated as fire district No.; and said board of county commissioners may, in their discretion, appoint a suitable person, residing in each of said districts, as fire warden thereof, who shall carry out all instructions of said board in said district in reference to the making of fire breaks and the prevention of the spread of prairie fires, which fire warden shall be paid such sum as may be fixed by said board, not exceeding three dollars per day for each day actually employed in the discharge of his duties. Such fire warden shall take and subscribe the official oath and shall file a bond in the sum of five hundred dollars with at least two good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the said board, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of such fire warden. All fire breaks made under the provisions hereof shall be made in each year at as early a date as possible, with a view to the most efficient protection of property from prairie fires. [R. C. 1905, § 2071; 1899, ch. 122; R. C. 1899, § 1664.]

§ 2802. Fire breaks. The fire warden shall have the right, and it shall be his duty when ordered to do so by the board of county commissioners, to give notice by public advertisement that bids will be received for the making of fire breaks in the district designated in said advertisement, and specifying where and how said fire break shall be made. It shall be the duty of said fire warden to let to the lowest bidder the making of such fire break; provided, if in the judgment of the board of county commissioners, all of the bids for the making of said fire breaks are too high to justify the making of the same, then all such bids shall be rejected and the proposal for bids again published. [R. C. 1905, § 2072; 1897, ch. 80; R. C. 1899, § 1665.]

§ 2803. When fire break to be made. All fire breaks made for the protection of ranges in this state shall be made not later than June twentieth of each year, and the grass between the strips of ground shall be burned not later than September. [R. C. 1905, § 2073; 1897, ch. 80; R. C. 1899, § 1666.]

§ 2804. Districts, how mapped out. The county commissioners may use their discretion and take advantage of any creek, river or other natural or artificial barrier to prairie fires and of broken or plowed fields and may in their judgment map out each of said fire districts in any form so that when the fire guards are made upon their instructions, as hereinbefore provided for, a prairie fire may be confined to the smallest possible area consistent with the amount of funds available. [R. C. 1905, § 2074; 1899, ch. 122; R. C. 1899, § 1667.]

§ 2805. Legal fire break. A legal fire break shall consist of a strip of land two hundred feet wide, plowed on either side and burned out inside the plowing. Before any person who shall receive the contract to make any fire breaks in this state shall receive any compensation therefor, the work performed by him shall be inspected by a committee of three persons appointed by the board of county commissioners, whose duty it shall be to report to the county commissioners the manner in which such fire break has been constructed, and whether or not the same complies with the contract for making the same. [R. C. 1905, § 2075; 1897, ch. 80; R. C. 1899, § 1668.]

§ 2806. When prairie may be set on fire. For the purpose of making a fire guard it shall be lawful to set on fire a strip of prairie not exceeding one hundred feet in width, which shall be protected on each side by a strip of plowing or burning not less than five feet wide, and at such burning there shall not be less than four men present prepared with water and suitable appliances to keep such fire under control. [R. C. 1905, § 2076; 1891, ch. 93, § 7; R. C. 1899, § 1669.]

§ 2807. Railroad companies to burn weeds. It is the duty of each railroad company within this state whose railroad is operated by steam power, as soon as possible in each year to burn or otherwise destroy all grass, weeds or other combustible matter upon the right of way of such company. ARTICLE 30.—PROMOTION OF ANATOMICAL SCIENCE.

§ 2809. Bodies of deceased persons buried at public expense given to physicians and surgeons, when. Superintendents of penitentiaries, hospitals, insane asylums and poor houses, coroners, sheriffs, jailers, city and county undertakers and all other state, county, town and city officials who shall have custody of any body of any deceased person required to be buried at public expense, shall give permission to any physician or surgeon who is a licentiate of the state board of medical examiners, or to any medical school or college, public or private, of any city, town or county within this state, upon his or their request therefor, to receive and remove free of charge or expense, after having given proper notice to the relatives or guardians of the deceased, the bodies of such deceased persons to be buried at public expense, to be by him or them used within the state for advancement of anatomical knowledge and medical science, preference being given to medical colleges or schools, public or private, such bodies to be distributed to, and among the same equitably — the number assigned to each being in proportion to the students of each college or school; provided, however, that if any person claiming to be, and satisfying the proper authorities that he is of kindred of the deceased, shall ask to have, within thirty-six hours after death, the body for burial, it shall be surrendered for interment; provided, further, that any medical college or school, public or private, or any officers of the same that shall receive the bodies of deceased persons for the purpose of scientific study under this article, shall furnish the same to students of medicine and surgery who may be under their instruction. [R. C. 1905, § 2079; 1905, ch. 134, § 1.]

§ 2810. Bonds to be given. Any physician or surgeon who is a licentiate of the state board of medical examiners, or any medical college or school, public or private, before receiving any dead body or bodies, shall give to the proper authorities, surrendering the same to him or them, a sufficient bond that said bodies shall be used only for the promotion of medical science within this state; and whoever shall use such dead body or bodies for any other purpose, or shall remove the same beyond the limits of this state, and whoever shall buy or sell any such bodies or body, or shall traffic in the same shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined in the sum of one hundred dollars, and any officer refusing to deliver the remains or body of any deceased person, when demanded under the provisions of this article, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall pay a fine of not less than fifty dollars. [R. C. 1905, § 2080; 1905, ch. 134, § 2.]

§ 2811. Bodies to be buried or burned, when. Penalty for neglect. It shall be the duty of preceptors, professors and teachers, and all officers of medical colleges and schools, public or private, and all others who shall receive any dead body or bodies in pursuance of the provisions of this article, decently to bury in some public cemetery, or to cremate the same in a furnace properly constructed for that purpose, the remains of all bodies after they shall have answered the purposes aforesaid, and for any neglect or violations of the provisions of this article the party or parties so neglecting shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall pay a penalty of one hundred dollars. [R. C. 1905, § 2081; 1905, ch. 134, § 3.]

ARTICLE 31.—HOSPITALS PROHIBITED.

§ 2812. Permission to establish required. No hospital for the treatment of disease for pay shall be hereafter established in any residence block of any city in the state of North Dakota without first filing with the city auditor the written consent of the resident freeholders of such block. [1907, ch. 134.]

ARTICLE 32.—BOUNTY FOR TREE PLANTING.

§ 2813. Bounty for tree planting. Any person who shall hereafter plant, cultivate and keep in a growing, thrifty condition, one acre and not more than ten acres of prairie land with any kind of forest trees, and shall plant or have planted said trees not more than eight feet apart each way, shall be entitled to three dollars for each acre so planted and cultivated, to be paid out of the general fund of the county wherein said trees are so planted, but such bounty shall not be so paid unless such grove be maintained upon a tract of not less than eighty acres and shall have at least four hundred living trees on each acre so maintained and kept in growing condition, and in no case shall any bounty be paid in excess of the amount of the real estate taxes levied against persons applying for said bounty, and in no case shall any bounty be paid in excess of the amount of the taxes. [1907, ch. 41; R. C. 1905, § 2082; 1905, ch. 187, § 1.]

§ 2814. Along highways. Limit of bounty. Every person planting such forest tree or trees suitable for hedge in rows as boundary lines along the public highways or on any other portion of his premises, which rows shall contain not less than two living trees to each rod and who shall in other respects comply with the provisions of this article shall annually receive a bounty at the rate of two dollars for every eighty rods of each row in length; provided, however, that no bounty shall be paid or deduction allowed under the provisions of this article for a longer period than five years upon any one tract or row of trees. [R. C. 1905, § 2083; 1905, ch. 187, § 2.]

§ 2815. Proof of planting. Any person wishing to secure the benefits of this article shall, during the month of June, next after expiration of one year after planting such grove, row or rows of trees, and annually thereafter, file with the county auditor or clerk of the county in which the same is located, a correct plat of the land, describing the section or fraction thereof on which said grove, row or rows have been planted or cultivated, and shall make due proof under oath of such planting and cultivation as well as of title to the land; setting forth the facts in relation to the growth and cultivation of the grove, row or rows of trees for which such bounty is demanded; provided, this article shall not apply to any railroad company for planting trees within two hundred feet of its track for the purpose of making a snow fence, nor to any trees planted upon land held and acquired under the timber culture laws of the United States. [1911, ch. 308; R. C. 1905, § 2084; 1905, ch. 187, § 3.]

§ 2816. Examination and report by assessor. It is hereby made the duty of the assessor of every town or county at the time of making his assessment, to ascertain whether or not trees have been planted by any land owners in his town or county and for which compensation is claimed under this article, and in case trees have been planted and such compensation is claimed the assessor shall personally examine the grove or line of trees and make report to the extent and conditions thereof according to the prescribed form, the same to be returned to the county auditor with the other returns and assessment book. [R. C. 1905, § 2085; 1905, ch. 187, § 4.]

ARTICLE 33.—NOXIOUS WEEDS.

§ 2817. Noxious weeds, manner of destroying. Each person shall destroy upon all lands which he shall own or occupy, all weeds of the kind known as Canada thistle, cocklebur, mustard, wild oats, French weed and Russian cactus, at such time and in such manner as shall effectually prevent their bearing seed. And it shall be a misdemeanor for such person or persons to deposit or cause to be deposited in the highway or in or along the banks of any natural water course any of the noxious weeds above described. And such misdemeanor shall be punishable by a fine of not to exceed fifty dollars nor less than ten dollars. The time and manner of destroying such weeds shall be prescribed by the board of county commissioners, and the same shall be published at least two weeks in some newspaper in the county, not less than two weeks before the time so prescribed; and if there is no newspaper published in the county, then written notice of the same shall be posted, the same as election notices are posted, in lieu of such publications. [R. C. 1905, § 2086; 1897, ch. 103; R. C. 1899, § 1683.]

Land owner is not liable for damages for failure to destroy noxious weeds until after county commissioners have prescribed time and manner of destruction. Langer v. Goode, 21 N. D. 462, 131 N. W. 258, Ann. Cas. 1913D, 429, 1 N. C. C. A. 772.

§ 2818. Decision to be published. It shall be the duty of the board of county commissioners, at its regular meeting in April of each year, to determine the time and manner of destroying such noxious weeds, and to cause its determination to be published as provided for in the last section. It shall also cause to be mailed to the chairman of each board of township supervisors and to each overseer of highways and road supervisor in the county, a copy of its proceedings. [R. C. 1905, § 2087; 1891, ch. 91, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 1684.]

§ 2819. Road supervisors to destroy weeds. Obtain judgment. Whenever any individual, firm or corporation owning or occupying any lands within this state shall neglect or refuse to comply with the provisions of this article for more than ten days after the time prescribed by said board of county commissioners, then it shall be the duty of the overseer or road supervisor, as the case may be, to proceed forthwith to destroy the same in the manner provided for said destruction by the board of county commissioners; it shall also be the duty of such overseers or road supervisors to destroy all such noxious weeds that may grow on the highways and railroad right of ways and school sections and timber culture claims of his road district, and for so doing such overseers or road supervisors shall receive such compensation, payable out of the township treasury or county treasury, as the township board of supervisors or board of county commissioners, upon presentation of his account therefor, verified by oath and specifying by separate items the charges on each piece of land, shall deem reasonable; and the respective accounts, so far as correct, shall be allowed and paid by the township board or board of county commissioners, and upon being so allowed the board of supervisors or board of county commissioners shall take proper proceedings in the district court of the county in which said land is situated to obtain a judgment against the owner of each of said tracts of land for the amount expended on said lands under this article for the destruction of noxious weeds thereon, to pay the expenses of said destruction and all costs that have since accrued under this article and in obtaining judgment therefor, which judgment shall be declared a first lien on said land, to be enforced either by sale or as taxes on the lands are collected, at the option of the court. [R. C. 1905, § 2088; 1895, ch. 83, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1685.]

§ 2820. Penalty. Whenever any overseer of highways or road supervisor shall neglect or refuse to comply with the provisions of this article after having received notice as provided for herein, he shall be subject to a fine of fifty dollars, and it is the duty of the state's attorney to enforce the provisions of this article. [R. C. 1905, § 2089; 1891, ch. 91, § 4; R. C. 1899, § 1686.]

Penalties can only be recovered in civil actions by the party for whose benefit recovery can be had. State v. Messner, 9 N. D. 186, 82 N. W. 737.

ARTICLE 34.— PREVENTION OF SPREAD OF NOXIOUS WEEDS.

See also as to noxious weeds, sections 623-631, 2002, 2003, 2817-2820.

§ 2821. Care to be exercised in threshing operations. Any owner or operator of a threshing machine, and any owner or teamster employed in hauling grain, either threshed or unthreshed, shall upon completing any threshing engagement, and before leaving the premises on which said work is done to go to the farm of another, take all reasonable care to prevent the conveying and carrying away and scattering of any noxious weeds, which may have accumulated in or on said machine or conveyance used in the said operation of threshing. [1911, ch. 195, § 1.]

§ 2822. Duty to clean threshing separator and conveyances. For the purpose of securing diligence and care in preventing the spread of noxious weeds, it shall be the duty of, and every owner or operator of a machine used for separating grain from straw shall, before leaving the premises of a person or persons and going to that of another or others, clean said machine from foul seed by operating it until all grain and seed is out of it, and in addition thereto, the surface thereof shall be thoroughly swept. Also all conveyances used for hauling grain, either threshed or unthreshed, shall likewise be cleaned by brushing or sweeping before leaving the field where said work is done and going to that of another. Provided, that this shall not affect the hauling and handling of the necessary straw to be used for the operation of the engine. Provided, further, that a printed copy of this law shall be kept posted on every threshing separator operating in the state of North Dakota during threshing seasons. [1911, ch. 195, § 2.]

§ 2823. Penalty. Any person convicted of carrying foul seed from the premises of one person to that of another by reason of failure to comply with the requirements of sections 2821 and 2822 shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in a sum not less than ten dollars ($10) nor more than fifty dollars ($50), or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than three (3) nor more than ten (10) days or both. [1911, ch. 195, § 3.]

ARTICLE 35.—INSPECTION AND REGULATION OF NURSERIES.

§ 2824. Inspection of nurseries and nursery stock authorized. The director of the North Dakota experiment station is hereby authorized to inspect through his agent any nursery or any fruit or garden plantation or any unplanted nursery stock in this state that he has reason to suspect is infested with any injurious or fungous disease and for this purpose his agent shall have free access to the premises where the duties of carrying out this act shall call him, and any person attempting to hinder such inspection by misrepresentation or otherwise shall be liable to the payment of a penalty as hereinafter provided. [1911, ch. 196, § 1.]

Power of state to regulate nursery business. 15 L.R.A.(N.S.) 138.

§ 2825. Duties of agent. Notice. In case the agent of the said director shall find on any nursery premises injurious insects or fungous diseases, he shall notify the owner in writing to that effect and prescribe the treatment in his judgment necessary to destroy the insects or fungus. Any one shipping out stock after receiving said notice or failing to comply with the requirements of the said agent shall be subject to the payment of a penalty as hereinafter provided. [1911, ch. 196, § 2.]

§ 2826. Shipment of stock to be labeled. Whenever any trees, shrubs, plants or vines are shipped into this state from any outside point, there shall be plainly labeled or fixed on the outside of the package a certificate showing that the contents have been inspected by duly appointed state or government officer and that they are free from injurious insects and fungous diseases, any package not so labeled shall be promptly reported to the said director by the railways or express company or other persons carrying the same with a statement of the source whence such articles came and the party to whom they are addressed. Any person or company who shall receive or offer for sale any plants, trees or shrubs not labeled as provided in this section shall be subjected to payment of a penalty as hereinafter provided. [1911, ch. 196, § 3.]

§ 2827. Director may demand list of persons to whom infected stock sold. Any person growing or offering for sale in this state any nursery stock found to be infected with injurious insects or fungous diseases shall upon demand of said director furnish a list of all persons as far as to him known, to whom he has sold or delivered any such stock, together with the post office address of each of such persons, so far as to him known. Such information shall be preserved and be for the sole use of said director and his agent in carrying out the provisions of this article. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be liable to a payment of a penalty as hereinafter provided. [1911, ch. 196, § 4.]

§ 2828. Certificate of inspection. How obtained. Fee. The said director shall cause to be issued to the owner of any nursery in this state after the nursery stock therein has been properly inspected and found to be apparently free from injurious insects and fungous disease, an official certificate to that effect, good for a period not to exceed one year. Any such owner may apply to said director for inspection of his premises for the purpose of securing such certificate and the said director shall cause such inspection to be made within three months after receiving the application. Any person requesting inspection after September fifteenth shall pay a fee of five dollars ($5) for each ten acres of land that is wholly or in part devoted to growing nursery stock for selling purposes. [1911, ch. 196, § 5.]

§ 2829. Shipment of stock must have shipping-tag certificate. No person or corporation shall deliver or ship out from his nursery or place of business for delivery within North Dakota, nursery stock of any kind which does not have attached to the package in which it is contained the authorized shipping-tag certificate with the facsimile signature of the agent. [1911, ch. 196, § 6.]

§ 2830. License. Who must have bond. Every individual, firm or corporation who employs agents or traveling salesmen, or who solicits for the sale of nursery stock in this state, shall before being authorized to do business obtain a license from the said director, upon the payment of a sum of ten dollars ($10) and upon filing with the said director a certificate of inspection of the nursery in which the stock was grown and a five hundred dollar ($500) bond conditioned that the principal will faithfully obey the provisions of this article, and said license shall entitle the individual, firm or corporation obtaining the same to do business in this state during the next twelve months following the issuance thereof and upon complying with all the provisions of this article. [1911, ch. 196, § 7.]

Discrimination against nonresidents by statute or ordinance imposing license tax on agents for nursery stock. 40 L.R.A. (N.S.) 290.

§ 2831. Certified statement of sale. Every person, firm or corporation who shall by himself, his agent or salesman sell, grow, handle or deliver in this state any nursery stock which is sold, offered or exposed for sale for planting, shall give at the time of the sale or delivery of the same to the purchaser a certified and true statement of such sale, such certificate may be upon a tag attached to shipment or mailed to the purchaser with bill of lading, giving the correct English name or names of each variety sold so far as possible, or in lieu thereof the name by which such stock is known to the nursery trade. [1911, ch. 196, § 8.]

§ 2832. Penalty for violation of article. Any person or persons, corporation, transportation companies or company violating any of the provisions of this article shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction be fined in the sum of not less than twenty dollars ($20) nor more than two hundred dollars ($200). [1911, ch. 196, § 9.]

§ 2833. Compensation and expenses of agent. The agent authorized by said director shall be granted a compensation not to exceed five dollars ($5) per day and actual traveling expenses and for such purpose there is hereby assigned such portion of the license fees received as is required for carrying out the provisions of this article. [1911, ch. 196, § 10.]

2834. Report furnished to governor. Printed, when and where. Said director shall furnish a report to the governor of all transactions carried out under this article together with an account of all moneys received or expended, such report to be printed in the director's report for each biennial period. [1911, ch. 196, § 11.]

As to time and contents of reports to the governor, see sections 95, 97, 98, 633.

ARTICLE 36.—MANUFACTURE AND SALE OF DAIRY PRODUCTS.

The foregoing is the title of article 26 of the Political Code of 1905, as also of the corresponding article in the Revised Codes of 1899 and of Laws 1907, ch. 90. The latter chapter is expressly repealed by Laws 1909, ch. 92, § 29, which is entitled "dairy department of department of agriculture and labor," but manifestly covers the same ground as the Revised Codes articles and the Laws 1907 chapter above cited. The chapter in Laws 1909 with specific amendments thereto constitutes the following, sections 2833-2862.

§ 2835. Dairy department created. There is hereby created a bureau of the department of agriculture and labor to be known as the dairy department, which is hereby created for the purpose of promoting, improving and regulating the dairy products of the state and to establish and enforce proper rules and regulations pertaining thereto. [1909, ch. 92, § 1; 1907, ch. 90, § 1; R. C. 1905, § 2090; 1899, ch. 72, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1687; 1905, ch. 95, § 1.]

§ 2836. Deputy commissioners. The commissioner of agriculture and labor is hereby authorized and directed to appoint a deputy in his department who shall be known as the dairy commissioner, and shall be the official head of the dairy department. He shall have a practical knowledge and experience in the manufacture of dairy products. There shall also be appointed by the commissioner of agriculture and labor two assistant dairy commissioners, who shall possess the same qualifications as the dairy commissioner. Said dairy commissioner and assistant dairy commissioners shall hold their office during the term of the commissioner of agriculture and labor, who shall appoint them, subject to removal for inefficiency, neglect or violation of duty. [1911, ch. 4, § 1; 1909, ch. 92, § 2; 1907, ch. 90, § 1; R. C. 1905, § 2090; 1899, ch. 72, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1687; 1905, ch. 95, § 1.]

§ 2837. Compensation. The dairy commissioner shall receive the same salary as is paid to the assistant or chief deputy in other departments of the state government; and the assistant dairy commissioners shall be paid a salary of fifteen hundred dollars per annum, such salary to be paid on vouchers approved by the commissioner of agriculture and labor in the same manner as the salaries of the employees of other departments of the state government are paid. [1911, ch. 4, § 2; 1909, ch. 92, § 3; 1907, ch. 90, § 1; R. C. 1905, § 2090; 1899, ch. 72, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1687; 1905, ch. 95, § 1.]

See appropriation for salary of dairy commissioner in section 653e, and see in connection therewith, section 653b.

§ 2838. Expenses of commissioners paid. In addition to the compensation in this article provided, the said dairy commissioner and assistant dairy commissioners shall be paid all actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties, to be paid as the expenses of other departments are paid. [1911, ch. 4, § 3; 1909, ch. 92, § 4; 1907, ch. 90, § 1; R. C. 1905, § 2090; 1899, ch. 72, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1687; 1905, ch. 95, § 1.]

§ 2839. Duties. It shall be the duty of said dairy commissioner to carry into effect the provisions of this article and all other acts which may be in force or be hereafter enacted relating to dairies and dairy products and he is hereby authorized and empowered to promulgate and enforce such rules and regulations as may be deemed proper and necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this article; and to amend, alter or abolish such regulations from time to time as changed conditions or experience shall show to be to the best interest of the dairying interests of the state, and relating to the production, manufacture and sale of dairy products, their imitations and substitutes. He shall inspect or have inspected every creamery and cream station, cheese factory and renovating or "process butter" factory in the state at least once a year; to assist the butter makers, cheese makers and managers of such factories and stations and the patrons of the same, in order to improve the quality of the dairy products sold to or manufactured in said factories and to co-operate with and instruct the dairymen in testing their dairy herds both individually and collectively. [1909, ch. 92, § 5; 1907, ch. 92, § 1; R. C. 1905, § 2090; 1899, ch. 72, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1687; 1905, ch. 95, § 1.]

§ 2840. Publish bulletins. The said dairy commissioner under the supervision of the commissioner of agriculture and labor is hereby authorized, and it is made his duty from time to time as deemed necessary to publish and distribute bulletins containing the rules and regulations of the dairy commissioner and such other useful information as he shall deem to the advantage of the dairy interests of the state. The expenses for such publications shall be audited and paid for as other public printing. [1909, ch. 92, § 6; 1907, ch. 90, § 2; R. C. 1905, § 2091; 1899, ch. 72, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 1688; 1905, ch. 95, § 2.]

§ 2841. Additional powers and duties. In addition to the powers and duties in this article enumerated, the said dairy commissioner and such persons as shall be duly authorized for the purpose, shall have access, ingress and egress to all places of business, factories, farms, buildings, carriages, cars, vessels and cans used in the sale of any dairy product, or any imitation thereof. They shall also have power and authority to open any package, can or vessel containing such article which may be manufactured, sold or exposed for sale in violation of the provisions of this article, and may inspect the contents therein, and may take samples therefrom for analysis. They shall also have authority to prevent the sale or manufacture into any food product cream that is filthy or putrid, or milk that has been drawn from cows diseased or fed on unwholesome food, and to prohibit the shipment of the same from any railway station within the state. All clerks, bookkeepers, express agents, railroad officials, employes or common carriers shall render to them every assistance in their power, when so requested, in tracing, finding or discovering the presence of any prohibited article named in this article. The dairy commissioners and such persons as shall be duly authorized for the purpose, shall have free access to any barn or stable where any cow is kept or milked, or to any factory, building, dairy premises or creamery where any dairy products are bought, manufactured, handled or stored when the milk or cream from such cow or product is to be sold or shipped at or to any cream station, creamery, cheese factory, ice cream factory or other factory and may enforce such measures as are necessary to secure perfect cleanliness in and around the same, and of any utensils used therein. [1909, ch. 92, § 7; 1907, ch. 90, § 3; R. C. 1905, § 2092; 1899, ch. 72, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 1689; 1905, ch. 95, § 3.]

§ 2842. Penalty for obstructing commissioner. Whosoever shall refuse to allow the inspection herein provided for, or shall in any way hinder or obstruct the proper officers performing their duties hereunder shall be subject on conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding thirty days, and it shall not be necessary to have the indorsement of the state's attorney to a complaint made for violation of the provisions of this article, but when the justice of the peace or other court before whom complaint is made shall be satisfied of the truthfulness of such complaint, he shall issue a warrant thereon. [1909, ch. 92, § 8; 1907, ch. 90, § 4.]

when such milk or cream is to be manufactured into butter, cheese or ice cream by some other individual, firm or corporation, or in some separate building or locality than that in which such milk or cream is weighed, tested or purchased; provided, however, that it is not intended by this article to include weighing on public scales by producers before shipment by themselves. [1909, ch. 92, § 9.]

§ 2845. Authority required to do business. No corporation or association shall do or transact any business in this state pertaining to the dairy interests of the state as described in this article without having first been authorized so to do under the laws of this state, and no foreign corporation shall purchase any cream in this state for shipment out of the state except through authorized agents at established and licensed cream stations, and subject to such rules and regulations as shall be prescribed by the dairy commissioner for the regulation and conduct of cream stations. No person shall act as the agent or purchaser of cream for any foreign corporation who is not a resident of this state and licensed so to do, and any person acting as such agent who fails to comply with the provisions of this article and the rules and regulations established thereunder shall on conviction be punished as for a misdemeanor. [1909, ch. 92, § 11.]

§ 2846. Annual report of cream station. Price discrimination forbidden. The agent or person in charge of any cream station at which cream is purchased for shipment out of the state shall on July first of each year or within thirty days thereafter report to the dairy commissioner: The name, location and business of his employer; amount of capital stock invested in business; property or assets; liabilities and such other information pertaining to the business and conduct of the cream station of which such agent has charge, as shall be requested in writing by the dairy commissioner. It is hereby declared to be unlawful for any person, firm, corporation or agent to discriminate in the price paid for cream at any cream station in the state by paying a higher price for cream purchased at any station above the price paid at any other station in the state, conditions of cream and rates of transportation being equalized; the questions of conditions of cream, and difference in rates of transportation from different points of shipment to be established the same as any question of fact in a civil action. Any person, firm, corporation or agent found guilty of a violation of the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and punished accordingly. [1909, ch. 92, § 12.]

§ 2847. Report of commissioners. The dairy commissioner shall make report to the commissioner of agriculture and labor, as directed by such commissioner, and the annual reports of the commissioner of agriculture and labor shall contain a detailed report of the work and proceedings, together with an account of expenses and disbursements of said assistant dairy commissioners, in regard to the production, manufacture and sale of dairy products, and such suggestions as he may regard of public importance connected therewith. [1909, ch. 92, § 13; 1907, ch. 90, § 2; R. C. 1905, § 2091; 1899, ch. 72, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 1688; 1905, ch. 95, § 2.]

§ 2848. Authority of assistants. The assistant dairy commissioners shall perform such duties as may be directed by the dairy commissioner, or the commissioner of agriculture and labor; and when acting as such, the assistant dairy commissioners shall be invested with the same authority as is by this act conferred upon the dairy commissioner. [1911, ch. 4, § 5; 1909, ch. 92, § 14.]

§ 2849. Stencil or brand required. Report to commissioner. Every creamery, cheese factory, combined creamery and cheese factory or renovating or "process butter" factory shall procure a stencil or brand bearing a suitable device and words which shall clearly designate the quality of the product manufactured and the number and location of the factory, and it may contain a special or private brand or name of said factory; every brand shall be used upon the outside of the cheese and also upon the package containing the same, but in the case of butter on the package only; and shall on the first day of July, or within thirty days thereafter, of each year, report to the dairy commissioner the name, location and number of each factory using the same brand, and the name or names of the persons at each factory authorized to use the same, together with a copy of each stencil or brand, and the dairy commissioner shall keep a book in which shall be registered the same. [1909, ch. 92, § 15; 1907, ch. 90, § 6; R. C. 1905, § 2094; 1899, ch. 72, § 7; R. C. 1899, § 1693; 1905, ch. 95, § 5.]

§ 2850. Blanks for report. The said dairy commissioner shall provide blanks which shall be furnished to all proprietors or managers of creameries, cheese factories and renovating or "process butter" factories and cream stations, which shall be licensed under the provisions of this article, for the purpose of making a report of the amount of milk and dairy goods handled, and all owners or managers of such creameries, cheese factories and renovating or "process butter" factories, and cream stations shall send to the dairy commissioner, not later than the last day of each month, a full and accurate report of the amount of business done during the preceding month as designated under the different headings of such printed blanks. [1909, ch. 92, § 16; 1907, ch. 90, § 7; R. C. 1905, § 2095; 1899, ch. 72, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 1691; 1905, ch. 90, § 6.]

§ 2851. Penalty for selling impure, adulterated or skimmed milk. If any person shall sell or expose for sale or exchange or deliver or bring to another for domestic or potable use, to be converted into any product of human food, any unclean, impure, unhealthy, adulterated, unwholesome or skimmed milk (except pure skimmilk to skim cheese factories), or milk from which has been held back what is commonly known as strippings, or milk taken from an animal having disease, sickness, ulcers, abscess or running sores or which has been taken from animals within fifteen days before or five days after parturition; or if any person shall purchase to be converted into any product of human food, any unclean, unhealthy, adulterated or unwholesome milk or cream, or shall manufacture any such milk or cream into any product of human food; or if any person, having cows for the purpose of producing milk and cream for sale, shall stable them in an unhealthy place, or in a crowded manner, or shall knowingly feed them food which produces impure unwholesome milk, or shall feed them on any substance in a state of putrefaction or rottenness, or of an unhealthy nature, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished as provided by law. [1909, ch. 92, § 17; 1907, ch. 90, § 8; R. C. 1905, § 2096; 1899, ch. 72, § 10; R. C. 1899, § 1696; 1905, ch. 95, § 7.]

§ 2852. Adulteration defined. For the purpose of this article, the addition of water or any so-called preservative or anything to whole milk or skimmed milk or partially skimmed milk or cream, is hereby declared an adulteration; and milk or cream which is obtained from animals fed on any substance of an unhealthy nature is hereby declared impure and unwholesome; and milk which has been proved by any reliable method of test or analysis to contain less than twelve per cent of milk solids to the hundred pounds of milk, or less than three pounds of butter fat to the hundred pounds of milk, shall be regarded as skimmed or partially skimmed milk and every article not containing fifteen per cent or more of butter fat shall not be regarded as cream. [1909, ch. 92, § 18; 1907, ch. 90, § 9; R. C. 1905, § 2097; 1899, ch. 72, § 11; R. C. 1899, § 1697; 1905, ch. 95, § 8.]

§ 2853. Standard milk and cream measures and tests. The state standard milk measure, or pipette, shall have a capacity of seventeen and six-tenths cubic centimeters, and the standard test tubes or bottles for milk shall have a capacity of two cubic centimeters of mercury at a temperature of sixty degrees Fahrenheit between "zero" and ten on the graduated scale on the neck thereof. Cream shall be tested by weight and the standard unit for testing shall be eighteen grams, and the standard test tubes or bottles shall have a capacity for ten cubic centimeters of mercury at a temperature of sixty degrees Fahrenheit, between "zero" and fifty on the graduated scale on the neck thereof, and it is hereby made a misdemeanor to use any other means of determining the amount of butter fat in milk or cream than the Babcock test, or to use any other size of milk measure, weight, test tubes or bottles, except those described herein, where milk or cream is purchased or furnished to cheese factories, and the value of said milk or cream is determined by the per cent of butter fat contained in the same. Any manufacturer, merchant, dealer or agent in this state who shall offer for sale or sell a milk pipette or measure, test tube or bottle which is not correctly marked or graduated as herein provided, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished as provided by law. [1909, ch. 92, § 19; 1907, ch. 90, § 10; R. C. 1905, § 2098; 1905, ch. 95, § 9.]

§ 2855. Sale of adulterated products prohibited. Oleomargarine excepted. No person by himself or his agents or servants shall render or manufacture, sell, offer for sale for the future delivery of, have in his possession, keep in storage, distribute, deliver, transfer or convey with intent to sell within this state any article, product or compound made wholly or partly out of any fat, oil or oleaginous substance or compound thereof, not produced from adulterated milk or cream from the same, which shall be an imitation of yellow butter produced from pure unadulterated milk or cream of the same; provided, that nothing in this article shall be construed to prohibit the manufacture or sale of oleomargarine in a separate and distinct form, and in such a manner as will advise the consumer of its real character, free from coloration or ingredient that causes it to look like butter. [1909, ch. 92, § 21; 1907, ch. 90, § 12; R. C. 1905, § 2100; 1899, ch. 72, § 12; R. C. 1899, § 1698; 1905, ch. 95, § 11.]

§ 2860. City council provide for inspection of milk and dairy herds. The council of any city or incorporated town may by ordinance provide for the inspection of milk and of dairies and dairy herds kept for the production of milk within its limits, and issue licenses for the sale of milk within its limits, and regulate the same, and may authorize and empower the board of health to enforce all laws and ordinances relating to the production and sale of milk and the inspection of dairies and dairy herds producing milk for sale within such city. [1909, ch. 92, § 26; 1907, ch. 90, § 17; R. C. 1905, § 2106; 1905, ch. 95, § 17.]

§ 2861. Violation constitutes misdemeanor. Penalty. Whoever violates any of the provisions of this article, the punishment of which is not herein otherwise provided, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished for each offense by a fine of not less than fifteen dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment of not less than ten days nor more than ninety days, or both. [1909, ch. 92, § 27; 1907, ch. 90, § 18.]

§ 2863. Guests apprised of use of oleomargarine, butterine, etc. Whoever furnishes or causes to be furnished in any hotel, restaurant, boarding house or at any lunch counter, oleomargarine or butterine to any guest or patron of such hotel, restaurant, boarding house or lunch counter in the place or stead of butter shall notify said guest or patron that the substance so furnished is not butter, and any party so furnishing without such notice shall be punished by a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than ten dollars for each and every offense. ARTICLE 37.—DESTRUCTION OF GRASSHOPPERS.

§ 2864. Duty of county commissioners. The board of county commissioners shall have power, and it shall be their duty to order the plowing of land and such other means as they deem expedient wherever and whenever they deem it necessary to cause the destruction of grasshoppers and Rocky Mountain locusts and grasshopper and Rocky Mountain locusts' eggs, and said plowing and other means shall be done at the time and in the manner directed by said board of county commissioners by the owner or incumbrancer, if any, of said land immediately after receiving notice thereof from said board of county commissioners. [R. C. 1905, § 2108; 1899, ch. 95, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1704.]

§ 2865. Notice, how and when served. Where the owner of the land on which said board shall have decided plowing must be done for the purposes herein specified, cannot with reasonable diligence be served with notice within the state, it shall be sufficient to serve the said notice by publication thereof for two successive issues in the official newspaper nearest said tract. [R. C. 1905, § 2109; 1899, ch. 95, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 1705.]

of county commissioners within five days after notice as herein provided, then, in that event said board of county commissioners shall cause said tract or tracts to be plowed, or so much thereof as may be by them deemed necessary, and audit and pay for said work out of the general fund of said county, upon warrant as in other cases made and provided. [R. C. 1905, § 2110; 1899, ch. 95, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 1706.]

§ 2867. Expense a lien upon land. Immediately after the said accounts are audited and paid by said county commissioners it shall be the duty of the county auditor to certify to the county treasurer the amount so expended upon each piece and parcel of land, which certificate shall contain the name of the record owner or incumbrancer of said tract, a true description of said land, the amount paid by the county for plowing done thereon, and the county treasurer shall thereupon enter said amount against said land as taxes are entered against land, and the said amount shall constitute a lien upon said land prior to all other incumbrances, and shall bear interest at the rate of seven per cent per annum from date of entry by the county treasurer and collection thereof may thereafter be made and enforced in the same manner as delinquent taxes are enforced and collected against real property. [R. C. 1905, § 2111; 1899, ch. 95, § 4; R. C. 1899, § 1707.]

§ 2868. Payment out of general fund. When the board of county commissioners shall deem the plowing of state land necessary for the purposes herein specified they shall order the same done, and payment therefor may be made out of the general fund of the county upon warrant as in other cases provided; provided, however, that no growing crops shall be destroyed under the provisions of this article; provided, further, that where the board of county commissioners shall deem it necessary to cause plowing upon government land held by resident claimants, or other means to cause the destruction of grasshoppers and Rocky Mountain locusts, said claimant shall be liable to the county in a civil action for all moneys necessarily expended in carrying out the directions of the board of county commissioners for the purposes herein specified. [R. C. 1905, § 2112; 1899, ch. 95, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 1708.]

ARTICLE 38.—EXTERMINATION OF GOPHERS.

§ 2869. Extermination of gophers. When the county commissioners of any county in this state, where there are gophers, does not offer a bounty for the destruction of the same, then the township supervisors of any township within such county, upon a petition of ten resident land owners therein, are hereby authorized and empowered to appoint some suitable person or persons, whose duty it shall be to poison, kill and exterminate the gophers within such township, and any person so appointed is hereby empowered and directed to, between April first and July first, enter upon any farm, a railroad right of way, grounds or premises where there are gophers and poison, kill and exterminate the gophers thereon when the owner or occupant thereof shall neglect or refuse to do so. [1913, ch. 174, § 1.]

§ 2870. Notice, how served. It shall be the duty of the person so appointed to give any one on whose premises are found gophers ten days' notice in writing to poison, kill or exterminate the same; and if upon the land or right of way of any railroad company such notice may be served upon its agent at the station nearest to such land or right of way; or if such land is unoccupied and owned by a nonresident such notice shall be mailed to its owner's address, or if address is unknown, posted upon the land or premises where such gophers are to be exterminated, and if the work of exterminating same is not done within such time the person so appointed by the township supervisors shall proceed to poison, kill and exterminate the gophers on such land or premises, provided, that any person authorized to exterminate gophers according to the provisions of this article shall, when poison is laid out, use every precaution to prevent the destruction of domestic fowls or animals, and of game birds, by such poison, and no person shall lay out poison in any pasture where there are stock, or within forty rods of any occupied dwelling or farm house, without the knowledge and consent of the owner or occupant thereof. [1913, ch. 174, § 2.]

§ 2871. Compensation, statement and voucher to be charged against land as taxes, after due notice. Any person so appointed under the provisions of this article shall receive as compensation the sum of two dollars and fifty cents per day for ten hours' labor performed in poisoning and exterminating gophers. He shall also be reimbursed for all poison and grain used in the performance of such work. Such person shall make a sworn statement to the township of the time put in and the poison and grain used on each tract of land, provided, that the maximum charge against any parcel of land containing twenty acres or more shall not be greater in any one year than at the rate of ten dollars per one hundred and sixty acres, and the minimum charge shall not be less than one dollar against any parcel of land, which amount shall be paid by such township out of its general fund and charged as taxes against each parcel of land on which the expenses were incurred. Provided, further, that before the township supervisors shall charge such amounts to the taxes of such person or corporation, the township supervisors shall give such person or corporation at least twenty days' notice by mail, of the time when, and the place at which such amount will be charged against them; and such person or corporation shall have the right to appear and show cause why such amount shall not be charged against their taxes. Provided, further, that if such person or corporation shall feel aggrieved by the decision of the township supervisors, such person or corporation may appeal to the district court, and such appeal shall be perfected and prosecuted in the same manner as appeal in justice courts, and the county auditor shall enter such amounts upon the tax roll of the county against the land on which such work has been done, and expenses incurred, except the expenses of exterminating gophers on state lands, which shall be paid by the township; and the county treasurer of such county shall collect such amounts the same as taxes, and place the same to the credit of the respective townships from which collected. [1913, ch. 174, § 3.]

§ 2872. County commissioners to appoint in unorganized townships. The county commissioners of any county in this state not offering bounty on gophers shall, upon a petition of ten resident land owners of any unorganized township within such county, appoint suitable person or persons to destroy and exterminate the gophers within such township, in the same manner as if appointed by the township supervisors of any organized township according to the provisions of the preceding sections of this article, and such person shall proceed to poison, kill and exterminate the gophers according to the provisions of the preceding sections, and make sworn statements in like manner to the county; and the expense so incurred shall be paid out of the general fund of such county; and the county commissioners, before entering such amounts as taxes against the land on which the expenses were incurred, shall issue notices as provided for in the preceding section, which hearing shall also be subject to appeal in like manner; such amounts shall be charged upon the tax roll of the county against the land on which the expenses were incurred, and the county treasurer shall collect such amounts the same as taxes and place the same in the general fund of the county. [1913, ch. 174, § 4.]

§ 2873. Gophers defined. The word "gopher" as used in this article shall mean to include striped gopher, flicker tail gopher, pocket gopher and prairie dogs. [1913, ch. 174, § 5.]

ARTICLE 39.—ADULTERATION OF OILS.

§ 2874. Boiled linseed oil. No person, firm or corporation or agent or employe of any person, firm or corporation shall manufacture for sale or offer or expose for sale in this state any flaxseed or linseed oil unless the same answers a chemical test for purity recognized in the United States Pharmacopoeia or any flaxseed or linseed oil as "boiled linseed oil" unless the same shall have been put in its manufacture to a temperature of two hundred and twenty-five degrees Fahrenheit. § 2876. Misdemeanor. Penalty. Any person, firm or corporation or agent or employe of any person, firm or corporation who shall sell without stamp as required by this article or who shall falsely stamp or label such tank cars, tanks, barrels, kegs or other vessels as containing flaxseed or linseed oil or knowingly permit such stamping or labeling or whoever shall violate any provision of this article shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished with a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than fifty dollars and in default of the payment of such fine shall be committed to the county jail until the same is paid. [R. C. 1905, § 2115; 1899, ch. 106, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 1711.]

§ 2877. Commissioner of agriculture must enforce law. It shall be the duty of the state commissioner of agriculture and labor and the state's attorneys of the different counties of this state to enforce the provisions of this article; and for that purpose the said commissioner is hereby authorized and empowered to appoint such assistants, experts and chemists as he shall deem necessary or expedient from the state university or the state agricultural college, and the said commissioner and said assistants, experts and chemists so appointed shall have access, ingress and egress to and from all places of business and buildings where flaxseed or linseed oil so called, whether pure or adulterated, is believed by them to be kept or stored; and they shall also have power and authority to open any tank car, tank, barrel, keg or other vessel of such oil and inspect the contents thereof and take samples thereof therefrom sufficient in quantity only for analysis; and all clerks, bookkeepers, express agents, railroad agents or officials, employes, common carriers and all other persons shall render them all the assistance in their power when so requested in tracing, finding or discovering the presence of any such adulterated oil. [R. C. 1905, § 2116; 1899, ch. 106, § 4; R. C. 1899, § 1712.]

§ 2878. Experts and chemists. In all prosecutions under this article the costs thereof shall be paid in the manner provided by law and the said assistants, experts and chemists appointed by the commissioner of agriculture and labor shall be entitled when testifying on such prosecutions to the same witness fees as are now provided by law for expert witnesses. [R. C. 1905, § 2117; 1899, ch. 106, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 1713.]

ARTICLE 40.—PURE FOOD LAW.

This article clearly supersedes Political Code 1905, chapter 40, article 29, entitled "Adulteration of Food."

§ 2879. Adulterating and misbranding foods and beverages. It shall be unlawful for any person, either himself or while acting as agent or servant of any other person or corporation, to manufacture for sale, sell, offer or to have for sale, to solicit orders for, to store, or to deliver within the state any article of food or beverage which is unwholesome, misbranded, adulterated or insufficiently labeled within the meaning of this article. The having in possession of such adulterated, unwholesome, misbranded or insufficiently labeled article or articles shall be deemed as prima facie evidence of the violation thereof. For the purpose of this article all condiments, extracts, vinegars, or other substances used in the preparation or compounding of foods or food products and beverages shall be deemed as articles of food. [1907, ch. 195, § 1; R. C. 1905, § 2118; 1901, ch. 4, § 1; 1903, ch. 6, § 1; 1905, ch. 11, § 1.]

§ 2280. What constitutes adulteration. Any article of food or beverage shall be considered as misbranded, unwholesome, adulterated or insufficiently labeled within the meaning of this article:

First. If it contains any form of aniline dye or other coal tar dye, or if colored (and not in violation of clause six of this section) with a harmless vegetable dye and the name thereof is not given on the label.

Second. If it contains formaldehyde, benzoic acid, sulphurous acid, boric acid, salicylic acid, hydrofluoric acid, saccharin, benaphthol or any salt or antiseptic compound derived from these products, or other deleterious ingredient.

Third. If any substance or substances have been mixed with it so as to reduce or lower or injuriously affect its quality or strength or food value so that such article of food or beverage when offered for sale shall deceive or tend to deceive the purchaser.

Fourth. If any inferior or cheaper substance or substances have been substituted wholly or in part for the articles so that the product when sold shall deceive or tend to deceive the purchaser.

Fifth. If any necessary or valuable constituent of the article has been in whole or part abstracted.

Sixth. If it be an imitation of or offered for sale under the specific name of another article.

Seventh. If it be labeled, branded, colored, coated or stained, whereby damage or inferiority is concealed, so as to deceive or mislead the purchaser, or if it be falsely labeled in any respect.

Eighth. If it consists wholly or in part of a diseased, decomposed, filthy or putrid animal or vegetable substance, or if such substance or substances be used in the preparation thereof, or if it is the product of a diseased animal, or one that has died otherwise than by slaughter.

Ninth. If every package, bottle or container does not bear the true net weight, the name of the real manufacturer or jobbers, and the true grade or class of the product, the same to be expressed on the face of the principal label in clear and distinct English words in black type on a white background, said type to be in size uniform with that used to name the brand or producer.

Provided, that an article of food or beverage shall not be deemed adulterated in the following cases:

First. If it be a compound or mixture of recognized food products not included in definitions sixth and eighth of this section, and if it be properly labeled or tagged to comply with the other provisions of section 2880.

Second. In the case of candies and chocolates if they contain no terra alba, barytes, talc, chrome yellow or other mineral substances or aniline dyes or other coal tar dyes or other poisonous colors, flavors or products detrimental to health.

Third. If in the case of baking powders or any mixture or compound intended for use as a baking powder they have affixed to each and every box, can or package containing such powder or like mixture or compound, a light colored label upon the outside and on the face of which there is distinctly printed with black ink and in clear legible type the name and address of the manufacturers, the true and correct analysis, and in a form to be prescribed by the North Dakota government agricultural experiment station of each and all the constituents or ingredients contained in or contributing a part of such baking powders or mixture or compound intended for use as a baking powder. The label shall bear no advertising or descriptive matters other than the name of the manufacturer, composition as prescribed for above, and directions for use.

Fourth. In the case of perishable goods put up in bulk, sodium benzoate or other less harmful preservatives may be used in proportion not to exceed one part in two thousand in such products and under such regulations as may be determined upon and proclaimed by the North Dakota government agricultural experiment station at Fargo. This clause shall not be applicable to any case at any time where products can be commercially produced without the use of chemical preservatives. Where the use of preservatives is permitted the fact shall be clearly set forth on the face label in a form and manner to be prescribed by the North Dakota government agricultural experiment station at Fargo. [1907, ch. 195, § 2; R. C. 1905, § 2119; 1901, ch. 4, § 2; 1903, ch. 6, § 2; 1905, ch. 11, § 2.]

§ 2882. Duty of state's attorney. It shall be the duty of the attorney-general and the state's attorney to prosecute all persons violating any of the provisions of this article when the evidence thereof has been presented by the North Dakota government agricultural experiment station as provided for in sections 2885 and 2886. [1907, ch. 195, § 4; R. C. 1905, § 2121; 1903, ch. 6, § 4.]

Attorney-general has right to appear before grand jury and examine witnesses in regard to matters relating to prohibition law. State ex rel. Miller v. District Ct., 19 N. D. 819, 124 N. W. 417, Ann. Cas. 1912D, 935.

§ 2883. The North Dakota experiment station to inspect and analyze foods and beverages. The North Dakota government agricultural experiment station shall make analysis of food products and beverages on sale in North Dakota suspected of being adulterated, at such times and places and to such extent as it may determine and may appoint for the enforcement of the terms of this article a commissioner and such other agent or agents as it may deem necessary, and the sheriffs of the respective counties of the state are hereby appointed and constituted agents for the enforcement of this act, and such commissioner, agent or agents and sheriffs shall have free access at all reasonable hours, for the purpose of examining into any place wherein it is suspected any article of food or beverage adulterated with any deleterious or foreign ingredient or ingredients exists, and such commissioner, agents or sheriff, upon tendering the market price of said article, may take from any person, firm or corporation samples of any articles suspected of being adulterated as aforesaid, and the station may adopt or affix standards of purity, quality or strength when such standards are not specified or fixed by statute. [1907, ch. 195, § 5; R. C. 1905, § 2122; 1903, ch. 6, § 5.]

§ 2884. Citizen may send sample of food or beverage for analysis. Any citizen of the state may, by prepaying the transportation charges, send any article of manufactured food or food product, or beverage in the original package to said station to be analyzed, and such article, if not before analyzed, shall be analyzed and included in the next bulletin or report of the station as provided for in section 2887. [1907, ch. 195, § 6; R. C. 1905, § 2123; 1903, ch. 6, § 6.]

§ 2885. Facts, how transmitted. Whenever said station shall find by its analysis that adulterated, misbranded or insufficiently labeled food products or beverages have been on sale in this state, it shall forthwith transmit the facts so found to the attorney-general and to the state's attorney of the county in which said food product was found. [1907, ch. 195, § 7; R. C. 1905, § 2124; 1903, ch. 6, § 7.]

§ 2886. Certificates as evidence. Every certificate duly signed and acknowledged by the chemist of the North Dakota government agricultural experiment station at Fargo relating to the analysis of any food, food products or beverage, shall be presumptive evidence of the facts therein stated. [1907, ch. 195, § 8; R. C. 1905, § 2125; 1903, ch. 6, § 8.]

§ 2887. Station to make annual report. The said station shall make an annual report to the governor upon adulterated food products, and said report may be included in the report which the said station is already authorized by law to make to the governor and the said station is further authorized to publish or cause to be printed from time to time such bulletins as are found necessary for setting forth the results of analysis and investigations made under this article, and in June and December of each year the said station shall furnish to the auditor of each county in the state a certified list of all adulterated foods, food products and beverages as found by such analysis, showing the name and brand of the article, the manufacturer and the reason for classing the same as illegal. The county auditor of each county shall cause the said list to be printed in the official papers of such county. Said publication shall be made in July and January of each year and shall continue for two successive issues, to be paid for by such county at the rate allowed by law for publishing the proceedings of the board of county commissioners. [1907, ch. 195, § 9; R. C. 1905, § 2126; 1903, ch. 6, § 9.]

§ 2888. Duty of sheriff on presentation of complaint of violation of this act. Compensation. It is hereby made the duty of the sheriff of any county of this state, on presentation to him of a verified complaint of the violation of any provision of this article, to at once proceed to obtain by purchase a sample of the adulterated food, food products or beverage complained of, and forward the same to the said station for analysis, marking the package or wrapper containing the same for identification with the name of the person from whom procured, the date on which the same was procured and the substance therein contained. For his services hereunder the said sheriff shall be allowed the same fees for travel as are now allowed by law to sheriffs on service of criminal process, together with such compensation as may be by the county commissioners of his county deemed reasonable, and all amounts expended by him in procuring and transmitting the said samples, which fees and amount expended shall be audited and allowed by the said commissioners and paid by his said county as other bills of said sheriff. [1907, ch. 195, § 10; R. C. 1905, §§ 2127, 2128; 1903, ch. 6, § 10.]

§ 2889. No action in court. No action shall be maintained in any court in this state on account of any sale or other contract made in violation of this article. [1907, ch. 195, § 11; R. C. 1905, § 2129; 1903, ch. 6, § 12.]

ARTICLE 41.— FERTILIZERS.

§ 2890. Dealers must affix certificates on packages. Contents. Every person who shall sell, offer or expose for sale in this state any commercial fertilizer or any material to be used as a fertilizer, the selling price of which exceeds five dollars per ton, shall stamp on or affix to each package of such fertilizer, in a conspicuous place on the outside thereof, a plainly printed statement which shall certify as follows:

1. The number of net pounds of fertilizer in the package sold or offered for sale.
2. The name, brand or trade mark under which the fertilizer is sold.
3. The name and address of the manufacturer of the fertilizer.
4. The chemical composition of the fertilizer expressed in the following form and order:

-Per cent phosphoric acid soluble in water.
-Per cent phosphoric acid reverted.
-Per cent phosphoric acid insoluble.
-Per cent phosphoric acid total.
-Per cent nitrogen in nitrates.
-Per cent nitrogen as ammonia.
-Per cent nitrogen total.
-Per cent potash soluble in water.
-Per cent chlorin.

If any fertilizer be sold, offered or exposed for sale in bulk, such printed statement shall accompany every lot and parcel so sold, offered or exposed for sale. [R. C. 1905, § 2130; 1903, ch. 101, § 1.]

§ 2891. What deemed violation. It shall be a violation of the provisions of this article if the statement required by section 2890 shall be false in regard to the number of net pounds of fertilizer in the package sold, offered or exposed for sale, or in the name, brand or trade mark under which the fertilizer is sold or in the name and address of the manufacturer of the fertilizer. It shall also be a violation of the provisions of this article if any commercial fertilizer or material to be used as a fertilizer shall contain a smaller percentage of nitrogen, phosphoric acid or potash than is certified therein, when such deficiency shall be greater than one-third of one per centum of nitrogen, or one-half of one per centum of available phosphoric acid (or one per centum of total phosphoric acid in the case of undissolved bone,) or one-half of one per centum of potash soluble in distilled water. [R. C. 1905, § 2131; 1903, ch. 101, § 2.]

§ 2892. Conditions to be complied with before sale. Before any commercial fertilizer or any material to be used as a fertilizer is sold, offered or exposed for sale in this state, the manufacturer, importer or person who causes the same to be sold, offered or exposed for sale, shall file with the North Dakota government agricultural experiment station a certified copy of the statement prescribed in section 2890, and, in addition, such statement shall be filed thereafter annually during the month of December. Each manufacturer, importer or person, before selling, offering or exposing for sale in this state any brand of commercial fertilizer, shall annually, during the month of December, pay to the director of the North Dakota government agricultural experiment station a license fee of twenty dollars for each and every brand of fertilizer, bearing a distinctive name, brand or trade mark, which said manufacturer, importer or person is to sell, offer or expose for sale in this state during the calendar year next succeeding said payment; provided, always, that the placing of any new brand upon the market at any time during said calendar year shall be preceded by such payment. Each manufacturer, importer or person who has complied with the provisions of this article relative to filing the aforesaid certified statement and to the payment of the aforesaid license fee shall be entitled to receive a certificate from the director of said station setting forth said facts. Said director shall pay all money received as aforesaid to the treasurer of the North Dakota government agricultural experiment station, which treasurer, when said money is so appropriated by the board of trustees of said station, shall pay the money so received, or so much of it as may be necessary, in maintaining the expenses of enforcing the provisions of this article. Said board of trustees shall report annually the expenditures so incurred for salaries, laboratory expenses, chemical supplies, traveling expenses and printing. [R. C. 1905, § 2132; 1903, ch. 101, § 3.]

§ 2893. What prohibited. No person shall sell, offer or expose for sale in this state leather or its products or other inert nitrogenous material in any form, as a fertilizer or as an ingredient of any fertilizer, unless an explicit printed statement of the fact shall be conspicuously affixed to every package of such fertilizer, and shall accompany every parcel or lot of the same. [R. C. 1905, § 2133; 1903, ch. 101, § 4.]

§ 2894. Penalty for violation. Every person violating any of the provisions of this article shall forfeit and pay to the people of the state of North Dakota the sum of one hundred dollars for every such violation. [R. C. 1905, § 2134; 1903, ch. 101, § 5.]

§ 2895. Certificate of chemist presumptive evidence. Every certificate duly signed and acknowledged by the chemist of the North Dakota government agricultural experiment station at Fargo, relating to the analysis of any commercial fertilizer, shall be presumptive evidence of the facts therein stated. [R. C. 1905, § 2135; 1903, ch. 101, § 6.]

§ 2896. What constitutes violation. The doing of anything prohibited by this article shall be evidence of the violation of the provisions of this article relating to the things so prohibited and the omission to do anything directed to be done shall be evidence of a violation of the provisions of this article relative to the things so directed to be done. [R. C. 1905, § 2136; 1901, ch. 101, § 7.]

§ 2897. Director of experiment station to enforce. The director of the North Dakota government agricultural experiment station is charged with the enforcement of the provisions of this article, and for this purpose, may employ agents, chemists and experts, and whenever he shall know or have reason to believe that any penalty has been incurred by any person for the violation of any of the provisions of this article, or that any sum has been forfeited by reason of any such violation he shall report the said violation with a statement of the facts to the state's attorney for the district wherein the offense is committed, who shall begin proceedings according to the state law. [R. C. 1905, § 2137; 1901, ch. 101, § 8.]

ARTICLE 42.—PURE SEED LAW.

§ 2898. Seeds, how labeled or branded. Each and every package or lot of seeds, excepting only garden seeds in a packet or a package of one pound or less, whether in package or in bulk, which is sold, offered or exposed for sale by any person, firm or corporation in the state of North Dakota, shall be plainly, legibly and indelibly labeled in English upon the exterior of the container with a written or printed label. Such label shall show:

First: The commonly accepted name of the kind and variety of seed.

Second: The full name and address of the person or persons, firm or corporation selling, offering or exposing the seeds for sale. [1909, ch. 209, § 1.]

§ 2900. Seeds, feeds and forage stuffs, the sale of which are forbidden or unlawful. (1) Seeds prohibited. No person, firm or corporation shall sell, offer or expose for sale or for distribution in the state any agricultural or garden seeds, excepting only garden seeds in a packet or package of one pound or less, which contain any of the seeds of couch or quack grass, Canada thistle, sow thistle or dodder.

(2) Seeds, unlawful. The sale of agricultural or garden seeds under special or written guarantee, as pure seeds for sowing or planting purposes, containing seeds of any kind or kinds, in greater numbers than a total of twenty (20) per pound in flax, cereals or other seeds of like size, or a total of one hundred (100) such foreign seeds per ounce in seeds of smaller type such as alfalfa, grasses or clovers is unlawful.

(3) Seeds which must be labeled "uncleaned." The sale or exposure for sale of agricultural or garden seeds containing more than a reasonable trace of any foreign seeds whether of other cultivated varieties or of noxious weeds such as greater ragweed, corn flower, marsh elder, russian pigweed, dandelion, chicory, russian thistles, plantain, buck plantain, bracted plantain, white cockle, night-flowering catchfly, pink cockle, corn cockle, cow cockle, curled dock, sorrel, sheep-sorrel, purslane, bindweed, wild buckwheat, wild onion, wild oats, holy grass, cress, mustard, tumbling mustard, hare's ear mustard, pennycress, pepper grass, shepherd's purse, false flax, bird's foot trefoil, yellow trefoil, bur clover, ergot or of the seeds of any other noxious weeds is unlawful, except such seeds be plainly labeled in English "uncleaned seeds" as further provided in section 2903.

(4) Minimum germination. The minimum germination of agricultural and garden seeds except only the seeds of parsnip, salsify, spinach, lettuce, parsley, medicinal herbs and the seeds of plants grown for flowers only, which may be sold and distributed in the state of North Dakota as seed for sowing or planting purposes shall be sixty per cent (60%) of actual viability. All seeds of lower viability than the minimum hereby established shall be classed as seeds for "food, forage or manufacturing purposes" as provided in section 2903. Any grower or seedsmen may guarantee the approximate viability of any brand, bulk, bag or package of seed that he may place upon the market.

(5) Seeds, certified. On and after July first, 1913, the state seed commissioner shall cause to be examined the crop of stock of seed of all persons within the state of North Dakota who claim to be growers of pedigreed or improved seeds of any variety of agricultural or garden seeds. There shall also be kept in the office of the state seed commissioner a record of all growers of standard pedigreed seed and on or before March first of each year the state seed commissioner shall publish a list of all such growers and dealers who may have acquired by purchase any such properly certified seeds, which list shall be sent to any resident of the state of North Dakota upon application. He shall also, under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, issue to each grower a certificate of the grade of purity and viability of the crops or seeds examined, and each certificate shall show the amount of seed which may be sold under said certificate. All such certified, pedigreed or improved seed if sold as seed for sowing or planting purposes shall be labelled so as to show the certificate number and conform to the requirements of the other sections of the pure seed law. The state seed commissioner may, for cause, upon due notification, revoke any certificate so issued and no new certificate shall be issued to said holder during the period of one full year following the date of the cancellation of his certificate. For each certificate so issued there shall be paid to the treasurer of the agricultural college the sum of two (2) dollars, and at the end of each month shall be paid into the state treasury. All funds so collected shall be expended under requisition by the state seed commissioner for the aid and furtherance of the work of inspection and analysis necessary to the issuing of these certificates and keeping of the records specified in this clause.

“ Pedigreed seed ” is hereby defined as seed of only one variety dating in history to a selected individual parent plant. “ Improved seed ” is hereby defined as seed of only one variety of sufficient purity and viability to meet the requirements of the state seed laws as seed for sowing or planting purposes. [1913, ch. 229, § 3; 1909, ch. 209, § 3.]

This section concluded with the following paragraph, which was vetoed by the governor for the reason that the revenues of the state had been largely exceeded by the appropriations:

“ There is hereby annually appropriated out of any moneys in the state treasury, not otherwise appropriated, the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars in addition to that already annually appropriated to the pure seed laboratory for the furtherance of the work authorized in the pure seed law and for the further equipment of the pure seed laboratory for field inspection, germination tests and analysis of seed and forage stuffs as specified in this act, and for aid in publishing such reports and information as shall best further the culture and distribution of seeds of high grade and quality within the state, said payments to be made in four quarterly installments to the treasurer of the North Dakota agricultural college experiment station at Fargo, on the first days of July, October, January and April, and the state auditor is hereby authorized and directed to draw his orders for such payments.”

§ 2901. Mislabelling or misbranding seeds. It shall be unlawful for any person, either for himself or while acting as agent or servant of any other person, firm or corporation, to sell, offer or expose for sale, or to deliver within the state of North Dakota any seeds which are misbranded within the meaning of this article. Seed or seeds shall be deemed to be misbranded if the contents of any sack or lot of seeds, whether in package or in bulk containers, is not labeled in accordance with the requirements of sections 2898, 2899 and 2903, or if such seed or seeds be falsely labeled in any respect. [1909, ch. 209, § 4.]

§ 2902. Penalty for violation of article. Whoever sells, offers or exposes for sale or for distribution in the state any seeds without complying with the requirements of sections 2898 and 2899, or in violation of sections 2900 and 2903, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction shall be fined not less than ten dollars and costs, nor more than one hundred dollars and the costs of the prosecution for the first offense, and not less than one hundred dollars and costs nor more than five hundred dollars and costs of prosecution for the second or any subsequent offense. [1909, ch. 209, § 5.]

§ 2903. Sale of seeds for manufacture, food or forage. Uncleaned seed and seeds in transit. The provisions of this article shall not apply to any person, firm or corporation growing or selling or exposing for sale cereals or other seeds for manufacturing purposes, for food or forage; provided, that the provisions of this article shall not apply to the sale or exposure for sale of uncleaned seed, provided each package, lot or bulk of such uncleaned seed sold, exposed or offered for sale be plainly labeled with the words, "uncleaned seed;" and provided, further, that in case of large quantities of such unclean seeds stored in an elevator, granary or warehouse, they shall be labeled the bins or subdivisions, "uncleaned seeds," and no such uncleaned seed shall be sold or delivered within the state for sowing purposes without the consent of the purchaser. This article shall not apply to seeds or grains in transit. [1909, ch. 209, § 6.]

§ 2904. The North Dakota agricultural college experiment station to inspect, analyze and test seeds. The North Dakota agricultural college experiment station at Fargo shall inspect, examine and make analyses of or test seeds sold, offered or exposed for sale in the state at such time and places and to such extent as it may determine. The director of said experiment station is hereby authorized to appoint a state seed commissioner and such other agents as he may deem necessary to carry out the provisions of this article, and said commissioner or agents shall have free access at all reasonable hours upon and into any premises or structures to make examinations of any seeds, whether such seeds are upon the premises of the owner of such seeds, or on other premises, or in the possession of any warehouse, elevator or railway company; and upon tendering payment thereof at the current value, may take from any person, firm or corporation any sample or samples of such seeds. The salary of said commissioner and of other agents shall be fixed and paid by the trustees of said experiment station. [1909, ch. 209, § 7.]

§ 2905. Citizens may send samples of seed or seeds for analysis or test. Any citizen of the state of North Dakota may, in accordance with regulations prescribed by the state seed commissioner, prepaying the transportation charges, send a sample or samples of seed to said experiment station for examination, analysis or test, and such sample or samples shall be examined, analyzed or tested and reported upon free of charge. [1909, ch. 209, § 8.]

§ 2906. Certificates as evidence. The certificate of the botanist of the North Dakota agricultural college experiment station at Fargo, giving the results of any examinations, analysis or test of any seed sample made under the authority of said experiment station, shall be presumptive evidence of the facts therein stated. [1909, ch. 209, § 9.]

§ 2907. Facts, how transmitted. When said experiment station shall find by its examinations, analyses or tests that any person, firm or corporation has violated any of the provisions of this article, the state seed commissioner may transmit the facts so found to the attorney-general or to the state's attorney of the county in which the offense was committed or the misbranded seeds were found. [1909, ch. 209, § 10.]

§ 2908. Duty of attorney-general and state's attorney. It shall be the duty of the attorney-general and the state's attorney to prosecute all persons violating any of the provisions of this article when the evidence thereof has been presented by the state seed commissioner. [1909, ch. 209, § 11.]

Attorney-general has right to appear before grand jury and examine witnesses in regard to matters relating to prohibition law. State ex rel. Miller v. District Ct., 19 N. D. 819, 124 N. W. 417, Ann. Cas. 1912D, 935.

§ 2909. Station to make report. The North Dakota agricultural college experiment station, through the state seed commissioner, shall make an annual report to the governor upon the work done under this article, which report shall show the results of the inspection, examinations, analyses or tests made together with the date or dates of said inspection, examination, analyses or tests, and may include the names of persons, firms or corporations having seeds under such inspection, examination, analysis or test. The said experiment station may also publish bulletins or press reports setting forth results of inspection, examinations, analyses or tests, conducted under the provisions of this article, which bulletins or press reports may include the names of the persons, firms or corporations having seeds under such inspection, examination, analysis or test. [1909, ch. 109, § 12.]

§ 2910. Appropriation. There is hereby annually appropriated out of any money in the state treasury, not otherwise appropriated, the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars, to be paid to the treasurer of the North Dakota agricultural college experiment station at Fargo, and the same shall be expended for the equipment of a seed testing laboratory and in carrying out the provisions of this article. Said payment shall be made in four quarterly installments on the first days of July, October, January and April, and the state auditor is hereby authorized and directed to draw his orders for such payments. [1909, ch. 209, § 13.]

ARTICLE 43.— CONCENTRATED COMMERCIAL FEEDING STUFF.

§ 2911. Feeding stuffs, how labeled. Every lot or parcel of any "concentrated commercial feeding stuff," as defined in section 2913, used for feeding farm live stock, sold, offered or exposed for sale in the state, shall have affixed in a conspicuous place on the outside thereof, a legible and plainly written statement, clearly and truly certifying the number of net pounds contained therein, the name, brand or trade mark under which the article is sold, the name and address of the manufacturer or importer, and a statement of the percentage it contains of crude protein, allowing one per cent of nitrogen to equal (n. x 6.25) six and one-fourth per cent crude fat, and of crude fibre, said constituents to be determined by the methods of the association of official agricultural chemists of the United States as adopted at that time. [1907, ch. 197, § 1.]

§ 2912. Feeding stuffs exempted. The term "concentrated commercial feeding stuffs" as here used shall not include hays, straw, whole seeds, nor the unmixed meals made directly from the seed of wheat, rye, speltz, barley, oats, Indian corn, buckwheat or broom corn, and neither shall it include wheat, rye, buckwheat, brans or middlings not mixed with other substances, but sold separately as distinct articles of commerce, nor pure grains ground together. [1907, ch. 197, § 2.]

§ 2913. Feeding stuffs to be labeled. The term "concentrated commercial feeding stuffs," as here used, shall include linseed meals, cotton seed meals, cotton seed feeds, pea meals, cocoanut meals, gluten meals, gluten feeds, maize feeds, starch feeds, sugar feeds, dried brewer's grains, dried distiller's grains, malt sprouts, hominy feeds, cereline feeds, rice meals, dried beef, refuse, oat feeds, corn and oat chops, corn and oat feeds, corn bran, ground beef or fish scraps, meat and bone meal, clover meals, condimental foods, poultry foods, stock foods, patented, proprietary or trade marked stock and poultry foods (whether to be used as foods or medicines), mixed feeds, other than those composed solely of bran and middlings mixed together, or pure grains ground together, and all other materials of similar nature not included in section 2912. [1907, ch. 197, § 3.]

§ 2914. Shall file statement with station. Each and every manufacturer, importer, agent or seller of any "concentrated commercial feeding stuff" shall, during the month of December, file with the North Dakota government agricultural experiment station a certified copy of the statement named in section 2911, and upon request shall furnish a sealed glass jar or bottle containing a representative sample of at least one pint of the feeding stuff to be sold or offered for sale in this state. [1907, ch. 197, § 4.]

§ 2915. Fines for failure to comply with the law. Each and every manufacturer, importer, agent or person, selling, offering or exposing for sale in this state any "concentrated commercial feeding stuff," as defined in section 2913, without the statement required by section 2911, and stating that said feeding stuff contains substantially a larger percentage of either of the constituents mentioned in section 2911 than is contained therein, or in relation to which the provisions of all the foregoing sections have not been fully complied with, shall be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars for the first offense, and not exceeding two hundred dollars for each subsequent offense. [1907, ch. 197, § 5.]

§ 2916. Licenses for feeding stuffs. Every manufacturer, importer, agent or seller of any "concentrated commercial feeding stuffs" shall pay annually, during the month of December, to the North Dakota government agricultural experiment station, a license fee of fifteen dollars for each and every brand sold or offered for sale in North Dakota. Whenever the manufacturer, importer or agent or seller of "concentrated commercial feeding stuffs" desires at any time to sell such material and has not paid the license fee therefor in the preceding month of December, as required by this section, he shall pay the license fee prescribed herein before making the sale. Each manufacturer, importer or person who has complied with the provisions of this article shall be entitled to receive a certificate from the director of the government agricultural experiment station at Fargo, setting forth said facts. Whenever a manufacturer, importer or shipper of "concentrated commercial feeding stuffs" shall have filed the statement required by section 2911, and paid the license fee as prescribed in this section, no other agent or seller, manufacturer, importer or shipper shall be required to file such statement or pay such fee for the same brands. [1907, ch. 197, § 6.]

§ 2917. Fines for adulterating feeds. Any person who shall adulterate any kind of meal or ground grain with milling or manufacturing offals, or any other substance whatever, for the purpose of sale, unless the true composition, mixture or adulteration thereof is plainly marked or indicated upon the package containing the same, or in which it is offered for sale, or any person who knowingly sells or offers for sale any meal or ground grain which has been so adulterated, unless the true composition of the mixture is plainly marked or indicated upon the package containing the same, or in which it is offered for sale, shall be fined not less than twenty-five dollars, nor more than one hundred dollars for each offense. [1907, ch. 197, § 7.]

§ 2918. Experiment station to enforce law. The North Dakota government agricultural experiment station at Fargo is hereby authorized to have collected a sample, not exceeding two pounds in weight, for analysis, from any lot, parcel or package of any "concentrated commercial feeding stuff" as defined by section 2913, or any kind of material which is used in the feeding of domestic animals, and which may be in the possession of any manufacturer, importer, agent or dealer, and whenever requested said sample shall be taken in the presence of said party or parties in interest, or their representatives, and taken from a number of parcels or packages, which shall not be less than five per centum of the whole lot inspected, and shall be thoroughly mixed, divided into two samples, placed in glass vessels, carefully sealed, and a label placed on each stating the name or brand of the feeding stuff or material sampled, the name of the party from whose stock the sample was taken, and the time and place of taking the same, and said label shall be signed by the collector or his deputy, and by the party or parties in interest or their representatives present at the taking and sealing of said samples; one of said samples shall be retained by the collector or his deputy, and the other by the party whose stock is sampled. The said North Dakota government agricultural experiment station shall cause at least one sample of each brand of feeding stuff collected as herein provided to be analyzed annually. Said analysis shall include determinations of crude fat, crude fibre, crude protein, and such other determinations as may at any time be deemed advisable. Said North Dakota government agricultural experiment station shall cause the analysis so made to be published in its annual report to the governor, also said analysis may be published in station bulletins, together with such other additional information in relation to the character, composition and use thereof as may seem to be of importance, and issue the same annually, or more frequently, if deemed advisable. For the purpose of enforcement of this article the director of the experiment station, his deputy or his agents, shall have full and free access to all places of business, mills, buildings, carriages, cars, vessels and packages, of whatsoever kind used in the manufacture, importation or sale of any "concentrated commercial feeding stuff," and shall also have power and authority to open any packages containing or supposed to contain any "concentrated commercial feeding stuff," and take therefrom samples for analysis. [1907, ch. 197, § 8.]

Appropriation for the enforcement of the law, see section 1624.

§ 2919. What constitutes violation of the law. The doing of anything prohibited by this article shall be evidence of the violation of the provisions of this article relating to the things so prohibited and the omission to do anything directed to be done shall be evidence of a violation of the provisions of this article relative to the things so directed to be done. [1907, ch. 197, § 9.]

§ 2920. Duty of station. The director of the North Dakota government agricultural experiment station or his agent or deputy is charged with the enforcement of the provisions of this article, and for this purpose, may employ agents, chemists and experts, and whenever he shall know or have reason to believe that any penalty has been incurred by any person for the violation of any of the provisions of this article, or that any sum has been forfeited by reason of any such violation, he or his agent shall report the said violation with a statement of the facts to the attorney-general or to the state's attorney for the district wherein the offense is committed, who shall begin proceedings according to the state law. [1907, ch. 197, § 10.]

See appropriation in section 1624.

§ 2921. Importer defined. The term "importer," for all purposes of this act, is intended to apply to such person or persons as shall bring into, or offer for sale within this state "concentrated commercial feeding stuffs" manufactured without this state; provided, that nothing in this article shall be construed as prohibiting persons engaged within the state of North Dakota in the business of manufacturing flours, from selling at the place where made, their own manufacture of bran and middlings, without complying with the provisions of section 2911. [1907, ch. 197, § 11.]

ARTICLE 44.—PROTECTION OF MANUFACTURERS OF BEVERAGES.

§ 2922. Protection of manufacturers of soda water, etc. Registration of trade mark. It shall be the duty of the register of deeds of any county in this state, on the application of any person, firm or corporation lawfully manufacturing, selling or bottling within his county, soda water, mineral water, and other like beverages, to record in a book suitable for such purposes, a description of the names, brands, trade marks and labels, or any of them, used by such person, firm or corporation for making his or its casks, kegs, barrels, bottles, jugs, fountains, boxes or other packages, which book shall be and remain a public record in his office. The register of deeds shall collect of any such person, firm or corporation making application to have any such description of name, brand or trade mark recorded in said register of deed's office, a registration fee of fifty cents for each and every such description of name, brand, label or trade mark before the same shall be received for record and entered upon the books of the register of deeds office. [R. C. 1905, § 2138; 1901, ch. 185.]

ARTICLE 45.—ADULTERATION OF PAINTS.

§ 2923. Label must show mineral constituents of paints offered for sale. Every person, firm or corporation who manufactures for sale or exposes for sale, or sells within this state, any white lead, paint or compound intended for use as such, shall label the same in clear and distinct open gothic letters upon a white background and show the true per cent of each mineral constituent contained in said paint, or if other than linseed oil is used in its preparation, the names of such oils or substitutes shall be shown together with the percentage thereof, and every person, firm or corporation who manufactures for sale, or exposes for sale or sells within this state any mixed paint or compound intended for use as such, which contains any ingredients other than pure linseed oil, pure carbonate of lead, oxide of zinc, turpentine, Japan dryer and pure colors shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall, for each offense, be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five and not more than one hundred dollars and costs, or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding sixty days; provided, that any such person, firm or corporation who shall manufacture for sale or expose for sale, or sell within this state any white lead, paint or mixed paint, containing ingredients other than those as above enumerated, shall not be deemed guilty of a violation of this article in case the same be properly labeled showing the quantity or amount of each and every ingredient used therein and not specified above, and the name and residence of the manufacturer or person for whom it is manufactured. [R. C. 1905, § 2139; 1905, ch. 8, § 1.]

Does not deny equal protection of laws or constitute deprivation of property without due process of law. Heath & Milligan Mfg. Co. v. Worst, 207 U. S. 338, 52 Led. 236.

Requiring label to show ingredients, name and residence of manufacturer, etc. 40 L.R.A. (N.S.) 876.

§ 2924. Possession prima facie evidence of violation, when. The having in possession by any person, firm or corporation dealing in said articles, any articles or substances hereinbefore described and not properly labeled, as provided by section 2923, shall be considered prima facie evidence that the same is kept by such person or firm in violation of the provisions of this article and punishable under it. [R. C. 1905, § 2140; 1905, ch. 8, § 2.]

§ 2925. Director experiment station and assistants to enforce. The director of the North Dakota government agricultural experiment station is charged with the proper enforcement of all the provisions of this article. The said director and the assistants, experts, chemists and agents shall be duly authorized for the purpose, and shall have access and ingress to all places of business, factories, stores and buildings used for the manufacture or sale of paints. They shall also have power and authority to open any package, can, jar, tub or other receptacle containing white lead paints that may be sold, manufactured or exposed for sale, in violation of the provisions of this article. This article shall take effect and be in force from and after January first, 1906. [R. C. 1905, § 2141; 1905, ch. 8, §§ 3, 4, 5.]

ARTICLE 46.—ADULTERATING FORMALDEHYDE.

The provisions in this article were expressly excepted from repeal in Laws 1913, ch. 171, § 15, which chapter constitutes sections 10,210-10,224 herein.

§ 2926. Duty of manufacturers and dealers. It shall be the duty of each and every manufacturer of formaldehyde (the aldehyde of methyl alcohol), to be used as a fungicide within the state, and of every dealer of original packages of said formaldehyde manufactured outside of this state, before the said formaldehyde is offered or exposed for sale, or sold within this state as a fungicide, or for fungicidal purposes, to submit to the director of the North Dakota government agricultural experiment station at Fargo, samples of said formaldehyde, and a written or printed statement setting forth the brand or brands of said formaldehyde to be sold, the number of pounds contained in each retainer or container in which it is put on the market for sale, the name or names of the manufacturers and the place of manufacturing the same. The statement shall set forth in per cent by weight, the amount of formaldehyde contained in the said solution of formaldehyde, and the statement so furnished shall be considered as constituting a guaranty to the purchaser that every quantity, sold or offered for sale, shall contain not less than the amount of formaldehyde expressed in per cent as set forth in the said statement. [R. C. 1905, § 2142; 1905, ch. 7, § 1.]

§ 2927. Right to sell in the state, how obtained. Every purchaser of said formaldehyde in original packages, which is manufactured outside of this state, who intends to sell or expose the same for sale, and every manufacturer of said formaldehyde within this state shall, after filing the statement above provided for, with the director of the North Dakota government agricultural experiment station at Fargo, receive from the said director a certificate stating that he has complied with the foregoing statement, which certificate shall be furnished without charge therefor; said certificate when furnished shall authorize the party when receiving the same to deal in this state in the said formaldehyde. Any person who fails to comply with the terms of section 2926 shall not be entitled to such certificate and it shall not be construed as applying to retail dealers selling formaldehyde which has already been labeled and guaranteed. [R. C. 1905, § 2143; 1905, ch. 7, § 2.]

§ 2928. Legal strength. Formaldehyde when sold, offered or exposed for sale, as a fungicide, in this state, shall contain at least forty per cent by weight of formaldehyde, and if it falls below thirty-eight per cent it shall be deemed adulterated within the meaning of the terms of this article. [R. C. 1905, § 2144; 1905, ch. 7, § 3.]

§ 2929. Duty of director of North Dakota agricultural college experiment station. The director of the North Dakota government agricultural experiment station at Fargo shall secure different brands of formaldehyde sold, offered or exposed for sale within the state, and shall have said samples of formaldehyde analyzed, and for this purpose he may appoint such agent or agents as he may deem necessary, for the enforcement of this article, and such agent or agents shall have free access and egress at all reasonable hours, for the purpose of examining into any place wherein it is suspected any formaldehyde may be kept, and such agent or agents may take from any person, firm or corporation samples of said formaldehyde for analysis and when said goods are found on analysis to be in violation of this law the said director shall report the said fact to the state's attorney for the district wherein the offense is committed. [R. C. 1905, § 2145; 1905, ch. 7, § 4.]

§ 2930. Certificates as evidence. Every certificate duly signed and acknowledged by the chemist of the North Dakota government agricultural experiment station at Fargo relating to the analysis of any formaldehyde shall be presumptive evidence of the facts therein stated. [R. C. 1905, § 2146; 1905, ch. 7, § 5.]

§ 2932. What constitutes violation. The doing of anything prohibited by this article shall be evidence of the violation of the provisions of this article relating to the things so prohibited and the omission to do anything directed to be done shall be evidence of a violation of the provisions of this article relative to the things so directed to be done, and any person who shall sell any unbroken package of formaldehyde or any part thereof which has not been labeled as herein provided, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined not less than ten dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, together with the costs of the suit in an action caused to be brought by the director of the North Dakota government agricultural experiment station in the name of the people of the state of North Dakota. [R. C. 1905, § 2148; 1905, ch. 7, § 7.]

§ 2933. Duty of manufacturers and dealers. It shall be the duty of each and every manufacturer of Paris green (commercial acetoarsenite of copper) to be used as an insecticide within the state, and of every dealer in original packages of said Paris green manufactured outside of this state, before the said Paris green is offered or exposed for sale, or sold within this state as an insecticide, to submit to the director of the North Dakota government agricultural experiment station at Fargo, samples of said Paris green, and a written or printed statement setting forth: First, the brands of said Paris green, to be sold, the number of pounds contained in each package in which it is put on the market for sale, the name or names of the manufacturers and the place of manufacturing the same; second, the statement shall set forth the amount of combined arsenic which the said Paris green contains, and the statement so furnished shall be considered as constituting a guaranty to the purchaser that every package of such Paris green contains not less than the amount of combined arsenic set forth in the statement. [R. C. 1905, § 2149; 1905, ch. 9, § 1.]

§ 2934. Regulation of sale. Legal strength. Every purchaser of said Paris green in original packages, which is manufactured outside of this state, who intends to sell or expose the same for sale, and every manufacturer of said Paris green within this state, shall, after filing the statement above provided for, with the director of the North Dakota government agricultural experiment station at Fargo, receive from the said director a certificate stating that he has complied with the foregoing statement, which certificate shall be furnished without charge therefor; said certificate when furnished shall authorize the party when receiving the same to deal in this state in the said Paris green. Any person who fails to comply with the terms of section 2933 shall not be entitled to such certificate and it shall not be construed as applying to retail dealers selling Paris green which has already been labeled and guaranteed. Paris green, when sold, offered or exposed for sale, as an insecticide, in this state, shall contain at least fifty per cent of arsenious oxide, and shall not contain more than four per cent of the same in the uncombined state. [R. C. 1905, § 2150; 1905, ch. 9, §§ 2, 3.]

§ 2935. Duty of the director of North Dakota agricultural college experiment station. The director of the North Dakota government agricultural experiment station at Fargo shall examine or cause to be examined different brands of Paris green sold, offered or exposed for sale within the state, and cause samples of the same to be analyzed, and for this purpose he may appoint such agent or agents as he may deem necessary for the enforcement of this article, and such agent or agents shall have free access at all reasonable hours for the purpose of examining into any place wherein it is suspected any Paris green may be kept, and such agent or agents may take from any person, firm or corporation, samples of said Paris green for analysis and when said goods are found on analysis to be in violation of this article the said director shall report the said facts to the state's attorney for the district wherein the offense is committed. [R. C. 1905, § 2151; 1905, ch. 9, § 4.]

§ 2936. Certificates as evidence. Every certificate duly signed and acknowledged by the chemist of the North Dakota government agricultural experiment station at Fargo relating to the analysis of any Paris green shall be presumptive evidence of the fact therein stated. [R. C. 1905, § 2152; 1905, ch. 9, § 5.]

agricultural experiment station, as provided for in sections 2935 and 2936. [R. C. 1905, § 2153; 1905, ch. 9, § 6.]

§ 2938. What constitutes violation. The doing of anything prohibited by this article shall be evidence of the violation of the provisions of this article relating to the things so prohibited and the omission to do anything directed to be done shall be evidence of a violation of the provisions of this article relative to the things so directed to be done, and any person who shall sell or dispose of any package of Paris green or any part thereof which has not been labeled as herein provided, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined not less than ten dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, together with the costs of the suit in an action caused to be brought by the director of the North Dakota government agricultural experiment station in the name of the people of the state of North Dakota. [R. C. 1905, § 2154; 1905, ch. 9, § 7.]

ARTICLE 48.—PURE DRUGS.

This article consists of Laws 1907, ch. 196, which repeals "all acts and parts of acts inconsistent" therewith, and clearly supersedes R. C. 1905, §§ 2155-2167. R. C. 1905, § 2168, provided as follows: "All goods coming into the state after July first, 1905, shall be subject to the provisions of this article while those goods within the state prior to that date shall be considered as exempt until January first, 1906. [1905, ch. 10, § 14.]"

§ 2939. Adulterating and labeling drugs. It shall be unlawful for any person, his agent or servant, or while acting as agent or servant of any other person or corporation, to manufacture for sale, offer for sale or sell within this state any drug which is adulterated within the meaning of this article. [1907, ch. 196, § 1; R. C. 1905, § 2155; 1905, ch. 10, § 1.]

§ 2940. Drugs defined. The term "drug" as used in this article shall include all medicines for internal or external use, antiseptics, disinfectants, washes, perfumes and cosmetics. [1907, ch. 196, § 2; R. C. 1905, § 2156; 1905, ch. 10, § 2.]

§ 2941. What constitutes adulteration. A drug shall be deemed to be adulterated:

1. If, when sold under or by a name recognized in the United States Pharmacopoeia or the National Formulary, official at the time, it differs from the standard of strength, quality or purity prescribed therein, unless the order therefor requires an article inferior to such standard or unless such difference is made known or so appears to the purchaser at the time of the sale.

2. If, when sold under or by a name not recognized in the United States Pharmacopoeia, or the National Formulary, but which is found in some other pharmacopoeia or other standard work on materia medica, it differs materially from the standard of strength, quality or purity prescribed in such work.

3. If its strength, quality or purity falls below the professed standard under which it is sold.

4. If it be an imitation of or offered for sale under the name of another article, or if it be falsely labeled in any respect with regard to its composition, properties, uses or place of manufacture, or if it bear any design which shall deceive or tend to deceive;

Provided, that a drug or medicine shall not be deemed adulterated in the following case:

1. If the standard of strength or purity of any drug has been raised since the issue of the last edition of the United States Pharmacopoeia or of the National Formulary, no prosecution relative to it shall be maintained until such change of standard has been published throughout the commonwealth. [1907, ch. 196, § 3; R. C. 1905, § 2157; 1905, ch. 10, § 3.]

Right to require that articles offered for sale shall answer a designated standard of purity. 41 L.R.A.(N.S.) 149.

ARTICLE 52.—DISINFECTING SECOND-HAND GOODS.

§ 2960. Dealers in second-hand household goods to disinfect same. It shall be the duty of every person, firm or corporation dealing in second-hand furniture, before selling or exchanging, or offering for sale or exchange, or intending to sell or offer for sale or exchange to the public in this state, second-hand furniture, bed clothes, wearing apparel or any articles, including kitchen equipments and utensils of every description ordinarily used in furnishing, equipping or decorating a home, to disinfect thoroughly each and every such article before the same shall be sold or exchanged, or offered for sale or exchange, or in any manner disposed of, in a manner approved or prescribed by the state board of health, and it shall be the duty of the said board to prescribe the rules and regulations necessary to secure proper disinfection, as contemplated in this article, and such other rules relative to the working or tagging of disinfected articles, as in the judgment of said board may be necessary to the proper safeguard of the public from contagious infection. [1913, ch. 134, § 1.]

§ 2961. Penalty. Any persons violating any of the provisions of this article in selling or offering for sale or exchange any article or articles of furniture without first having disinfected the same as required herein shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined in a sum not less than twenty-five dollars and not more than one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail for not less than thirty days nor more than ninety days, in the discretion of the court. [1913, ch. 134, § 2.]

ARTICLE 53.—SANITATION OF FOOD PRODUCING ESTABLISHMENTS.

§ 2962. To what places article applies. Every building, room, basement or cellar occupied or used as a bakery, confectionery, cannery, packing house, slaughter house, dairy, creamery, cheese factory, restaurant, hotel, grocery, meat market or other place or apartment used for the preparation for sale, manufacture, packing, storage, sale or distribution of any food, shall be properly lighted, drained, plumbed and ventilated and conducted with strict regard to the influence of such condition upon the health of the operatives, employes, clerks or other persons therein employed and the purity and wholesomeness of the food therein produced; and for the purpose of this article the term "food," as used herein, shall include all articles used for food, drink, confectionery or condiment, whether simple, mixed or compound, and all substances or ingredients used in the preparation thereof. [1909, ch. 188, § 1.]

§ 2963. Contents of places and utensils used must be protected. The floors, sidewalks, ceilings, furniture, receptacles, implements and machinery of every establishment or place where food is manufactured, packed, stored, sold or distributed, and all cars, trucks and vehicles used in the transportation of food products, shall at no time be kept in an unclean, unhealthy and unsanitary condition, and for the purpose of this act, unclean, unhealthful and unsanitary conditions shall be deemed to exist if food in the process of manufacture, preparation, packing, storing, sale, distribution or transportation is not securely protected from flies, dust, dirt and, as far as may be necessary, by all reasonable means from all other foreign or injurious contamination; and if the refuse, dirt and the waste products subject to decomposition and fermentation, incident to the manufacture, preparation, packing, storing, selling, distributing and transporting of food, are not removed daily; and if all trucks, trays, boxes, baskets, buckets and other receptacles, chutes, platforms, racks, tables, shelves and all knives, saws, cleavers and other utensils and machinery used in moving, handling, cutting, chopping, mixing, canning and all other processes are not thoroughly cleaned daily, and if the clothing of operatives, employes, clerks or other persons therein employed is unclean. [1909, ch. 188, § 2.]

§ 2964. Further sanitary requirements. The sidewalls and ceilings of every bakery, confectionery, creamery, cheese factory, hotel and restaurant kitchen shall be well plastered, wainscoted or ceiled with metal or lumber and shall be oil painted or kept well lime washed, and all interior wood work in every bakery, confectionery, creamery, cheese factory, hotel and restaurant kitchen shall be kept well oiled or painted with oil paints and be kept washed clean with soap and water; and every building, room, basement or cellar occupied or used for the preparation, manufacture, packing, storage, sale or distribution of food shall have an impermeable floor made of cement or tile laid in cement, brick, wood or other suitable nonabsorbent material which can be flushed and washed clean with water. [1909, ch. 188, § 3.]

§ 2965. Fly screens required. The doors, windows and other openings of every food producing or distributing establishment during the fly season shall be fitted with self-closing screen doors and wire window screens of not coarser than fourteen mesh wire gauze. [1909, ch. 188, § 4.]

§ 2966. Toilet rooms provided. Every building, room, basement or cellar occupied or used for the preparation, manufacture, packing, canning, sale or distribution of food, shall have convenient toilet or toilet rooms separate and apart from the room or rooms where the process of production, manufacture, packing, canning, selling or distributing is conducted. The floors of such toilet rooms shall be of cement, tile, wood, brick or other nonabsorbent material and shall be washed and scoured daily. Such toilet or toilets shall be furnished with separate ventilating flues or pipes, discharging into soil pipes, or on outside of the building in which they are situated. Lavatories and wash rooms shall be adjacent to toilet rooms, and shall be supplied with soap, running water and towels, and shall be maintained in a sanitary condition. Operatives, employes, clerks and all other persons who handle the material from which food is prepared, or the finished product, before beginning work or after visiting toilet or toilets, shall wash their hands and arms thoroughly in clean water. [1909, ch. 188, § 5.]

§ 2967. Cuspidors furnished. Cuspidors for the use of operatives, employes, clerks or other persons, shall be provided whenever necessary, and each cuspidor shall be thoroughly emptied and washed out daily with disinfectant solution, and five ounces of such a solution shall be left in each cuspidor while it is in use. No operative, employe or other person shall expectorate on the floor or sidewalls of any building, room, basement or cellar where the production, manufacture, packing, storing, preparation or sale of any food is conducted. [1909, ch. 188, § 6.]

§ 2968. Not used for sleeping purposes. No person or persons shall be allowed to live or sleep in any room of the bake shop, kitchen, dining room, confectionery, creamery, cheese factory or place where food is prepared, served or sold. [1909, ch. 188, § 7.]

§ 2969. Diseases enumerated. No employer shall require, permit or suffer any person to work, nor shall any person work, in a building, room, basement, cellar or vehicle occupied or used for the production, preparation, manufacture, packing, storage, sale, distribution and transportation of food who is affected with any venereal disease, smallpox, diphtheria, scarlet fever, yellow fever, tuberculosis or consumption, bubonic plague, Asiatic cholera, leprosy, trachoma, typhoid fever (epidemic), epidemic dysentery, measles, mumps, German measles (Rothein), whooping cough, chicken pox or any other infectious or contagious disease. [1909, ch. 188, § 8.]

§ 2970. Inspector may abate violations. The chief inspector or deputy inspector of any agent of the food commissioner, of the experiment station at Fargo, shall have full power at all reasonable times to enter and inspect every building, room, basement or cellar occupied or used for the production for sale, manufacture for sale, storage, sale, distribution or transportation of food and all utensils, fixtures, furniture and machinery used as aforesaid, and if upon inspection any food producing or distributing establishment, conveyance, employer, operative, employe, clerk, driver or other person is found to be violating any of the provisions of this article, or if the production, preparation, manufacture, packing, storing, sale, distribution or transportation of food is being conducted in a manner detrimental to the health of the employes and operatives and the character or quality of the food therein being produced, manufactured, packed, stored, sold, distributed or conveyed, the officer or inspector making the examination or inspection shall furnish evidence of said violation to the attorney-general and district attorney, who shall prosecute all persons violating any of the provisions of this article, or shall report such conditions and violations to the food commissioner, who shall issue an order to the person or persons in authority at the aforesaid establishment to abate the condition or violation or make such improvements as may be necessary to abate them, within the period of five days or such reasonable time as may be required in which to abate them. Such order shall be in writing, and the person receiving the order shall have the power of appeal from the order and instructions, and may within five days from the issuance of the order appear in person or by attorney before the food commissioner of the experiment station at Fargo to give reason why such order or instruction should not be obeyed. [1909, ch. 188, § 9.]

§ 2971. Penalty. Any person who violates any of the provisions of this article or who refuses to comply with any lawful orders or requirements of the food commissioner, duly made in writing, as provided in section 2970, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be punished for the first offense by a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than fifty dollars; for the second offense by a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars and for the third and subsequent offense by a fine of two hundred dollars, and imprisonment in the county jail for not less than thirty nor more than ninety days, and each day after the expiration of the time limit for abating unsanitary conditions and completing improvements to abate such conditions as ordered by the food commissioner of the experiment station at Fargo, shall constitute a distinct and separate offense. [1909, ch. 188, § 10.]

ARTICLE 54.—AUTOMOBILES.

R. C. 1905, § 2169, prescribing a limit of speed for automobiles and motor cycles was expressly repealed by Laws 1911, ch. 6, § 20, which, if retained in this compilation, would be section 2976t. For speed regulation, see section 2976i.

§ 2972. Must have bell or horn. Every automobile or motor cycle shall be provided with a bell or horn which, when operated outside of a city or village, shall be rung or blown by the driver or operator when approaching from behind a vehicle propelled by animals so as to give timely notice of the approach of said motor vehicle. [R. C. 1905, § 2170; 1905, ch. 49, § 2.]

The law of automobiles. 108 Am. St. Rep. 212; 1 L.R.A.(N.S.) 215.

§ 2973. Must use muffler, when. Must have lights. Every automobile or motor cycle using gasoline, steam or any other substance as a motive power, shall use a muffler, so-called, when operated, driven or moved upon the streets of any town, village or city within the state, or when meeting or passing animal propelled vehicles on any public road or highway within the state. Every such automobile or motor cycle shall also be provided with lights, the automobile to carry not less than two lights in front of such machine, one of which to be on either side, and the motor cycle to carry at least one light. [R. C. 1905, § 2171; 1905, ch. 49, § 3.]

Failure of driver of automobile encountering horse on highway, to display proper lights. 48 L.R.A.(N.S.) 964.

§ 2974. Law of the road. The driver or operator of any automobile or motor cycle shall be governed by the usual law of the road by turning to the right in meeting vehicles, teams or persons moving or headed in an opposite direction, and by turning to the left when passing vehicles, teams or persons moving or headed in the same direction. [R. C. 1905, § 2172; 1905, ch. 49, § 4.]

Reciprocal duty of operator of automobile and pedestrian to use care. 38 L.R.A.(N.S.) 487; 42 L.R.A.(N.S.) 1178.

§ 2975. Stop when signalled by driver of vehicle. The driver or operator in charge of any automobile or motor cycle on any public road or highway outside the limits of any town, village or city within the state, when signalled by the driver of any vehicle propelled by horses or other animal power, shall stop said automobile or motor cycle until the vehicle propelled by such animal power has passed; and if approaching said vehicle from behind, the driver or operator in charge of said automobile or motor cycle shall stop and give the driver of the said animal propelled vehicle a reasonable time for the passage of such automobile. [R. C. 1905, § 2173; 1905, ch. 49, § 5.]

§ 2976. Penalty for violation. Any person, driver or operator of any such automobile or motor cycle who shall violate any provisions of this article shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine of not less than ten dollars and not more than fifty dollars, and if default is made in the payment of such fine such person or persons shall be committed to the county jail until such fine is paid, conditioned, however, that each day's service in jail shall be equal to two dollars of such fine, and the driver or owner of such automobile or motor cycle shall be liable for damages in a civil action to any person who shall have been injured in person or property by reason of such violation of this article. [R. C. 1905, § 2174; 1905, ch. 49, § 6.]

ARTICLE 55.—REGISTRATION OF MOTOR VEHICLES, AND OTHER REGULATIONS FOR SUCH VEHICLES.

§ 2976a. Definition of terms. The term "motor vehicle" as used in this article, except where otherwise expressly provided, shall include all vehicles propelled by any other than muscular power, except traction engines, road rollers, fire wagons and engines, police patrol wagons, ambulances and such vehicles as run only upon rails or tracks.

The term "local authorities" shall include all officials of counties, cities, towns or villages.

The term "state" as used in this article, except where otherwise provided, shall include the territories and federal districts of the United States.

The term "owner" shall also include any person, firm, association or corporation owning or renting a motor vehicle or having the exclusive use thereof, under lease or otherwise, for a period greater than thirty days.

The term "public highway" shall include any highway, town road, county road, state road, public street, avenue, alley, park, parkway or public place in any county, city, town or village except any speedway which may have been or may be expressly set apart by law for the exclusive use of horses and light carriages. [1911, ch. 6, § 1.]

Registration and numbering of automobiles. 1 L.R.A. (N.S.) 215.

§ 2976b. Application for registration. Every owner of a motor vehicle which shall be operated or driven upon the public highways of this state, for each motor vehicle owned, except as herein otherwise provided, shall cause to be filed, by mail or otherwise, in the office of the secretary of state, a verified application for registration on a blank to be furnished by the secretary of state for that purpose, containing:

1. A brief description of the motor vehicle to be registered including the name of the manufacturer, the factory number and model, if such number and model there be.

2. The name, residence and business address of the owner of such vehicle and the name of the county in which he resides. [1911, ch. 6, § 2.]

§ 2976c. Change of ownership. Upon the sale of a motor vehicle registered in accordance with this section, the vendee shall, within ten days after the date of such sale, notify the secretary of state of the same upon a blank furnished him for that purpose, stating the name and business address of the previous owner, if known, the number under which such vehicle is registered, and the name, residence and business address of such vendee. Upon filing such statement such vendee shall pay to the secretary of state a fee of one dollar and upon receipt of such statement and fee the secretary of state shall file such statement in his office and also in the registration book or index such change of ownership. [1911, ch. 6, § 3.]

§ 2976d. Registration by secretary of state. Upon receipt of an application for registration of a motor vehicle or vehicles as provided in section 2976b, the secretary of state shall file such application in his office and register such motor vehicle or vehicles, with the name and residence and business address of the owner, together with the facts stated in such application in a book or index to be kept for that purpose, under the distinctive number assigned to such motor vehicle by the secretary of state, which book or index shall be open to inspection during reasonable business hours. [1911, ch. 6, § 4.]

§ 2976e. Tags delivered on payment of license fee. Upon the filing of such application and the payment of the fee provided in section 2976g, the secretary of state shall assign to such motor vehicle a distinctive number, and without other fee, issue and deliver to the owner a set of two (2) tags at registration, upon each of which shall be displayed the distinctive number assigned in the form and size provided in section 2976j, which shall be evidence of payment of license fee of such registration.

In the event of the loss, mutilation or destruction of a certificate of registration, the owner of a registered motor vehicle may obtain from the secretary of state an affidavit showing the fact and the payment of a fee of one dollar for each set of duplicates. [1911, ch. 6, § 5.]

§ 2976f. Annual renewal of registration. Such registration shall be renewed annually, and upon the payment of the same fee as provided in this article for original registration, such renewal to take effect on the first day of January of each year. [1911, ch. 6, § 6.]

§ 2976g. License fee for registration and re-registration. A fee of three ($3.00) dollars shall be paid to the secretary of state upon the registration or re-registration of a motor vehicle in accordance with the provisions of this article. [1911, ch. 6, § 7.]

§ 2976h. Registration tag to be displayed on vehicles in use. No person shall operate or drive a motor vehicle on the public highways or within the limits of any city, town or village of this state after thirty days after this article takes effect, unless such vehicle shall have been registered in accordance with this article and shall have the tag of registration assigned to it by the secretary of state conspicuously displayed on the rear of such vehicle, securely fastened. Provided, that this section shall not apply to dealers in demonstrating automobiles offered for sale.

No person shall display on such vehicle at the same time any number assigned to it under any other motor vehicle law or ordinance. [1911, ch. 6, § 8.]

§ 2976i. Color of number plates and numerals or letters. Such certificates shall be of a distinctly different color or shade each year, there being at all times a marked contrast between the color of the number plate and that of the numerals or letters thereon. [1911, ch. 6, § 9.]

§ 2976j. Size and form of registration tag. Such certificate of registration shall be substantially of the following size and form, namely: a plate or placard of metal or enamel with metal letters eight and one-half inches in length and five inches in width for one or two numerals; ten inches in length and five inches in width for three numerals; twelve inches in length and five inches in width for four or more numerals; on the left end of this plate with letters running vertically from the top, there shall be the two letters "N. D.," each letter of which shall be approximately one inch in length, and on the right end, arranged in the same manner and same size, there shall be the four numerals of the year in which the license is issued; and on the body of such plate there shall be the distinctive numbers assigned to the vehicle in numerals four inches long, each stroke of which shall be at least one-half inch in width, provided that motor cycles shall be assigned tags three inches in width and of a height to permit numerals to be placed vertically. Across the top of this tag with letters running horizontally shall be the two letters "N. D.," and across the bottom arranged in the same manner there shall be the four numerals of the year in which the license is issued, except that the last shall be in proportionate size to the small plate. Provided, further, that the owner, in lieu of such registration tag, may use a tail lamp with the registration number, the letters "N. D.," and the numerals of the year displayed in the lens, the registration numerals to be of the size displayed above. [1911, ch. 6, § 10.]

§ 2976k. Special provision for nonresidents temporarily within the state. The provisions of the foregoing sections in regard to registration shall not apply to a motor vehicle owned by a nonresident of this state, who is temporarily within the state, while passing into or through this state from an adjoining state, provided that such nonresident shall have displayed in a conspicuous way on the motor vehicle he is operating, a number and tag which shall make it and the place from which it comes easily identified. [1911, ch. 6, § 11.]

§ 2976l. Speed and other road regulations. No person shall operate a motor vehicle on the public highways of this state at a rate of speed greater than is reasonable and proper, having regard to the width, condition and use of the highway at the time and the general and usual rules of the road, or so as to endanger property or the life or limbs of any person. Provided, that upon approaching a dam, bridge, sharp curve or descent, and also in traversing such dam, bridge, sharp curve or descent and upon approaching a crossing or intersecting highway or in passing from a side street into a main thoroughfare where persons or vehicles are not plainly discernible, a person operating a motor vehicle shall have such vehicle under perfect control and the rate of speed shall not exceed one mile in eight minutes; provided, that within the limits of any incorporated city or village the rate of speed shall not exceed ten miles per hour, and provided, further, that on any street or highway outside of the limits of any incorporated city or village the rate of speed shall not exceed thirty miles per hour. [1911, ch. 6, § 12.]

Evidence as to speed of automobile. 34 L.R.A.(N.S.) 778.

Private action for violation of statute not expressly conferring it. 9 L.R.A.(N.S.) 338.

§ 2976m. Penalty for molesting driver or using without leave. No person shall tamper with or drive or operate or use a motor vehicle without the permission of the owner, and no person shall, without authority of the person in charge, climb upon or in any automobile, whether the same is in motion or at rest, or hurl stones or other missiles at the same or the occupants thereof, or shall, while such motor vehicle is at rest and unattended, sound the horn or other signaling device or attempt to manipulate any of the levers, starting crank, brakes or machinery thereof, or set such vehicle in motion or otherwise damage or interfere with the same.

Any person who enters any warehouse, garage or building of any kind and takes and removes therefrom for his own use or that of others any automobile or motor vehicle, without the knowledge and consent, express or implied, of the owner thereof, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished as provided in section 2976r.

The fact that such automobile or motor vehicle was voluntarily returned to its original place by the party taking the same before or after the owner discovers such removal, or the fact that the party taking the same was then and there in the employ of the owner of such property shall not be deemed a defense in the prosecution of such offender. [1911, ch. 6, § 13.]

§ 2976n. Disposition of license moneys by secretary of state. At the end of every month the secretary of state shall pay into the county treasury to the account of a special road maintenance fund as hereinafter provided all moneys received by him under this act which has been paid to him by owners of motor vehicles in such county, and shall file with the county auditor a verified statement of the amounts and sources thereof, providing that from the moneys received from such license he shall retain a sufficient amount for the purchase of tags and books of registration. [1911, ch. 6, § 14.]

§ 2976o. Claims for moneys expended on highways. All claims for money expended on the highways under the provisions of this article shall be paid by the county treasurer upon the presentation of properly prepared vouchers approved by the county superintendent of highways and the board of county commissioners. [1911, ch. 6, § 15.]

§ 2976p. License moneys to be expended for repairs and maintenance of highways. The moneys received by each county from this source shall be expended for repairs and maintenance on the main traveled roads of the county under the direction of the county superintendent of highways, and where no county superintendent of highways has been appointed then under the direction of the board of county commissioners, provided that all money so expended for repairs and maintenance shall be expended from April first to December first annually. Provided, further, that none of this money shall be expended within the limits of any incorporated city or village, nor shall it be expended on any road within any township that does not levy at least a tax of six mills for road purposes. [1911, ch. 6, § 16.]

§ 2976q. Civil suits for damages, Driver to stop in case of accident. Nothing in this article shall be construed to curtail or abridge the right of any person to prosecute a civil suit for damages by reason of injuries to persons or property resulting from the negligent use of the highways by a motor vehicle or its owner or his employe or agent, and in all actions and proceedings against the registered owner of a motor vehicle for negligence in the operation of such vehicle or for any violation of this article, the fact that such motor vehicle had upon it the registration number assigned to such owner under this article shall be prima facie evidence that such motor vehicle belonged to such registered owner.

In case of accident to any person or property on the public highway, due to the operation thereon of a motor vehicle, the person operating such motor vehicle shall stop and, upon the request of any person injured, or any person present, give such person his name and address. [1911, ch. 6, § 17.]

Power to require driver of automobile who has caused injury to identify himself. 40 L.R.A. (N.S.) 622; 46 L.R.A. (N.S.) 977.

§ 2976r. Penalty for violation of provisions. Any person who shall violate any provisions of this article shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine of not less than ten dollars and not more than fifty dollars, and if default is made in the payment of such fine such person or persons shall be committed to the county jail until such fine is paid; conditioned, however, that each day's service in jail shall be equal to two dollars of such fine. [1911, ch. 6, § 18.]

§ 2976s. Officials directed to enforce provisions of this article. It is the duty of the county superintendent of highways and deputy county superintendent of highways when such are appointed, and otherwise the board of county commissioners, and all police officers of incorporated cities and villages to enforce the provisions of this article. [1911, ch. 6, § 19.]

ARTICLE 56.— FIRE ESCAPES.

§ 2977. Hotel owners must provide fire escapes. The owners and proprietors of all hotels, factories, public halls, offices and other buildings in this state, over two stories in height, are required to provide safe and suitable fire escapes from all rooms above the second story of such hotel or other building, and when rooms have no outside windows there shall be affixed to the window in the hallway leading from such room at least three fire escapes in each window as herein directed. Such fire escape shall consist of at least one good cotton rope not less than one inch in diameter, to be securely and permanently fastened with iron rings or bolts at a point immediately outside or inside of at least one window in each room above the second story; and such rope shall be of sufficient length to reach to the ground; provided, that if the owner or proprietor of any such buildings shall provide good and sufficient iron ladders extending from each of the windows herein mentioned, and from points immediately adjacent to each of such windows to the ground, securely and permanently fastened to such building, or shall have the fire escape ladder in each of the rooms and hall windows aforesaid, of sufficient length to reach from such windows to the ground, he will be deemed to have complied with the requirements of this section. [R. C. 1905, § 2175; 1883, ch. 58, § 1; R. C. 1895, § 1717.]

ARTICLE 57.—HOTEL INSPECTION.

§ 2979. Hotel defined. Every building or structure kept, used or maintained as, or advertised as, or held out to the public to be an inn, hotel or public lodging house, or place where sleeping accommodations are furnished for hire to transient guests whether with or without meals, shall for the purpose of this article, be deemed to be a hotel, and wherever the word "hotel" shall occur in this article, it shall be construed to mean every such structure as is described in this section. [1909, ch. 141, § 1; 1907, ch. 135, § 1.]

§ 2980. Fire escapes, how constructed. Every hotel that is more than two stories high shall be provided with a hall on each floor extending from one outside wall to the other, and at each end of such hall shall be equipped with an iron fire escape on the outside of the building, connecting on each floor above the first, with at least two openings, which shall be well fastened and secured, with landings not less than six feet in length, and three in width, guarded by an iron railing not less than three feet in height. Such landing shall be connected by iron stairs not less than two feet wide and with steps of not less than six inches tread, and protected by a well secured hand rail on both sides and reaching to within ten feet of the ground, with a drop ladder twelve inches wide reaching from the lower platform to the ground. Such fire escapes shall be sufficient if a perpendicular iron ladder shall be used instead of the stairs; provided, such iron ladder is placed at the extreme outside of the platforms and at least two feet away from the wall of the building, and provided said ladder is equipped with round iron rounds not more than fifteen inches apart. The way of egress to such fire escape shall at all times be kept free and clear of all obstruction of any and every nature. There shall be posted and maintained in a conspicuous place in each hall and in each guest's room, except the halls and rooms on the ground floor of such hotel, a printed notice in characters not less than two inches high, calling attention to and directing the way to such fire escape. A red light shall be maintained in buildings over two stories high on each floor at the end of the hall, directly in front of the fire escape. [1909, ch. 141, § 2; 1907, ch. 135, § 2.]

§ 2981. Fire extinguishers and standpipes. Each and every hotel shall be provided with at least one chemical fire extinguisher, approved by the national board of underwriters, for every twenty-five hundred square feet or less of floor area, which such extinguisher or extinguishers shall be placed in a convenient location in a public hallway outside of the sleeping rooms, and shall always be in condition for use, or in lieu thereof, such hotel shall be equipped with not less than one and one-fourth inch standpipe with hose connections and hose of sufficient length to reach both ends of hall where standpipe is located, always attached in such hallway, which standpipe shall be supplied with a sufficient pressure of water. [1909, ch. 141, § 3; 1907, ch. 135, § 3.]

§ 2982. Provisions for buildings not over two stories high. Every hotel which is not over two stories in height and which is not provided with such fire escape as is described in section 2980 hereof, shall provide in every bedroom or sleeping apartment on the second floor a manilla rope at least five-eighths of an inch in diameter and of sufficient length to reach the ground, with knots or loops of not more than fifteen inches apart, and of sufficient strength to sustain the weight and strain of at least five hundred pounds. Such rope shall be securely fastened to the joists or studding of the building as near the window as practicable, and shall be kept coiled in plain sight at all times, nor shall such rope be covered by curtains or other obstructions. Every such hotel shall provide and maintain in a conspicuous place in every bedroom or sleeping apartment above the ground a printed notice calling attention to such rope and giving directions for its use. [1909, ch. 141, § 4; 1907, ch. 135, § 4.]

§ 2983. Elevator shafts to be protected. Every hotel which is equipped with a passenger or freight elevator shall cause the shaftway of such elevator or elevators to be inclosed with an iron sheathing as nearly airtight as is practicable and shall provide tight doors to such shaftway, or in lieu of such sheathing shall provide automatic floor traps at each floor in such shaft; either of which appliances to be built in the most approved manner for the prevention of spread of fire by means of said shaft. [1907, ch. 135, § 5.]

§ 2984. Sanitary provisions. Every hotel shall be well drained, constructed and plumbed according to established sanitary principles; shall be kept clean and in a sanitary condition, and free from effluvia arising from any sewer, drain, privy or other source within control of the owner, manager, agent or other person in charge; shall be provided with water closets or privies properly screened, for the separate use of males and females, which water closets or privies shall be disinfected as often as may be necessary to keep them at all times in a sanitary condition.

All bedrooms shall be kept free from vermin and the bedding in use shall be clean and sufficient in quantity and quality; all sheets shall be at least eight feet in length; each guest shall be furnished with two towels; in case bedrooms are carpeted the carpet or carpets thereon shall be taken up and thoroughly cleansed at least once each year; no rusted tin or iron vessel or utensil shall be used in cooking food, and all foodstuffs shall be kept in a clean and suitable place, free from dampness and contact with dirty water; the floors, closets, cupboards and walls of all kitchens shall at all times be kept free from dirt and no dust or grease shall be allowed to collect thereon; a metal container shall be provided to hold ashes where such ashes are stored in or around the hotel building. In all cases where a patient having an infectious or contagious disease has been confined in a hotel room such room shall upon the removal of such patient be closed and fumigated, and upon the completion of such fumigation the certificate of a reputable physician to that fact shall be forwarded to the hotel inspector. In all hotels or lodging houses where fifty cents or more per night is charged for lodging the sheets and pillow cases shall be changed after the departure of each guest, and within three months after the taking effect of this article it shall be unlawful to have upon a bed of any such hotel or lodging house any mattress of a lower grade than that commonly known to the trade as cotton felt combination; each mattress shall weigh at least thirty-five pounds unless it be a hair mattress, in which case it shall weigh thirty pounds or more. Each hotel, rooming house or restaurant where fifty cents or more per meal is charged shall keep in its main public washroom individual towels or paper toweling in full view and reach of all guests at all hours. Each room shall be properly ventilated by at least one window, and by a doorway leading into the hall. [1913, ch. 184, § 1; 1909, ch. 141, § 5; 1907, ch. 135, § 6.]

§ 2985. Penalty for failure to comply with article. Every owner, manager, agent or person in charge of a hotel who, after thirty days' notice by the inspector hereinafter provided for in this article, shall fail to comply with any of the provisions of this article shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined not less than ten dollars nor more than fifty dollars, or shall be imprisoned in the county jail for not less than ten days nor more than thirty days, or both, and every day that such hotel is carried on in violation of this article shall constitute a separate offense. [1907, ch. 135, § 7.]

§ 2986. Inspector of hotels. Appointment. Bond. For the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this article the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, shall appoint an inspector of hotels who shall hold office until the first Monday in January of the odd numbered year next after his appointment, and until his successor qualifies, and who shall be prohibited from soliciting or selling goods or merchandise for any person, firm or corporation; but the governor may remove such inspector and appoint another in his place whenever he shall deem it necessary for the public good. Said inspector shall receive an annual salary of eighteen hundred dollars, payable monthly. He shall give bond to the state in the penal sum of five thousand dollars conditioned for the faithful performance of his official duties, to be approved by the secretary of state. [1907, ch. 135, § 8.]

§ 2987. Powers and duties of inspector. It shall be the duty of the inspector to see that all of the provisions of this article are complied with, and said inspector shall personally inspect once in each year every hotel as defined by this article. Said inspector is hereby granted police power to enter any hotel at reasonable hours to determine whether the provisions of this article are being complied with. The inspector shall keep a complete set of books for public use and inspection showing the conditions of each hotel so inspected, together with the name or names of the owners, proprietors and managers thereof, and showing its sanitary condition, the number and condition of its fire escapes and any other information for the betterment of the public service. [1907, ch. 135, § 9.]

§ 2988. Certificate of inspection to be posted. If the inspector shall find, after examination of any hotel, that this law has been fully complied with, he shall issue a certificate to that effect to the person operating the same, and said certificate shall be kept posted up in a conspicuous place in said inspected building, and provided that no certificate shall be issued in any case until the inspection fee shall have been paid. [1913, ch. 184, § 2; 1907, ch. 135, § 10.]

§ 2989. Penalty for certifying falsely. Any inspector who shall willfully certify falsely regarding any building inspected by him, and who shall issue a certificate to any person operating any hotel when such person has not complied with the provisions of this article, shall, on conviction thereof, be fined not less than fifty dollars nor to exceed five hundred dollars, and may be imprisoned not to exceed one year in the state prison, or both at the discretion of the court, and upon conviction shall be forever disqualified to hold said office. [1907, ch. 135, § 11.]

§ 2990. Penalty for interfering with inspector or failure to pay fee. Any owner, manager, agent or person in charge of a hotel who shall obstruct or hinder an inspector in the proper discharge of his duties under this article, or who shall refuse or neglect to pay the fee for inspection prescribed herein, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than ten dollars nor more than fifty dollars, or shall be imprisoned in the county jail for not less than ten days nor more than thirty days, or both. [1907, ch. 135, § 12.]

§ 2991. Inspector authorized to make arrests. It shall be the duty of the inspector, upon ascertaining by inspection or otherwise that any hotel is being carried on contrary to the provisions of this article, to make complaint and cause the arrest of the person so violating same, and it shall be the duty of the state's attorney in such case to prepare all necessary papers and conduct such prosecutions. [1907, ch. 135, § 13.]

§ 2992. Inspection fee. Every hotel containing less than ten sleeping rooms for the accommodation of the public shall pay an inspection fee of two dollars and fifty cents when inspected under the provisions of this article, and every hotel containing more than ten sleeping rooms and less than twenty sleeping rooms for the accommodation of the public shall pay an inspection fee of five dollars when inspected under the provisions of this article, and every hotel containing twenty or more sleeping rooms and less than fifty sleeping rooms for the accommodation of the public shall pay an inspection fee of ten dollars, and every hotel containing fifty or more sleeping rooms shall pay an inspection fee of twenty dollars, when inspected under the terms of this article. Such fees shall be collected by the inspector annually at the time of inspection, and if not paid on demand the inspector may sue therefor in his own name for the use of the state, and in such case the court shall allow and enter as a part of the judgment against the defendant, all the costs of such action, including a fee not exceeding twenty-five dollars for any attorney necessarily employed in such action by the inspector. [1909, ch. 141, § 6; 1907, ch. 135, § 14.]

§ 2993. Fees, less expenses, turned over to the state. At the end of each month the inspector shall pay into the state treasury all moneys received by him as such, and file with the state auditor a verified statement of the amount and the sources thereof. Such moneys shall be credited to the "hotel inspection fund." On or before the tenth day of each month the inspector shall certify to the state auditor the amount due him as compensation and necessary traveling expenses for the preceding month, also items and amounts of all expenses necessarily incurred by him, including the cost of blanks, stationery, postage and travel, and such salaries and expenses being duly audited shall be paid by the state treasurer out of such hotel inspection fund and the state shall not be held responsible in any manner for any deficiency that may exist. [1907, ch. 135, § 15.]

§ 2994. Pure water for guests. It shall be the duty of every person conducting or operating a hotel, public inn or lodging house, to see that the drinking water supplied by said hotel, public inn or lodging house is pure and free from disease germ. The source of supply must be far enough removed from privy vaults or other means of contamination to prevent drainage from said vaults to the wells or other source of supply, and the water supply shall be subject to examination by the inspector, and when found unfit for drinking purposes its use must be discontinued forthwith. [1907, ch. 135, § 16.]

ARTICLE 58.—DOORWAYS IN PUBLIC BUILDINGS.

§ 2995. Doors of public buildings, construction of. All doors of ingress and egress in all buildings used for public assemblages of any character in this state, including school houses, churches, theaters, public halls, city halls, court houses, factories, hotels and all other public buildings, wherein numbers of persons are employed or are in the habit of meeting together for any purpose, shall be so constructed as to open and swing outward, and doorways shall not be less than four feet in width, with proper landings and stairways of at least equal width. [R. C. 1905, § 2177; 1887, ch. 54, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1719.]

Private actions for violation of building law. 9 L.R.A. (N.S.) 376.

§ 2996. Who shall comply with this article. It shall be the duty of all persons owning or having charge of such buildings, including trustees, boards of directors and boards of education, to comply with the provisions of the last section within six months after the same shall take effect; but nothing herein shall be construed to require a change in the width of existing stairways and doorways, and this article shall not apply to churches and school houses not within the limits of any city or village. [R. C. 1905, § 2178; 1887, ch. 54, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 1720.]

§ 2997. Penalty for failure to comply. Any person failing to comply with the provisions of this article, or who shall build, maintain or permit to be used any such building contrary to the provisions hereof shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor. [R. C. 1905, § 2179; 1887, ch. 54, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 1721.]

ARTICLE 59.—WEIGHTS AND MEASURES.

Laws 1907, ch. 273, entitled "Inspection of Weights and Measures," which constitutes a large part of this article, does not expressly amend or expressly repeal any designated section of the Revised Codes of 1905; its concluding section repeals "all acts and parts of acts in conflict" therewith. It is here regarded as superseding R. C. 1905, §§ 2180-2187.

R. C. 1905, § 2181, required "the said inspector" to give a bond. But at that time the inspector was appointed by the governor. R. C. 1905, § 2180.

§ 2999. Tests, made when. Record. The inspector and sealer or his deputy shall once in each year test all weights and measures, scale beams, patent balances, steelyards and other instruments used in weighing or measuring any commodity sold by weight or measure in his county by the duplicates of said weights and measures as are hereinafter provided; provided, the inspector of weights and measures or his deputy may test wagon scales oftener than once each year if he has reason to believe that the same are not weighing correctly. He shall give to the person in charge of such weights or measures a certificate of the correctness thereof, if found to be correct, and if found to be incorrect, he shall cause the same to be corrected, if he can, and if not he shall mark the same "condemned" and in case of short weights or measures that cannot be corrected he shall condemn, confiscate and keep the same for evidence. He shall keep a record of all such certificates issued by him and of all his transactions under this article, and shall file with the county auditor during the month of December of each year a statement showing the date of examination and giving the names of the persons, firms or corporations whose scales, weights and measures have been by him examined, and setting out against such names an enumeration of any scales, weights or measures by him so condemned. [1907, ch. 273, § 2.]

This section is regarded as superseding R. C. 1905, § 2182, although the latter specified as one of the duties of the inspector or his deputies "to determine the amount due any person for the doing of anything which is dependent upon the weight or measurement of the thing to be done or to be delivered within this state."

§ 3000. Standard established. The standard of weights and measures shall be the standard adopted by the government of the United States, and any person who knowingly uses for the purpose of purchase or sale or keeps for public use a weight, measure, scale, balance or beam, which does not conform to the standard of weights and measures adopted by the state, or who alters a weight, measure, scale, balance or beam after it has been adjusted and sealed so that it does not conform to such standard and fraudulently makes use thereof, shall be fined for each offense fifty dollars. [1907, ch. 273, § 3.]

This section clearly supersedes R. C. 1905, § 2184.

§ 3001. County commissioners purchase duplicate weights and measures. The board of county commissioners of each county shall purchase such duplicates of weights and measures enumerated in section 2191 of the code of 1905 [section 3009 herein], as are deemed necessary for the use of the inspector in the carrying out of the provisions of this article, which duplicates shall be paid for by the county and be delivered to the inspector, who shall be responsible to the county under his bond as sheriff for their delivery to his successor in office. [1907, ch. 273, § 4.]

This section evidently supersedes R. C. 1905, § 2185.

§ 3002. Fees. The inspector and sealer of weights and measures shall be entitled to demand and receive for his compensation for the inspection herein-after provided for and the furnishing to the person whose weights and measures are inspected, a certificate of such inspection, the following fees:

For inspecting and sealing railroad and track scales of capacity of twenty tons and upwards.....	$3.00
For inspecting and sealing scales of from three to twenty tons capacity, each	1.50
For inspecting and sealing dormant scales, each.....	1.00
For inspecting and sealing movable platform scales, each.....	.50
For inspecting and sealing beams weighing one hundred pounds and upwards, each25
For inspecting and sealing hopper scales, each.....	1.00
For inspecting and sealing counter scales, each.....	.25
For inspecting and sealing every patent balance, beam, steelyard or other instrument used for weighing other than the above enumerated, each25

Provided, that when any establishment uses more than three of such scales the fee for inspection of which is twenty-five cents each, then any further number shall be tested for fifteen cents each, and with each scale tested and sealed by him he shall inspect and seal one set of weights without any additional charge or compensation.

For inspecting and sealing any two bushel or one bushel measure, each	$.25
For inspecting and sealing any other dry measure, each.....	.10
For inspecting and sealing liquid measures of a capacity of five gallons or more, each.....	.25
For inspecting and sealing liquid measures of less than five gallons and not less than one gallon.....	.15
For inspecting and sealing anything less than one gallon.....	.10
For inspecting and sealing any board or cloth measure, each.....	.10

When the inspector and sealer shall find any of the instruments or articles used in weighing or measuring to be wrongly adjusted, misconstructured, out of repair or in any other condition which can be remedied by him, it shall be his duty to correct such scale or measure and he shall receive for such service fifty cents per hour for the actual and necessary time consumed in making such corrections and shall receive just compensation for any material used in such correction. [1907, ch. 273, § 5.]

This section clearly supersedes R. C. 1905, § 2183.

§ 3003. Penalty for false weights and measures. If any person knowingly uses a false weight, measure, scale, balance or beam after such weight, measure, scale, balance or beam has been adjusted and sealed and alters it so that it does not conform to the public standard and fraudulently makes use of it, he shall forfeit for each offense fifty dollars, and every inspector and sealer who has reasonable cause to believe that a weight, measure, balance or beam has been altered since it was last adjusted and sealed shall enter the premises in which it is kept or used and shall examine the same and if found tampered with, shall have power to seal them in such a manner that they cannot be used until such disability is removed and such scale, balance or beam shall be kept sealed until such fine is paid. The inspector or sealer shall in no case seal or mark as correct any weights, measures or balances which do not conform to the standard. If such weights, measures or balances can be readily adjusted as heretofore provided, he may adjust and seal them, but if they cannot by him be adjusted he shall affix to such weight, measure or balance a notice prohibiting their use until he is satisfied that they have been so adjusted as to conform to the standard, and whoever removes said notice without the consent of the officer affixing the same, shall for each offense forfeit a sum not exceeding fifty dollars. The sealer or deputy sealer of weights and measures may seize without warrant such weights, measures or balances as may be necessary to be used as evidence in case of violation of the law relating to the sealing of weights and measures, such weights, measures or balances to be returned to the owner or forfeited as the court may direct. [1907, ch. 273, § 6.]

§ 3004. Complaints, how lodged. Any person believing any dealer is violating the provisions of this act may make complaint, in writing, to any inspector or sealer or his deputy and deposit with him five dollars, setting forth the particular facts relating to such violation and that he has reason to believe that the same are true. Upon such complaint such sealer or his deputy shall forthwith test the scales, weights and measures respecting the matter complained of, by his duplicates, and if found to conform thereto he may convert the five dollars so deposited to his own use as his fee for such services. If he finds that any of the matters so complained of are true he shall return the five dollars to the complainant and it shall be his duty forthwith to arrest the person in charge of such scale and take him before a justice of the peace in the county for trial and upon conviction such person, whether the owner or not, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and punished accordingly. In all such cases the sealer or deputy sealer making the test shall make and swear to the complaint and shall be entitled to the same fees as allowed officers making an arrest upon a warrant, besides the sum of one dollar for making the test. [1907, ch. 273, § 7.]

"This act," mentioned in the foregoing section, consists of sections 2998-3003, and 3005.

§ 3005. Penalty for misleading inspector. Any person who shall willfully obstruct or mislead the inspector or sealer in the execution of his duties as herein provided, shall be subject to conviction and punishment therefor in the same manner as is now provided for the conviction and punishment of persons opposing or hindering an officer, ministerial, judicial or executive, under the laws of the state and the inspector and sealer shall have full power and authority for the various purposes named to examine any weights, measures, scales, balances or beams. [1907, ch. 273, § 8.]

This section clearly supersedes R. C. 1905, § 2187.

§ 3006. Bushel consists of how many pounds. A bushel of each of the articles enumerated in this section shall consist of the number of pounds avoirdupois respectively affixed to each:

- Barley, forty-eight pounds.
- Beans, sixty pounds.
- Bran, twenty pounds.
- Buckwheat, forty-two pounds.
- Beets, sixty pounds.
- Broom corn seed, thirty pounds.
- Corn, shelled, fifty-six pounds.
- Corn, in the ear, seventy pounds.
- Clover seed, sixty pounds.
- Coal, stone, eighty pounds.
- Flax-seed, fifty-six pounds.
- Lime, eighty pounds.

Oats, thirty-two pounds.
 Onions, fifty-two pounds.
 Potatoes, Irish, sixty pounds.
 Potatoes, sweet, forty-six pounds.
 Peas, sixty pounds.
 Rye, fifty-six pounds.
 Salt, eighty pounds.
 Turnips, sixty pounds.
 Timothy seed, forty-five pounds.
 Wheat, sixty pounds.
 Speltz, forty pounds.
 Millet, fifty pounds.
 Apples, fifty pounds.
 Bromus inermis, fourteen pounds.

[R. C. 1905, § 2188; R. C. 1899, § 1722; 1901, ch. 213; 1903, ch. 209.]

§ 3007. Ton of hay, cubic measure. A ton of hay shall consist of two thousand pounds; or by measurement, three hundred and forty-three cubic feet, after the same shall have been stacked thirty days, or such time as may be agreed upon between the parties. [R. C. 1905, § 2189; R. C. 1899, § 1723.]

§ 3008. Perch of stone. A perch of mason work or stone shall consist of twenty-five feet, cubic measure. [R. C. 1905, § 2190; R. C. 1899, § 1724.]

§ 3009. Standard of weights and measures kept by state treasurer. The state treasurer shall procure and keep in his office the following standards of weights and measures, which shall conform in every particular to the United States standards of weights and measures: One bushel, one-half bushel, one peck, one-half peck, one quart, one wine gallon, one wine half gallon, one wine quart, one wine pint, one wine gill. Such measures shall be made of copper or other suitable and substantial material; also one surveyor's chain thirty-three standard feet in length, one yard measure, one foot measure and one inch measure; also one one hundred pound weight, one fifty pound weight, one twenty-five pound weight, one ten pound weight, one one pound weight, one half pound weight, one quarter pound weight, one one-eighth of a pound, one one-sixteenth of a pound or one ounce weight, one set of apothecaries' weights from one pound to one grain, one set of troy weights from one pound to one grain; besides such other scales, beams and balances as shall be necessary to test other weights by these standards; which measures, weights, scales, beams and balances are hereby declared to be the legal standards of weights and measures for this state. Such treasurer shall be charged with the custody and be accountable to the state for the proper use and care of the same. Such standards shall be used only for testing the standards provided for in this article, and such treasurer shall keep a record of all county weights, measures, beams and balances marked and tested by him. [R. C. 1905, § 2191; 1885, ch. 151, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1725.]

ARTICLE 60.—WEIGHT, MEASURE OR COUNT OF FOOD PRODUCTS OR BEVERAGES.

§ 3010. Food sold by weight, measure or count. Every article of food or beverage as defined in the statutes of this state shall be sold by weight, measure or numerical count and as now generally recognized by trade custom, and shall be labeled in accordance with the provisions of the food and beverage laws of this state. Only those products shall be sold by numerical count which cannot well be sold by weight or measure. All weights shall be net, excluding the wrapper or container, and shall be stated in terms of pounds, ounces and grains, avoirdupois weight, and all measure shall be in terms of gallons of two hundred and thirty-one (231) cubic inches or fractions thereof, as quarts, pints and ounces. Reasonable variations shall be permitted and tolerations therefor shall be established and promulgated by the food commissioner. [1911, ch. 236, § 1.]

Power to require weight of package to be indicated upon it. 17 L.R.A.(N.S.) 684.

§ 3011. Weight of lard. Every lot of lard or of lard compound or of lard substitute, unless sold in bulk, shall be put up in pails or other containers holding one (1), three (3) or five (5) pounds net weight, or some whole multiple of these numbers, and not any fractions thereof. If the container be found deficient in weight additional lard, compound or substitute, shall be furnished to the purchaser to make up the legal weight. The face label shall show the true name and grade of the product, the true net weight together with the true name and address of the producer or jobber. If other than leaf lard is used then the label shall show the kind, as "back lard," or "intestinal lard." Every lard substitute or lard compound shall also show in a manner to be prescribed by the food commissioner, the ingredients of which it is composed, and each and every article shall be in conformity with, and further labeled in accordance with the requirements under the food laws of this state. [1911, ch. 236, § 2.]

§ 3012. Weight of bread. A loaf of bread for sale shall be two pounds in weight. Bread, unless composed in chief parts of rye or maize, shall be sold only in whole, half and quarter loaves and not otherwise. Bread, when sold, shall, upon the request of the buyer, be weighed in his presence, and if found deficient in weight additional bread shall be delivered to make up the legal weight, except that this section shall not apply to rolls or to fancy bread weighing less than one-quarter of a pound. Provided, every loaf, half loaf, quarter loaf or other loaf of bread which does not weigh the full legal weight required by this section when plainly labeled with the exact weight thereof, shall not be deemed in violation of the provisions of this article. [1911, ch. 236, § 3.]

§ 3013. Penalty for so doing. Any person violating any of the provisions of this article shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and for the first offense shall be punished by a fine of not less than five dollars ($5.00) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) and the necessary costs, and for the second and each subsequent offense he shall be fined not less than fifty dollars ($50.00) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100.00), or ninety (90) days in jail, or both at the discretion of the court. [1911, ch. 236, § 4.]

ARTICLE 61.—PURCHASE OF GRAIN.

§ 3014. Unlawful to buy at other than legal weight. Dockage. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, association, copartnership or corporation doing business in the state to purchase or receive any wheat, oats, barley, flax or other grains at a different weight for the bushel measure than the number of pounds fixed by the laws of our state, and no dockage shall be taken or received on same, excepting on such grains as the grain inspection boards for the terminal markets of the states of Minnesota and Wisconsin place a dockage. [1909, ch. 211, § 1.]

§ 3015. Penalty. Any person, firm, association, copartnership or corporation found guilty of violating the provisions of this article shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars for each and every offense. [1909, ch. 211, § 2.]

ARTICLE 62.—PUBLIC SCALES.

§ 3016. County commissioners to establish scales. The board of county commissioners of any county is authorized in its discretion, when petitioned by fifteen or more residents and actual farmers of the county, to establish and locate public scales at suitable railway stations in its county. [R. C. 1905, § 2192; 1893, ch. 98, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1733.]

§ 3017. Care and capacity of scales. Such scales shall be purchased by the county, and shall be under cover, and of not less than five tons' weighing capacity, and shall be the property of the county, and at all times under its control and subject to removal when the county commissioners shall so require. [R. C. 1905, § 2193; 1893, ch. 98, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 1734.]

§ 3018. Appointment of weighmasters. Bond. The board shall also appoint at each place where it establishes such scales, a public weighmaster, who shall have the custody and care of such property, and who shall give a bond in the sum of five hundred dollars, conditioned for the safe keeping of the same and for the faithful and impartial discharge of his duties. [R. C. 1905, § 2193; 1893, ch. 98, § 3; R. C. 1895, § 1735.]

§ 3019. Weighmaster to keep record. Each public weighmaster shall keep a stub record of all weighing, which record and the receipt of such weighmaster shall show for whom property was weighed, and shall, with such receipt, constitute prima facie evidence of the facts therein contained. [R. C. 1905, § 2195; 1893, ch. 98, § 4; R. C. 1895, § 1736.]

§ 3020. Compensation. Removal. Such public weighmasters shall receive such compensation and shall be governed by such rules and regulations as may be adopted by the board of county commissioners, and may be removed at any time by such board for cause. [R. C. 1905, § 2196; 1893, ch. 98, §§ 5, 6; R. C. 1899, § 1737.]

ARTICLE 63.—COMMISSION MERCHANTS.

§ 3021. License required. It shall be unlawful for any commission merchant or other factor to receive any wheat, flax or other grain, or butter, cheese or other dairy or creamery product, in this state, to be sold for other persons, or to have any agent or correspondent in this state receiving or soliciting any consignment or deposit of grain or creamery or dairy product to be sold or forwarded for sale here or elsewhere, without being licensed and authorized so to do as hereinafter prescribed. [R. C. 1905, § 2197; 1897, ch. 54, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1738; 1903, ch. 56, § 1.]

§ 3022. License, how obtained. Bond required. To obtain such license, a statement must be filed in the office of the board of railroad commissioners, giving the name of the person, firm or corporation making application therefor, and the place at which said person, firm or corporation has its headquarters or principal place of business and post office address. There must also be filed and deposited in the office of the board of railroad commissioners, subject to the board's approval, a good and sufficient bond in a penal sum of not less than twenty thousand dollars nominally payable to the state of North Dakota, executed by the applicant and at least two sureties or a surety company having the qualification of a fidelity insurance company authorized to do business as such in this state, and containing a condition to the effect that the person, firm or corporation named as principal therein shall well and truly pay and discharge any and all liability which said principal shall incur to consignors within this state, in or [on] account of any disposition that shall be made of any and all grain, creamery or dairy products, or the proceeds thereof, or of either, received by such principal wherever the same shall be received. [1913, ch. 240; R. C. 1905, § 2198; 1897, ch. 54, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 1739; 1903, ch. 56, § 2.]

§ 3023. Bond. The applicant for such permit must also, by a duly executed instrument filed with such bond, constitute and appoint the secretary of state and his successors the true and lawful agent and attorney upon whom process may be served in any action or proceeding against such applicant, and agree therein that any process served on said attorney shall have the same force and validity as if served on said applicant personally in this state, and that such appointment shall continue in force irrevocable so long as an action may be maintained on the bond therewith given. [R. C. 1905, § 2199; 1897, ch. 54, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 1740.]

§ 3024. Approval of bonds. Certificate issued. Revoked, how. When the requirements of section 3023 are complied with and the board of railroad commissioners finds the bond and the surety thereon sufficient, it shall approve the same and issue to the applicant a certificate to the effect that, having complied with the law, such applicant is duly authorized by agent or otherwise, to procure and receive consignments of grain and creamery products from owners and shippers in this state, to be sold or disposed of for the consignor in the usual course of trade. Such certificate shall continue in force until revoked by the board of railroad commissioners, or the surety on said bonds has given notice of withdrawal therefrom or become insufficient, and no new surety with the requisite qualifications has been substituted, or for other sufficient cause. [1913, ch. 240; R. C. 1905, § 2200; 1897, ch. 54, § 4; R. C. 1899, § 1741; 1903, ch. 56, § 2.]

§ 3025. Fees collected. For the examining and approving such bond and issuing a certificate as hereinbefore provided, the board of railroad commissioners shall charge and collect from the applicant a fee of five dollars, and for each duplicate or copy of such certificate a further fee of fifty cents, which fee shall be immediately paid into the general fund of the state treasury, and whenever process is served on the board of railroad commissioners in any action or proceeding, as provided in section 3026, the board of railroad commissioners shall, as a condition of valid and effectual service, require the payment of a fee of two dollars and pay the same into the state treasury. The said board shall also keep a record of such process showing the time and hour of service, and forthwith mail a copy of the same, postage paid and directed to the post office address of the defendant, and thereupon the service shall be deemed sufficient. [1913, ch. 240; R. C. 1905, § 2201; 1897, ch. 54, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 1742.]

§ 3026. Action for breach of condition. Every bond given as hereinbefore provided shall continue and remain in force until the principal or surety thereon gives notice to the contrary in writing to the board of railroad commissioners, and for thirty days thereafter, but such notice shall not affect any liability incurred by the principal for, or on account of consignments received or forwarded in this state before the expiration of said time. Successive actions may be brought on such bonds for a breach of the condition thereof by the person injured thereby, until the entire amount of the penalty is exhausted. [1913, ch. 240; R. C. 1905, § 2202; 1897, ch. 54, § 6; R. C. 1899, § 1743.]

§ 3027. Penalty. Every person who shall solicit or procure within this state any consignment or deposit of wheat, flax or other grain, or of butter, cheese or other creamery or dairy product, or any farm product, to be sold or consigned for sale or otherwise disposed of for the benefit of the consignor or depositor, without having license and authority so to do as heretofore provided, and every person who shall act as agent, solicitor or correspondent in procuring any consignment or deposit of grain, or creamery or dairy product, for consignment, to be so sold or disposed of to any person, firm or corporation not having such license and authority, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished accordingly. [R. C. 1905, § 2203; 1897, ch. 54, § 7; R. C. 1899, § 1743a; 1903, ch. 56, § 4.]

ARTICLE 64.—HAWKERS AND PEDDLERS.

§ 3028. License required. It shall be unlawful for any person to travel from place to place in any county of this state, for the purpose of carrying to sell, or exposing or offering to sell, barter or exchange any goods, wares, merchandise or any other property whatever, without first obtaining a license therefor from the auditor of said county. [R. C. 1905, § 2204; 1903, ch. 165, § 1.]

§ 3029. How obtained. Each person desiring to obtain a license as peddler shall make application to the county auditor of the county in which he desires to peddle, which application shall be signed by the applicant, and shall state in what manner the applicant desires to travel as a peddler, whether on foot, or with one or more horses, or other beasts of burden. [R. C. 1905, § 2205; 1903, ch. 165, § 2.]

§ 3030. Fee. Each applicant, before he shall be entitled to such license, shall pay into the treasury of such county where his application is made, the following sums respectively, as and for the taxes due from him on account of the pursuit of the occupation of peddling, to wit: If for a license to travel on foot, the sum of five dollars; if for a license to travel and carry his goods with a single horse or other beast, carrying or drawing a burden, the sum of twenty-five dollars; if for a license to travel and carry with a vehicle or carriage, drawn by two horses or animals, the sum of fifty dollars; if for a license to travel and carry his goods with a vehicle or carriage drawn by more than two horses or animals, or propelled in any other manner, the sum of seventy-five dollars. Such license shall authorize the holder thereof to pursue within said county the business of hawking and peddling in the manner set forth in said license, for the period of one year from the date of its issue and no longer. [R. C. 1905, § 2206; 1903, ch. 165, § 3.]

An amendment to this section was vetoed in Laws 1909, p. 351, where the amendment passed by the legislative assembly is set forth in full. It was vetoed because "that portion of this act granting to cities and towns the power to tax transient merchants by ordinance or resolution is not expressed in nor germane to any part of the title," and it was therefore in conflict with section 61 of the state constitution. The veto message discusses at considerable length the question involved, quoting from Carrollton v. Bazette, 31 L.R.A. 527, and other authorities.

§ 3031. County auditor to grant license. The county auditor upon the filing of such application, together with the treasurer's receipt for the proper license fee, shall grant such applicant a license under his official seal, authorizing said licensee to travel and pursue the business in the manner stated in his application, for the term of one year from the date of the issuance of such license. [R. C. 1905, § 2207; 1903, ch. 165, § 4.]

§ 3032. Contents. It shall be the duty of the county auditor issuing such license under this article, to make a record of the same, including the date when issued, the name of the person receiving the license, the purpose for which issued, and the amount received therefor. [R. C. 1905, § 2208; 1903, ch. 165, § 5.]

§ 3033. Revenue, how disposed of. All money paid into the county treasury under the provisions of this article shall be placed to the credit of the ordinary county revenue, including the support of the poor, to be disbursed in the same manner as the funds derived from the usual course of taxation for such account. [R. C. 1905, § 2209; 1903, ch. 165, § 6.]

Does not conflict with constitution, article 11, section 8 [N. D. Const. § 175]. State v. Thompson, 25 S. D. 148, 125 N. W. 567.

§ 3034. Penalty. Any person found traveling or trading in any county in this state contrary to the provisions of this article, or who shall refuse to produce a license for examination, when requested so to do by any resident or officer of the county in which said person shall be traveling as a peddler, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding fifty dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail where the offense was committed, not exceeding thirty days, or both such fine and imprisonment. [R. C. 1905, § 2210; 1903, ch. 165, § 7.]

§ 3035. Exception. Nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to impair, interfere with or take away any existing rights or authority of incorporated cities, towns and villages to license and regulate peddlers within their incorporated limits. [R. C. 1905, § 2211; 1903, ch. 165, § 8.]

ARTICLE 65.—TAXATION OF TRANSIENT MERCHANTS.

With the exception of section 3041, which is new legislation, every section in this article, including the section headings, is identical with Laws 1907, ch. 257, the latter being entitled "Licensing Transient Merchants." See note to section 3030.

§ 3036. Transient merchant defined. Fee. A transient merchant within the meaning of this article is defined as one who engages in the vending or sale of merchandise at any place in this state temporarily, and who does not intend to become and does not become a permanent merchant of such place. No person shall engage in or follow the business or occupation of a transient merchant as hereinbefore defined at any place in this state, without first obtaining a license authorizing him to do so. Any person desiring a license as a transient merchant shall, before receiving the same, pay into the state treasury the sum of seventy-five dollars and he shall in addition to such amount, after receiving such license, also pay to the treasurer of any city or village where he may be conducting his business, a sum not to exceed twenty-five dollars per day for each day that he may be engaged in carrying on his business, such amount to be determined by ordinance or resolution of such city or village; provided, further, that if complaint be made to the mayor of any city or president of any village that any person doing business therein is a transient merchant, and that such person may claim to be a permanent merchant, he may be required as a condition of transacting business in any such city or village, without the payment of a license fee to such city or village, to give bond to such city or village to secure the payment of the state and local license, in the event that he fails to become a permanent merchant under the terms of this article, in a penal sum not to exceed five hundred dollars to be determined by resolution or ordinance of such city or village, with sureties to be approved by the auditor or clerk of the municipality, and which bond shall be enforced in case of a breach thereof, by the proper local officers of the city or village and upon its collection the amount of the state license shall be paid to the state treasurer and the remainder shall be paid into the treasury of the city or village and become a part of the license fund. The application for a license as a transient merchant shall be made in writing to the secretary of state upon the blank to be furnished by him, and upon the filing of such application with the secretary of state and the presentation to him of a receipt from the state treasurer showing the payment of the license fee hereinbefore provided for, the secretary of state shall issue such applicant a license for the period of one year from the date of its issue, and no longer. [1911, ch. 201, § 1; 1907, ch. 257, § 1.]

Discrimination against nonresident transient dealers by statute or ordinance as to license. 40 L.R.A.(N.S.) 286.

§ 3037. Fire sale merchants, license of. Every person, firm or corporation which shall not have become a permanent merchant or dealer in the town, city or village in which any such person, firm or corporation sells or exposes for sale any goods, wares or merchandise and which shall advertise, represent and hold forth that the sale thereof as an insurance, bankrupt, insolvent, assignee, trustee, estate, executor, administrator, receiver, job lot or closing out sale, or a sale of goods, wares or merchandise damaged by smoke, fire, water or otherwise or that by reason of financial difficulty or other special or peculiar circumstances, such goods, wares or merchandise will be disposed of for less than their real value, shall, before commencing or advertising a sale thereof, procure a state and local license in the manner hereinafter provided; provided, that nothing in said sections shall apply to any sale made by virtue of any judgment, order or process of any court, or pursuant to any law of this state or of the United States, or in the enforcement of any contract, right or lien. [1911, ch. 201, § 2; 1907, ch. 257, § 2.]

§ 3033. Application. How made. The application for a state license under the preceding section shall be made to the secretary of state under oath, shall disclose the name and residence of the applicant, who shall before making such sale advertising so to do, state in his original or supplementary application the details concerning such sale, including all the facts relating to the insurance, bankruptcy, insolvency or other reasons for making the same with sufficient fullness as to time, place and persons to permit the verification thereof. Such statement shall be copied on the license issued by said secretary of state, and all applications shall be filed by him and a record of all licenses issued shall be made. All files and records of the secretary of state, and of the town, city and village auditors shall be in convenient form and be open for public inspection. [1911, ch. 201, § 3; 1907, ch. 257, § 3.]

§ 3039. Fee. Penalty. Upon application in the proper form, and the payment of seventy-five dollars as a fee the secretary of state shall issue to the applicant a license authorizing him to advertise and make such sales as are specified in section 3037 for the term of one year from the date of its issue. Every license shall contain a copy of the application therefor. Such license shall not be transferable nor authorize more than one person, firm or corporation to sell or advertise goods, wares or merchandise in the manner specified, either by agent or clerk or in any other way than in the proper person of the licensees, except that when the licensee is a firm or corporation the sale may be conducted by the members of the partnership or the officers of the corporation and any licensee may have the assistance of one or more persons who shall not, however, have authority to act for him in his absence. Any agent or employe who conducts or advertises a sale for his principal shall be liable to the penalty hereinafter prescribed if such principal has failed to comply with any of the provisions of law. [1911, ch. 201, § 4; 1907, ch. 257, § 4.]

§ 3040. Local license fee. Any town board, village board or city council may, by resolution, ordinance or order, require the payment by every person, firm or corporation intending to make such sale a per diem license fee not exceeding twenty-five dollars. Before making or offering to make any such sale under the state license every such person, firm or corporation shall exhibit said license to the auditor or clerk of the town, city or village where it is proposed to make such sale, and upon payment to said auditor or clerk of such fee as is required by the local authorities he shall record the state license, endorse upon it the words "local license fee paid," affix his official signature with the date of such endorsement, and issue a license authorizing sales within the limits of his town, city or village. Making sales or offering to do so without such license or endorsement shall subject such person to the same penalty as he would be liable to if no state license had been issued. [1911, ch. 201, § 5; 1907, ch. 257, § 5.]

§ 3041. Money paid into state treasury credited to general fund. All money paid into the state treasury, under the provisions of this article, shall be placed to the credit of the general fund to be disbursed in the same manner as the funds derived from the usual course of taxation for such account. [1911, ch. 201, § 6.]

§ 3042. Penalty. Every person violating any of the provisions of this article and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not less than thirty days nor more than sixty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. [1911, ch. 201, § 7; 1907, ch. 257, § 6.]

ARTICLE 66.—TRADE DISCRIMINATION AND UNFAIR COMPETITION.

§ 3043. Unfair competition. Any person, firm or corporation, foreign or domestic, doing business in the state of North Dakota and engaged in the production, manufacture, distribution, purchase or selling of milk, cream, butter fat, grain or any commodity in general use that shall, with the intention of creating a monopoly, or of destroying the business of a competitor, or of any regular established dealer, or to prevent competition of any person who in good faith intends and attempts to become such a dealer, discriminate between different sections, communities, towns or cities, or portions thereof, in this state, by purchasing at a higher or selling at a lower rate or price in one section, community, town or city or portion thereof, in this state, than is paid or charged by such person, firm or corporation for such milk, cream, butter fat, grain or commodity in general use in another section, community, town or city, or portion thereof, in this state, after making due allowance for the difference, if any, in the actual cost of transportation of such commodities, shall be guilty of unfair discrimination. [1913, ch. 287, § 1; 1907, ch. 258, § 1.]

Forbidding the sale of a commodity in a particular locality at a lower rate than elsewhere, for the purpose of stifling competition. 42 L.R.A.(N.S.) 804.

§ 3044. Forfeiture of charter. If complaint shall be made to the attorney-general that any person, firm or corporation is guilty of unfair discrimination, as defined by this article, he shall investigate the matter complained of, and for that purpose may subpoena witnesses, administer oaths, take testimony and require the production of books or other documents belonging to such person, firm or corporation, and if, in his opinion, sufficient grounds exist therefor, he shall prosecute an action in the name of the state of North Dakota, in the proper court, to annul the charter or revoke the permit or license of such person, firm or corporation, as the case may be. [1913, ch. 287, § 2; 1907, ch. 258, § 2.]

§ 3045. Attorney-general brings action, when. If, after the revocation of such charter in the case of a domestic corporation, or of its permit if it be a foreign corporation, any such corporation shall continue or attempt to do business within this state, it shall be the duty of the attorney-general of this state by a proper action commenced in the name of the state, to oust such corporation from any and all business of any kind or character within the state of North Dakota. [1907, ch. 258, § 3.]

§ 3046. Penalty. Any person, firm or corporation convicted of unfair discrimination shall be fined in any sum not less than two hundred dollars nor more than three thousand dollars. [1913, ch. 287, § 3; 1907, ch. 258, § 4.]

§ 3047. Cumulative remedies. Nothing in this article contained shall in any manner be construed as repealing or in any manner altering any other act or part of act heretofore adopted by the legislature of this state, but the remedies herein provided shall be cumulative to all other remedies now existing. [1907, ch. 258, § 5.]

ARTICLE 67.—COMMERCIAL DISCRIMINATION PROHIBITED.

§ 3048. Discrimination prohibited. Any person, firm, company, association or corporation, foreign or domestic, doing business in the state of North Dakota, and engaged in the production, manufacture or distribution of any commodity in general use, that shall intentionally, for the purpose of destroying the business of a competitor in any locality, discriminate between different sections, communities or cities of this state, by selling such commodity at a lower rate in one section, community or city, than is charged for said commodity by said party in another section, community or city, after making due allowance for the difference, if any, in the grade or quality, and in the actual cost of transportation from the point of production, if a raw product, or from the point of manufacture, if a manufactured product, shall be deemed guilty of unfair discrimination, which is hereby prohibited and declared to be unlawful. [1907, ch. 260, § 1.]

Forbidding the sale of a commodity in a particular locality at a lower rate than elsewhere, for the purpose of stifling competition. 42 L.R.A.(N.S.) 804.

Forbidding the payment of a higher price for a commodity in a particular community than elsewhere, for the purpose of stifling competition. 42 L.R.A.(N.S.) 821.

§ 3049. Penalty. Any person, firm, company, association or corporation violating any of the provisions of the preceding section, and any officer, agent or receiver of any firm, company, association or corporation, or any member of the same or any individual found guilty of a violation thereof, shall be fined not less than five hundred dollars, nor more than five thousand dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not to exceed one year, or suffer both penalties. [1907, ch. 260, § 2.]

§ 3050. Contracts void. All contracts or agreements made in violation of any of the provisions of the two preceding sections shall be void. [1907, ch. 260, § 3.]

§ 3051. Duty of county attorney and attorney-general. It shall be the duty of the county attorneys, in their counties, and the attorney-general, to enforce the provisions of the preceding sections of this article by appropriate actions in courts of competent jurisdiction. [1907, ch. 260, § 4.]

§ 3052. Duty of secretary of state. If complaint shall be made to the secretary of state that any corporation authorized to do business in this state is guilty of unfair discrimination within the terms of this article, it shall be the duty of the secretary of state to refer the matter to the attorney-general, who may, if the facts justify it in his judgment, institute proceedings in the courts against such corporation. [1907, ch. 260, § 5.]

§ 3053. Charter and rights forfeited. If any corporation, foreign or domestic, authorized to do business in this state, is found guilty of unfair discrimination, such finding shall cause a forfeiture of all the privileges and rights conferred by the laws of this state upon corporations and shall bar its right to do business in this state. [1907, ch. 260, § 6.]

§ 3054. Duty of attorney-general. If any corporation, having been found guilty of a violation of any of the provisions of this article, shall continue or attempt to do business in this state, it shall be the duty of the attorney-general by a proper action in the name of the state of North Dakota to enjoin such corporation from transacting all business of every kind and character in said state of North Dakota. [1907, ch. 260, § 7.]

§ 3055. Remedies cumulative. Nothing in this article shall be construed as repealing any other act, or part of act, but the remedies herein provided shall be cumulative to all other remedies provided by law. [1907, ch. 260, § 8.]

ARTICLE 68.— LOGS AND LUMBER.

§ 3056. Lawful to boom logs in navigable rivers. It shall be lawful for any person having logs or lumber in any stream navigable for water crafts in this state, to boom logs or lumber along the shore and to secure the boom by means of piles driven in the stream, or by chains, ropes, timber or traverse poles made fast at points along the shore; provided, that there shall be at all times sufficient channel left clear for the free passage of any crafts or rafts usually navigating such stream. ARTICLE 69.— OIL INSPECTION.

"Oil Inspection" was the title of R. C. 1905, Pol. Code, chapter 24, article 44, which is deemed to be entirely superseded by the following article consisting solely of Laws 1913, ch. 214. The latter (in section 24) repeals "all acts and parts of acts in conflict herewith" and specifically Laws 1909, ch. 171, which had impliedly superseded the above-mentioned article in Revised Codes of 1905.

State oil inspector ex-officio inspector of coal, see section 3065.

§ 3057. Oil inspector. Appointment of deputies. Salaries. The governor shall, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, appoint a suitable person, a citizen of this state, who is now [not] engaged directly or indirectly in the manufacturing, dealing or vending of petroleum, illuminating oils, gasolines or other petroleum products hereinafter mentioned, whose title shall be the state inspector of oils, and whose term of office shall be two years, commencing on the first Tuesday in April succeeding his appointment, or until his successor shall be appointed and shall qualify. Said state inspector shall appoint a deputy inspector at all points designated as ports of entry, whose salary shall be as hereinafter provided. The said state inspector of oils and his deputies shall have the right, and it shall be his duty to enter into or upon the premises of any manufacturer, dealer, vender of these refined petroleum oils or gasolines at any time for the inspection of such oils and gasolines, and to inspect any books or papers of such manufacturers, dealers or transportation companies pertaining to the shipment or sale of such oils or gasoline, and all receptacles in which such oils or gasoline are or may be contained. Such state inspector of oils shall receive an annual salary of two thousand five hundred dollars, payable monthly on the first day of each calendar month, and each and all of such deputies shall receive salaries payable monthly on the first day of each calendar month, unless otherwise ordered by the state inspector of oils, as follows:

At ports of entry, where the total number of barrels inspected is in excess of eight thousand per annum, the salary shall be fifty dollars per month.

At ports of entry, where the total number of barrels is in excess of fifteen thousand per annum, the salary shall be seventy-five dollars per month.

All ports of entry where the total number of barrels is in excess of twenty-five thousand per annum the salary of deputy oil inspectors shall be one hundred dollars per month; provided, that the salary of the deputy oil inspectors at the designated points of entry shall be based upon the last annual report of the state oil inspector as to the amount of barrels of oil inspected. All other deputies shall receive a salary of not less than ten dollars per month nor more than thirty dollars per month, as in the judgment of the state inspector of oils is just compensation for services performed. The state inspector of oils shall make and file with the state auditor on or before the fifth day of each month monthly statements, under oath, of all inspections made by himself and his deputies under the provisions of this article. [1913, ch. 214, § 1; 1909, ch. 171, § 1; R. C. 1905, § 2213; 1890, ch. 107, § 1; R. C. 1895, § 1759; 1901, ch. 128, § 1; 1903, ch. 129, § 1; 1905, ch. 141, § 1.]

As to filing monthly statements mentioned in the last sentence of the section, see note to section 3060.

Section 653e makes an appropriation for the salary of the state oil inspector, and section 653b specifies how the appropriation shall be paid.

§ 3058. State auditor's duties. It shall be the duty of the state auditor to furnish the state treasurer with a summary of inspection fees due to the state of North Dakota, designating the name and address of consignors and the amount of inspection fees, on or before the tenth day of each month. [1913, ch. 214, § 2.]

§ 3059. State treasurer's duties. It shall be the duty of the state treasurer to promptly send to the state inspector of oils the name and address of any person, firm or corporation failing to pay inspection fees as provided in this article. The said state inspector of oils or his deputies shall, on receipt of said notice from the state treasurer, hold any or all future shipments of petroleum, illuminating oils, gasolines, or other petroleum products consigned by such person, firm or corporation until all delinquent inspection fees have been paid according to the provisions of this article. [1913, ch. 214, § 3.]

§ 3060. Payment of fees. The inspection fees due to the state of North Dakota, as provided in this article, must be paid by the consignor of the said petroleum, illuminating oils, gasolines or other petroleum products, directly to the state treasurer on or before the fifteenth day of each calendar month. [1913, ch. 214, § 4.]

This is new legislation. R. C. 1905, § 2213, provided that the state inspector of oils "shall make and file with the state auditor monthly statements under oath, of all fees collected under the provisions of this article, and pay the amount so collected to the state treasurer on or before the tenth day of each month, taking the state treasurer's receipt therefor, and file such receipt with the state auditor on or before the fifteenth day of each month; the money so received by the treasurer to be kept in a separate fund to be known as the "Oil Inspection Fund." Laws 1911, ch. 198, provided as follows:

"§ 1. Any and all funds now in the hands of the state treasurer to the credit of the so-called "oil inspection fund" shall be, on the taking effect of this act, by the state treasurer turned into the general fund of the state of North Dakota and said separate fund is hereby abolished.

"§ 2. All future collections made by the state inspector of oils, when received by the state treasurer, shall be credited to the general fund of the state."

Since inspection fees are now to be paid directly to the state treasurer (see also section 3071) the foregoing provisions are obsolete.

§ 3061. Oath. Bond. The state inspector of oils and his deputies shall each, before entering upon the discharge of his duties, take oath or affirmation, according to the constitution of this state and the laws thereof, and shall file the same with the secretary of state. The said state inspector of oils shall execute a bond to the state of North Dakota in the penal sum of five thousand dollars, with such surety as shall be approved by the governor of the state, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties herein imposed, which bond shall be for the use of the state of North Dakota, and of all persons aggrieved by the act or failure of act of the state inspector of oils, and the same shall be filed with the secretary of state. Each such deputy inspector of oils shall, before entering upon the discharge of his duties, execute a bond to the state of North Dakota in the penal sum of not less than one thousand dollars nor more than five thousand dollars, as the state inspector of oils shall prescribe, which bond shall be approved by the governor and filed with the secretary of state; and such bond shall be conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties herein imposed and shall be for the use of the state of North Dakota, and all persons aggrieved by the act or failure of act of such deputy inspector of oils. [1913, ch. 214, § 5; 1909, ch. 171, § 2; R. C. 1905, § 2214; 1890, ch. 107, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 1761; 1901, ch. 128, § 2; 1903, ch. 129, § 2; 1905, ch. 141, § 2.]

§ 3062. Oil companies shall execute bond to guarantee payment of fees.

Any person, firm or corporation shipping into the state petroleum, illuminating oils, gasolines or other petroleum products for sale, or manufacturing within the state such petroleum, illuminating oils, gasolines or other petroleum products, shall execute a bond to the state of North Dakota in the penal sum of not less than five hundred dollars. In case the inspection fees of any person, firm or corporation exceed the amount of five hundred dollars for any calendar month such person, firm or corporation shall execute a bond to the state of North Dakota for twice the amount of the maximum fees paid by such person, firm or corporation for any month of the preceding calendar year, with such surety as shall be approved by the governor of the state, conditioned for the faithful payment of inspection fees herein imposed, which bond shall be for the use of the state of North Dakota, and shall be filed with the secretary of state not later than May first, 1913. Provided, that any person, firm or corporation doing business in the state at the time of the taking effect of this article shall file such bond not more than thirty days after shipment of the first consignment into the state. [1913, ch. 214, § 6.]

§ 3063. Inspector to furnish apparatus. The state inspector of oils shall, immediately upon the appointment and qualification of the deputies named in section 3057, procure and furnish to such deputies such apparatus as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this article. He may also purchase from time to time the apparatus for making tests of petroleum, illuminating oils, gasoline and other petroleum products as hereinafter provided, and pay the necessary travel and other expenses of the department. [1913, ch. 214, § 7; 1909, ch. 171, § 3; R. C. 1905, § 2215; 1901, ch. 128, § 3; 1903, ch. 129, § 3; 1905, ch. 141, § 3.]

§ 3064. Inspector's duties. All illuminating oils, the product of petroleum, or into which petroleum or any product of petroleum enters or is found as a constituent, whether manufactured in this state or not, shall be inspected as provided in this article before being sold or offered for sale or used for illuminating purposes in this state. It shall be the duty of the state inspector of oils, or his deputies, to examine and test within this state all such oils held or offered for sale or sold by any manufacturer, vender, person, firm or corporation in this state for illuminating purposes, and if upon such tests and examination said illuminating oils shall meet the requirements hereinafter specified he shall affix to the receptacle containing the same his brand, showing the date of his inspection, his name, and the words, "Approved, flash test not less than one hundred (100) degrees, fire test not less than one hundred and twenty-five (125) degrees." But if such illuminating oils, so tested, shall not meet said requirements, hereinafter specified, the words, "Rejected for illuminating purposes," shall be marked in plain letters upon the receptacle containing the same.

All oils, the product of petroleum, or into which petroleum, or any product of petroleum enters or is found as a constituent, sold or offered for sale or used in this state for illuminating purposes, shall conform to the following requirements: The color shall be water white when viewed by transmitted light through a layer of oil four inches deep. It shall not give a flash test below one hundred (100) degrees, closed cup test, Elliott cup, and shall not have a fire test below one hundred and twenty-five (125) degrees Fahrenheit, Elliott cup.

Said state inspector of oils or his deputies shall also examine and test, within this state, all such illuminating oils held or offered for sale or sold for illuminating purposes by any manufacturer, vender or by any person, firm or corporation in this state, for gravity. The gravity of said illuminating oils shall be determined by the Tagliabue standard, registered hydrometer, Beaume scale, at a temperature of sixty (60) degrees Fahrenheit; and every manufacturer, vender or dealer in said illuminating oils in this state shall stencil on each barrel or package containing said illuminating oils the words, "Gravity Test not less than degrees Beaume," inserting in the blank space left therefor a Beaume gravity not higher than the actual Beaume gravity of the contents at a temperature of sixty (60) degrees Fahrenheit.

Every person, firm or corporation selling or delivering said illuminating oil in bulk by means of portable tanks or tank wagons, or at retail, shall, in lieu of the stamp or brand above provided for, furnish and deliver to the purchaser a certificate covering each delivery therefor in the following words, figures and terms:

"This is to certify that the illuminating oil covered by this sale has a gravity test of not less than degrees, Beaume, and a flash test of not less than one hundred (100) degrees, and a fire test of not less than one hundred and twenty-five (125) degrees, and has been inspected and approved by the state oil inspector, and complies with North Dakota chemical tests."

Inserting in the blank space left therefor a Beaume gravity not higher than the actual Beaume gravity of the oil covered by the sale at a temperature of sixty (60) degrees Fahrenheit; provided, so-called fuel oil and other petroleum products test forty (40) degrees Beaume or lower at a temperature of sixty (60) degrees Fahrenheit shall be inspected as in this act provided, and the same shall be labeled "fuel oil" or "distillate," as the case may be, and the fee for inspection and branding or labeling the same shall be twenty-five (25) cents per barrel. It is not the intent of this provision to include lubricating oils. [1913, ch. 214, § 8; 1909, ch. 171, § 5; R. C. 1905, §§ 2216, 2218; 1901, ch. 128, §§ 4, 6, 7; 1903, ch. 129, §§ 4, 6; 1905, ch. 141, §§ 4, 6; 1897, ch. 90; R. C. 1899, § 1760.]

§ 3065. Duty of seller. Penalty. All oils the product of petroleum, or into which petroleum or any product of petroleum enters or is found as a constituent, sold or offered for sale, or used in this state for illuminating purposes shall likewise conform to the following, which shall be known as chemical tests, to wit: (a) Such illuminating oils shall not contain water or tar-like matter, nor shall they contain more than a trace of any sulphur compound. (b) It shall be the duty of the state inspector of oils, or his deputy, to at least once in each ninety days have a chemical test made at the state university and the state agricultural college, demonstrating whether or not such oils contain more than four per cent residue after being distilled at a temperature of five hundred and seventy (570) degrees Fahrenheit, and shall not contain more than six per cent of oil distilling at three hundred and ten (310) degrees Fahrenheit, when one hundred (100) cubic centimeters of the oil are distilled from a side-neck distilling flask two and three-fourths inches in diameter, the length of the neck between the body of the flask and the side tube being two and one-half inches, said flask to be covered with a closely adhering jacket of asbestos paper; also, a determination of the amount of sulphur compounds in said oils, together with such burning tests as may be necessary to determine the photometric value of the oils, which shall not, in the photometric test, when burning under normal conditions, show a fall of more than twenty-five per cent in candlepower in a test of not less than six nor more than eight hours' duration, consuming ninety-five per cent of the oil. The result of such chemical tests shall be included in the annual report of the state inspector of oils to the governor. The failure of the state inspector of oils to have the above tests made shall render him liable to a fine of one hundred dollars for each offense. In case any corporation, company or individual, manufacturer or vender, has or offers for sale for illuminating purposes oils which do not comply with the hereinbefore prescribed chemical tests, the state inspector of oils shall reject such oils for illuminating purposes, and the offending officer of any such corporation or company, or the manufacturer, vender or individual having or offering for sale for illuminating purposes such oils shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor. [1913, ch. 214, § 8½; 1909, ch. 171, § 5; R. C. 1905, § 2218; 1897, ch. 90; R. C. 1899, § 1760; 1901, ch. 128, §§ 6, 7; 1903, ch. 129, § 6; 1905, ch. 141, § 6.]

§ 3066. Duty of seller. Penalty. All gasolines and all petroleum products having a flash test of less than one hundred (100) degrees Fahrenheit, closed cup test, Elliott cup, whether manufactured in this state or not, shall be inspected as provided in this article before being sold or offered for sale or used in this state. It shall be the duty of the state inspector of oils or his deputies to examine and test within this state all such gasolines and petroleum products of less than one hundred (100) degrees Fahrenheit, flash test, held or offered for sale or sold by any manufacturer, vender, person, firm or corporation in this state for gravity. The gravity of said gasolines and said petroleum products of less than one hundred (100) degrees Fahrenheit, flash test, shall be determined by the Tagliabue standard registered hydrometer, Beaume scale, at a temperature of sixty (60) degrees Fahrenheit. After making said examination and test he shall affix to the receptacle containing the same his brand showing the date of inspection, his name and the word "inspected."

Every person, firm or corporation selling or delivering any of the said gasolines or petroleum products of less than one hundred (100) degrees Fahrenheit, flash test, in this state, in barrels or packages, shall plainly stencil or label on each barrel or package containing the same the words "Gravity not less than degrees, Beaume. Unsafe for illuminating purposes. For power purposes only." Inserting in the blank space left therefor a Beaume gravity not higher than the actual Beaume gravity of the contents of said barrel or package at a temperature of sixty (60) degrees Fahrenheit. Every person, firm or corporation selling or delivering said gasoline or petroleum products of less than one hundred (100) degrees Fahrenheit, flash test, by means of portable tanks or tank wagons, or at retail, shall, in lieu of the stamp, brand or label hereinbefore provided for, furnish and deliver to the purchaser a certificate covering each delivery of the same in the following words, figures and terms:

Inserting in the blank space left therefor a Beaume gravity of not higher than the actual Beaume gravity, at a temperature of sixty (60) degrees Fahrenheit, if the gasoline or petroleum products of less than one hundred (100) degrees Fahrenheit, flash test, covered by said sale. Provided, nevertheless, that all gasolines sold or offered for sale in this state for household purposes shall, when one hundred cubic centimeters are subjected to distillation in a flask as described for distilling oil, show not less than three per cent distilling at one hundred and fifty-eight (158) degrees Fahrenheit, and there shall not be more than six per cent residue at two hundred and eighty-four (284) degrees Fahrenheit, which shall be known as the chemical test for gasoline sold or offered for sale in this state for household purposes.

Every person, firm or corporation selling or delivering any such gasoline in barrels or packages shall plainly stencil or label on each barrel or package containing the same, the words:

"Gravity not less than degrees Beaume. Unsafe for illuminating purposes. Sold for household purposes."

Every person, firm or corporation selling or delivering such gasoline in bulk by means of portable tanks or tank wagons, or at retail, shall, in lieu of the stamp or brand hereinbefore provided for, furnish and deliver to the purchaser a certificate covering each delivery thereof in the following words, figures and terms:

Inserting in the blank space left therefor a Beaume gravity not higher than the Beaume gravity of the gasoline or petroleum product of less than one hundred (100) degrees Fahrenheit, flash test, covered by said sale, at a temperature of sixty (60) degrees Fahrenheit.

Any person, firm or corporation selling or offering to sell within this state gasoline for household purposes which does not comply with the foregoing requirements, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. [1913, ch. 214, § 9; 1909, ch. 171, §§ 5, 10; R. C. 1905, §§ 2218, 2222; 1897, ch. 90; R. C. 1899, §§ 1760, 1765; 1901, ch. 128, §§ 6, 7, 14; 1903, ch. 129, §§ 6, 10; 1905, ch. 141, §§ 6, 10; 1890, ch. 107, § 7.]

§ 3067. Providing appropriations for chemical tests. [For the purpose of employing chemists and the purchase of apparatus and material, and to cover any other expenses incident to the making of chemical tests as above provided, there shall be set aside from the general funds four thousand dollars annually, which sum shall be divided equally between the state university and the state agricultural college, and shall be paid quarterly of each year to the treasurers of said institutions in July, October, January and April.] It shall be the duty of the chemist of the state university and the agricultural college, having in charge the testing of oils, to make tests of such lubricating oils as are submitted to them to determine the lubricating value of the oils submitted to be tested. [1913, ch. 214, § 10.]

"The item carried in section 10 [§ 3067] providing that there shall be set aside from the general fund four thousand dollars annually" was "vetoed for the reason that the appropriations largely exceed the revenues of the state," in Laws 1913, ch. 214, p. 337.

§ 3068. Brand to be stamped on containers. Every person, firm or corporation offering for sale or selling or manufacturing within the state, such illuminating oils, gasolines or petroleum products of less than one hundred (100) degrees Fahrenheit, flash test, shall stamp or brand every package, barrel or cask containing the same with the name of brand contained in such package, cask or barrel. Every package, cask or barrel which contains gasoline or any petroleum product of less than one hundred (100) degrees Fahrenheit, flash test, shall be branded before being shipped into the state, "unsafe for illuminating purposes." [1913, ch. 214, § 11; 1909, ch. 171, § 4; R. C. 1905, § 2217; 1890, ch. 107, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 1763; 1901, ch. 128, § 5; 1903, ch. 129, § 5; 1905, ch. 141, § 5.]

tion companies whose lines enter the state, and to the state auditor, a list of the ports of entry which have been created, at once upon entering upon the duties of his office, and to report to such companies and state auditor new ports of entry as they may be established, together with the names of the deputies at each port; and the transportation company bringing petroleum, illuminating oils, gasolines, petroleum products of less than one hundred (100) degrees Fahrenheit, flash test, into the state, subject to inspection as herein provided, shall stop and hold for inspection at points designated as ports of entry, all consignments of such goods, and a failure to do so will be a misdemeanor on the part of the transportation company and its representative in charge, and punishable by a fine not to exceed one hundred and fifty dollars, or by imprisonment not to exceed thirty days, or both. Any person, firm, corporation or individual bringing into the state such goods in same manner are subject to same regulations and penalties, except as to notifications of ports of entry and deputies, and for their notification notices shall be posted at every transportation company's station in each port of entry. [1913, ch. 214, § 12; 1909, ch. 171, § 6.]

§ 3070. Inspector's fees. Each and every inspector and deputy inspector who shall inspect any consignment of illuminating oils or gasoline or petroleum products of less than one hundred (100) degrees Fahrenheit, flash test, as provided in this article, shall charge the consignor of such goods the sum of twenty-five cents for testing a barrel or less quantity. Fifty gallons shall constitute a barrel. Every such inspector and deputy inspector shall keep an accurate record of all such goods inspected, rejected, branded or certified to by him, which record shall state the date of such inspection; the number of packages, barrels, casks or tanks approved; the number rejected; the name of the persons for whom inspected; the name of the person to whom consigned, with his address; the sum of money charged for such inspection; and such records shall be open to all persons interested. The state inspector of oils shall, in the month of January, in each year, make and deliver to the governor a report of his acts, and those of his deputies, during the year preceding, together with remarks and suggestions for the benefit of the service, which shall include a copy and summary of the report submitted by said deputies as provided in this section. [1913, ch. 214, § 13; 1909, ch. 171, § 7; R. C. 1905, § 2219; 1890, ch. 107, §§ 4, 6; R. C. 1895, §§ 1762, 1764; 1901, ch. 128, § 9; 1903, ch. 129, § 7; 1905, ch. 141, § 7.]

§ 3071. Inspection reports. A record of all inspections shall be made in quadruplicate in a carbon copy book; one copy shall be retained at the port of entry where inspection is made. On the date of inspection, one copy of the report shall be forwarded to the consignor, one copy to the state inspector of oils and one copy to the state auditor, either on the date of inspection or on or before the fifth day of the succeeding month, at the discretion of the state inspector of oils. On the first day of each month each deputy shall also furnish to the state inspector of oils and state auditor a summary of any and all inspections made by him during the month preceding, including the name and address of every consignor and the amount of inspection fees due. One copy of the monthly summary shall be retained at each port of entry. [1913, ch. 214, § 14; 1909, ch. 171, § 7; R. C. 1905, § 2219; 1890, ch. 107, §§ 4, 6; R. C. 1895, §§ 1762, 1764; 1901, ch. 128, § 9; 1903, ch. 129, § 7; 1905, ch. 141, § 7.]

§ 3072. Inspector and deputies shall not deal in petroleum products. Penalty. It shall be unlawful for the state inspector of oils or his deputies, to directly or indirectly, while in office, traffic in any of the illuminating oils, gasoline or other petroleum products which he has been appointed to inspect. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be subject to a penalty of not exceeding five hundred dollars and be removed from office. [1913, ch. 214, § 15; 1909, ch. 171, § 15; R. C. 1905, § 2220; 1890, ch. 107,

§ 3073. State's attorney shall prosecute in certain cases. It shall be the duty of the state inspector of oils, or any of his deputies, or any person having cognizance of any violation of the provisions of this article, to forthwith make complaint to the state's attorney for the county in which the offense is alleged to have been committed, against the person or persons so offending, and it is hereby made the duty of such state's attorney to represent and prosecute on behalf of the people in this county all cases of offense arising under the provisions of this article. Any inspector or state's attorney who willfully refuses or neglects to carry out the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall, upon conviction thereof, be removed from office. [1913, ch. 214, § 16; 1909, ch. 171, § 9; R. C. 1905, § 2221; 1890, ch. 107, § 12; R. C. 1899, § 1770; 1901, ch. 128, § 13; 1903, ch. 129, § 9; 1905, ch. 141, § 9.]

§ 3074. False brand. Adulteration. Penalty. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation, whether vender, dealer or manufacturer, to knowingly have, use, sell, attempt to sell or deliver to any person in this state for illuminating purposes any of the illuminating oils hereinbefore mentioned, until the same shall have been inspected and approved, and branded, labeled or certified, according to the provisions of this article. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, corporation, whether vender, dealer or manufacturer, to knowingly have, use, attempt to sell or deliver to any person in this state, any of the gasolines or petroleum products of less than one hundred (100) degrees Fahrenheit, flash test, until the same shall have been inspected and branded, labeled or certified, according to the provisions of this article. It shall be unlawful for any person to falsely brand and label any package, barrel or cask, or falsely certify to the contents of any tank car, tank or tank wagon containing said illuminating oils or said gasolines or said petroleum products of less than one hundred (100) degrees Fahrenheit, flash test, or to deliver therefrom, for the purpose of deceiving the purchaser thereof in any manner, as to the contents of the same. It shall be unlawful for any person to dispose of any empty barrel, cask or package that has once been used for said illuminating oils or gasolines or petroleum products of less than one hundred (100) degrees Fahrenheit, flash test, and has been branded or labeled in accordance with this article, before thoroughly cancelling, removing or effacing the inspection brand on the same.

It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to adulterate with paraffin or other substance for the purpose of sale or use, any of the illuminating oils specified in this article, nor shall any person knowingly use or sell or offer for sale for illuminating purposes, oils which shall emit a combustible vapor at a temperature of less than one hundred (100) degrees Fahrenheit, according to the test herein described.

Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be subject to a penalty not to exceed five hundred dollars fine, or imprisonment in the state penitentiary not exceeding one year, or both such fine and imprisonment. [1913, ch. 214, § 17; 1909, ch. 171, § 10; R. C. 1905, § 2222; 1890, ch. 107, § 7; R. C. 1899, § 1765; 1901, ch. 128, § 14; 1903, ch. 129, § 10; 1905, ch. 141, § 10.]

§ 3075. Containers. Penalty. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to keep for sale or use or to sell any gasoline or petroleum products of less than one hundred (100) degrees Fahrenheit, flash test, in any barrel, cask, package, can or receptacle, unless the same is painted red, or to keep for sale or use or to sell, any petroleum, illuminating oils, in any barrel, cask, package, can or receptacle, if the same is painted red; provided, however, that in case of gasoline, benzine or naphtha being sold in bottles for cleaning and similar purposes, it shall be deemed sufficient if the contents are so designated by red label securely pasted or attached thereto bearing the words, "gasoline," "benzine" or "naphtha," as the case may be; provided, however, that the provisions of this article shall not apply to any barrel, cask, package, can or other receptacle, the capacity of which is over sixty gallons.

Any person, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than twenty-five dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed sixty days, or both. [1913, ch. 214, § 18; R. C. 1905, §§ 2228, 2229; 1903, ch. 104, §§ 1, 2.]

§ 3076. Penalty. Whoever shall knowingly use, sell or cause to be sold unlawfully for illuminating purposes any of the illuminating oils specified in this article which are below one hundred (100) degrees Fahrenheit, flash test, as tested by the official test as herein described, shall be liable to any person purchasing such oil, or to any person injured thereby for any damage to any person or property arising from an explosion thereof. [1913, ch. 214, § 19; 1909, ch. 171, § 11; R. C. 1905, § 2223; 1890, ch. 107, § 10; R. C. 1899, § 1768; 1901, ch. 128, § 15; 1903, ch. 129, § 11; 1905, ch. 141, § 11.]

Defense of contributory negligence may be interposed, where such negligence was proximate and efficient cause of explosion. Morrison v. Lee, 23 N. D. 251, 38 L.R.A.(N.S.) 412, 133 N. W. 548, 1 N. C. C. A. 258.

Liability of manufacturer, packer or vender to persons not in privity of contract, for injuries from defects in articles sold in violation of statute. 48 L.R.A.(N.S.) 319.

§ 3077. Removed from office in certain cases. It shall be the duty of the governor, whenever he shall find that the state inspector of oils is guilty of refusal or neglect to discharge any of the duties enjoined upon him by this article, to promptly remove him from office. It shall be the duty of the state inspector of oils to promptly remove from office any of his deputies who shall prove to be unfaithful or dishonest in the discharge of his duties. [1913, ch. 214, § 20; 1909, ch. 171, § 13; R. C. 1905, § 2225; 1901, ch. 128, § 17; 1903, ch. 129, § 13; 1905, ch. 141, § 13.]

§ 3078. Ports of entry designated, how. The state inspector of oils is hereby authorized to designate as ports of entry ports where public necessity requires inspections should be made. For making inspection other than at points designated as ports of entry the state inspector of oils or his deputy shall be entitled, in addition to the fees prescribed, to actual traveling expenses, such expenses to be paid by the party for whom the inspection is made. [1913, ch. 214, § 21; 1909, ch. 171, § 14; R. C. 1905, § 2226; 1899, ch. 117, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 1773d; 1901, ch. 128, § 18; 1903, ch. 129, § 14; 1905, ch. 141, § 14.]

§ 3079. Expenses paid out of general fund. All expenses other than salaries shall be paid out of the general fund on the order of the state inspector of oils. [1913, ch. 214, § 22; 1909, ch. 171, § 15.]

§ 3080. No exemption from inspection and fees. Nothing in this article shall be construed to exempt from inspection and payment of fees any illuminating oils, gasoline, power oils or distillates. [1913, ch. 214, § 23.]

ARTICLE 70.—COAL MINE LICENSE AND STATISTICS.

§ 3081. Coal mine license, how procured. The operator of each and every coal mine operated in the state of North Dakota, and selling coal to the general public, shall annually, on or before the tenth day of July, after the passage and approval of this article, procure a license from the commissioner of agriculture and labor, for which he shall pay a fee of five dollars. [1907, ch. 50, § 1.]

§ 3082. Statistics to be furnished. There shall be kept in a book to be provided for that purpose, at each mine operated and selling coal to the general public, the following information: Name of the mine; its location; when it began business; by whom owned; by whom operated; number of tons of coal mined; number of men employed; wages paid by the day, week, month and year; the total cost of operating the mine; the total amount of coal sold and the price received therefor, and such other statistical information as the commissioner of agriculture and labor may prescribe, to be kept by such mine, under the provisions of section 163; provided, that when the report of any operator of a coal mine in this state shows that the output of his mine has not been more than five hundred tons of coal for the year, the five dollars paid as license shall be returned to such operator. [1907, ch. 50, § 2.]

§ 3083. Report to commissioner of agriculture. It shall be the duty of all persons operating mines within this state, as provided in sections 3081 and 3082, to make a verified report to the commissioner of agriculture and labor, containing all the information to be kept by said mine operator, as provided in section 3082, together with such further information as the commissioner of agriculture and labor may require under the provisions of section 163. [1907, ch. 50, § 3.]

§ 3084. Penalty for failure to comply with law. Every mine owner and operator who shall operate any coal mine without first procuring the license herein provided for, or who shall willfully fail, neglect or refuse to comply with the provisions of this article, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, shall be subject to a fine of one hundred dollars, or imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding thirty days, or both such fine and imprisonment, as the court may determine. [1907, ch. 50, § 4.]

ARTICLE 71.— COAL INSPECTION.

§ 3085. Oil inspector ex-officio coal inspector. In order to protect the interests of the consumers of coal shipped into the state of North Dakota, the provisions herein enacted are made incumbent upon the state oil inspector, who shall be ex-officio inspector of coal imported into the state. [1913, ch. 213, § 1.]

As to the state oil inspector, see section 3057 et seq.

§ 3086. Standards and tests. For the purpose of this article, coal marketed as anthracite shall meet as a standard the following requirements:

(All determinations shall be made on a moisture-free basis.) In such standard the ash should be under fifteen per cent (15%) ; the British thermal units should be over 12,000. Any coal marketed below this standard shall be sold at a price based upon the following scale of reduction, the price corrections authorized for anthracite due to variations in the British thermal unit value in "dry coal" below the standard herein specified and in ash content above said standard shall be determined in the following manner:

The prices to be paid shall be computed by dividing the market price at the point of sale by the British thermal unit value hereinbefore specified and multiplying by the actual determined British thermal unit value from which shall be subtracted ten cents (10c) per ton for each increase of one per cent (1%) in ash content above fifteen per cent (15%), as hereinbefore specified. For the provisions of this article, coal other than anthracite and marketed as bituminous coal shall meet as a standard the following requirements:

(All determinations shall be made on a moisture-free basis.) In such standard the ash should be under ten per cent (10%) and the British thermal units should be above thirteen thousand (13,000).

Any bituminous coal marketed below the standard shall be sold at a price based upon the following scale of reduction, the price corrections authorized for bituminous coal due to variations in British thermal unit value in the "dry coal" below the standard herein specified, and any ash content above said standard shall be determined in the following manner:

The price to be paid shall be computed by dividing the market price at the point of sale by the British thermal unit value hereinbefore specified and multiplying by the actual determined British thermal unit value, from which shall be subtracted seven cents (7c) per ton for each increase of one per cent (1%) in ash content above ten per cent (10%), as hereinbefore specified. [1913, ch. 213, § 2.]

§ 3087. Duties and powers. It shall be the duty of the state oil inspector and his deputies to collect samples of anthracite and bituminous coals imported into this state when in the judgment of the state oil inspector there seems to be a need of so doing for the protection of the consumers; and in case of serious grievance upon the written request accompanied by a proper affidavit stating the party from whom the coal was purchased, the place and date of purchase and accompanied by such other information as may be required by the oil inspector, and provided that upon careful investigation there seems to be sufficient cause to warrant action, the state oil inspector or his deputies are hereby authorized to enter into or upon the premises of any dealer or vender of coal at any time for the inspection or taking of samples of anthracite or bituminous coal as herein specified. [1913, ch. 213, § 3.]

§ 3088. Samples, how secured. Samples of coal shall be taken from at least three ports of entry at intervals of not longer than ninety (90) days and all samples of coal taken for or subjected to tests under this article shall be promptly transmitted to the school of mines of the state university, and it shall then be the duty of the said school of mines to make the tests herein specified and report the results of said tests to the oil inspector. In securing samples, proper care shall be exercised to obtain an average sample of the lot to be tested and such sample shall not be less than fifty pounds or over one hundred pounds, which when tested at said school of mines shall be properly reduced and sampled for the necessary tests herein provided. [1913, ch. 213, § 4.]

An appropriation in section 5 of the act of 1913, above cited, for the purpose of making the tests, etc., was vetoed. Laws 1913, ch. 213, p. 334.

§ 3089. Report. It shall be the duty of the state oil inspector to make a biennial report to the governor of the state of the inspection of coal imported into the state as herein provided. [1913, ch. 213, § 6.]

As to biennial reports to the governor, see in general sections 95, 97, 98.

ARTICLE 72.—ABSTRACTERS.

§ 3090. Abstracters to give bonds. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to engage or continue in the business of making or compiling abstracts of title to real estate in this state or to demand and receive pay for the same without first having for use in such business a complete set of abstract books or records of all instruments filed or of record in the office of the register of deeds in and for the county in which such business is to be conducted, or in good faith engaged in the preparation for not less than three months of such books or records, and without first filing in the office of the county auditor of the county in which such business is to be conducted, a surety or personal bond to the county in the penal sum of ten thousand dollars for each and every ten thousand inhabitants or major part of that number residing within such county as shown by the official federal or state census last taken prior to the filing of such bond, to be approved as to form and security by the board of county commissioners of such county, conditioned for the payment by such abstracters of any and all damages that may be sustained by or accrue to any person by reason or on account of any error, deficiency or mistake in any abstract or certificate of title or continuation of an abstract of title made and issued by such person, firm or corporation; provided, that in counties containing less than a major part of ten thousand inhabitants, the bond herein required shall be for not less than five thousand dollars. Provided, that if a personal bond is given there shall be at least three sureties, none of whom shall be officers or stockholders of the abstract company and each of whom shall justify for the full amount of the bond. [1913, ch. 1; 1911, ch. 329, § 1; 1907, ch. 1; R. C. 1905, § 2231; 1899, ch. 1, § 1; R. C. 1895, § 1774; 1905, § 2.]

This section amends R. C. 1905, § 2231, which, with R. C. 1905, §§ 2232, 2233 and 2234, had been amended in Laws 1911, ch. 329, the latter having been vetoed, reinstated by mandamus in State ex rel. Watkins v. Norton, 21 N. D. 473, 131 N. W. 257, and finally repealed in Laws 1913, ch. 1, § 2.

Abstracters are liable to a purchaser of property who relies on their abstract, without regard to who paid for or ordered abstract. Goldberg v. Sisseton Loan & Title Co., 24 S. D. 49, 140 Am. St. Rep. 775, 123 N. W. 266.

Right of abstracters to have access to public records. 124 Am. St. Rep. 911.

§ 3091. Certificate issued, when. When any abstracter shall have filed his bond and the same shall have been approved as above provided, he shall be entitled to receive from such county auditor a certificate reciting that such bond has been duly approved and that the same has been filed in his office, which certificate shall be valid so long as such abstracter shall maintain his sureties upon the bond, unimpaired. [R. C. 1905, § 2232; 1889, ch. 1, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 1775.]

See note to section 3090.

§ 3092. Certificate of authority. It is the duty of the county auditor after the bond of any abstracter shall have been filed and approved to issue to such abstracter on demand a certificate of authority in writing, under his hand and official seal, which shall authorize him to make such abstracts. Such certificate shall continue in force for five years, unless recalled or cancelled as provided in the next section. After such certificate shall have been issued the person, firm or corporation holding the same during the continuance of such certificate shall have full access to all records of the county during office hours; and it is the duty of any person, firm or corporation holding such certificate, to furnish an abstract of the title to any tract of land in such county when requested to do so, on payment of the fees hereinafter provided. [R. C. 1905, § 2233; 1889, ch. 1, § 2; R. C. 1895, § 1776.]

See note to section 3090.

§ 3093. Additional security. The bond herein provided for may run during the continuance of such person, firm or corporation in such abstract business, not to exceed five years, and the board of county commissioners may at any time require such abstracter upon ten days' notice to furnish an additional bond, and show cause why the same should not be declared invalid, and the certificate thereof recalled and annulled, and if within such time such additional bond is not furnished and no sufficient reason is shown to the commissioners why the same should not be required, then the certificate issued to such abstracter shall be recalled and annulled. [R. C. 1905, § 2234; 1889, ch. 1, § 3; R. C. 1895, § 1777.]

See note to section 3090.

§ 3094. Appeal. The abstracter or complainant may have an appeal to the district court of such county from the decision of the board of county commissioners by preserving the evidence taken at the hearing, which shall be certified up by the county auditor of such county; and such appeal shall be summarily decided by the court on such evidence, and the costs of such appeal, including the furnishing of such evidence, shall be adjudged against the defeated party. [R. C. 1905, § 2235; 1889, ch. 1, § 4; R. C. 1899, § 1778.]

§ 3095. Penalty for violation. Any person, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this article shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars nor less than twenty-five dollars for each offense. [R. C. 1905, § 2236; 1889, ch. 1, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 1779.]

of title to lands from the records of the respective offices; but such officers shall be liable on their official bond for the faithful performance of all acts as abstracters. [R. C. 1905, § 2237; 1889, ch. 1, § 6; R. C. 1895, § 1780.]

Recording of abstracts, see section 5547.

§ 3097. Fees. For making and certifying to abstracts under the provisions of this article, the following fees and no more shall be allowed: For the first entry on any one abstract, one dollar; for each subsequent entry or transfer on such abstract, twenty-five cents; for entry relating to taxes, twenty-five cents; for entry relating to mechanics' liens, twenty-five cents; for entry as to judgments, which may constitute liens on the property so abstracted, fifteen cents for each name certified to; for certificate to abstract, twenty-five cents. It shall be the duty of such abstracters to continue any abstract so made by them, on the payment of twenty-five cents for each entry made thereon, and twenty-five cents for the certificate of continuation thereto. Each and every deed, mortgage, affidavit, lease, lis pendens, judgment, mechanic's lien or other instrument on file or of record in the offices of the registers of deeds or clerks of court affecting the title to the real estate so abstracted shall constitute an entry; for the abstracting of estates in county courts which are not recorded in the office of the register of deeds, such fees may be charged by such abstracters as may be reasonable, but in no case to exceed five dollars for each estate. [R. C. 1905, § 2238; 1889, ch. 1, § 7; R. C. 1895, § 1781.]

§ 3098. Seal. Any person, firm or corporation furnishing abstracts of title to real property under the provisions of this article shall first provide a seal, which seal shall have stamped thereon the name and location of such person, firm or corporation, and shall deposit with the county auditor an impression of such seal before the certificate mentioned in section 3092 shall issue, which seal shall be affixed to every abstract or certificate of title, issued by such abstracters. [R. C. 1905, § 2239; 1889, ch. 1, § 8; R. C. 1899, § 1782.]

§ 3099. Auditor to certify abstracts. Fees. It shall be the duty of the county auditor to attach his certificate to each abstract of title to real estate of his county that may be presented to him for that purpose, which certificate shall show the amount of taxes due and unpaid against, or tax title affecting the land described in such abstract, as the same may appear from the records of his office, and collect therefor the sum of twenty-five cents for each abstract so certified. He shall keep a book known as a fee receipt book in which shall be kept true and correct records of all fees received by him for any purpose, and it shall be his duty to deliver to the county treasurer to be turned into the general fund on the first day of each month all fees collected by him during the preceding month and take a receipt from the county treasurer therefor, and for each failure or refusal to comply with the provisions of this section he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars. [1911, ch. 111; R. C. 1905, § 2240; 1901, ch. 1.]

The emergency section in the act of 1911, above cited, recites that "under the present law county auditors are retaining the moneys received as fees for certifying to abstracts and deeds owing to an ambiguity in the language of the present law."

ARTICLE 73.—PUBLIC WAREHOUSES.

§ 3100. Commissioners of railroads, powers and duties. The duties imposed by the provisions of this article and the powers conferred herein devolve upon the commissioners of railroads. [R. C. 1905, § 2241; 1891, ch. 126, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1783.]

§ 3101. Commissioners of railroads. Duties. It shall be the duty of the commissioners of railroads to supervise the handling, weighing and storing of grain and seed; to establish all necessary rules and regulations for the weighing of grain and for the management of public warehouses of the state, so far as such rules and regulations may be necessary to enforce the provisions of this article or any law in this state in regard to the same; investigate all complaints of frauds or oppression in the grain trade of this state, and correct the same. They shall revoke the license of any warehouse for cause upon notice and hearing. [1909, ch. 230; R. C. 1905, § 2242; 1891, ch. 126, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 1784.]

Law defining public warehouses and prescribing maximum charges constitutional. No deprivation of property or regulation of commerce. State v. Brass, 2 N. D. 482, 52 N. W. 408, affirmed in Brass v. State, 153 U. S. 391, 38 L.ed. 757, 14 Sup. Ct. Rep. 857.

Board of railroad commissioners may examine into sufficiency of bond given by grain elevator operator. State ex rel. Dakota Trust Co. v. Stutsman, 24 N. D. 68, 139 N. W. 83.

§ 3102. Rules to be published. The rules and regulations so established shall be printed and published by the commissioners of railroads in such manner as to give the greatest publicity thereto, and the same shall be in force and effect until they are changed or abrogated by such commissioners in a like public manner. [R. C. 1905, § 2243; 1891, ch. 126, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 1785.]

§ 3103. Railroad commissioners establish grades for grain. The board of railway commissioners of the state of North Dakota shall, before the first day of September of each year, establish grades of all kinds of grain bought or handled by any elevator or warehouse in this state, which shall be known as "North Dakota grades," which shall conform to the grades established at the terminal points, and the grades so established shall be printed and published in the manner required by section 3102; provided, that no such application shall be necessary except when changes are made in such grades, and then the changes so made only shall be published. And said board of railroad commissioners shall have supervision of the grading, weighing and shipping of all grain purchased or handled by public warehousemen in North Dakota, and all public warehousemen shall grade all grain purchased or handled by them in conformity with the established "North Dakota grades" as herein provided. Any person aggrieved at the weights or grades given by any warehouseman may appeal to the board of railroad commissioners, and it is hereby made the duty of said board to without delay inquire into said grievance and adjust the same in accordance with established standards. [1909, ch. 135, § 1.]

§ 3104. Agents at Minnesota terminals. Report to commissioners. It shall be the duty of the expert representatives at the terminal points of Minneapolis and Duluth appointed by law to sit with the Minnesota board of grain appeals, and to act as representatives of the grain shippers of North Dakota and look after their interests in all matters relating to the inspection, weighing, grading and docking of grain shipped from North Dakota, so far as the same may not be inconsistent with the laws of Minnesota or the rules and regulations of the railroad and warehouse commission of Minnesota. Said agents shall report all complaints and grievances to the board of railroad commissioners of this state, which shall receive all such reports and shall use all proper means to correct and remedy the same. [1909, ch. 135, § 2.]

An amendment to this section was vetoed in Laws 1911, ch. 319. The "expert representatives" referred to in this section are those which the governor was authorized to appoint in Laws 1909, ch. 134, referred to in the veto message above cited, from which it appears that the usefulness of those representatives has ceased and no compensation is now provided for them.

§ 3105. Grading of grain. All public warehouses within this state, as defined by section 3107, when requested by the seller, shall, before testing for grade any grain handled by them, remove therefrom and make due allowance for any dockage of such grain made by reason of the presence of straw, weed seeds, dirt or any other foreign matter. Such test shall be made by taking a fair sample of such grain and cleaning the same before testing for the grade of such grain. And no public warehouse within this state, as defined in section 3107, shall grade any grain offered to it for sale in this state, after such request has been made, until due allowance has been made for such dockage and such dockage has been deducted or removed from such grain; and, when such dockage has been removed, deducted or allowance made for the same by such public warehouse, such warehouse shall proceed to test such grain for grade and shall grade the same as if such dockage had been removed, deducted or allowance made therefor as provided herein. [1913, ch. 176, § 1.]

§ 3106. Misdemeanor. Penalty for violation. Any person, association, copartnership or corporation, or the agent of any person, association, copartnership or corporation owning, operating or conducting the business of a public warehouse, in this state, who shall violate any of the provisions of this act [sections 3105, 3106] shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than one hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail not less than ten nor more than thirty days or both such fine and imprisonment. [1913, ch. 176, § 2.]

§ 3107. Public warehouse defined. All buildings, elevators and warehouses, and all grist and flour mills doing a shipping business in this state, erected and operated, or which may hereafter be erected or operated by any person, association, copartnership, corporation or trust, for the purpose of buying, selling, storing, shipping or handling grain for profit, are declared public warehouses, and the person, association, copartnership or corporation owning or operating such buildings, elevators or warehouses, which are now, or may hereafter be located or doing business within this state, whether such owners or operators reside within this state or not, are public warehousemen within the meaning of this article, and none of the provisions of this article shall be construed so as to permit discrimination with reference to buying, receiving and handling grain of standard grades or in regard to the persons offering such grain for sale, storage and handling at such public warehouses, while the same are in operation. [R. C. 1905, § 2244; 1899, ch. 126; R. C. 1899, § 1786; 1901, ch. 140.]

Officer of corporation manufacturing flour is not guilty of larceny in refusing to deliver or pay for wheat delivered to it. Ex parte Bellamy, 17 N. D. 140, 114 N. W. 376.

§ 3108. License, how obtained. Fee, how determined. A biennial state license must be maintained through the commissioners of railroads to expire on the first day of August of each odd numbered year and for each and every public grain warehouse in operation in this state. No license issued under this article shall describe more than one public grain warehouse, or grant permission to operate any other public grain warehouse than the one therein described. The license fee is hereby fixed at eight dollars for warehouses of a capacity of twelve thousand bushels or less, and ten dollars for warehouses of a capacity of over twelve thousand bushels and not to exceed twenty-five thousand bushels, and twelve dollars for all warehouses over twenty-five thousand bushels and not to exceed fifty thousand bushels, and twenty dollars for all warehouses over fifty thousand bushels and not to exceed eighty thousand bushels, and twenty-five dollars for all warehouses over eighty thousand bushels capacity for each public grain warehouse; provided, that before any license is issued the person applying therefor shall file with the commissioners of railroads the receipt of the state treasurer showing that the applicant has paid into the state treasury the amount of said license fee. [1907, ch. 112; R. C. 1905, § 2245; 1895, ch. 115, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1787.]

Warehouse used exclusively for owner's goods or products as subject of license tax. 39 L.R.A. (N.S.) 803.

§ 3109. License to be conspicuously posted. Penalty. The license thus obtained shall be posted in a conspicuous place in the public warehouse so licensed. Every such license shall expire on the first day of August next following the issuance thereof, and no license shall run for a longer period than one year. Any person or association who shall transact the business of public warehouseman without first procuring a license as herein provided shall, on conviction, be fined in a sum not less than twenty-five dollars for each and every day such business is carried on. [R. C. 1905, § 2246; 1895, ch. 115, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 1788.]

§ 3110. Refund of license fee of public grain warehouses authorized. The board of railroad commissioners are hereby authorized to refund the license fee of a public grain warehouse, or so much thereof as in their judgment would be just and reasonable when satisfactory proof is furnished said board that such warehouse or elevator has been transferred to some other person, firm or corporation, and application is made by the new owner for a license for the same warehouse or elevator, for the same biennial period for which the original license was issued. Provided, that where a warehouse or elevator is destroyed by fire or other cause, the license fee may be prorated in such amount as the board of railroad commissioners may determine. [1911, ch. 244.]

§ 3111. Bond to be filed. The proprietor, lessee or manager of any public warehouse, elevator or flour mill, or any individual buying or shipping grain for profit in this state, and who does not pay cash in advance for the grain so bought shall file with the commissioner of railroads a bond to the state with good and sufficient sureties to be approved by such commissioners in the penal sum of not less than five thousand nor more than seventy-five thousand dollars, in the discretion of the commissioners, conditioned for the faithful performance of their duties as public warehousemen, and the compliance with all the laws of this state in relation thereto. One bond only need be given for any line of elevators, mills or warehouses owned, controlled or operated by one individual, firm or corporation. Such bond, specifying the location of each elevator, mill or warehouse operated by such individual, firm or corporation, shall be in sufficient amount to protect the holders of outstanding tickets. [1913, ch. 236, § 6; R. C. 1905, § 2247; 1891, ch. 126, § 5; R. C. 1895, § 1789.]

Board of railroad commissioners may examine into sufficiency of bonds given by grain elevator operators and may for such purpose summon any witness before them that they please. State ex rel. Dakota Trust Co. v. Stutsman, 24 N. D. 68, 139 N. W. 83.

§ 3112. Warehouse receipts, what to contain. All owners of such elevators and warehouses shall, upon the request of any person delivering grain thereat, give a warehouse receipt therefor, subject to the order of the owner or consignee, which receipt shall bear date corresponding with the receipt of the grain, and shall state upon its face the quantity and grade upon the same. All warehouse receipts shall be consecutively numbered, and no two receipts bearing the same number and series shall be issued during the same year. No warehouse receipt shall be issued except upon actual delivery of grain into such warehouse. No such warehouseman shall insert in any warehouse receipt issued by him any language in anywise limiting or modifying his liability as imposed by the laws of this state. [R. C. 1905, § 2248; 1891, ch. 126, § 6; R. C. 1899, § 1790.]

§ 3113. What storage receipts shall express. Each storage receipt issued in this state shall expressly provide that at the option of the holder of such receipt the kind, quality and quantity of grain for which such receipt was issued shall be, on his demand, delivered back to him, at any terminal point or at the same place where it was received upon the payment of a reasonable charge per bushel for receiving, handling, storage and insurance charges; and in case of terminal delivery the payment, in addition to the above, of the regular freight charges on the gross amount called for by the tickets being surrendered — such charges to be fixed by express terms in the storage receipt at the time of receiving the grain at the elevator or warehouse, and at the time of issuing the receipt, but no charges shall be made for cleaning grain unless such grain has been actually cleaned. Nothing in this section shall be construed to require the delivery of the identical grain specified in the receipt so presented, but an equal amount of the same grade of grain or in lieu thereof a receipt issued by a bonded warehouse or elevator company doing business at terminal points, for an equal amount of grain of the same grade; provided, that grain placed in a special bin be excepted from the provisions of this section. [R. C. 1905, § 2249; 1891, ch. 126, § 7; R. C. 1899, § 1791; 1905, ch. 110.]

§ 3114. Bailment not a sale. Insolvency. Whenever any grain shall be delivered to any person, association, firm or corporation doing a grain, warehouse or grain elevator business in this state and the receipt issued therefor provides for the delivery of a like amount and grade to the holder thereof in return, such delivery shall be a bailment and not a sale of the grain so delivered, and in no case shall the grain so stored be liable to seizure upon process of any court in an action against such bailee, except actions by owners of such warehouse receipts to enforce the terms thereof, but such grain shall at all times in the event of the failure or insolvency of such bailee be first applied exclusively to the redemption of outstanding warehouse receipts for grain so stored with such bailee. And in such event grain on hand in any particular elevator or warehouse shall first be applied to the redemption and satisfaction of receipts issued by such warehouse. [R. C. 1905, § 2250; 1891, ch. 126, § 8; R. C. 1899, § 1792.]

§ 3116. Rates of storage. The charges for storage and handling of grain shall not exceed the following rates: For receiving, elevating, insuring, delivering and twenty days' storage, two cents per bushel. Storage rates after the first twenty days, one-half cent per each fifteen days or fraction thereof, and not exceeding five cents for six months. The grain shall be kept insured at the expense of the warehouseman for the benefit of the owner. [R. C. 1905, § 2252; 1891, ch. 126, § 11; R. C. 1899, § 1794.]

§ 3117. Penalty for violation of this article. Any person who shall knowingly cheat, or falsely weigh any wheat or other agricultural products, or who shall violate any of the provisions of this article shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall on conviction thereof be subject to a fine of not less than two hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars and be imprisoned in the penitentiary for a period not exceeding one year, in the discretion of the court. [R. C. 1905, § 2253; 1891, ch. 126, § 12; R. C. 1899, § 1795.]

The words "this article" do not include sections 3103, 3104, 3105, or 3106.

§ 3118. Warehouse on railroad right of way. Application. Any person, firm or corporation desirous of erecting and operating at or contiguous to any railway station or siding a warehouse or elevator for the purchase, sale, shipment or storage of grain for the public for hire may make application in writing, containing a description of that portion of the right of way of said railroad on which said person, firm or corporation desires to erect a warehouse or elevator, and the size and capacity of the warehouse or elevator proposed to be erected and the time for which it is desired to maintain said warehouse or elevator, to the person, firm or corporation owning, leasing or operating the railway at such station or siding for the right, privilege and easement of erecting and maintaining for the time stated in said application, and for reasonable compensation such warehouse or elevator as aforesaid, upon the right of way appertaining to such railway at such siding or station, and within and between the outside switches of the yard of such railway station or siding and upon paying or securing in the manner hereinafter prescribed reasonable compensation for the right, privilege and easement aforesaid, shall absolutely and unconditionally be entitled to the same. Use of railroad right of way for purposes of warehouse as against owner of fee. 36 L.R.A.(N.S.) 519.

§ 3119. Compensation. Notice to applicant. The application provided in section 3118 shall also state the amount the applicant deems a reasonable compensation for the right, privilege and easement he desires to acquire, and said applicant shall tender and pay to such person, firm or corporation, from whom such easement is sought, the sum stated in such application, and in case the amount so named and tendered is not accepted, and the parties cannot agree on the amount to be paid for such right, privilege and easement, the same shall be ascertained, assessed and determined by proceedings in the district court of the county in which the station or siding at which the right, privilege and easement sought is situated, which court is hereby given full jurisdiction in the premises, and shall at all times be deemed open and in session for the purposes of this article. It shall be the duty of any person, firm or corporation to whom application is made for the right to erect and maintain an elevator or warehouse under the provisions of this article, to within ten days after the receipt of said application notify said applicant in writing of the acceptance or rejection of the amount stated in said application to be reasonable compensation for the right, privilege and easement sought to be acquired, and in case said person, firm or corporation fails to notify the applicant within said ten days, said person, firm or corporation shall be deemed to have accepted said amount, and upon payment or tender thereof said applicant shall be deemed to have acquired the right, privilege and easement applied for. [R. C. 1905, § 2255; 1903, ch. 142, § 2.]

§ 3120. Procedure in district court. Proceedings in the district court shall be instituted and carried on as follows: The party seeking the right, privilege and easement aforesaid shall present to and file with the district court a petition in writing and under oath specifying and describing the right, privilege and easement sought and the time for which the same is sought and the fact that the parties to the proceedings are unable to agree upon the amount of compensation therefor. A copy of the application for such privilege shall be attached to said petition and thereupon it shall at once be the duty of the court, by its order in writing, to fix upon a place and a time not more than thirty days thereafter where and when the court will try, ascertain, assess and determine the amount of such compensation; a certified copy of which order at least twenty days before the time so fixed upon, shall be served upon the party from whom the right, privilege and easement is sought, as summons are served in civil actions of said court, and such service when made shall be ample notice to and summons for the party so served to appear and join in the proceedings and shall be ample to give the court full jurisdiction over the party against whom the proceedings are instituted and the property involved in the proceedings. [R. C. 1905, § 2256; 1903, ch. 142, § 3.]

§ 3121. Trial. Election of gross sum or annual rental. Writ. At the time and place so fixed for ascertaining, assessing and determining the compensation aforesaid, the court shall immediately proceed to try said matter, without a jury, if the parties consent, and if they do not consent and if the time and place fixed for said hearing is at a general or special term of said court where a petit jury has been summoned, the court shall proceed to a hearing of such matter with a jury selected and sworn from the panel present at such term, in the same manner as jurors are selected in civil actions, and if the regular panel is exhausted before a jury is secured, talesmen may be summoned. In case said proceedings are made returnable at any other time than at a term where a petit jury shall have been summoned, the court shall make an order requiring the selection of twenty-four jurors from those returned by the county commissioners, which jury shall be drawn and selected in the same manner as provided by law for the drawing of jurors for general terms of the district court, and from the jurors so returned, a jury shall be selected the same as in civil actions and the trial shall proceed after the manner of trials in civil actions, and the court or jury, as the case may be, shall find and assess compensation both in the form of an annual rental and in the form of a gross sum for the right, privilege and easement sought, and immediately after the finding or verdict has been made the party against whom the proceedings have been taken shall elect whether to receive the annual rental or the gross sum found, and in case such election is not made by this party, then the other party to the proceedings may make such election, and after election is made as aforesaid, judgment shall be rendered adjudging, among other things, that upon payment of the gross sum found or the annual rental found, yearly in advance, as the case may be, the party instituting the proceedings shall be entitled to the right, privilege and easement of erecting and maintaining the elevator or warehouse asked for in the application and petition aforesaid, and for the time therein specified; and thereupon the party in whose favor said judgment is rendered shall be entitled to a writ of execution in proper form to immediately invest such party with the right, privilege and easement aforesaid. [R. C. 1905, § 2257; 1903, ch. 142, § 4.]

§ 3122. Forfeiture. Appeal. Costs. In case the annual rental is elected the same shall be paid, yearly in advance, and if not so paid after thirty days' default the right, privilege and easement aforesaid shall be absolutely forfeited. Within thirty days after the entry of said judgment as hereinbefore provided, but not later, an appeal may be taken by either party to the supreme court, but such appeal shall not stay or hinder the use or enjoyment to the fullest extent of the right, privilege and easement asked for by the petition and conferred by the judgment, if the party instituting the proceedings shall make and file a bond with sureties, to be approved by the court, in an amount double the gross sum or annual rental, conditioned to pay such sum or rental and to abide and satisfy any judgment the supreme court may render in the premises. Costs and disbursements as in civil actions shall, in each court, be paid by the unsuccessful party. If the finding of the court or jury is for a less or the same amount as tendered by the petitioner before instituting the proceedings, then the petitioner shall be deemed the successful party; but if the amount found is larger than the sum tendered, then the petitioner shall be deemed the unsuccessful party. In the supreme court, if the judgment or order appealed from is reversed or modified, the appellant shall be deemed the successful party; but if the judgment or order appealed from is affirmed, the respondent shall be deemed the successful party. [R. C. 1905, § 2258; 1903, ch. 142, § 5.]

§ 3123. Warehouses deemed public. Open, when. All elevators and warehouses erected and maintained under the provisions of this article shall be deemed public elevators and public warehouses and shall be subject to legislative control and shall be kept open for business for the public for reasonable business hours from the fifteenth day of September in each calendar year to the fifteenth day of January in each succeeding calendar year. Any person, firm or corporation who fails to comply with the provisions of this section shall forfeit the rights, privileges and easements acquired under this article. [R. C. 1905, § 2259; 1903, ch. 142, § 6.]

§ 3124. Erection of warehouses. Any persons, firms or corporations availing themselves of the provisions of this article shall within sixty days after the amount to be paid for the easement acquired thereunder is finally determined, by agreement or by proceedings in court, commence the erection of the warehouse or elevator stated in the application referred to in section 3118 and complete the same within ninety days thereafter, and in case of failure to comply with the provisions of this section they shall be deemed to have abandoned the right, privilege and easement acquired, and the part or portion of the railroad right of way described in their application shall be subject to selection by other applicants who may desire to avail themselves of the provisions of this article. [R. C. 1905, § 2260; 1903, ch. 142, § 7.]

constructed within one hundred feet of any existing structure and shall be at safe fire distance from the station buildings and so as not essentially to conflict with the safe and convenient operation of the road; and where stations are ten miles or more apart the railroad company when required so to do by the commissioners of railroads shall construct and maintain a side track for the use of shippers between such stations. [R. C. 1905, § 2261; 1890, ch. 189, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 1798.]

See note to section 4715.

ARTICLE 74.—CERTIFICATE OF INSPECTION AND WEIGHT.

§ 3126. Requiring the return of certificate of weight and inspection. Every elevator company, corporation, copartnership or association of individuals, operating any elevator, building or place in this state for the purchase, storage or deposit of any grain or other farm commodity, shall return to the local buyer at the place where such grain or other farm commodity is purchased, stored or deposited, the official certificate of inspection, together with the weighmaster's certificate for any such grain or other farm commodity sold, whether said grain is sold in this state or in any foreign state where such grain is weighed and inspected. [1907, ch. 113, § 1.]

It is to be observed that the phrase "or other farm commodity" withdraws this section, to that extent, from the definition in section 3107.

§ 3127. Duty of agent or local buyer. It shall be the duty of the local buyer or agent of the elevator company or other association enumerated in section 3126, to post in a conspicuous place in such elevator building or place the official weighmaster's certificate and the official inspector's certificate, and have the same at all times so that the public may inspect the same. [1907, ch. 113, § 2.]

§ 3128. When certificates are to be returned. The elevator company or other association enumerated in section 3126, shall forthwith, upon the sale of each car or part of car of grain or other farm commodity, return the certificates provided for in this article. [1907, ch. 113, § 3.]

§ 3129. Penalty. Any elevator company, corporation, copartnership or other association of individuals, or any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this article, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and all right to transact any business in this state shall be forfeited. [1907, ch. 113, § 4.]

ARTICLE 75.—UNIFORM ACCOUNTING.

§ 3130. Railroad commission to formulate a system of uniform accounting. It shall be the duty of the railroad commission of this state to plan and formulate a uniform system of accounting for public elevators and warehouses defined in section 3107. To formulate such system of accounting the commission may employ one or more expert accountants, who shall receive a compensation for their services to be determined by the commission. When a uniform system of accounting has been formulated, as herein provided for, the railroad commission shall recommend the adoption of such system of accounting to every firm, association, copartnership or corporation conducting a public elevator or warehouse in this state, as defined in section 3107. [1913, ch. 236, § 1.]

§ 3131. Examination. The railroad commission may and whenever requested by not less than fifteen per cent of the stockholders of any association, copartnership, firm or corporation conducting such public elevator or warehouse, the railroad commission shall install such uniform system of accounting, and on request of the percentage of stockholders as before required shall send a competent examiner to examine the books and financial accounts of such elevator or warehouse. Whenever a request for the examination of the financial accounts of any association, copartnership, firm or corporation has been made to the railroad commission, as provided herein, an examination shall thereafter be made at least once every year until the board of railroad commissioners shall be requested to discontinue such examination by resolution adopted by the stockholders at any annual meeting. When such examination has been made the examiner shall immediately report the result thereof to the president and secretary of such association, copartnership, firm or corporation and to the railroad commission. [1913, ch. 236, § 2.]

§ 3132. Certificate. If the board of railroad commissioners is satisfied from such examination that such person, association, copartnership or corporation is solvent and its method of doing business is such as is likely to be beneficial to all of its members or persons interested therein the board shall issue a certificate, countersigned by the examiner, to the agent or manager, which certificate shall be kept posted conspicuously in the warehouse or elevator of such person, association, copartnership or corporation stating that said methods of doing business are sound and that such person, association, copartnership or corporation is solvent, and that its books and accounts are properly kept. If the affairs and methods of doing business of such person, association, copartnership or corporation shall not seem sound or satisfactory to the board of railroad commissioners the board shall issue a certificate or statement, countersigned by the person who made the examination, stating in what particular and in what respects the business methods practiced or methods of keeping books and accounts of such person, association, copartnership or corporation are not deemed safe. The said board shall mail a copy of said statement or certificate to each of such shareholders or stockholders as may have requested said board to make such examination. The board shall also send a copy thereof to the president and secretary of such association, copartnership or corporation. [1913, ch. 236, § 3.]

§ 3133. Penalty for interfering with examiner. Any person who interferes with such examination (examiner) in the performance of his duty shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined not less than twenty-five dollars ($25) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100), or be imprisoned in the county jail not less than ten nor more than thirty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. [1913, ch. 236, § 4.]

§ 3134. Fees. For making such installation and examination such firm, association, copartnership or corporation shall pay this examiner a fee of five dollars ($5) per day for each day or fraction thereof that the examiner is absent from the capitol for the purpose of making such examination, plus his actual traveling and hotel expenses, together with the actual cost of such books and blanks as may be necessary for the installation of a complete system of uniform accounting; such fees shall be paid into the state treasury and used for the purpose of paying the expenses incurred under the provisions of this article. Such expenses shall be audited and paid in the same manner as other expenses are audited and paid. [1913, ch. 236, § 5.]

ARTICLE 76.—REPORTS OF ELEVATORS AND WAREHOUSES.

§ 3135. Report of grain shipments. The owner, agent or operator of every elevator, warehouse or grain station shall make an annual sworn statement and report to the commissioner of agriculture and labor on or before the twentieth day of August in each year. Such report shall show the amount and kind of grain bought and shipped during the preceding year ending July thirtieth. [1907, ch. 111, § 1.]

§ 3136. Report of track or independent buyers. Every station agent of every railroad shall report to the commissioner of agriculture and labor annually as provided in the preceding section, the amount of grain shipped by independent or track buyers or by other individuals not the owners or operators of any warehouse or elevator at his station. [1907, ch. 111, § 2.]

§ 3137. Commissioner of agriculture furnishes blanks. It shall be the duty of the commissioner of agriculture and labor to furnish all persons required to make the reports provided for in this article with the necessary and appropriate blanks on which to make and return such report. [1907, ch. 111, § 3.]

ARTICLE 77.— STORAGE COMPANIES.

§ 3138. License keepers of public warehouses. The board of railroad commissioners may license any suitable person, persons or corporations established under the laws of this state and having their place or places of business within this state to carry on business of public storage companies or public warehousemen, who may keep and maintain public warehouses for the storage of goods, wares and merchandise, etc., excepting grain in bulk. Said license may be obtained upon the payment annually into the treasury of the state of the sum of ten dollars, to be credited to the general fund of the state. [1913, ch. 239; R. C. 1905, § 2262; 1901, ch. 141, § 1.]

§ 3139. Bonds. Each person or corporation licensed under section 3138 shall give a bond to the treasurer of the state, in the penal sum of five thousand dollars, with good and sufficient sureties to be approved by the board of railroad commissioners, for the faithful discharge of the duties of a public warehouseman. [1913, ch. 239; R. C. 1905, § 2363; 1901, ch. 141, § 2.]

§ 3140. Subject to action in name of state. When any one licensed to do business as a public storage company or as a public warehouseman fails to perform his duty or violates any of the provisions of this article, any person, persons or corporation injured by such failure or violation may, with the consent of the board of railroad commissioners and the attorney-general, bring an action in the name of the state, but to his or their own use, in any court of competent jurisdiction, on the bond of such company or warehouseman. In such action the person, persons or corporation in whose behalf the action is brought shall file with the court a satisfactory bond for costs, and the state shall not be liable for any costs. [1913, ch. 239; R. C. 1905, § 2264; 1901, ch. 141, § 3.]

§ 3141. Insuring property stored. Every public storage company or warehouseman shall when requested thereto in writing by any party placing property with him in storage, cause such property to be insured for whom it may concern; and such storage company or warehouseman shall not be held liable for the loss or damage by fire to the owner or owners of any property stored with him, unless such request to insure is made as aforesaid and he or they fail to comply therewith; provided, that such loss or damage is not occasioned through the negligence of himself, his agents, servants or employes; provided, that such storage company or warehouseman may, in case they deem it necessary and proper, insure such property without such request, in writing, in which event the cost of such insurance shall be and become a valid lien and charge thereon as provided in section 3145. [R. C. 1905, § 2265; 1901, ch. 141, § 4.]

§ 3142. Title of goods stored. The title of goods and chattels stored with a public storage company or in a public warehouse shall pass to a purchaser or pledgee, by the indorsement and delivery to him of the storage company's or warehouseman's negotiable receipt therefor, signed by the party to whom such receipt was originally given, or by an indorsee of such receipt, subject to all liens and charges thereon for warehousing, advanced charges and insurance. [R. C. 1905, § 2266; 1901, ch. 141, § 5.]

As to delivery of warehouse receipt as pledge of property without formality of transfer of possession. State use of Hart-Parr Co. v. Robb-Lawrence Co., 17 N. D. 257, 16 L.R.A. (N.S.) 227, 115 N. W. 846.

Assignment and delivery of storage ticket passes title to property represented and to storage ticket. St. Anthony & D. Elevator Co. v. Dawson, 20 N. D. 23, 126 N. W. 1013, Ann. Cas. 1913B, 1337.

Receipts of warehousemen and their transfer and negotiability. 84 Am. Dec. 752.

§ 3143. Storage charges. No discrimination. Every such storage company or warehouseman shall receive, forward and store all property offered for such purposes by any person, persons or corporation, impartially and at as low a rate of charge, and in a manner and on terms, and in quantities as favorable to the party offering such property as it or he at the same place receives, forwards and stores, in the ordinary course of business, property of like description and in similar quantities offered by any other person, persons or corporation. No such storage company or warehouseman shall discriminate against any particular person, persons or corporation, or subject them or him to any undue and unreasonable prejudice or disadvantage. Any court having jurisdiction shall have power to enforce the provisions of this article by injunction or other suitable process. [R. C. 1905, § 2267; 1901, ch. 141, § 6.]

Power of equity to regulate charges of public warehouseman. 24 L.R.A.(N.S.) 399.

§ 3144. Penalty. Every such storage company or warehouseman who neglects or refuses to comply with the provisions of section 3143 shall forfeit, for every such offense, not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars, to be recovered in an action by the party offering the property for storage. [R. C. 1905, § 2268; 1901, ch. 141, § 7.]

§ 3145. Lien thereon. Every such storage company or warehouseman who stores, keeps, cares for or advances money on, or insures personal property, shall have a lien thereon for his reasonable charges for storing, keeping, caring for and insuring the same, and for the charges he may have advanced on the same and legal interest thereon. [R. C. 1905, § 2269; 1901, ch. 141, § 8.]

§ 3146. Unlawful without license. It shall be unlawful for any person, persons or corporation, not duly licensed as herein provided, to conduct or carry on the business of a public storage company or public warehouseman in the state. [R. C. 1905, § 2270; 1901, ch. 141, § 9.]

§ 3147. Guilty of misdemeanor. Punishment. Any person, persons or corporation who shall violate the provisions of this article shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punishable by a fine of not exceeding one thousand dollars. [R. C. 1905, § 2271; 1901, ch. 141, § 10.]

§ 3148. To whom applied. This article shall not be construed to apply to any implement transfer company or to any railroad or transportation company; provided, such railroad or transportation company shall, within forty-eight hours after receipt of such goods, wares and merchandise, notify the consignee of the arrival thereof in writing, and in case such consignee or his assigns fails and neglects to call for or receive said goods, wares or merchandise within thirty days after such receipt of same by any railroad or transportation company as aforesaid, said railroad or transportation company must then turn over said goods, wares or merchandise to a licensed bonded storage company or warehouseman in the city, town or village in which said goods, wares or merchandise are then located, if any there be, and if not, to the licensed bonded storage company or warehouseman in the city, town or village on the line of the carrier nearest to the place where such goods, wares or merchandise are then located, upon the payment of the charges of said carrier thereon, which charges thus paid by said bonded storage company or warehouseman to said carriers shall be a lien on said goods, wares or merchandise. [1913, ch. 235; R. C. 1905, § 2272; 1901, ch. 141, § 11.]

ARTICLE 78.— COLD STORAGE WAREHOUSES.

§ 3149. Definition of terms. The term "cold storage" as used in this article shall be construed to mean a place artificially cooled to a temperature of forty degrees Fahrenheit or below, but shall not include such a place in a private home, hotel or restaurant or refrigerator cars.

The term "cold stored" as used in this article shall be construed to mean the keeping of "articles of food" in "cold storage" for a period exceeding thirty days.

The term "articles of food" as used in this article shall be construed to mean and include fresh meat and fresh meat products, except in process of manufacture, fresh food, fish, game, poultry, eggs and butter. [1913, ch. 94, § 1.]

Liability of bailee for damages to goods received for cold storage. 52 L.R.A. 106; 38 L.R.A. (N.S.) 994; 90 Am. St. Rep. 295.

§ 3150. License to operate cold storage warehouse, how obtained. Fee. Any person, firm or corporation desiring to operate a public cold storage or refrigerating warehouse, shall make application in writing to the food commissioner of the experiment station at Fargo for that purpose, stating the location of its plant or plants. On receipt of the application the food commissioner shall cause an examination to be made into the sanitary condition of said plant or plants, and if found to be in a sanitary condition and otherwise properly equipped for the business of cold storage, the food commissioner shall cause a license to be issued authorizing the applicant to operate a cold storage or refrigerating warehouse for and during the period of one year. The license shall be issued upon payment by the applicant of a license fee of ten dollars ($10) to the food commissioner. [1913, ch. 94, § 2.]

§ 3151. Suspension of license for unsanitary condition. In the event that any place or places, or any part thereof, covered by a license, under the provisions of this article, shall at any time be deemed by the food commissioner to be in an unsanitary condition, it shall be the duty of the food commissioner to notify licensee of such condition, and upon the failure of the licensee to put said specified place or places, or the specified part thereof, in a sanitary condition within a designated time, it shall be the duty of the food commissioner to prohibit the use under its license of such specified place or places, or part thereof, as he deems in an unsanitary condition until such time as it may be put in a sanitary condition. [1913, ch. 94, § 3.]

§ 3152. Records and reports of food products in storage. It shall be the duty of any person, firm or corporation licensed to operate a cold storage or refrigerating warehouse, to keep an accurate record of the receipts and the withdrawals of the articles of food, and the food commissioner shall have free access to these records at any time. Every such person, firm or corporation shall, furthermore, submit a quarterly report to the food commissioner, setting forth in itemized particular the quantity of food products held in cold storage. Such quarterly reports shall be filed on or before the sixth of January, April, July and October of each year, and the reports so rendered shall show the conditions existing on the first day of the month in which the report is filed. The food commissioner shall have the authority to require such reports to be made at more frequent intervals than the times herein specified, if in the judgment of the food commissioner more frequent reports shall be needed in the interest of a proper enforcement of this article, or for other reasons affecting the public welfare. [1913, ch. 94, § 4.]

§ 3153. Cold storage of diseased or tainted articles. No article of food intended for human consumption shall be placed in cold storage if diseased or tainted or deteriorated so as to injure its keeping qualities, or if not slaughtered, handled and prepared for storage in accordance with the pure food and sanitary laws and such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the food commissioner for the sanitary preparation of food products for cold storage, under the authority hereinafter conferred. Any article of food if intended for use other than human consumption before being cold stored shall be marked by the owner in accordance with forms prescribed by the food commissioner (under authority hereinafter conferred) in such a way as to plainly indicate the fact that such articles are not to be sold for human food. [1913, ch. 94, § 5.]

§ 3154. Inspection and supervision of warehouses. It shall be the duty of the food commissioner to inspect and supervise all cold storage or refrigerating warehouses in this state, and to make such inspection of the entry of articles of food therein as the food commissioner may deem necessary to secure proper enforcement of this article. The food commissioner, or his duly authorized agents, inspectors or employes, shall be permitted access to such establishments, and all parts thereof, at all reasonable times for purposes of inspection and enforcement of the provisions of this article. The said food commissioner may also appoint and designate such person or persons as he deems qualified to make the inspections herein required. [1913, ch. 94, § 6.]

§ 3155. Date of receipt and withdrawal marked on containers. All articles of food when deposited in cold storage shall be marked plainly on the containers in which they are packed or on or in connection with the individual article with the date of receipt, and when removed from cold storage shall be marked with the date of withdrawal, in accordance with such forms as may be prescribed by the food commissioner, under the authority hereinafter conferred. [1913, ch. 94, § 7.]

§ 3156. Period of allowable cold storage. No person, firm or corporation, as owners or having control, shall keep in cold storage any article of food for a longer period than twelve calendar months, except with the consent of the food commissioner, as hereinafter provided. The food commissioner may, upon application, grant permission to extend the period of storage beyond twelve months for a particular consignment of goods, if the goods in question are found, upon examination, to be in proper condition for further storage at the end of twelve months. The length of time for which further storage is allowed shall be specified in the order granting the permission. A report on each case in which such extension of storage may be permitted, including information relating to the reason for the action of the food commissioner, the kind and amount of goods for which the storage period was extended, and the length of time for which the continuance was granted, shall be included in the annual report of the food commissioner. [1913, ch. 94, § 8.]

§ 3157. Sale of cold storage goods regulated. It shall be unlawful to sell, or to offer or expose for sale, uncooked articles of food which have been held in cold storage without notifying persons purchasing or intending to purchase the same, that they have been so kept, by the display of a sign marked "cold storage goods sold here," and it shall be unlawful to represent or advertise as fresh goods articles of food which have been held in cold storage. [1913, ch. 94, § 9.]

§ 3158. Return of article to cold storage prohibited. It shall be unlawful to return to cold storage any article of food that has once been released from such storage and placed on the market for sale to consumers, but nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the transfer of goods from one cold storage or refrigerating warehouse to another, provided that such transfer is not made for the purpose of evading any provision of this article. [1913, ch. 94, § 10.]

§ 3159. Food commissioner to make rules and regulations. The food commissioner may make rules and regulations to secure a proper enforcement of the provisions of this article, including rules and regulations with respect to the sanitary preparation of articles of food for cold storage, the use of marks, tags or labels and the display of signs, and the violation of such rules shall be punished on conviction as provided in section 3160. [1913, ch. 94, § 11.]

§ 3160. Penalty for violation of provisions. Any person, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this article shall, upon conviction, be punished for the first offense by a fine not less than ten ($10) dollars and not more than one hundred ($100) dollars, and for the second offense by a fine of not less than fifty ($50) dollars nor more than five hundred ($500) dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than thirty days, or by such fine and imprisonment. [1913, ch. 94, § 12.]

§ 3161. What constitutes violation of the law. The doing of anything prohibited by this article shall be evidence of the violation of the provisions of this article relating to the things so prohibited, and the omission to do anything directed to be done shall be evidence of a violation of the provisions of this article relative to the things so directed to be done. [1913, ch. 94, § 13.]

ARTICLE 79.— SUPERIOR GRAIN AND WAREHOUSE COMMISSION.

§ 3162. Governor appoints member, when. Term of office. Salary. The governor of this state shall, within sixty days after receipt by him of a request by the governor of the state of Wisconsin so to do, recommend one or more persons who shall have had at least five years' experience in the handling or grading of grain, for appointment upon the grain and warehouse commission for the city of Superior, Wisconsin, and shall, within said period, forward to the governor of the state of Wisconsin the name or names of the person or persons so recommended. [R. C. 1905, § 2273; 1893, ch. 191, § 1; 1905, ch. 115.]

§ 3163. Term of office. Salary. The person appointed by the governor of Wisconsin, if he has been recommended by the governor of North Dakota, shall be paid the sum of three hundred dollars per annum from the date of his appointment for the period of two years, which shall be in addition to all sums paid him under the laws of the state of Wisconsin. [R. C. 1905, § 2274; 1903, ch. 191; 1905, ch. 115.]

ARTICLE 80.— HABITUAL DRUNKARDS.

§ 3164. Treatment of drunkards. Method of procedure. Any inhabitant of this state, who is of kin to, or a friend of an habitual drunkard as hereinafter defined, may petition the board of county commissioners of the county where such drunkard resides for leave to send such drunkard, at the expense of the county, to any reputable institute for the treatment of drunkenness, designated by a committee of three persons to be appointed by the governor; which petition shall set forth the name, age and condition of such drunkard; that such drunkard or those of his kin petitioning are not financially able to incur the expense of such cure, and that such habitual drunkard is willing and has agreed to attend such institute for the cure of drunkenness, which petition shall be verified by the person making such request, and shall contain, in addition thereto, the written agreement of such habitual drunkard, his desire to take such treatment, and the names of three reputable taxpayers in the county where such habitual drunkard resides, stating that they are familiar with the facts set forth in the petition, and with the financial circumstances of the drunkard and of the petitioner and think it a proper case for assistance by the board of county commissioners. [R. C. 1905, § 2275; 1895, ch. 68, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1800.]

Validity of statute providing for governmental assistance of. 7 L.R.A. (N.S.) 1196.

§ 3165. Duties of county commissioners. When such petition is filed the board of county commissioners, if satisfied from examination that the facts set forth in the petition are true, that such drunkard has been a resident of the county for six months, and of his own free will desires to take such treatment, shall send such drunkard to some reputable institute for the treatment of such disease, which will treat the same at the lowest figure; but such board shall not be compelled to send such person to the institute making the lowest bid, unless, in its judgment, the best interests of such drunkard will be promoted thereby; and the board shall order that the expense for the treatment be paid out of the county treasury in the manner that other claims and bills against the county are paid. The treatment of such drunkard shall at all times be under the supervision of the board of county commissioners, who may at any time it deems proper, discontinue the treatment of such drunkard, or change him from one institute to another, as to it shall seem best. No county shall be required to send the same person a second time at its expense to any such institute. [R. C. 1905, § 2276; 1895, ch. 68, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 1801.]

§ 3166. Drunkard defined. A drunkard, as defined herein, includes a person who uses alcoholic, spirituous, malt, fermented or intoxicating liquors, morphia, laudanum, cocaine, opium or other narcotics to such a degree as to deprive him of a reasonable degree of self control. [R. C. 1905, § 2277; 1895, ch. 68, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 1802.]

§ 3167. May reimburse the county. Any person who shall be treated for drunkenness under the provisions of this article, and who desires to reimburse the county at whose expense he has been treated, may pay to the county treasurer of such county the amount expended for his treatment, and the treasurer shall give him a receipt for the amount so paid, which receipt shall state that such payment is for reimbursement as aforesaid, and the amount so paid shall be covered into the treasury of the county. [R. C. 1905, § 2278; 1895, ch. 68, § 4; R. C. 1899, § 1803.]

ARTICLE 81.—PREVENTING INFANT BLINDNESS.

§ 3168. Duty of physician, midwife or other attendant. That whenever a child is born, the physician, midwife or any other person who is present and engaged as professional attendant, shall report said birth on a blank supplied by the state board of health to the health officer having jurisdiction, within thirty-six hours after such birth occurs. Said birth certificate in addition to other data ordered by the state board of health shall have upon it this question: "Were precautions taken against ophthalmia neonatorum?" And it shall be a violation of this act for any physician or midwife in professional attendance at a birth to fail to report same as herein commanded or to omit answering the said question, "Were precautions taken against ophthalmia neonatorum?" All bills or charges for professional services rendered at a birth shall be unlawful if report is not made as herein commanded. [1911, ch. 188, § 1.]

§ 3169. Same. It shall be the duty of all physicians or midwives in professional attendance upon a birth to always carefully examine the eyes of the infant, and if there is the least reason for suspecting of disease of the eyes then said physician or midwife in professional attendance shall apply such prophylactic treatment as may be recognized as efficient in medical science. [1911, ch. 188, § 2.]

§ 3170. Same. Exception. Should one or both eyes of an infant become inflamed, swollen or reddened, or show any unnatural discharge or secretion at any time within two weeks after its birth, and no legally qualified physician is in attendance upon the infant at that time, it shall be the duty of its parents, or in their absence, whoever is caring for said infant to report the fact in writing within six hours after discovery, to the health officer having jurisdiction. Provided, said report to said health officer need not be made from recognized hospitals. [1911, ch. 188, § 3.]

§ 3171. Duty of health officer. Upon receipt of a report as set forth in section 3170, health officers shall direct the parents or whoever has charge of such infant suffering from such inflammation, swelling, redness or unnatural secretion or discharge of the eyes, to immediately place it in charge of a legally qualified physician or in charge of the city or township physician if unable to pay for medical services. [1911, ch. 188, § 4.]

§ 3172. Penalty. Any violation of the provisions of this act shall be punished by a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than fifty dollars. [1911, ch. 188, § 5.]

ARTICLE 82.—NEWSPAPERS QUALIFIED TO DO LEGAL PRINTING.

§ 3173. Newspapers qualified to do legal printing. File copies with historical society. Before any newspaper in this state shall be qualified to publish any legal notice, or any matter required by law to be printed or published in some newspaper in this state, or any public notices for any county, city or other municipality within this state, such newspaper must have been established at least one year—at least one page of the same actually printed at the place designated in the date line—and have been in regular and continuous circulation during that time with a bona fide subscription list of at least one hundred and fifty regular and continuous subscribers. Such newspaper must contain at least four pages of five columns to the page, said columns to be not less than eighteen inches in length and twelve ems pica in width, with not less than four columns of reading or news matter; or must contain eight pages of four columns to the page, or its equivalent, the columns thereof to be not less than twelve inches in length; provided, that in counties where there is no newspaper published having the above prescribed qualifications, any newspaper at the county seat of said county shall be entitled to publish such legal notices, even though it may not have been established six months; provided, further, that in counties in which no newspaper is published any notices required by law to be published may be published in a newspaper printed in an adjoining county, having a general circulation in said county. It shall be the duty of the owner or publisher of every legal newspaper in the state to send to the state historical society of North Dakota, to such address as shall be designated by the secretary thereof, two copies of each issue of such newspaper. [R. C. 1905, § 2279; 1897, ch. 98; R. C. 1899, § 1804; 1905, ch. 139.]

All property abutting on portion of street improved may be assessed for cost of improving such portion including street intersections. Brandhuber v. Pierre, 21 S. D. 447, 113 N. W. 569.

Front-foot rule valid and constitutional. Whittaker v. Deadwood, 23 S. D. 538, 128 N. W. 590.

§ 3175. Penalty. Any person, association or corporation publishing any legal notices or doing any public printing contrary to the provisions of this article, shall be liable to a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than two hundred dollars, and to a forfeiture of all pay for any such printing. [R. C. 1905, § 2281; 1890, ch. 120, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 1806.]

§ 3176. Public printing to be done in the state. Voucher for printing, what to contain. All state, county and other public printing, binding and blank book manufacturing, blanks and other printed stationery shall be done only by established and qualified printing and publishing houses that shall have been established and in continuous business in this state not less than one year, except as in this section otherwise provided, and where practicable shall be awarded to established institutions in the county for which such printing is required; provided, that the rates charged for such printing, binding, blanks and other supplies shall not exceed [by] more than fifteen per cent the sum or sums the same class and quality of work can be secured for from publishing houses outside the state. In case any board or official empowered to secure public printing and binding as provided herein, shall ascertain that there exists any combination, agreement or understanding by and between two or more publishers or publishing houses in this state, directly or indirectly fixing the prices to be charged for the printing mentioned in this section, or where prices in excess of the maximum rates prescribed herein are charged, then and in that event the provisions of this section shall not apply and officers and boards empowered to secure public printing, in relation to which any such combination, agreement or understanding as mentioned herein exists, [from publishing houses outside the state.]* Every voucher for public printing and binding mentioned in this section shall have thereon or attached thereto a duly verified affidavit setting forth that the prices charged are reasonable and just and in accordance with law; that no agreement, combination or understanding exists with any other person, firm or corporation in the printing and publishing business, fixing the charges therein for such printing and binding, and that no agreement or understanding exists by which a division of any portion of the amounts charged has been or is to be made, either directly or indirectly, with any board or member thereof, or any person or official authorized or empowered to secure public printing mentioned in this section. Any person, firm or corporation violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. [1907, ch. 185, § 1; R. C. 1905, § 2282; 1899, ch. 125; R. C. 1899, § 1807.]

County printing must be done within state. Not repugnant to constitution. Does not discriminate against nonresidents. Tribune v. Barnes, 7 N. D. 591, 75 N. W. 904.

CHAPTER 39.

WOOL MARKET.

§ 3177. Markets, how established. If any city or village in this state shall in any year provide a building wherein not less than one hundred thousand pounds of wool may be stored free of charge from June fifteenth to August thirty-first, it may direct its clerk to notify the commissioner of agriculture and labor on or before May first, in such year, of the fact that provision has been made, stating the regulations established by such city for receiving, storing and marketing wool, and the quantity of wool which will probably be marketed at such city in that year. [R. C. 1905, § 2283; 1891, ch. 127, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1808.]

§ 3178. Proclamation by commissioner of agriculture and labor. The commissioner of agriculture and labor shall thereupon make proclamation to the sheep raisers of this state, to the manufacturers of woolen goods and to the wool buyers of this state and other states, by notices in newspapers, circulars and such other means as he shall deem most effective, that a wool market will be held at such city, naming the same, stating the beginning and duration of such market, the provision for free storage, the quantity of wool likely to be received, and such other facts as he may deem proper for publication. [R. C. 1905, § 2284; 1891, ch. 127, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 1809.]

§ 3179. Wool to be held free of liens, etc. Any person purchasing any wool while the same is stored in any building thus provided for between June fifteenth and August thirty-first, both inclusive, shall hold the wool so purchased free and clear of any and all liens, claims and incumbrances of which he does not have notice at the time he purchases and pays for the same, and such purchaser shall not be liable in any action either for the delivery of such wool or for the damages to the holder of any lien or incumbrance on such wool. [R. C. 1905, § 2285; 1891, ch. 127, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 1810.]

§ 3180. Expenses of commissioner. The commissioner of agriculture and labor shall make a verified and itemized statement of his expenses and disbursements incurred under the provisions of this chapter and file the same with the state auditor, who shall thereupon issue his warrant on the state treasurer therefor, but such expenses shall not in any one year exceed in the aggregate the sum of two hundred dollars. [R. C. 1905, § 2286; 1897, ch. 51; R. C. 1899, § 1811.]

Grade should be established before enactment of ordinance declaring necessity for grading. Whittaker v. City of Deadwood, 12 S. D. 608, 82 N. W. 202.

§ 3184. Duty of other officers. All expenses under this article shall be approved, allowed and certified to in duplicate by the county judge of the county in which such soldier, sailor or marine died or is buried, which duplicate certificate shall be delivered by such judge to the county auditor of the county, the original of which shall be forwarded by him at once to the state auditor, the duplicate to remain on file in his office. Upon the receipt by the state auditor of such certificate he shall draw his warrant on the state treasurer in favor of the county judge for the amount specified therein, and the county judge shall pay the same to the person entitled thereto. [R. C. 1905, § 2290; 1887, ch. 151, § 4; R. C. 1899, § 1815.]

§ 3185. Appropriation. There is hereby appropriated out of the state treasury a sum sufficient to carry out the provisions of this article. [R. C. 1905, § 2291; 1887, ch. 151, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 1816.]

ARTICLE 2.—PREFERMENT FOR OFFICIAL APPOINTMENT.

§ 3186. Preferred for appointment. In each public department and upon all public works of the state and of the cities and villages therein, honorably discharged union soldiers and sailors of the late war shall be preferred for appointment, and age, loss of limb or other physical impairment which does not in fact incapacitate shall not be deemed to disqualify them, if they possess the requisite qualifications and business capacity necessary to discharge the duties of the position involved. [R. C. 1905, § 2292; 1887, ch. 205, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1817.]

CHAPTER 41.

AMENDMENTS TO CONSTITUTION.

§ 3188. Amendments to be published. Whenever any amendment to the constitution of this state is referred to the legislative assembly to be chosen at the next general election after the session in which such amendment is first proposed, the same shall be published for three months previous to the time of making such choice in one weekly paper in each county in which a weekly paper is published, once in the first month, once in the second month and four times in the third month. [R. C. 1905, § 2294; 1891, ch. 46, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1819.]

§ 3190. Fees. Accounts, how audited. The compensation for such publication shall be at the rate of twenty-five cents per square of twelve lines of solid brevier type or its equivalent, to each newspaper designated to publish such amendment. The state auditor, upon receipt of an account of the expenditure required by the provisions of this chapter, duly certified as correct by the secretary of state, shall draw his warrant on the state treasurer for the amount due each of such papers as shown by such account. [R. C. 1905, § 2296; 1891, ch. 46, §§ 3, 4; R. C. 1899, §§ 1821, 1822.]

ARTICLE 1.— COUNTY ORGANIZATION IN UNORGANIZED TERRITORY.

§ 3191. How organized. Petition. Any unorganized territory in this state having a population of at least one thousand bona fide inhabitants and comprising an area of not less than twenty-four congressional townships, may become organized into a county by presenting to the governor a written petition signed by at least one hundred and fifty bona fide residents of such territory, which petition shall contain the name of the proposed county, and describe its boundaries, and set forth that it has the requisite number of bona fide inhabitants for organization, and request him to organize it as a county under the name stated in the petition, and as hereinafter provided. [1907, ch. 63, § 1; R. C. 1905, § 2300; 1885, ch. 40, § 1; R. C. 1895, § 1823.]

Selection of county seat on organization of county is temporary until submitted to electors at general election. State ex rel. Simons v. Nyquist, 22 S. D. 200, 116 N. W. 754.

Exact typographical boundaries not necessary to "county seat." Fall Riv. County v. Powell, 5 S. D. 49, 58 N. W. 7.

§ 3192. Duty of governor. When the petition described in section 3191 has been presented to the governor, he shall first satisfy himself as to its sufficiency, and also that the proposed county has the requisite area and number of bona fide inhabitants for a county organization, and that in fixing the boundary of the proposed county congressional township lines and natural boundaries have been observed as nearly as may be. If he is satisfied as to the foregoing requirements, it shall be his duty to grant the petition and proceed at once to complete the organization of such county, as provided in the next section. [1907, ch. 63, § 2; R. C. 1905, § 2301; 1885, ch. 40, § 2; R. C. 1895, § 1824.]

§ 3193. Temporary county seat located. Officers appointed. Upon the granting of the petition for the organization of such county, and within thirty days thereafter, the governor is empowered and it is hereby made his duty by written order to locate a temporary county seat therein at such place as the greatest number of bona fide residents of such county shall designate by petition to the governor, and within the same period to appoint a full set of county officers for such county, including three county commissioners, and the governor is empowered and it is hereby made his duty to fill such vacancies in such offices as may exist by reason of the failure of any appointee to qualify. [1907, ch. 63, § 3.]

§ 3194. Officers qualify. The county commissioners so appointed shall first qualify and shall proceed at once to fix the amounts of the bond of all officers where the amounts are not fixed by law. All officers appointed, as by this article provided, shall qualify within thirty days after their appointment, and enter upon the discharge of their respective duties, and shall hold their respective offices until their successors are elected and qualified. [1907, ch. 63, § 4.]

§ 3195. County divided into commissioner districts. The county commissioners appointed under this article shall, after they have qualified, immediately convene at the place selected as the county seat, and proceed to the discharge of their duties as such county commissioners, and shall divide the county into three commissioners' districts, which shall be numbered from one to three. Three commissioners shall be elected at the next general election, one from each of said districts, one of whom shall be chosen for the term of two years, two for four years, and thereafter as provided by law. [1907, ch. 63, § 5.]

§ 3196. Records transcribed. It shall be the duty of the county commissioners of such new county to cause to be transcribed into the proper books all the records or deeds or other instruments relating to real property in such new county, and all other records affecting the property rights of the residents and property owners of such new county, and the officers of such new county shall have the right to examine the records of other counties affecting such property rights, and to transcribe the same. It shall be the duty of the proper officers of the county containing such original records to certify to the copies

thus transcribed, and such transcribed records shall have the same effect in all respects as original records. [1907, ch. 63, § 6.]

§ 3197. Terms of court. Any county organized under this article shall constitute a subdivision of the judicial district of which the territory embraced in it was originally a part, and the terms of district court for such new county shall be held at such times as are fixed by the presiding judge until fixed by law. [1907, ch. 63, § 7.]

§ 3198. Annexed territory part of county. Such portions of the state, not organized into counties, as are annexed to any organized county shall for judicial and other purposes be deemed to be within the limits and a part of the county to which they are annexed. [R. C. 1905, § 2322; R. C. 1899, § 1846.]

Laws of 1907, ch. 59, repealed by numerical designation every section in chapter 28, articles 1 and 2 of the Political Code of 1905 (R. C. 1905, §§ 2297-2322) except section 2322 therein, which is therefore here retained as section 3198.

Attaching lands for judicial purposes is not "annexing." State v. Board, 1 S. D. 292, 46 N. W. 1127.

ARTICLE 2.—CHANGING COUNTY LINES.

§ 3199. County lines. How changed. When a majority of the legal voters residing in any territory, not less than one congressional township, as appears by the vote cast for secretary of state at the last general election, shall petition the board of county commissioners of their county, and also the county to which they desire such territory to be transferred, for leave to have such territory transferred to such county, the boards of county commissioners so petitioned shall order an election for such purpose in their respective counties, to be held at and in connection with the next general election; provided such petition shall be presented to the several boards of county commissioners at least sixty days before such general election and the returns of such election shall be made to the secretary of state. [1911, ch. 107; R. C. 1905, § 2323; R. C. 1895, § 1847.]

§ 3200. Notices of election, how posted. Notices of such election shall contain a description of the territory proposed to be transferred, the name of the county from and to which such transfer is intended to be made, and shall be posted as required for general elections. [R. C. 1905, § 2324; R. C. 1895, § 1848.]

§ 3201. Taxes. Officers. Ballots. Transfer of territory. The ballots to be used at such election shall be in the following form: "For transferring territory," and "against transferring territory." If a majority of the voters voting upon such question in each of such counties shall be for transferring territory, then such territory shall be transferred to and become a part of the county to which it is proposed to transfer the same, on and after the first day of March succeeding such election, and shall be subject to all the laws, rules and regulations thereof; provided, that the assessment and collection of taxes and judicial and other official proceedings commenced prior to such first day of March shall be continued, prosecuted and completed in the same manner as if no such transfer had been made; and provided, further, that all township officers within such transferred territory shall continue to hold their respective offices within the county to which they may be transferred until their respective terms of office expire. [R. C. 1905, § 2325; R. C. 1895, § 1849.]

§ 3202. Area and population. The area of no county shall be reduced, under the provisions of this article, to less than twenty-four congressional townships, nor the population to less than one thousand bona fide inhabitants. [R. C. 1905, § 2326; R. C. 1895, § 1850.]

§ 3203. Debts, how paid by territory transferred. No territory transferred under the provisions of this article shall be released from the payment of its proportion of the debts of the county from which it was transferred;

and such proportionate indebtedness from such transferred territory shall be collected by the county to which such territory is transferred, at an equal or greater rate than is levied and collected in the county from which such territory was transferred, such rate to be ascertained by the certificate of the county auditor of such last named county, and when so collected the same shall be paid over to the county entitled thereto. When the county to which such territory is transferred is also indebted, the county board of such county shall release such transferred territory from the payment of such indebtedness to an amount equal to that which such territory is required to pay to the county from which it was transferred. [R. C. 1905, § 2327; R. C. 1895, §§ 1851, 1852.]

Liability of territory annexed to county to pay proportion of share of existing debts. 27 L.R.A.(N.S.) 1147.

§ 3204. Election, how called. When a majority of the legal voters of any territory less than one-half of one congressional township shall petition the boards of county commissioners as above provided, such boards may in their discretion order elections to be held as herein provided, and in any case where elections have been held under this article and the result has been adverse to the petitioners, it shall be in the discretion of such boards of county commissioners to order another election on a petition to transfer the same territory, presented within three years from the time of holding such former election. [R. C. 1905, § 2328; R. C. 1895, § 1853.]

ARTICLE 3.—DIVISION OF COUNTIES.

§ 3205. Electors may petition. Whenever it is desired to form a new county out of one or more of the then existing counties, and a petition praying for the formation of such new county, describing the territory proposed to be taken for such new county, together with the name of such proposed new county, signed by a majority of the legal voters residing in the territory to be stricken from such county or counties (as appears by the number of votes cast for governor at the last preceding general election), shall be presented to the board of county commissioners of each county to be affected by such division, and it appearing that such new county can be constitutionally formed, it shall be the duty of such boards of county commissioners to make an order providing for the submission of the question of the formation of such new county to a vote of the people of the counties to be affected, at the next succeeding general election, and notice thereof shall be given, the votes canvassed, and the returns made as in the case of the election of members of the legislative assembly; and the form of the ballot to be used in the determination of such question shall be "for new county" and "against new county." [1907, ch. 60; R. C. 1905, § 2329; 1887, ch. 38, § 1; R. C. 1895, § 1854.]

Necessity of execution and filing of equivalent of certificate of election on canvass of county division election. State ex rel. Minehan v. Thompson, 24 N. D. 273, 139 N. W. 960.

Proceedings for division of county and for organization of new counties are strictly statutory, and no intendments can be indulged in their favor. State ex rel. Minehan v. Meyers, 19 N. D. 804, 124 N. W. 701.

§ 3206. Governor to appoint county commissioners. If it shall appear that a majority of all votes cast at such election in each of the counties interested is in favor of the formation of such new county or counties the county auditor of each of such counties shall certify the same to the secretary of state, stating in such certificate the name, territorial contents and boundaries of such new county, whereupon the secretary of state shall notify the governor of the result of such election, whose duty it shall be to appoint three persons, residents of the county so formed, possessing the qualification of electors, who will accept and qualify in such office, county commissioners for such new county, or counties, who shall hold their office until the first general election thereafter and until their successors are elected and qualified, and upon the qualifying of such commissioners such county shall be deemed to have existence as such and be governed by the laws of the state relating to counties. [1907, ch. 62; R. C. 1905, § 2330; 1887, ch. 38, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 1855; 1905, ch. 75.]

Necessity of execution and filing of equivalent of certificate of election on canvass of county division election. State ex rel. Minehan v. Thompson, 24 N. D. 273, 139 N. W. 960.

Legal existence is not conferred upon new county where county has been divided until after governor has appointed commissioners, and they have qualified as such. Murray v. Davis, 21 N. D. 64, 128 N. W. 305.

§ 3207. County commissioners to appoint county officers. The county commissioners appointed under the provisions of the preceding section, after having qualified according to law, shall appoint all the county officers of the county so organized, who after having qualified shall hold their offices until the first general election thereafter and until their successors are elected and qualified; provided, that all justices of the peace and constables in office within the boundaries of any county organized under this article shall continue to hold such offices in such new county during the remainder of their term, and shall give bonds to the county organized under this article of the same amount and in the same manner as to the original county. [R. C. 1905, § 2331; 1887, ch. 38, § 6; R. C. 1895, § 1856.]

§ 3208. County seat, how located. The county commissioners of such county shall have power temporarily to fix the county seat and such location shall remain the county seat until the first general election thereafter, when the qualified voters of such county are empowered to vote for and select the place of county seat by ballot as provided by law. Immediately after the selection of such county seat either by the county commissioners or by the canvass of returns of votes the county commissioners shall issue their proclamation announcing such fact and publish the same in a newspaper published in such county if there is one, and if not, by posting a copy thereof in a public place in each election precinct in such county. [R. C. 1905, § 2332; 1887, ch. 38, § 7; R. C. 1895, § 1857.]

§ 3209. Commissioners governed by existing law. In all matters not specially provided for in this article the county commissioners appointed as hereinbefore provided shall be governed by the laws then existing. [R. C. 1905, § 2333; 1887, ch. 38, § 8; R. C. 1899, § 1858.]

§ 3210. Election governed by general law. All elections under this article, where not otherwise provided, shall be conducted in the same manner as required by law for general elections, and no refusal or neglect on the part of any official to perform his lawful duties in connection therewith shall in anywise affect the validity of such election. [R. C. 1905, § 2334; 1887, ch. 38, § 9; R. C. 1899, § 1859.]

Neglect on part of election officials to perform their duties will not make election void, but person seeking to vote must know that his vote is void unless statute is complied with. Fitzmaurice v. Willis, 20 N. D. 372, 127 N. W. 95.

§ 3211. Records to be transcribed. When a new county is organized in whole or in part from an organized county or from territory attached to such organized county for judicial purposes, it shall be the duty of the commissioners of such new county to cause to be transcribed by copying or by photographing in the proper books all the records or deeds or other instruments relating to real estate and other records, deeds or instruments of every kind required by law to be kept on file or recorded in the respective county offices in such new county, and all contracts heretofore made by any board of county commissioners for the transcribing by copying or by photographing of any such records are hereby made valid and all records transcribed by copying or by photographing thereunder or under the provisions of this section shall have the same effect in all respects as original records, and any person authorized by such board of county commissioners to transcribe such records shall have free access at all reasonable times to such original records for the purpose of transcribing the same as aforesaid. [1909, ch. 66; R. C. 1905, § 2335; 1887, ch. 38, § 10; 1895, ch. 38, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1860.]

§ 3212. New counties, indebtedness of. Any county organized under this article shall assume and pay as herein provided a just proportion of the indebtedness of the county from which it is segregated, based upon the last assessed valuation of such original county and in the proportion that the valuation within the segregated portion bears to the aggregate of the valuation within the whole of the original county; and it is the duty of the commissioners of both the county organized under this article and the county from which the latter segregates to meet together at the county seat of the original county on the third Monday in the sixth month following the appointment of county commissioners by the governor as provided for in this article. They shall ascertain as near as may be the total outstanding indebtedness of the original county on the first day of January or July, as the case may require, next preceding the date of the joint session provided for in this section and from such total they shall make the following deductions:

1. The amount of all dues for rents.
2. The amount of outstanding bonds given or money paid for public property owned by and remaining within the limits of the original county.
3. The amount of public funds on hand and belonging to the original county on the day for which its outstanding indebtedness is ascertained by the joint board of county commissioners as provided for in this section and not belonging to the special funds hereinafter mentioned. The amount remaining after such deductions shall have been made shall, for the purpose and as a basis for the settlement herein provided, be the amount which the county organized under this article shall pay a portion of, in the proportion hereinbefore specified, and it shall be the duty of such commissioners to ascertain and fix the amount the county organized under this article shall assume and pay to the county from which it segregates. [R. C. 1905, § 2336; 1887, ch. 38, § 11; R. C. 1899, § 1861.]

§ 3213. Division of property. All moneys belonging to special funds such as fire, school, road and other funds and property owned by the districts within the boundaries of a county organized under this article, on hand at the time of the settlement provided for in the preceding section, in a county from which a portion segregates, shall be turned over in full by the treasurer of the original county to the treasurer of the county organized under this article and shall be duly receipted for by the latter and placed to the credit of the districts within his county to which they properly belong. [R. C. 1905, § 2337; 1887, ch. 38, § 12; R. C. 1899, § 1862.]

§ 3214. Moneys turned over to new county, when. Any county in which the amount of public funds on hand at the time of the settlement provided for in section 3212 exceeds the total of its outstanding indebtedness shall, after deducting such outstanding indebtedness and after making the deductions provided for in section 3212 from the amount of such public funds on hand, pay over to the county segregated from it and organized under this article a just proportion of such funds, based upon the assessed valuation of the whole of the original county in and for the year prior to the date of such segregation and in the proportion that the valuation within the segregated portion bears to the aggregate of the valuation within the whole of the original county. The boards of county commissioners shall meet as provided in section 3212 and ascertain the amount so to be paid and the board of county commissioners of the original county shall issue warrants for such amount, payable immediately to the treasurer of the county organized under this article and the amount so received by the latter shall be by him placed to the credit of the proper funds of his county. [R. C. 1905, § 2338; 1887, ch. 38, § 13; R. C. 1899, § 1863.]

§ 3215. Commissioners to redistrict counties. The county commissioners of a county from which a portion segregates under this article shall immediately after such segregation redistrict their county into the districts provided for by the laws then existing and shall fill the vacancies occasioned by such segregation in the manner provided by law for filling vacancies. [R. C. 1905, § 2339; 1887, ch. 38, § 14; R. C. 1895, § 1864.]

Legal findings of county commissioners as to vacancy in county office are prima facie evidence of truth. Holtan v. Beck, 20 N. D. 5, 125 N. W. 1048.

§ 3216. Redistricting provided for. Whenever the boundaries of any organized county in this state shall have been enlarged by the addition thereto of any unorganized territory, it shall be the duty of the county commissioners of such organized county forthwith to redistrict the said county into commissioner districts, and such redistricting may be done at a regular or special meeting. In redistricting such county it shall be the duty of the county commissioners to make the districts as regular and as compact in form as practicable, and as equal in population as possible, but no new district shall be so formed that any two of the then acting commissioners shall reside in the same district. [R. C. 1905, § 2340; 1905, ch. 71.]

§ 3217. Districts renumbered and renamed. School districts and road districts within counties affected by this article shall be renumbered so as to make their numbers in each county run consecutively, and the names of school townships may when necessary be changed. [R. C. 1905, § 2341; 1887, ch. 38, § 15; R. C. 1899, § 1865.]

§ 3220. Fees of county commissioners. County commissioners while in the discharge of their duties as provided for in the preceding sections of this article shall receive the same compensation as is allowed by law for the performance of their ordinary official duties. [R. C. 1905, § 2344; 1887, ch. 38, § 18; R. C. 1899, § 1868.]

§ 3221. Indebtedness of new county. The amount of indebtedness of a county organized under this article as ascertained by the two boards of county commissioners as aforesaid shall be paid to the county from which it segregates in the bonds of the new county thus segregated as hereinafter provided. [R. C. 1905, § 2345; 1887, ch. 38, § 19; R. C. 1899, § 1869.]

§ 3222. When bonds to be dated. Such bonds shall be dated on the first day of January or July, from which the outstanding indebtedness of the original county is calculated as provided in section 3212; shall be issued for a period corresponding with the time or term on which the obligations of the original county become due and payable; shall be payable at the same place and shall bear the same rate of interest as the obligations of the original county, said commissioners taking care to classify the liquidating bonds, issuing a due proportion of each in proportion to each of the original county obligations bearing different rates of interest and places of payment; and such original county shall have authority to exchange such bonds for an equal amount of obligations of its own of the same class. [R. C. 1905, § 2346; 1887, ch. 38, § 20; R. C. 1899, § 1870.]

§ 3223. County treasurer to keep bond register. The county treasurer of a county issuing bonds under the provisions of this article shall provide himself with a book to be called the "bond register" wherein he shall note the number and denomination of each bond issued by his county, the date of issue, when and where payable, with such other facts as the county commissioners of his county shall direct, which bond register when completed shall be deposited with the county auditor of his county and shall be and remain a part of the records of his office. [R. C. 1905, § 2347; 1887, ch. 38, § 21; R. C. 1899, § 1871.]

§ 3224. Commissioners to issue liquidating bonds. The board of county commissioners of a county organized under this article is empowered and directed to issue such liquidating bonds in denominations as may be required by the old county, not to exceed one thousand dollars each, and deliver the same to the county auditor of the old county who shall receipt therefor, affixing the seal of his office to such receipts, and the county auditor of the county organized under this article shall enter such receipts at large upon the records of the board of county commissioners and note the same in the bond register of his county. [R. C. 1905, § 2348; 1887, ch. 38, § 22; R. C. 1899, § 1872.]

§ 3225. Commissioners to levy tax. The board of county commissioners of a county issuing bonds under the provisions of this article shall, for each year after the date of such bonds, levy and cause to be collected a tax sufficient to pay the interest on such bonds as it shall become due, and also such sinking funds as shall correspond with the laws under which the bonds of the original county were issued, sufficient to redeem such bonds at maturity; and as fast as such sinking fund shall become available, they shall redeem such bonds in the manner provided for redeeming the bonds of the original county; provided, that public notice shall be given by such board in a newspaper, if one is published within the county, setting forth that certain bonds, giving their number and description, will be redeemed by such county, and naming the date of such redemption. [R. C. 1905, § 2349; 1887, ch. 38, § 23; R. C. 1899, § 1873.]

§ 3226. Interest for redemption of bonds. The money collected for the payment of the interest or principal of said bonds shall not be used for any other purpose until such bonds are redeemed; any surplus thereafter shall be placed in the county general fund. [R. C. 1905, § 2350; 1887, ch. 38, § 24; R. C. 1899, § 1874.]

§ 3227. Revenue of counties. The authority of any county, from which a portion segregates under the provisions of this article, for the collection of revenue within the boundaries of the portion segregating, shall cease from the date upon which the two boards of county commissioners under the provisions of section 3212 base the settlement between their counties, and all assessments and levies made by the authority of the county, from which a portion segregates, by its officers in the lawful performance of their official duties, affecting any of the territory embraced in the boundaries of such new county, shall remain the same and shall be payable to and collectible by the lawful authorities of the latter only. [R. C. 1905, § 2351; 1887, ch. 38, § 25; R. C. 1899, § 1875.]

§ 3229. Judge to appoint term of district court. The judge of the judicial district in which a county organized under this article is created a legal subdivision of his district under the provisions of the last section shall appoint and hold at least two terms of the district court each year at the county seat of such county. [R. C. 1905, § 2353; 1887, ch. 38, § 27; R. C. 1895, § 1877.]

§ 3230. Venue, when changed. In all actions or proceedings, civil or criminal, for the prosecution of a crime committed or a cause of action arising within the boundaries of any judicial subdivision created under the provisions of this article, and properly triable in such subdivision under the provisions of the codes of civil and criminal procedure, the venue thereof shall be changed to the new county by order of the court upon the demand of either party, which demand shall be served upon the opposite party or his attorney, if either can conveniently be found in the state; but if neither can conveniently be found therein, then such change of venue may be made upon filing such demand with the clerk of the district court. [R. C. 1905, § 2354; 1887, ch. 38, § 28; R. C. 1895, § 1878.]

§ 3231. Writs, bonds and recognizances. All process, writs, bonds, notices, appeals, recognizances, papers and proceedings in actions changed to a new county under this article, issued and made returnable to the district court of the county from which a portion has been segregated and organized under this article prior to the creation of such legal subdivision, shall be taken and considered as made, taken and returnable to the district court within the boundaries of such new judicial subdivision, and such bonds, recognizances and obligations shall be payable to such new county and recoverable upon in the name of such new county, and all papers and certified copies of all proceedings had in such action shall be transmitted by the clerk of the district court of the old to the clerk of the district court of the new county. [R. C. 1905, § 2355; 1887, ch. 38, § 29; R. C. 1899, § 1879.]

§ 3232. Jurisdiction of officials. All territory within the state of North Dakota over which any county has exercised jurisdiction in civil and criminal matters and which has for all intents and purposes been treated as a portion of such county for not less than two years last past, shall be and the same is hereby declared a part of such county, and all of the official acts and doings of all state, county, township, school district or other officials within such county in the exercise of such jurisdiction are hereby ratified in so far as to give such acts the same validity as they would have had if such territory had been a part of such county when such acts were performed. [R. C. 1905, § 2356; 1889, ch. 57; R. C. 1899, § 1879a.]

ARTICLE 4.—COUNTY SEATS.

§ 3233. County seat, removal of. Whenever the inhabitants of any county in this state desire to remove the county seat of the county from the place where it is fixed by law, or otherwise, to another place, they may present a petition to the board of county commissioners of their county praying such removal and that an election be held to determine whether or not such removal shall be made. Such petition must be verified by the affidavit of each of the signers thereof, stating that he is a resident of the county, a qualified elector therein, and that he personally signed his name thereto knowing the contents and purposes of the petition; provided, however, that where any city, town or village has been recognized as the county seat of any county for the period of more than ten years last past, and where all of the public business required by law to be transacted at the county seat has been transacted at said place during all of said period, said city, town or village shall be deemed to be the county seat of such county, and the county seat can be removed therefrom only in the manner now provided by law. [R. C. 1905, § 2358; R. C. 1895, § 1880; 1901, ch. 57.]

Mandamus proper remedy to determine whether county seat has been legally changed. Two-thirds vote polled means on particular question. Determination of county board final on sufficiency of petition. State ex rel. Little v. Langlie, 5 N. D. 594, 67 N. W. 958.

Changed only by majority of all votes cast at election. Adkins v. Lien, 10 S. D. 436, 73 N. W. 909.

County failing to select cannot resubmit question for four years. State v. Porter, 13 S. D. 126, 82 N. W. 415.

Ballot requirements are mandatory and statute is removal statute, and is constitutional. Miller v. Norton, 22 N. D. 196, 132 N. W. 1080.

Attack upon petition for removal of county seat is too late, when made after necessary two-thirds of electors of county have at election determined in favor of removal. Miller v. Norton, 22 N. D. 196, 132 N. W. 1080.

Reverter of land dedicated or conveyed for purpose of court house on removal of county seat or failure to use land for such purposes. 35 L.R.A.(N.S.) 603.

Right to withdraw names from petition for removal of county seat. 35 L.R.A.(N.S.) 1113.

§ 3234. Commissioners to submit question to vote, when. If the petition is signed by qualified electors of the county equal in number to at least three-fifths of all the votes cast in the county at the last preceding general election, the board must, at the next general election, submit the question of removal to the electors of the county. [R. C. 1905, § 2359; 1899, ch. 70; R. C. 1899, § 1881.]

§ 3235. Notice of election. Notice of such election, clearly stating its object, must be given and the election must be held and conducted and the returns made in all respects in the manner prescribed by law in regard to the submitting of questions to the electors of a locality under the general election law. [R. C. 1905, § 2360; R. C. 1895, § 1882.]

§ 3236. Ballot, how marked. Notice of result. In voting on the question, each elector must vote for the place in the county which he prefers by placing opposite the name of the place the mark (X). When the returns have been received and compared and the result ascertained by the board, if two-thirds or more of all the legal votes cast at such election are in favor of any particular place the board must give notice of the result by posting notices thereof in all the election precincts in the county and by publishing a like notice in a newspaper published in the county at least once a week for four weeks. [1907, ch. 61; R. C. 1905, § 2361; R. C. 1895, § 1883.]

On what basis majority essential to adoption of proposition for change of county seat is to be computed. 22 L.R.A.(N.S.) 478.

§ 3237. County seat, when deemed changed. In the notice provided for in the last section the place selected to be the county seat of the county must be so declared from a day specified in the notice, not more than ninety days after the election. After the day thus named in the notice, the place chosen shall be the county seat of the county. [R. C. 1905, § 2362; R. C. 1895, § 1884.]

§ 3238. Statement of result of election, where filed. Whenever any election has been held as provided in this article, the statement made by the board of county commissioners, showing the result thereof, must be deposited in the office of the county auditor, and whenever the board gives the notice prescribed in the last section, it must transmit a certified copy thereof to the secretary of state. [R. C. 1905, § 2363; R. C. 1895, § 1885.]

§ 3239. Election held only once every ten years. When an election has been held and at least two-thirds of the votes cast at such election are not cast for some other place than that fixed by law as the former county seat, no second election for the removal thereof must be held within ten years thereafter. [1907, ch. 61; R. C. 1905, § 2364; R. C. 1895, § 1886.]

§ 3240. Subsequent removal, petition for. When the county seat of a county has been once removed by a two-thirds vote of the people of the county, it may be again removed from time to time in the manner provided in this article; but no election must be ordered to effect any such subsequent removal, unless a petition praying an election is signed by the qualified electors of the county equal in number to at least two-thirds of all the votes cast at the last preceding general election, nor unless at such election, when ordered, two-thirds of all the votes cast are in favor of some other place as the county seat of the county, and such election, when so ordered, shall take place at the first general election held thereafter, nor must two elections to effect such removal be held within four years. [R. C. 1905, § 2365; R. C. 1895, § 1887.]

Election held not oftener than once in four years. State ex rel. Cosper v. Porter, 13 S. D. 126, 82 N. W. 415.

§ 3241. Special provisions where no court house has been constructed. In all organized counties in this state wherein prior to the taking effect of this article no court house has been constructed or is owned by such county, the county commissioners shall upon the petition of the inhabitants of such county, equal in number to one-third of the votes cast therein for governor at the last preceding election, submit to the electors of such county at a special election to be called in sixty days, or at the next general election, as may be required by said petition, the question of moving the county seat from the place where it is located by law or otherwise, to another place. Such petition must be verified by the affidavit of each of the signers thereof, stating that he is a resident of the county and a qualified elector therein and that he personally signed such petition. [R. C. 1905, § 2366; 1905, ch. 77, § 1.]

§ 3242. Notice of, how given. Notice of such election shall be given in the manner prescribed by section 3235. [R. C. 1905, § 2367; 1905, ch. 77, § 2.]

§ 3243. Ballots, how marked. Notice of result. In voting on the question each elector must vote for the place in the county which he prefers by placing opposite the name of the place the mark "X." When the returns have been received, compared and the result ascertained by the board of county commissioners, if more than one-half of all the legal votes cast by those voting on the proposition are in favor of any particular place, the board must give notice of the result by publishing a notice thereof, in each newspaper in the county, at least once a week for four consecutive weeks, and the place so selected as the county seat shall be designated in such notice as the county seat, from a date specified therein not more than sixty days after the election. [R. C. 1905, § 2368; 1905, ch. 77, § 3.]

§ 3244. Record of result. Counties exempt. The board of county commissioners shall cause a statement of the result of said election to be deposited and transmitted as provided by section 3238. This article shall not apply in counties having more than six thousand five hundred inhabitants according to the last census. [R. C. 1905, § 2369; 1905, ch. 77, §§ 4, 5.]

ARTICLE 5.—ORGANIZATION OF MCKENZIE COUNTY.

§ 3245. McKenzie county created. There shall be formed out of the unorganized counties of McKenzie, Allred and Wallace a new county, to be called McKenzie county, to be organized as hereinafter provided. [R. C. 1905, § 2370; 1905, ch. 73, § 1.]

As to constitutionality of statute. State ex rel. Madderson v. Nolde, 16 N. D. 168, 125 Am. St. Rep. 628, 112 N. W. 141.

§ 3246. Boundaries. The boundaries of said McKenzie county shall be as follows, to wit: Commencing at the southeast corner of township one hundred forty-five north, of range ninety-eight west; thence running north between ranges ninety-seven and ninety-eight west to the twelfth standard parallel; thence east and along said twelfth standard parallel to the southeast corner of township one hundred forty-nine north, of range ninety-four west; thence north between ranges ninety-three and ninety-four west to the Missouri river; thence up and along the west bank of the Missouri river to the west boundary line of North Dakota; thence south and along the west boundary line of North Dakota to the eleventh standard parallel; thence east and along the eleventh standard parallel to the southeast corner of township one hundred forty-five north, of range ninety-eight west, and the place of beginning. [R. C. 1905, § 2371; 1905, ch. 73, § 2.]

§ 3247. Governor to locate temporary county seat and appoint officers. The governor of this state is hereby authorized and directed, within sixty days after this article takes effect, to locate a temporary county seat and to appoint for the said McKenzie county the following officers, to wit: Three county commissioners; one sheriff; one auditor; one treasurer; one register of deeds; one clerk of the district court; one superintendent of schools; one state's attorney; one county judge; one public administrator; one coroner; one surveyor; three assessors; four justices of the peace and four constables, and the officers so appointed shall immediately qualify and enter upon the discharge of their respective duties. The officers so appointed shall hold their respective offices and shall discharge the duties of such until their successors are elected and qualified. [R. C. 1905, § 2372; 1905, ch. 73, § 3.]

§ 3248. Duties of registers of deeds of Stark and Williams counties. Fees for transcribing. Accounts, how audited. The register of deeds of Stark county and the register of deeds of Williams county shall, within ninety days after the organization of McKenzie county, transcribe all matters of record from the record books of the counties of Stark and Williams, respectively, that should be of record in McKenzie county, and deliver the same to the register of deeds of McKenzie county, and when so transcribed and delivered, they shall be the official records of all property and other matters to which they refer, and shall have the same force and effect as the original. The county of McKenzie shall pay to the register of deeds of Stark and Williams counties, respectively, for the work that each shall do under this article, which shall be over and above the maximum compensation and regular fees of each of said offices, twenty cents per folio, for transcribing said records, including the indexing of said records. Said account shall be audited and allowed by the commissioners of McKenzie county as other proper accounts against said county. [R. C. 1905, § 2373; 1905, ch. 73, § 4.]

§ 3249. Laws governing counties made applicable. All laws of a general nature applicable to the several counties of this state and the officers thereof, are hereby made applicable to the county of McKenzie and the officers who may hereafter be appointed or elected therein. [R. C. 1905, § 2376; 1905, ch. 73, § 7.]

ARTICLE 6.—CORPORATE POWERS AND LIABILITIES.

§ 3250. County a corporate body. Powers. Each organized county is a body corporate for civil and political purposes only and as such may sue and be sued, contract and be contracted with, and in all cases where lands have been granted to any county for public purposes and any part thereof has been sold, and the purchase money or any part thereof shall be due and unpaid, all proceedings necessary to recover possession of such lands or to enforce the payment of the purchase money shall be instituted in the name of the proper county. [R. C. 1905, § 2377; R. C. 1899, § 1888.]

May sue in corporate capacity. McCook Co. v. Kammos, 7 S. D. 558, 64 N. W. 1123, 58 Am. St. Rep. 854, 31 L.R.A. 461; Barrett v. Stutsman County, 4 N. D. 175, 59 N. W. 964; State v. Davis, 11 S. D. 111, 75 N. W. 897, 74 Am. St. Rep. 780; Lyman County v. State, 9 S. D. 413, 69 N. W. 601.

§ 3251. Judgments against counties, how paid. When any judgment is obtained against a county the board of county commissioners shall have power at any time after the expiration of six months from the rendition thereof to assess and collect a sufficient amount of revenue to pay off and discharge such judgment in addition to the ordinary expenses of the county. But the property of the county, and of persons owning property situated or liable to taxation therein, shall in no case be subject to judgment lien nor to seizure or sale upon execution or other process of any court. [R. C. 1905, § 2378; 1881, ch. 54, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1889.]

ARTICLE 7.—STATE ACCOUNTS WITH COUNTIES.

§ 3252. Auditor to keep account with each organized county. The state auditor shall keep an account with each organized county of the state in which each county shall be charged with the amount of delinquent tax now due the state and with all sums hereafter levied in each county for state purposes; and credited with all sums paid into the state treasury on account of such taxes. [R. C. 1905, § 2379; 1890, ch. 183, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 322.]

§ 3253. County auditors to furnish abstract of tax lists. He shall require the county auditors to furnish him with an abstract of the tax lists of their respective counties when the same are completed, on such blanks as he shall prescribe. [R. C. 1905, § 2380; 1890, ch. 183, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 323.]

§ 3254. Monthly statements of taxes collected. County treasurer to furnish. He shall require the several county treasurers to furnish him with a statement, attested by the county auditor, on the fifteenth day of each month, showing the amount of state taxes collected during the preceding calendar month, and the October statement shall be an abstract of the total receipts by the county treasurer for the preceding year. [R. C. 1905, § 2381; 1890, ch. 183, § 3; 1891, ch. 1, § 1; R. C. 1895, § 324.]

§ 3255. Auditor to deliver to state treasurer order on county treasurer. The state auditor shall immediately after receiving the statement provided for in the preceding section draw and deliver to the state treasurer an order on each county treasurer for the amount so certified as collected for the state, and charge the state treasurer with the same, giving the county credit for the amount and sending to the county auditor of each county a duplicate of such order or draft. [R. C. 1905, § 2382; 1890, ch. 183, § 4; R. C. 1899, § 325.]

§ 3256. State treasurer to notify county treasurer. The state treasurer shall notify each county treasurer of the amount of such draft or order and designate the manner in which the money shall be forwarded to him, and upon receipt of the same shall forward such draft or order to the county treasurer with his endorsement, and such draft or order shall be the county treasurer's receipt for the amount stated. All funds collected by or in the hands of the treasurer of any county in this state shall be promptly remitted by such county treasurer without expense to the state, and at the risk of the county treasurer, for which the county treasurer shall be allowed his actual expenses by the board of county commissioners. [R. C. 1905, § 2383; 1890, ch. 183, § 5; 1899, ch. 152; R. C. 1899, § 326.]

ARTICLE 8.—COUNTY OFFICERS.

§ 3257. Number and election of. Each organized county shall have the following officers: One county auditor, one register of deeds, one clerk of the district court, one state's attorney, one sheriff, one county judge, one county treasurer, one county surveyor, one coroner, one county superintendent of schools, one public administrator, four justices of the peace and four constables. And there shall be three or five county commissioners as hereinafter provided, who shall constitute the board of county commissioners. Such officers shall be chosen by the qualified electors of their respective counties at the general election in each even numbered year, except the commissioners who shall be chosen by the electors of their respective districts, of which district such commissioners shall be qualified electors. [R. C. 1905, § 2384; 1883, ch. 33, § 3; R. C. 1895, § 1890; 1903, ch. 140.]

§ 3258. Additional justices, when. Petition for. Whenever ten or more qualified electors of any election precinct in this state, comprising one or more unorganized townships, shall file a petition with the county auditor of the county in which they reside, setting forth that there are not enough justices of the peace or constables in such precinct for the proper administration of justice, there shall thereafter be elected at the general election in each even numbered year two justices of the peace and two constables whose jurisdiction shall be the same as county justices and constables. On the filing of said petition such offices shall be deemed vacant and shall be filled by appointment of the board of county commissioners at their next regular meeting or at a special meeting called for that purpose. The officers so appointed shall hold office until their successors are elected and qualified, or until the township or townships comprising said election precinct shall become organized. [1909, ch. 81.]

§ 3259. Sheriff and treasurer eligible two terms only. The sheriff and the county treasurer shall not be eligible for election to such offices for more than two successive terms of two years each. [R. C. 1905, § 2385; 1889, ch. 103, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1891.]

ARTICLE 9.—COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

§ 3260. Number of county commissioners may be changed, how. The number of county commissioners of any county may be increased to five or reduced to three in the manner following: Whenever the legal voters of the county, equal in number to twenty per cent of the legal votes cast at the preceding general election, petition the board of county commissioners for an increase or decrease in the number of county commissioners, said board shall submit the question to a vote of the electors of the county at a special election to be held either at the next state primary election, or general election, as the petition may pray. Notice of the submission of such question shall be given in the notice of election prescribed by section 982. If the petition is for an increase in the number of commissioners, the proposition shall be submitted in this form:

“For five commissioners.”

“Against five commissioners.”

If it is for reduction, the proposition shall be in this form:

“For three commissioners.”

“Against three commissioners.” [1913, ch. 120; R. C. 1905, § 2386; 1897, ch. 45; R. C. 1899, § 1892.]

On party nominations for county commissioners. State ex rel. Long v. Raxford, 21 S. D. 86, 109 N. W. 216.

Where number of county commissioners has been increased by vote of county as provided for in this section, vacancy arises in office of county commissioner of each of new districts. State ex rel. Atty.-Gen. v. Davies, 23 N. D. 334, 136 N. W. 955.

§ 3261. Districts, how formed. Commissioners, how designated. When the returns of such election show a majority of all the legal votes cast to be for an increase from three to five, it shall be the duty of the board of county commissioners, within ten days after the votes have been canvassed, to divide the county into five districts. The districts shall be numbered from one to five, those last created being designated fourth and fifth, respectively. At the ensuing general election commissioners for such additional districts shall be elected, the commissioner for the fourth district for a term of two years, and the commissioner for the fifth district for a term of four years. The tenure of office of the existing board of county commissioners shall not be affected. The district which each commissioner shall represent shall be designated by such board. When the special election results in a majority for a decrease of from five to three, the existing county board shall, at the end of the first two expiring terms of the same year, declare such districts vacant, and at their first regular meeting thereafter proceed to divide the county into three commissioner districts, and in such division designate the district which each of the three remaining commissioners shall represent. [R. C. 1905, § 2387; 1890, ch. 48, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 1893; 1901, ch. 52, § 2.]

Commissioners bound to call county judge and auditor together, where petition to divide county is duly presented. State ex rel. Schilling v. Menzie, 17 S. D. 535, 97 N. W. 745.

County commissioner will not lose office by moving to another district in county. Gray v. Beadle County, 21 S. D. 97, 110 N. W. 36.

Where number of county commissioners has been increased by vote of county, vacancy arises in office of county commissioner of each of new districts. State ex rel. Atty.-Gen. v. Davies, 23 N. D. 334, 136 N. W. 955.

§ 3262. Commissioner districts redistricted, when. The county judge, auditor and clerk of the district court of each county shall constitute a redistricting board with power to redistrict the commissioner districts in any county whenever twenty-five per cent of the legal voters of the county, as shall be determined by the votes cast at the last preceding general election for congressmen, shall petition said board to change the boundaries of the commissioner districts and file said petition with the county auditor. Within twenty days after the filing of said petition it shall be the duty of the county auditor to call a meeting of the redistricting board to consider such petition, and if it shall appear that the commissioner districts of such county are not reasonably equal in population or extent of territory they shall proceed at once to redistrict such county into commissioner districts. [R. C. 1905, § 2388; 1895, ch. 34, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1894; 1901, ch. 54.]

Districts can only be changed every third year. Van Den Bos v. Board, 11 S. D. 190, 76 N. W. 935.

Acceptance of warrant for claim against county which has been duly presented and allowed in part, is presumed to be in full of claims presented. Paulson v. Ward County, 23 N. D. 601, 42 L.R.A. (N.S.) 111, 137 N. W. 486.

§ 3263. Duty of redistricting board. In redistricting any county it shall be the duty of the redistricting board to make the districts as regular and compact in form as practicable, and as equal in population as possible, as shall be determined by the vote cast at the last preceding general election, but no new district shall be so formed that any two of the then acting commissioners shall reside in the same district, and no county shall be redistricted oftener than once in five years. [R. C. 1905, § 2389; 1895, ch. 34, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 1895; 1901, ch. 54.]

§ 3264. Term of office of commissioners. The commissioners shall hold their office for the term of four years, except as provided by law for the organization of counties, and in counties now organized, the order of their election and succession shall be as herein provided, and commissioner districts in such counties shall continue as now constituted until changed as provided by law. Provided, that at the general election next after the organization of a county, either from unorganized territory or from territory segregated by division from another county, one county commissioner shall be elected for a term of two years and two commissioners for a term of four years, and thereafter as provided by law, the order of succession to be determined by lot. Provided, further, that in all counties in this state wherein heretofore commissioners have been elected after the organization of a new county, either from unorganized territory or upon division or segregation from another county, and where all the commissioners now serving were elected for the same term, the county commissioners shall, at the regular meeting of the board of county commissioners next after the taking effect of this act [article], by lot determine the order of their succession; three commissioners to hold their office for four years and two for two years from the first Monday in January, 1913, in counties having five commissioner districts; two commissioners to hold their office for four years and one for two years from the first Monday in January, 1913, in counties having three commissioner districts. [1913, ch. 123; R. C. 1905, § 2390; R. C. 1899, § 1896; 1901, ch. 52, § 3; 1903, ch. 74, § 1.]

§ 3265. County seal. The board of county commissioners shall procure and keep a seal with such emblems and devices as they may think proper, which shall be the seal of the county and no other seal shall be used by the county auditor; and the impression of such seal by the stamp shall be sufficient sealing in all cases where sealing is required. [R. C. 1905, § 2391; R. C. 1899, § 1897.]

§ 3266. Meetings of board, time and place of. The county commissioners shall meet and hold sessions for the transaction of business at the court houses in their respective counties, or at the usual places of holding court, on the first Mondays in January, April, July and October of each year, and may adjourn from time to time; and the county auditor shall have power to call special sessions when the interests of the county demand it, upon giving five days' notice of the time and object of such meeting by posting up notices in three public places in the county or by publication in one newspaper in the county; provided, that in case of a vacancy in the office of the county auditor the chairman of the board shall have power to call a special session for the purpose of filling the same. [R. C. 1905, § 2392; R. C. 1899, § 1898.]

Object of special meeting must be stated in call with reasonable certainty. Emmons County v. Bank, 9 N. D. 583, 84 N. W. 379.

§ 3267. Chairman, duties of. At the first meeting of the board each year they shall elect one of their number chairman who shall act as chairman of such board during the year in which he is elected or until his successor is elected, and in case of a vacancy from any cause whatever the board shall elect another chairman. It shall be the duty of the chairman to preside at the meetings of the board; and all orders made by the board and all warrants drawn on the county treasurer, except warrants for salaries of county officers, shall be signed by the chairman and attested by the county auditor. [R. C. 1905, § 2393; R. C. 1895, § 1899.]

§ 3268. Tie vote defers decision. When the board is equally divided on any question it shall defer a decision until the next meeting, at which time the matter shall be decided by a majority of the board. [R. C. 1905, § 2394; R. C. 1899, § 1900.]

§ 3269. Proceedings. Copies as evidence. Copies of the proceedings of the board duly certified and attested by the county auditor under seal shall be received as evidence in all courts of this state. [R. C. 1905, § 2395; R. C. 1899, § 1901.]

§ 3270. Power of board to preserve order. The board shall have power to preserve order when sitting as a board and may punish contempts by fines not exceeding five dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding twenty-four hours; and it may enforce obedience to its orders by attachment or other compulsory process, and when fines are assessed by it the same may be collected before any justice of the peace having jurisdiction, and shall be paid over as other fines within ten days after they are collected. [R. C. 1905, § 2396; R. C. 1899, § 1902.]

§ 3271. Boards to keep record books. They shall keep a book in which all orders and decisions made by them shall be recorded, except those relating to roads and bridges; and all orders for the allowance of money from the county treasury shall state on what account and to whom the allowance is made, dating the same and numbering them consecutively as allowed from the first day of January to the thirty-first day of December in each year; also a book for the entry of all proceedings relating to bridges and the establishment, change or discontinuance of roads, and a book for the entry of warrants on the county treasurer, showing the number, date, amount and name of the payee of each warrant drawn, which book shall be known as the warrant book, and the warrants shall be numbered in relation to the order and decision allowing the amount for which the same is drawn. § 3272. Warrants cancelled, when. Description of, in minutes. The board is authorized and required at each regular meeting to cancel and destroy all warrants drawn on any fund of the county which may have remained uncalled for and on file for a period of six years or more next preceding the regular meeting on which such cancellation takes place. Such board shall before cancelling and destroying any such warrants cause to be entered in the minutes of its proceedings a brief description thereof, containing the name of the payee, and the number, date and amount of each warrant to be destroyed. [R. C. 1905, § 2398; 1887, ch. 3, §§ 1, 2; R. C. 1899, § 1904.]

§ 3273. Board, powers of. It shall have power to institute and prosecute civil actions in the name of the county for and on behalf of the county. It shall also have power to make all orders respecting property of the county, to sell the public grounds of the county and to purchase other grounds in lieu thereof; and for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this section it shall be sufficient to convey all the interest of the county in such grounds when an order is made for the sale and a deed is executed in the name of the county by the chairman of the board reciting the order and signed and acknowledged by him for and on behalf of the county; provided, that the question of the sale of such public grounds or land shall first be submitted to a vote of the people of the county as hereinafter provided and sanctioned by a majority vote thereof. § 3274. Commissioners authorized to sell. Publish notice. The county commissioners of any county in this state shall have the right to dispose of any property, either real or personal, which the county may have acquired, either through purchase, forfeiture or operation of law. Upon resolution of any board of county commissioners authorizing the same, the county auditor shall cause to be published a notice in some legal newspaper published in such county, once each week for three consecutive weeks, containing a description of the property to be sold, and designating the day and hour when such sale shall be held. Such sale shall be held at the office of the county auditor and conducted by him, and the property so advertised shall be sold to the highest responsible bidder, if such bid is deemed sufficient by a majority of the board authorizing the sale, and such bids may be either auction or sealed bids as may be ordered by the board and specified in the notice; provided, however, that when the property to be disposed of is estimated by the board to be of a value below one hundred dollars such sale may be at private sale upon proper resolution of the board of county commissioners. The proceeds of such sale shall be paid into the county treasury and any amounts which may be due the state or any city, township, incorporated village or school district, from taxes which had been previously levied against said property, or their just proportion thereof, shall be apportioned and placed to the credit of the state, city, township, incorporated village or school corporation entitled thereto, and the remainder shall go to the general funds of the county. [1907, ch. 67.]

§ 3275. Additional powers. In addition to the powers hereinbefore mentioned such board shall have power:

1. To levy a tax not exceeding the amount authorized by law and to liquidate indebtedness.

2. To audit the accounts of all officers having the care, management, collection or disbursements of all money belonging to the county or appropriated for its benefits.

3. To construct and repair bridges, and to open, lay out, vacate and change highways in the cases provided by law.

4. To establish election precincts in its county and to appoint the judges of election in cases provided by law.

5. To equalize the assessments of the county in the manner provided by law.

6. To furnish the necessary blank books, blanks, stationery, telephone, postage, telephone and telegraph tolls, and all other things necessary and incidental to the performance of the duties of their respective offices, for the clerk of the district court, county auditor, register of deeds, county treasurer, county judge, sheriff, public administrator and state's attorney of its county, to be paid out of the county treasury; also to furnish a fireproof safe, when in its judgment the same shall be advisable, in which to keep all the books, records, vouchers and papers pertaining to the business of the board; provided, that the county auditor, county treasurer and the chairman of the board of county commissioners together shall constitute a committee, empowered and required to purchase and provide all necessary blanks, books and other stationery, for the use of all county officers in their official capacity.

7. To do and perform such other duties as now are or may hereafter be prescribed by law. [1911, ch. 115; R. C. 1905, § 2400; 1899, ch. 59; R. C. 1899, § 1906.]

§ 3277. Special tax levy for immigration. The board of county commissioners is authorized at the time fixed for the levying and assessment of taxes to levy and tax not in excess of one-fourth of one mill on the dollar upon the assessed valuation of all of the property in the county upon presentation of a petition signed by twenty per cent of the legal voters of the county, taking the total vote at the last general election for a basis, the proceeds of which shall be used solely for the purpose of promoting and assisting immigration to this state. [1913, ch. 118; R. C. 1905, § 2402; 1891, ch. 72, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1908.]

§ 3278. Immigration fund. The funds provided to be raised in accordance with the last section shall be denominated the "immigration fund" and shall be kept separate and distinct by the county treasurer and shall be expended by and under the direction and control of the board of county commissioners at such time and in such manner as is by such commissioners deemed best for the purpose of securing immigration to the state. [R. C. 1905, § 2403; 1891, ch. 72, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 1909.]

§ 3279. Board may procure original field notes. The board is authorized to procure for its county a copy of the field notes, as soon as practicable, of the original survey of its county by the United States, and cause a map of the county to be constructed therefrom on a scale of not less than one inch to a mile, and laid off in congressional townships and sections, the same to be kept open in the office of the county auditor and the field notes to be deposited therein. [R. C. 1905, § 2404; R. C. 1899, § 1910.]

§ 3280. Board to submit extraordinary outlay to vote. It shall submit to the people of the county at any regular or special election any question involving an extraordinary outlay of money by the county or any expenditure greater in amount than can be provided for by the annual tax, or the construction of any court house, jail or other public building by establishing a building fund to aid in the construction of the same when the board shall consider the permanent buildings of the county, aforesaid, inadequate for the needs of its business and that it is not to the best interests of the county to issue bonds to aid in such construction or for the construction of such buildings by any other procedure as is, or may be provided by law, or whether it will aid in constructing or construct any highway or bridge. [1909, ch. 67, § 1; R. C. 1905, § 2405; R. C. 1895, § 1911.]

Resolution as to issuing courthouse bonds should specify amount to be voted upon. Territory v. Steele, 4 D. 78, 23 N. W. 91.

§ 3281. Extraordinary expenditures authorized by vote. If the county commissioners deem any expenditure necessary greater in amount than can be provided for by the annual tax, they shall require a vote of the county thereon, either at a general election, or one called especially for the purpose. In either case four weeks' notice of said election shall be given in the official newspapers of the county, and the notice shall specify the amount to be raised, and the precise purpose for which it is to be expended; and if a majority of the votes cast authorize the tax, the county commissioners shall authorize the same to be levied and collected in the same manner as the annual tax, and if possible, at the same time; provided, however, that no new assessment shall be made for any special tax; provided, further, that whenever in the opinion of the board of county commissioners of any county, or a majority thereof, it shall be deemed for the best interests of said county that any land adjoining the court house is, or shall thereafter be necessary for the enlargement of said court house, or the county jail of said county, or for the purpose of beautifying such county buildings, or for the prevention of other buildings in such close proximity to said court house and jail that the transaction of public business would be thereby discommoded or rendered inconvenient, then said board of county commissioners, or a majority thereof, shall have power and authority and they are hereby vested with such power and authority, to purchase such land so adjoining said court house, without submitting such question to a vote of the people, and the money required for the purpose of such additional land hereinbefore provided for shall be raised as provided for the raising of funds for general county purposes. [R. C. 1905, § 2406; R. C. 1899, § 1311; 1901, ch. 73.]

Residents, citizens and taxpayers of county have such interest as entitles them to maintain action to enjoin carrying out, by officials, of an unlawful contract for erection of court house. McKinnon v. Robinson, 24 N. D. 367, 139 N. W. 580.

§ 3282. Mode of submitting propositions. The mode of submitting questions to the people contemplated by the last two sections shall be the following: The whole question, including the sum desired to be raised and the amount of the tax desired to be levied or the rate per annum and the years in which said tax is to be levied, shall be published for at least four weeks in the official newspapers of the county. If there are no such newspapers the publication shall be made by posting in at least one of the most public places in each election precinct in the county; and in all cases the notices shall name the time when such questions shall be voted upon and the form in which the question will be submitted; and a copy of the question submitted shall be posted at each voting place during the day of election. [1909, ch. 67, § 2; R. C. 1905, § 2407; R. C. 1895, § 1912.]

§ 3283. Proposition to tax must accompany question submitted. When the question submitted involves the establishment of a building fund for the construction of buildings, or the borrowing or expenditure of money, such proposition must be accompanied by a proposition to levy a tax for the provision or payment thereof, in addition to the usual taxes required to be levied; and no vote adopting the question shall be valid unless it likewise adopts the amount of tax to be levied to meet the appropriation or liability incurred. [1909, ch. 67, § 3; R. C. 1905, § 2408; R. C. 1895, § 1913.]

§ 3284. Tax not to exceed three mills annually. The rate of tax levied in pursuance hereof shall in no case exceed three mills on the dollar on the assessed valuation of the county in any one year. When the object is to establish a building fund to aid in the erection of public buildings the rate shall be such as to raise the fund within six years; provided, that the total sum to be so raised, including the then existing indebtedness of the county, shall not exceed five per cent of its valuation according to the last assessment thereof. When the object is to borrow money to aid in the erection of public buildings the rate shall be such as to pay the debt in ten years. When the object is to construct or aid in constructing any road or bridge the annual tax shall not exceed one mill on the dollar of the valuation, and any special tax or taxes levied in pursuance of this article, after becoming delinquent, shall draw the same rate of interest as ordinary taxes levied in pursuance of law. [1909, ch. 67, § 4; R. C. 1905, § 2409; R. C. 1899, § 1914.]

§ 3285. Record of vote. Board cannot rescind. Such commissioners upon being satisfied that the above requirements have been substantially complied with and that a majority of the votes cast are in favor of the proposition submitted, shall cause the same to be entered at large upon the book containing a record of their proceedings, and they shall then have power to levy and collect the special tax in the same manner that the other county taxes are collected. Propositions thus acted upon cannot be rescinded by the board. [R. C. 1905, § 2410; R. C. 1899, § 1915.]

§ 3286. Money to be specifically applied. Money raised by the county commissioners in pursuance of the last five sections is specifically appropriated and constitutes a fund distinct from all others, in the hands of the county treasurer, until the obligations assumed are discharged. [R. C. 1905, § 2411; R. C. 1899, § 1916.]

§ 3287. Board may transfer unexpended balances, when. The board of county commissioners may at any regular meeting thereof, whenever in their judgment there is immediate need for the erection and repairing of court houses, jails or other necessary buildings within and for the county, by resolution, create a county building fund, and thereafter at their regular meeting in July of each year, may transfer to said building fund any unexpended balances which are or may be in the hands of the treasurer belonging to the road and bridge fund, penalty and interest fund or emergency fund, after current bills or authorized expenditures against said funds have been audited and paid, or any balance in the interest on bonds fund in excess of the forthcoming installment of interest on any outstanding bonds, or any balance remaining in any sinking fund created for the purpose of paying bonded indebtedness, when all bonds for which said fund was created have been retired and paid. In cases where there are no immediate demands for the erection and repairing of any court houses, jails or other necessary buildings within and for the county, then the transfers herein contemplated may be made to the county general fund. [R. C. 1905, § 2412; 1890, ch. 175, § 1; 1891, ch. 3, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1917; 1903, ch. 73.]

Appeal must be taken as provided by statute. Lyman County v. Board, 14 S. D. 341, 85 N. W. 597; Wood v. Bangs, 1 Dak. 179, 46 N. W. 586; Taubman v. Board, 14 S. D. 206, 84 N. W. 784.

Appeal from the board of county commissioners must be tried de novo in the district court. Goldstreet v. Newton, 2 Dak. 149, 3 N. W. 329.

Action on claim not barred by failure to appeal from action of board thereon. Spencer v. Sully County, 4 Dak. 474, 33 N. W. 97.

§ 3288. Special funds may be transferred, when. Whenever there remains in the treasury of any county an unexpended balance of any special fund and all claims against such fund have been fully paid, and the purpose for which it was created has been fully subserved and there remains no further use for such balance for the purpose for which it was created, it shall be lawful for the board to transfer such balance to any other fund of the county or subdivisions to which such balance belongs. [R. C. 1905, § 2413; 1887, ch. 144, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1918.]

§ 3289. Warrants, how signed and attested. All warrants upon the county treasury, except warrants for salaries of county officers, shall be issued upon the order of the board of county commissioners, signed by the chairman thereof and attested by the signature of the county auditor with the county seal affixed, and shall designate the fund upon which they are drawn. Warrants for salaries of county officers may be drawn by the county auditor from time to time as such salaries become due and payable. [R. C. 1905, § 2414; R. C. 1895, § 1919.]

County warrant sealed instrument; action must be brought within twenty years. Hefleman v. Pennington Co., 3 S. D. 162, 52 N. W. 851.

After tax sale is adjudged invalid, action by board of county commissioners, permitting drawing of warrant, is necessary prerequisite to return of money paid for void certificate. Sherwood v. Barnes County, 22 N. D. 310, 134 N. W. 38.

Residents, citizens and taxpayers of county have such interest as entitles them to maintain action to enjoin carrying out by officials of an unlawful contract requiring extraordinary expenditures of public funds in erection of court house. McKinnon v. Robinson, 24 N. D. 367, 139 N. W. 580.

§ 3290. Sessions of board to be public. The board shall hold its sessions with open doors and transact all business in the most public manner, and, if the county has no court house or the court house shall be unfit or inconvenient, such sessions may be held at any other suitable place at the county seat. All matters pertaining to the affairs of the county shall be heard by the board in session only, but they may continue any business from any regular session to an intermediate day. [R. C. 1905, § 2415; R. C. 1899, § 1920.]

§ 3291. Record, what constitutes. The books required to be kept by this article shall constitute the records of the board of county commissioners. [R. C. 1905, § 2416; R. C. 1899, § 1921.]

§ 3292. Where records to be kept. The office of county auditor, county treasurer, clerk of court, county judge, sheriff, county superintendent of schools, or any other county officer having in charge any public records, shall be in the court house in said county, in rooms provided for said offices by the county commissioners. Any person elected to any office mentioned in this section who refuses or neglects to keep the records of his office in the room in the court house provided for that purpose, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor; provided, however, that in counties not having court houses of sufficient size to accommodate all of these offices, the commissioners may make other provision for same. [R. C. 1905, § 2417; 1903, ch. 77.]

§ 3293. Board to provide offices, court room, jail, etc. In any county where there is no court house or jail erected by the county, or where those erected have not sufficient capacity, it shall be the duty of the board to provide a court room and jail, also offices for the following named officers: Sheriff, treasurer, register of deeds, auditor, clerk of the district court, state's attorney, county judge and county superintendent of schools, to be furnished by such county in a suitable building at the lowest rent to be obtained at the county seat, or to secure and occupy suitable rooms at a free rent within the limits of the county seat or any of the additions thereto until such county builds a court house. It shall also provide the courts appointed to be held therein with attendants, fuel, lights and stationery suitable for the transaction of their business. If the board neglects, the court may order the sheriff to do so, and the expense incurred by him in carrying such order into effect, when certified by the court, shall be a county charge. [R. C. 1905, § 2418; 1885, ch. 41, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1922.]

Absence of suitable buildings and vaults at county seat no defense to action to compel county officers to hold offices there. State v. Porter, 15 S. D. 387, 89 N. W. 1012.

Officer cannot rent an office at charge of county; remedy is by mandamus. Cleary v. Eddy County, 2 N. D. 397, 51 N. W. 586.

§ 3294. To erect and repair buildings from current revenue. The board shall have authority under the provisions of this article to provide for the erection and repairing of court houses, jails and other necessary buildings within and for the county, and to make contracts on behalf of the county for the building and repairing of the same; but no expenditure for the purpose herein named greater than can be paid out of the annual revenue of the county for the current year shall be made unless the question of such expenditure shall have first been submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of such county and shall have been approved by a majority of the votes so cast; and the board shall determine the amount and rate of taxes to be submitted to a vote for such purpose. [R. C. 1905, § 2419; R. C. 1899, § 1923.]

Expenditure by county of greater sum than annual revenue for the current year must be submitted to voters. State v. Getchell, 3 N. D. 243, 55 N. W. 585.

Contract for collecting taxes for percentage void. Storey v. Murphy, 9 N. D. 115, 81 N. W. 23.

County commissioners cannot declare office vacant after state's attorney has entered upon duties. Howard v. Burns, 14 S. D. 383, 85 N. W. 920.

When judge may appoint additional counsel. Idem.

Estoppel to contest illegal claims or expenditures. 137 Am. St. Rep. 354.

§ 3295. Duty to use building fund. After a building fund has been accumulated either from the proceeds of the sale of town lots, or from any other source, it shall be the duty of the board, within one year from the time such fund becomes available, to proceed to the erection of the necessary county buildings, including a jail, if such fund shall in the judgment of the board be sufficient for that purpose. [R. C. 1905, § 2420; R. C. 1899, § 1924.]

§ 3296. Contracts let only on competitive bids. The board shall cause an advertisement for bids for the erection of such building to be published for at least thirty days prior to the opening of bids by at least four publications in some newspaper published in the county, and such other newspaper as may seem to them advisable. Such advertisement shall state where the plans and specifications may be examined and the time allowed for the completion of such building, also the time when bids will be opened and passed upon by the board, which may be at a regular or duly adjourned session of the board, or at a meeting duly called by the auditor, as provided in section 3266 of this chapter. Each bid must contain a certified check in a sum equal to five per cent of the amount of the bid, made payable to the chairman of the board of county commissioners, as a guarantee that the bidder will enter into contract should it be awarded to him, and furnish a bond as herein provided; and the lowest responsible bid must in all cases be accepted, and the contract for such building shall be so conditioned that not more than seventy per cent of the contract price for the same shall be made until the contract shall be executed and the buildings completed to the satisfaction and acceptance of the board, their architect or authorized superintendent, and payments to the extent of the per cent above stated may be made from time to time during the process of construction and divided into such installments as the board may agree upon. The board must further require a bond from the contractor in a sum equal to the contract price, conditioned, the contractor will execute his contract and complete the building according to the plans and specifications and to the full satisfaction of the board, and account for all moneys paid to him and pay all bills and claims on account of labor or materials furnished in and about the performance of said contract, including all demands of subcontractors, and said bond to stand as security for all such bills, claims and demands. The sureties on such bond shall be as required in section 4801 [6834], except, however, the board may demand a surety bond, in which case the expense of procuring such bond shall be paid for by the county requiring such. The provisions of this section shall apply to all contracts for fuel, stationery and all other articles for the use of the county, or labor to be performed therefor, when the amount to be paid for the same during any year exceeds the sum of one hundred dollars; provided, that in all cases advertisements for bids therefor need not be for more than three consecutive weeks in some weekly newspaper published in such county; and provided, also, that all contracts for the furnishing of stationery, blank books and supplies generally for all county officers shall be let at the first regular meeting in April to run for the period of one year. All contracts shall be made and set forth in writing and may be signed on behalf of the board by the chairman with the county seal affixed, after such contract has been voted upon and carried by a majority of the board. The board shall, by virtue of this section, be empowered to engage some competent architect to prepare plans and specifications, details, etc., for such building, and for which services they shall pay a compensation in a sum not to exceed five per cent of the cost of the building. [R. C. 1905, § 2421; 1899, ch. 59; R. C. 1899, § 1925; 1905, ch. 72.]

This section is R. C. 1905, § 2421. The provision that "the sureties on such bond shall be as required in section 4801, except," etc., is an unaccountable mistake, for section 4801 relates to an entirely different matter. The provision above quoted originated in Laws 1905, ch. 72, which is cited as one of the sources from which R. C. § 2421 was derived, and in that act of 1905 it read: "The sureties on such bond shall be as required in paragraph 3, chapter 133, of the Revised [sic] Laws of 1901, except," etc. Laws 1901, ch. 133, § 3, became R. C. 1905, § 6254, which constitutes section 6834 in the present compilation, and is therefore here substituted for "4801" in the text of section 3296.

In absence of charter or statutory requirements municipal contracts need not be let under competitive bidding. Price v. Fargo, 24 N. D. 440, 139 N. W. 1054.

§ 3297. Unused buildings may be destroyed, when. In any county containing a population of less than six thousand inhabitants as shown by the last state or federal census, it shall be lawful for the board of county commissioners, when petitioned by one hundred or more of the voters of such county, to sell or repair any building owned by the county and not used for county purposes and which is unsafe to remain standing, or to cause such building to be torn down and to do anything in the premises which a private owner might or could do with his property. [R. C. 1905, § 2422; 1893, ch. 44, § 1; R. C. 1895, § 1926.]

§ 3298. Appeals lie from decision of board. From all decisions of the board upon matters properly before it an appeal may be taken to the district court by any person aggrieved, upon filing an undertaking in such sum and with such sureties as may be approved by the county auditor, conditioned that the appellant will prosecute such appeal without delay and pay all costs adjudged against him in the district court. Such undertaking shall be executed to the county and may be sued on in the name of the county. The state's attorney, upon the written demand of at least seven taxpayers of the county, shall take an appeal from an action of the board of county commissioners to the district court, when the interests of the county are affected, which appeal shall be taken in the name of the county, and in such case no bond shall be required. Upon serving the notice provided for in the next section the county auditor shall proceed the same as if an undertaking had been filed, and his fees for making the transcript shall be paid as other claims by the county. [R. C. 1905, § 2423; 1883, ch. 5, § 1; R. C. 1895, § 1927.]

Certiorari lies to review result of election conducted by county commissioners on question of licensing sale of liquors. State ex rel. Cook v. Tripp County, 29 S. D. 358, 137 N. W. 354.

§ 3299. Appeal, how taken. Such appeal must be taken within thirty days after the decision of the board by serving a written notice of appeal upon one of the members of the board; and the county auditor shall, upon the filing of the undertaking and the payment of his fees as hereinafter provided, make out a complete transcript of the proceedings of such board relating to the matter in controversy, and shall deliver the same to the clerk of the district court. [R. C. 1905, § 2424; R. C. 1899, § 1928.]

Sufficiency of serving notice of appeal on trustee of corporation and executing undertaking to corporation. Starcher v. Gregory, 23 S. D. 217, 121 N. W. 388.

§ 3300. Appeals to be filed, when. Such appeal shall be filed on or before the first day of the next term of the district court after such appeal is taken, and the cause shall stand for trial at such term. [R. C. 1905, § 2425; R. C. 1899, § 1929.]

§ 3301. Appeals docketed and tried de novo. All appeals thus taken shall be docketed as other causes pending in the district court and the same shall be heard and determined de novo. [R. C. 1905, § 2426; R. C. 1899, § 1930.]

§ 3302. Power of district court. The district court may enter a final judgment and cause the same to be executed, or may send the same back to the board with an order how to proceed and require such board to comply therewith by mandamus, or by attachment for contempt. [R. C. 1905, § 2427; R. C. 1899, § 1931.]

§ 3303. Officers to make settlement. All treasurers, sheriffs, clerks, constables and other officers chargeable with money belonging to any county, shall render their account to and settle with the county commissioners at the time required by law, and pay into the county treasury any balance which may be due the county, taking duplicate receipts therefor, and deposit one of the same with the county auditor within five days thereafter. [R. C. 1905, § 2428; R. C. 1899, § 1932.]

§ 3304. Board to ascertain amount of redemption money. It is the duty of the board at each annual meeting to examine the county treasurer's tax sale book and stub receipts, and ascertain the amount of redemption money in the treasury, and require such treasurer to account for the same. [R. C. 1905, § 2429; 1879, ch. 49, § 10; R. C. 1899, § 1933.]

§ 3305. Penalty for failure to render or settle accounts. If any person thus chargeable shall neglect or refuse to render true accounts or settle as aforesaid, the board of county commissioners shall adjust the accounts of such delinquent according to the best information it can obtain and ascertain the balance due the county and order suit to be brought in the name of the county therefor; and such delinquent shall not be entitled to any commission and shall forfeit and pay to the county a penalty of twenty per cent on the amount of funds due the county. [R. C. 1905, § 2430; R. C. 1899, § 1934.]

Twenty per cent penalty may be recovered in action against county treasurer and sureties for money due county. Jerauld County v. Williams, 7 S. D. 196, 63 N. W. 905.

§ 3306. Warrants draw interest, when. All county warrants hereafter drawn by the proper authorities shall, after having been presented to the county treasurer for payment and by him indorsed "not paid for want of funds," from such date draw interest at the rate of seven per cent per annum. [R. C. 1905, § 2431; 1881, ch. 139, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1935.]

§ 3307. Official newspapers. Designation of. The board of county commissioners of each county in this state must at its first regular meeting in January of each year designate three newspapers, qualified to make such publication within the county, to publish the proceedings of said board as provided by law; provided, that at least one of the newspapers so designated must be located at the county seat of such county. [1911, ch. 232.]

§ 3308. Proceedings of board to be published. Legal rates therefor. It shall be the duty of the board to cause to be published in three newspapers published in its county, or in case there are not three newspapers published within the county qualified to make such publication, then in as many as there are, a full and complete report of all its official proceedings at each regular and special meeting, such proceedings to be published as soon after each meeting as practicable, and the board shall pay for such publication seven cents per counted line of nonpareil type for the first insertion and four cents per line of nonpareil type for each subsequent insertion; or five cents per counted line of brevier type for the first insertion and three cents per line of brevier type for each subsequent insertion. All tabulated matter which shall consist of at least three justifications in each line shall be computed at double the rates for straight matter. A line shall be construed to mean thirteen ems pica in length. Said proceedings, however, shall be published only in such newspapers as are designated to publish such proceedings, and which shall file or cause to be filed with the county auditor an affidavit of publication executed in proper form; provided, that not more than two newspapers in any congressional township shall be so designated, and when there are but two newspapers in the county and both are in the same congressional township the commissioners shall designate but one of such papers. In case there is no newspaper published in the county the board shall cause such proceedings to be published in such newspaper in the state as has the largest circulation in such county, and shall also cause such report to be posted in three public places in the county, one of which places shall be the office of the county auditor. [1911, ch. 232, § 1; R. C. 1905, § 2432; 1887, ch. 51, § 2; R. C. 1895, § 1936.]

§ 3309. Rates and methods of computation applicable to legal notices and publications generally. The rates of compensation and the methods of calculating the same provided for in section 2620 of the Revised Codes of 1905, as amended by section 3308 [herein] shall be applicable to and made to apply in all cases where publication of legal notices of any kind, proceedings of board of county commissioners, reports and lists of the state experiment station to inspect and analyze foods and beverages, election returns and other publications and reports as required and allowed by law. [1911, ch. 232, § 2.]

R. C. 1905, § 2620, above referred to, was amended by Laws 1909, ch. 178, which constitutes section 3540 herein.

And see the note to the latter section.

§ 3310. Auditor to furnish copy of proceedings. The county auditor shall make out a full and complete report of the proceedings of each regular and special meeting of the board, and transmit the same to the publishers of the newspapers selected by such board to publish such proceedings, such report to be made out and transmitted within one week from the time such proceedings are had. [R. C. 1905, § 2433; R. C. 1895, § 1937.]

§ 3311. Proceedings to be published, when. It shall be the duty of the publisher of each newspaper selected to publish the proceedings of the board to cause such proceedings to be published in the issue of his paper next succeeding the time of their reception. [R. C. 1905, § 2434; R. C. 1895, § 1938.]

ARTICLE 10.— COUNTY BUDGET.

§ 3312. Officers to file itemized statement with county auditor. It shall be the duty of every officer in charge of any institution, office or undertaking supported wholly or in part by the county, to file with the county auditor, on or before March fifteenth of each year, on suitable blanks furnished by him, an itemized statement of the amounts of moneys which, in the opinion of such officer, will be required for the proper maintenance, extension or improvement of such institution, undertaking or office for the fiscal year next ensuing. The local officers who have charge of any poor relief which is supported wholly, or in part, by the county, shall in like manner furnish the county auditor with statements of the estimated amounts required from the county for poor relief during the ensuing financial year. It shall be the duty of the county auditor to furnish each officer or person required to make a statement with suitable blank forms, on or before March first of each year. [1913, ch. 62, § 1.]

§ 3313. Duty of auditor. It shall be the duty of the auditor to furnish each county commissioner, on or before the first meeting of the board of county commissioners in April, with a tabulated statement showing the several amounts asked for, for each institution, office and undertaking, and a brief explanation of the reasons therefor. Such tabulated statement shall be accompanied by a statement showing estimates of income from each and every source, and such other data as the county auditor may deem necessary for the full comprehension of said tabulated statement. [1913, ch. 62, § 2.]

§ 3314. Commissioners to prepare estimates and tabulations. At the April meeting of each year, the board of county commissioners in each county of this state shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, a statement:

1. Showing in detail the proposed undertaking of the county and the relative importance of each such undertaking.
2. Showing detailed estimates of the cost of the proposed undertakings.
3. Showing detailed estimates of the cost of the whole operation of the county government for the ensuing fiscal year, and the cost of each principal detail or line of endeavor of each such operation.

Also a statement showing:

1. The amounts appropriated for each such estimate for the ensuing fiscal year.
2. The amount of revenues applicable to meet expenditures and the sources of such revenue.
3. The amounts necessary to be raised by taxes for each purpose and the total amount for all purposes.

Such statement shall be published at least once in at least one newspaper in the county during the month of May.

In order to prepare the estimates and tabulations herein provided for, the county commissioners may require every officer or board which has charge of any county institution, undertaking or office, to furnish any information in relation to the affairs of their respective offices, undertakings or institutions, that the board may deem necessary, and the board may also employ such experienced accountants as may be necessary, whose compensation shall be fixed by the board. [1913, ch. 62, § 3.]

ARTICLE 11.— DEPOSITARIES OF COUNTY FUNDS.

§ 3315. Commissioners to designate depositaries. The board of county commissioners of each county in this state at its first regular meeting after the adoption of this code and thereafter at its first regular meeting in January of each odd numbered year, shall designate one or more national or state banks in its county as county depositaries, in which all the funds of such county shall be deposited. [R. C. 1905, § 2435; 1893, ch. 49, § 2; R. C. 1895, § 1939.]

§ 3316. Proposals, advertisement for. The county auditor of each county shall advertise in one or more newspapers of the county for at least two weeks immediately prior to such meeting for sealed proposals for the deposit of the funds of such county, which advertisement shall state the date up to which such proposals will be received, which date shall be the first day of the meeting of the board at which such proposals are to be opened. Such proposals shall state in writing what rate of interest will be paid on the average daily balances during the month, interest to be paid monthly, on condition that such funds, with accrued interest, shall be held subject to draft at all times on demand. Such proposals shall be inclosed in sealed envelopes addressed to the county auditor and marked "proposals for deposit of county funds," and shall be by the county auditor filed in his office. [R. C. 1905, § 2436; 1893, ch. 49, § 3; R. C. 1895, § 1940.]

§ 3317. Proposals, acceptance of bonds. Such proposals shall be presented to the board at such meetings, and then, but not until then, shall be opened by the county auditor in the presence of the board, and the board shall thereupon proceed to accept the proposal of the bank or banks offering the highest rate of interest not inconsistent herewith, subject to the filing of a satisfactory bond as hereinafter provided, the amount of which bond shall then and there be fixed by the board. Before any bank shall be designated as such depositary it shall submit to the board for its approval a bond payable to the county, conditioned for the safe keeping and repayment of any and all funds deposited in such bank, which bond shall be signed by not less than five freeholders of the county as sureties; such bond to be in the sum required by the board, but in no case less than double the probable amount of funds to be deposited in such bank. If at any time the amount of funds on deposit in any such depositaries shall exceed one-half of the amount named in such bond, it shall be the duty of the board at its next regular meeting thereafter to require from such depositary an additional bond in a sum not less than twice the amount of such excess. Such bond shall be approved by the board, and the approval thereof endorsed thereon by the chairman of the board and by him deposited with the county auditor; and any bank whose bond shall have been so approved shall thereupon be designated by the board as a county depositary and shall continue as such until the board of county commissioners shall re-advertise for bids and shall have designated new depositaries. If the board fails or refuses to approve any such bond, the same may be presented to the judge of the district court, upon three days' notice to the county auditor, who shall proceed to hear and determine the sufficiency of such bond and may approve or disapprove the same as the facts warrant. If he approves such bond said bank shall be declared a public depositary as aforesaid. The sureties on such bond shall be required to justify as required by law in arrest and bail proceedings; provided, however, that in lieu of such personal bond, the board of county commissioners may require such bank or banks to file a surety company bond for a sum equal to the amount of funds such bank may receive according to this article. If at any time the amount of funds on deposit in any such depositaries shall exceed the amount named in such surety bond, it shall be the duty of the board at its next regular meeting thereafter to require from such depositaries an additional surety bond in the sum of not less than the amount of such excess. Such surety company bonds shall be approved as provided by law. [1911, ch. 116; R. C. 1905, § 2437; 1893, ch. 49, § 4; R. C. 1895, § 1941; 1901, ch. 65.]

As to liability of sureties on bond. Cass County v. American Exch. State Bank, 11 N. D. 238, 91 N. W. 59.

Liability of sureties on bond of bank as depository of public funds as affected by acquiescence or connivance of public officials in misuse of the funds. 26 L.R.A.(N.S.) 865.

§ 3318. Equal bidders. Depositary, how determined. When two or more banks in the same county proposing to become depositaries, offer the same rate of interest, it shall be the duty of the board to select impartially as many of such banks as depositaries as offer ample security for such deposit. In estimating the value of the security offered by any proposed depositary the capital, surplus and general credit of the bank shall be taken into consideration, as well as the bonds proposed to be given. [R. C. 1905, § 2438; 1893, ch. 49, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 1942; 1901, ch. 68.]

§ 3319. Sinking fund. Duty of county commissioners. Whenever there shall be accumulated in the sinking fund, or any other revenue county funds established by law, in any of the counties of this state an amount of money exceeding one thousand dollars, and for which there is no immediate use, the board of county commissioners of such county are authorized, empowered and shall direct a time deposit of such funds for a period of one year, as they may deem expedient, either in one or more of the county depositaries as created by law, or such state or national bank as said board of county commissioners may designate; provided, that the rate of interest offered by banks making bids for sinking funds shall not be less than three per cent per annum; provided, further, that whenever funds accumulated in any sinking or special assessment fund, created for the purpose of redeeming bonds and paying interest thereon, or for carrying on some work of public improvement, are so deposited, the interest received from such time deposit shall belong to and become a part of the sinking or special assessment fund thereunto entitled. [1911, ch. 110; 1909, ch. 70; 1907, ch. 92; R. C. 1905, § 2439; 1903, ch. 75, § 1.]

§ 3320. Depositaries, how designated. The depositaries for such time deposits of the said county funds may be designated at any regular meeting of the board of county commissioners of such county, upon the advertisement and proposals as provided by law for designating the depositaries of the general county funds, and the bank or banks designated as the depositary or depositaries of such time deposits of such county funds shall be required to furnish a bond in the same amount, manner and form as prescribed by law for the several county depositaries. [R. C. 1905, § 2440; 1903, ch. 75, § 2.]

§ 3321. Two or more depositaries. Duty of treasurer. In case two or more banks are designated as depositaries the county treasurer shall, as far as practicable, keep in each of the several depositaries equal balances at all times; provided, that in counties where two or more banks are designated as depositaries, the amount deposited in any bank shall not exceed the capital of such bank; provided, further, that in counties where the county deposits exceed the capital of the banks in the county, then the county commissioners shall deposit the funds of the county, in the banks of the county, upon their giving a bond according to law. [R. C. 1905, § 2441; 1899, ch. 63; R. C. 1899, § 1943.]

§ 3322. Duty of board in designating depositaries. Further to secure the safety of the county funds deposited under the provisions of this article, the board of county commissioners shall satisfy itself of the responsibility of the several banks proposing to act as depositaries, and no bank offering more than three or less than two per cent per annum on deposits subject to check shall be designated as a depositary under the provisions of this article. [R. C. 1905, § 2442; 1893, ch. 49, § 7; R. C. 1899, § 1944; 1905, ch. 74.]

§ 3323. Treasurer to deposit funds. All funds of the county shall be deposited in the name of the county by the county treasurer as soon as received by him in such bank or banks as shall have been designated as county depositaries. [R. C. 1905, § 2443; 1893, ch. 49, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1945.]

§ 3324. Penalty for violation. If any county treasurer shall deposit any of the funds of his county or loan the same in any manner except in accordance with the provisions of this article he shall be liable to a penalty of five hundred dollars for each deposit or loan so made. [R. C. 1905, § 2444; 1893, ch. 49, § 9; R. C. 1899, § 1946.]

§ 3325. Monthly statement by depositary. Each depositary shall furnish to the county auditor on the first day of each month an itemized statement of the county's account with such depositary, duly verified by the affidavit of the cashier of such bank, which statement shall be filed and carefully preserved in the office of the county auditor. All sums of interest accruing on the funds deposited as aforesaid shall be credited to such deposit account on the first day of each month for the preceding month and a statement of such interest shall be rendered by such depositary to the county auditor on the first day of each month and the auditor shall charge the treasurer with the amount thereof and credit the same to the general fund of the county. [R. C. 1905, § 2445; 1893, ch. 49, § 8; R. C. 1899, § 1947.]

§ 3326. Checks, how signed. All checks drawn upon the county depositaries shall be signed by the county treasurer in the name of the county by himself as treasurer. [R. C. 1905, § 2446; 1893, ch. 49, § 10; R. C. 1899, § 1948.]

§ 3327. Depositaries where only one bank or no bank is located. It is the duty of the officers mentioned in this article to comply with the provisions hereof; provided, that, in counties where only one bank is located, the board of county commissioners shall designate such bank or other banks within this state a depositary without advertising for bids, if such bank agrees to pay interest at the rate of at least two per cent per annum, and complies with the provisions of the foregoing section. In counties where there is no bank, or where no bank offers to comply with the requirements of this article, the board must designate some bank or banks outside of such county and within this state as such depositaries, but such bank or banks must furnish bonds in the same manner as other depositaries. [R. C. 1905, § 2447; 1897, ch. 61; R. C. 1899, § 1949; 1905, ch. 74.]

§ 3328. Treasurer exempt from liability, when. When the funds of any county are deposited by the county treasurer as provided herein, such treasurer and his sureties shall be exempt from all liability thereon by reason of loss of any such funds from the failure, bankruptcy or any other act of any such bank to the extent only of such funds in the hands of such bank or banks at the time of such failure or bankruptcy. [R. C. 1905, § 2448; 1893, ch. 49, § 12; R. C. 1899, § 1950.]

Constitutionality of statute releasing public officer or his surety from liability for loss of public fund. 41 L.R.A.(N.S.) 97.

§ 3329. Violation of this article a misdemeanor. Any officer violating any of the provisions of this article shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor. [R. C. 1905, § 2449; 1893, ch. 49, § 13; R. C. 1895, § 1951.]

ARTICLE 12.—REGISTER OF DEEDS.

§ 3330. Record of instruments. The register of deeds shall keep a full and true record in proper books kept for that purpose of all deeds, mortgages, bills of sale, chattel mortgages and all other instruments authorized by law to be admitted to record, filed with him for that purpose, if the person so filing them for record shall first pay him the fees provided by law for filing or recording the same. When an instrument is filed with him for record he shall indorse thereon the date and hour and minute of the day of such filing and when recorded, also the pages and designating the letter or number of the book or records in which the record thereof is made; and in a note at the foot of the record of each instrument recorded by him he shall write the date, the hour and minute of the day when it was filed with him and the page on which it is recorded. [R. C. 1905, § 2450; R. C. 1895, § 1952.]

Deed filed for record without demand of fees must be recorded. Parrish v. Mahany, 10 S. D. 276, 73 N. W. 97, 65 Am. St. Rep. 715.

Duty to record certain documents on payment of fees. Erskine v. Steele Co., 4 N. D. 339, 60 N. W. 1050, 28 L.R.A. 645.

Registry fee book kept by one who was not register of deeds at time deed was returned, is inadmissible to show to whom deed was returned. Davis v. Davis, 24 S. D. 474, 124 N. W. 715.

Liability of registrar of deeds for neglect, delay or mistake in registering or indexing instrument affecting title to real property. 23 L.R.A.(N.S.) 127.

Liability to private individuals of registers of deeds, county clerks, clerks of court, prothonotaries, etc. 95 Am. St. Rep. 85.

§ 3331. Seal of register of deeds. He shall provide himself with a seal and make an impression of the same upon each instrument to which he attaches his official signature. Such seal shall bear the following inscription: "Register of deeds of.....County." [R. C. 1905, § 2451; 1883, ch. 95, § 1; R. C. 1895, § 1953.]

§ 3332. Numerical index required. He shall prepare from the records of his office and thereafter keep a numerical index of the deeds, mortgages and other instruments of record in his office affecting or relating to the title to real property. [R. C. 1905, § 2452; R. C. 1899, § 1954.]

Purchaser of real property is charged with notice of what he would find on examining numerical index in register's office. Fullerton Lumber Co. v. Tinker, 22 S. D. 427, 118 N. W. 700, 18 A. & E. Ann. Cas. 11.

§ 3333. Separate indexes to be kept. There shall be prepared and kept one index of the deeds and contracts and other instruments, not liens merely, and another index of mortgages and other liens, which indexes shall be substantially or as near as may be in the following forms:

§ 3334. Grantor and grantee indexes required. He shall prepare from the records of his office and keep grantor and grantee indexes of the deeds, mortgages and other instruments of record in his office, affecting or relating to the title of real property, in addition to the numerical indexes above provided for. [R. C. 1905, § 2454; 1887, ch. 134, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1956.]

§ 3335. Separate indexes of deeds and liens. He shall prepare and keep one index of the deeds and contracts and other instruments not liens merely, and another index of the mortgages and other instruments which are liens, which indexes shall show the name of the grantor and grantee, dates of instruments, dates of filing and description of property affected. [R. C. 1905, § 2455; 1887, ch. 134, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 1957.]

§ 3336. Document number. Priority of filing. It shall be the duty of each register of deeds in this state when any deed, patent, mortgage, receiver's receipt, contract, notice of lis pendens, copy of decree or other instrument affecting the title to, or creating a lien upon any real estate within his county, is filed in his office, immediately to write or stamp thereon a document number, which numbers shall be consecutive in the order of filing commencing with number one in each county, and following in the order of filing of the various documents; and priority of number shall be prima facie evidence of priority of filing; provided, that when such register of deeds shall receive by mail or other like inclosure more than one instrument at a time he shall affix such numbers in the consecutive order in which such instruments actually come to his hand on opening such inclosure save that when more than one instrument is received from the same source at the same time he may follow such directions, if any, as the sender may give in such numbering. [R. C. 1905, § 2456; R. C. 1895, § 1958.]

§ 3337. Reception book to be kept. There shall be provided by the county commissioners of each county in the state in the same manner that other record books are provided a book for use in the office of the register of deeds to be known as the reception book, in which shall be entered, immediately after numbering, all documents and papers enumerated in the last section and such book shall be ruled in parallel columns showing, in the first column at the left hand side of the page, the document number; in the second column, the date of filing; in the third column, the grantor; in the fourth column, the grantee; in the fifth column, the character of the instrument; in the sixth, the book and page where recorded; in the seventh, to whom delivered; and in the last column at the right, a brief description of the property, if any, described therein, and such books shall be a part of the public records of the office and open to public inspection during office hours. [R. C. 1905, § 2457; R. C. 1895, § 1959.]

§ 3338. Duty of register of deeds. When such instruments are numbered and entered in the reception book and indexed, they shall be recorded or filed as now provided by law and it shall be the duty of the register of deeds to write or stamp, or cause to have written or stamped at the beginning of the record thereof, if recorded, the words "document number" and add thereto the number stamped or written on such document and to add, immediately after the record of such instrument, a certificate setting forth that the same was filed in his office, giving the date and hour as now provided by law, which certificate he shall authenticate with his official signature, but to which he need not affix his official seal. [R. C. 1905, § 2458; R. C. 1895, § 1960.]

§ 3340. Chattel mortgages excluded. The last four sections shall not be construed to extend to or cover the filing and indexing of chattel mortgages as now provided by law. [R. C. 1905, § 2460; R. C. 1895, § 1962.]

ARTICLE 13.—COUNTY TREASURER.

§ 3341. Duties of. It shall be the duty of the county treasurer to receive all moneys belonging to the county from whatever source they may be derived and other moneys which by law are directed to be paid to him, and all moneys received by him for the use of the county shall be paid out by him only on the warrant of the board of county commissioners drawn according to law, except as otherwise specially provided, and all other moneys shall be paid over by him as provided by law. [R. C. 1905, § 2461; R. C. 1895, § 1963.]

§ 3342. Method and publicity of accounts. He shall be the collector of taxes and shall be charged with the amount of all tax lists in his hands for collection, and credited with the amounts collected thereon, and the delinquent list, and shall keep a fair and accurate current account of the moneys by him received, showing the amount thereof, the time when, from whom and on what account received; also of all disbursements by him made showing the time when, to whom, on what account and the amount paid; and he shall so arrange his books that the amounts received and paid on account of each separate and distinct fund or appropriation shall be exhibited in separate and distinct columns and accounts, and he shall at all times exhibit such accounts, when desired, to the state, county or school officers entitled to examine the same, and shall at any time pay over the balance in his hands to the proper officer, upon receiving proper vouchers. [R. C. 1905, § 2462; R. C. 1895, § 1964.]

Stub from stub book in which notices of payment of license required to be given to party paying were detached was inadmissible to show period for which license money was paid. State v. Flagstad, 25 S. D. 337, 126 N. W. 585.

§ 3343. Board examines and settles accounts. The books, accounts and vouchers of the county treasurer and all moneys, warrants or orders remaining in the treasury shall at all times be subject to the inspection and examination of the board of county commissioners and at the regular meetings of the board in January and July of each year and at such other times as it may direct, he shall settle with the board his accounts as treasurer, and for that purpose shall exhibit to it all his books, accounts and moneys and all vouchers relating to the same to be audited and allowed, which vouchers shall be retained by the board as evidence of such settlement; and if found correct the account shall be so certified; if not, he shall be liable on his bond. [R. C. 1905, § 2463; R. C. 1895, § 1965.]

§ 3344. To insure county property. When directed by the board, he shall cause to be insured at the expense of the county any or all of the public buildings of the county and other property belonging to the same, in the name of the county or otherwise as the board may direct; and in case of the destruction or damage to the buildings or the property so insured, such treasurer shall demand and receive the moneys due on account of such insurance and pay the same into the county treasury, and such moneys shall be applied to the fund for rebuilding or restoring such buildings or property. [R. C. 1905, § 2464; R. C. 1895, § 1966.]

§ 3345. To certify abstracts. Fees. It shall be his duty to attach his certificate to each abstract of title to real estate of his county that may be presented to him for that purpose, which certificate shall show the amount of taxes due and unpaid against, or tax title affecting the land described in such abstract, as the same appears from the records in his office; and as compensation therefor he shall receive the sum of twenty-five cents for each abstract so certified, and for each failure or refusal to comply with the provisions of this article, he shall be liable to a fine of not exceeding one hundred dollars. [R. C. 1905, § 2465; 1887, ch. 1, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1967.]

§ 3346. Report to township clerks, when. The county treasurer of each county shall, between the fifth and twentieth days of February of each year, notify by mail the township clerk of each organized township in his county of the amount of money on hand in the county treasury belonging to the township on the fifth of February, the amount belonging to each fund being stated separately. He shall also between the fifteenth day of November and the first day of December of each year, mail a like notice to each township clerk stating the amount of money in the county treasury belonging to the township on the fifteenth day of November, the amount in each fund being stated separately. [R. C. 1905, § 2466; 1895, ch. 47, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1968.]

§ 3347. Statement of amount paid. Whenever the county treasurer pays or remits any township funds to a township treasurer he shall on the same day mail to the township clerk of such township a statement of the amount so paid or remitted, stating the amount belonging to each fund separately. [R. C. 1905, § 2467; 1895, ch. 47, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 1969.]

§ 3348. Township clerk to keep record. The township clerk shall make a record of the statements thus received from the county treasurer, and shall keep an account of the township funds in the same manner as is required of the township treasurer; and at the annual township meeting in March of each year the books of each officer shall be examined, compared and balanced. [R. C. 1905, § 2468; 1895, ch. 47, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 1970.]

§ 3349. Treasurer to keep warrant book, form of. Each county treasurer is required to keep a book called a "warrant book," in which he shall enter every county, road or other warrant or order paid by him, or received in payment of road or poll taxes, specifying the date at which the same was received and cancelled, from whom received, the payee or person in whose favor it was drawn, its number and date, the amount for which it was originally drawn, the total amount of indorsements or payments made thereon, the principal sum for which it was received, the interest allowed and the total amount for which it was received; and the treasurer shall keep his accounts of road warrants, receipts and orders by him received for and on account of taxes, separate and distinct from the warrants paid by him in cash, and in another and separate place he shall enter an account of all indorsements made on road warrants or orders in part payment thereof. Such warrant book shall be in the following form, to wit:

TREASURER'S WARRANT BOOK..... COUNTY, N. D.

Date.	From What Received.	Payee of Warrant.	Number of Warrant.	Date of—Amount—Warrant.	Indorsement.	Receipts.	Interest.

[R. C. 1905, § 2469; R. C. 1899, § 1292.]

§ 3350. Warrants, order of payment. All warrants upon the state treasurer, the treasurer of any county, or any municipal corporation therein, shall be paid in the order of their presentation therefor. [R. C. 1905, § 2470; R. C. 1899, § 1293.]

As to duty of city treasurer to register and pay warrants. Red River Valley Nat. Bank v. Fargo, 14 N. D. 88, 103 N. W. 390.

Paying out of taxes collected after issuance of warrant, will not prevent recovery. Shannon v. City of Huron, 9 S. D. 356, 69 N. W. 598.

Treasurer who fails to pay a warrant in the order of its registration is civilly liable upon his official bond. State v. Campbell, 7 S. D. 568, 64 N. W. 1125.

§ 3351. Warrant register, by whom kept. Form of. The state treasurer and the treasurer of every organized county, and every incorporated city or town therein, shall provide himself with and keep a warrant register, which register shall show in a column arranged for that purpose, the number and registered number, date and amount of each warrant presented, the particular fund upon which the same is drawn, the date of presentation, the name and address of the person in whose name the same is registered, and subsequent assignees, if furnished therewith, the date of payment when made, the amount of interest and the total amount paid thereon, with the date when notice to the person in whose name such warrant is registered, is mailed as hereinafter provided. [R. C. 1905, § 2471; R. C. 1899, § 1294.]

Limitation will not run on town warrants until funds are provided or time to provide has elapsed. Brannon v. White Lake Twp., 17 S. D. 83, 95 N. W. 284.

§ 3352. Registration of warrants. Paid in order of registration. It shall be the duty of every such treasurer to enter such warrant in his warrant register for payment in the order of presentation for registration, and upon every warrant so registered he shall indorse "registered for payment," with the date of such registration, and shall sign such indorsement; provided, that nothing in this chapter shall be construed to require the holder of any warrant to register the same, unless on presentation of the same to the treasurer for payment it shall be indorsed by him, "not paid for want of funds," and when so indorsed and registered it shall draw interest at seven per cent per annum from the date of such indorsement, but not otherwise. When the treasurer shall have received money belonging to any particular fund sufficient to pay the warrant against such fund, which by his warrant register appears to be next due and payable, such treasurer shall by mail immediately notify the person in whose name the same is registered, or his assignee, if notified of the assignment, and interest upon such warrant shall immediately cease. [R. C. 1905, § 2472; 1881, ch. 140, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 1295.]

Failure of treasurer to register warrant in the order of its presentation will not defeat recovery thereon. Freeman v. City of Huron, 10 S. D. 368, 73 N. W. 260.

Suit cannot be maintained on a township registered warrant until there are funds in treasurer's hands to pay. Statute of limitations does not begin to run until such time. Brannon v. White Lake Twp., 17 S. D. 83, 95 N. W. 284.

§ 3353. Cash book and register to be footed and closed annually. Penalty. Every such treasurer shall daily, as moneys are received, foot the several columns of his cash book and of his register, and carry the amounts forward, and at the close of each year, in case the amount of money received by such treasurer is insufficient to pay the warrants so registered, he shall close the account for that year, in such register, and shall carry forward the excess. Any such treasurer who shall fail regularly to enter upon his cash book the amounts so received, or who shall fail to keep his cash book footed from day to day, as required by this chapter, for the space of three days, shall forfeit, for each offense, the sum of one hundred dollars, to be recovered in a civil action on his official bond, by any person holding a warrant drawn on such treasurer. The cash book and register of every such treasurer shall at all times be open to the inspection of any person in whose name any warrant is registered and unpaid. [R. C. 1905, § 2473; R. C. 1899, § 1296.]

§ 3354. Failure to register warrants. Liability of treasurer. Any such treasurer who shall fail to register any warrant in the order of its presentation therefor, or shall fail to pay the same in the order of its registration shall be liable on his official bond to each and every person, the payment of whose warrant is thereby postponed, in the sum of three hundred dollars to be recovered in a civil action. [R. C. 1905, § 2474; R. C. 1899, § 1297.]

§ 3355. Dereliction of duty, penalty for. In the case of dereliction of duty on the part of any officer or person, required by law to perform any duty under the provisions of this chapter, in any county, such person shall thereby forfeit all pay and allowance that would otherwise be due him, and the county commissioners in such county, on receiving satisfactory evidence of such dereliction or failure to perform, as required by law, any duty enjoined by this chapter, shall refuse to pay such person or persons any sum whatever for such services. [R. C. 1905, § 2475; R. C. 1899, § 1299.]

§ 3356. Redemption of warrants. Duty of treasurer. Warrants marked "redeemed," when. When the county treasurer shall redeem any county warrants, or shall receive any road warrants in payment of taxes, on which any interest is due, he shall note on such warrants or orders the amount of interest paid by him thereon, and shall enter in his accounts the amount of such interest distinct from the principal. When the county treasurer of any county shall pay any warrants drawn on him by the board of county commissioners, or when he shall take or receive any warrant, or receipt in payment for any tax, he shall write on the face of each warrant, order or receipt, "redeemed," and the date of redemption, and shall sign his name thereto. [R. C. 1905, § 2476; R. C. 1899, § 1300.]

§ 3357. Indorsements of road warrants. When any person desiring to pay any taxes due and unpaid, shall present a warrant on the road fund of his road district, in payment for such taxes as it may be applied to, which shall exceed the amount that the treasurer is authorized to receive in such warrants in payment for such taxes, the treasurer shall indorse on the back of such warrant in part payment, the amount he is authorized by law to receive, and date the same; said treasurer shall take two receipts from the holder thereof for the amount so indorsed and paid, showing the date of the indorsement, a full description of such warrant, including the date thereof, to whom issued, the amount for which it was given, and all the indorsements, including registration, if registered; one of which receipts he shall, on the day received, file with the county auditor, and the other he shall retain as his voucher. [R. C. 1905, § 2477; R. C. 1899, § 1301.]

§ 3358. Partial payment of taxes and special assessments. How made. When any person shall desire to pay only a portion of the taxes or special assessments charged on any real property, such person shall pay a like proportion of the several taxes and special assessments charged thereon, and no person will be permitted to pay one of said taxes or special assessments without paying the others, except taxes and special assessments the collection of which shall have been enjoined by law. [1913, ch. 278; R. C. 1905, § 2478; R. C. 1899, § 1302.]

Owner of tax sale certificates may pay subsequent delinquent general taxes, without paying subsequent special assessments, and receipts for such taxes constitute additional lien. State ex rel. Moore v. Furstenuau, 20 N. D. 542, 129 N. W. 81.

§ 3359. County auditor to sue treasurer, when. If any county treasurer shall fail to make return, fail to make settlement, or fail to pay over all money with which he may stand charged, at the time and in the manner prescribed by law, it shall be the duty of the county auditor on receiving instructions for that purpose from the state auditor, or from the board of county commissioners of his county, to cause suit to be instituted against such treasurer and his sureties, or any of them. [R. C. 1905, § 2479; R. C. 1899, § 1303.]

§ 3360. Suit against delinquent treasurer. Commissioners may remove, when. Whenever suit shall have been commenced against any delinquent county treasurer, as aforesaid, the board of county commissioners of such county may, at their discretion, remove such treasurer from office and appoint some suitable person to fill the vacancy thereby created, as provided by law. [R. C. 1905, § 2480; R. C. 1899, § 1304.]

§ 3361. Additional bond may be required, when. The board of county commissioners of any county may require the treasurer to give an additional bond, whenever in the opinion of a majority of said commissioners the existing security shall have become insufficient; and the commissioners are also authorized and empowered to demand and receive from said county treasurer an additional bond, as required by law, with good and sufficient freehold security, in such sum as said commissioners or a majority of them may direct, whenever in their opinion, more money shall have passed or is about to pass into the hands of said treasurer than is or would be recovered by the penalty in the previous bond; but the giving of such additional bond or bonds, as provided in this section, shall not invalidate any previous bond or bonds, nor discharge the sureties from any liability thereon. If any county treasurer shall fail or refuse to give such additional bond, for and during the time of ten days from and after the day on which said commissioners shall have required said treasurer so to do, his office shall be considered vacant and another treasurer shall be appointed, agreeably to the provisions of law. [R. C. 1905, § 2481; R. C. 1899, § 1305.]

§ 3362. Treasurer not to speculate in county warrants. Penalty for. No county treasurer shall either directly or indirectly contract for or purchase any warrant or warrants, or other evidence of indebtedness issued by the county of which he is treasurer, at any discount whatever upon the sum due on such warrant or warrants, or other evidence of indebtedness; and if any county treasurer shall so contract for or purchase any warrant or warrants, or other evidence of indebtedness, he shall not be allowed, in settlement, the amount of said warrant or warrants, or other evidence of indebtedness, or any part thereof, and shall also forfeit the whole amount due on such warrant or evidence of indebtedness, to be recovered by civil action at the suit of the state of North Dakota, for the use of the county. [R. C. 1905, § 2482; R. C. 1899, § 1306.]

§ 3363. Treasurer not credited with interest paid, when. The county treasurer, on his settlement with the county commissioners, shall not be credited with any sum for interest paid on any warrant or order, unless he shall, at the time of receiving the same, have noted thereon the amount of interest due thereon. [R. C. 1905, § 2483; R. C. 1899, § 1307.]

§ 3364. Loaning county funds, penalty for. If any county treasurer shall loan any money belonging to his county, with or without interest, or shall use the same for his own purposes, he shall forfeit and pay for every such offense a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars nor less than one hundred dollars to be recovered in an action at law, at the suit of the state of North Dakota, for the use of the county. [R. C. 1905, § 2484; R. C. 1899, § 1308.]

§ 3365. Auditor and treasurer jointly to make annual statement. Publication. The county auditor and county treasurer conjointly shall make out annually a detailed exhibit, showing the receipts and disbursements of the county for the fiscal year; also the assets and liabilities at the time of making out the same. Said exhibits shall show the amount of all orders on the treasury issued during the year next preceding, to whom allowed, and on what account; also the liabilities of the county stated in detail, and the assets of every kind, as nearly as may be; showing also the amount of funds in the treasury at the time of making said exhibit, on what account paid in and in the kind of funds. Said exhibit shall be made out annually up to and including the thirty-first day of December, and filed with the county auditor, and a copy posted upon the same day in the office of the treasurer. Provided, that such auditor and treasurer shall not receive their December salary until such report has been made, filed and posted. [1913, ch. 112; R. C. 1905, § 2485; R. C. 1899, § 1309.]

ARTICLE 14.—COUNTY AUDITOR.

§ 3366. Clerk of board of county commissioners. The county auditor shall by virtue of his office be clerk of the board of county commissioners of his county and he shall keep an accurate record of its official proceedings and carefully preserve all the documents, books, records, maps and other papers required to be deposited or kept in his office, and prepare a financial statement of the county annually, unless otherwise ordered by the board, and carefully do and perform all other acts and duties required by law. [R. C. 1905, § 2486; 1887, ch. 10, § 4; R. C. 1899, § 1971.]

Mandamus lies to compel supervisors to enter their findings on their records. State ex rel. Andrews v. Boyden, 18 S. D. 388, 100 N. W. 763.

Writ of certiorari should be directed to board of county commissioners and not to the auditor. State ex rel. Lindsay v. Boyden, 18 S. D. 379, 100 N. W. 761.

§ 3367. To keep account current with treasurer. He shall keep an accurate account current with the treasurer of his county, and when any person shall deposit with him any receipt given by the treasurer for money paid into the treasury, he shall file such receipt in his office and charge the treasurer with the amount thereof. [R. C. 1905, § 2487; 1887, ch. 10, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 1972.]

§ 3368. To deliver moneys and records to successor. On going out of office he shall deliver up to his successor in office all the moneys, books, records, documents, maps, papers, vouchers and other property in his hands belonging to the county, and in case of his death his personal representatives shall in like manner deliver the same to his successor as aforesaid. [R. C. 1905, § 2488; 1887, ch. 10, § 6; R. C. 1899, § 1973.]

§ 3369. To draw all county warrants. He shall draw warrants on the county treasurer in favor of all persons entitled thereto in payment of all claims and demands chargeable against the county which have been legally examined, allowed and ordered paid by the board of county commissioners; also, for all debts and demands against the county when the amounts are fixed by law, and which are not directed to be audited by some other person or tribunal. All warrants must distinctly specify the liability for which they are drawn and when it accrued. [R. C. 1905, § 2489; 1887, ch. 10, § 7; R. C. 1895, § 1974.]

Warrants nonnegotiable instruments, and the rule relating to innocent purchasers does not apply. Erskine v. Steele County, 4 N. D. 339, 60 N. W. 1050.

The law-making powers of the state did not grant to county commissioners unrestricted authority as to county funds. Auditor must draw warrants; chairman county commissioners signs them. State v. Ryan, 9 N. D. 419, 83 N. W. 865.

Issuance of warrants a ministerial act controlled by mandamus. State ex rel. Wiles v. Albright, 11 N. D. 22, 88 N. W. 729.

§ 3370. Warrants consecutively numbered and registered. All warrants issued by the county auditor during each year, commencing with the first Monday in January, must be numbered consecutively and the number, date and amount of each and the name of the person to whom payable and the purpose for which drawn, must be stated therein and they must at the time they are issued be registered by him in a book kept for that purpose. [R. C. 1905, § 2490; 1887, ch. 10, § 7; R. C. 1895, § 1975.]

§ 3371. Reception book provided. There shall be provided by the board of county commissioners of each county in the state, in the same manner that other record books are provided, a book for use in the office of the county auditor to be known as the "reception book," in which shall be entered, immediately after numbering, all documents, bonds and other papers required by law to be deposited in the office of the county auditor. Such book shall be ruled in parallel columns, showing in the first column at the left hand side of the page the document number, in the second column the date of filing, in the third column the character of the instrument, and in the fourth column miscellaneous remarks. [1907, ch. 71, § 1.]

§ 3372. Duty of county auditor. It is hereby made the duty of each county auditor in the state to immediately upon receipt of any document, bond or other paper required to be filed in his office, number the same, and to make the proper entries in the reception book, and index the same. He shall also cause to be recorded at length in the office of the register of deeds all bonds that are required by law to be deposited in his office. [1907, ch. 71, § 2.]

§ 3373. General duties. He shall do, perform and transact all county business without any extra or greater compensation than is allowed by law; and shall keep all the books required to be kept by the county commissioners; shall file and preserve in his office all accounts, vouchers and other papers pertaining to the settlement of any and all accounts to which the county shall be a party, copies of which, certified under the hand and seal of the auditor, shall be admitted as evidence in all courts in this state. [R. C. 1905, § 2491; R. C. 1899, § 1976.]

§ 3374. Election duties. He shall perform all the duties required of him by law relative to the making out and delivering notices of general and special elections, making abstracts of and canvassing the votes cast at any such election, issuing certificates of election and forwarding the abstracts of votes cast at such elections to the secretary of state; and whenever the county commissioners for any cause shall fail or refuse to call special elections, the county auditor shall have authority to provide for and call any such election upon the petition of a majority of the legal voters of the county, to be determined by the poll lists of the preceding general election. [R. C. 1905, § 2492; 1881, ch. 73, § 1; R. C. 1895, § 1977.]

§ 3375. Liability of auditor. If any county auditor fails to make settlement or pay over any moneys with which he stands charged at the time and in the manner prescribed by law or misapplies any money which comes into his possession in the discharge of his official duties, the county commissioners shall commence an action against him and his sureties in the district court of such county, and he shall be proceeded against as provided by law in other cases. In case of suspension under the provisions of this section, such auditor, if restored to office, shall not be deprived of his salary during the time of such suspension and the reasonable expenses of his defense upon such hearing shall be paid by the county. If upon the trial of such action such auditor is adjudged guilty of any neglect of duty, his office shall be deemed vacant. [R. C. 1905, § 2493; 1887, ch. 10, § 11; R. C. 1899, § 1978.]

ARTICLE 15.—STATE'S ATTORNEY.

§ 3376. Duties of state's attorney. The state's attorney is the public prosecutor, and must:

1. Attend the district court and conduct on behalf of the state all prosecutions for public offenses.

2. Institute proceedings before magistrates for the arrest of persons charged with or reasonably suspected of public offenses, when he has information that such offenses have been committed and for that purpose, when not engaged in criminal proceedings in the district court, must attend upon the magistrates in cases of arrest, when required by them, except in cases of assault and battery and petit larceny, and attend before, and give advice to, the grand jury whenever cases are presented to them for their consideration.

3. Draw all indictments and informations, defend all suits brought against the state or his county, prosecute all bonds forfeited in the courts of record and all actions for the recovery of debts, fines, penalties and forfeitures accruing to the state or his county.

4. Deliver receipts for money or property received in his official capacity, and file duplicate receipts therefor with the county auditor.

5. On the first Mondays of January, April, July and October in each year, file with the county auditor an account, verified by his oath, of all moneys received by him in his official capacity during the preceding three months and at the same time pay it over to the county treasurer.

6. Give when required, and without fee, his opinion in writing to the county, district, township and school district officers, on matters relating to the duties of their respective offices.

7. Keep a register of all official business, in which must be entered a note of each action, whether civil or criminal, prosecuted officially, and of the proceedings therein.

8. Make a written report to the attorney-general, on the first day of each month, of all proceedings instituted or pending in his county in any court, other than justice courts, wherein the state is a party or is interested; which reports shall give the title of the case, the date when commenced, the purpose of the action, the proceedings had and taken therein, and the final disposition of such cases.

9. It is the intention of this article to make the attorney-general, his assistants and the state's attorney the only public prosecutors in all cases civil and criminal, wherein the state, or county, is a party to the action, and that they only shall be authorized and empowered to perform the duties herein set forth, except as hereinafter provided. The attorney-general or his assistants are authorized to institute and prosecute any cases in which the state is a party whenever in their judgment it would be to the best interests of the state so to do, and in case the state's attorney of any county refuses or neglects to perform any of the duties prescribed in subdivisions 2 and 3 of this section, after it has been properly brought to his attention, or when he has information that a public offense has been committed, or that a civil suit in which the state is a party, should be instituted and the fact of such refusal or neglect to perform such duty, and that the action is one that should be prosecuted, has been brought before the judge of the district court in the judicial district having jurisdiction of such action, by affidavit or otherwise, and said judge is satisfied that such action should be prosecuted, and that said state's attorney has failed or neglected to perform his duty, then in that case, he shall request the attorney-general or an assistant attorney-general to take charge of such prosecution, or he shall appoint, by an order to be entered upon the minutes of the court, some suitable person, an attorney-at-law, and the person so appointed shall thereupon be vested with all the powers of such state's attorney for that action, but for no other purpose, and the district court shall by order, to be entered in the minutes of the court, fix his fee therefor, which amount shall be allowed by the board of county commissioners and which amount, if so ordered by the court, shall be deducted from the salary of the state's attorney and the person so appointed shall be the only person authorized to proceed therein; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the county commissioners of any county, in cases of public importance and with the advice and consent of the state's attorney, employing such additional counsel as may be deemed advisable, to assist the state's attorney, upon such compensation as may be agreed upon; provided, further, that the provisions of this article shall not be construed so as to abridge any of the powers conferred upon the attorney-general, his assistants or the state's attorney, or to relieve them from the infliction of any punishment, fine or forfeiture, for neglect of duty, as prescribed by the provisions of chapter 83 of the penal code, commonly known as the prohibition law.

10. He is the legal adviser of the board of county commissioners. He must attend their meetings when required, and must oppose all claims and accounts presented against the county which are unjust or illegal.

11. If the board of county commissioners without authority of law orders any money paid as a salary, fees or for any other purpose, and such money has been actually paid, or if any other county officer has drawn any warrant in his own favor or in favor of any other person, without being authorized by the board of county commissioners, or by law, and the same has been paid, the state's attorney is empowered, and it is his duty to institute an action in the name of the county against such person to recover the money so paid, and no order of the board of county commissioners therefor is necessary to maintain such action; but when the money has not been paid on such order or warrants, it is the duty of the state's attorney upon receiving notice thereof, to commence an action in the name of the county to restrain the payment of the same, and no order of the board of county commissioners is necessary to maintain such action.

12. The state's attorney, except for his own services, must not present any claim, account or other demand for allowance against the county, nor in any way advocate the relief asked on the claim or demand made by another.

13. He shall not receive any fee or reward from or on behalf of any prosecutor or other individual for services in any prosecution or business to which it shall be his official duty to attend, nor be concerned as attorney or counselor for either party, other than for the state or county, in any civil action depending on a state of facts upon which any criminal prosecution then pending shall depend; nor shall any state's attorney be eligible to or hold any judicial office whatever. When required to go to any other county or from one part to another part of his county to transact any official business as such state's attorney, he shall be entitled to receive from his county the amount of his actual and necessary expenses in transacting such business, in addition to the salary fixed by law, which expenses shall be audited and paid by the board of county commissioners as other county expenses are audited and paid. [R. C. 1905, § 2494; R. C. 1895, §§ 1979, 1983; 1901, ch. 178.]

§ 3377. To receipt for public moneys. It shall be his duty, whenever he shall receive any moneys from fines, penalties or costs, to deliver to the officer or person paying the same duplicate receipts, one of which shall be filed by such officer or person in the office of the county treasurer. [R. C. 1905, § 2495; 1883, ch. 43, § 8; R. C. 1899, § 1984.]

§ 3378. Penalty for failure to pay over moneys. Whenever such state's attorney shall refuse or neglect to account for or pay over the moneys so received by him as required by law, he shall be liable to a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than two hundred dollars, and it shall be the duty of the county treasurer to cause an action to be instituted upon the bond of such state's attorney for the recovery of the moneys so received and unpaid by him. [R. C. 1905, § 2496; 1883, ch. 43, § 10; R. C. 1895, § 1985.]

§ 3379. Court may appoint state's attorney, when and how. In judicial districts in this state, containing unorganized counties or territory, the district court shall have the power to appoint a state's attorney for such unorganized counties or territory, said attorney, when so appointed, to be the prosecuting officer for offenses arising within said unorganized counties or territory. The said court, whenever there shall be no state's attorney for an organized county, or when the state's attorney is absent or unable to attend to his duties, may, when necessary, appoint, by an order to be entered in the minutes of the court, some suitable person, an attorney at law, to perform for the time being the duties required by law to be performed by the state's attorney, and the person so appointed shall thereupon be vested with all the powers of such state's attorney for that purpose; and the district court shall, by order, to be entered in the minutes of the court, fix his fee therefor, which amount shall be allowed by the board of county commissioners, and which amount shall be deducted from the salary of the state's attorney. Nothing in this section shall be so construed as to give the court the power permanently to fill vacancies in such office in organized counties, but such power is vested in the board of county commissioners, as elsewhere provided in this code. [R. C. 1905, § 2497; 1883, ch. 43, § 7; 1889, ch. 59, § 1; R. C. 1895, § 1986; 1903, ch. 179.]

ARTICLE 16.—CONTINGENT FUND FOR STATE'S ATTORNEY.

§ 3382. County commissioners appropriate money. The county commissioners of each county in this state are hereby authorized and directed to set apart at their first meeting in January of each year, from any funds then in the county treasury not specifically appropriated or set aside for any other purposes, in an amount to be fixed by said board of county commissioners, a sum of money not less than one hundred dollars and not more than one thousand dollars, to be used by the state's attorney of such county as a contingent fund for the purpose of defraying such necessary expenses as are not otherwise specifically provided for in the trial and preparation for trial of criminal cases, and in the payment of such necessary expenses as are not otherwise provided for in securing evidence in the investigation of criminal cases. [1907, ch. 76, § 1.]

Section 7 of the act of 1907, of which act the foregoing is § 1, provided as follows: "During the year of 1907 the expenses mentioned in section one of this act shall be paid in the manner provided for herein, from any funds in the county treasury not specifically appropriated or set aside for other purposes."

§ 3383. State's attorney may use funds. The state's attorney of each county, by and with the consent and approval first had and obtained of the district court or any judge thereof in and for his county, is hereby authorized and empowered to incur the expenses specified in section 1 of this act, so far as is necessary, to the amount annually appropriated by said board of county commissioners for said purpose. [1907, ch. 76, § 2.]

§ 3384. Auditor draws warrant. All disbursements from said fund shall be made in the usual manner by the county treasurer of each county upon the warrant of the auditor of each county, which auditor's warrant shall be executed and delivered in an amount and to the person designated by the order of the state's attorney, countersigned by the judge of the district court for that county. [1907, ch. 76, § 3.]

§ 3385. Approval district judge required. Before any approval shall be indorsed upon any such order of any state's attorney so applying for the same, it shall be the duty of said state's attorney to present to said judge of the district court an itemized and detailed statement of the expenses for the payment of which he then makes application, and which statement shall be verified in the usual manner provided for the verification of claims against the counties in this state. [1907, ch. 76, § 4.]

§ 3386. Verified expense account. Immediately upon such judge of the district court affixing his signature to said order of the state's attorney, said judge, if in his opinion the public interest will not be prejudiced thereby, and if he be of the opinion that the public interest will be prejudiced thereby, then as much as the public interest will permit, shall file in the office of the county auditor of the county on which said order is drawn said itemized and verified statement so made by said state's attorney. [1907, ch. 76, § 5.]

§ 3386a. Unexpended balance. Any sum remaining in said fund on the thirty-first day of December of each year shall then be transferred by the county auditor to the general county revenue fund of said county. [1909, ch. 69; 1907, ch. 76, § 6.]

ARTICLE 17.—CLERK OF DISTRICT COURT.

§ 3387. Duties of. The clerk of the district court shall perform the following duties:

1. Take charge of and safely keep and dispose of according to law all books, papers and records which may be filed or deposited in his office.

2. Act as clerk of the district court and attend each session thereof and upon the judge at chambers when required.

3. Issue all process and notices required to be issued; enter all orders and judgments proper to be entered; keep in his office a register of all actions, which must state the names of the attorneys and all fees charged therein and such other matters as are required by law.

4. Keep for the district court in separate volumes an index of all suits, labeled "General Index — Plaintiffs," each page of which must be divided into seven columns, under their respective heads alphabetically arranged as follows, "Number of action," "plaintiffs," "defendants," "date of judgment," "number of judgment," "page of entry of judgment in judgment book," "page of minute book of district court;" also an index labeled "General Index — Defendants," each page of which must be divided into seven columns as above provided.

5. Keep a minute book, which must contain the daily proceedings of the court, which must be signed by the clerk, which book must be indexed in the names of both plaintiff and defendant.

6. Keep two books, in one of which must be entered in alphabetical order the names of all persons who from the organization of the court have declared, or who may hereafter declare their intention to become citizens of the United States, and the date of such declaration, which book must be labeled "declaration of intention to become citizens of the United States," and in the other of which must be entered in alphabetical order the names of all persons who have been or may be hereafter admitted citizens of the United States by the court of which he is clerk, which book must be labeled "naturalization, final papers," and enter in a separate column, opposite each name, the country of which such person was before a citizen or subject, the date of his admission and the page of the minute book or book of record containing the order admitting him a citizen.

7. Keep a book called "register of criminal actions," in which must be entered the title and number of the action, with a memorandum of each paper filed, order or proceeding had therein, with the date thereof, and the name of each witness, number of days in attendance and his legal fees, with a proper index to the same.

8. Keep a book called "book of jurors' certificates," in which must be contained the blank certificates and stubs to be filled, as provided in this code.

9. Keep a "witness book," in which must be contained blank certificates and stubs, to be filled as provided in this code.

10. Keep a record of the attendance of all jurors, and of witnesses in criminal actions and compute the mileage of each.

11. Keep such other records and perform such other duties as are prescribed by law. [R. C. 1905, § 2500; R. C. 1895, § 1989.]

As to similar provision in Cal. Pol. Code, § 4180, see Alexander v. Wilson, 144 Cal. 5, 77 Pac. 706.

§ 3395. Liability for failure to pay over money. If he neglects or refuses to pay over on demand to the person entitled thereto any money which may come into his hands by virtue of his office, after deducting his legal fees, the amount thereof with twenty-five per cent damages and interest at the rate of ten per cent per month from the time of demand may be recovered by such person. [R. C. 1905, § 2508; R. C. 1895, § 1997.]

As to similar provision in Cal. Pol. Code, § 4181, see Shumway v. Leakey, 73 Cal. 260, 14 Pac. 841.

§ 3396. Liability for escapes and rescues. A sheriff who suffers the escape of a person arrested in a civil action, without the consent or connivance of the party in whose behalf the arrest or imprisonment was made, is liable as follows:

1. When the arrest is upon an order to hold to bail or upon a surrender in exoneration of bail before judgment, he is liable to the plaintiff as bail.

2. When the arrest is on an execution or commitment to enforce the payment of money, he is liable for the amount expressed in the execution or commitment.

3. When the arrest is on an execution or commitment, other than to enforce the payment of money, he is liable for the actual damages sustained.

Upon being sued for damages for an escape or rescue he may introduce evidence in mitigation or exculpation. He is liable for a rescue of a person arrested in a civil action equally as for an escape. [R. C. 1905, § 2509; R. C. 1895, §§ 1998, 1999.]

§ 3397. Action, when cannot be maintained against. An action cannot be maintained against the sheriff for a rescue, or for an escape of a person arrested upon an execution or commitment, if, after his rescue or escape and before the commencement of the action, the prisoner returns to the jail or is retaken by the sheriff. [R. C. 1905, § 2510; R. C. 1895, § 2000.]

§ 3398. Office, when vacant. When the sheriff is committed under an execution or commitment for not paying over money received by him by virtue of his office and remains committed for sixty days, his office shall become vacant. [R. C. 1905, § 2511; R. C. 1895, § 2001.]

Wilson*, 144 Cal. 5, 77 Pac. 706.

§ 3400. To exhibit process. The officer executing such process must at all times, so long as he retains it, upon request, show the same with all papers attached to any person interested therein. [R. C. 1905, § 2513; R. C. 1895, § 2003.]

§ 3401. To open and adjourn court. The sheriff in attendance upon court must act as the crier thereof and make proclamation of the opening and adjournment of the court and of any other matter under its direction. [R. C. 1905, § 2514; R. C. 1895, § 2004.]

§ 3402. Service of papers on sheriff, how made. Service of a paper, other than a process, may be made upon the sheriff by delivering it to him or to one of his deputies, or to a person in charge of the office during office hours, or, if no such person is there, by leaving it in a conspicuous place in the office. [R. C. 1905, § 2515; R. C. 1895, § 2005.]

§ 3403. Coroner or constable to execute process, when. In all actions or proceedings where the sheriff of any county in this state is, or hereafter may be, a party to any action or proceeding by virtue of his office, it shall be lawful for the coroner or any constable of the county of which such sheriff is an officer to serve all necessary process on such sheriff, and then make return thereon. [R. C. 1905, § 2516; R. C. 1895, § 2006; 1905, ch. 93.]

ARTICLE 19.—CORONER.

§ 3405. Coroner to act as sheriff, when. When there shall be no sheriff or deputy sheriff in any organized county, it shall be the duty of the coroner in such county to exercise all the powers and duties of that office until the same shall be filled as provided by law; and when the sheriff is committed to jail or otherwise disqualified the coroner shall be the keeper of the jail and perform the duties of sheriff during the continuance thereof. When the sheriff is sued the coroner shall serve the papers on him if required, and his return on all papers served by him shall have the same credit as the sheriff's return; and he shall receive the same fees as the sheriff for like service. [R. C. 1905, § 2518; R. C. 1899, § 2008.]

§ 3406. To hold inquests. The coroner shall hold an inquest upon the dead bodies of such persons only as are supposed to have died by unlawful means, except as otherwise specially provided. When he has notice of the dead body of a person supposed to have died by unlawful means found or being in his county, he is required to issue his warrant to the sheriff or any constable of his county, requiring him to summon forthwith three electors, having the qualifications of jurors of the county, to appear before the coroner at the time and place named in the warrant, or when the services of such sheriff or constable cannot conveniently be procured, then the coroner may summon such electors from the bystanders. [R. C. 1905, § 2519; 1881, ch. 55, § 1; R. C. 1895, § 2009.]

When coroner's inquest necessary or proper. 21 L.R.A. 394.

§ 3407. Warrant, form of. The warrant may be in substance as follows:

State of North Dakota, }
County of } ss.:

To the sheriff or any constable of said county:

You are hereby required to summon forthwith three electors, having the qualifications of jurors of your county, to appear before me at (name the place) at (name the day and hour or say forthwith), then and there to hold an inquest on the dead body of there lying and find by what means he died.

Witness my hand this day of 19....

Coroner.

§ 3408. Completing jury and oath. If any juror fails to appear the coroner shall cause the proper number to be summoned from the bystanders and immediately proceed to empanel them and administer the following oath in substance: You do solemnly swear (or affirm) that you will diligently inquire and true presentment make, when, how and by what means the person whose body here lies dead came to his death, according to your knowledge and the evidence given you. [R. C. 1905, § 2521; R. C. 1899, § 2011.]

§ 3409. Subpoenas for witnesses. Contempts. The coroner may issue subpoenas within his county for witnesses, returnable forthwith or at such time and place as he shall direct, and witnesses shall be allowed the same fees as in cases before a justice of the peace, and the coroner has the same authority to enforce the attendance of witnesses and to punish them and jurors for contempt in disobeying his process, as a justice of the peace has when his process issues in behalf of the state. [R. C. 1905, § 2522; R. C. 1899, § 2012.]

§ 3410. Oath to witnesses. An oath shall be administered to the witnesses, in substance as follows:

You do solemnly swear that the testimony which you shall give to this inquest concerning the death of the person here lying dead shall be the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth. So help you God. [R. C. 1905, § 2523; R. C. 1899, § 2013.]

§ 3411. Return by jury. Form. The jurors having inspected the body, heard the testimony and made all needful inquiries, shall return to the coroner their inquisition in writing under their hands, in substance as follows, and stating the matters in the following form suggested, as far as found:

State of North Dakota, }
 County of }ss.:

An inquisition held at in county, state aforesaid, on the day of, A. D., 19.., before, coroner of such county, upon the body of (or person unknown) there lying dead, by the jurors whose names are hereto subscribed. The said jurors upon their oaths do say (here state when, how, by what person, means, weapon, or accident, he came to his death, and whether feloniously).

In testimony whereof, said jurors have hereunto set their hands the day and year aforesaid.

Such inquisition shall be attested by the coroner. [R. C. 1905, § 2524; R. C. 1899, § 2014.]

§ 3412. Not to disclose name of accused. If at such inquisition it is found that a crime has been committed on the deceased, the name of the person whom the jury believe has committed it shall not be made public until after the arrest directed in the next section. [R. C. 1905, § 2525; R. C. 1895, § 2015.]

§ 3413. May order arrest. If the person charged is present the coroner may order his arrest by an officer or any other person present, and shall then make a warrant requiring the officer or other person to take him before a justice of the peace. If the person charged is not present, and the coroner believes he can be taken, the coroner may issue a warrant to the sheriff and constables of the county, requiring them to arrest the person and take him before a justice of the peace. [R. C. 1905, § 2526; R. C. 1899, § 2016.]

§ 3414. Warrant returnable to a justice of the peace. The warrant of the coroner in such case shall be of equal authority with that of a justice of the peace, and when the person charged is brought before the justice, the same proceedings shall be had as in other cases under a complaint, and he shall be dealt with as a person under a complaint in the usual form in criminal cases. [R. C. 1905, § 2527; R. C. 1899, § 2017.]

§ 3415. Warrant to recite verdict. The warrant of the coroner shall recite substantially the transactions before him and the verdict of the jury leading to the arrest, and such warrant shall be sufficient foundation for the proceedings of the justice. [R. C. 1905, § 2528; R. C. 1899, § 2018.]

§ 3416. Testimony reduced to writing. The testimony of all witnesses examined before the coroner's jury must be reduced to writing by the coroner or under his direction, and be subscribed by the witnesses respectively, and the coroner shall forthwith file such testimony together with a record of all proceedings had before him, in the office of the clerk of the district court of the county wherein such inquest is held. In all cases brought to the attention of the coroner wherein he does not deem it necessary to hold an inquest he shall file with such clerk a certificate setting forth the facts in relation thereto. The clerk of said district court shall forthwith duly file, index and enter such case or proceeding in a book or books to be kept for that purpose, in the same manner as proceedings in civil actions are now entered, and shall receive from the treasury of said county the same fees as are now allowed by law for like services, and he shall index and enter in the manner above described all the proceedings of the coroner that have heretofore at any time been filed in his office. [R. C. 1905, § 2529; 1895, ch. 37, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 2019.]

Admissibility of coroners' inquests as evidence. 95 Am. St. Rep. 763.

Admissibility of finding of coroners to show cause of death. 63 L.R.A. 285.

§ 3417. Disposition of body. Payment of expenses. The coroner shall cause the body of each deceased person, which he is called to view, to be delivered to his friends, if any, but if there are no friends, he shall cause such body to be decently buried, and the expenses thereof shall be paid from the county treasury and the county shall be reimbursed therefor out of any property found with his body. The coroner shall certify an account of such expenses to the county auditor and the board of county commissioners shall allow the same if deemed reasonable and direct a warrant to issue therefor. [R. C. 1905, § 2530; R. C. 1895, § 2020.]

§ 3418. Justice may act as coroner, when. When there is no coroner, or in case of his absence or inability to act, any justice of the peace of the county is authorized to perform the duties of coroner in relation to dead bodies, and in such case he may cause the person charged to be brought before him by his warrant, and may proceed with him as a justice of the peace. [R. C. 1905, § 2531; R. C. 1899, § 2021.]

§ 3419. Physicians summoned as experts, when. In the above inquisition by a coroner, when he or the jury deem it requisite, he may summon one or more physicians or surgeons to make a scientific examination, and shall allow in such case a reasonable compensation, instead of witness fees. [R. C. 1905, § 2532; R. C. 1899, § 2022.]

§ 3420. Disposition of property found on body. The coroner must, within thirty days after an inquest upon a dead body, deliver to the county treasurer any money or other property which may be found upon the body, unless claimed in the meantime by the legal representative of the deceased. If he fails to do so the treasurer may proceed against him for its recovery by a civil action in the name of the county. [R. C. 1905, § 2533; R. C. 1899, § 2023.]

§ 3421. Treasurer's duty with money and property. Upon the delivery of money to the treasurer he must place it to the credit of the county. If it is other property he must within thirty days sell it at public auction upon reasonable public notice and must in like manner place the proceeds to the credit of the county. [R. C. 1905, § 2534; R. C. 1899, § 2024.]

§ 3422. Money, when and how paid. If the money in the treasury is demanded within six years by the legal representatives of the deceased, the treasurer must pay it to them after deducting the fees and expenses of the coroner and of the county in relation to the matter; or it may be paid at any time thereafter upon the order of the board of county commissioners. [R. C. 1905, § 2535; R. C. 1899, § 2025.]

§ 3423. Statement by coroner. Before auditing and allowing the account of the coroner, the board of county commissioners must require him to render a statement in writing of any money or other property found upon persons on whom inquests have been held by him, verified by his oath, to the effect that the statement is true, and that the money or property mentioned in it has been delivered to the legal representatives of the deceased or to the county treasurer. [R. C. 1905, § 2536; R. C. 1899, § 2026.]

§ 3424. To perform all lawful duties. The coroner must perform such other duties as may be prescribed by law. [R. C. 1905, § 2537; R. C. 1895, § 2027.]

ARTICLE 20.—COUNTY SURVEYOR.

The following sections 3425-3437 constitute Laws 1907, ch. 72. The heading of that chapter is "County Surveyor," and the title reads as follows: "An act providing for the election of county surveyor and prescribing his duties and the manner in which his records shall be kept, and authorizing the board of county commissioners and the board of township supervisors to make surveys, and authorizing and prescribing the manner for the payment of the expenses incurred therein." The chapter concludes with the usual section repealing all acts and parts of acts in conflict therewith. It manifestly supersedes some provisions in "Article 19.—County Surveyor," in the Revised Codes of 1905 (§§ 2538-2544), but other provisions in that article not so clearly superseded in their entirety are retained herein as sections 3437a-3437f.

Election of county surveyor, see section 3257.

§ 3425. Elected. Bond. There shall be elected at the general election of each organized county in the state for the term of two years a county surveyor, who shall give bond to the people of this state in the penal sum of not to exceed two thousand dollars, the amount to be fixed by the board of county commissioners, either with two sureties, who must justify as sureties are required to justify in arrest and bail, or by an indemnity bond of some reputable company to be approved by the board of county commissioners, the same to be filed with the county auditor of the proper county, conditioned for the faithful and impartial discharge of the duties of his office. [1907, ch. 72, § 1.]

Duty to survey public roads when directed by county commissioners. Van Antwerp v. Dell Rapids Twp., 3 S. D. 305, 53 N. W. 82.

§ 3426. Deputies. Each county surveyor may appoint one or more deputies and revoke such appointment at pleasure, which appointment and revocation shall be in writing, under his hand, and filed with the clerk of court, and such deputies shall take the constitutional oath of office; and for the faithful performance of the duties of their office by such deputies the said surveyor and his sureties shall be responsible. [1907, ch. 72, § 2.]

§ 3427. Certificate evidence. The certificate of the surveyor or his deputy, of any survey made by him of any lands in the county, shall be presumptive evidence of the facts therein contained unless such surveyor or his deputy shall be interested therein. [1907, ch. 72, § 3.]

§ 3428. Surveys presumptively correct. The county surveyor or his deputies shall make in a good and professional manner all surveys of land within the county which they may be called upon by the owner thereof or his representative or directed by the district or county courts, the board of county commissioners or the board of township supervisors to make; and also all lands, tracts or lots owned by the county, and public roads, when so directed by said board; and his surveys shall be held as presumptively correct. [1907, ch. 72, § 4; R. C. 1905, § 2538; R. C. 1895, § 2028.]

This section is clearly a substitute for R. C. 1905, § 2538.

Presumption of accuracy of surveys refers to measurements and computations, not to disputed starting points of boundaries. Radford v. Johnson, 8 N. D. 182, 77 N. W. 601.

Presumption of accuracy confined to authenticated, recorded survey. Parol evidence cannot take place of surveyor's official report. Arneson v. Spawm, 2 S. D. 269, 49 N. W. 1066, 39 Am. St. Rep. 783.

Presumption of correctness overcome by failure of survey to describe highway as originally established. Dunstan v. City, 7 N. D. 1, 72 N. W. 899.

§ 3429. Other surveyor acts, when. Whenever a survey may be required of any land in which the county surveyor or either of his deputies shall be interested or when from any cause there shall be no surveyor or deputy surveyor of the county to be found or able to act, such survey may be made by the surveyor of an adjoining county or either of his deputies in like manner, and to the same effect as if such survey had been made by the surveyor where the land is situated. [1907, ch. 72, § 5.]

§ 3430. Records. Each county surveyor shall record in a suitable book, to be provided by him at the expense of the county, all surveys for permanent purposes made by him and his deputies, except surveys for township highways and village plats. The record of each survey shall set forth the evidence by which the surveyor determined or identified the corners or other starting points of his survey, describing the points fully, and also setting forth whatever means were taken by him to perpetuate them upon the ground or to assist in determining and preserving their location. The record shall show the object of the survey and the methods pursued by the surveyor in making it, diagrams or plats being used to illustrate the same when necessary or convenient to do so. Upon the diagrams shall be shown the courses and distances of such boundary lines as may have been located by the survey, and such other facts as may have been determined by it. Such diagrams shall be considered a part of the record. When the courses of the lines are given by the magnetic needle the record shall show the amount and direction of the allowance made by the surveyor for the difference between the magnetic meridian and the true meridian. The record shall show the date of the survey, the name of the person or persons for whom it was made, and of the persons employed as chainmen on the survey. The surveyor shall certify upon the record that he has carefully compared the record with the original field notes taken by him at the time of the survey and that it is a true statement of the facts of such survey, as shown by said original notes. Each county surveyor and his deputies shall keep the original field notes of all surveys made by them for permanent purposes in books of convenient size and well bound in leather, to be furnished by the county surveyor at the expense of the county. These notes shall be taken and set down in the manner in which field notes of the United States surveys are kept, and shall contain all the details of each survey in the order in which the survey was made, including in full all calculations made by the surveyor to determine areas, or for measuring inaccessible distances, such as lake and river crossings, or for any other purpose required by the survey. Diagrams may be used for purposes of illustration, but shall not be used instead of the written notes required to be kept. Each field book shall contain an index referring to the surveys of which it contains the field notes. It shall also contain the certificate of the surveyor who made the surveys, that the field notes therein contained are the complete original field notes of the surveys therein referred to and described. These original field notes shall be a part of the record required to be kept by the county surveyor and the books containing them shall be deposited and kept with the surveyor's other records of the county. Each deputy county surveyor whenever one of these books shall be filled with field notes by him, or whenever he shall, for any cause, have ceased taking notes in the book he had been using, shall deposit the same in the office of the county surveyor or county auditor, and whenever his own term of office expires shall turn over to the county surveyor such books as have been partly filled by him. [1907, ch. 72, § 6.]

See sections 3437a, 3437b, and the note to the title of this article, immediately preceding section 3425.

§ 3431. Papers delivered to successor. When the term of office of any county surveyor shall expire or he shall resign or be removed he shall deliver over all books and papers relating to this office to his successor therein, and any county surveyor who, on the expiration of his term of office or on his resignation or removal shall neglect for the space of one month after his successor shall be elected or appointed and qualified to deliver such books and papers as aforesaid and any executor or administrator of any deceased county surveyor who shall neglect for the space of one month to deliver to such successor all such books and papers which shall have come to his hands shall forfeit and pay a sum not less than ten or more than fifty dollars, which amount shall be fixed by the board of county commissioners at their first meeting after such failure on the part of the county surveyor, and a similar sum for every month thereafter during which he shall so neglect to deliver the same as aforesaid. [1907, ch. 72, § 7.]

§ 3432. Copies of U. S. plats. The county surveyor shall arrange the terms of a contract with the surveyor-general of the state or other proper officer, for certified copies of the field notes and plats of the original surveys by the United States of the lands of his county, and if such contract be approved by the board of county commissioners of his county the county surveyor shall upon receiving such copies direct the county auditor to draw an order upon the treasurer of his county for the amount so agreed upon, and transmit it to the said surveyor-general or other person to whom it may be due, and shall have said plats and field notes substantially bound in book form which shall be kept open in said county surveyor's or county auditor's office for the benefit of the public; and all records of surveys, field notes and calculations made by any former county surveyor since the organization of the state government and now in the hands of such former county surveyor, or any other person, shall, on demand of the county surveyor of the proper county, be immediately delivered to him as a part of the records and files of his office and the boards of county commissioners of the several counties shall respectively audit and allow to the person entitled thereto, such sum as they shall deem a reasonable compensation for the expense of the books containing such records. [1907, ch. 72, § 8.]

§ 3433. Form of surveys. All surveys made by the county surveyors in this state must be made in accordance with the rules and regulations laid down by the commissioner of the United States general land office, and in accordance with the following principles, when applicable:

First. All corners that can be identified by the original field notes or other unquestionable testimony shall be regarded as the original corners and must not be changed while they can be so identified.

Second. Extinct intersection corners must be re-established at proportional distances as recorded in the original field notes from the nearest known points in the original section line, east and west and north and south from such extinct section corners.

Third. Any extinct quarter section corner except on fractional section lines must be re-established equidistant and in a right line between the section corners in all other cases at proportional distances between the nearest known points in the original lines.

Fourth. Central quarter corners of whole sections and of fractional sections adjoining the north and west boundary of townships, must be re-established at the intersection of two right lines connecting their opposite quarter section corners respectively. It shall be the duty of county surveyors to perpetuate the original corners they may work from by noting new bearing trees when timber is near. They shall also perpetuate the principal corners made by themselves in like manner. [1907, ch. 72, § 9.]

§ 3434. Oath of chainman. Every chainman and marker employed in making surveys pursuant to the provisions of this article, shall first take an oath that he will faithfully discharge his duties as such, which oath the county surveyor or his deputy making the survey is hereby authorized to administer. [1907, ch. 72, § 10.]

See section 3437c and the note under the title of this article.

§ 3435. Corners located. Expenses, how paid. Whenever two or more resident owners of real estate after having given at least ten days' notice by personal or written service to all other persons or their agents owning land in the same section, or abutting on same section that will be affected by said survey, who reside in the same township, shall desire to have their corners and lines, or any of them, established or relocated or perpetuated, the county surveyor shall proceed to make the required surveys and the expense thereof shall be borne by all the persons benefited to the amount of work done for each to be determined by the surveyor, and if any person thus benefited, whether a nonresident or otherwise, shall refuse or neglect to pay his share of such expense within sixty days thereafter, such surveyor shall certify the same, and to whom due, to the county auditor, together with a description of the land of such person, who shall assess it upon the land of such person to be collected and paid to the county treasurer in the same manner as state and county taxes, and paid by said county treasurer on the order of the county surveyor. [1907, ch. 72, § 11.]

§ 3436. Section corners, how made. The surveyor as above employed shall sink into the earth at all section and quarter post corners a column of concrete or cement block at least two feet high, twelve inches square at the base and six inches square at the top, and carefully describe the same in the records of his survey, and also dig pits and mark and record new witness trees wherever possible to do so, and if any person shall willfully cut down, destroy, deface or injure any living witness tree, or remove a corner post in any shape as above established, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be liable to a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than fifty dollars. [1907, ch. 72, § 12.]

§ 3437. Commissioners perpetuate corners. The board of county commissioners of the several counties in this state, or the board of township supervisors of any organized civil township in this state, are hereby authorized to establish and perpetuate any government section corners or quarter posts in their respective counties, which they may have good reason to believe are lost or are in danger of being lost, by the employment of the county surveyor or some other competent surveyor therefor, who shall keep a full and complete record of his work, giving in detail the evidences by which any corner is identified, also the manner in which lost corners are re-established, which record shall be kept in the same book provided by the county for county surveyor's records and kept in the office of the county surveyor, or county auditor, and the record so made and entered by the surveyor aforesaid shall be received as evidence in all the courts in this state wherein any question may arise as to the establishment or identification of such corner or corners; provided, that such work shall be done only in such townships where a majority of the voters, voting, shall vote to raise such sum as is required for such work by any surveyor authorized to do such work, as provided by this article; provided, further, that nothing in this article shall apply to lands where section and quarter section lines are already properly established, such sum to be assessed upon the real estate of such townships, according to its assessed valuation. Such assessment to be levied and taxes therefrom collected in the same manner as other assessments and collection of taxes are made; provided, further, that any surveyor as above employed, shall mark all corners substantially, as provided for in section 3436. [1907, ch. 72, § 13.]

§ 3437a. Record of field notes and plats. He shall transcribe the field notes and plats of such surveys into convenient and substantial record books to be furnished by the county, when the board of county commissioners shall deem it advisable, and said records shall be entered in an orderly manner, easy of reference, and shall be delivered to his successor in office. They may be kept in the office of the county auditor and said record shall be competent evidence in all courts of the facts therein set forth. [R. C. 1905, § 2539; R. C. 1899, § 2029.]

See section 3430 and the note under the title of this article.

§ 3437b. Resurvey and subdivision, how made. The resurvey and subdivision of lands by all surveyors shall in all respects be according to the laws of the United States and the instructions issued by the officers thereof in charge of the public land surveys and in the subdivision of fractional sections bounded on any side by a meandered lake or river or the boundary of any reservation or irregular survey, the subdivision lines running toward and closing upon the same shall be run at courses in all points intermediate and equidistant, as near as may be, between the like section lines established by the original survey. [R. C. 1905, § 2540; R. C. 1899, § 2030.]

See section 3430 and the note under the title of this article.

When monuments are destroyed question of location is for jury. Surveyor to locate lines from original government field notes. White v. Amrhien, 14 S. D. 270, 85 N. W. 191.

Must recognize only government monuments. Cope v. Eckert, 15 S. D. 177, 87 N. W. 972.

It was error for court to charge that where location of government monuments is uncertain or in doubt, the government field notes "will control." Coulter v. Gudehus, 30 S. D. 616, 139 N. W. 330.

Resurvey of lands must be in accordance with laws of United States. Nystrom v. Lee, 16 N. D. 561, 114 N. W. 478.

As to method of ascertaining quarter section by resurvey. Phillips v. Hink, 21 S. D. 561, 114 N. W. 699.

Resurvey must follow boundaries and monuments of original government survey if they can be identified. Randall v. Burk Township, 4 S. D. 337, 57 N. W. 4; Dowdle v. Cornue, 9 S. D. 126, 68 N. W. 194; McGray v. Monarch Elevator Co., 16 S. D. 109, 91 N. W. 457.

§ 3437c. Sworn chainmen in disputed cases. Whenever the survey is of lines and monuments in dispute between parties, or is made by order of the district or county court, the chainmen must be disinterested persons, approved and sworn by the surveyor to measure justly and impartially to the best of their skill and ability. [R. C. 1905, § 2541; R. C. 1899, § 2031.]

See section 3434 and the note under the title of this article.

§ 3437d. Fullness and accuracy of field notes and plats. The record of the field notes and plats shall show distinctly of what piece of land it is a survey, at whose request it was made, what owners were notified and present, the date of the survey, the names of the chainmen and that they were approved and sworn by the surveyor, when so required by law. The courses shall be taken according to the true meridian, and the variation of the magnetic needle therefrom shall be noted, and also when any material change therein shall occur. [R. C. 1905, § 2542; R. C. 1899, § 2032.]

See section 3430 and the note under the title of this article.

§ 3437e. Retracing lines to avoid errors. In retracing lines or making any survey he shall take care to observe and follow the boundaries and monuments as run and marked by the original survey, but shall not give undue weight to partial and doubtful evidence or appearances of monuments, the recognition of which shall require the presumption of marked errors in the original survey, and he shall note an exact description of such apparent monuments. [R. C. 1905, § 2543; R. C. 1899, § 2033.]

See section 3433 and the note under the title of this article.

Courses and distances in government field notes considered where boundaries not fixed, and monuments in dispute. Hanson v. Township, 4 S. D. 358, 57 N. W. 11; Randall v. Burk Township, 4 S. D. 337, 57 N. W. 4.

Recognition of certain corners by adjoining land owners not conclusive that they are government corners. Cope v. Eckert, 15 S. D. 177, 87 N. W. 972.

Question of location of boundary line for jury where monuments destroyed. White v. Amrhien, 14 S. D. 270, 85 N. W. 191.

§ 3437f. Assistants, how paid. All necessary chainmen and other assistants must be paid for their services by the person for whom the survey is made, unless otherwise specially agreed. [R. C. 1905, § 2544; R. C. 1899, § 2034.]

ARTICLE 21.—PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR.

§ 3438. Creation. There is hereby established and created in every organized county in this state the office of public administrator. [R. C. 1905, § 2545; 1903, ch. 140, § 1.]

§ 3439. Election. Term and qualifications. Every organized county in this state shall elect a public administrator at the general election in 1904, and every four years thereafter, who shall be ex-officio public guardian in and for his county, and shall hold his office four years and until his successor is elected, or appointed and qualified. The term of office of such officer shall commence on the first day of January following his election. He shall be an elector in the county where elected or appointed. [R. C. 1905, § 2546; 1903, ch. 140, § 2.]

§ 3440. Oath. Bond and certificate of election. Before entering upon the duties of his office he shall file his oath, certificate of election and bond with the judge of the county court, which bond, oath and certificate shall be recorded at length in the record book of said court. Said bond shall run to the state of North Dakota for the benefit of the parties damaged by breach of the conditions thereof, and shall be in a sum of not less than ten thousand dollars, with sufficient sureties justifying and conditioned that he will:

1. Faithfully discharge all the duties of his office.
2. Account annually to the judge of the county court for all estates and property under his official control and care, or whenever required so to do by the said judge.
3. Turn over to his successor in office all property and estates in his official care and control, and truly account for the same.
4. Turn over all property and estates in his official care and control to any other administrator, executor or guardian designated by the judge of the county court, and truly account for the same.
5. Perform such other acts and duties properly relating to his office, as may be ordered by the county judge.

Which bond shall be approved and indorsed as provided for administrators and executors; and it shall be the duty of the judge of the county court to require the public administrator to make a statement annually, under oath, of the amount of property in his hands or under his control as such administrator, for the purpose of ascertaining the amount of bond necessary to secure such property, and the court may from time to time, as occasion shall require, demand additional security of such administrator, and in default of giving the same within twenty days of such demand, may remove the public administrator and appoint another. [R. C. 1905, § 2547; 1903, ch. 140, § 3.]

§ 3441. Compensation. How removed from office. Why. He shall receive the same compensation for his services as may be allowed by law to executors, administrators and guardians, unless the court, for special reasons, allows a higher compensation. Such public administrator may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same reasons as other public officers, except as provided in sections 3440 and 3445, in which case the removal may be summary and upon motion of the judge of the county court. [R. C. 1905, § 2548; 1903, ch. 140, § 4.]

§ 3442. Duties and powers of public administrator. It shall be the duty of the public administrator to take into his charge, without application to the county court, or special appointment, the estates of all deceased persons, and the person and estate of all minors, and the estate or person and estates of all insane persons in his county, in the following cases:

1. When a person dies intestate in the county without relations, or dies leaving a will, and the executor named is absent or fails to qualify.
2. When persons die intestate without any known heirs.
3. When persons unknown die or are found dead in the county.
4. When money, property, papers or other estate are left in a situation exposed to loss or damage, and no other person administers on the same.
5. When any estate of any person who dies intestate therein or elsewhere, is left in the county liable to be injured, wasted or lost, when such intestate does not leave a known husband, widow or heirs in this state.
6. The persons of all minors under the age of fourteen years, whose parents are dead, and who have no legal guardian.

7. The estate of all minors whose parents are dead, or if living refuse or neglect to qualify as guardian, or having qualified, have been removed, or are, from any cause, incompetent to act as such guardian, and who have no one authorized by law to take care of and manage their estates.

8. The estates or person and estates of all insane persons in his county who have no legal guardian and no one competent to take charge of such estate, or to act as such guardian can be found, or is known to the court having jurisdiction, who will qualify.

9. Where from any other good cause, said court shall order him to take possession of any estate to prevent its being injured, wasted, purloined or lost. [R. C. 1905, § 2549; 1903, ch. 140, § 5.]

Validity of acts by public administrator where letters of administration are afterwards revoked or held invalid. 21 L.R.A. 156.

§ 3443. Additional powers. Duties and remedies. In addition to the provisions of the foregoing sections he shall have the same powers as are conferred upon, and be subject to the same duties, penalties, provisions and proceedings as are enjoined upon or authorized against special administrators and guardians by the probate code, so far as the same may be applicable. And he may be appointed in proper cases as general administrator without giving additional bond, except as provided in section 3439, and shall then continue the administration until finally settled, unless he resigns, dies, is discharged in the ordinary course of law as the administrator, or is removed for cause as public administrator or as administrator, and may exercise the powers conferred upon, and shall be subject to the duties and liabilities imposed upon such administrators. [R. C. 1905, § 2550; 1903, ch. 140, § 6.]

§ 3444. Prohibited. A public administrator shall not charge fee as attorney in the administration of the estates of decedents, of which he shall be the administrator. Any violation of this section shall be deemed a misdemeanor and punishable by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars. [1911, ch. 234.]

§ 3445. Giving notice on taking charge of estate. Penalty for failure. It shall be the duty of every public administrator immediately upon taking charge of any estate, except those which he shall have taken charge under the order of the county court for the purpose of administering the same, to file a notice of the fact in the office of the county court. If any public administrator shall fail to file the notice provided for in this section, he shall forfeit and pay to the persons entitled to the estate a sum not exceeding two hundred dollars to be recovered before said court, on motion, and after reasonable notice thereof to said public administrator; and said court may in its discretion remove such public administrator from office. [R. C. 1905, § 2551; 1903, ch. 140, § 7.]

§ 3446. Civil officers to inform him as to property, when. It shall be the duty of all civil officers to inform the public administrator of all property and estate known to them which is liable to loss, waste or injury and which by law ought to be in the hands of the public administrator. [R. C. 1905, § 2552; 1903, ch. 140, § 8.]

§ 3447. Shall prosecute necessary suits. The public administrator shall institute all manner of suits and prosecutions that may be necessary to recover the property, debts, papers or other estates of the person deceased, or of any minor, or insane person, in his charge or custody. [R. C. 1905, § 2553; 1903, ch. 140, § 9.]

§ 3448. Court may order him to account to successor, when. The probate court may at any time, for good cause shown, order the public administrator to account for and deliver all money, property or papers belonging to any estate in his hands to his successor in office or to the heirs of said estate, or to any executor or administrator regularly appointed as provided by law. [R. C. 1905, § 2554; 1903, ch. 140, § 10.]

ARTICLE 22.— COUNTY BONDS.

§ 3449. Bonds, how issued. Disputed claims. Each organized county in this state is authorized and empowered by and through its board of county commissioners, when in the judgment of said board it is deemed to be to the best interests of the county, to issue its negotiable bonds in the name of said county for the sole purpose of funding or refunding the outstanding indebtedness of such county, represented by the county warrants, bonds or orders of such county; or for the purpose of funding and paying claims against such county which have heretofore been disputed, but which may have been or may hereafter be adjusted and allowed by such board; or for the purpose of paying any final judgment which may have been rendered against such county; provided, that the board in making settlement of disputed claims shall not allow interest at a greater rate than seven per cent per annum; provided, however, that no county shall in any event issue its bonds in any amount which, with its prior bonded indebtedness, will exceed the maximum indebtedness allowed by law; but the issuing of new bonds in lieu of outstanding bonds or indebtedness shall not be considered as the creation of a new debt. [R. C. 1905, § 2555; 1890, ch. 30, § 1; R. C. 1895, § 2035.]

Issuance of county bonds in excess of five per cent indebtedness limit, to refund warrants, is lawful, where exchange will diminish indebtedness. Walling v. Lummis, 16 S. D. 349, 92 N. W. 1063.

Refunding bonds as indebtedness within meaning of debt limit provisions. 37 L.R.A. (N.S.) 1099.

§ 3450. Appeal in disputed claims. Whenever any disputed or litigated claim shall have been adjusted and determined by the board, an appeal may be taken from said settlement in the manner and within the time now allowed by law to the district court in and for said county; and no bonds shall be issued as hereinafter provided until the expiration of the period allowed by law within which said appeal may be taken. [R. C. 1905, § 2556; 1890, ch. 30, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 2036.]

§ 3451. Bonds. Rate of interest. Mode of issue. Said bonds shall be in denominations of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, shall bear the date of their issue, and shall be made payable to the order of the purchaser in not less than five nor more than twenty years from their date, and bear interest not to exceed six per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, with coupons attached for each interest installment; said bonds and coupons shall be signed by the chairman of the board of county commissioners and shall be attested by the county auditor. The seal of the county shall be affixed to each bond but not to the coupons. Such bonds shall be printed, lithographed or engraved on bond paper, and each bond shall state on its face that it is issued in accordance with the provisions of this article, and that portion of this article relating to the issuance of funding and refunding bonds shall be printed on the back of each bond. Such bonds may be made payable anywhere in the United States. [R. C. 1905, § 2557; 1890, ch. 30, § 3; R. C. 1895, § 2037.]

§ 3452. Bonds may be exchanged or sold. Said bonds may be exchanged at par value for an equal amount of indebtedness of said county with the holder of such indebtedness, whether evidenced by county warrants, bonds or orders, judgment or adjusted claim; or said bonds may be sold by the board at not less than par value, and the proceeds applied solely to the payment of the indebtedness for which they were issued. A record of each bond so issued shall be kept by the county treasurer showing the number of each bond so issued, its date, amount, rate of interest, when and where payable, the amount received therefor, to whom sold, and how the proceeds were disposed of, and it shall be the duty of the county auditor to keep a duplicate account of the same. [R. C. 1905, § 2558; 1890, ch. 30, § 4; R. C. 1899, § 2038.]

Accrued interest as part of par value within prohibition against sale of bonds at less than par. 35 L.R.A. (N.S.) 789.

Payment of commissions for sales of bonds as violating requirement that bonds shall not be sold for less than par. 39 L.R.A.(N.S.) 248.

§ 3453. Tax to be levied. The board of county commissioners shall levy each year upon the taxable property of the county a sufficient tax to pay the interest on said bonds as the same accrues, and a reasonable time before maturity a sufficient tax to provide a sinking fund for the payment of the bonds when they mature. [R. C. 1905, § 2559; 1890, ch. 30, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 2039.]

§ 3454. County treasurer to pay, when. When said bonds and the coupons hereto attached mature, it shall be the duty of the county treasurer to pay the same on presentation out of any funds in his hands applicable thereto; and he shall then cancel them by writing or stamping across the face of each coupon or bond the words "paid thisday of....." (inserting the date of the payment.) [R. C. 1905, § 2560; 1890, ch. 30, § 6; R. C. 1899, § 2040.]

Validity of agreement to pay interest on interest coupons. 33 L.R.A.(N.S.) 296.

§ 3455. Commission allowed treasurer. The county treasurer shall be allowed a commission of one-fourth of one per cent on the face value of said bonds for receiving and disbursing all funds arising from the sale of exchange thereof and the commission herein provided for shall be in lieu of all other commissions allowed by law and shall be paid into the salary fund and be disposed of as is now provided by law. [R. C. 1905, § 2561; 1890, ch. 30, § 7; R. C. 1899, § 2041.]

§ 3456. Bonds negotiable, when. Bonds issued in substantial conformity with this article shall in law be deemed negotiable. [R. C. 1905, § 2562; 1890, ch. 30, § 8; R. C. 1899, § 2042.]

ARTICLE 23.—BONDS FOR COUNTY BUILDINGS.

Question of issuing bonds for erection of court house and jail in one building may be voted upon as one question. Hughes v. Pierce County, 18 N. D. 474, 122 N. W. 799.

§ 3458. Limit of issue. No county shall issue its bonds under the provisions of the last section in excess of five per cent of its valuation according to the last assessment thereof, including all the outstanding indebtedness of such county at the time of issuing such bonds. [R. C. 1905, § 2564; 1889, ch. 42, § 2; 1890, ch. 31, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 2044.]

§ 3459. Election for bonds. Whenever in the judgment of a majority of the board of county commissioners in any county which comes under the provisions of this subdivision such county has insufficient or inadequate buildings for its use for court house or jail, or both, such board may order an election for the purpose of determining by a vote of the electors of such county the question of issuing its bonds for the purpose of the erection of a court house or jail, or both, as by this subdivision provided, including the purchase of a site for such court house and jail, or both, at such county seat, if none is provided. Such election shall be held in the manner and upon the notice prescribed by law for other elections, but the published and posted notices of such election shall state its object, the amount of bonds to be issued, the denominations of such bonds, the length of time for which they shall run and the rate of interest which they shall bear, and the ballots shall have printed or written, or partly printed and partly written thereon "for issue of bonds" or "against issue of bonds" and if a majority of the ballots so cast shall be for the issue of bonds, then the county commissioners shall issue and dispose of said bonds as provided by this subdivision, and erect a court house or jail, or both, for the use of such county according to the provisions hereof. [R. C. 1905, § 2565; 1889, ch. 42, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 2045.]

Validity of contract for material patented or held in monopoly where a public letting to the lowest bidder is required. 5 L.R.A. (N.S.) 680.

§ 3461. Board of auditors. The county auditor, county treasurer and some qualified elector and freeholder of such county appointed by the board of county commissioners outside of its own number shall act as a board of auditors to audit accounts of such board of county commissioners in connection with the erection of county buildings, pursuant to the provisions hereof, and the members of such board of auditors shall receive for their services the sum of three dollars each for every day actually and necessarily employed in such capacity, to be paid upon the warrant of such board of county commissioners. [R. C. 1905, § 2567; 1889, ch. 42, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 2047.]

§ 3462. Denominations. Interest. Mode of issue. All bonds pursuant to the provisions hereof shall be in denominations of not less than one hundred dollars and not more than one thousand dollars, shall bear the date of their issue, shall be made payable to the purchaser or bearer and become due in not less than ten years nor more than twenty years from their date and shall bear interest at the rate of not exceeding seven per cent per annum, payable annually, with coupons attached for each interest payment. The bonds and each coupon shall be signed by the chairman of the board of county commissioners and shall be attested by the county auditor. The seal of the county shall be affixed to each bond but not to the coupons, and said bonds shall each contain a recital in substantially the following words: "Issued in pursuance of section 2563 [section 3457 herein] to 2576 [section 3470 herein] inclusive of the revised codes of 1905, authorizing and empowering organized counties to erect county buildings for court house and jail purposes and to issue and dispose of bonds to provide funds to pay therefor, and to provide for the payment of the principal and interest of such bonds." Such bonds shall be printed, engraved or lithographed on bond paper and may be made payable anywhere in the United States. They shall be sold by the board of county commissioners at not less than their par value and the proceeds applied solely to the payment of the indebtedness incurred in the erection of a court house or jail or both, and the purchase of a site therefor. [R. C. 1905, § 2568; 1889, ch. 42, § 6; R. C. 1899, § 2048.]

Accrued interest as part of par value within prohibition against sale of bonds at less than par. 35 L.R.A. (N.S.) 789.

Payment of commissions for sales of bonds as violating requirement that bonds shall not be sold for less than par. 39 L.R.A.(N.S.) 248.

§ 3463. Notice of sale. No such bonds shall be sold until after having been duly advertised at least once a week for four consecutive weeks in one of the newspapers published at the seat of government, and for the same length of time at any other point deemed advisable by the board. [R. C. 1905, § 2569; 1889, ch. 42, § 6; R. C. 1899, § 2049.]

§ 3464. Proceeds. The proceeds of the sale of such bonds shall be deposited in the treasury of such county, to be paid out by the county treasurer on the order of such board. The county treasurer shall give an additional bond in double the amount of the bonds so issued and sold, and shall receive as compensation for the receiving and disbursing of all funds arising from the sale of such bonds one per cent of the par value of such bonds, and the compensation herein provided for shall be in lieu of all other commissions allowed him by law. [R. C. 1905, § 2570; 1889, ch. 42, § 6; R. C. 1899, § 2050.]

§ 3465. Tax to be levied. The board of county commissioners at or before the issuance of such bonds shall levy upon the taxable property of the county a sufficient tax to pay the interest on such bonds as the same accrues and the principal thereof when due. [R. C. 1905, § 2571; 1889, ch. 42, § 7; R. C. 1895, § 2051.]

§ 3466. Treasurer to pay and cancel at maturity. When such bonds and the several coupons thereto attached mature it shall be the duty of the county treasurer to pay the same on presentation and to cancel them when paid. [R. C. 1905, § 2572; 1889, ch. 42, § 8; R. C. 1899, § 2052.]

§ 3467. Bonds to be registered. Before the bonds are delivered to the purchaser they shall be presented to the county auditor, who shall register them in a book kept for that purpose and known as the "bond register," in which register he shall enter the number of each bond, its date of maturity, amount, rate of interest, to whom and where payable. [R. C. 1905, § 2573; 1889, ch. 42, § 9; R. C. 1899, § 2053.]

§ 3468. Bonds negotiable, when. Bonds issued in substantial conformity herewith shall be in law considered negotiable. [R. C. 1905, § 2574; 1889, ch. 42, § 10; R. C. 1899, § 2054.]

§ 3469. Funding bonds, when issued. Any county which has issued warrants or other evidences of indebtedness since the first day of January, 1887, for the purpose of building a court house or jail, or both, may issue bonds under the provisions of this subdivision to fund such warrants or other evidences of indebtedness and if such indebtedness was authorized by a majority vote of the qualified electors of such county previous to the incurring of the same, no new election shall be had, and the board of county commissioners of any such county is hereby authorized and empowered when in the judgment of such board it is deemed to the best interests of such county to issue such bonds, and to apply the proceeds solely to the redemption of such warrants or other evidences of indebtedness; provided, that the bonds issued under the provisions of this section shall bear a lower rate of interest than the outstanding indebtedness proposed to be funded. [R. C. 1905, § 2575; 1889, ch. 42, § 11; R. C. 1899, § 2055.]

§ 3470. When election not necessary. Any county which has heretofore and since the first day of January, 1887, submitted to the voters of such county the question of building a court house or jail, or both, and issuing bonds therefor and upon such election the building of a court house or jail, or both, and the issuing of bonds therefor was authorized or directed by a majority vote of the qualified electors of such county as evidenced by a majority of the votes cast at such election upon said question so submitted to them, no new election shall be had, but such elections and the bonds when issued thereunder are hereby held and declared legal and valid as if the election had been held after the taking effect of this article, and the board of county commissioners of any such county are authorized and empowered to issue such bonds, and with the funds so obtained from the sale thereof to construct a court house or jail, or both, and are also hereby empowered to purchase a site for such court house or jail, or both, at such county seat if none is provided and pay for the same out of any unappropriated moneys in the county treasury; or contract in the name and in behalf of the county for the purchase and conveyance of such site, to be paid for from the proceeds of such bonds when negotiated. [R. C. 1905, § 2576; 1889, ch. 42, § 12; R. C. 1899, § 2056.]

ARTICLE 24.—BONDS FOR SEED GRAIN.

§ 3471. Bonds authorized. Petition for. Time to run. In any county of the state where the crops for any preceding year have been a total or partial failure by reason of drouth, hail or other cause, it shall be lawful for the board of county commissioners of such county to issue the bonds of the county under and pursuant to the provisions of this article, and with the proceeds derived from the sale thereof, to purchase seed wheat for the inhabitants thereof who are in need of seed grain and are unable to procure the same, whenever said board shall be petitioned in writing so to do by not less than one hundred freeholders resident in the county; and said board at a meeting called as hereinafter provided to consider said petition, shall by a majority vote determine that the prayer of the petitioners should be granted; provided, that all such petitions shall be filed with the county auditor, or county clerk, on or before the fifteenth day of April; and thereupon it shall be the duty of said officer to forthwith call a meeting of the board of county commissioners of his county to consider said petitions; and provided, further, that the total amounts of bonds issued by any county under the provisions of this article shall not, with the then existing indebtedness of the county, exceed the limit of indebtedness fixed by the constitution in such case; that said bonds shall be in denominations of five hundred dollars; shall bear a rate of interest not exceeding seven per cent per annum, payable semi-annually at such place and times as shall be determined by the board, and that all bonds issued under the provisions of this article shall become due and payable in not less than two nor more than five years from the date thereof, the date of maturity to be fixed by the county board at the time of the issuance thereof, with the above limitation. [1909, ch. 210, § 1.]

§ 3472. Bonds, how executed. Such bonds shall be signed by the chairman of the board of county commissioners and be attested by the county auditor, or county clerk, as the case may be, who shall affix the seal of the county thereto and shall have indorsed thereon a certificate signed by the county auditor or county clerk, stating that said bonds are issued pursuant to law and are within the debt limit. [1909, ch. 210, § 2.]

§ 3473. Bonds, how sold. It shall be the duty of said board to receive sealed proposals for the purchase of said bonds after giving notice for ten days in three newspapers of general daily circulation, published as follows: One in the city of St. Paul, in the state of Minnesota; one in the city of Bismarek, in the state of North Dakota; and one in the county where the bonds are to be issued, if there be one published in such county; if not, then publication may be made in a weekly paper published in said county, if there be one so published, and said bonds shall be sold to the highest bidder for cash; provided, the same shall not be sold for less than their par value; and, provided, further, that the said county may reject all bids and postpone the sale of said bonds for a time not exceeding fifteen days. [1909, ch. 210, § 3.]

§ 3475. Treasurer gives additional bond. It shall be the duty of said board to require the county treasurer to give an additional bond with sureties to be approved by the board, in a sum to be determined by said board, before the proceeds of said bonds are paid into the treasury. [1909, ch. 210, § 5.]

§ 3476. Tax levied for sinking fund. Bonds registered. For the purpose of securing prompt payment of the principal and interest of said bonds, there shall be levied by the board of county commissioners at the time and in the manner other taxes are levied, such sums as shall be sufficient to pay such interest, and in addition thereto a sinking fund tax shall be annually levied sufficient to pay and retire said bonds at their maturity, and it shall be the duty of the county treasurer to pay promptly the interest upon the said bonds as the same shall fall due. No tax or fund provided for the payment of such bonds, either principal or interest, shall at any time be used for any other purpose; provided, however, that the board of county commissioners may deposit any part or portion of the sinking fund herein provided for, in any bank furnishing satisfactory security to the state of North Dakota, which shall furnish to the county a bond of indemnity to be approved by the board, and receive interest on the same which shall be credited to the sinking fund. It shall be the duty of the treasurer when said bond or any coupons attached thereto are paid, to cancel the same by writing upon the face thereof the word "paid" and the date of payment. Before the bonds are delivered to the purchaser, the treasurer of the county shall register them in a book to be provided for that purpose, known as the bond register, in which register he shall enter the number of each bond, its date, date of maturity, amount, rate of interest, to whom and where payable; provided that said treasurer shall receive a per centum at the discretion of the county commissioners, not to exceed one per cent, for the receiving and disbursing of the amount received from the sale of said bonds, said per centum to be covered into the treasury as a part of the salary fund. The board of county commissioners may issue warrants instead of bonds, if in their judgment the best interests of the county are thereby served, provided, that such warrants shall not be issued in any amount to exceed one per cent of the assessed valuation of such county. [1911, ch. 273; 1909, ch. 210, § 6.]

§ 3477. Proceeds used exclusively to purchase seed grain. The fund arising from the sale of said bonds shall be applied exclusively by the said board for the purchase of seed grain for residents of the county who are unable to procure the same; provided, that not more than one hundred and fifty bushels of wheat or its equivalent in other grain shall be furnished to any one person; provided, further, that in any county in which it is necessary to procure seed grain under the provisions of this article and the parties taking advantage of the same are unable to obtain feed for their stock for the putting in of said seed grain, the county commissioners may, in their discretion, purchase and deliver to such parties who are unable to procure in any other way, such amount of feed as will in their judgment enable said parties to put in their seed; such feed to be furnished at actual cost, the amount to be paid for such feed to become a part of the seed lien on the crop raised from the seed furnished to such party under the provisions of this article. [1909, ch. 210, § 7.]

§ 3478. Commissioners may issue warrants for purchase. In providing for the purchase of seed grain the commissioners may in lieu of issuing bonds, order warrants drawn upon the general fund of the county to pay for the seed grain purchased under the general provisions of this article. [1909, ch. 210, § 8.]

§ 3479. Applications for aid, how made. All persons entitled to, and wishing to avail themselves of the benefit of this article, shall file with the county auditor, or county clerk, of the county where said applicant resides, on or before the first day of March, an application duly sworn to before said county auditor, or county clerk, or some other officer authorized to administer oaths.

Said application shall contain a true statement of the number of acres the applicant has plowed or prepared for seeding; how many acres the applicant intends to have plowed or prepared for seeding; how many bushels and what kind of grain he will require to seed the ground so prepared as aforesaid; how many bushels of grain the applicant harvested in the preceding year; that the applicant has not procured and is not able to procure the necessary seed grain for the current year; that he desires the same for seed and no other purpose, and that he will not sell or dispose of the same or any part thereof, but will use the same and the whole thereof in seeding the land so prepared or to be prepared for crop. Said application shall also contain a true and full description of all the real and personal property owned by the applicant, and the incumbrances thereon; and a true description by government subdivisions of the land upon which the applicant intends to sow said seed grain. All applications filed under the provisions of this article shall be consecutively numbered and shall be open to public inspection, and no application shall be considered by the board of county commissioners except such as have been made and filed in the manner prescribed in this section; provided, that the board of commissioners may in their discretion consider any application although made after the time so specified. [1909, ch. 210, § 9.]

§ 3480. Adjustment of application, county commissioners make. The board of county commissioners of each county issuing bonds under the provisions of this article are hereby appointed and constituted a board of examination and adjustment of the applications for seed grain filed under the preceding section, and it shall be the duty of said board to meet at the county auditor's or clerk's office on the first Tuesday in March, or as soon thereafter as possible, to examine and consider separately each application filed under the provisions of this article, and to determine who are entitled to the benefits thereof, and the amount to which each applicant is entitled, and said board shall on or before the tenth day of March, deliver and file with the county auditor, or county clerk, its adjustment of the said applications, which shall be signed by the chairman of the board. [1909, ch. 210, § 10.]

§ 3481. Contract for repayment. Delinquent payments extended on tax list. The county auditor of each county shall, as soon as the county commissioners shall have performed the duty prescribed in the preceding section, issue to each applicant demanding it an order for the number of bushels of each kind of seed grain which has been allowed to said applicant, unless otherwise directed by the board or the chairman thereof; provided, however, that said order shall not be delivered until said applicant shall have signed a contract in duplicate, attested by the county auditor, to the effect that said applicant, for and in consideration of bushels of seed grain received from county, promises to pay to said county dollars, the amount of cost of said seed grain; that said sum shall be taxable against all the real property for which said seed was furnished and all personal property of said applicant; that such tax shall be levied by the county auditor of his county and collected as other taxes are collected under the laws of this state; that the amount of such indebtedness shall become due and payable on the first day of October in the year in which said seed grain is furnished, together with interest on such amount from the first day of April of that year, at the rate of seven per cent per annum, and if said indebtedness be not paid on or before the fifteenth day of October of that year it shall then be the duty of the county auditor of the said county to cause the amount of said indebtedness to be entered upon the tax lists of said county then in the hands of the county treasurer as a tax against the land owned by the applicant for which said seed was furnished, to be collected as other taxes are, and the sum so entered and levied shall be a lien upon the real estate owned by said person, for which said seed was furnished, until said indebtedness is fully paid; when it shall be the duty of the proper officer to cancel the same; provided, that such indebtedness shall not be subject to the penalty provided for taxes, nor shall it bear a greater rate of interest than seven per cent per annum. [1913, ch. 249; 1909, ch. 210, § 11.]

§ 3482. Contract made first lien. Upon the filing of the contracts provided for in section 3480, the county shall acquire a just and valid lien upon the crops of grain raised each year by the person receiving seed grain to the amount of the sum then due to the county upon said contract, as against all creditors, purchasers or mortgagees, whether in good faith or otherwise, and the filing of said contract shall be held and considered to be full and sufficient notice to all parties of the existence and extent of said lien, which shall continue in force until the amount covered by said contract is fully paid. [1909, ch. 210, § 12.]

§ 3483. Crops sold for repayment of advances. Each and every person who has received seed grain under the provisions of this article, shall, as soon as his crops for the year wherein payment is to be made are harvested and threshed, market a sufficient amount of grain to pay the amount then due on his contract and pay the same over to the treasurer of his county. [1909, ch. 210, § 13.]

§ 3484. Penalty for misuse of seed furnished. Any person or persons, who shall, contrary to the provisions of this article, sell, transfer, take or carry away, or in any manner dispose of the seed grain, or any part thereof, furnished by the county under this act, or shall use or dispose of said seed grain, or any part thereof, for any other purpose than that of planting or sowing the same as stated in his application, or shall sell, transfer, take or carry away, or in any manner dispose of the crop, or any part thereof, produced from the sowing or planting of said seed grain, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall pay a fine of not less than ten dollars, nor more than one hundred dollars, or may be imprisoned in the county jail for a term of not less than ninety days, and shall pay all the costs of prosecution, and whoever under any of the provisions herein shall be found guilty of false swearing shall be deemed to have committed perjury and shall upon conviction suffer the pains and penalties of that crime. Upon the filing of said application in the office of the register of deeds, and the sowing of the seed obtained thereunder, the title and right of possession to the growing crop and to the grain produced from said seed shall be in the county which shall have furnished the seed until the debt incurred for said seed shall have been paid, and any seizure thereof or interference therewith, except by the applicant and those in his employ, for the purpose of harvesting, threshing and marketing the same to pay the debt aforesaid, shall be deemed a conversion thereof, and treble damages may be recovered against the person so converting the same by the county furnishing said seed. [1909, ch. 210, § 14.]

§ 3485. Duty of officers to prosecute. It shall be the duty of the constables and town clerks of the towns, and the county commissioners, sheriffs and state's attorneys of the counties furnishing seed grain under the provisions of this article, having any knowledge of the violation of its provisions, to make complaint thereof to a justice of the peace, and said justice shall thereupon issue a warrant for the arrest of the offender, and proceed to hear and determine the matter, or to bind the offender over to appear before the grand jury, as the case may be. [1909, ch. 210, § 15.]

§ 3486. Commissioners advertise intention of distribution. The county commissioners of every county proposing to distribute seed grain under the provisions of this article shall advertise such intention in such manner and for such length of time prior to the first day of March as is possible for them to do, giving notice that all applications must be filed with the county auditor, or county clerk, by the first day of March; provided, that no distribution of seed grain under the provisions of this article shall take place prior to the tenth day of March. If more seed grain is applied for than can be supplied by the commissioners under the provisions of this article, a pro rata distribution shall be made by them among those who shall have been found entitled to the benefits of this article. The commissioners shall have the right to refuse any application which they may deem improper to grant, and they may revise their adjustment of applications at any time before final distribution. [1909, ch. 210, § 16.]

§ 3487. Grain furnished at cost. It shall be the duty of the commissioners providing seed grain under the provisions of this article, to purchase the same at the lowest price at which suitable grain can be obtained, and to furnish the same to applicants at the actual cost thereof to the commissioners, with transportation and handling charges added, if any there be, and any person requiring or extorting from any applicant a greater price shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by fine or imprisonment, or both, as the court may determine. [1909, ch. 210, § 17.]

§ 3488. Sinking fund. All money received by the county treasurer in payment of debts incurred under the provisions of this article, shall be paid into, and become a part of the sinking fund herein provided for, and be used exclusively in the purchase or payment of bonds issued hereunder. [1909, ch. 210, § 18.]

§ 3489. Bonds may be retired. Said board may at any time, with the concurrence of the owners thereof, pay and retire any of the bonds issued under the provisions of this article out of the funds provided for that purpose, at not more than the par value thereof and accrued interest. [1909, ch. 210, § 19.]

§ 3490. No tax levied, when. In case a sufficient fund has been paid into the county treasury in any one year, as provided in section 3480, on or before November first, to meet the interest and sinking fund provided for in this act, then there shall be no tax assessed for such purpose in that year, and in no year shall there be a greater sum assessed than will, together with the balance at that date in the treasury belonging to the seed grain fund, be sufficient to meet said interest and sinking fund promptly for that year. [1909, ch. 210, § 20.]

ARTICLE 25.—CERTIFICATE OF DEBT LIMIT.

§ 3491. Certificate of debt limit necessary. No bond or evidence of debt of any county, or bond of any township or other political subdivision of this state, shall be valid unless the same has indorsed thereon a certificate stating that such bond or evidence of debt is issued pursuant to law and is within the debt limit, which certificate in case of a county shall be signed by the county auditor, and in the case of a township or other political subdivision shall be signed by the treasurer of such township or other political subdivision. [R. C. 1905, § 2577; 1890, ch. 33, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 2057.]

ARTICLE 1.—STATE'S ATTORNEYS.

§ 3492. Salary of state's attorney, assistant and clerk. As compensation for his services the state's attorney shall be paid in all counties an annual salary, based on the assessed valuation as follows: In counties having a valuation under five hundred thousand dollars, three hundred dollars; over five hundred thousand dollars, and under one million dollars, five hundred dollars; over one million dollars and under one million five hundred thousand dollars, six hundred dollars; over one million five hundred thousand dollars and under two million dollars, seven hundred dollars; over two million dollars and under two million five hundred thousand dollars, eight hundred dollars; over two million five hundred thousand dollars and under three million dollars, one thousand dollars; over three million dollars and under five million dollars, twelve hundred dollars; over five million dollars and under seven million dollars, fifteen hundred dollars; over seven million dollars and under eight million dollars, seventeen hundred and fifty dollars, and in all counties having a valuation of over eight million dollars, two thousand dollars for his personal services; provided, that in counties of over nine million dollars assessed valuation, an assistant state's attorney shall be appointed by the state's attorney, who shall receive a salary fixed by the county commissioners, and in counties of over nine million dollars assessed valuation, the county commissioners may, whenever they deem necessary and for such time as they may deem necessary, by resolution authorize the state's attorney to appoint a clerk, who shall be subject to discharge by the state's attorney and whose salary shall be fixed by the county commissioners and paid by the county. In counties of less than nine million dollars assessed valuation, the salary of the assistant state's attorney, if one is allowed by the county commissioners, may be fixed by the county commissioners, and in such counties of less than nine million dollars assessed valuation, the county commissioners may, whenever they deem it necessary and for such time as they deem necessary, by resolution, authorize the state's attorney to appoint a clerk in lieu of an assistant state's attorney, which clerk shall be subject to discharge at any time by the state's attorney, and whose salary shall be fixed by the county commissioners and paid by the county. [1909, ch. 68; 1907, ch. 75; R. C. 1905, § 2578; 1899, ch. 149; R. C. 1899, § 2058.]

§ 3493. Office to be furnished. Salary not diminished. The county commissioners in each county, the population of which does not exceed ten thousand, shall provide a suitable and convenient office for the state's attorney or in lieu thereof may allow a reasonable sum not exceeding forty per cent of the salary prescribed by law for the rental and maintenance of such office. The salary of the state's attorney shall not be diminished during the term for which he was elected. [R. C. 1905, § 2579; R. C. 1895, § 2060.]

Commissioners cannot diminish salary during term of office. Polk v. Minnehaha County, 5 D. 129, 37 N. W. 93.

ARTICLE 2.—CLERK OF THE DISTRICT COURT.

§ 3494. Salary of clerk of district court, how determined. The salary of the clerk of the district court shall be regulated by the value of the property in his county as fixed by the state board of equalization for the preceding year, as follows: He shall be entitled to receive not to exceed five hundred dollars in counties where the assessed valuation does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars; six hundred dollars in counties where the assessed valuation exceeds five hundred thousand dollars but does not exceed one million five hundred [thousand] dollars; eight [hundred dollars in counties] where the assessed valuation exceeds one million dollars but does not exceed one million five hundred [thousand] dollars; eight hundred dollars in counties where the assessed valuation exceeds one million five hundred thousand dollars but does not exceed two million dollars; nine hundred dollars in counties where the assessed valuation exceeds two million dollars but does not exceed three million dollars; one thousand dollars where the assessed valuation exceeds three million dollars but does not exceed three million five hundred thousand dollars; eleven hundred dollars where the assessed valuation exceeds three million five hundred thousand dollars but does not exceed four million dollars; twelve hundred dollars where the assessed valuation exceeds four million dollars but does not exceed five million dollars; thirteen hundred dollars where the assessed valuation exceeds five million dollars but does not exceed six million dollars; fourteen hundred dollars where the assessed valuation exceeds six million dollars but does not exceed seven million dollars; fifteen hundred dollars where the assessed valuation exceeds seven million dollars but does not exceed eight million dollars; sixteen hundred dollars where the assessed valuation exceeds eight million dollars but does not exceed nine million dollars, and in counties where the assessed valuation exceeds nine million dollars but does not exceed ten million dollars, the clerk shall receive the sum of eighteen hundred dollars, and in counties where the assessed valuation exceeds ten million dollars the clerk shall receive two thousand dollars; provided, that no clerk of the district [court] shall receive for his personal service an amount in excess of two thousand dollars in any one year, as provided by this article, to be paid monthly from the general county fund on the warrant of the county auditor. [1907, ch. 74; R. C. 1905, § 2580; 1889, ch. 64, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 2061.]

Change of salary of deputy as violation of constitutional provision against change of salary of public officer during term of office. 37 L.R.A. (N.S.) 388.

§ 3497. Excess of fees, how disposed of. In case the fees paid into the county treasury in any calendar year by the clerk of the district court shall exceed the salary fixed herein, and the compensation of a deputy or clerks as herein provided, then and in that case the county treasurer and the county auditor of the county in which such excess shall have occurred shall within thirty days thereafter credit such excess to the general fund of the county. [R. C. 1905, § 2583; 1899, ch. 64, § 4; R. C. 1899, § 2064.]

§ 3498. Fees to be charged. Clerks of the district court shall charge and collect the following fees:

1. In actions for the recovery of money only, in which judgment is entered by default, for all services prior to execution, three dollars.

2. In all other actions in which judgment is entered by default, for services prior to execution, five dollars.

3. In special proceedings, for all services prior to appeal, five dollars.

4. In actions in which an issue of fact is tried, for all services prior to execution, seven dollars.

5. In actions in which only a question of law is tried, the fees shall be the same as on default in like actions.

6. In addition to the foregoing fees, for all services growing out of a provisional remedy, there shall be charged and paid at the time the remedy is applied for, for the first paper in connection therewith filed, two dollars and fifty cents.

7. For issuing execution in any action, one dollar.

8. For filing execution on return, fifty cents.

9. For filing and indexing a mechanic's lien, one dollar.

10. For filing and indexing any other paper authorized to be filed in his office, but not connected with any civil action or proceeding, fifty cents.

11. For making certified abstracts of any judgment, or certified copy of any judgment, order or other paper, filed or recorded in his office, for the first four folios, fifty cents; for each additional folio, ten cents.

12. For entering satisfaction of any judgment or lien, fifty cents.

13. For taking declaration of intention to become a citizen of the United States and making a certified copy of the record thereof, one dollar.

14. For final naturalization papers, including copy of the record thereof, one dollar.

15. For each additional copy of either of such citizen's papers, fifty cents.

16. For approving bond of a notary public, fifty cents.

17. For entering and indexing commission of notary public, fifty cents.

18. For taking an acknowledgment or administering an oath, twenty-five cents.

19. For recording and indexing any paper, not filed in an action or proceeding, for the first four folios, fifty cents; for each additional folio, ten cents.

20. For a certificate of the official capacity of a notary public, or other officer, fifty cents.

21. For certifying an abstract of real property as to judgments and liens, for each person named in the abstract as to whom search is made, ten cents.

22. For receiving, keeping and paying out money in pursuance of law or an order of court, one per cent of the amount, which shall be paid by the person receiving such money.

23. For issuing commission to take depositions, one dollar.

24. For certifying the record on appeal to the supreme court, or to the district court of any other county and transmitting the same, five dollars.

25. For all services on remittitur from supreme court, two dollars.

26. For taking depositions, per folio, ten cents.

27. For making certified transcripts of any judgment, one dollar.

28. For filing and docketing transcript of judgment from justice's court or from any other county, one dollar.

29. For filing and entering affidavit and other papers, for renewal of any judgment, two dollars. [R. C. 1905, § 2584; 1899, ch. 64, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 2065; 1901, ch. 92; 1903, ch. 55.]

§ 3499. Deposit of fees to be required. No civil action, appeal or proceeding shall be entered in the clerk's office of said district court until the person desiring such entry shall deposit with the clerk the sum of five dollars on account of fees in the case, and out of which the clerk shall satisfy the fees due in such case as they accrue, and whenever said sum or any other deposit is exhausted, said clerk may require as a condition for further entries, or clerk's fees, an additional deposit of two dollars for the purpose and applications as aforesaid. Any balance remaining with said clerk after such application and the determination of the case shall be returned to the party disposing the same, his agent or attorney. [R. C. 1905, § 2585; 1899, ch. 64, § 6; R. C. 1899, § 2067.]

ARTICLE 3.— COUNTY JUDGES.

§ 3500. Salary of county judge. As compensation for his services the county judge shall be paid in all counties an annual salary based on the assessed valuation as follows:

In counties having a valuation under five hundred thousand dollars, five hundred dollars; over five hundred thousand dollars and under one million dollars, seven hundred dollars; over one million dollars and under two million dollars, nine hundred dollars; over two million dollars and under three million dollars, eleven hundred dollars; over three million dollars and under four million dollars, thirteen hundred dollars; over four million dollars and under five million dollars, fifteen hundred dollars; over five million dollars and under six million dollars, sixteen hundred dollars; over six million dollars and under seven million dollars, seventeen hundred dollars; over seven million dollars and under eight million dollars, eighteen hundred dollars; and in all counties having a valuation of over eight million dollars, two thousand dollars, and no more for his personal services. Provided, that the salary of county judge in counties having increased jurisdiction shall not be affected by the provisions of this article. [1911, ch. 218; R. C. 1905, § 2586; 1899, ch. 68; R. C. 1899, § 2068.]

Maximum salary of county judges in counties having increased jurisdiction is limited to $2,500. State ex rel. Davis v. Fabrick, 18 N. D. 402, 121 N. W. 65.

§ 3501. Provision for deputies. Salaries. If in the judgment of the board of county commissioners of any county it is deemed necessary for the prompt and accurate dispatch of the business in the office of county judge that deputies or clerks be employed therein, it shall by resolution fix the number of clerks to be employed and amount of compensation to be paid such deputies or clerks, which compensation shall be paid monthly from the special salary fund, when the salary fund is exhausted then out of the general fund by warrant; provided, that the officer in whose office such deputies or clerks are employed shall have the sole power of appointing and removing them at pleasure. In no case shall the county judge be allowed for clerk hire unless such services have been actually rendered. [R. C. 1905, § 2587; 1899, ch. 69; R. C. 1899, § 2069.]

§ 3502. Misappropriation of salary, misdemeanor. Any officer who shall receive and appropriate to his own use and benefit any part of the salary allowed to any such clerk or deputy shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. [R. C. 1905, § 2588; 1899, ch. 69; R. C. 1899, § 2069.]

§ 3503. County to be reimbursed, how. For the purpose of reimbursing the county for the salaries provided in the foregoing sections to be paid to judges of county courts each petitioner for letters testamentary, or administration or guardianship, before filing the same in the county court, shall pay or cause to be paid into the county treasury for the use and benefit of the county in whose county court proceedings are to be instituted to settle the estate of a deceased person or for the appointment of a guardian the sum of five dollars, and when the value of said estate has been ascertained by the court through the inventory and appraisal or upon hearing of the same, as legally required, within thirty days after the issuance of letters testamentary, administration or guardianship, the judge of said court shall require an additional fee to be paid from said estate into said county treasury of five dollars for each and every one thousand dollars or fraction thereof in excess of the first one thousand dollars in value therein found after deducting the amount of the liens or incumbrances against the property of said decedent, as shown by said inventory and appraisal, and in all cases in addition thereto, all sums necessarily expended in publishing or serving notices required by law. [1913, ch. 127; 1909, ch. 119; 1890, ch. 50, § 4; R. C. 1899, § 2071; 1903, ch. 66; 1905, ch. 87.]

This section takes the place of section 2589, Code of 1905, which was held unconstitutional in Malin v. Lemoure County, 27 N. D. —.

§ 3504. Payments to treasurer. Receipts. When the payments provided for in the foregoing sections are made to the treasurer of the proper county he shall execute therefor duplicate receipts, one of which shall be filed with the county auditor and one with the judge of the county court. [R. C. 1905, § 2590; 1890, ch. 50, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 2072.]

ARTICLE 4.— COUNTY AUDITORS.

§ 3505. Term of office commences, when. The term of office of the county auditor shall commence on the first Monday in April next succeeding his election. [R. C. 1905, § 2591; 1897, ch. 43; R. C. 1899, § 2072a; 1903, ch. 72.]

§ 3506. Salary of, how determined. The salary of the county auditor shall be regulated by the value of the property in his county as fixed by the state board of equalization for the preceding year as follows: Provided, that no county auditor shall receive more than one thousand two hundred dollars for his personal services in any one year in counties where the valuation of taxable property is less than one million five hundred thousand dollars; nor more than one thousand four hundred dollars in counties where the assessed valuation exceeds one million four hundred thousand dollars, but does not exceed two million dollars; nor more than one thousand five hundred dollars in counties where the assessed valuation exceeds two million dollars, but does not exceed three million dollars; nor more than one thousand six hundred dollars in counties where the assessed valuation exceeds three million dollars, but does not exceed four million dollars; nor more than one thousand seven hundred dollars in counties where the assessed valuation exceeds four million dollars, but does not exceed four million five hundred thousand dollars; nor more than one thousand eight hundred dollars in counties where the assessed valuation exceeds four million five hundred thousand dollars, but does not exceed five million dollars; nor more than one thousand nine hundred dollars in counties where the assessed valuation exceeds five million dollars, but does not exceed six million dollars; nor more than two thousand dollars in counties where the assessed valuation exceeds six million dollars, but does not exceed seven million dollars; nor more than two thousand one hundred dollars in counties where the assessed valuation exceeds seven million dollars, but does not exceed eight million dollars; nor more than two thousand two hundred dollars in counties where the assessed valuation exceeds eight million dollars, but does not exceed nine million dollars; nor more than two thousand three hundred dollars in counties where the assessed valuation exceeds nine million dollars, but does not exceed ten million dollars; nor more than two thousand four hundred dollars in counties where the assessed valuation exceeds ten million dollars, but does not exceed eleven million dollars; nor more than two thousand five hundred dollars in counties where the assessed valuation exceeds twelve million dollars; and all moneys received as fees for certifying to abstracts or deeds in excess of the salary as limited by this article shall be paid by the county auditor at the end of each month into the revenue fund of the county. [1907, ch. 70; R. C. 1905, § 2592; 1899, ch. 56; R. C. 1899, § 2073.]

§ 3507. Provision for deputies. If in the judgment of the board of county commissioners of any county it is deemed necessary for the prompt and accurate dispatch of the business in the office of the county auditor, that clerks or deputies be employed therein, they shall authorize the same, and the allowance for such clerk hire shall be paid in the same manner as all other similar claims against the county, but in no case shall the auditor be allowed for clerk hire unless such services have been actually rendered. [R. C. 1905, § 2593; 1891, ch. 52, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 2074.]

Employment of deputies is within discretion of county. Tillotson v. Potter County, 13 S. D. 460, 83 N. W. 623; Tillotson v. Potter County, 10 S. D. 60, 71 N. W. 754.

ARTICLE 5.—REGISTER OF DEEDS.

§ 3508. Salary, how determined. As compensation for his services the register of deeds shall be paid in all counties an annual salary based on the assessed valuation as follows: In counties having a valuation under five hundred thousand dollars, five hundred dollars; over five hundred thousand dollars and under one million dollars, seven hundred and fifty dollars; over one million dollars and under one million five hundred thousand dollars, one thousand dollars; over one million five hundred thousand dollars and under two million dollars, twelve hundred dollars; over two million dollars and under three million dollars, fourteen hundred dollars; over three million dollars and under five million dollars, sixteen hundred dollars; over five million dollars and under eight million dollars, seventeen hundred dollars; over eight million dollars and under nine million dollars, eighteen hundred dollars; and in all counties having a valuation over nine million dollars, two thousand dollars and no more for his personal services. [R. C. 1905, § 2594; 1899, ch. 132; R. C. 1899, § 2075.]

§ 3509. Fee book to be kept. Monthly reports. Penalty. Each register of deeds shall keep a book provided by the county in which shall be entered each item of fees for services rendered and shall, within three days after the close of each calendar month and also at the end of his term of office, file with the county auditor a statement under oath showing the fees which he has received as such officer since the date of his last report, and also within three days deposit with the county treasurer the total sum of such fees, which sum so deposited shall be placed to the credit of the special salary fund. Any register of deeds, who shall neglect or omit to charge or collect the fees allowed by law for services rendered, or shall fail or neglect to keep a record of the same, or to make a correct statement thereof to the county auditor, with intent to evade the provisions of this section, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor. [R. C. 1905, § 2595; 1891, ch. 52, § 4; R. C. 1899, § 2076.]

Entitled only to fees collected by him. Smithson v. Fall River County, 15 S. D. 34, 87 N. W. 1.

§ 3510. County commissioners may employ deputies. When. Compensation.

If in the judgment of the board of county commissioners, it shall be deemed necessary for the prompt and accurate dispatch of business in the office of the register of deeds that deputies or clerks be employed therein, it shall by resolution fix the number of clerks to be employed and the compensation which they shall receive, which compensation shall be paid monthly from the special salary fund, but when the salary fund is exhausted, then out of the general fund by warrant; provided, that the officers in whose office such deputies or clerks are employed shall have the sole power of appointing and removing them at pleasure; provided, further, that in counties having a population of less than fifteen thousand such amount so paid such register of deeds for salary and clerk hire shall not exceed the sum of five thousand dollars; and in counties having a population of more than fifteen thousand and less than twenty-five thousand, such amount so paid to such register of deeds for salary and clerk hire shall not exceed the sum of six thousand dollars; and in counties having a population of more than twenty-five thousand, such amount so paid to such register of deeds for salary and clerk hire shall not exceed the sum of twelve thousand dollars; provided, that if the amount of money that may be paid for clerk hire in any county in this state shall not be sufficient for the prompt and regular dispatch of business in such county, the judge of the district court of the district in which such county is situated, may upon application of the register of deeds of such county, and after proper showing, order the register of deeds to employ such extra clerks as may be necessary for the prompt dispatch of business in said office, whose compensation shall be paid out of the receipts of said office; provided, however, that all moneys received for compiling of the continuation of abstracts of title shall be turned over to the county treasurer, who shall credit the same to the county general fund. Any officer who shall receive and appropriate to his own use and benefit any part of the salary allowed to any such clerk or deputy shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. [1913, ch. 243; 1907, ch. 69; R. C. 1905, § 2596; 1891, ch. 52, § 6; R. C. 1899, § 2078; 1903, ch. 154.]

Entitled to amount of fees of office, only. Smithson v. Fall River Co., 15 S. D. 34, 87 N. W. 1.

§ 3511. Fees. The register of deeds shall charge and collect the following fees:

1. For recording a deed, mortgage or other instrument and indexing for the first four hundred words, seventy-five cents; for each additional folio, ten cents.

2. Copy of record for each ten words, one cent.

3. Certificate and seal, twenty-five cents; provided that no charges for certificate and seal shall be made in filing or recording any instrument presented for record.

4. Making certified abstract of title, for the first deed or transfer, one dollar, and for each additional deed or transfer, twenty-five cents; making chattel mortgage abstract, for the first entry, one dollar, and for each additional entry, ten cents.

5. Whenever any person presents an abstract to the register of deeds who made the same for continuation of such abstract, it shall be his duty to continue the same and he shall be entitled to receive twenty-five cents for each new transfer, and twenty-five cents for his certificate thereto, and no more.

6. For indexing and recording a discharge of notice of lis pendens or satisfaction of real estate mortgage, fifty cents.

7. For recording marks and brands, each twenty-five cents.

8. For filing and indexing a satisfaction of mortgage on real estate chattel mortgage, or for filing and indexing a renewal of a chattel mortgage, twenty-five cents, but no fee shall be charged for releasing the same.

9. For filing and indexing other instruments not herein specified, authorized by law to be filed, twenty-five cents.

10. For recording a register's certificate from the register of any United States land office, fifty cents.

11. For recording a mortgage satisfaction, mortgage assignment, power of attorney to assign, satisfy or foreclose a mortgage, attorney's affidavit in mortgage foreclosure, and indexing where more than one mortgage is described in the same instrument, twenty-five cents, for indexing each additional mortgage so described in addition to the fee provided for in subdivisions 1 and 6 hereof.

12. Whenever any person demands a chattel mortgage abstract it is the duty of the register of deeds to forthwith prepare such abstract and he shall charge and collect ten cents for each mortgage appearing on said abstract. [1911, ch. 259; R. C. 1905, § 2597; 1897, ch. 124; R. C. 1899, § 2079.]

§ 3512. Salary, how determined. The county treasurer of each county shall be allowed at the time of his settlement all sums paid by him for printing such advertisements as he is required to have done, at the rates prescribed by law; and all sums paid by him for blank books and stationery necessarily used in his office, and shall receive for his services such sums as may be allowed by law for the collection and paying over all moneys collected or received by him for the leasing, sale or interest on school or other state lands, and all other public moneys by him collected or received as such county treasurer for each year's services as follows: Four and one-half cents on each dollar for the first ten thousand dollars; three cents on each dollar on the next twenty thousand dollars; and two cents on each dollar on all sums over thirty thousand dollars and less than sixty thousand dollars, and one cent on each dollar on sums over sixty thousand dollars, to be paid on the warrant of the county auditor out of the salary fund, and whenever the salary fund shall be exhausted the auditor shall draw his warrant on the general fund; provided, that no compensation shall be allowed the treasurer for any moneys received from his predecessor in office, or his legal representatives, nor on moneys received from the current school funds of the state arising from the lease or sale of such lands; provided, that no treasurer shall receive more than one thousand two hundred dollars for his personal services in any one year in counties where the valuation of taxable property is less than one million five hundred thousand dollars; nor more than one thousand four hundred dollars in counties where the assessed valuation exceeds one million four hundred thousand dollars but does not exceed two million dollars; nor more than one thousand five hundred dollars in counties where the assessed valuation exceeds two million dollars but does not exceed three million dollars; nor more than one thousand six hundred dollars in counties where the assessed valuation exceeds three million dollars but does not exceed four million dollars; nor more than one thousand seven hundred dollars in counties where the assessed valuation exceeds four million dollars but does not exceed four million five hundred thousand dollars; nor more than one thousand eight hundred dollars in counties where the assessed valuation exceeds four million five hundred thousand dollars but does not exceed five million dollars; nor more than one thousand nine hundred dollars in counties where the assessed valuation exceeds five million dollars but does not exceed six million dollars; nor more than two thousand dollars in counties where the assessed valuation exceeds six million dollars but does not exceed seven million dollars; nor more than two thousand one hundred dollars in counties where the assessed valuation exceeds seven million dollars but does not exceed eight million dollars; nor more than two thousand two hundred dollars in counties where the assessed valuation exceeds eight million dollars but does not exceed nine million dollars; nor more than two thousand three hundred dollars in counties where the assessed valuation exceeds nine million dollars but does not exceed ten million dollars; nor more than two thousand four hundred dollars in counties where the assessed valuation exceeds ten million dollars but does not exceed eleven million dollars; nor more than two thousand five hundred dollars in counties where the assessed valuation exceeds twelve million dollars; and all moneys received as fees for certifying to abstracts in excess of the salary as limited by this article, shall be paid by the county treasurer at the end of each month into the revenue fund of the county; provided, further, that whenever the salary of the county treasurer is limited to a fixed sum by the second proviso of this section, such sum shall be paid in the manner provided above at the end of each month in twelve equal installments and no treasurer receiving pay for his services under said second proviso, whose salary cannot be certainly and exactly fixed at the beginning of his official year, shall receive more than one-twelfth of his annual salary at the end of each month, as carefully estimated and recorded by the board of county commissioners at its January meeting in each year; and the balance of the year's pay found to be due the treasurer shall be paid to him on the computation of such board of commissioners at its next January meeting. ARTICLE 7.—SHERIFF.

§ 3514. Fees to be charged. The sheriff shall be entitled to charge and receive the following fees:

1. Serving capias with commitment of bail and return, two dollars.
2. For each search or search warrant, one dollar.

3. Arresting under search warrant, each defendant, one dollar.
4. Serving summons, warrant of attachment, order of replevin, injunctional order, citation or other mesne process and return thereon, sixty cents; each defendant besides the first, fifty cents.
5. Copy of summons or orders of attachment, twenty-five cents.
6. Copy of injunctional order, twenty-five cents.
7. Serving subpoena for witness, each person, twenty-five cents.
8. Taking and filing bond in claim and delivery, or other undertaking to be furnished to and approved by the sheriff, one dollar.
9. Traveling expenses for each mile actually and necessarily traveled, ten cents; provided, that when it is necessary to travel by team or automobile, the actual cost of the same may be charged in addition to such mileage. In no case, however, shall the cost of the livery or automobile exceed three dollars per day, the number of miles which constitute a day's travel to be reckoned as follows: When the distance traveled is twenty miles or under, a half a day shall be allowed for the same, and when the distance traveled is greater than twenty miles and not to exceed forty miles, a full day shall be allowed; this same ratio to prevail when the distance traveled exceeds forty miles.
10. Making copy of any process, bond or paper, other than herein provided, for each ten words, one cent.
11. Levying writ of execution and return thereof, one dollar.
12. Levying writ of possession with the aid of the county, two dollars and fifty cents.
13. Levying writ of possession without the aid of the county, two dollars.

19. Serving writ of restitution and return, one dollar and twenty-five cents.
20. Calling inquest to appraise any goods and chattels which he may be required to have appraised, sixty cents, and to each appraiser, to be taxed as costs, one dollar.
21. Advertising sale in newspaper, in addition to the publisher's fees, sixty cents.
22. Advertising in writing for sale of personal property, one dollar.
23. Executing writ or order of partition, two dollars.
24. Making deed for land sold on execution or order of sale, two dollars.
25. Committing prisoner to prison, or discharging therefrom, fifty cents.
26. Opening court and attending thereon, four dollars per day, to be paid by the county; and the sum of two dollars per day shall be allowed for attendance in justice's court in criminal actions, but this per diem shall not be construed to apply to deputies.
27. Commissions on all moneys received and disbursed by him on execution, order of sale, order of attachment, decree or on sale of real or personal property, shall be:
 - (a) For each dollar not exceeding four hundred dollars, three cents.
 - (b) For each dollar above four hundred dollars, and not exceeding one thousand dollars, two cents.
 - (c) For each dollar in excess of one thousand dollars, one cent.
28. In all cases in the district court where persons in whose favor the execution order of sale is issued, shall bid in the property sold on execution or judgment, the sheriff or person making such sale shall receive the following compensation:

(a) When the amount for which the property is bid in does not exceed one thousand dollars, the sum of five dollars and no more.

(b) When the amount for which the property is bid in exceeds one thousand dollars, the sum of ten dollars and no more.

29. For services in case of redemption of property from sale under execution or mortgage foreclosure, for issuing certificate of redemption, one dollar.

30. For selling real property under foreclosure of mortgages by advertisement, the same fees as are allowed by law for the sale of real property under a judgment of foreclosure and sale of such property and no more.

31. For boarding prisoners, not exceeding seventy-five cents per day each, to be determined by the board of county commissioners.

32. For distributing ballot boxes to the various precincts, two dollars per day and mileage.

33. In all cases where personal property shall be taken by the sheriff on execution or under a warrant of attachment, and applied in satisfaction of the debt without sale, he shall be allowed the same percentage on the appraised value thereof as in case of sale.

34. For the expense of taking and keeping possession of and preserving property under attachment, execution or other process, such sum as the court may order, not to exceed the actual expense incurred, and no keeper must receive to exceed three dollars per day, nor must he be so employed, unless the property is of such character as to require the personal attention and supervision of a keeper. No property must be placed in charge of a keeper if it can be safely and securely stored, or when there is no reasonable danger of loss. [1909, ch. 120; R. C. 1905, § 2600; 1881, ch. 77, §§ 1, 2; 1885, ch. 56, § 1; 1897, ch. 100; R. C. 1899, § 2082; 1903, ch. 178; 1903, ch. 99.]

Compensation for summoning petit jury, $16; grand jury, $8; mileage, 5 cents (not 15 cents); nothing for making copies of venires. Remer v. Lawrence County, 13 S. D. 418, 83 N. W. 554; Neher v. McCook County, 11 S. D. 422, 78 N. W. 998.

Must collect fees from debtor in addition to amount called for in writ or chattel mortgage. De Luce v. Root, 12 S. D. 141, 80 N. W. 181.

Not entitled, under chapter 67, N. D. Laws 1897, to $5 for each description of land sold to county for delinquent taxes. Wilson v. Cass County, 8 N. D. 456, 79 N. W. 985.

§ 3515. Fees for transportation of prisoners and patients. The necessary expenses and legal fees of sheriffs and other officers incurred in conveying prisoners to the penitentiary or reform school, or patients to the hospital for the insane, shall be audited as other accounts against the state are audited, and paid out of the state treasury. The auditor may allow for such expenses and fees the following rates:

1. Three dollars per day for the time of the sheriff or other officers necessarily spent in going to and returning from such penitentiary, reform school or hospital, by the nearest route.

2. Two dollars and fifty cents per day for each guard necessary for conveying prisoners to the penitentiary or reform school, and one dollar and fifty cents per day for each guard necessary for conveying patients to the hospital for the insane, and in either case actual traveling expenses.

Not more than one guard shall be allowed for one prisoner, and one additional guard for every two additional prisoners or patients. When conveyance by team is necessary, a team and driver may be employed at a rate of compensation not exceeding five dollars per day, but not less than forty miles per day shall be taken as a day's travel. All bills shall be in writing and fully itemized and verified by oath, and accompanied by the receipt of the warden of the penitentiary or superintendent of the reform school, or of the hospital for the insane for the delivery of such prisoner or patient. Such accounts shall first be approved by the board of county commissioners of the county from which the prisoner or patient is committed, and be entered in the record of their official proceedings, which approval shall be indorsed thereon. [R. C. 1905, § 2602; 1879, ch. 23, § 41; 1885, ch. 57, § 1; 1885, ch. 58, § 1; 1895, ch. 111, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 2084; 1901, ch. 196.]

This section is R. C. 1905, § 2602, and important mention of it is made in three of the paragraphs in section 653g in this compilation.

§ 3517. Fees to be indorsed on process. When any sheriff or other officer shall serve any summons, subpoena, bench warrant, venire or other process in any action to which this state or any county is a party, such officer shall be required to indorse upon such writ or process, or upon a paper attached thereto, at the time he makes his return of service thereon, a statement of his fees for such service, the number of miles traveled and the amount of his mileage, and in case he shall fail to make his return with such statement and file the same with the clerk of the court from which such process issued before judgment is rendered in the action to which such process relates, he shall receive no fees for such service, and the county commissioners of the county are prohibited from allowing the same. [R. C. 1905, § 2604; 1883, ch. 54, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 2086.]

Commissioners may allow fees and expenses for bringing back fugitive from justice, though no statement filed with examining magistrate. Thomas v. Douglas County, 13 S. D. 520, 83 N. W. 580.

§ 3518. Fees for boarding United States prisoners. The United States shall be liable to pay for the board of prisoners committed to any county jail in this state by authority of United States courts the same charges as are allowed for the board of prisoners committed under authority of this state; the United States shall also be liable to pay such sum for guard hire and board of guards as is actually expended by the sheriff; provided, that no sheriff shall employ more than one guard when the number of United States prisoners in his custody is less than six, and but one additional guard for each additional six prisoners or fractional number thereof; provided, further, that there shall not be paid to any guard a sum exceeding two dollars per day for his services for the time actually employed. [R. C. 1905, § 2605; R. C. 1895, § 2087.]

§ 3519. Liability of the United States. Whenever United States prisoners are committed to any county jail in this state, the United States shall be liable to pay to the county in which such jail is situated the sum of one dollar per day during the time such county jail is used for the keeping of United States prisoners. The jail rent provided in this section shall be exclusive of the charge for support of United States prisoners provided for in the preceding section. [R. C. 1905, § 2606; R. C. 1895, § 2088.]

§ 3520. Sheriff's salary. The salary of the sheriff shall be regulated by the population in his county, according to the last preceding official state or federal census, as follows: Provided, that no sheriff shall receive more than fifteen hundred dollars for his personal services in any one year in counties having a population of less than five thousand; sixteen hundred dollars in counties having a population of five thousand and not exceeding seven thousand; seventeen hundred and fifty dollars in counties having a population of seven thousand and not exceeding nine thousand; nineteen hundred dollars in counties having a population of nine thousand and not exceeding eleven thousand; two thousand dollars in counties having a population of eleven thousand and not exceeding thirteen thousand; twenty-one hundred dollars in counties having a population of thirteen thousand and not exceeding fifteen thousand; twenty-two hundred dollars in counties having a population of fifteen thousand and not exceeding seventeen thousand; twenty-three hundred dollars in counties having a population of seventeen thousand and not exceeding nineteen thousand; twenty-four hundred dollars in counties having a population of nineteen thousand and not exceeding twenty-three thousand; twenty-five hundred dollars in counties having a population of twenty-three thousand and not exceeding twenty-four thousand; twenty-six hundred dollars in counties having a population of twenty-four thousand and not exceeding twenty-five thousand; twenty-seven hundred dollars in counties having a population of twenty-five thousand and not exceeding twenty-six thousand; twenty-eight hundred dollars in counties having a population of twenty-six thousand and not exceeding twenty-seven thousand; twenty-nine hundred dollars in counties having a population of twenty-seven thousand and not exceeding twenty-eight thousand; three thousand dollars in counties having a population of twenty-eight thousand and not exceeding twenty-nine thousand; thirty-one hundred dollars in counties having a population of twenty-nine thousand and not exceeding thirty thousand; thirty-two hundred dollars in counties having a population of thirty thousand and not exceeding thirty-one thousand; thirty-three hundred dollars in counties having a population of thirty-one thousand and not exceeding thirty-two thousand; thirty-four hundred dollars in counties having a population exceeding thirty-two thousand and not exceeding thirty-three thousand; thirty-five hundred dollars in counties exceeding thirty-three thousand; provided, that no sheriff within the state of North Dakota shall receive for his personal services more than thirty-five hundred dollars in one year. Provided, further, that in all counties having a population less than twenty-five thousand the county commissioners may raise the sheriff's salary not to exceed five per cent of the salary prescribed in this section, if the commissioners in their judgment find the salary prescribed to be inadequate. [1911, ch. 275, § 1.]

Sections 3520-3526 are Laws 1911, ch. 275, except the last section of that chapter reading as follows: "Provided, however, that the provisions of this act shall not apply to the present term of officers elected or appointed prior to the taking effect of this act."

§ 3521. Mileage. In addition to the salary prescribed by the preceding section the sheriff or his deputy or deputies shall be allowed ten cents per mile for each and every mile actually and necessarily traveled in the performance of any of their official duties. [1911, ch. 275, § 2.]

See note to section 3522.

§ 3522. Livery. The sheriff or his deputy or deputies shall be allowed as reimbursement for livery hire necessarily used in the performance of his or their official duties, the actual expenses of such livery or automobile hire which shall in no case exceed five dollars per day; forty miles or major fraction thereof shall be reckoned as one day's drive; twenty miles or less shall be reckoned as one-half day's drive; the same ratio shall apply to all drives extending over forty miles. [1911, ch. 275, § 3.]

The provisions in this and the preceding section do not control section 3515 — at least not until July 1, 1915. So stated in three paragraphs in section 653g.

§ 3523. Deputies. If in the judgment of the board of county commissioners of any county it shall be necessary for the prompt dispatch of business in the sheriff's office they shall by resolution provide for appointment by the sheriff of a deputy, or deputies, and clerks, and the time for which they shall be employed, and fix the compensation which they shall receive, which shall be paid monthly in the same manner as the salary of sheriff. Provided, that no such deputy or clerk shall receive less than sixty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars per month, except that in all counties having a population of more than thirty-three thousand according to the last census the chief deputy sheriff shall receive a salary of one hundred twenty-five dollars per month. Provided, that the sheriff shall appoint in each commissioner district of his county, except in commissioner districts where a salaried deputy is located, at least one deputy, whose compensation shall be such mileage and livery fees only as are now provided by law. [1913, ch. 270; 1911, ch. 275, § 4.]

§ 3524. Sheriff may appoint. In case of any emergency the sheriff shall have the authority to appoint and qualify special deputies in such numbers as in his judgment the conditions may require, and each of such special deputies shall receive as compensation for his services the sum of three dollars per day and the same mileage as allowed to regular deputies, to be paid by the county. The sheriff shall have the sole power of appointing and removing them at pleasure. Any sheriff who shall appropriate to his own use any part of the salary allowed any clerk or deputy in his office shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor. [1911, ch. 275, § 5.]

§ 3525. Fees to be collected. In all civil actions the fees shall be collected by the sheriff and shall be paid in advance, and at the expiration of each month he shall turn the fees so collected over to the county treasurer and make a report to the board of county commissioners showing all fees earned and collected. He shall also keep a complete record of all fees which may be due to his office for services rendered in criminal actions as now prescribed by law, and present his itemized statement for mileage and livery in connection with such criminal actions and file the same with the county auditor at the expiration of each month and receive his warrant for such mileage and livery. [1911, ch. 275, § 6.]

§ 3526. Penalties. At the expiration of each month the sheriff shall make report to the board of county commissioners of his county verified by affidavit of all fees collected and any sheriff who by neglect or otherwise fails to make out such a report shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars, and any sheriff who by neglect or otherwise fails to collect the fees and turn same over to the county treasurer, as prescribed in section 3525, or makes a false report to the board of county commissioners, shall be guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished as now prescribed by law. [1911, ch. 275, § 7.]

ARTICLE 8.—CORONER.

§ 3527. Fees to be charged. The coroner shall be entitled to charge and receive the following fees:

1. For a view of each body and taking and returning an inquest, five dollars ($5).

§ 3538. Deputies and clerks allowed, when. In all counties under the classification given in section 3537 the county auditor may employ a deputy for the months of July, August, September, October and November, in each year. The county treasurer may employ a deputy during the months of November, December, January and February of each year, and the register of deeds may employ a deputy during the entire year. The salaries of such deputies and clerks shall be paid by the county as other salaries of county officers are paid; provided, that such deputies or clerks are not employed unless sufficient work is on hand to warrant such assistance. [R. C. 1905, § 2618; 1905, ch. 79, § 2.]

§ 3539. County commissioners may employ additional help. The provisions of this article shall in no wise deprive the board of county commissioners in the various counties of the state of any authority to furnish any additional help, beyond the limitations of this article, that may be required to properly do the business work of such officers and at salaries named by such board, but each county officer for whom a deputy or clerk is provided by the provisions of this article or by a board of county commissioners, shall be entitled to choose such deputy or clerk. [R. C. 1905, § 2619; 1905, ch. 79, § 3.]

ARTICLE 18.—PRINTERS.

§ 3540. Pay required. [In all cases where publication of legal notices of any kind is required or allowed by law, the person or officer desiring such publication shall be required to pay seven cents per counted line of nonpareil type for the first insertion and four cents per line of nonpareil for each subsequent insertion; or five cents per counted line of brevier type for the first insertion and three cents per line of brevier type for each subsequent insertion. All tabulated rule and figure matter shall be computed at double the rates for straight matter. A line shall be construed to mean thirteen ems pica in length.] In all cases of publication of notices required by law, the plaintiff, except in divorce cases, may designate the legal newspaper published within the county in which such notice shall be published. [1909, ch. 178; R. C. 1905, § 2620; 1887, ch. 51, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 2099.]

The foregoing section constitutes Laws 1909, ch. 178, which amends R. C. 1905, § 2620, to read as above. All of section 3540, except the last sentence, is probably superseded by sections 3308, 3309, although the latter section seems to overlook the amendment in Laws 1909, above mentioned. Prior to that amendment, R. C. 1905, § 2620, read as follows: "In all cases where publication of legal notices of any kind is required or allowed by law, the person or officer desiring such publication shall be required to pay seventy-five cents per square of twelve lines of nonpareil type or its equivalent for the first insertion and fifty cents per square for each subsequent insertion. And in all cases of publication of notices in connection with sales upon execution the plaintiff, except in divorce cases, may designate the newspaper published within the county in which such notice shall be published; in all legal advertisements fractional parts of twelve lines shall be paid for at the rate of ten cents per line of nonpareil type or its equivalent."

ARTICLE 19.—FEES IN MATTERS OF ESTRAYS.

§ 3541. Fees allowed. The following fees are allowed in cases of estrays:

1. To justices of the peace, for issuing any warrant of appraisement, fifty cents.
2. For filing and entering in his docket the sworn report of appraisers, fifty cents.
3. Taking and entering the affidavit of the taking up of any estray, fifty cents.
4. For posting notices of estray and certifying to a copy of the sworn reports of the appraisers to the register of deeds, fifty cents.
5. Posting notices and selling an estray, two dollars.
6. Advertising an estray, if published in a newspaper, three dollars.
7. To each appraiser, twenty-five cents.
8. To the register of deeds for entering certified copy of sworn report of appraisers, twenty-five cents.
9. For each inspection of the estray register, ten cents. [R. C. 1905, § 2621; R. C. 1899, § 2100.]

ARTICLE 20.—OFFICIAL REPORTS OF COUNTY AND OTHER OFFICERS.

§ 3542. Penalty. Any county, city, village, civil township, school township or school district officer, who is required by law to make an official report to any other county, city, village, civil township, school township or school district officer, board, tribunal or state officer, and who willfully neglects to make such report, or fails to perform such official duties, shall forfeit and pay to the state a penalty of not less than ten nor more than two hundred dollars, to be recovered from such delinquent officer, or from him and the sureties upon his official bond, in a civil action to be brought by the state's attorney in any court of record having jurisdiction. [R. C. 1905, § 2622; 1891, ch. 98, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 306.]

§ 3543. Examination of records. State's attorney to prosecute. At the end of the term of office of each county officer, or at any time it may seem advisable, it shall be the duty and authority of the board of county commissioners to examine the records of his office to ascertain if they have been properly kept, or to secure such examination by the state examiner or other competent accountants. Any failure or irregularity discovered must be remedied, or it shall become the duty of the state's attorney to prosecute an officer guilty thereof for neglect as provided in the last section. It shall also be the duty of the city council, board of aldermen, village trustees, civil township supervisors, school township or school district board, as the case may be, to examine the records of their several officers in a like manner, or to employ a competent accountant to make such examination. Upon complaint of irregularity by the proper board the state's attorney shall prosecute as provided in the last section. [1913, ch. 116; R. C. 1905, § 2623; 1891, ch. 98, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 307.]

§ 3544. Blanks to be furnished. It shall be the duty of the county, city, village, civil township, school township or school district officer to provide at the expense of the county, city, village, civil township, school township or school district such blanks and records as are necessary for making the proper record and the transaction of any official business connected with his office. [R. C. 1905, § 2624; 1891, ch. 98, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 308.]

ARTICLE 21.— MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

§ 3545. Fees for interpreters. Interpreters or translators may be allowed such compensation for their services as the court shall certify to be reasonable and just, to be paid and collected as other costs, but the same shall not exceed five dollars per day. [1907, ch. 89; R. C. 1905, § 2625; R. C. 1899, § 2101.]

§ 3546. Fees for acknowledgments. Officers authorized by law to take and certify acknowledgments of deeds and other instruments are entitled to charge and receive twenty-five cents each therefor, and for administering oaths and certifying the same, ten cents. [R. C. 1905, § 2626; R. C. 1899, § 2102.]

§ 3547. Taxing costs. In all actions, motions and proceedings in the supreme, district or justices' courts, the costs of the parties shall be taxed and entered on record separately. [R. C. 1905, § 2627; R. C. 1899, § 2103.]

§ 3548. Fees paid in advance or security given. The clerk of the supreme court and of each district court, the county judge, sheriff, justice of the peace, constable or register of deeds may in all cases require the party for whom any service is to be rendered to pay the fees in advance of the rendition of such service, or to give security for the same, to be approved by the officer. [R. C. 1905, § 2628; R. C. 1899, § 2104.]

§ 3550. Bailiffs, compensation of. It shall be the duty of the district court at each term thereof to appoint a competent number of bailiffs to wait on the jury and court during the term, who shall be allowed for their services two dollars per day, to be paid by the county. [R. C. 1905, § 2630; R. C. 1895, § 2106.]

§ 3551. Per diem oath. Penalty. Each officer, whose salary is in the nature of a per diem, shall, before drawing any money on account of such salary, subscribe an oath or affirmation in the following form:

I, A. B., do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I have been days necessarily and diligently engaged in the duties of my office as (insert title of office).

.....(Officer's name.)

Any disbursing officer of this state, who shall pay any portion of the salary of any officer aforesaid before such oath or affirmation is taken and subscribed, shall forfeit to this state the sum of fifty dollars, which forfeiture may be sued for by any taxpayer. [R. C. 1905, § 2631; R. C. 1899, § 2107.]

County must pay for services of assistant clerk during term when appointed by court. White v. Hughes County, 9 S. D. 12, 67 N. W. 855.

ARTICLE 1.—ORGANIZATION OF CITIES.

§ 3552. Cities incorporated, how. Any city in this state, and any incorporated town or village therein, having a population of not less than five hundred inhabitants, may become incorporated, under this chapter, as a city in the manner following: Whenever one-twentieth of the legal voters of such city, or one-tenth of the legal voters of such incorporated town or village, voting at the last preceding general election, shall petition the mayor and council of such city, or the president and trustees of such incorporated town or village, to submit the question as to whether such city, incorporated town or village, shall become incorporated under this chapter, to a vote of the electors in such city, town or village, it shall be the duty of such mayor and council of such city, or president and trustees of such incorporated town or village, to submit such question accordingly, and to appoint a time and place or places at which such vote may be taken, and to designate the persons who shall act as judges and clerks at such election; but such question shall not be submitted oftener than once in two years. [R. C. 1905, § 2632; 1887, ch. 73, art. 1, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 2108; 1905, ch. 62, § 1.]

Special charter of city failing to organize under this chapter not repealed. Tripp v. City of Yankton, 10 S. D. 516, 74 N. W. 447.

City incorporated under special charter, which organizes under general act, governed by general school law; any special act providing for board of education ceases to be in force. State v. Power, 5 S. D. 627, 59 N. W. 1090.

§ 3553. Notice of election. The mayor of such city and president of such incorporated town or village shall give at least twenty days' notice of such election by publishing a notice thereof in one or more newspapers within such city, incorporated town or village, but if no newspaper is published therein, then by posting at least five copies of such notice in each ward or voting precinct of such city, town or village, if divided into wards and precincts; if not, then within such city, town or village. [R. C. 1905, § 2633; 1887, ch. 73, art. 1, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 2109; 1905, ch. 62, § 2.]

§ 3554. Form of ballots. The ballots to be used at such election shall be in the following form:

“ For city organization under general law, ”
The electors to designate their choice by inserting the words “ yes ” or “ no ” within such square. The judges of such election shall make returns thereof to the city council of such city, or trustees of such incorporated town or village, whose duty it shall be to canvass such returns, and cause the result of such canvass to be entered upon the records of such city, town or village. If a majority of the votes cast at such election shall be for city organization under general law, such city shall thenceforth be deemed to be organized under this chapter; and the city, village or town officers then in office, shall thereupon exercise the powers conferred upon like officials by this chapter, until their successors shall be elected and qualified. [R. C. 1905, § 2634; 1887, ch. 73, art. 1, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 2110; 1905, ch. 62, § 3.]

Upon what basis majority essential to adoption of constitutional or other special proposition submitted at general election is to be computed. 22 L.R.A. (N.S.) 478.

§ 3555. Acts and proceedings, legalized. That in all cases where there has been an incorporation of a village into a city heretofore attempted under the provisions of article one (1) of chapter thirty (30) of the Revised Codes of North Dakota for the year 1905 [sections 3552-3554, 3556-3564 herein], and the laws amendatory thereof, such attempted incorporation of such village into a city, under the name assumed, shall be, and hereby is legalized in each and every case, and declared a valid and effective incorporation, and this shall be true notwithstanding the omission of any matter and thing by law required as a prerequisite to the incorporation of such village into a city, and notwithstanding any defect in the proceedings had for that purpose, and any election called by the officers of such incorporated city and had therein for any purpose and any by-law, resolution or ordinance heretofore adopted by such city, or corporate act of any character indulged in, is hereby legalized and declared valid; provided, that nothing herein contained shall affect any action or proceeding now pending. [1911, ch. 313.]

§ 3556. Organization of unorganized territory. Whenever any area of contiguous territory in this state not exceeding four square miles shall have residing thereon a population of not less than five hundred inhabitants, which shall not already be included within any incorporated town or city, the same may become incorporated as a city in manner following: Any fifty legal voters thereof may file in the office of the county auditor of the county in which such inhabitants reside a petition addressed to the board of commissioners of such county, and if the territory described in said petition shall be in more than one county, then the petition shall be addressed to the board of commissioners of the county where the greater part of such territory is situated, which petition shall define the boundaries of such proposed city, and state the number of inhabitants residing within such limits, and also state the name of such proposed city, and shall contain a prayer that the question be submitted to the legal voters residing within such limits, whether they will organize as a city under this chapter. It shall be the duty of the board to fix a time and place, within the boundaries of such proposed city, at which an election may be held to determine such question; and such commissioners shall name the persons to act as judges in holding such election, and shall give notice thereof by causing ten notices to be posted in public places within such proposed city, and section 3554 shall be applicable to such election; provided, that the returns of such election shall be made to, and canvassed by, the board of county commissioners instead of the city council, and the result of such election shall be entered upon the records of such board of county commissioners. If a majority of the votes cast at such election shall be "for city organization under general law," the inhabitants of such territory described in such petition shall be deemed to be incorporated as a city under this chapter, and with the name stated in the petition. [R. C. 1905, § 2635; 1905, ch. 62, § 4.]

See sections 3564a-3564e.

Does not empower county commissioners to require submission of question of sale of liquor within city limits. State ex rel. Cook v. Tripp County, 29 S. D. 358, 137 N. W. 554.

§ 3557. Duty of mayor and council on change of organization. It shall be the duty of the mayor and city council of any city, or the president and board of trustees of any town or village, which shall have voted to change its organization to a city under this chapter, to call and give notice of an election to elect city officers and designate the time and places of holding the same. Such notice shall be published in a newspaper if there is one within the town or village, or if not, then posted in ten public places therein for at least twenty days before such election. The mayor and city council, or president and trustees, as the case may be, shall appoint the judges and clerks to hold such election, canvass the returns thereof, and cause the result to be entered upon the records of the city, town or village; and the provisions of this chapter relative to the election of city officers shall be applicable thereto; but at such election aldermen may be elected on a general ticket; provided, however, in case of cities organizing under section 3556, the county commissioners shall call and give notice of the election and perform the same duties relative thereto, as is above required to be performed by the mayor and city council or president and trustees of such cities, towns and villages. [R. C. 1905, § 2636; 1905, ch. 62, § 5.]

§ 3558. Term of officers. The city officers elected under either of the preceding sections shall hold their respective offices until the succeeding regular election for such offices respectively, and until their successors are elected as provided in this chapter. [R. C. 1905, § 2637; 1905, ch. 62, § 6.]

§ 3559. Special charter. Whenever any city in this state shall organize under this chapter any special charter that may have been granted to such city shall be null and void. [R. C. 1905, § 2638; 1905, ch. 62, § 7.]

§ 3560. Court take judicial notice. All courts in this state shall take judicial notice of the existence of cities organized under this chapter, and of the change of the organization of any city from its original organization to its organization under this chapter; and from the time of organization the provisions of this chapter shall be applicable to such city, and all laws in conflict herewith shall no longer be applicable. But all laws or parts of laws not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter shall continue in force and be applicable to any such city the same as if such change had not taken place. [R. C. 1905, § 2639; 1887, ch. 73, art. 1, § 4; R. C. 1899, § 2111; 1905, ch. 62, § 8.]

§ 3561. Bodies corporate. Cities organized under this chapter shall be bodies politic and corporate under the name and style of "City of (name)," and under such name may sue and be sued, contract and be contracted with, acquire and hold real and personal property for corporate purposes, have a common seal and change the same at pleasure, and exercise all the powers hereinafter conferred. [R. C. 1905, § 2640; 1887, ch. 73, art. 1, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 2112; 1905, ch. 62, § 9.]

Who may maintain quo warranto to test validity of organization of municipal corporation or political subdivision of state. 21 L.R.A.(N.S.) 685.

§ 3562. Vested rights. All rights and property of every kind and description which were vested in any municipal corporation under its former organization, shall be deemed and held to be vested in the same municipal corporation upon its being incorporated under the provisions of this chapter, but no rights or liabilities, either in favor of or against such corporation, existing at the time of so becoming incorporated under this chapter, and no action or prosecution of any kind, shall be affected by such change, but the same shall stand and progress as if no change had been made; provided, that when a different remedy is given by this chapter, which may properly be made applicable to any right existing at the time of such city so becoming incorporated under this chapter, the same shall be deemed cumulative to the remedies before provided and used accordingly. [R. C. 1905, § 2641; 1887, ch. 73, art. 1, § 6; R. C. 1899, § 2113; 1905, ch. 62, § 10.]

§ 3563. Filing and recording proceedings. The corporate authorities of any city which may become organized under this chapter shall, within three months after organization hereunder, cause to be filed in the office of the register of deeds in the county in which such city is situated, a certified copy of the entry made upon such records of the city, as to the canvass of the votes, showing the result of such election, whereby such city became so organized, and such register of deeds shall record the same, and such corporate authorities shall also cause a like certificate to be filed in the office of the secretary of state, who shall file the same and keep a registry of cities organized under this chapter. [R. C. 1905, § 2642; 1887, ch. 73, art. 1, § 7; R. C. 1899, § 2114; 1905, ch. 62, § 11.]

§ 3564. Legal identity of cities not changed. All ordinances and resolutions in force in any city at the date of its organization under this chapter shall continue in full force and effect until repealed or amended, notwithstanding such change of organization, and such change of organization shall not change the legal identity of such city as a corporation. [R. C. 1905, § 2643; 1887, ch. 73, art. 1, § 8; R. C. 1899, § 2115; 1905, ch. 62, § 12.]

ARTICLE 2.—ORGANIZATION OF VILLAGES, TOWNS OR CITIES IN TERRITORY EMBRACING MORE THAN ONE COUNTY.

The act constituting this article concludes with an emergency section reciting that "there is now no law adequate for the organization of villages, towns or cities containing less than five hundred inhabitants, which territory is embraced in more than one county"—doubtless alluding to section 3556.

This article is probably superseded as to organization of villages by Laws 1911, ch. 314, constituting sections 3932-3941 herein.

§ 3564a. When organized. Whenever any area of contiguous territory in this state, not exceeding four square miles, shall have residing thereon a population of not less than one hundred inhabitants, which shall not already have been included within the corporate limits of any incorporated village, town or city, and which territory to be embraced in the limits of said village, town or city in more than one county, the same may become incorporated as a village, town or city in the manner provided in section 3556. [1907, ch. 266, § 1.]

§ 3564b. Other provisions applicable. Chapter thirty of the political code of North Dakota is hereby made applicable to the organization, power and duties of such village, town or city and its officers, except as herein otherwise especially provided. [1907, ch. 266, § 2.]

"Chapter 30 of political code" is comprised in sections 3552-3770 herein.

§ 3564c. Assessor appointed. There shall be appointed by the trustees or mayor of all villages, towns or cities incorporated under the provisions of this article, an assessor for the territory embraced in each of the counties in which said village, town or city is located, and which said assessor shall have the same power, and perform the same duties as assessors in villages, towns or cities embraced within the limits of a single county, and shall return to the trustees of such village, town or city council the assessment of property embraced within the portion of the city for which they are appointed. [1907, ch. 266, § 3.]

§ 3564d. Proceedings of equalization board. The village or town clerk or city auditor, after action by the village, town or city board of equalization, shall return a separate report to each of the county auditors of the counties in which any portion of said village, town or city is located, the equalization of the property contained in such county, and thereafter the board of county commissioners of each of the counties shall perform the same duties as to such assessment, levy and collection of taxes as if the whole village, town or city was embraced within the limits of said county. [1907, ch. 266, § 4.]

§ 3564e. Duty of county treasurer. The county treasurer of each county shall perform the same duties in relation to all property returned as assessed by said village, town or city in the county of which said treasurer is an officer, in the same manner and to the same extent as is now provided by law for the levy and collection of taxes. [1907, ch. 266, § 5.]

ARTICLE 3.—THE MAYOR.

§ 3565. Mayor. The chief executive officer of the city is the mayor, who shall be a qualified elector within the city, and who shall hold his office for two years and until his successor is elected and qualified. [R. C. 1905, § 2644; 1887, ch. 73, art. 2, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 2116; 1905, ch. 62, § 13.]

§ 3566. Vacancy. Whenever a vacancy occurs in the office of mayor and the unexpired term is one year or more from the date such vacancy occurs, it shall be filled by an election. [R. C. 1905, § 2645; 1887, ch. 73, art. 2, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 2117; 1905, ch. 62, § 14.]

§ 3567. Vacancy. If the vacancy is less than one year the city council shall elect one of its number to act as mayor, who shall possess all the rights and powers of the mayor until the next annual election and until a mayor is elected and qualified. [R. C. 1905, § 2646; 1887, ch. 73, art. 2, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 2118; 1905, ch. 62, § 15.]

§ 3568. Removal. If the mayor at any time during his term of office removes from the city, his office shall thereby become vacant. [R. C. 1905, § 2647; 1887, ch. 73, art. 2, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 2119; 1905, ch. 62, § 16.]

§ 3569. Duties. The mayor shall preside at all meetings of the city council, but shall not vote except in case of a tie, when he shall give the casting vote. [R. C. 1905, § 2648; 1887, ch. 73, art. 2, § 6; R. C. 1899, § 2120; 1905, ch. 62, § 17.]

§ 3570. Power of removal. The mayor shall have power to remove any officer appointed by him whenever he shall be of the opinion that the interests of the city demand such removal; but he shall report the reasons for such removal to the council at its regular meeting. [R. C. 1905, § 2649; 1887, ch. 73, art. 2, § 7; R. C. 1899, § 2121; 1905, ch. 62, § 18.]

Discretion of mayor as to removal of appointive officer. State v. Williams, 6 S. D. 119, 60 N. W. 410.

§ 3571. Peace officer. He may exercise within the city limits the powers conferred upon sheriffs to suppress disorder and keep the peace. [R. C. 1905, § 2650; 1887, ch. 73, art. 2, § 8; R. C. 1899, § 2122; 1905, ch. 62, § 19.]

§ 3572. Release of prisoners. He may release any person imprisoned for violation of any city ordinance, and shall report such release with the cause thereof, to the city council at its first session thereafter. [R. C. 1905, § 2651; 1887, ch. 73, art. 2, § 9; R. C. 1899, § 2123; 1905, ch. 62, § 20.]

§ 3573. Enforcement of ordinances. He shall perform all such duties as are or may be prescribed by law or by the city ordinances, and shall take care that the laws and ordinances are faithfully executed. [R. C. 1905, § 2652; 1887, ch. 73, art. 2, § 10; R. C. 1899, § 2124; 1905, ch. 62, § 21.]

§ 3574. Inspection of records. He shall have power at all times to examine and inspect the books, records and papers of any agent, employe or officer of the city. [R. C. 1905, § 2653; 1887, ch. 73, art. 2, § 11; R. C. 1899, § 2125; 1905, ch. 62, § 22.]

§ 3575. Messages to council. The mayor shall annually, and from time to time, give the council information relative to the affairs of the city, and shall recommend for its consideration such measures as he may deem expedient. [R. C. 1905, § 2654; 1887, ch. 73, art. 2, § 12; R. C. 1899, § 2126; 1905, ch. 62, § 23.]

§ 3576. Power to keep the peace. He shall have power when necessary to call on each male inhabitant of the city over the age of eighteen years to aid in enforcing the laws and ordinances, and to call out the militia to aid in suppressing riots and other disorderly conduct, or to carry into effect any law or ordinance, subject to the authority of the governor as commander in chief of the militia. [R. C. 1905, § 2655; 1887, ch. 73, art. 2, § 13; R. C. 1899, § 2127; 1905, ch. 62, § 24.]

§ 3577. Removal. In case the mayor or any other municipal officer shall at any time be guilty of a palpable omission of duty, or shall willfully and corruptly be guilty of oppression, malconduct or misfeasance in the discharge of the duties of his office, he shall be liable to be prosecuted criminally in any court of competent jurisdiction, and on conviction shall be fined in a sum not exceeding one thousand dollars, and the court in which such conviction shall be had shall enter an order removing such officer from office. [R. C. 1905, § 2656; 1887, ch. 73, art. 2, § 14; R. C. 1899, § 2128; 1905, ch. 62, § 25.]

§ 3578. Ordinances revised and passed. How. He may appoint by and with the advice and consent of the city council one or more competent persons to prepare and submit to the city council for its adoption or rejection, an ordinance for the revision of the enactment of new and additional ordinances and the amendment of existing ordinances of such city for the government thereof. The city attorney shall be appointed as one of the persons to prepare and submit such ordinances so revised, added to and amended, and the compensation of such reviser or revisers, including the city attorney, shall be determined and fixed by the city council and paid out of the city treasury. Such revision, additional ordinances and amendments may be passed as a single ordinance, and be published in pamphlet or book form, by and under the authority of the city council and shall be valid and effective without publication in a newspaper. [1913, ch. 77; R. C. 1905, § 2657; 1887, ch. 73, art. 2, § 15; R. C. 1899, § 2129; 1905, ch. 62, § 26.]

§ 3579. May sign or veto. He shall have power to sign or veto any ordinance or resolution passed by the council. [R. C. 1905, § 2658; 1887, ch. 73, art. 2, § 16; R. C. 1899, § 2130; 1905, ch. 62, § 27.]

§ 3586. Council judge of election and qualification of members. The city council shall be judge of the election and qualifications of its own members. [R. C. 1905, § 2665; 1887, ch. 73, art. 3, § 6; R. C. 1899, § 2137; 1905, ch. 62, § 34.]

As to similar provision in Starr & Curtis Ill. Stat. ¶ 35, see Hilligoss v. Grinslade, 32 Ill. App. 45; Marshall v. People, 40 Ill. App. 102.

§ 3587. Rules of procedure. It shall determine its rules of procedure, punish its members for disorderly conduct, and with the concurrence of two-thirds of the aldermen elect may expel a member, but not a second time for the same offense; provided, that any alderman who shall have been convicted of bribery shall thereby be deemed to have vacated his office. [R. C. 1905, § 2666; 1887, ch. 73, art. 3, § 7; R. C. 1899, § 2138; 1905, ch. 62, § 35.]

§ 3588. Quorum. A majority of the aldermen elected shall constitute a quorum to do business, but a smaller number may adjourn from time to time, and may compel the attendance of absentees under such penalties as may be prescribed by ordinance. [R. C. 1905, § 2667; 1887, ch. 73, art. 3, § 8; R. C. 1899, § 2139; 1905, ch. 62, § 36.]

§ 3589. Regular meetings. The city council shall hold its regular meetings on the first Monday of each and every month, and may prescribe by ordinance the manner in which special meetings may be called. The first meeting for organization shall be held on the third Tuesday in April of each year. [R. C. 1905, § 2668; 1887, ch. 73, art. 3, § 9; 1895, ch. 29, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 2140; 1905, ch. 62, § 37.]

§ 3590. President and vice-president. It shall at the first regular meeting after the annual election in each year proceed to elect from its own members a president and vice-president, who shall hold their respective offices for the municipal year. The president of the council shall, in the absence or temporary disability of the mayor, be presiding officer of the council and shall, during the absence of the mayor from the city or his temporary disability, be acting mayor and shall possess all the powers of the mayor. In the absence or disability of the mayor and president of the city council the vice-president shall perform the duties of the mayor and president of the council. [R. C. 1905, § 2669; 1887, ch. 73, art. 3, § 10; 1889, ch. 33, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 2141; 1905, ch. 62, § 37.]

§ 3591. Meetings and record of proceedings. It shall sit with open doors and shall keep a journal of its proceedings. [R. C. 1905, § 2670; 1887, ch. 73, art. 3, § 11; R. C. 1899, § 2142; 1905, ch. 62, § 39.]

Right of public to attend municipal council meetings. 1 B. R. C. 296.

§ 3592. Passage of ordinances. The yeas and nays shall be taken upon the passage of all ordinances and on all propositions to create any liability against the city or for the expenditure or appropriation of money, and in all other cases at the request of any member, which shall be entered on the journal of its proceedings, and the concurrence of a majority of all the members elected shall be necessary to the passage of any such ordinance or proposition. It shall require a two-thirds vote of all the aldermen elected to sell any city or school property; provided, all ordinances or amendments thereto which have been heretofore adopted and published by any of the cities of this state where the yeas and nays were not taken on the passage thereof, or were not entered on the journal of its proceedings, as provided herein, or where at least one week has not intervened between the first and second reading of said ordinance, as provided by this chapter, are hereby declared to be hereafter in full force and valid without re-enactment or republication; and all ordinances adopted by any of the cities of this state, which were not authorized by any of the authority conferred by law heretofore, but which would be authorized under the provisions of this chapter, are hereby declared to be in full force and effect, the same as if readopted and republished after the adoption of this chapter. [R. C. 1905, § 2671; 1887, ch. 73, art. 3, § 12; R. C. 1899, § 2143; 1905, ch. 62, § 40.]

Yeas and nays need not be taken upon passage of resolution levying general city tax. Shattuck v. Smith, 6 N. D. 56, 69 N. W. 5.

Journal entries must show vote of each member of city council on passage of ordinance. Pickton v. City of Fargo, 10 N. D. 469, 88 N. W. 90.

City charter; requirement that vote on ordinances be by yeas and nays mandatory. O'Neil v. Tyler, 3 N. D. 47, 53 N. W. 434.

Employment of attorney must be authorized or ratified by yea and nay vote of council to render city liable. Bosard v. Grand Forks, 13 N. D. 587, 102 N. W. 164.

Statute is mandatory and must be substantially complied with. Milbank v. Western Surety Co., 21 S. D. 261, 111 N. W. 561.

Record which shows that all members of city council voted in favor of resolution is equivalent to showing "yea" vote. Whittaker v. Deadwood, 23 S. D. 538, 122 N. W. 590.

Vote of common council or similar body as affected by personal interest of members. 18 L.R.A. 367.

§ 3593. Reconsideration of vote. No vote of the city council shall be reconsidered or rescinded at a special meeting unless at such special meeting there is present as large a number of aldermen as were present when such vote was taken. [R. C. 1905, § 2672; 1887, ch. 73, art. 3, § 13; R. C. 1899, § 2144; 1905, ch. 62, § 41.]

§ 3594. Action on reports. Any report of a committee of the council shall be deferred for final action thereon to the next regular meeting of the council after the report is made, upon the request of any two aldermen present. [R. C. 1905, § 2673; 1887, ch. 73, art. 3, § 14; R. C. 1899, § 2145; 1905, ch. 62, § 42.]

§ 3595. Jurisdiction. The city council shall have jurisdiction in and over all places within one-half mile of the city limits, for the purpose of enforcing health and quarantine ordinances and regulations thereof. [R. C. 1905, § 2674; 1887, ch. 73, art. 3, § 15; R. C. 1899, § 2146; 1905, ch. 62, § 43.]

§ 3596. Procedure in passing ordinances. All ordinances shall be read twice and the second reading shall not be had in less than one week after such first reading, and after such first reading, before their final passage such ordinances may be amended and shall then be put upon their second reading and final passage, and if passed by the city council shall before they take effect, be deposited in the office of the city auditor for the approval of the mayor; and if the mayor approves thereof, he shall sign the same, and such as he shall not approve he shall return to the council with his objections thereto in writing at the next regular meeting of the council occurring not less than five days after the passage thereof. Such veto may extend to any one or more items or appropriations contained in any ordinance making an appropriation, or to the entire ordinance; and in case the veto only extends to a part of such ordinance the residue thereof shall take effect and be in force. But in case the mayor shall fail to return any ordinance with his objection thereto by the time aforesaid, he shall be deemed to have approved such ordinance and the same shall take effect accordingly; provided, that upon the return of any ordinance by the mayor, the vote by which the same was passed may be reconsidered by the council; and if after such reconsideration two-thirds of all the members elected to the city council shall agree by yeas and nays to pass the same, it shall go into effect, notwithstanding the mayor may refuse to approve thereof. The vote to pass the same over the mayor's veto shall be taken by yeas and nays and entered in the journal. All ordinances passed by the council and approved by the mayor, or passed over the mayor's veto, shall be published at least once in the official newspaper of the city, and shall become operative immediately upon such publication. The city auditor shall record in a book for that purpose, together with the affidavit of the publisher, all ordinances so passed and published; and such book or a certified copy of the ordinances as so recorded shall be received as evidence in all courts and places without further proof; or if printed in book or pamphlet form by the authority of the city council they shall be so received. All ordinances shall be styled, "Be it ordained by the city council." [R. C. 1905, § 2675; 1887, art. 3, ch. 73, § 16; R. C. 1899, § 2147; 1905, ch. 62, § 44.]

Specific objection on appeal to admission of city ordinance book in trial of action for injury at railway crossing cannot be interposed where only general objection was made below. Merrill v. Minneapolis & St. L. R. Co., 27 S. D. 1, 129 N. W. 468.

Ordinance book of city is properly received in evidence to establish ordinance appearing in book. Whaley v. Vidal, 27 S. D. 627, 132 N. W. 242.

§ 3597. Publication by posting. Whenever any ordinance, notice or other instrument is required to be published, in any city where no newspaper is published, such publication and notice may be given and made by posting, in five public places within said city, or the period for which such publication is to be made; and all ordinances and notices so posted shall have the same force and effect as if published in a newspaper in said city, and such posting shall be proven by affidavit filed in the auditor's office. [R. C. 1905, § 2676; 1905, ch. 62, § 45.]

§ 3598. Official newspaper. The city council shall annually, by resolution, at its first meeting in May or as soon thereafter as practicable, designate some newspaper published in the city as the official newspaper of the city. [R. C. 1905, § 2677; 1905, ch. 62, § 46.]

ARTICLE 5.—POWERS OF THE CITY COUNCIL.

§ 3599. General powers of city council. The city council shall have power:

1. To control the finances and property of the corporation.

2. To appropriate money for corporate purposes only, and provide for the payment of debts and expenses of the corporation.

3. To levy and collect taxes for general and special purposes on real and personal property.

4. To fix the amount, terms and manner of issuing and revoking licenses.

5. To borrow money on the credits of the corporation for corporation purposes, and to issue bonds therefor, in such amounts and form, and on such conditions as it shall prescribe, but no such city shall become indebted in any manner or for any purpose to an amount, including existing indebtedness, exceeding five per cent of the taxable property therein, as determined by the last preceding city assessment; provided, that any incorporated city may, by a two-thirds vote at any special or general election increase such indebtedness to an amount equal to three per cent of such assessed valuation beyond said five per cent limit and may issue bonds therefor; provided, further, that any city, when authorized by a majority vote at a general or special election, may become indebted in any amount not exceeding four per cent of such assessed value without regard to the existing indebtedness of such city for the purpose of constructing or purchasing water works for the purpose of furnishing a supply of water to the inhabitants of such city, or for the purpose of constructing sewers, but for no other purpose whatever, and such city may issue bonds therefor; provided, further, that no bonds issued under the provisions of this section shall be sold for less than their par value, and the city issuing such bonds shall, at or before the time of issuing the same or incurring the indebtedness for which the same are to be issued, provide for the collection of a direct annual tax sufficient to pay the interest on such debt or such bonds when it falls due, and to pay and discharge the principal thereof when the same becomes due, and such provisions for the collection of such annual tax shall be irrevocable until such debt is paid; provided, further, that none of the hereinbefore mentioned bonds shall be issued either for special or general purposes, except as by law otherwise provided, unless at an election after twenty days' notice in a newspaper published in the city, stating the purpose for which said bonds are to be issued and the amount thereof, the legal voters of such city shall, by a majority vote, determine in favor of issuing such bonds; provided, further, that no bonds issued under the provisions of this chapter shall be issued for a longer period than twenty years.

6. To issue bonds in place of or to supply means to meet maturing bonds or for the consolidation or funding of the same or for the consolidation or funding of any floating indebtedness of such city.

7. To lay out, establish, open, alter, widen, grade, pave or otherwise improve streets, alleys, avenues, sidewalks, wharves, parks and public grounds and vacate the same.

8. To plant trees on the same.

16. To provide for and regulate crosswalks, curb and gutters.

17. To regulate and prevent the use of streets, sidewalks and public grounds for signs, signposts, awnings, telegraph or telephone poles, horse troughs, racks, posting hand bills and advertisements.

18. To regulate and prohibit the exhibition or carrying of banners, placards, advertisements or hand bills in the streets or public grounds, or upon the sidewalks.

19. To regulate and prevent the flying of flags, banners or signs across the streets or from houses.

20. To regulate traffic and sales upon the streets, sidewalks and public places.

21. To regulate the speed of horses and other animals, vehicles, cars and locomotives within the limits of the corporation.

22. To regulate the numbering of houses and lots.

23. To name and change the name of any street, avenue, alley or other public place.

24. To permit, regulate or prohibit the locating, constructing or laying of a track of any horse or other street railway in any street, alley or public place; but such permission shall not be for a longer time than fifty years.

25. To provide for and change the location, grade and crossing of any railroad.

26. To require railroad companies to fence their respective railroads, or any portion of the same, and construct cattle guards, crossings of streets and public roads and keep the same in repair within the limits of the corporation.

27. To require railroad companies to keep flagmen at railroad crossings of streets, and provide protection against injury to persons and property; to compel railroads to raise or lower their tracks to conform to any grade which may at any time be established by such city, and where such tracks run lengthwise of such street, alley or highway, to keep their tracks on a level with the street surface and so that such tracks may be crossed at any place on such street, alley or highway; to compel and require railroad companies to make and keep open and to keep in repair, ditches, drains, sewers and culverts along and under their tracks, so that filthy and stagnant pools of water cannot stand on their grounds or right of way and so that the natural or artificial drainage of adjacent property shall not be impeded.

28. To construct and keep in repair bridges, viaducts and tunnels, and to regulate the use thereof.

29. To construct and keep in repair culverts, drains, sewers, catchbasins, manholes and cesspools and to regulate the use thereof.

30. To license, tax, regulate, suppress and prohibit fortune tellers, astrologers and all persons practicing palmistry, clairvoyancy, mesmerism and spiritualism, hawkers, peddlers, pawn brokers, keepers of ordinaries, theatricals and other exhibitions, shows and amusements, ticket scalpers and employment agencies, and to revoke such license at pleasure; provided, however, that the provisions of this section with reference to hawkers and peddlers shall not apply to persons selling or offering for sale the products raised or grown on lands within this state. [For par. 30: 1911, ch. 73; R. C. 1905, § 2678, par. 30.]

31. To license, tax and regulate hackmen, draymen, omnibus drivers, carters, cabmen, porters, expressmen, watermen, and all others pursuing like occupations, and to prescribe their compensation.

32. To license, regulate, tax and restrain runners for stages, cars, public houses or other things or persons.

33. To license, regulate, tax or prohibit and suppress billiard, bagatelle, pigeonhole, or any other tables or implements kept or used for a similar purpose in any place of public resort, pin alleys and ball alleys.

34. To license, tax and regulate plumbers and the business of plumbing, and to provide the manner in which plumbing shall be done, and for the inspection thereof, and the manner in which the connections thereof with the sewers and water mains of the city may be made.

35. To establish, purchase, erect, lease, rent, manage and maintain markets and market houses, municipal slaughter houses or abattoirs, and to provide for the regulation and use of. [For par. 35: 1913, ch. 83; R. C. 1905, § 2678, par. 35.]

§ 3601. Power of council to define additional duties for city officers. The duties, powers and privileges of all officers of every character in any way connected with the city government, not herein defined, shall be defined by the city council, and the defining by this chapter of the duties of the city officers shall not preclude the city council from defining, by ordinance, further and additional duties to be performed by any such officer. [R. C. 1905, § 2680; 1905, ch. 62, § 49.]

§ 3602. Actions for violating ordinances. All actions brought to recover any fine or to enforce any penalty under or punish any violation of any ordinance of any city shall be brought in the corporate name of the city as plaintiff, and no prosecution, recovery or acquittal for the violation of any such ordinance shall constitute a defense to any other prosecution of the same person for any other violation of any such ordinance, although the different causes of action existed at the same time, and if united would not exceed the jurisdiction of the court or justice of the peace. [R. C. 1905, § 2681; 1887, ch. 73, art. 4, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 2149; 1905, ch. 62, § 50.]

§ 3604. Summons. Affidavit. Punishment. In all actions for the violation of any ordinance the first process shall be a summons; provided, that a warrant for the arrest of the offender may issue in the first instance upon the sworn complaint of any person that any such ordinance has been violated and that the person making the complaint has reasonable grounds to believe the person charged is guilty thereof; and any person arrested under this warrant shall without unnecessary delay be taken before the proper officer to be tried for the alleged offense. Any person upon whom any fine or penalty shall be imposed may, upon the order of the court before whom the conviction is had, be committed to the county jail, city prison, workhouse, house of correction or other place provided by the city for the incarceration of offenders, until such fine, penalty and costs shall be fully paid; provided, that no such imprisonment shall exceed three months for any one offense. The city council shall have power to provide by ordinance, that each person so committed shall be required to work for the city at such labor as his strength will permit, not exceeding ten hours each working day; and for such work the person so employed shall be allowed, exclusive of his board, one dollar and twenty-five cents for each day's work on account of such fine and costs. [R. C. 1905, § 2683; 1887, ch. 73, art. 4, § 4; R. C. 1899, § 2151; 1905, ch. 62, § 52.]

§ 3605. Jurisdiction of police magistrate. The police magistrate shall have exclusive jurisdiction in all cases arising under the provisions of this chapter or any ordinance passed in pursuance thereof. [R. C. 1905, § 2684; 1887, ch. 73, art. 4, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 2152; 1905, ch. 62, § 53.]

§ 3606. Who may serve process. Any constable or sheriff of the county may serve any process or make any arrests authorized to be made by any city officer. [R. C. 1905, § 2685; 1887, ch. 73, art. 4, § 6; R. C. 1899, § 2153; 1905, ch. 62, § 54.]

ARTICLE 6.—REGULATION OF RATES FOR PUBLIC SERVICE OR UTILITY.

This article consists of Laws 1911, ch. 71. In the session laws for that year it is printed without any heading except the title which reads as follows: "An act authorizing cities incorporated under the laws of this state to regulate and fix the rate to be charged by persons, firms or corporations furnishing water, light, or other public service or utility to such cities and the inhabitants thereof." The chapter has no repealing section or provision, but an emergency section recites that "there is no law in the state touching the subject matter hereof." See notes to sections 3607, 3608.

§ 3607. Powers of city council or commission. Maximum rates and charges for public services or utility. The city council or commission of any city now or hereafter incorporated under the laws of this state, in which city any person, firm or corporation now is or hereafter may be exercising a franchise, right or license or privilege in or to any street, highway, alley or public place of such city for the furnishing of water, light or other public service or utility, to such city and the inhabitants thereof, is hereby empowered to prescribe by ordinance, maximum rates and charges for the service, commodity or utility so furnished, and to provide for the enforcement of such ordinance by suitable penalties; provided, that the rates and charges so fixed shall be just and reasonable, and when fixed, shall not be altered by the municipality oftener than once in five years; provided, further, that such rates and charges shall be fixed by the city council or commission after notice to the person, firm or corporation whose rates and charges are to be affected, and after reasonable opportunity to such person, firm or corporation to appear and be heard in relation to such matter in such manner as the city council or commission may by resolution determine, and on such hearing such city council or commission or its committee appointed for such purpose may by resolution require the production before it of all books of account, records and vouchers of such person, firm or corporation pertaining to the business, rates and charges under investigation; provided, further, that the provisions of this article shall not apply to any person furnishing any public service or utility, the rates or charges for which may now or hereafter be placed under the control of the board of railroad commissioners. [1911, ch. 71, § 1.]

This section evidently supplants Laws 1909, ch. 55, § 1, which reads as follows: "The city council of any city now or hereafter incorporated under the laws of this state, in which city any person, firm or corporation now is or hereafter may be exercising a franchise, right, license or privilege in or to any street, highway, alley or public place of such city for the furnishing of manufactured gas for lighting and heating purposes to such city and the inhabitants thereof, is hereby empowered to prescribe by ordinance maximum rates and charges for the service, commodity or utility so furnished, and to provide for the enforcement of such ordinance by suitable penalties; provided, that the rates and charges so fixed shall be just and reasonable, and when fixed, shall not be altered by the municipality oftener than once in five years; provided, further, that such rates and charges shall be fixed by the city council after notice to the person, firm or corporation whose rates and charges are to be affected, and after reasonable opportunity to such person, firm or corporation to appear and be heard in relation to such matter in such manner as the city council may by resolution determine, and on such hearing such city council or its committee appointed for such purpose may by resolution require the production before it of all books of account, records and vouchers of such person, firm or corporation pertaining to the business, rates and charges under investigation."

Valuation of property of public service corporations for rate making purposes. 48 L.R.A. (N.S.) 1037, 1063, 1092, 1146, 1196.

§ 3608. Fixed rates prima facie, just and reasonable. Court determine reasonableness. Appeal. All rates and charges fixed hereunder shall, if the validity thereof be contested, be held to be prima facie just and reasonable, but any person, firm or corporation aggrieved by any rate or charge fixed or established under the provisions of this article may by suit in the district court of the county have the reasonableness of such rate or charge adjudicated, and may appeal from the decision of such court to the supreme court in the manner provided by law; [provided, that no appeal from such rates or charges fixed by the city council or commission pursuant to this article shall be taken by any person, firm or corporation aggrieved thereby, nor shall any action or suit to annul such rates or charges or to enjoin their enforcement or otherwise be brought or maintained by any such person, firm or corporation in any court, if such person, firm or corporation has failed or neglected to comply with any demand made hereunder by the city council or commission or its committee, for the production and inspection by the city council or its committee of the books of account, papers, vouchers and records of such person, firm or corporation]. [1911, ch. 71, § 2.]

This section is a repetition ipsissimis verbis of Laws 1909, ch. 55, § 2.

The provision enclosed in brackets was vetoed, Laws 1911, ch. 71, p. 120, the veto message declaring it to be "clearly a violation of section 22 of the Constitution," and citing on that point, Southern Pac. R. Co. v. R. R. Comm., 18 Fed. 236; Ex Young, 209 U. S. 715; Regan v. F. L. & T. Co., 154 U. S. 1023. In the same message, however, it is said: "Under the rule of construction it is an independent provision that may be dropped if that which is left is fully operative as a law" — citing Regan v. F. L. & T. Co., 154 U. S. 1023.

§ 3609. May employ legal counsel and assistance. When. The city council or commission in exercising the right and powers hereby granted, may, by resolution, employ such legal counsel and other assistance as it may deem expedient. [1911, ch. 71, § 3.]

This section is a repetition ipsisimis verbis of Laws 1909, ch. 53, § 3, except that the words "or commission" have been inserted.

ARTICLE 7.—POWERS AND DUTIES OF OFFICERS.

§ 3610. Election of officers. There shall be elected in each city organized under this chapter the following officers: A mayor, two aldermen from each ward, a city treasurer, a police magistrate and a city justice of the peace; provided, that in the cities of six hundred inhabitants or less there shall be elected four aldermen at large; provided, that at the first election held hereafter in the cities heretofore organized under this chapter in which the number of aldermen is reduced to four, there shall be elected four aldermen who shall be divided into classes as provided in section 2661. [R. C. 1905, § 2686; 1897, ch. 40, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 2154; 1905, ch. 62, § 55.]

§ 3611. Term of office. The elective officers of a city shall hold their respective offices for two years and until their successors are elected and qualified. [R. C. 1905, § 2687; 1887, ch. 73, art. 5, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 2155; 1905, ch. 62, § 56.]

§ 3612. Appointive officers. There shall be appointed by the mayor, with the approval of the city council, a city auditor, a city assessor, a city attorney and a city engineer, and such other officers as may by the city council be deemed necessary or expedient. [R. C. 1905, § 2688; 1887, ch. 73, art. 5, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 2156; 1905, ch. 62, § 57.]

§ 3613. Additional assessors. The mayor of any city incorporated under the provisions of this chapter and containing a population of five thousand inhabitants may appoint one or two additional city assessors; provided, that the city council shall by resolution declare their appointment necessary. [R. C. 1905, § 2689; 1889, ch. 28, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 2157; 1905, ch. 62, § 58.]

§ 3614. Term of office. The appointive officers of a city shall hold their respective offices for two years and until their successors are appointed and qualified. [R. C. 1905, § 2690; 1887, ch. 73, art. 5, § 4; R. C. 1899, § 2158; 1905, ch. 62, § 59.]

§ 3615. Oath. Bond. All officers of any city, whether elected or appointed, shall, before entering upon the duties of their respective offices, take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation:

I do solemnly swear (or affirm as the case may be) that I will support the constitution of the United States and the constitution of the state of North Dakota, and that I will faithfully discharge the duties of the office of according to the best of my ability.

Such oath or affirmation so subscribed shall be filed in the office of the city auditor; and all such officers, except the mayor and aldermen, shall before entering upon the duties of their respective offices execute a bond with sureties to be approved by the city council, payable to the city, in such penal sum as may by resolution or ordinance be directed, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of the office, and the payment of all moneys received by such officer according to law and the ordinances of said city; provided, that in no case shall the treasurer's bond be fixed at a less sum than the amount of the estimated tax and special assessments for the current year; which bonds shall be filed with the city auditor, except the bond of the city auditor, which shall be filed with the city treasurer. [R. C. 1905, § 2691; 1887, ch. 73, art. 5, § 5; R. C. 1895, § 2159; 1905, ch. 62, § 60.]

§ 3616. Certificate of appointment. Delivery of books to successor. All officers elected or appointed under this chapter, except the city auditor, aldermen and mayor, shall be commissioned by warrant under the corporate seal, signed by the auditor and mayor, or president of the city council; the mayor shall issue a certificate of appointment, under the seal of the corporation, to the auditor thereof; and any person having been an officer of the city shall within five days after notification and request, deliver to his successor in office all property, books and effects of every description in his possession, belonging to the city or appertaining to his office; and upon his refusal to do so shall be liable for all damages caused thereby, and to such penalty as may by ordinance be prescribed. [R. C. 1905, § 2692; 1887, ch. 73, art. 5, § 6; R. C. 1899, § 2160; 1905, ch. 62, § 61.]

§ 3617. Qualifications of officers. No person shall be eligible to election to any office who is not a qualified elector of the city, and who shall not have resided there at least nine months last preceding election, and no person shall be eligible to hold any office by appointment unless he is a citizen of the United States; nor shall any person be eligible to any office who is a defaulter to the corporation. [1913, ch. 76; R. C. 1905, § 2693; 1887, ch. 73, art. 5, § 7; R. C. 1899, § 2161; 1905, ch. 62, § 62.]

Constitutionality of statute making residence within the district a qualification of a public officer. 32 L.R.A.(N.S.) 835.

§ 3618. Officer not to be interested in contracts. No officer shall be directly or indirectly interested in any contract, work or business of the city, or the sale of any article, the expense, price or consideration of which is paid from the treasury or by any assessment levied by any act or ordinance; nor in the purchase of any real estate or other property belonging to the corporation or which shall be sold for taxes or assessments, or by virtue of any process at the suit of the corporation, mayor or other person. [R. C. 1905, § 2694; 1887, ch. 73, art. 5, § 8; R. C. 1899, § 2162; 1905, ch. 62, § 63.]

Power of officer to make contract (not involving conflict of interests) with public body or municipality. 15 L.R.A. 521.

Power of municipal board or committee to employ one of its own members as counsel or to render other special services. 3 L.R.A.(N.S.) 849.

Obligation of municipality to pay for property purchased from an officer or member of board intrusted with the duty of making purchases. 9 L.R.A.(N.S.) 1014.

Liability of municipality or other public corporation on contract invalid because executed with officer of municipality. 27 L.R.A.(N.S.) 1123.

Obligation of public corporation to pay for services rendered under contract in which officer is personally interested. 34 L.R.A.(N.S.) 129.

§ 3619. Not to hold other office. No mayor, alderman, city auditor or treasurer shall hold any other office under the city government during his term of office. [R. C. 1905, § 2695; 1887, ch. 73, art. 5, § 9; R. C. 1899, § 2163; 1905, ch. 62, § 64.]

§ 3620. Compensation of mayor. The mayor shall receive such compensation as the city council may by ordinance direct; but his compensation shall not be changed during his term of office. [R. C. 1905, § 2696; 1887, ch. 73, art. 5, § 10; R. C. 1899, § 2164; 1905, ch. 62, § 65.]

§ 3621. Compensation of aldermen. The aldermen may receive such compensation for their services as shall be fixed by ordinance; provided, that such compensation shall not exceed two dollars to each alderman for each meeting of the city council actually attended by him, and no other compensation than for attendance upon such meetings, shall be allowed to any alderman for any services whatsoever; such compensation shall not be changed after it has been once established so as to take effect, as to any alderman voting for such change during his term of office. [R. C. 1905, § 2697; 1887, ch. 73, art. 5, § 11; R. C. 1899, § 2165; 1905, ch. 62, § 66.]

§ 3622. Police magistrate. Compensation of other officers not diminished during term. All other officers may receive a salary, fees or other compensation to be fixed by ordinance, and after the same has been once fixed such fees or compensation shall not be diminished to take effect during the term for which any such officer was elected or appointed; provided, that in any city incorporated under the general laws of the state and in which the police magistrate thereof is allowed and paid a salary, such police magistrate shall not be entitled to receive fees of any kind or in any amount whatever from such city, and such police magistrate shall be entitled to, and it shall be his duty to collect in all criminal actions and in all actions instituted under any ordinances of the city, the same fees that are now allowed by law to justices of the peace, and all fees collected by him in criminal actions, and in actions instituted under any ordinance of the city, shall be by him paid over to the city treasurer at the end of each month, and he shall at the same time make and file with the city auditor a report in writing under oath, showing an account of all fees collected by him during the preceding month in such actions, and showing the actions in which the same were collected. The police magistrate shall, before entering upon the discharge of his duties, give to the city a bond in such amount as the city council may prescribe, not less than five hundred dollars, conditioned that he will faithfully discharge the duties of his office and pay over all moneys that may come into his hands belonging to the city, and such police magistrate shall not be entitled to receive, nor shall his salary be paid to him until he has fully complied with the provisions of this section. [R. C. 1905, § 2698; 1887, ch. 73, art. 5, § 12; 1893, ch. 35, § 1; R. C. 1895, § 2166; 1905, ch. 62, § 67.]

§ 3623. Mayor administer oaths. The mayor and auditor of each city shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations. [R. C. 1905, § 2699; 1887, ch. 73, art. 5, § 13; R. C. 1899, § 2167; 1905, ch. 62, § 68.]

ARTICLE 8.—CITY AUDITOR.

§ 3624. To attend meetings of council and keep records, etc. The city auditor shall keep his office at the place of meeting of the city council or such other place convenient thereto as the council may direct. He shall keep the corporate seal and all papers and records of the city, and keep a record of the proceedings of the city council, whose meetings it shall be his duty to attend. Copies of all papers filed in his office and transcripts of all records of the city council certified by him under the corporate seal, shall be competent evidence in all courts. He shall draw and countersign all orders on the treasury in pursuance of any order or resolution of the city council, and keep a full and accurate account thereof in books provided for that purpose, and shall present to the city council for its consideration all communications, claims and other matters filed in his office for that purpose at their next meeting after the same are so filed. [R. C. 1905, § 2700; 1887, ch. 73, art. 6, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 2168; 1905, ch. 62, § 69.]

§ 3625. Reports. The city auditor shall report to the city council on the first days of March and September of each year, the receipts and expenses and financial condition of the city, which report shall be published within thirty days thereafter in the official paper of the city, or such other paper as the council may direct. He shall make and keep a list of outstanding city bonds, to whom issued, for what purpose, when and where payable, and the rate of interest they respectively bear, and recommend such action to the city council as will secure the punctual payment of the principal and interest of such bonds. He shall report annually on or before the first day of September to the city council, an estimate of the expenses of the city, and likewise the revenue necessary to be raised for the current year. [R. C. 1905, § 2701; 1887, ch. 73, art. 6, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 2169; 1905, ch. 62, § 70.]

§ 3626. General duties. He shall countersign all contracts made in behalf of the city, and certificates of work authorized by any committee of the city council, or of any city officer; and each contract made in behalf of the city or to which the city is a party shall be void unless countersigned by the auditor. The city auditor shall keep regular books of account in which he shall enter all indebtedness of the city and which shall at all times show the financial condition of the city; the amount of bonds, orders, certificates or other evidences of indebtedness issued by the city council, the amount of all bonds, orders, certificates or other evidences of indebtedness, which have been redeemed, and the amount of each outstanding. He shall countersign all bonds, orders or other evidence of indebtedness of the city, and keep accurate account thereof stating to whom and for what purpose issued and the amount thereof. He shall keep accounts with all receiving and disbursing officers of the city showing the amount they have received from the different sources of revenue, and the amount which they have disbursed under the direction of the city council. He shall keep a list of all certificates issued for work, or any other purpose. If before the first day of June of any year the amount expended or to be expended chargeable to any city fund, adding thereto the current expenses estimated for the remainder of the fiscal year and chargeable to such fund, shall be equal to three-fourths of the tax authorized to be raised or revenue estimated for such fund, he shall report the same at once to the city council, and he shall not countersign any contract chargeable to such fund until the amount of taxes actually collected is ascertained; and during the remainder of the fiscal year he shall not countersign any contract, the expense of which shall exceed the revenue actually collected for the fund to which such expenses are properly chargeable. The auditor shall examine all reports, books, papers, vouchers and accounts of the city treasurer and from time to time perform such other duties as the city council may direct. All claims and demands against the city, before they are allowed by the city council, shall be filed with the auditor and shall be audited and adjusted by the proper committee of the city council. The auditor shall keep a record of his acts and doings, and keep a book in which he shall enter all contracts, with an index thereto, which book shall be open to the inspection of all persons interested. [R. C. 1905, § 2702; 1887, ch. 73, art. 6, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 2170; 1905, ch. 62, § 71.]

Schedule of estimate must be made and filed by city auditor before special assessments are made. Whittaker v. Deadwood, 23 S. D. 538, 122 N. W. 590.

ARTICLE 9.—CLAIMS FOR INJURIES.

§ 3627. Claims for damages. All claims against cities for damages or injuries alleged to have arisen from the defective, unsafe, dangerous or obstructed condition of any street, crosswalk, sidewalk, culvert or bridge of any city, or from the negligence of the city authorities in respect to any such street, crosswalk, sidewalk, culvert or bridge shall, within thirty days from the happening of such injury, be filed in the office of the city auditor, signed and properly verified by the claimant, describing the time, place, cause and extent of the damages or injury, and the amount of damages claimed therefor, and upon the trial of an action for the recovery of damages by reason of such injury, the claimant shall not be permitted to prove any different time, place, cause or manner or extent of the injury complained of, or any greater amount of damages. In case it appears by the affidavit of a reputable physician which shall be prima facie evidence of the fact that the person injured was, by the injury complained of, rendered mentally incapable of making such statement during the time herein provided, such statement may be made within thirty days after such complainant becomes competent to make the same, but such affidavit may be controverted on the trial of an action for such damages, and in case of the death of the person injured prior to his becoming competent to make such statement, the same may be made within thirty days after his death, by any person having knowledge of the facts, and the person making such statement shall set forth therein specifically the facts relating to such injury as aforesaid, of which he has personal knowledge, and shall positively verify such statement and shall verify the facts therein stated of which he has no personal knowledge, to the best of his knowledge, information and belief. [R. C. 1905, § 2703; 1893, ch. 31, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 2172; 1905, ch. 62, § 72.]

Sufficiency of presentment of claim for damages against city. Pyke v. Jamestown, 15 N. D. 157, 107 N. W. 359.

Sufficiency of notice to city of injury on street. Johnson v. Fargo, 15 N. D. 525, 108 N. W. 243.

The filing with the auditor of a claim for personal injuries received on a defective street within sixty days after the injury is a sufficient presentation of the claim. City of Grand Forks v. Allman, 83 C. C. A. 554, 153 Fed. 532.

Cause of action for damages to abutting property occasioned by construction of street grade is not such claim as is enumerated in this and the following section. Gaustad v. Enderlin, 23 N. D. 526, 137 N. W. 613.

Where notice filed contained all information required by this and following section it is sufficient, and filing of two separate papers was not necessary. Wells v. Lisbon, 21 N. D. 34, 128 N. W. 308.

Necessity of written notice as to defect as condition of liability of municipal corporation for injuries due to positive act of its officers or servants. 23 L.R.A.(N.S.) 282.

Sufficiency of description of injury in notice to municipality. 20 L.R.A.(N.S.) 804.

§ 3628. No action unless claim is filed. No action shall be maintained against any city as aforesaid for injury to person or property, unless it appears that the claim for which the action was brought was filed in the office of the city auditor as aforesaid, with an abstract of the facts out of which the cause of action arose, duly verified by the claimant, and that the city council did not, within sixty days thereafter, audit and allow the same, and such abstract of facts must be signed and verified as provided in the preceding section, and all provisions of such section with reference to such verification shall be applicable to such abstract of facts, and no action shall be maintained unless the plaintiff therein shall plead and prove the filing of such claim and abstract as hereinbefore provided. [R. C. 1905, § 2704; 1893, ch. 31, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 2173; 1905, ch. 62, § 73.]

Construed. Coleman v. Fargo, 8 N. D. 69, 76 N. W. 1051.

Validity of requirement of notice of injury as condition of municipal liability. 36 L.R.A.(N.S.) 1136.

Applicability of rule requiring notice of injury as condition of municipal liability for personal injury on street or highway in case of injury to municipal employee. 28 L.R.A.(N.S.) 533.

Mental incompetency as excuse for failure to give notice of injury required as a condition of municipal liability. 32 L.R.A.(N.S.) 350.

§ 3629. Limitation of actions. No action shall be maintained upon any claim mentioned in section 3627, unless the same shall be brought within six months after the filing of the claim therefor, in the office of the city auditor as hereinbefore provided. [R. C. 1905, § 2705; 1893, ch. 31, § 4; R. C. 1899, § 2174; 1905, ch. 62, § 74.]

Cause of action for damages to abutting property occasioned by construction of street grade is not such claim as is enumerated in section 3627. Gaustad v. Enderlin, 23 N. D. 526, 137 N. W. 613.

ARTICLE 10.—CITY ATTORNEY.

§ 3630. Duties of. The city attorney shall perform all professional services incident to his office and when required shall furnish his opinion upon any subject submitted to him by the city council or its committees. [R. C. 1905, § 2706; 1887, ch. 73, art. 7, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 2175; 1905, ch. 62, § 75.]

ARTICLE 11.—CITY TREASURER.

§ 3631. Duties of. Vacancies, how filled. Salary. The city treasurer shall receive all moneys belonging to the city, including all taxes, license money, fines and special assessments, and keep accurate and detailed accounts thereof, in the manner provided in this chapter, or as the city council may from time to time direct. He shall have a settlement with the auditor at the end of each month and turn over all warrants, interest coupons, bonds or other evidences of indebtedness of the city, which may have been redeemed by him during the month, taking the receipt of the auditor therefor, and all such warrants, orders or other evidences of indebtedness shall be cancelled by him, and have written or stamped thereon the date of their payment or redemption. When, for any cause, a vacancy occurs in the office of the city treasurer, the same shall be filled by appointment, which shall be made by the mayor, by and with the consent of the city council, and the person so appointed, by lawfully qualifying for such office, shall be entitled to hold the same until his successor is elected and qualified. Such successor must be elected at the next succeeding regular city election. The salary of the city treasurer shall be fixed by the mayor and city council within their respective cities. [R. C. 1905, § 2707; 1897, ch. 102; R. C. 1899, § 2176; 1903, ch. 53; 1905, ch. 62, § 76.]

§ 3632. Funds. How disbursed. Under no circumstances shall any money be paid out or disbursed by the city treasurer, except upon the warrant of the mayor, countersigned by the city auditor; but this provision shall not prevent the payment of city bonds and interest coupons or either when due, and presented for payment, and the city treasurer shall pay said last mentioned obligations on presentation at maturity, and in case they are payable without the city issuing them, then in that event the money for their payment shall be by the city treasurer remitted to such place of payment in time to reach that point on or before the date of maturity of said obligations. [R. C. 1905, § 2708; 1887, ch. 73, art. 8, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 2177; 1905, ch. 62, § 77.]

§ 3633. Warrants, how paid. All warrants shall be paid in the order in which they are presented, from the fund upon which they are drawn, and the treasurer shall note on the back of each warrant presented to him the date of such presentation and, when payment is made, the date of such payment, and in case any warrant is not paid for want of funds, the city treasurer shall so state on such warrant and the same shall thereupon bear interest until paid. [R. C. 1905, § 2709; 1887, ch. 73, art. 8, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 2178; 1905, ch. 62, § 78.]

City cannot pay out money from general fund for current expenses while outstanding general fund warrants are unpaid. Blackman v. City of Hotsprings, 14 S. D. 497, 85 N. W. 996.

Warrants paid in order issued, although issued for indebtedness of prior year. State v. Campbell, 7 S. D. 568, 64 N. W. 1125.

As to duty of city treasurer to register and pay warrants. Red River Valley Nat. Bank v. Fargo, 14 N. D. 88, 103 N. W. 390.

Paying out of taxes collected after issuance of warrant will not prevent recovery. Shannon v. City of Huron, 9 S. D. 356, 69 N. W. 598.

Treasurer who fails to pay a warrant in the order of its registration is civilly liable upon his official bond. State v. Campbell, 7 S. D. 568, 64 N. W. 1125.

§ 3634. City treasurer to keep separate account of each particular city fund. The city treasurer shall keep a separate and accurate account of each city fund, which shall show the debits and credits of said fund in chronological order. [R. C. 1905, § 2710; 1887, ch. 73, art. 8, § 4; R. C. 1899, § 2179; 1905, ch. 62, § 79.]

Failure of treasurer to register warrant does not defeat right of holder presenting it in good faith. Freeman v. City of Huron, 10 S. D. 368, 73 N. W. 260.

Payment out of any fund remaining after payment of current expenses does not violate Constitution. Howard v. City of Huron, 6 S. D. 180, 60 N. W. 803.

§ 3635. Treasurer to give duplicate receipts. The city treasurer shall give to each person paying money in to the city treasury a duplicate receipt therefor, specifying the date and amount of payment, and upon what account paid, and he shall at least once a month file with the city auditor his duplicate of such receipt. [R. C. 1905, § 2711; 1887, ch. 73, art. 8, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 2180; 1905, ch. 62, § 80.]

§ 3636. Treasurer prohibited from using city moneys. Penalty. Office declared vacant. The city treasurer shall keep the city's moneys paid to or received by him, separate from his or other's moneys; and under no circumstances shall it be lawful for him to directly or indirectly use the corporation's money or warrants, or other obligations, in his custody and keeping, for his own use and benefit or that of any other person or persons whomsoever. Upon conviction of a violation of this provision the same shall work a forfeiture of his office and said office shall become vacant. [R. C. 1905, § 2712; 1887, ch. 73, art. 8, § 6; R. C. 1899, § 2181; 1905, ch. 62, § 81.]

§ 3637. Treasurer's report. Warrant register. He shall report to the city council at such time as may be prescribed by ordinance, giving a full and detailed account of all receipts and expenditures during and since his last report, and the state of the treasury. He shall also keep a register of all warrants redeemed and paid during the year, describing such warrants, their date, amount, number, the fund from which paid and person to whom paid, specifying also the time of payment; and all such warrants shall be examined by the finance committee of the council at the time of making such report. [R. C. 1905, § 2713; 1887, ch. 73, art. 8, § 7; R. C. 1899, § 2182; 1905, ch. 62, § 82.]

§ 3638. Moneys received from special assessments. All moneys received on any special assessment shall be held by the treasurer as a special fund to be applied to the payment of the improvements for which the assessment was made; and said money shall be used for no other purpose whatever. [R. C. 1905, § 2714; 1887, ch. 73, art. 8, § 8; R. C. 1899, § 2183; 1905, ch. 62, § 83.]

City may reimburse itself out of special improvement fund, after advancing money for special improvement. Pine Tree Lumber Co. v. Fargo, 12 N. D. 360, 96 N. W. 357.

As to money derived from special assessment being used only for payment of obligation for which it was raised. Red River Valley Nat. Bank v. Fargo, 14 N. D. 88, 103 N. W. 390.

§ 3639. Additional bond of city treasurer. The city council of any city incorporated under this chapter may require the city treasurer to give additional sureties whenever in the opinion of the city council the existing security shall have become insufficient; and such city council is authorized and empowered to require from the city treasurer an additional bond as required by law, with good and sufficient sureties in such sums as it may direct, whenever in their opinion more money shall have passed or is about to pass into the hands of such treasurer than is or would be recovered by the penalty in the previous bond. [R. C. 1905, § 2715; 1901, ch. 42, § 1.]

This is R. C. 1905, § 2715. As to the words "this chapter" at the beginning of this section, it is to be observed that §§ 3564a-3564e had not been enacted when § 2715 was originally enacted in Laws 1901, ch. 42, § 1, nor were they part of the chapter when the latter was printed in R. C. 1905.

§ 3640. Failure to give additional bond. Effect. If any city treasurer shall fail or refuse to give such additional bond or sureties for twenty days from and after the day on which such city council shall require him so to do, his office shall become vacant and the city council shall appoint another treasurer to fill such vacancy, who shall hold his office until his successor has been elected and qualified. [R. C. 1905, § 2716; 1901, ch. 42, § 2.]

ARTICLE 12.—CITY ASSESSOR AND BOARD OF EQUALIZATION.

§ 3641. Term of office of city assessor. Duties. Compensation. The city assessor shall perform all duties necessary for the assessing of property within the city limits for the purpose of levying city, county, school and state taxes. Upon the completion of the assessment roll he shall return it to the city auditor within the time in this chapter provided and said auditor shall deliver the same to the city board of equalization at its regular meeting first thereafter held. [R. C. 1905, § 2717; 1887, ch. 73, art. 9, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 2184; 1905, ch. 62, § 84.]

§ 3642. Assessor's appointment. Assessment roll. The assessor shall be appointed at the first meeting of the city council in September in each odd numbered year, and shall be governed by the same laws and regulations as county and township assessors, except that he may list any real estate or personal property for assessment on or after the first day of January in the year in which the same is subject to assessment, and for that purpose the county auditor shall furnish him with assessment books prior to said first day of January; and he shall on the first day of April in each year commence the assessment of property assessable for such year, and shall return his assessment roll to the city auditor on or before the first day of June in each year. Such assessment roll shall be open to the inspection of all persons interested until the meeting of the city board of equalization. [R. C. 1905, § 2718; 1887, ch. 73, art. 9, § 2; 1893, ch. 33, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 2185; 1905, ch. 62, § 85.]

As to necessity of city assessor's affidavit to assessment roll. Douglas v. Fargo, 13 N. D. 467, 101 N. W. 919.

§ 3643. Board of equalization. Meeting. Compensation. The board of equalization shall be composed of the mayor and city council, and the auditor who shall act as clerk to the same, and shall meet on the second Tuesday of June in each year. In the absence of the mayor the council shall elect one of its own number to preside. The city auditor shall keep an accurate record of all changes made in the valuation and of all other proceedings. It may adjourn from day to day until its work is completed and a majority of the whole board shall constitute a quorum to transact business. If no quorum is present the clerk may adjourn from day to day and publicly announce the time to which the meeting is adjourned; the compensation of the board shall be three dollars per day while in actual session. [R. C. 1905, § 2719; 1887, ch. 73, art. 9, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 2186; 1905, ch. 62, § 86.]

§ 3644. Duties of the board. The board of equalization shall meet at the usual place of meeting of the city council, and shall proceed to equalize and correct such assessment roll. It may change the valuation and assessment of any real or personal property upon the roll by increasing or diminishing the assessed valuation thereof as shall be reasonable and just to render taxation uniform; provided, that the valuation of any personal property as returned by the assessor shall not be increased more than twenty-five per cent without first giving the owner or his agent notice of the intention of the board so to increase it. Such notice shall be by personal notice served upon the owner or his agent, or by leaving a copy at his place of business or last place of residence, and shall state the time when the board will be in session to act upon the matter. [R. C. 1905, § 2720; 1887, ch. 73, art. 9, § 4; R. C. 1899, § 2187; 1905, ch. 62, § 87.]

Right of appeal not extended to parties other than those specified. Grigsby v. Minnehaha County, 6 S. D. 492, 62 N. W. 105.

Owner not compelled to pay taxes on greater valuation than was fixed by board of equalization. Dakota Loan & Trust Co. v. Codington Co., 9 S. D. 159, 68 N. W. 314.

§ 3645. Other duties. Tax not to be abated or reduced. The board of equalization must place upon and add to the assessment roll any property, real or personal, subject to taxation, which has been omitted therefrom by the owner or by the assessor, and enter the same at a valuation so that it will bear an equal and just proportion of taxation. During the session of said board any person or his attorney or agent, feeling aggrieved by anything in the assessment roll, may apply to the board for the correction of any alleged errors in the listing or valuation of his property, whether real or personal, and the board may correct the same as it may deem just; or, if the board has reason to believe that any person has failed to return to the assessor all personal property required by law to be returned, or if any person refuses to swear to the returns so made, the board shall notify the person who has so failed to make return or refused to swear to the return in the same manner as prescribed in the last section, and may examine each person under oath in regard to his property; or if he refuses to appear, it may fix such valuation at a sum which it may deem just. After the adjournment of said board of equalization in each year, neither it nor the city council shall change or alter, or recommend the changing or alteration of any assessment or assessments to the county commissioners, or otherwise; and neither said city council nor said board of equalization shall reduce or rebate or authorize the reduction or abatement, or rebatement of any taxes levied upon such assessments for any cause, excepting that the property assessed was not subject to taxation at the time such assessment was levied. [R. C. 1905, § 2721; 1887, ch. 73, art. 9, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 2188; 1905, ch. 62, § 88.]

County commissioners, sitting as board of county commissioners, have no power to reduce individual assessments, or abate individual taxes, except in certain instances. Minot v. Amundson, 22 N. D. 236, 133 N. W. 551.

§ 3646. Duty of city auditor. Within ten days after the completion of the equalization of the assessment as herein provided, the city auditor shall deliver the same to the county auditor of the county in which such city is situated, with his certificate that the same is correct as equalized by said board of equalization, and the same shall be accepted by the board of county commissioners of such county in lieu of all other assessment rolls for said property in said city, and the board of equalization of such county may increase or diminish the valuation therein placed on any class of property so as to make such valuation uniform with the valuation of the same class of property throughout such county, but no individual assessment shall be otherwise changed, and a failure of any county or city board of equalization to hold its meetings, shall not vitiate or invalidate any assessment or tax except as to the excess of valuation, or tax thereon, shown to have been unjustly made or levied. [R. C. 1905, § 2722; 1887, ch. 73, art. 9, § 6; 1893, ch. 33, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 2189; 1905, ch. 62, § 89.]

Individual assessments as returned by city board of equalization cannot be changed by county board. First Nat. Bank v. Lewis, 18 N. D. 390, 121 N. W. 836.

ARTICLE 13.—POLICE MAGISTRATE AND CITY JUSTICE OF THE PEACE.

§ 3647. Jurisdiction of police magistrate. The police magistrate shall have exclusive jurisdiction of, and it shall be his duty to hear, try and determine all offenses against the ordinances of the city; and he shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the justices of the peace of the county in all other actions, civil and criminal. All fines, penalties and forfeitures for the violation of any city ordinance shall, when collected, be paid by the officer receiving the same to the city treasurer of such city. [R. C. 1905, § 2723; 1887, ch. 73, art. 10, § 1; 1899, ch. 33, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 2193; 1905, ch. 62, § 90.]

Decision of city justice within his jurisdiction, final, unless provision made for appeal. City of Huron v. Carter, 5 S. D. 4, 57 N. W. 947.

One charged with violation of city ordinance is entitled to change of venue on account of prejudice of police justice. Sioux Falls v. Neeb, 20 S. D. 244, 105 N. W. 735.

§ 3648. When magistrate shall issue warrants. Whenever complaint shall be made to the police magistrate upon oath or affirmation of any person competent to testify against the accused, that an offense has been committed of which the police magistrate has jurisdiction, such magistrate shall forthwith issue a warrant for the arrest of the offender, which warrant shall be served by the chief of police or the sheriff or any constable of the county, or some person specially appointed by said magistrate for such purpose. [R. C. 1905, § 2724; 1887, ch. 73, art. 10, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 2194; 1905, ch. 62, § 91.]

§ 3649. Magistrate, when to hear complaint. When any person shall be brought before such magistrate upon a warrant, it shall be his duty to hear and determine the complaint alleged against the defendant. [R. C. 1905, § 2725; 1887, ch. 73, art. 10, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 2195; 1905, ch. 62, § 92.]

§ 3650. Postponement of trials. Upon good cause shown such magistrate may postpone the trial of the case to a day certain in which case he shall require the defendant to enter into an undertaking with sufficient surety conditioned that he will appear before such magistrate at the time and place appointed, and then and there answer the complaint alleged against him. [R. C. 1905, § 2726; 1887, ch. 73, art. 10, § 4; R. C. 1899, § 2196; 1905, ch. 62, § 93.]

§ 3651. To summon witnesses. It shall be the duty of such magistrate to subpoena all persons whose testimony may be deemed material as witnesses on the trial, and enforce their attendance by attachment, if necessary, and when a trial shall be continued by said magistrate he may verbally notify such witnesses as may be present to attend before him at the time to which the action is continued to testify therein and such verbal notice shall be as valid as a subpoena. [R. C. 1905, § 2727; 1887, ch. 73, art. 10, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 2197; 1905, ch. 62, § 94.]

§ 3653. Concerning judgment of conviction. In all trials for offenses under the ordinances of the city, if the defendant is found guilty the magistrate shall render judgment accordingly. It shall be a part of the judgment that the defendant stand committed until such judgment is complied with, in no case to exceed one day for every one dollar and twenty-five cents of fine and costs assessed against said defendant. [R. C. 1905, § 2729; 1887, ch. 73, art. 10, § 7; R. C. 1899, § 2199; 1905, ch. 62, § 96.]

§ 3654. Court open every day except Sunday. Said magistrate shall be a conservator of peace and his court shall be open every day except Sunday to hear and determine any and all cases cognizable before him; and shall have power to bring persons forthwith before him for trial, and no act shall be performed by him on Sunday, except to receive complaints, issue process and take bail and receive verdicts. [R. C. 1905, § 2730; 1887, ch. 73, art. 10, § 8; R. C. 1899, § 2200; 1905, ch. 62, § 97.]

§ 3655. Appeals. In all actions before such magistrate arising under the ordinances of the city, an appeal may be made by the defendant to the district court of the county; but no appeal shall be allowed unless such defendant shall within ten days in case of fine, and within twenty-four hours in case of imprisonment, enter into an undertaking with sufficient surety to be approved by the magistrate, conditioned in case of fine for the payment of said fine and costs and costs of appeal, and in case of judgment for imprisonment, that he will render himself in execution thereof if it should be determined against the appellant. [R. C. 1905, § 2731; 1887, ch. 73, art. 10, § 9; R. C. 1899, § 2201; 1905, ch. 62, § 98.]

Recognizance which does not provide for payment of fine and costs, and costs of appeal, is ineffectual. Centerville v. Olson, 16 S. D. 526, 94 N. W. 414.

One convicted by jury of violating ordinance against keeping house of ill fame, may appeal. Mannie v. Hatfield, 22 S. D. 475, 118 N. W. 817.

Oral notice of appeal from judgment of police justice in proceedings for violation of ordinance is sufficient. Centerville v. Olson, 16 S. D. 526, 94 N. W. 414.

§ 3656. Not to remit fines. Any person convicted before such magistrate of an offense against the ordinances of the city shall be punished by a fine and imprisonment as may be regulated by ordinance, and under no circumstances shall such magistrate remit fines or penalties or payment of costs or otherwise. [R. C. 1905, § 2732; 1887, ch. 73, art. 10, § 10; R. C. 1899, § 2202; 1905, ch. 62, § 99.]

§ 3657. City justice of the peace. Jurisdiction. The city justice of the peace shall have the same jurisdiction as justices of the peace within said county in all civil and criminal actions, and within the jurisdiction hereby conferred the power of said justice as a committing magistrate, and in trial of actions shall be the same as is now or may hereafter be provided by law for justices of the peace, and the process and proceedings of said court shall be governed by the laws regulating proceedings in justices' court; and in all cases tried in said court, an appeal may be taken to the district court in the same manner and upon the same conditions as provided by law in cases of appeal from justices of the peace, and on such appeal the district court shall have the same powers as in such cases. [R. C. 1905, § 2733; 1889, ch. 33, § 6; R. C. 1899, § 2203; 1905, ch. 62, § 100.]

One charged with violation of city ordinance is entitled to change of venue on account of prejudice of police justice. Sioux Falls v. Neeb, 20 S. D. 244, 105 N. W. 735.

§ 3658. Vacancy. In case of a vacancy in the office of police magistrate or city justice of the peace by death, resignation or otherwise, the same shall be filled by an appointment by the mayor, to be confirmed by the council, and such appointees shall qualify as in other cases and hold their offices until the next annual city election and until their successors are elected and qualified, and in case of the temporary absence, interest or disability of such magistrate it shall be the duty of the city justice of the peace to act as police magistrate during such vacancy, absence or disability in the trial of causes cognizable before said police magistrate. [R. C. 1905, § 2734; 1889, ch. 33, § 7; R. C. 1899, § 2204; 1905, ch. 62, § 101.]

§ 3659. Duty of magistrate when prosecution malicious. If upon any trial under the provisions of this article it shall appear to the satisfaction of the police magistrate or the jury in cases arising under the laws of the state, that the prosecution was commenced without probable cause, or from malicious motives, the jury or magistrate trying the action shall state the name of the complaining witness in the findings, and shall impose the costs of the prosecution upon him, and judgment shall be rendered against such complaining witness that he pay such costs, and stand committed until the same are paid. [R. C. 1905, § 2735; 1887, ch. 73, art. 10, § 12; 1889, ch. 33, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 2205; 1905, ch. 62, § 102.]

§ 3660. Power of magistrate. Jury. The police magistrate shall have power to enforce due obedience to all orders and judgments made by him, and he may fine or imprison for contempt offered to him while holding his court, or to process issued or orders made by him, in the same manner and to the same extent as provided in justices' courts. Appeals may be taken to the district court from all decisions of said court in the same manner as is provided for taking appeals from justices' courts, and the district court shall, on such appeals, take judicial notice of all the ordinances of said city. Actions before the police magistrate arising under the city ordinances shall be tried and determined by the magistrate without the intervention of a jury except in cases where, under the provisions of the ordinances of the city, imprisonment for a longer period than ten days is made a part of the penalty, or the maximum fine shall be over twenty dollars, and the defendant shall demand a trial by jury before the commencement of said trial; and when a demand shall be so made it shall be the duty of said magistrate to write down the names of eighteen persons, residents of the city and having the qualifications of jurors in the district court, and the defendant and the attorney for the city shall each strike off three names, or in case the defendant shall neglect or refuse to do so then the police magistrate, with the attorney for the city, shall strike off such names, and the magistrate shall at once issue his venire to the chief of police, commanding him to summon the twelve persons whose names remain upon the list as jurors. And in all trials by jury in said court challenges shall be allowed in the same manner and for the same causes as in the district court in cases of misdemeanor; and in case the number shall be reduced below twelve by such challenges, or any portion of said number should fail to attend, then the chief of police shall summon a sufficient number of talesmen having the qualifications of jurors to complete the panel, which shall, in all cases, consist of twelve jurors. If either party objects to the competency of a juror the question thereon must be tried in a summary manner by the magistrate, who may examine the juror or other witnesses under oath. Each person summoned as a juror in any case shall be entitled to a fee of fifty cents, and in case of conviction such fees shall be taxed against the defendant as a part of the costs of the case. [R. C. 1905, § 2736; 1887, ch. 73, art. 10, § 13; 1889, ch. 33, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 2206; 1905, ch. 62, § 103.]

One charged with violation of city ordinance is entitled to change of venue on account of prejudice of police justice. Sioux Falls v. Neeb, 20 S. D. 244, 105 N. W. 735.

§ 3661. Proceedings, how governed. In all cases not herein specially provided for, the process and proceeding of said court shall be governed by the laws regulating proceedings in justices' courts in criminal cases. [R. C. 1905, § 2737; 1887, ch. 73, art. 10, § 14; R. C. 1899, § 2207; 1905, ch. 62, § 104.]

Oral notice of appeal from judgment of police justice in proceedings for violation of ordinance is sufficient. Centerville v. Olson, 16 S. D. 526, 94 N. W. 414.

§ 3662. Office hours of magistrate. Said magistrate shall be in attendance at his office for the transaction of business at such reasonable hours as the city council may prescribe, and complaints may be made to, and writs and process issued by him, at all times in court or otherwise. [R. C. 1905, § 2738; 1887, ch. 73, art. 10, § 15; R. C. 1899, § 2208; 1905, ch. 62, § 105.]

ARTICLE 14.—CITY ENGINEER.

§ 3663. Qualifications. The city engineer shall be a practical surveyor and engineer. He shall keep his office in some convenient place in such city, and the council shall by ordinance prescribe his duties, and fix his compensation for services performed for the city. All surveys, profiles, plans or estimates made by him for the city shall be the property of the city, and shall be carefully preserved in the office of the engineer, open to inspection of all persons interested, and the same, together with all books and papers appertaining to said office, shall be delivered over by the engineer at the expiration of his term of office, to his successor, or to the city council. [R. C. 1905, § 2739; 1887, ch. 73, art. 11, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 2248; 1905, ch. 62, § 106.]

ARTICLE 15.—POLICE OFFICERS.

§ 3664. Powers of police officers. The chief of police shall perform such duties as shall be prescribed by the city council for the preservation of the peace. All police officers and watchmen of a city shall, within the city limits and for a distance of one and one-half miles in all directions within the state next outside the city limits, perform the duties and exercise the power of peace officers as defined and prescribed by the laws of the state; and shall also have power, and it shall be their duty to serve and execute any warrants, writs, process, order or notice issued to them by a police magistrate or city justices or justice of the peace within said city in any civil or criminal action or proceeding for or on account of a violation of any city ordinances, or in any action or proceeding in which the city is a party or beneficially considered; and in addition thereto shall perform such duties as shall be prescribed by the ordinances of the city, and shall also have power within said limits to serve and execute all writs and process whatsoever issued by said justices in civil actions. [1907, ch. 46, § 1; R. C. 1905, § 2740; 1887, ch. 73, art. 12, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 2249; 1905, ch. 62, § 107.]

Liability of chief of police for detaining person improperly arrested. 42 L.R.A.(N.S.) 74.

§ 3665. Warrants. All warrants issued by the police magistrate or city justice for the violation of any general law of this state shall run to the sheriff or any constable of the county or to the chief of police or any policeman of the city; but no chief of police or policeman, when he goes outside of the city to make an arrest, shall receive any fees therefor unless the commissioners of the county are satisfied that a delay in obtaining the sheriff or his deputy, or a constable to make the arrest might endanger an escape. [R. C. 1905, § 2741; 1887, ch. 73, art. 12, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 2250; 1905, ch. 62, § 108.]

ARTICLE 16.—ELECTIONS.

§ 3666. Time and place of election. There shall be an annual election for elective officers herein provided, held on the first Monday in April of each year, at such place or places in each ward as the council shall designate; except in cities where aldermen are elected at large, the council shall designate one polling place only. The polls shall be kept open continually from eight o'clock in the forenoon until five o'clock in the afternoon, and no longer, and ten days' previous notice shall be given by the council of the time and place of holding such election, by publication in at least two of the city papers published in said city, if two shall be published therein. [R. C. 1905, § 2742; 1897, ch. 40, § 4; R. C. 1899, § 2251; 1905, ch. 62, § 109.]

As to the time for all city elections in presidential years, see the concluding sentence in section 915.

§ 3667. Election districts and precincts. Each city in which aldermen are elected at large shall constitute an election district, and in all other cities each ward shall constitute an election district; but whenever the number of legal voters in any ward shall exceed three hundred, the council may by ordinance divide such ward into two or more precincts for voting purposes, and whenever the number of legal voters in any two or more contiguous wards shall not exceed one hundred as determined by the last annual election, the council may, by ordinance, consolidate such two or more wards into one precinct for voting purposes; or if the council so elects, in any city of less than four hundred voters as determined by the last annual election, the council may by ordinance consolidate all the wards of such city into one precinct for voting purposes; provided, however, that in city elections separate ballot boxes and poll books shall be provided and kept for each ward; provided, that such ordinance shall be passed and take effect before the time of giving notice of an election; and such wards and precincts shall constitute election districts for all state, county, city and school elections. [1911, ch. 65; R. C. 1905, § 2743; 1897, ch. 40, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 2252; 1905, ch. 62, § 110.]

§ 3668. Qualified voters. Registration. Every legal voter of the county in which such city is situated, who shall have been a resident of the city ninety days next preceding a city election is declared a citizen of said city, and shall be entitled to vote at all city elections; provided, that the city council shall provide for the registration of all voters as required by the laws of the state in all cities of more than four hundred voters as determined by the last annual election, and in cities of four hundred voters or less, the city council may provide for the registration of all voters in accordance with the laws of the state at one polling place, and separate registration lists shall be provided and kept for each ward, and no person shall be entitled to vote in any other place than the ward or precinct where he resides, except where otherwise provided by law. [1911, ch. 66; R. C. 1905, § 2744; 1887, ch. 73, art. 13, § 3; Const., § 121; R. C. 1899, § 2253; 1905, ch. 62, § 111.]

§ 3669. Effect of election. This chapter shall in no case affect the term of office of any officer heretofore elected or appointed in any city, but all such officers shall hold their offices during the term for which they were originally elected or appointed. [R. C. 1905, § 2745; 1887, ch. 73, art. 13, § 4; R. C. 1899, § 2254; 1905, ch. 62, § 112.]

§ 3670. Oath and duties of judges and clerks of election. The manner of conducting and voting at elections to be held under this chapter, and contesting the same, the keeping of poll lists, and canvassing the votes, shall be the same, as nearly as may be, as in the case of the election of county officers under the general laws of this state. The judges of election shall appoint clerks when necessary to fill vacancies, and the judges and clerks shall take the same oath and have the same powers and authority as the judges and clerks of general state elections. After the closing of the polls the ballots shall be counted, and the returns made out, and returned under seal to the city auditor, within two days after the election, and thereupon the city council shall examine and canvass the same, and declare the result of the election and cause a statement thereof to be entered on its journal. [R. C. 1905, § 2746; 1887, ch. 73, art. 13, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 2255; 1905, ch. 62, § 113.]

Municipal elections shall be conducted in same manner as general election. Treat v. Morris, 25 S. D. 615, 127 N. W. 554.

§ 3671. What elects. Tie, how decided. The person having the highest number of votes for any office shall be declared elected. In case of a tie in the election of any city officer, it shall be determined by lot, in the presence of the city council, in such manner as it shall direct, which candidate or candidates shall hold office. [R. C. 1905, § 2747; 1887, ch. 73, art. 13, § 7; R. C. 1899, § 2256; 1905, ch. 62, § 114.]

§ 3672. City auditor to notify officers elected or appointed. It shall be the duty of the city auditor, within five days after the result of the election is declared or appointment made, to notify all persons elected or appointed to office of their election or appointment, and unless such persons shall respectively qualify within ten days after such notice, the office shall become vacant. [R. C. 1905, § 2748; 1887, ch. 73, art. 13, § 8; R. C. 1899, § 2257; 1905, ch. 62, § 115.]

As to time for qualification of officers elected in presidential years, see the concluding sentence in section 915.

§ 3673. New election on failure to qualify. If there is a failure to elect an officer herein required to be elected, or the person elected should fail to qualify, or for any other cause that may arise, the city council may forthwith order a new election therefor, and in all cases, when necessary for the purposes of this chapter, may call special elections, canvass the returns thereof, and provide by ordinance for the mode of conducting the same; and shall give notice of such special elections, in which shall be stated the questions to be voted upon, and cause such notices to be published for the same length of time, and in the same manner as is required in the case of regular annual elections in such city, unless herein otherwise provided. [R. C. 1905, § 2749; 1887, ch. 73, art. 13, § 9; R. C. 1899, § 2258; 1905, ch. 62, § 116.]

§ 3674. When term of office commences. The term of each officer elected under this chapter shall commence on the third Tuesday of April of the year for which he was elected. [R. C. 1905, § 2750; 1887, ch. 73, art. 13, § 10; R. C. 1899, § 2259; 1905, ch. 62, § 117.]

§ 3675. When office deemed vacant. Any officer removing from the city or ward for which he is elected, or any officer who shall refuse or neglect for ten days after notice of his election or appointment to enter upon the discharge of the duties of his office, shall be deemed to have vacated his office and the city council shall proceed to fill the vacancy as herein prescribed. [R. C. 1905, § 2751; 1887, ch. 73, art. 13, § 11; R. C. 1899, § 2260; 1905, ch. 62, § 118.]

ARTICLE 17.—FINANCE.

§ 3676. Fiscal year. The fiscal year of each city organized under the general laws of this state shall commence on the first day of September of each year. [R. C. 1905, § 2752; 1887, ch. 73, art. 14, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 2261; 1905, ch. 62, § 119.]

§ 3677. Appropriation for general expenses, how made. The city council shall, at its regular meeting in September or within ten days thereafter pass an ordinance to be termed the annual appropriation bill, in which it may appropriate such sums of money as may be deemed necessary to defray all necessary expenses and liabilities of such corporation, during the ensuing fiscal year, and such ordinance shall specify the purpose for which such appropriations are made, and the amount appropriated for each purpose, and the city council may, in addition to such specific appropriations, appropriate a sum not exceeding five per cent of the total amount so specifically appropriated for general purposes in such appropriation bill, for contingent expenses not otherwise provided for. No further appropriations shall be made for any of the expenses or liabilities of such fiscal year, unless the provision to make such appropriation has been first sanctioned by a majority of the legal voters of such city, either by a petition signed by them or by special election called for that purpose. Any balance of any appropriation for general purposes, remaining unexpended at the close of the fiscal year, shall be deemed a part of the general fund of the city, and shall be reappropriated to such general purposes as the city council may deem best. [R. C. 1905, § 2753; 1887, ch. 73, art. 14, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 2262; 1905, ch. 62, § 120.]

Contract requiring expenditure of money without an appropriation therefor is ultra vires and void. Roberts v. City of Fargo et al., 10 N. D. 230, 86 N. W. 726.

As to appropriation for land taken for public street. Fargo v. Keeney, 11 N. D. 484, 92 N. W. 836.

§ 3678. Special appropriation for improvements, how made. Neither the city council, nor any department or officer of the corporation, shall add to the corporation expenditures in any one year, anything over and above the amount provided for in the annual appropriation bill of that year, except as herein otherwise specially provided; and no expenditure for an improvement to be paid for out of the general fund of the corporation shall exceed in any one year the amount provided for such improvement in the annual appropriation bill; provided, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the city council from ordering by a two-thirds vote, any improvement, the necessity of which is caused by any casualty or accident happening after such annual appropriation is made, and the expense of such improvement may be paid wholly or in part from the appropriation for contingent expenses, or whenever the city shall not have reached its constitutional debt limit, the city council may order the mayor and finance committee to borrow a sufficient amount to provide for the expense necessary to be incurred in making any improvement, the necessity of which has arisen, as is last above mentioned, for a space of time not exceeding the close of the fiscal year, which sum and interest shall be added to the amount authorized to be raised in the next general tax levy, and embraced therein. [R. C. 1905, § 2754; 1887, ch. 73, art. 14, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 2263; 1905, ch. 62, § 121.]

As to power of city to make improvements and reimburse itself through special assessments. Pine Tree Lumber Co. v. Fargo, 12 N. D. 360, 96 N. W. 357.

As to appropriation for land taken for public street. Fargo v. Keeney, 11 N. D. 484, 92 N. W. 836.

§ 3679. Contracts prior to appropriation forbidden. No contract shall be made by the city council and no expense shall be incurred by any officer or department of the corporation, whether the object of the expenditure shall have been ordered by the city council or not, unless an appropriation shall have been previously made concerning such expense, except as herein otherwise provided; provided, however, that the city council is authorized to enter into contracts with persons, associations or corporations for the furnishing of water for fire protection to the city, and in case such contract shall extend over a term of years, then and in that case it shall not be necessary that an appropriation shall have been previously made concerning such expense, except sufficient to cover the amounts payable under such contract for the first year thereof; provided, further, that such contract shall not be made for a longer period than twenty years. [R. C. 1905, § 2755; 1887, ch. 73, art. 4, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 2264; 1905, ch. 62, § 122.]

Provisions mandatory and prohibitive. No contract nor expense can be incurred unless an appropriation made to cover. Roberts v. City of Fargo, 10 N. D. 230, 86 N. W. 726.

City empowered to render itself generally liable upon paving contract. Pine Tree Lumber Co. v. Fargo, 12 N. D. 360, 96 N. W. 357.

§ 3680. Tax levy, how and when made. The city council shall, at its first regular meeting in September, or within ten days thereafter, levy a tax for general purposes sufficient to meet the expenses of the fiscal year, and not exceeding twenty mills on the dollar of the assessed valuation of property in the city, based upon, and itemized as in the annual appropriation bill for the year, and in addition thereto, shall levy a tax for interest and sinking fund as required by this chapter, and also a sufficient tax for the payment of any final judgment that may have been recovered against the city, and such levy shall be forthwith, and not later than September twentieth, certified by the city auditor, with any levy made by the board of education of such city for school purposes, to the auditor of the county in which such city is situated. Such levy shall be made in specific amounts, and the county auditor of such county shall extend the same upon the tax lists of the county for the current year, in the same manner and with the same effect as other taxes are extended, except that the city taxes may be included in one amount, and the school taxes in one amount, for each person or lot, or parcel of land. The levy herein provided for may be made at the same meeting at which the annual appropriation bill is finally passed, and the provisions of law fixing the time at or within which any act or proceeding in the assessment or levy of any taxes shall be done or taken, shall be deemed and held to be directory and not mandatory. [R. C. 1905, § 2756; 1905, ch. 62, § 123.]

Valid tax levy must be made by ordinance. Engstad v. Dinnie, 8 N. D. 1, 76 N. W. 292.

Town lots should be assessed separately. Salmer v. Lathrop, 10 S. D. 216, 72 N. W. 570; O'Neil v. Tyler, 3 N. D. 47, 53 N. W. 434.

§ 3681. Additional tax levy to pay final judgments. When any final judgment shall be obtained against any city within the state of North Dakota, the city council of such city may by resolution provide for the levy and collection of an annual tax upon all the taxable property of such city, not exceeding the amount of ten mills on the dollar in any one year which shall be used in payment of such judgment. The county auditor shall make out, charge and extend upon the tax list against each description of real property and against all personal property of the city all such taxes for cities and judgments he is so notified have been levied by the city in which the property is situated and taxable in the same manner in which the county and state tax list is prepared, and deliver it to the county treasurer at the same time. The taxes so levied for the payment of any final judgment against such city may be levied in addition to such other taxes as are now or may hereafter be provided by law, and this section shall in no manner be construed as depriving the city council of any city in this state from levying all such other taxes in such amounts as they are now permitted to levy under existing laws for other purposes. [1911, ch. 69.]

§ 3682. County treasurer to collect taxes and pay over to city treasurer. The county treasurer of such county shall collect and enforce the collection of the city and school tax with and in the same manner as other taxes, and shall pay over to the city treasurer on the first of every month on demand, all such taxes so collected during the preceding month, with interest and penalties collected thereon, and shall forthwith notify the city auditor of the amount so paid over. He shall take duplicate receipts for all such amounts so paid to the city treasurer, one of which shall be forthwith sent to the city auditor. [R. C. 1905, § 2757; 1905, ch. 62, § 124.]

This section as originally enacted was held unconstitutional as class legislation. State ex rel. Mitchell v. Mayo, 15 N. D. 327, 108 N. W. 36.

Limitations ran against each amount retained by county as commission for collection of city taxes beyond legal amount from date of each settlement with city. Centerville v. Turner County, 25 S. D. 300, 126 N. W. 605.

§ 3683. Money paid to the city treasurer, how proportioned. The city treasurer and auditor shall each proportion said amounts so received by the city treasurer and credit each fund with its proportion or share according to the levy made by the council, and the county treasurer at the time of paying over such funds shall furnish the city treasurer and auditor with a statement of the amount collected for each year separately, and the same shall be credited to the proper fund for the year for which it was collected. All money received by the city treasurer for licenses, license or occupation taxes and fines shall be credited to, and become a part of the contingent fund of the city, and shall be used for the payment of such liabilities and necessary expenses of the city as are not otherwise specially provided for in the annual appropriation bill. [R. C. 1905, § 2758; 1905, ch. 62, § 125.]

§ 3684. Provisions not applicable to cities operating under general law. The provisions of sections 3616, 4038, 4039, 4040, 4041, 4042, 4043, 4044, 4045, 4047, 4048 and 4049 do not apply to any city organized under the general laws of the state for the incorporation of cities, and when any of the provisions of this chapter are inconsistent with any other provisions of the revised codes, or of any other law heretofore enacted, the provisions of this chapter shall be deemed to supersede all others. [R. C. 1905, § 2759; 1905, ch. 62, § 125½.]

ARTICLE 18.— OPENING OF STREETS, ALLEYS, ETC.

§ 3685. Surveys. Whenever the city council shall deem it necessary to open, lay out, widen or enlarge any street or alley or public place within the city, it shall cause an accurate survey and plat of the same to be made by the city engineer, with an estimate of the probable cost of the improvement, and the city engineer shall file the same in the office of the city auditor, and retain a copy in his office. [R. C. 1905, § 2760; 1887, ch. 73, art. 15, § 12; R. C. 1899, § 2276; 1905, ch. 62, § 126.]

§ 3687. Fixing grades. The city council may by ordinance establish the grade of all streets, alleys and sidewalks in the city as the convenience of the inhabitants may require, and a record of the same shall be kept, together with a profile thereof in the office of the city engineer; provided, that after the grade of any street has been established as provided in this section, the city shall, if it change the grade, be liable to the abutting property owners for any damage they may sustain by reason of any permanent improvements having been made by them to conform to the grade as first established. [R. C. 1905, § 2762; 1905, ch. 62, § 128.]

§ 3688. Vacation of streets and alleys. Petition. Appeal. No public grounds, streets or alleys, or parts thereof, over, under or through which shall have been constructed, lengthwise, sewers or watermains of the city, or watermains, gas, steam or other pipes, or telephone or telegraph lines by the city's grantees of the right of way therefor shall be vacated unless such sewers or watermains had been abandoned and are not in use, and no other public grounds, streets or alleys, or parts thereof, within the city shall be vacated or discontinued by the city council except upon a petition of a majority of the owners of the property on the line of such public grounds, streets or alleys, resident within the city. Such petition shall set forth the facts and reasons for such vacation, accompanied by a plat of such public grounds, streets or alleys proposed to be vacated, and shall be verified by the oath of at least two of the petitioners, and the consent in writing of all the owners of the property adjoining the plat to be so vacated. The city council shall thereupon, if they deem it expedient that the matter should be proceeded with, order the petition to be filed with the city auditor, who shall give notice of publication in the official newspaper of the city for four weeks, at least once in each week, to the effect that such petition has been filed as aforesaid, and stating in brief its objects, and that said petition will be heard and considered by the council, or a committee thereof, on a certain day therein specified, not less than thirty days after the first publication of such notice. The city council, or such committee as may be appointed by it for the purpose, at the time and place appointed, shall investigate and consider the matter, and shall hear the testimony and evidence of persons interested. The city council thereupon after hearing the same, or upon the report of such committee favoring the granting of such petition, may, by resolution passed by a two-thirds vote of all of the members elect, declare such public grounds, streets or alleys or highways, vacated; which resolution, before the same shall go into effect, shall be published as in the case of ordinances, and thereupon a transcript of such resolution, duly certified by the city auditor, shall be filed for record and duly recorded in the office of the register of deeds of the county, and shall have the effect to convey to the abutting property owners, all the right and title of the city to the property so vacated. Any person aggrieved thereby may, within twenty days after publication of such resolution, appeal to the district court of the county, under the same regulations as in the case of opening streets and alleys, and the judgment of the court therein shall be final. All expenses incurred in vacating any such public grounds, streets or alleys must be paid by the petitioners, who shall deposit with the city treasurer, such sum as may be necessary therefor, before any such expense is incurred, and the amount so to be deposited shall be determined by the city council, and any part thereof not used for such expenses shall be returned. [1911, ch. 78; R. C. 1905, § 2763; 1887, ch. 73, art. 15, § 13; R. C. 1899, § 2277; 1905, ch. 62, § 129.]

ARTICLE 19.—SIDEWALKS.

Powers conferred upon the city council in this article are given to the boards of trustees of incorporated villages. See section 3862.

§ 3689. Specifications for sidewalks. The city council shall by ordinance prescribe the width of sidewalks and may establish different widths in different locations, and shall determine and prescribe the kind and quality of material of which, and the manner in which, they shall be constructed, having regard to the business and amount of travel in the vicinity of each, and such ordinance shall be specific, and all contracts for the construction of sidewalks shall be let with reference to the same. [R. C. 1905, § 2764; 1905, ch. 62, § 130.]

Ordinance providing for sidewalks on several streets, where same were to be constructed of same material and same width, was not invalid for embracing walks on several streets in one proceeding. Wood v. Hurley, 29 S. D. 269, 136 N. W. 107.

§ 3690. Notice to build or repair. Whenever the city council shall deem it necessary to construct, rebuild or repair, except as hereinafter provided, any sidewalk in the city, it shall notify each owner and occupant of any lot or parcel of land adjoining such sidewalk, to construct, rebuild or repair the same at his own expense, and subject to the approval of the street commissioner, within the time designated in such notice, by the publication in the official newspaper of the city twice, once in each week for two successive weeks, of a notice to said owner or occupant, setting forth what work is to be done, and the character of the same as specified in the ordinance provided for in the preceding section, and the time within which he is required to do the same. Such notice may be general as to the owner, but must be specific as to the description of the lot or parcel of ground in front of which such sidewalk is to be built, and a copy thereof shall also be served in the manner provided in section 3693. [R. C. 1905, § 2765; 1905, ch. 62, § 130 $\frac{1}{2}$.]

§ 3691. Building by city. If such work is not done and the sidewalk is not built, repaired or rebuilt, in the manner and within the time prescribed in said notice, the city council shall order the same to be done by such person as they may have contracted with therefor, under the direction of the city engineer, or street commissioner in cities having no city engineer, at the expense of the lot or parcel of land adjoining each sidewalk, and such expense, including the expenses of all notices in connection with such work and the assessment therefor, and any other expense incurred for such work, shall be assessed upon the lot or parcel of land properly chargeable therewith, by the city engineer, or by the street commissioner in cities having no city engineer; and such assessment shall be returned by him, and filed in the office of the city auditor, and the city auditor shall cause to be published the said assessment, together with a notice of the time and place when and where the city council will meet to approve the same, and said notice shall be published once in the official newspaper of the city at least ten days prior to the meeting of the city council to approve such assessment. [R. C. 1905, § 2766; 1905, ch. 62, § 131.]

§ 3692. Letting contracts for sidewalks. The city auditor shall, on or before the fifteenth day of March in each year, advertise in the official newspaper of the city twice, once in each week for two consecutive weeks, for bids for the construction of the various kinds of sidewalks in the city during the ensuing year, in accordance with the specifications of the ordinance provided for in section 3689, and such bid shall be received and opened and if accompanied by a check and bond as hereinafter provided, such contract shall be awarded to the lowest bidder, at the regular meeting of the city council in April and contracts may be awarded to different bidders for the different kinds of sidewalks required. But if the city auditor shall have failed to advertise for bids as aforesaid before the fifteenth day of March, and if the city council shall have failed to award contracts at their regular meeting in April, upon such showing being made and published together with notice for bids for two consecutive weeks prior to any regular meeting of the city council, the city council may thereupon at any such regular meeting after such publication, award such contracts to the best bidders for the different kinds of sidewalks required. § 3693. Repairs. Whenever the necessary repair of sidewalks will not, in the judgment of the street commissioner, exceed in cost the sum of ten dollars for each twenty-five feet in front of land belonging to the same owner, he shall notify the city auditor thereof, and the city auditor shall forthwith prepare a notice in writing, which may be general as to the owner of the lot or parcel of land, but describing it specifically, requiring him to repair such sidewalk to the satisfaction of the street commissioner, within a time to be fixed in such notice not exceeding three days. The auditor shall deliver such notice to the street commissioner, who shall forthwith serve it by delivering a copy thereof to the occupant or owner of the parcel of land, if the same is occupied, or by leaving such notice at the dwelling house upon such lot or parcel of land with some person over the age of fourteen years residing therein, or if such lot or parcel of land is not occupied, by posting a copy of such notice in a conspicuous place thereon or immediately in front thereof, and if such sidewalk is not so repaired within the time fixed in such notice, the street commissioner shall, as soon as practicable, repair the same and certify the cost thereof, with his return of service of such notice to the city auditor; and the cost of such repairs shall be paid out of the "sidewalk special assessment fund." [1911, ch. 64; R. C. 1905, § 2768; 1905, ch. 62, § 133.]

§ 3694. Duty of auditor. The city auditor shall keep in his office a book called "sidewalk repair special assessment book," and shall enter such cost so certified by the street commissioner therein, as a special assessment against the lot or parcel of land adjoining such sidewalk, with the name of the owner, if known to him; and at its regular meeting in September of each year, the city council shall review all assessments and hear all complaints against the same, and approve the same as finally adjusted. [1907, ch. 46, § 8; R. C. 1905, § 2769; 1905, ch. 62, § 134.]

See the connection in which this section is cited in note to section 3740.

§ 3695. Sidewalk special assessment fund. All moneys collected from special assessments for building or repairing sidewalks shall be kept in a fund to be called "sidewalk special fund" and warrants shall be drawn on such fund for the payment of the costs of building and repairing all sidewalks, and the city shall in no case be liable on any contract for the building or repairing of sidewalks in any sum whatsoever, to be paid by moneys raised by general taxation.

All such sidewalk special assessment warrants shall be payable as specified and in such amounts as in the judgment of the city council the taxes and assessments will provide for, which said warrants shall bear interest at the rate of not to exceed seven per cent, per annum, payable annually, and may have coupons attached representing each year's interest. Such warrants shall state upon their faces for what purpose they are issued and the further fact from which fund they are payable and shall be signed by the mayor and countersigned by the city auditor under the seal of the city and be in denominations of not more than one thousand dollars each. Such warrants may be used in making payment on contracts for making such improvements or be sold for cash at not less than par value thereof and the proceeds thereof credited to such fund, and used for paying such improvements. It shall be the duty of the city treasurer to pay such warrants and interest coupons as they mature and are presented for payment out of the sidewalk special assessment fund, and to cancel the same when paid. [1913, ch. 82, § 1; 1907, ch. 46; R. C. 1905, § 2770; 1905, ch. 62, § 135.]

In action against city for damages for injury caused by defective sidewalks, charter of city is properly received in evidence. Jackson v. Grand Forks, 24 N. D. 601, 45 L.R.A. (N.S.) 175, 140 N. W. 718.

§ 3696. Assessment for removing snow and ice from sidewalks. In all cases where snow and ice are not removed from sidewalks within the time and in the manner that is now and hereinafter may be provided by the ordinances of any city, the same may be removed by or under the direction of the street commissioner, and the necessary expense thereof shall be chargeable against the abutting property. On or before May first in each year the street commissioner shall make and file in the office of the city auditor a list of the property chargeable and assessed against each lot and tract separately, and stating the owner's name, so far as known to him. The city auditor shall give notice by publication in the official newspaper of the hearing and confirmation of such report and assessment at the regular June council meeting, notifying all persons objecting thereto to appear and present their objections, such notice to be published twice, once in each week for two consecutive weeks, the last publication to be not less than eight days before the time fixed for the hearing. At the June council meeting or at such later meeting as the hearing and confirmation of such assessment may be adjourned to, the council shall take up and consider said assessment and shall hear any objection thereto or to any part thereof, and after revising and correcting the same, if necessary so to do, shall approve and confirm the same. The city auditor shall thereupon attach to such list his certificate that the same is correct as confirmed by the city council and shall thereupon file such assessment list in his office; and such assessment, with interest and penalties thereon, shall be and remain a permanent lien upon the property upon which such assessment is levied, from the time such assessment list is approved by the city council, and shall remain a lien thereupon until fully paid, and shall have precedence over all other liens except ordinary taxes to which it shall be subject, and such lien shall not be divested by any judicial sale, and no mistake in the description of the property or in the name of the owner shall obviate such lien, provided the property assessed can be identified by the description in such assessment list. Such assessment shall be certified to the county auditor by the city auditor at the same time and in the same manner that sidewalk assessments are certified by him under the provisions of section 2804, Revised Codes of 1905. [1913, ch. 82, § 2; 1907, ch. 46.]

ARTICLE 20.—SEWERS, PAVING AND WATER MAINS.

Powers conferred upon the city council in this article are given to the boards of trustees of incorporated villages. See section 3862.

§ 3697. System of sewerage. The city council shall have power to establish and maintain at any time a general system of sewerage for the city, in such manner and under such regulations as the council shall deem expedient, and to alter or change the same from time to time as the council may deem proper; provided, that no action shall be taken for the establishment of a system of sewerage except upon the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members of the city council; and provided, further, that when such system of sewerage is established, all measures necessary for the construction of sewers, as a part of that system, may be taken by a vote of the majority of the city council; and provided, further, that when it shall be necessary to conduct the sewerage beyond the city limits, the city council shall have power, by purchase or condemnation proceedings, to acquire private property over which to construct such sewer, and the cost thereof and of building such sewer over the same shall be included in the cost of such system of sewerage and in the special assessment levied therefor; and provided, further, that any city may empty or discharge its sewerage into any river, but where a dam on such river is located within the corporate limits of any city, the sewerage shall in such cases be discharged below such dam; and provided, further, that in case there is no river accessible into which to discharge such system of sewerage, the same may be discharged into a lake, coulee or slough, and in any of the latter cases a septic tank system shall be employed for sewerage from closets, kitchen-sinks or anything carrying objectionable matter, prior to discharging same into the lake, coulee, slough or other outlet, but that any drainage from basements, cellars or surface may be discharged direct into the lake, coulee, slough or other outlet, prior to emptying into the main sewer system, but that any drainage from basements, cellars or surface may be admitted direct into the main sewer system without first passing through the septic tank system. [1907, ch. 229; R. C. 1905, § 2771; 1905, ch. 62, § 136.]

§ 3698. To create improvement districts. Any city shall have power to create sewer, paving and water main districts and water works districts, for the purpose of constructing a water works system, including the construction and erection of a pumping station, settling basins, filtration plant, stand pipes and water towers, reservoirs and other contrivances and structures necessary for a complete water works system, and for the purpose of laying, extending, improving, enlarging, relaying or replacing water mains and districts, for the purpose of grading, graveling, curbing, planting trees, constructing grass plots, sowing grass seed, constructing gutters, or for the purpose of making any one or more of the improvements herein mentioned and maintaining the same within the limits of such city, which districts shall be consecutively numbered. [1913, ch. 74, § 1; 1911, ch. 70, § 1; R. C. 1905, § 2772; 1905, ch. 62, § 137.]

§ 3699. Size and form of sewer districts. Such sewer districts shall be of such size and form as the city council, after consultation with the city engineer, shall decide most practicable for the purpose of the drainage of such portion of such city as may be included in the respective districts as established by the city council. [R. C. 1905, § 2773; 1905, ch. 62, § 138.]

§ 3700. Form of paving districts. Such paving districts shall be in compact form as nearly as practicable, and include all streets within their respective boundaries, and nothing in this article contained shall be construed as authorizing and empowering the city council to create one street, by length, as a district, except when it shall be necessary to repave any street which shall not, when originally paved, have been included in any paving district. [R. C. 1905, § 2774; 1905, ch. 62, § 139.]

§ 3701. Water main and water works districts. Such water main districts and water works districts for the purpose of constructing a water works system, including the construction and erection of a pumping station, settling basin, filtration plant, stand pipes and water towers, reservoirs and other contrivances and structures necessary for a complete water works system and for the purpose of laying, extending, improving, enlarging, relaying or replacing water mains and districts for the purpose of grading, graveling, curbing, planting trees, constructing grass plots, sowing grass seeds and constructing gutters, shall be of such size and number as the city council, after consultation with the city engineer, shall decide most practicable. [1913, ch. 74, § 2; 1911, ch. 70, § 2; R. C. 1905, § 2775; 1905, ch. 62, § 140.]

§ 3702. Power to make improvements. All cities shall have power to grade, curb, pave, replace, gravel, macadamize or gutter any street, highway, avenue, alley or public place in such city, and to plant trees, construct grass plots or to sow grass seed thereon, and to maintain and preserve any one or more of such improvements by causing such trees or grass to be watered, the grass cut and trees trimmed, or otherwise maintaining and preserving the same, as the city council shall deem suitable and proper, and any city shall have power to create sewer, paving and water main districts and water works districts for the purpose of constructing a water works system, including the construction and erection of a pumping station, settling basins, filtration plant, stand pipes and water towers, reservoirs and other contrivances and structures necessary for a complete water works system, and for the purpose of laying, extending, improving, enlarging, relaying or replacing water mains and districts, and to defray the expense of all such work as hereinafter provided. [1913, ch. 74, § 3; 1911, ch. 70, § 3; R. C. 1905, § 2776; 1905, ch. 62, § 141.]

Assessment of damages before change of grade. Searle v. City of Lead, 10 S. D. 312, 73 N. W. 101; Whittaker v. City of Deadwood, 12 S. D. 608, 82 N. W. 202.

Grade must be established before passage of ordinance to grade. Whittaker v. City of Deadwood, 12 S. D. 608, 82 N. W. 202.

§ 3703. Plans, specifications and estimates. When the city council shall deem it necessary to construct or alter any sewer or to open, widen, extend, grade, curb, pave, repave, gravel, macadamize or gutter any street, highway, avenue, alley, lane or other public ground within the city limits or to plant trees, construct grass plots, or sow grass seed thereon or to construct a water works system, including the construction and erection of pumping stations, settling basins, filtration plants, stand pipes, water towers, reservoirs and other contrivances and structures necessary for a complete water works system, the city council shall direct the city engineer, or in case the city has no competent city engineer, shall employ a competent engineer, to prepare plans and specifications for such work, including the grading of the street if not already established, if such grade is deemed necessary by such engineer, and all details of the work to be done, and make an estimate of its probable cost, which plans, specifications and estimates shall be approved by resolution of the city council, which approval shall be deemed to establish the grade of the street as shown in such plans and specifications, if the grade of the street has not previously been established by ordinance, providing such grade has been included in such plans and specifications. In case the improvement shall consist in paving or repaving any street, alley or public place, the city council may require such plans, specifications and estimates to be made of such different kinds of pavement as they may deem advisable. In case the improvement shall consist of planting trees, constructing grass plots, sowing grass seed thereon, or otherwise parking or beautifying any of the streets, highways, avenues, alleys, lanes or other public grounds within the city limits, the said city may require plans, specifications and estimates to be made of the probable cost of making, constructing or maintaining such improvements or any of them. Such plans, specifications and estimates shall be the property of the city and be filed in the office of the city auditor and remain on file in his office subject to inspection of all persons. The city engineer shall retain a copy of such plans, specifications and estimates, and file the same in his office, and shall furnish to any person applying therefor copies of the same, and may charge and receive for such copies at the rate of one dollar an hour for the time necessarily employed in making the same. [1913, ch. 74, § 4; 1911, ch. 70, § 4; R. C. 1905, § 2777; 1905, ch. 62, § 142.]

§ 3704. Resolution declaring work necessary. After the plans, specifications and estimates mentioned in the preceding section shall have been filed in the office of the city auditor and approved as provided in the preceding section the city council shall by resolution declare such work or improvement (except the construction or alteration of sewers) necessary to be done, such resolution shall refer intelligently to the plans, specifications and estimates therefor, and shall be published twice, once in each week for two consecutive weeks in the official newspaper of the city. If the owners of a majority of the property liable to be specially assessed for such proposed improvement shall not, within fifteen days after the first publication of such resolution, file with the city auditor a written protest against such improvement, then the majority of such owners shall be deemed to have consented thereto. At the next regular meeting of the city council after the expiration of the time for filing protests against such improvement, the council shall hear and determine the sufficiency and validity of such protests, and if two-thirds of the council shall decide that such protests are insufficient or not well taken, then the city council shall have power to cause such improvement to be made and to contract therefor, and to levy and collect assessments therefor as hereinafter provided, and all such work shall be let by contract to the responsible bidder whose bid is the lowest therefor. In case the work to be done consist of paving or repaving, the city council shall not in its resolution declaring such improvement necessary determine which of the kinds of paving or paving material shall be adopted; but in the call for bids bidders shall be invited to submit bids for one or more of the several kinds of paving or paving material for which the city engineer shall have been directed to file plans and specifications. When the bids shall have been opened and made public they shall be entered on the minutes of the meeting and be carefully preserved by the city auditor, and action on the same shall be deferred for a period of at least five days, and another meeting of the council shall be held at least five days after the opening of the bids for the purpose of considering and acting on the same. Notice of the time and place of such future meeting shall be published by the city auditor at least once in the official newspaper of the city at least five days before the date fixed for such meeting. If, after the opening of the bids and before the meeting of the council to consider the same, the owners of a majority of the property liable to be specially assessed for such paving or repaving, shall file with the city auditor a written petition (which may consist of a single petition or several separate petitions signed by the owners of a majority of the property liable to be specially assessed for such improvement, or their authorized agents) indicating that such petitioners are agreed in a preference for any one of the kinds of paving or paving materials for which bids have been invited, then it shall be obligatory upon the city council to cause the paving or repaving to be constructed of the kind of paving material indicated in such petition. [1907, ch. 46, § 3; R. C. 1905, § 2778; 1905, ch. 62, § 143.]

See the connection in which this section is cited in note to section 3740.

Resolution of city council levying special assessment for cost of grading street must reasonably inform property owner that he is to be assessed and must describe generally nature and extent of improvement. State ex rel. Bowen v. Sioux Falls, 125 S. D. 3, 124 N. W. 963.

Ordinance providing for sidewalks on several streets, where same were to be constructed of same material and same width, was not invalid for embracing walks on several streets in one proceeding. Wood v. Hurley, 29 S. D. 269, 136 N. W. 107.

§ 3705. Duty of council. The city council shall then cause proposals for said work to be advertised in the official paper of such city twice, once in each week for two consecutive weeks, which advertisement shall specify the work to be done according to the plans and specifications therefor on file in the auditor's office and shall call for bids therefor upon a basis of cash payment for said work, and state the time within which such bids will be received, and within which such work is to be completed. The city council may also require bidders to state the rate of interest the warrants shall bear (not exceeding seven per cent per annum), which are to be received and accepted by them at par in payment for such work. In case of pavement such proposals may call for bids for one or more kinds of pavement. Bids for such work shall be forwarded to the city auditor of such city securely sealed so as to prevent their being opened without detection, and shall have indorsed upon the outside thereof a statement of what work such proposals are for. Such bids shall be opened by the city council at the expiration of the time limited in said advertisement for receiving the same, which shall be not less than fifteen days after the first publication of said advertisement, or at such other time as the city council may appoint therefor, and if accompanied by a check and bond hereinafter provided for shall be considered, and if not accompanied by such check and bond shall be rejected. [1907, ch. 46, § 5; R. C. 1905, § 2780; 1905, ch. 62, § 145.]

See the connection in which this section is cited in note to section 3740.

In absence of charter or statutory requirement municipal contracts need not be let under competitive bidding. Price v. Fargo, 24 N. D. 440, 139 N. W. 1054.

§ 3706. Bids. Each bid for any work to be done under the provisions of this article shall be accompanied by a certified check, in case of sidewalks for the sum of fifty dollars, and in the case of other work for the sum of five hundred dollars, indorsed or payable to the mayor, as a guarantee that the bidder will enter into a contract for the performance of such work in case such contract is awarded to him, and in case any bidder to whom such contract shall be awarded, fails or refuses to enter into such contract when requested so to do, such check accompanying his bid shall be retained by the city, and be deemed liquidated damages for such failure, and shall be delivered to the city treasurer and credited by him to the fund from which the consideration for such work is payable. [R. C. 1905, § 2781; 1905, ch. 62, § 146.]

§ 3707. Bonds. Each bid for any such work shall also be accompanied by a bond running to the city. In case of all improvements except sidewalks, paving and repaving the amount of bidder's bond shall be a sum equal to the full amount of the bid. In case of paving or repaving, the amount of the bond to be required on each bid for different kinds of paving or repaving shall be fixed at a sum equal to at least five per cent of the amount of the bid or such additional sum as the city council may by resolution determine at the time bids are called for; provided, however, that in the case of contracts for the construction of sidewalks the amount of the bond shall be five hundred dollars. Such bidder's bond shall be executed by the bidder or contractor as principal and by a surety company authorized to do business in this state, or by two or more freeholders resident of this state; and if executed by individuals as sureties such sureties must attach to such bond an affidavit of justification, showing that they possess the qualifications required of sureties in arrest and bail and are worth in the aggregate in property within this state a sum equal to twice the penalty of the bond over and above their exemptions; such bonds shall be made payable to the city and shall be conditioned as follows: That if the principal's bid shall be accepted and the contract for the work of improvement awarded to him, he will, within ten days after the acceptance of his bid or within such further time as the city council shall grant, enter into and execute a contract bond in a sum equal to the amount of the bid and a contract in writing to and with the city, to well and faithfully perform and complete the work for which his bid was accepted in accordance with the plans and specifications therefor and the terms of his bid and within the time required by the terms of such contract; that he will pay for all labor and materials used in such work. Such bonds shall be for the benefit of the city. In case the bidder shall fail to execute a contract bond and a contract as aforesaid for the completion of the work bid for within ten days or such further time as the city council may grant after the acceptance of the bid, then the city council shall be authorized the same as if the bid or bond contained an expressed stipulation to that effect, to cause such work to be done or completed, the work, or contract, with some other contractor to do or complete the work, and in such case may recover in a suit on the defaulting bidder's bond the difference between actual cost to the city of such improvements and the sum which it would cost if the defaulting bidder had complied with his bid. The successful bidder shall, within the time fixed by the city council for executing the contract, file a contract bond in a sum equal to the full amount of the contract with the city auditor. Such contract shall be executed by the bidder or contractor as principal and a surety company authorized to do business in this state, as surety or by two or more freeholders resident of this state, and if executed by individuals as sureties such sureties must attach to such bond an affidavit of justification showing that they possess the qualifications required of sureties in arrest and bail, and are worth in the aggregate in property within this state a sum equal to twice the penalty of the bond over and above their exemptions; such bond shall be made payable to the city and shall be conditioned that he will well and faithfully perform the work bid for in accordance with the terms of and within the time provided for in such contract, and pursuant to the plans and specifications for such work on file in the city auditor's office, and pay for all labor and material used in such work, and that in case of default on the part of the bidder or contractor to perform such work as provided in this contract, the sum named in the bond shall be taken and held to be fixed and liquidated damages in favor of said city, and that the full amount thereof may be recovered from said bidder and his sureties in an action by the city against them on said bonds. Such bonds shall be approved by the city council and shall thereupon be and remain in full force and effect. Upon the execution of the contract and approval of the contract bond the bidding bond shall be returned. A sufficiency of any bond filed by a bidder shall be determined by the city council at the time of considering bids. If the council shall at any time deem the bond of a contractor insufficient, either in form or sufficiency of sureties, it may require the successful bidder or contractor to furnish a new bond to be approved by the mayor and the city council, within such reasonable time as the council may fix, and if the bidder or contractor shall fail to furnish such new bond within the time required after notice to him to do so his contract may be cancelled and in that event the contractor's bond shall be liable the same as if the contractor had failed to perform his contract. [1907, ch. 46, § 6; R. C. 1905, § 2782; 1905, ch. 62, § 147.]

See the connection in which this section is cited in note to section 3740.

§ 3708. Council or commission may reject bids and have work performed by the city. The city council or city commission shall have the right to reject any and all bids for work to be done under this article, if, in its opinion, the interests of the city will be best subserved by so doing, and such work may be performed directly by the city by the employment of labor and purchase of material, or in any other manner in which the city council or city commission may deem proper in each particular case, and payment for the construction thereof may be provided for by special assessment in the same manner as if said work had been performed by contract, or the city council, or the city commission may readvertise for other bids, but if such bids are not rejected the contract shall then be awarded to the responsible bidder, whose bid is the lowest, upon the basis of cash payment therefor, providing said bidder shall have complied with the foregoing requirement; provided, further, that in case the contemplated improvements consist of paving or repaving the city council or city commission may, after opening and considering the bids, by resolution, determine the kind or kinds of pavement to be laid, and may then proceed to award a contract or contracts therefor; provided, that the city council or city commission shall, before adopting or rejecting any bids, require the city engineer, or may employ a competent engineer to make a careful and detailed statement of the estimated cost of such work. [1913, ch. 70; 1907, ch. 46, § 7; R. C. 1905, § 2783; 1905, ch. 62, § 148.]

See the connection in which this section is cited in note to section 3740.

§ 3709. Contracts. All contracts entered into for any work provided for in this article, shall be entered into in the name of the city, and shall be executed on the part of the city, by the mayor thereof, and countersigned by the auditor with the corporate seal of the city affixed, and when signed by the contractor shall be filed in the office of the city auditor. Such contract shall require the work to be done thereunder, to be done pursuant to the plans and specifications therefor on file in the office of the city auditor, or in case of sidewalks, pursuant to the specifications of the ordinance provided for by section 3689 and subject to the approval of the city engineer, who shall personally supervise and inspect such work during its progress, and there shall be reserved in each contract the right of the city council, in case of the improper construction of such work, to suspend work thereon at any time, and to relet the contract therefor, or order a reconstruction of said work on any part thereof improperly done. Each contract so entered into shall state the time on or before which such work must be completed, and must state from what fund the amount to be paid thereon by the city is to be paid, and that the consideration of such contract is payable only in warrants drawn on such fund, and that such city assumes and incurs no general liability under such contract. [R. C. 1905, § 2784; 1905, ch. 62, § 149.]

Certificate of city engineer that work has been completed is essential before city can levy assessments against individual property for payment of costs of sewer. Baker v. La Moure, 21 N. D. 140, 129 N. W. 464.

§ 3710. Contractor, how paid. In case the contractor to whom any such contract shall be let shall properly perform the work therein designated, the city council may, from time to time in its discretion, as the work progresses, pay to such contractor upon an estimate made by the city engineer of the amount already earned thereunder, eighty-five per cent of the amount shown by such estimate to have been so earned, in warrants drawn on the fund from which the same is to be paid. [R. C. 1905, § 2785; 1905, ch. 62, § 150.]

§ 3711. Special assessment funds. Warrants. All special assessments levied under the provisions of this article shall constitute a fund for the payment of the cost of the improvement for the payment of which they are levied, and shall be diverted to no other purpose, and those for the payment of sewer improvement shall be designated respectively "sewer district no. fund," and such funds shall be numbered according to the number of the sewer district in which it is raised. Those collected for paving improvements shall be designated as "paving district no. . . . fund," and such fund shall be numbered according to the paving district in which it is raised; and those levied for the payment of water mains shall be known as "water main district no. . . . fund," and such fund shall be numbered according to the number of the water main district in which it is raised, those levied for water works improvements shall be designated as "water works district no. . . . fund," and such fund shall be numbered according to the number of the water works district; and those levied for the payment of grading, curbing, graveling, macadamizing or guttering of any street, highway, alley, lane or public place in such city, or of planting trees, constructing grass plots or sowing grass seed thereon, or of maintaining and preserving any one or more of such improvements, shall be known as "improvement district no. . . . fund," and such fund shall be numbered according to the number of the improvement district in which it is raised; and in anticipation of the levy and collection of such special assessments, the city may, at any time after the making of a contract for any such improvements, issue warrants, on such funds, payable at specified times, and in such amounts as, in the judgment of the city council, the taxes and assessments will provide for, which warrants shall bear interest at the rate of not to exceed seven per cent per annum, payable annually, and may have coupons attached representing each year's interest, provided that special assessments levied for maintaining grass plots or trees, parking or other improvements for the beautifying of the city streets, shall be payable in a single amount. Such warrants shall state upon their face for what purpose they are issued, and the fund from which they are payable, and shall be signed by the mayor and countersigned by the city auditor, under the seal of the city, and be in denominations of not more than one thousand dollars each. Such warrants may be used in making payments on contracts for making such improvements or may be sold for cash, at not less than the par value thereof, and the proceeds thereof credited to such fund, and used for paying such improvements. It shall be the duty of the city treasurer to pay such warrants and interest coupons as they mature and are presented for payment out of the district funds on which they are drawn, and to cancel the same when paid. [1913, ch. 74, § 5; 1911, ch. 70, § 5; R. C. 1905, § 2786; 1905, ch. 62, § 151.]

§ 3712. Errors and mistakes. In case errors or mistakes in making an assessment, in respect to the total cost of such improvements, or otherwise, occur, or in case of any deficiency in any assessment or otherwise, the city council shall have power, and it shall be their duty from time to time, to cause additional assessments to be made in the manner hereinafter provided, to supply such deficiencies, or correct such errors or mistakes; the total of such assessments not to exceed the benefit to such property, and any such assessment shall be a lien upon the lots and lands on which it is levied as herein provided for the original assessments, and shall be payable in the same manner, and in the same installments, and shall draw interest at the same rate, and shall be enforced in the same manner as herein provided with respect to the original assessment. [R. C. 1905, § 2787; 1905, ch. 62, § 152.]

Fact that supervising engineer was appointed by council to superintend building of sewer, there being no city engineer, does not affect application of statute. Baker v. La Moure, 21 N. D. 140, 129 N. W. 464.

§ 3713. Reassessment. In all cases where any assessment, or any part thereof, as to any lot, lots or parcels of land assessed under any of the provisions of this article, or of any law of any city prior to this article, for any cause whatever, whether jurisdictional or otherwise, shall be set aside, or declared void by any court, the city council shall, without unnecessary delay, cause a reassessment or new assessment to defray the expense of such improvement to be made, whether such improvement was made under this article or under any law of any city prior to this article, and such reassessment or new assessment shall be made as nearly as may be, as herein provided for making the assessment therefor in the first instance; and may bear interest from the date of the approval of such assessment so set aside, and when the same shall have been made and confirmed by the city council, it shall be enforced and collected in the same manner that other assessments are enforced and collected under this article, and in all cases where judgment shall hereafter be refused or denied by any court for the collection or enforcement of any special assessment, or where any court shall hereafter set aside or declare void any assessment upon any lot or parcel of land for any cause, the said lot or parcel of land may be reassessed or newly assessed from time to time, until each separate lot, piece or parcel of land has paid its proportionate part of the costs and expenses of such improvement, as near as may be; provided, that when any special assessment shall be declared void, or set aside by judgment of the supreme court, for a cause affecting other like assessments, all assessments so affected may be vacated by resolution of the city council, and thereupon a reassessment of the property affected thereby shall be made as herein provided, and may bear interest as hereinbefore provided. [R. C. 1905, § 2788; 1905, ch. 62, § 153.]

§ 3714. Error or omission shall not vitiate. No error or omission which may be made in the proceedings of the city council, or of any officer of said city in referring, reporting upon, ordering or otherwise acting concerning any local improvement provided for in this article, or in making or certifying any assessment, shall vitiate or in any way affect any such assessment, but if it shall appear that by reason of such error or omission substantial injury has been done to the party or parties claiming to be aggrieved, the court shall alter such assessment as may be just and the same shall then be enforced. [R. C. 1905, § 2789; 1905, ch. 62, § 154.]

Power to assess for local improvement extinguished by sale of property therefor; power to reassess cannot be given by subsequent statute. Budge v. Grand Forks, 1 N. D. 309, 47 N. W. 390, 10 L.R.A. 165.

§ 3715. Action to avoid tax judgment. Whenever any action or proceeding shall be commenced and maintained before any court to prevent or restrain the collection of any special assessment or part thereof, made or levied by the officers of any city for any purpose authorized by law, and whenever any action or proceeding shall be commenced and maintained as aforesaid to vacate or set aside any sale of real estate for such special assessment, or to cancel any tax certificate or deed given under such sale, and such assessment shall be held to be void by reason of noncompliance with this article, the court shall determine the true and just amount which the property attempted to be so assessed by said special assessment should pay, to make the same uniform with other special assessments for the same purpose, and the amount of such assessments as the same appears on the assessment list thereof, shall be prima facie evidence of such true and just amount, and judgment must be rendered and given therefor against the party liable for such special assessment, without regard to the proceedings had for the levy thereof, and such judgment shall be a lien upon the property upon which a special assessment shall have been levied, of equal force and effect as the lien of special assessments, and the lien of such special judgment shall be enforced by the court in such action; provided, that no action for either of said purposes shall be maintained unless it is commenced within six months after such special assessment is approved, and in case of such assessment heretofore approved, within six months after this article takes effect. [R. C. 1905, § 2790; 1905, ch. 62, § 155.]

No action can be maintained to set aside assessment after expiration of six months from date of confirmation of special assessment by city council. McKone v. Fargo, 24 N. D. 53, 138 N. W. 967.

§ 3716. Payment of deficiency. Whenever all special assessments levied for a specific improvement shall have been collected and applied in payment of the warrants issued for such improvement, and a deficiency remains, the city council shall levy a tax upon all the taxable property in the city for the payment of such deficiency, and in case of a balance of such special assessments remaining unexpended, it may be used for repairs of such improvement. [R. C. 1905, § 2791; 1905, ch. 62, § 156.]

§ 3717. Sewer assessments extended twenty (20) years. The special assessments herein provided for the payment of the cost of constructing any sewer shall be payable in equal annual amounts extending over a period not exceeding twenty (20) years, and shall bear interest at a rate not to exceed seven per cent (7%) per annum on the total amount of such assessments remaining from time to time unpaid; provided, however, that in all cities in this state having less than two thousand (2,000) inhabitants, the city council may by ordinance or resolution provide that any such special assessment, which has heretofore or may hereafter be levied, shall be extended over a period of less than twenty (20) years; and the city council is authorized by ordinance or resolution to fix the period over which such assessments shall be extended not exceeding, however, in all twenty (20) years. [1913, ch. 84, § 1; R. C. 1905, § 2792; 1905, ch. 62, § 157.]

§ 3718. Water main assessments extended ten (10) years. The special assessments herein provided for the payment of the cost of any water mains, shall be payable in equal annual amounts, extending over a period of not exceeding ten (10) years, and shall bear interest at a rate not to exceed seven per cent (7%) per annum on the total amount of such assessments remaining from time to time unpaid; provided, however, that in all cities having less than two thousand (2,000) inhabitants, the city council may by ordinance or resolution provide that any such special assessment, which has heretofore or may hereafter be levied, shall be extended over a period of less than (10) years; and the city council is authorized by ordinance or resolution to fix the period over which such assessments shall be extended, not exceeding, however, in all ten (10) years. [1913, ch. 84, § 2; R. C. 1905, § 2793; 1905, ch. 62, § 158.]

§ 3719. Paving assessments extended ten to thirty years. The special assessments herein provided for the payment of the cost of paving and repaving shall be payable in equal annual amounts, and in case such paving shall be made on a perishable foundation of wood, such amounts shall be extended over a period not to exceed ten years, and in case such pavement shall be constructed with a concrete or other permanent foundation, such amount shall be extended over a period not exceeding twenty years; provided, that whenever the city council shall determine to pave upon such permanent foundation, otherwise than with ordinary wooden pavement, such amounts may, in the discretion of the city council, be extended over a period not to exceed thirty years, and the said assessment shall bear interest at the rate of not exceeding seven per cent per annum on the total amount thereof remaining from time to time unpaid, and the rate to be fixed by the city council. [R. C. 1905, § 2794; 1905, ch. 62, § 159.]

City may stipulate in paving warrants payable in installments that city may pay warrants before maturity and stop interest. State ex rel. Bithulitic & Contracting Co. v. Murphy, 20 N. D. 427, 128 N. W. 303.

§ 3720. Special assessments by cities, and fixing the time of payment thereof. All special assessments for sidewalks and for the expense of opening, widening, grading or extending streets shall be payable in equal annual amounts extending over a period of not exceeding ten years and shall bear interest at the rate not to exceed seven per cent per annum on the total amount of such assessment remaining from time to time unpaid; providing, however, that any one who chooses to pay such special assessment in one single payment, may do so, and any one who has paid one or more annual installments may pay the balance in one single payment. [1909, ch. 57; R. C. 1905, § 2795; 1905, ch. 62, § 160.]

§ 3721. Certain assessments collected by suit. Whenever by reason of the exemption of any real property from special assessments, or when any real property cannot be specially assessed as herein provided, in any improvement district, by reason of the title thereof being in the United States, or from other cause, and such real property would otherwise be assessable for any improvements provided for herein, an assessment may be levied against such property and collected from the owner or person enjoying the beneficial use of such property, by suit in any court in this state. [R. C. 1905, § 2796; 1905, ch. 62, § 161.]

§ 3722. Special assessments due. Interest. All special assessments levied under the provisions of this article shall become due and payable ten days after the same shall have been approved by the city council, and shall thereafter bear interest at the rate of seven per cent per annum. [R. C. 1905, § 2797; 1905, ch. 62, § 162.]

Special assessments against land may be paid in full at any time with interest thereon to date of payment. State ex rel. Bithulitic & Contracting Co. v. Murphy, 20 N. D. 427, 128 N. W. 303.

§ 3723. Payment of one-fifth by general taxation. Any city which shall have power under the debt limit provisions of the constitution to create valid obligations to that extent, may, at the option of the city council, provide for the payment of not exceeding one-fifth of the cost of any work hereinbefore provided for other than sidewalks, opening and widening streets and sewer and water connections from main to curb line, by general taxation of all taxable property in such city, and may contract with reference thereto, and make appropriations and levy taxes therefor in installments annually and extending over the same period as provided for the special assessments for such improvement. Such appropriation and tax levy, if not heretofore included in the annual appropriation ordinance, may be made at any time as the occasion may require and be included in the next annual appropriation and tax levy. Such appropriation and levy, whether made as part of the regular annual appropriation ordinance and tax levy, or made thereafter, shall state the specific improvement for which such tax is levied, and the district in which such improvement is made, and the amount thereof shall be credited to and the taxes collected thereunder be turned into and be deemed a part of the district fund upon which the warrants issued in payment of the improvement are to be drawn. [1907, ch. 46, § 9; R. C. 1905, § 2798; 1905, ch. 62, § 163.]

See the connection in which this section is cited in note to section 3740.

§ 3724. Special assessment commission. The mayor of each city shall, as soon as practicable after this article takes effect, appoint a commission, to be composed of three reputable residents and freeholders of the city, to be known as the "special assessment commission." Such commission shall hold their offices for the terms of two, four and six years, respectively, such terms to be designated by the mayor in making such appointment, and thereafter the mayor shall, in each odd numbered year at the first meeting of the city council in April, or as soon thereafter as practicable, appoint one member of such commission to fill the vacancy occasioned by the expiration of such term, who shall hold his office six years, and vacancies occurring in said commission by removal, resignation or death shall be filled by like appointment, to be made as soon as practicable after such vacancy occurs. All such appointments herein provided for shall be subject to the confirmation of the city council. Each member of such commission shall, upon his appointment and confirmation as aforesaid, file with the city auditor a written acceptance of such appointment, and shall take and subscribe the oath provided by section 3615, which oath shall be filed with the city auditor; and the member of such commission having the shortest time to serve shall act as chairman thereof, and no member of such commission shall hold any other city office during the term for which he is so appointed. The city engineer, city auditor and city attorney shall each at all times give to such commission such information, advice or assistance as he may be requested by such commission to give. Each member of such commission shall receive as compensation for his services while actually engaged in the duties of such commission, the sum of five dollars per day. Any member of such commission may be removed by the mayor, with the consent of the majority of the members of the city council, for neglect or refusal to perform the duties of his office or for misconduct in office. [R. C. 1905, § 2799; 1905, ch. 62, § 164.]

§ 3725. Notice to commission. Whenever the work for which a special assessment shall be required to be made by such commission shall have been completed, and approved by the city engineer, and the total cost of such work shall have been ascertained as near as practicable, the city auditor shall notify the chairman of such commission of the completion of such work, and shall certify to him the items of the total cost thereof, to be paid by special assessments, so far as the same have been ascertained, and the chairman of such commission shall thereupon immediately call a meeting of such commission, and such commission shall thereupon as expeditiously as possible proceed to make and return such special assessment as hereinafter provided. [R. C. 1905, § 2800; 1905, ch. 62, § 165.]

Certificate of city engineer that work has been completed is essential before city can levy assessments against individual property for payment of costs of sewer. Baker v. La Moure, 21 N. D. 140, 129 N. W. 464.

§ 3726. Special assessments, how made. Review. It shall be the duty of such commission, whenever required under the provisions of this article to make any special assessment, to personally inspect any and all lots and parcels of land which may be subject to such special assessment and determine from such inspection the particular lots and parcels of land which will in the opinion of such commission be especially benefited by the construction of the work for which such assessment is to be made and thereupon determine the amount in which each of said lots and parcels of land will be especially benefited by the construction of the work for which such special assessment is to be made and thereupon assess against such of said lots and parcels of land such sum, not exceeding such benefits, as shall be necessary to pay its just proportion of the total cost of such work, or part thereof as is to be paid by special assessment, including all expenses incurred in making such assessment, and publishing necessary notices with reference thereto, including the per diem of such commission; and such commission shall thereupon make or cause to be made a complete list of such benefits and assessments, setting forth each lot or tract of land assessed, and the amount each lot is benefited by the improvement, and the amount assessed against each, and shall attach to such lists a certificate signed by a majority of the members of such commission, certifying that the same is a true and correct assessment of the property therein described to the best of their judgment, and stating the several items of expense, included in such assessment, and shall thereupon cause the same to be published twice, once in each week for two consecutive weeks in the official newspaper of the city, together with a notice of the time and place when and where such commission will meet to hear objections which may be made to any such assessment, by any person therein interested, or his agent or attorney, which time shall not be less than fifteen days after the first publication of such notice; and such commission may thereupon alter the same as may in their opinion be just or as may be necessary to correct any errors therein, and they may increase or diminish any such assessment as may be just and as is necessary to make the aggregate of all such assessments equal to the total special assessment to be made for the cost of the work for which they are made; provided, that no assessment shall exceed the benefits of the parcel of land assessed, as determined by the commission. Such commission shall thereupon confirm such list and attach thereto their further certificate certifying that the same is correct as confirmed by them. Such commission shall thereupon file such assessment list in the city auditor's office. Provided, however, that property belonging to the government of the United States shall be exempt from such assessment. [1913, ch. 85; R. C. 1905, § 2801; 1905, ch. 62, § 166.]

§ 3727. Publication of notice of assessment list. The city auditor shall thereupon publish once, in the official newspaper of the city, a notice stating that such assessment list has been confirmed by the special assessment (commission) and filed in his office, and is open to public inspection, and shall state in said notice the time and place when and where the city council will act upon such assessment list; and in case such notice shall have been given more than fifteen days prior to the next regular meeting of the city council, such assessment list shall be acted upon by such council at its next regular meeting; and in case such notice shall not have been published more than fifteen days prior to the first regular meeting of the city council thereafter, such assessment list shall be acted upon by the city council at its second regular meeting, after the publication of such notice. Any person aggrieved may appeal from the action of such commission by filing with the city auditor prior to the meeting at which the city council will act upon such assessment, a written notice of such appeal, and stating therein the grounds upon which the same are based. [1909, ch. 53; R. C. 1905, § 2802; 1905, ch. 62, § 166.]

§ 3728. Hearing of appeals from commission. At the regular meeting of the city council at which such assessment list is to be acted upon, any person aggrieved by the determination of such commission in regard to any such assessment, and who has appealed therefrom, as hereinbefore provided, may appear before the city council and present his reasons why the action of such commission should not be confirmed by the city council, and the city council shall then hear and determine such appeals and objections, if any, and may alter and increase or diminish any of such assessments as they may deem just; provided, that the aggregate amount of all such assessments as returned by the commission shall not be changed; and provided, further, that no assessment as so adjusted shall exceed the benefits to the parcel of land on which it is assessed as determined by the assessment commission, and shall thereupon confirm such assessment list, and the city auditor shall thereupon attach to such list his certificate that the same is correct as confirmed by the city council, and shall thereupon file such assessment list in his office; and such assessment with interest and penalties accruing thereon shall be and remain a paramount lien upon the property upon which such assessment is levied, from the time such assessment list is approved by the city council, and shall remain a lien thereon until fully paid and shall have precedence over all other liens except ordinary taxes to which it shall be subject, and such lien shall not be divested by any judicial sale, and no mistake in the description of the property, or in the name of the owner, shall obviate such lien, provided the property assessed can be identified by the description in such assessment list. [R. C. 1905, § 2803; 1905, ch. 62, § 167.]

Owner of tax sale certificates may pay subsequent delinquent general taxes, without paying subsequent special assessments, and receipts for such taxes constitute additional lien. State ex rel. Moore v. Furstenau, 20 N. D. 542, 129 N. W. 81.

§ 3729. Auditor shall certify assessments. The city auditor shall, annually, at the time he certifies to the county auditor the amount of the city taxes to be levied for the current year, also certify to such auditor all sidewalk, and all sidewalk repair assessments, and all assessments for opening or widening streets, remaining in his office uncertified, and shall also certify to such county auditor a list of the lots and tracts of land specially assessed for any other purpose as hereinbefore provided, designating the purpose of such assessment, and the fund to which it belongs, with the proportion of such assessment for such year against each lot, and shall add thereto one per cent (1%) of all such assessments, so certified; and the county auditor shall thereupon extend the same upon the tax list for the current year, and the amount, with all interest and penalties, shall be collected and paid over to the city treasurer in the same manner as other city taxes, and when so paid over shall be credited by the city treasurer and city auditor to the fund for which it was collected; provided, however, that in all cities having less than two thousand (2,000) inhabitants, the city council may by resolution direct and authorize the city auditor to certify at one time any and all special assessments of said city for any purpose; and that when so directed by the city council the city auditor shall certify to the county auditor a list of the lots and tracts of land specially assessed for any purpose, designating the purpose of such assessment, and the fund to which it belongs, with the proportion of such assessment for each and every year when such special assessment will become payable in the future, including interest; and said city auditor shall also add to the assessment payable one per cent (1%) of the amount payable on such assessments for each year; such assessments so certified shall be accompanied by a certified copy of the resolution of the city council directing the assessment to be certified in this manner; and when any special assessment has been certified in the manner last described, then the city auditor shall not be required to certify any installment of such assessment annually, but the county auditor shall each year extend the amount so certified against each tract of land upon the tax list for the year when the same becomes payable according to the certificate of the city auditor, and the amount, with all interest and penalties, shall be collected and paid over to the said city treasurer in the same manner as other city taxes, and when so paid over shall be credited by the city treasurer and the city auditor to the fund for which it was collected; provided, further, that the county auditor shall have in his office a book entitled, "special assessment record," and when any city causes to be certified the special assessments for a period of more than one year, that then the county auditor shall cause said special assessments so certified to be duly recorded in said book for the respective years, and amounts shown in the certificate of the city auditor; provided, further, that whenever special assessments of any kind whatsoever, hereafter certified to the county auditor by the city auditors of cities incorporated under the general laws of this state or under the commission form of government, shall be paid to the county treasurer, it shall be the duty of the said county treasurer, at the time set by law for the payment to the city treasurer of all taxes and special assessments collected by the said county treasurer during the preceding month, to certify the amounts of such special assessments so collected in duplicate, one copy to be certified to the city treasurer, and one copy to be certified to the city auditor; such certificate to state specifically the lot, or known subdivision thereof, as appears upon the tax books of the county treasurer, the block, addition, amount collected and credited to each lot or known subdivision thereof, and the year for which said sum was so collected. [1913, ch. 84, § 3; R. C. 1905, § 2804; 1905, ch. 62, § 168.]

§ 3730. Warrants may be issued to pay assessments. Any matured special assessment warrants or interest coupons may be used in the payment of special assessments levied for the payment of the improvement for which such warrants or interest coupons were issued, and such warrants or coupons so used shall be canceled and retired by the city treasurer. [R. C. 1905, § 2805; 1905, ch. 62, § 169.]

§ 3731. Right of property owners to pay assessments. The owner of any property against which an assessment shall have been made for the cost of any improvement under this article shall have the right to pay the same, or any part thereof remaining unpaid, in full, with the unpaid interest thereon, and such payment in full shall constitute a discharge of the lien of such assessment upon his property. Such payment may be made to the county treasurer upon all installments of such assessments which have been certified to the county auditor, and may be made to the city treasurer upon all portions of such assessments which have not been so certified. The person desiring to pay any portion of such assessment of the city treasurer shall obtain from the city auditor a certificate of the amount due upon such assessment which has not been certified to the county auditor, and shall thereupon present such certificate to the city treasurer, and the city treasurer shall thereupon receive and collect such amount, and issue duplicate receipts therefor, one of which he shall deliver to the party paying such assessment, and thereupon deposit the other in the office of the city auditor, and the city auditor shall thereupon note upon his records the payment of such assessment. [R. C. 1905, § 2806; 1905, ch. 62, § 170.]

City may stipulate in paving warrants payable in installments that city may pay warrants before maturity and stop interest. State ex rel. Bithulitic & Contracting Co. v. Murphy, 20 N. D. 427, 128 N. W. 303.

§ 3732. Penalties to be added. The county treasurer shall add to all such special assessments the same interest and penalties that are provided to be added in the case of general taxes, and at the same time, and shall collect such interest and penalties with such special assessments, and shall pay over to the city treasurer all such interest and penalties. [R. C. 1905, § 2807; 1905, ch. 62, § 171.]

Interest and penalty may be collected on special assessments for city purposes. State ex rel. Viking Twp. v. Mikkelson, 24 N. D. 175, 139 N. W. 525.

§ 3733. Delinquent special assessment taxes. If the real property against which any assessment is levied is sold to enforce the collection of a special assessment which has become delinquent, the sale shall be made by the same officer, and upon like notice and subject to the same provisions in relation to redemption, and the same record thereof shall be kept by the officer making the sale, as in cases of real property for delinquent taxes; but if any real property is subject to sale at the same time for delinquent taxes, and also for delinquent special assessments it shall be sold separately for each, and a separate certificate of sale shall be issued upon each of said sales, although both sales are made to the same person, and the certificates issued upon the sale for special assessments shall so state and if no redemption is made from such sale, a deed shall be issued to the purchaser or his assigns, which shall be, as nearly as practicable, in the same form as deeds issued upon sales for general taxes, except that it shall state that such sale was made for special assessments; and in case the sale for special assessments is made to a different purchaser from the sale for general taxes, such purchaser may redeem said premises from the purchaser of the same for delinquent general taxes, and upon such redemption shall be subrogated to all the rights of such purchaser from whom such redemption is made. [R. C. 1905, § 2808; 1905, ch. 62, § 172.]

§ 3734. Certificate of redemption. Such redemption shall be made at the office of the county auditor, and the auditor shall issue to the redemptioner a certificate of such redemption, which shall state that such redemption is made by the holder of a certificate of sale of the premises for delinquent special assessment and that the person to whom such certificate is issued or his assigns, is subrogated to all the rights of the original purchaser, and such certificate shall entitle the holder to a tax deed of said premises under such sale for delinquent general taxes, subject to the same conditions, and at the same time as the original certificate of sale. [R. C. 1905, § 2809; 1905, ch. 62, § 172.]

piece or parcel of land so bid off shall become the absolute property of the city at the expiration of said three years, without any further act upon its part, and may be disposed of by the city at public or private sale, as may be provided by the city council and the city may redeem any parcel of land from a purchaser thereof under a sale for general taxes as is hereinbefore provided for such redemption in other cases, and any assignee of the city's certificate of sale may likewise, and in like manner redeem any such parcel of land from any such sale for delinquent general taxes, and such redemption shall have the same force and effect as provided in the two preceding sections. The city may at any time before its title to said land becomes absolute, by resolution of the city council, assign said certificate of sale to any person except the city auditor and city treasurer, their deputies and clerks, who shall pay the amount for which the same shall have been bid in, and the amount of all subsequent special assessments thereon then due, and all penalties, interest and costs upon the same, and the city auditor shall thereupon execute to the purchaser of such certificate of sale an assignment thereof, substantially as provided in section 1588. [R. C. 1905, § 2810; 1905, ch. 62, § 173.]

§ 3736. Tax deed. In case such lands are not redeemed from such sale, and any amount paid by the city for the redemption of such premises from sale for general delinquent taxes with interest thereon at the date of such assessment, the county auditor shall, at the expiration of the period of redemption, issue a deed thereof to such city if such certificate has not been assigned by it, and if so assigned, then to the holder of such certificate; provided, that no deed shall be issued on any such certificate except to the city, until notice of expiration of the period of redemption has been given as provided for sales for general taxes. [R. C. 1905, § 2811; 1905, ch. 62, § 173.]

Omission of seal to signature of city treasurer will not render deed by city defective. Kirby v. Waterman, 17 S. D. 314, 96 N. W. 129.

§ 3737. Vacation of judgment in condemnation proceedings. Whenever any property is to be taken under this article by condemnation proceedings, the court shall upon request by resolution of the city council call a special term of court for the purpose of the trial upon such proceedings and may summon a jury for such trial whenever necessary and such proceedings shall be determined as speedily as practicable, and any appeal from the judgment in such action shall be taken within sixty days after the entry of such judgment and such appeal may be determined at either a special or regular term of the supreme court and shall be given precedence of all other civil causes before the court, except election contests, and in case any judgment which shall be rendered in condemnation proceedings, for damages to property used by any city for street, sewer or other purposes, is entered, it shall not be vacated or set aside; provided, the city council shall within three months after its entry, levy special assessments for its payment in whole or in part, and shall at the time of the next annual tax levy, levy a general tax for the payment of such part of the same as is not to be paid by special assessment; and provided, further, that upon failure of the city council to make such assessments and levy as hereinbefore stated, said judgment may then be vacated. [R. C. 1905, § 2812; 1905, ch. 62, § 174.]

§ 3738. Records. Duty of auditor. It shall be the duty of the city auditor to keep in his office a complete record of all proceedings taken in the matter of making any improvements under this article, including all reports and the confirmation thereof, and all petitions, orders, appointment of commissioners, notices and proofs of publications and orders and resolutions of the city council. Such record or certified transcript thereof or the original papers, proofs of publication, orders or resolutions on file in his office, shall be admitted in evidence without further proof, as evidence of the fact therein contained, in any court or place in this state. [R. C. 1905, § 2813; 1905, ch. 62, § 175.]

§ 3739. Abbreviations. In all proceedings taken for the levy and collection of any special assessments, abbreviations, letters and figures may be used to denote lots, lands and blocks, sections, townships, ranges and parts thereof, years, days of the month and amounts of money. [R. C. 1905, § 2814; 1905, ch. 62, § 176.]

§ 3740. Connections with sewer and other mains. Whenever the city council shall determine to pave or repave any street, avenue or alley in which water mains, gas mains, sewers, steam pipes or other pipes, or either of them, shall have been previously laid and constructed, they may, by resolution, require the owners of all property abutting on the said street to cause sewer, water, gas, steam and other service pipes to be first constructed and laid in such street, avenue or alley at the cost of the property fronting thereon, from the sewer, water, gas, steam or other mains in said street, avenue or alley to a point two feet inside of the curb line on either side of such street, avenue or alley at such intervals along the whole length of such street, avenue or alley as shall be necessary to supply and serve each lot, part of lot or parcel of land in accordance with the city ordinance governing the construction of such connections. Upon the adoption of such resolution the city auditor shall publish in the official newspaper of the city twice, once in each week for two successive weeks, a notice to said owner or occupant, setting forth what work is to be done and the time within which he is required to do the same. Such notice may be general as to the owner, but must be specific as to the description of the lot or parcel of land in front of which the improvement is to be made. If such work is not done in the manner and within the time prescribed in said notice the city council shall order the same to be done by such person as they may have contracted with therefor, under the direction of the city engineer or street commissioner, in cities having no city engineer, at the expense of the lot or parcel of land adjoining such improvement, and such expense, including the expenses of all notices in connection with such work and the assessment therefor, and any other expenses incurred for such work, shall be assessed upon the lot or parcel of land properly chargeable therewith, by the city engineer or by the street commissioner in cities having no city engineer; and such assessment shall be returned by him and filed in the office of the city auditor, and the city auditor shall cause to be published the said assessment, together with a notice of the time and place when and where the city council will meet to approve the same, and said notice shall be published once in the official newspaper of the city at least ten days prior to the meeting of the city council to approve such assessment. The city council after the adoption of such resolution declaring the necessity of making the service connections above referred to, shall, by resolution, direct the city engineer to prepare plans and specifications for same and file with the city auditor and shall direct the city auditor to advertise for bids for the construction of such connections in accordance with the plans and specifications for the construction of the same, which plans and specifications shall be filed with the city auditor by the city engineer; and such bids shall each be accompanied by a certified check in the sum of $500 to guarantee the entering into the contract should same be awarded to him. Bids shall be received by the city council and the contract awarded to the lowest responsible bidder. The successful bidder shall give a surety bond in the sum of $1,000 executed by such bidder and a surety company as surety or by two freeholders of the state, who shall justify as required in arrest and bail, and the aggregate of such justification shall equal the amount of such bond, and such bond shall be conditioned that in case such bid is accepted and such contract awarded to such bidder he will well and faithfully perform the work bid for in accordance with the terms of and within the time provided for in such contract, and pursuant to the plans and specifications for such work on file in the auditor's office, and pay for all labor and material used in such work, and that in case of default on the part of such bidder to perform such work as provided in his contract the sum named in said bond shall be taken and held to be fixed and liquidated damages in favor of said city; and that the full amount thereof may be recovered from such bidder and his sureties in an action by the city against them on such bond. Such bond shall be approved by the city council and filed in the office of the city auditor, and shall thereupon be and remain in full force and effect. Upon the award of the contract the checks of all unsuccessful bidders shall be returned to them, and upon the filing of such bond the check of the successful bidder shall be returned to him. The city council shall have the right to reject any and all bids for work to be done under this section if, in its opinion, the interests of the city will be best subserved by so doing, and readvertise for further bids, but if all such bids are not rejected the contract shall then be awarded to the responsible bidder whose bid is the lowest upon the basis of cash payment therefor; provided, such bidder shall have complied with the foregoing requirements and furnished the bond hereinbefore provided for. All contracts entered into for any work provided for in this section shall be entered in the name of the city and shall be executed on the part of the city by the mayor thereof, and countersigned by the auditor with the corporate seal of the city affixed, and when signed by the contractor shall be filed in the office of the city auditor. Such contract shall require the work to be done thereunder to be done pursuant to the plans and specifications therefor on file in the office of the city auditor, and subject to the approval of the city engineer, who shall supervise and inspect such work during its progress, and there shall be reserved in each contract the right of the city council, in case of an improper construction of such work, to suspend work thereon at any time, and to relet the contract therefor, or order a reconstruction of said work or any part thereof improperly done. Each contract so entered into shall state the time on or before which such work must be completed, and must state from what fund the amount to be paid thereon by the city is to be paid, and that the consideration of such contract is payable only in warrants drawn on such fund, and that such city assumes and incurs no general liability under such contract. In case the contractor to whom any such contract shall be let shall properly perform the work therein designated, the city council may from time to time in its discretion, as the work progresses, pay to such contractor upon an estimate made by the city engineer of the amount already earned thereunder, eighty-five per cent of the amount shown by such estimate to have been so earned, in warrants drawn on the fund from which the same is to be paid. All money collected from special assessments for building and constructing sewer and water and other connections shall be kept in a fund called "sewer and water connections special assessment fund," and warrants shall be drawn on such fund for the payment of the costs of all such connections. All such sewer and water special assessments shall be paid in a single amount. [1907, ch. 46, § 10; R. C. 1905, § 2815; 1905, ch. 62, § 177.]

This is R. C. 1905, § 2815, as amended by Laws 1907, ch. 46, § 10, which chapter also amends R. C. 1905, § 2740 (section 3664 herein), enacts a new R. C. § 2770a (as amended, section 3696 herein), and amends R. C. 1905, §§ 2778 (section 3704 herein), 2780 (section 3705 herein), 2782 (section 3707 herein), 2783 (as amended again, section 3708 herein), 2769 (section 3694 herein), and 2798 (section 3723 herein). Laws 1907, ch. 46, above cited, concludes with a section 11 reading as follows: "This act shall not affect any contract let and commenced under this act which it amends, but all such contracts shall be conducted and concluded under the terms of said act,"—which may perhaps refer only to the immediately preceding section 10, being section 3740 herein.

§ 3741. Proceedings heretofore commenced, how completed. Any special assessment or other proceeding hereinbefore provided for, which shall have been commenced by any city officer or committee appointed under the laws heretofore existing, may be completed by such officer or committee in the manner provided by such law, and shall have the same force, effect and validity as though taken or completed under this article, but all future steps and proceedings not so commenced, taken for any purpose hereinbefore provided for, shall be taken under the provisions of this article, and no special assessment or other proceeding heretofore had with reference to any improvement or assessment hereinbefore provided for, shall be in any manner affected by the provisions of this article. [R. C. 1905, § 2816; 1905, ch. 62, § 178.]

§ 3742. Water main provisions, applicable when. The provisions of this article with reference to water mains shall apply only to cities which own a system of water works and water mains. [R. C. 1905, § 2817; 1905, ch. 62, § 179.]

§ 3743. Special assessments. Lien between vendor and vendee. As between vendor and vendee, all special assessments upon real property for local improvements shall become and be a lien upon the real property upon which the same are assessed, from and after the first day of December, next after such assessments shall have been certified and returned to the county auditor, to the amount so certified and returned, and no more. [R. C. 1905, § 2818; 1905, ch. 62, § 180.]

§ 3743a. Special assessments, validated. Every special assessment or part thereof made or levied by the officers of any cities for any purpose authorized by law, heretofore and since the year 1903; and all taxes levied therefor by any board or officer authorized by law to make the same, is hereby legalized and made valid in all respects and purposes, without regard to any defects, errors or omissions in the proceedings therefor, the same as if in all things made in conformity to the laws then in force. [1911, ch. 72, § 1.]

The title of the act constituting this and the next section is as follows: "An act validating special assessments and taxes made or levied in cities and villages since 1903 and establishing certain rules of evidence relating thereto."

§ 3743b. Conclusive evidence. What is. In any action or proceedings where the legality or validity of any of the said taxes, assessments or the warrants issued thereon, is called into question, the production of evidence that any such special assessment was duly approved and confirmed by the city council or board of village trustees, shall be deemed conclusive evidence that every step in the proceedings therefor has been duly and regularly made in the manner and form provided by law. [1911, ch. 72, § 1.]

ARTICLE 21.—SPECIAL STREET LIGHTING SYSTEM.

§ 3744. Special system authorized. All cities shall have power and authority to install upon any of the streets thereof any special system or systems of street lighting, and to defray the expenses and cost thereof as hereinafter provided. [1909, ch. 56, § 1.]

§ 3745. Procedure to install. Whenever the owners of a majority of the property abutting on any street or streets of any city shall petition the city council, asking that there be installed upon such street lighting, to be therein and by said petition described in general terms, such city council may, at any time within sixty days after the filing of such petition with the city auditor, require plans, specifications and estimates of the probable cost of such improvement to be prepared by the city engineer, or such other person as shall, upon motion or resolution, be designated, and thereafter, and upon the return and filing of such plans, specifications and estimates and probable cost, such city may proceed to provide for the construction of such improvement and to assess the cost thereof against the abutting property in the same manner and with the same notice and according to the same forms and procedure as now provided by statute for the construction and assessment of street paving; and upon such proceedings being taken and completed, the cost of such construction or such part thereof as the council shall deem proper, be assessed against the abutting property in the same manner and according to the same form as now provided by law for the assessment of the cost of street paving. [1909, ch. 56, § 2.]

§ 3746. Assessment for cost. In conducting proceedings under this act, it shall not be necessary to establish any separate lighting or improvement districts, and, in assessing the benefits, no assessment shall be made against any property other than that immediately contiguous to the streets or avenues where such improvement is made. [1909, ch. 56, § 3.]

ARTICLE 22.—IMPROVEMENT OF ROADS LEADING TO CITIES.

§ 3747. Roads leading to cities, how improved. Whenever ten per cent of the electors, as shown by the last municipal election, of any city, shall petition the city council to call an election for the purpose of raising money or the issuing of bonds to repair or construct any road or bridge within such city, or approaching or leading thereto, whether the same is adjacent thereto or not, or to pay for any bridge heretofore constructed or built on any such road or highway; and if such petition shall state first, the purpose of raising such money and the object for which the same is to be expended; second, the amount thereof, it shall be the duty of such city council to call an election in said city for the purpose of submitting to the electors therein the question of raising the money and the amount thereof as stated in the petition, and which election may be called at any regular or special meeting of such city council, and such city council shall cause notice of such election to be published twice in the official paper of the city, once in each week for two consecutive weeks, and such election shall not be held until at least twenty days after the first publication of such notice. Such notice shall state:

1. The purpose of raising such money.
2. The object for which the same is to be expended.
3. The amount thereof.

4. The amount thereof that shall be raised by the issuing of bonds in payment thereof, or by the customary and usual method of raising money by assessment and levy, as such electors may designate on their ballots at such election. [R. C. 1905, § 2819; 1905, ch. 62, § 181.]

§ 3748. Funds for improvement, how raised. If at such election a two-thirds majority of all the electors voting shall vote in favor of raising such sum of money, and a majority of the electors voting at such election shall vote in favor of raising such money by the issuing of bonds therefor, then the city council is authorized to issue and negotiate the sale of such bonds without any other election; but if a two-thirds majority of the electors voting at such election shall vote in favor of raising such sum of money, and a majority of the electors voting at said election shall vote in favor of raising the same by levy and assessment, then the same shall be raised by levy and assessment as in other cases provided by the law governing cities. [R. C. 1905, § 2820; 1905, ch. 62, § 181.]

§ 3749. Money, how expended. Such money, when so raised, shall be used and expended by the city council for the purpose stated in the notice of election, and for no other; provided, however, that any money coming into the city treasury from the county treasury, on account of road taxes collected from residents of any incorporated city and all road taxes collected on account of real or personal property situated within an incorporated city, or which may come into the city treasury from the bridge fund of such county from any such taxes, levied, assessed and collected from persons and property in such city, may be, at the discretion of the city council, expended in the repair or construction of any such road within such city, or approaching or leading thereto, or for the repair or building of any bridge thereon, or any bridge heretofore constructed thereon whether the same is adjacent to such city or not. [R. C. 1905, § 2821; 1905, ch. 62, § 181.]

ARTICLE 23.—CORPORATE LIMITS.

§ 3750. Power to extend city limits. Any city in this state that shall become incorporated under this article may extend its corporate limits in the manner hereinafter provided. [R. C. 1905, § 2822; 1887, ch. 73, art. 17, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 2327; 1905, ch. 62, § 182.]

Notice of proceedings for extension of limits of city boundaries as designated by legislature cannot be changed by city council, and notice in accordance with legislative act is sufficient. State ex rel. Johnson v. Clark, 21 N. D. 517, 131 N. W. 715.

Power of legislature to annex territory to municipality. 27 L.R.A. 737.

§ 3751. How. When a majority of the property owners adjacent to the corporate limits of any city in this state petition the mayor and city council to have any of their property included within the corporate limits of said city, it shall be the duty of the city council to publish such petition in the official paper of the city for four consecutive weeks, and unless a written protest signed by at least twenty-five property owners of said city is filed with the mayor opposing such proposed annexation, within ten days after the publication of said petition, such proposed annexation shall be included in and become a part of said city. [R. C. 1905, § 2823; 1887, ch. 73, art. 17, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 2328; 1905, ch. 62, § 183.]

One signing petition for extension of city so as to include his property, and paying taxes for three years, estopped to question proceeding. State v. City of Pierre, 15 S. D. 559, 90 N. W. 1047.

§ 3752. Plat of city to be recorded. The mayor of any city incorporated under this chapter shall cause to be filed in the office of the register of deeds in the county wherein said city is located a plat showing the corporate limits and boundaries of his city at the time of its incorporation under this chapter, and any change in said city limits made subsequent to its incorporation under this chapter. [R. C. 1905, § 2824; 1887, ch. 73, art. 17, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 2329; 1905, ch. 62, § 184.]

§ 3753. Extension of limits. Any city of this state, whether organized under the general law or under a special charter, and without regard of the number of its inhabitants, may so extend its boundaries as to increase the territory within the corporate limits not to exceed one-half of its present area, by a resolution of the city council passed by two-thirds of the entire members-elect, particularly describing the land proposed to be incorporated within the city limits, setting forth the boundaries of the territory proposed to be incorporated; and provided, further, that whenever any city in this state is or shall be separated into two parts, not contiguous at any point, the strip of unincorporated territory so separating and lying between such parts, if the same does not exceed one-fourth of the present limits of such city, may be so incorporated within such limits by the passage of a resolution as is hereinbefore provided for the extension of limits. [1909, ch. 58, § 1; 1907, ch. 47; R. C. 1905, § 2825; 1889, ch. 32, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 2330; 1905, ch. 62, § 185.]

Incorporation of territory into municipality as affecting prior rights as to use of highway. 47 L.R.A. (N.S.) 607.

Municipal liability for defects or obstructions in streets in annexed territory. 20 L.R.A. (N.S.) 575.

Liability of annexed territory to pay proportionate share of existing debts. 27 L.R.A. (N.S.) 1147.

§ 3754. Publication of resolution. The resolution of the city council shall be published in the official newspaper of the city three times, once in each week's issue for three successive weeks, and printed or typewritten copies of said resolution shall also be posted in five of the most conspicuous places within the territory proposed to be annexed, and unless a written protest signed by a majority of the property owners of said proposed extension is filed with the city clerk or auditor within ten days after the last publication of such resolution, the territory described in the resolution shall be included within and become a part of said city. But in the event such written protest is filed, then the city council shall hear the testimony offered for or against such annexation, and if after hearing such testimony and after a personal inspection has been made of the territory proposed to be annexed, such city council is of the opinion that such territory ought to be annexed and if such city council by a resolution of the city council, passed by two-thirds of the entire members-elect thereof, orders that such territory shall be so included within the corporate limits of such city, it shall then make and cause an order to be made and entered, describing the territory so annexed, and the territory described in such resolution shall be included within and become a part of said city; provided, however, if the greater portion of said territory proposed to be annexed consists of lands used for farming or pasturing purposes, then said territory shall not be annexed. [1911, ch. 74; 1909, ch. 58, § 2; R. C. 1905, § 2826; 1889, ch. 32, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 2331; 1905, ch. 62, § 186.]

§ 3755. Record to be kept. Upon written demand filed with the city council at or prior to the hearing of any of the parties affected thereby all proceedings, and the testimony submitted shall be reduced to writing and shall be filed with the city auditor, and shall remain on file in the office of said city auditor. [1909, ch. 58, § 3.]

§ 3756. Plat filed. When the city limits of any city have been extended, as provided by sections 3753, 3754, the mayor shall forthwith cause to be filed in the office of the register of deeds in the county wherein said city is located, a plat showing the corporate limits and boundaries of the city. [R. C. 1905, § 2827; 1889, ch. 32, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 2332; 1905, ch. 62, § 187.]

ARTICLE 24.— MISCELLANEOUS.

§ 3757. Mayor and auditor to sign bonds and contracts. Obligation of public corporation to pay for services rendered under contract in which officer is personally interested. 34 L.R.A.(N.S.) 129.

§ 3761. Construing act. The provisions of this chapter, so far as they are the same as existing statutes, must be construed as continuations thereof and not as new enactments. [R. C. 1905, § 2832; 1905, ch. 62, § 192.]

The words "this chapter," as here used, mean Laws 1905, ch. 62.

ARTICLE 25.—CORRECTION OF VILLAGE PLATS.

§ 3762. District court empowered to correct errors. The district court is authorized and empowered on application made by the trustees of any village, or the mayor or aldermen of any city to correct errors that may have been incurred in any town, village or city plat. [R. C. 1905, § 2833; 1905, ch. 64, § 1.]

§ 3763. Officers of village or city may make application for correction. The trustees of any village or the mayor or aldermen of any city may make application to the district court of the county in which such village or city may be located to correct errors in the plat of such village or city. Said trustees, mayor or aldermen shall give notice in writing of such intended application, in a newspaper printed and published in the county wherein such village or city may be situated, at least forty days prior to the sitting of the court to which such application shall be presented, and to all persons directly affected by the proposed corrections notice shall be given and served in the manner provided by law for the service of summons in district court. [R. C. 1905, §§ 2834, 2835; 1905, ch. 64, § 2.]

§ 3764. Persons having adverse interests may intervene. Any person or persons having an adverse interest or who would be affected by such proposed correction, alteration or change in said plat shall have the right to intervene and appear in person or by attorney and make defense in such manner as in civil actions. [R. C. 1905, § 2836; 1905, ch. 64, § 3.]

§ 3765. Procedure by court. If satisfactory proof shall be produced to the court that the notice required by the preceding section has been given, the court shall proceed to hear and determine such petition, and the defense made thereto may correct the error in the plat of the village or city set forth in said application and order the proceedings thereon to be recorded by the clerk with the records of the court, and a certified copy of the judgment correcting such error recorded in the office of the register of deeds of the proper county. [R. C. 1905, § 2837; 1905, ch. 64, § 4.]

§ 3766. Validating city ordinances. All ordinances and resolutions heretofore enacted or adopted by the city council of any city in this state, under and pursuant to which any work of local improvements has been undertaken and completed in such, are hereby declared to be valid, notwithstanding any irregularity in the enactment or adoption of such ordinance or resolution. [R. C. 1905, § 2838; 1903, ch. 54, § 1.]

ARTICLE 26.—VALIDATING CERTAIN CITY ORDINANCES.

§ 3767. Contracts and obligations valid. All contracts heretofore made, and all obligations heretofore incurred, and evidences of debt issued thereunder, by any city in this state, for the execution of any work of local improvement in such city, which work has been completed, are hereby declared to be valid, notwithstanding any irregularity in the proceedings relative to such special improvement, or omission by any officer or officers, of any act required to be done by such officer or officers, under the law pursuant to which the local improvement was ordered done, and notwithstanding the invalidity of the ordinance or resolution providing for such local improvement. [R. C. 1905, § 2839; 1905, ch. 54, § 2.]

§ 3768. Courts to determine amount of assessment in actions testing validity. In all actions now pending or hereafter commenced in any of the courts of this state, in which the validity of any assessment for local improvements in any city comes in question, the courts shall, if the proceedings relative to the local improvement are found to be irregular, ascertain the true amount for which the property involved in said action is liable for such improvement. In order to ascertain the amount for which any lot or tract is liable, the court shall hear the evidence and ascertain the total cost of the improvement and the several lots or tracts liable to assessment therefor under the laws pursuant to which the work was done, and shall thereupon ascertain and determine the amount for which the lots or tracts in question should properly be assessed, according to the provisions of the law prescribing the method of paying for such local improvement. [R. C. 1905, § 2840; 1903, ch. 54, § 3.]

§ 3769. Lien on land. The amount so ascertained, together with interest thereon at the rate of seven per cent per annum from the date on which interest would attach, had the assessment been valid from the beginning, shall be adjudged to be a lien upon the lot or tract affected by such action, and shall be collected in the same manner as other taxes of like nature are collected under the laws in force and at the time the judgment is entered. [R. C. 1905, § 2841; 1903, ch. 54, § 3.]

§ 3770. Action to test validity, commenced when. No person shall be heard to object to the validity of any assessment heretofore made for local improvements in any city of this state, unless the action or proceeding in which the validity of such assessment comes in question shall be commenced before the first day of January, 1904. [R. C. 1905, § 2842; 1903, ch. 54, § 4.]

CHAPTER 45.

COMMISSION SYSTEM OF GOVERNMENT.

This chapter clearly supersedes Laws 1907, ch. 45.

§ 3771. Cities incorporated, how. Any city in this state and any incorporated town or village therein having a population of not less than five hundred inhabitants may become incorporated under this chapter as a city, in the manner following:

Whenever one-tenth of the legal voters of such city, or one-tenth of the legal voters of such incorporated town or village, voting at the last preceding general election, shall petition the mayor and council of such city, or the president and trustees of such incorporated town or village to submit the question as to whether such city, incorporated town or village shall become incorporated under this chapter, to a vote of the electors in such city, town or village it shall be the duty of such mayor and council in such city, or the president and trustees of such incorporated town or village, to forthwith submit such question accordingly, and to appoint a time and place or places at which such vote may be taken, and to designate the persons who shall act as judges and clerks at such election; but such question shall not be submitted hereafter oftener than once in four years.

Provided, that cities, towns or villages in this state which have heretofore voted upon and rejected the commission system of government shall not again vote upon the question within a period of three years after such rejection. [1913, ch. 72; 1911, ch. 77, § 1; 1907, ch. 45, § 1.]

§ 3772. Notice of election. The mayor of such city or president of such incorporated town or village shall give at least twenty days' notice of such election by publishing a notice thereof in one or more newspapers within such city, incorporated town or village, but if no newspaper is published therein, then by posting at least five copies of such notice in each ward or voting precinct of such city, town or village, if divided into wards and precincts; if not, then within such city, town or village. [1911, ch. 77, § 2; 1907, ch. 45, § 2.]

§ 3773. Form of ballots. The ballots to be used at such election shall be in the following form:

“For city charter under commission system of government, ;”
“Against city charter under commission system of government, ;” the elector to designate his choice by placing a cross in the square opposite his choice. The judges of such election shall make returns thereof to the city council of such city, and trustees of such incorporated town or village, whose duty it shall be to canvass such returns, and cause the result of such canvass to be entered upon the records of such city, town or village.

If a majority of the votes cast at such election shall be for city organization under commission system, such city shall henceforth be deemed to be organized under this chapter, and the city, village or town officers then in office shall thereupon exercise the powers conferred upon like officials by this chapter, until their successors shall be elected and qualified. [1911, ch. 77, § 3; 1907, ch. 45, § 3.]

§ 3774. Call for special election of city commissioners. Within twenty days after the issuance of patent incorporating any city under the provisions of this chapter, it shall be the duty of the mayor or president of the city, town or village voting such incorporation to call a special election for the purpose of electing the first board of city commissioners provided for herein, such election to be held as provided in section 3784. [1911, ch. 77, § 4; 1907, ch. 45, § 4.]

§ 3775. Court takes judicial notice. All courts in this state shall take judicial notice of the existence of cities organized under this chapter, and of the change of the organization of any city from its former organization to its organization under this chapter, and from the time of such organization the provisions of this chapter shall be applicable to such city; and all laws in conflict herewith shall no longer be applicable; but all laws or parts of laws not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter shall continue in force and be applicable to any such city the same as if such change had not taken place. [1911, ch. 77, § 5; 1907, ch. 45, § 5.]

§ 3776. Bodies corporate. Cities organized under this chapter shall be bodies politic and corporate under the name and style of “city of (name)” and under such name may sue and be sued, contract and be contracted with, acquire and hold real and personal property for corporate purposes, have a common seal and change the same at pleasure, and exercise all the powers hereinafter conferred. [1911, ch. 77, § 6; 1907, ch. 45, § 6.]

§ 3777. Vested rights. All rights and property of every kind and description which were vested in any municipal corporation under its former organization, shall be deemed and held to be vested in the same municipal corporation upon its being incorporated under the provisions of this chapter, but no rights or liabilities, either in favor or against such corporation, existing at the time of so becoming incorporated under this chapter, and no action or prosecution of any kind shall be affected by such change, but the same shall stand and progress as if no change had been made; provided, that when a different remedy is given by this chapter, which may properly be made applicable to any right existing at the time of such city so becoming incorporated under this chapter the same shall be deemed cumulative to the remedies before provided and used accordingly. [1911, ch. 77, § 7; 1907, ch. 45, § 7.]

§ 3778. Legal identity of cities not changed. All ordinances and resolutions in force in any city at the date of its organization under this chapter shall continue in full force and effect until repealed or amended, notwithstanding such change of organization, and such change of organization shall not change the legal identity of such city as a corporation. [1911, ch. 77, § 8; 1907, ch. 45, § 8.]

§ 3779. Result of election. Returns of. If a majority of all the votes cast at such election shall be for a commission system, then said city shall adopt the form herein provided for. The result of the election as canvassed by the judges shall be returned to the town, city or village clerk, as the case may be, and if a majority of all the votes cast are in favor of a commission system of government said clerk shall certify the fact to the secretary of state, together with the result of the census taken, if any, and thereupon a patent shall be issued as hereinafter provided, which shall specify the boundaries of such city and the number and boundaries of the wards thereof. [1911, ch. 77, § 9; 1907, ch. 45, § 9.]

§ 3780. Certified to secretary of state. If said commission system of government be accepted the result shall be certified under the corporate seal of the city to the secretary of state, together with a copy of the proceedings relating thereto; thereupon the governor shall issue letters patent under the great seal, reciting the facts, defining the boundaries of the city, and constituting the same a body corporate and politic by the name of the city of. (specifying the name of such city) and declaring that the same shall be governed by the provisions of this chapter. [1911, ch. 77, § 10; 1907, ch. 45, § 10.]

§ 3781. Patent, where recorded. Any patent issued under the provisions of this chapter shall be recorded in the office of the secretary of state in a book kept for that purpose. Any patent so issued and recorded, the record thereof or a certified copy of such record shall be conclusive evidence in all courts and places of the due incorporation of the city mentioned and of all the facts therein recited. [1911, ch. 77, § 11; 1907, ch. 45, § 11.]

§ 3782. Boundaries of wards. The number and the boundaries of the wards of any city organized under the provisions of this chapter may be changed by ordinance adopted by a majority vote of the city commissioners, provided said ordinance must be introduced at a regular meeting of the city commissioners in May and before final action is taken thereon shall be published in the official paper of the city, if any, otherwise in a newspaper designated by such ordinance, once in each week for four successive weeks, and when the boundaries of any wards are fixed by any ordinance the number of wards and boundaries thereof or of any of said wards shall not be again changed for a period of two years, except by adding thereto such territory as may at any time be added to the city limits; provided, further, that the territory of the wards shall be contiguous and compact and that no ward having a population of less than one hundred shall be created. [1911, ch. 77, § 12; 1907, ch. 45, § 12.]

§ 3783. Officers. The officers of cities incorporated under this act shall be a president of the board of city commissioners and four city commissioners who, together, shall be known as the board of city commissioners of the city of ; a treasurer, auditor, attorney, a police magistrate, one or more justices of the peace, one or more assessors, a physician, street commissioner, chief of fire department, city engineer, chief of police, a board of public works, one or more policemen, and such other officers or boards as the board of city commissioners may deem necessary; provided, that the board of city commissioners by a majority vote may dispense with the offices of street commissioner, engineer and board of public works, and provide that the duties thereof be performed by other officers or boards, by the board of city commissioners or a committee thereof. [1911, ch. 77, § 13; 1907, ch. 45, § 13.]

§ 3784. Elections biennial. Biennial municipal elections in all cities shall be held on the first Tuesday in April at such place or places as the board of city commissioners shall designate. The polls of such election shall be opened at eight o'clock a. m. and close at five o'clock p. m. Ten days' previous notice of the time and place of such election and of the officers to be elected shall be given by the city auditor by publication in the official city paper and by posting written or printed notices in three public places in the city; but the failure to give such notice shall not invalidate such election. In all other respects such elections shall be conducted as prescribed by general election laws, and for all general and special elections held under the provisions of this act in the city, for city officers and for other purposes, the board of city commissioners shall, at least ten days before any election is held, appoint in each precinct established in the city, one inspector and two judges of election. [1911, ch. 77, § 14; 1907, ch. 45, § 14.]

§ 3785. Commissioners. How elected. The president of the board of city commissioners and four city commissioners shall be elected by the legal and qualified voters in the city, in the following manner: The president of the board of city commissioners and the four city commissioners shall be elected at large and not by wards. Each voter shall be allowed to cast but one vote for the candidate for the office of president of the board of city commissioners. Each voter shall be allowed as many votes for the candidates of the office of city commissioners as there are commissioners to be elected, such votes to be distributed among the candidates as the voter shall see fit, but no voter shall be allowed to cast more votes than candidates to be elected. [1911, ch. 77, § 15; 1907, ch. 45, § 15.]

Cumulative voting in election of city commissioners is not authorized. State ex rel. Shaw v. Thompson, 21 N. D. 426, 131 N. W. 231.

It is duty of city auditor to furnish ballots for election of city commissioners. State ex rel. Shaw v. Thompson, 21 N. D. 426, 131 N. W. 231.

§ 3786. Terms of office. Each of said four commissioners and the president of the board shall hold office for four years from and after the date of his qualification and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified, except in the first board the two commissioners who received the highest number of votes shall hold four years, the two receiving the next highest for two years; provided, that the president or any other member of the commission may resign their office by filing with the city auditor their resignation in writing, which the city auditor shall lay before the city commission at its next regular meeting, or at a special meeting called for the consideration of such resignation, and when such resignation is accepted by the city commission it shall become effective. [1913, ch. 78; 1911, ch. 77, § 16; 1907, ch. 45, § 16.]

§ 3787. Eligibility of officers. No person shall be eligible to hold an elective office created by the provisions of this chapter who is not at the time of his election a citizen of the United States and of this state and resident elector of the city. [1911, ch. 77, § 17; 1907, ch. 45, § 17.]

§ 3788. Terms begin when. The term of office of the president and members of the board of city commissioners shall commence on the third Tuesday of April succeeding their election and qualification except in the case of their first election when their term of office shall commence within ten days succeeding such election. The term of all other officers shall commence on the first day of May succeeding their appointment unless otherwise provided by ordinance, and they shall hold for such term as has been provided for each respectively and until their respective successors are qualified. [1911, ch. 77, § 18; 1907, ch. 45, § 18.]

§ 3789. Succession. The first president and the other members of the first board of commissioners appointed and elected under this act, shall be held and deemed, in law and in fact, the successors of the mayor and aldermen of said city, and upon the qualification of said president and other members of said board of commissioners, all the powers, rights and duties of the mayor and board of aldermen of said city shall cease; and whenever the said city has heretofore, under the decree of judgment of any court, or under any law, ordinance or resolution, been entitled to representation through the mayor of said city and one or more of the aldermen thereof, on the board of directors of any incorporated company in which the city may own stock or be interested, it shall hereafter be represented on any such board of directors by the president of said board of commissioners, and by two other members of said board, to be selected by said board. [1911, ch. 77, § 19; 1907, ch. 45, § 19.]

§ 3790. Style of commission. Salary. Said commissioners shall collectively constitute and be known as the "board of commissioners of the city of" They shall take an oath to faithfully perform the duties of their respective offices. The salary of the city commissioner shall be determined by the number of inhabitants found to be therein by the state or federal census last taken. In cities having a population of over five hundred and not exceeding two thousand, each commissioner shall receive a monthly salary of not to exceed ten dollars; in cities having a population of over two thousand and not exceeding four thousand, each commissioner shall receive a monthly salary of not to exceed twenty dollars; in cities having a population of over four thousand and not exceeding six thousand, each commissioner shall receive a monthly salary of not to exceed forty dollars; in cities having a population of over six thousand and not exceeding eight thousand, each commissioner shall receive a monthly salary of not to exceed fifty dollars; in cities having a population of over eight thousand and not exceeding twelve thousand, each commissioner shall receive a monthly salary of not to exceed seventy-five dollars; in cities having a population of over twelve thousand, each commissioner shall receive a monthly salary of not to exceed one hundred dollars. [1913, ch. 80, § 1; 1911, ch. 77, § 20; 1907, ch. 45, § 20.]

§ 3791. Official bonds. Appointment of subordinate officers. Each commissioner, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall give bond payable to the governor of the state, for the use and benefit of said city, in the sum of three thousand dollars, for the faithful discharge of his duty, with two or more good and sufficient sureties to be approved by the judge of the county, and shall in addition to taking the oath prescribed by the constitution of the state, also take an oath that he is not under any direct or indirect obligation to appoint or elect any person to the office of policeman or fireman, or any other office, position or employment, under said government. The said commissioners shall by a majority vote of all the commissioners elected under this chapter have the power to appoint all officers and subordinates in all of the departments of said city, and to suspend and to discharge the same at will under the limitations hereinafter provided. Each commissioner elected under the provisions of this chapter shall qualify as provided by this section within ten days after the delivery to him of the certificate of his election. [1911, ch. 77, § 21; 1907, ch. 45, § 21.]

§ 3792. Powers of commission. The president of said board shall have the right to vote as a member thereof, on all questions which may arise, but no right of veto. Said board of commissioners shall have the power to summon and compel the attendance of witnesses, and the production of books and papers before them, whenever it may be necessary for the more effective discharge of their duties; and shall have the power to punish for contempt of said board with the same fines and penalties as the county judge may punish for contempt of the county court. All process necessary to enforce the powers conferred by this section shall be signed by the president of the board, and attested by the city auditor thereof, and shall be served by any member of the police force of said city. [1911, ch. 77, § 22; 1907, ch. 45, § 22.]

§ 3793. Control over departments. Said board of commissioners so constituted shall have control and supervision over all the departments of such city and to that end shall have the power to make all such rules as they may see fit and proper, concerning the organization, management and operation of such departments; and shall have power, under such rules and regulations as they shall make, to appoint, and for cause which to said board shall seem sufficient, and after an opportunity to be heard, to discharge all employes, including the chiefs of the departments respectively. Said commissioners shall have sole authority to pass and adopt all such rules and regulations concerning all of the departments of such city and the other agencies created by them for the administration of its affairs. [1911, ch. 77, § 23; 1907, ch. 45, § 23.]

§ 3794. Departments of administration. In addition to the powers aforesaid, the said commissioners shall have the right, and it shall be their duty, by a majority vote of all the said commissioners elected, to designate from among their members one commissioner, who shall be known as "police and fire commissioner," and who shall have under his special charge the enforcement of all police regulations of such city and general supervision over the fire department of such city, and one commissioner to be known as the "commissioner of streets and of improvements," who shall have under his special charge the supervision of streets and alleys of such city, and be charged with the duty of lighting such streets and keeping the said streets and alleys in clean and sanitary condition, and with the enforcement of all rules and regulations necessary to that end, for the preservation of the health of the inhabitants of such city, and who shall also have under his special charge the supervision of all public improvements, and shall see that all contracts therefor are faithfully complied with, and that the conditions of any grant of any franchise or privilege are faithfully complied with and performed, and one commissioner to be known as the "water works and sewerage commissioner," who shall have under his special charge the water works and sewerage department of such city, and shall see to the enforcement of all regulations with respect to said departments, and with respect to all the revenues pertaining thereto, and one commissioner who shall be known as the "commissioner of finance and revenue," who shall have under his special charge the enforcement of all laws for the assessment and collection of taxes of every kind and the collection of all revenues belonging to such city, from whatever source the same may be derived; and who shall also examine into and keep informed as to the finances of such city. Provided that by a majority vote of the commissioners the duties assigned in this section may be otherwise distributed. [1911, ch. 77, § 24; 1907, ch. 45, § 24.]

§ 3795. Executive officers. Financial statement, published, when. The president of said board of commissioners shall be the executive officer of said city and shall see that all the laws thereof are enforced. The commissioner named at the head of each department shall audit all accounts against it, but before payment, they shall be acted upon and approved by at least three members of said board of commissioners. Said board shall require a statement to be published in September, December, March and June of each year, in the official newspaper of said city, showing a full, clear and complete statement of all the taxes and other revenues collected and expended, indicating the respective sources from which the moneys are derived, and also the disposition made thereof. All legislative sessions of said board, whether regular or called, shall be open to the public. [1911, ch. 77, § 25; 1907, ch. 45, § 25.]

§ 3796. Special police. Authority to appoint. Whenever the president of the board of city commissioners shall deem it necessary, in order to enforce the laws of the city, or to avert danger, or protect life or property, in case of a riot or any outbreak, or calamity or public disturbance, or when he has reason to fear any serious violation of law or order, or any outbreak, or any other danger to said city or the inhabitants thereof, he shall summon into service, as a special police force, all, or as many of the citizens as in his judgment and discretion may be necessary and proper; and summons may be by proclamation or order, addressed to the citizens generally or those of any ward of the city or subdivision thereof, or such summons may be by personal notification. Such special police, while in service, shall be subject to the orders of the president of the board of city commissioners, shall perform such duties as he may require, and shall have the same power while on duty as the regular police force of said city, and any person so summoned, and failing to obey or appearing and failing to perform any duty that may be required by this chapter, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars. [1911, ch. 77, § 26; 1907, ch. 45, § 26.]

§ 3797. Disability of president of commission. Procedure. At the first meeting of the commissioners after each biennial election they shall elect one of their number as vice-president, and such vice-president shall in case of the absence or inability of the president to act, perform all the duties of the office of president, and in case of the absence or inability to act of both president and vice-president the commissioners shall elect one of their number who shall be known as acting president, who shall during such absence or disability have all the powers and perform all the duties of the president. [1911, ch. 77, § 27; 1907, ch. 45, § 27.]

§ 3798. Regular meetings. Said board of commissioners shall meet at least once every week in regular meeting, at such time as shall be fixed by said board, at the city hall or other designated place in such city, to consider and take under advisement and act upon such business as may come before them. A majority of such board as appointed and elected shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of all business, but no action of said commissioners shall be effective unless upon a vote of a majority of such quorum; and no final action shall be taken in any matter concerning the special department of any absent commissioner unless such business has been made a special order of the day, or such action is taken at a regular meeting of the board. Special meeting may be called by the president of such board, or by any two members thereof, at any time, to consider such matters as shall be mentioned in the call of such meeting, and written notice thereof shall be given to each member of said board. [1911, ch. 77, § 28; 1907, ch. 45, § 28.]

§ 3799. Ordinances. The board of city commissioners of such city shall be vested with the power and charged with the duty of making all laws or ordinances not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of this state, touching every object, matter and subject within the local government instituted by this chapter. Every ordinance imposing any penalty, fine, imprisonment or forfeiture for a violation of its provisions shall, after the passage thereof, be published in one issue of the official paper and proof of such publication by the printer or publisher of such newspaper, made before any officer authorized to administer oaths, and filed with the clerk of the board of commissioners or any other competent proof of such publication shall in all courts be conclusive evidence of the legal publication and promulgation of such ordinances. Ordinances passed by the board of commissioners and requiring publication, shall take effect and be in force from and after publication thereof, unless it be otherwise expressly provided for in such ordinance. Ordinances passed by the board of commissioners and not requiring publication, shall take effect and be in force from and after their passage unless it shall therein otherwise expressly be provided. [1911, ch. 77, § 29; 1907, ch. 45, § 29.]

§ 3800. Enacting clause. The style of all ordinances shall be "Be it ordained by the board of city commissioners of the city of," but said caption may be omitted when such ordinances are published in book form or are revised and digested. [1911, ch. 77, § 30; 1907, ch. 45, § 30.]

§ 3801. Officers. Appointment of. The board of city commissioners in all cities, at their first meeting after their qualification or as soon thereafter as possible, shall appoint the following officers, to wit: A treasurer, auditor, attorney, one or more assessors, a physician, street commissioner, chief of the fire department, a board of public works, one or more policemen, and such other officers or boards as the board of city commissioners may deem necessary; provided, that the board of city commissioners, by a majority vote, may dispense with the offices which in its judgment are unnecessary. [1911, ch. 77, § 31; 1907, ch. 45, § 31.]

§ 3802. Salaries, how fixed. The board of city commissioners shall by resolution provide such salary or compensation for the officers and employes of the city as it shall deem proper. All salaries heretofore fixed or established by law shall be and remain the salaries of such officers until the board of city commissioners shall otherwise determine. [1911, ch. 77, § 32; 1907, ch. 45, § 32.]

§ 3803. Vacancies. When any officer shall remove from the city or any such officer shall refuse or neglect for ten days after official notification of his appointment to qualify and enter upon the discharge of the duties of his office the office shall be deemed vacant. Whenever a vacancy shall occur in any office to be filled by appointment the same proceedings shall be had to fill such vacancy as are provided for in case of an appointment in the first instance. [1911, ch. 77, § 33; 1907, ch. 45, § 33.]

§ 3804. Vacancies. Elections to fill. Special elections to fill vacancies or for any other purpose shall be held and conducted by the inspectors and judges of election of the several precincts in the same manner and the returns thereof shall be made in the same form and manner as of the general municipal elections, and within such time as is prescribed by law. [1911, ch. 77, § 34; 1907, ch. 45, § 34.]

§ 3805. Tenure of office. Every person elected or appointed to fill a vacancy shall hold his office and discharge the duties thereof for the unexpired term. [1911, ch. 77, § 35; 1907, ch. 45, § 35.]

§ 3806. Oath of office. Every person elected or appointed to any office shall, before he enters upon the discharge of the duties thereof, take and subscribe the oath of office provided for by the constitution and file the same with the city auditor within ten days after notice of his election or appointment; and in case of his failure to do either the office shall be deemed vacant. [1911, ch. 77, § 36; 1907, ch. 45, § 36.]

§ 3807. Bonds. What officers give. The treasurer, auditor, city or village justice of the peace, and such other officers as the board of city commissioners may direct shall, before entering upon the discharge of the duties of their respective offices, execute and deliver to the city a bond in such sum as the board of city commissioners may determine, with two or more sureties, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of their respective offices, and with such other conditions as the board of city commissioners may prescribe. The board of city commissioners may at any time require new and additional bonds of any officer; provided, that in no case shall the treasurer's bond be fixed at a less sum than the amount of the estimated tax and special assessments for the current year.

All bonds must be approved by the president of the board of city commissioners, and when so approved shall be filed in the office of the city auditor within ten days after the officer executing the same shall have been notified of his appointment, and when so approved and filed shall be recovered by the city auditor in a book kept for that purpose; such auditor shall annex to each such record a certificate that the same is a true copy of the original, and such record shall be prima facie evidence of the contents of such bond and in the absence of the original may be used as evidence in all courts. [1911, ch. 77, § 37; 1907, ch. 45, § 37.]

city commissioners without confirmation under the provisions of this chapter may be removed by him when he deems it for the best interests of the city. [1913, ch. 80, § 2; 1911, ch. 77, § 38; 1907, ch. 45, § 38.]

§ 3809. City auditor. Powers and duties. The city auditor shall have the care and custody of the corporate seal and all papers and records of the city. It shall be his duty to attend all meetings of the board of city commissioners and keep a full record of their proceedings; to record all ordinances and bonds in a book kept for that purpose; to keep a record of all licenses granted, which record shall at all reasonable times be open to inspection by the public; to carefully preserve all receipts filed with him and draw and sign all orders upon the treasury, except as otherwise herein provided, in pursuance of an order or resolution of the board of city commissioners, and keep a full and correct account thereof in books provided for that purpose. He shall have such power and authority and perform such duties as auditors of cities and villages may be required to perform under the general laws. He shall keep an accurate account with the treasurer and charge him with all tax lists presented to him for collection and all sums of money paid into the treasury. He shall be ex-officio secretary of the board of public works and shall perform such duties as may be required of him by the board of city commissioners. Within thirty days after the close of each fiscal year he shall make and cause to be published in the city official paper a financial statement showing the receipts and disbursements on account of each fund during the last preceding year. Copies of any and all books, papers, documents or instruments duly filed and kept in his office and transcripts from the records of the proceedings of the board of city commissioners certified by him under the corporate seal of the city, shall be evidence in all courts and places in like manner and with the same force and effect as if the originals were produced. He shall also have power to administer oaths and affirmations authorized to be taken by and under these statutes. Every such auditor may with the consent and approval of the board of city commissioners in writing appoint a deputy and shall file such appointment in his office; such deputy shall aid in the performance of the duties under his direction and in case of his absence or disability or of a vacancy in his office shall perform all such duties during such absence, disability or the continuance of such vacancy; and every such auditor and his sureties shall be liable upon his official bond for the acts of such deputy. [1911, ch. 77, § 39; 1907, ch. 45, § 39.]

It is duty of city auditor to furnish ballots for election of city commissioners. State ex rel. Shaw v. Thompson, 21 N. D. 426, 131 N. W. 231.

§ 3810. City attorney. Assistant. The city attorney shall conduct all the law business of the city and of the departments thereof and all law business in which the city shall be interested; he shall, when requested, furnish written opinions upon the subjects submitted to him by the board of city commissioners of any other department. He shall keep a docket of all the cases to which the city may be party in any court of record, in which shall be briefly entered all steps taken in such cause, which docket shall at all reasonable hours be open to public inspection. It shall also be his duty to draft all ordinances, bonds, contracts, leases, conveyances and such other instruments as may be required by the officers of the city; to examine and inspect tax and assessment rolls and all other proceedings in reference to the levying and collection of taxes and to perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the board of ordinances. He may, with the consent and approval of the board of commissioners, appoint an assistant who shall have power to do all the acts required by law of the city attorney; provided, that he shall be responsible to the city for the acts of such assistant, and that the city shall not be liable for nor have any authority to pay compensation to such assistant, provided that special counsel may be employed by the city commissioners when necessary. [1911, ch. 77, § 40; 1907, ch. 45, § 40.]

§ 3811. Treasurer. Powers and duties. The city treasurer shall receive all moneys belonging to the city, keep an accurate account of the same in suitable books prepared for that purpose, and pay over the money in his hands according to the law. He shall keep a detailed account of the money received and disbursed by him in such manner as the board of city commissioners shall direct; his books shall at all reasonable times be open to inspection by any voter of the city; he shall make a report to the board of city commissioners each month and as much oftener as required, which report shall embrace a statement of the receipts and disbursements in his office, and ten days preceding every biennial election he shall make and file in the city clerk's office a full and minute report of all moneys received and disbursed by him, of all tax certificates, vouchers and other effects of pecuniary value in his possession and of all other transactions relating to his office from the date of the like report of his predecessor to the date of the report required to be made out by him. He shall keep an accurate account of each of the separate funds in his custody. Except as herein otherwise provided he shall have such power and authority and perform such duties as treasurers in villages, cities and towns are required to perform under these statutes. He shall receive no fees or per diem except the salary fixed by the board of city commissioners prior to his election, but all fees collected by him shall be paid into the city treasury at the end of each month. [1911, ch. 77, § 41; 1907, ch. 45, § 41.]

§ 3812. Additional duties of auditor. The auditor shall, on or before the first day of September of each year, file with the president of the board a detailed statement of the expenses of the city and the wards thereof during the last fiscal year, and such statement shall also contain an estimate of the expenses of the fiscal year and the income for that year from sources other than taxation. He shall countersign all contracts made with the city if the necessary funds shall have been provided to pay the liability that may be incurred thereunder and no such contract shall be valid until so countersigned. He shall make a list of all certificates for the payment of which special taxes are to be levied in each year in time for the same to be inserted in the tax roll in the form of a schedule of special taxes, and certify the correctness of the same, and such certified schedule shall be prima facie evidence of the legality and regularity of the taxes levied in pursuance thereof; but no irregularity in the making of such lists shall invalidate any such special tax. He shall report monthly, in writing, to the board of city commissioners the condition of the several funds of the city and of the condition of all outstanding contracts and claims which may be payable out of such fund. He shall examine and countersign all city orders before the same shall be valid, but shall not countersign any order before the money is in the treasury to pay the same. He shall examine all claims presented against the city, whether founded on contract or otherwise and determine as to each whether it is properly itemized and sworn to; if on contract, whether the items charged are correct, whether such claim was incurred by proper authority and generally determine its correctness. For the above purposes he may swear witnesses to take testimony. If he does not find any objection to any claim he shall mark his approval thereon, if he disapproves or approves in part or disapproves in part, he shall report to the board of city commissioners his reasons therefor and in all cases shall report the evidence taken by him. No claim shall be considered by the board of city commissioners until it shall have been thus examined and reported on by the auditor. He shall examine each month the treasurer's accounts as reported and kept by him and report as to the correctness of the same, and also any violation by the treasurer of his duties in the manner of keeping his accounts or disbursing moneys. The auditor shall procure a claim book at the expense of the city in which all claims against it shall be entered as fast as the same are filed; said books shall be provided with an index and be in such form as to provide for the entry of the name of the claimant, number of the claim, date of filing, amount claimed, date of the report of the auditor, whether approved, and for how much, date of allowance or disallowance by the board of city commissioners, amount allowed, date of the order issued to pay the same, number of such order and date of the cancellation of the same. The auditor shall perform the duties of a member of the board of public works and such other duties as are required of him under the provisions of this chapter or by the board of city commissioners. In case the office of auditor is dispensed with, the duties pertaining thereunto shall be discharged by such officer or officers or board as the board of city commissioners shall designate by resolution or ordinance. [1911, ch. 77, § 42; 1907, ch. 45, § 42.]

§ 3813. Official newspapers. The board of city commissioners, at its first meeting or as soon thereafter as may be, shall designate one newspaper printed in the city in which shall be published all the ordinances, notices and all other proceedings by law to be published and said board of city commissioners may establish by ordinance such rates for printing and publishing as to them may seem just and proper, provided, that the price of such printing shall not exceed the legal rate for like work as the same now is or may be established by law. [1911, ch. 77, § 43; 1907, ch. 45, § 43.]

§ 3814. Certificate of official publication. When any ordinance, notice, resolution or other proceeding shall have been published, a copy of such publication together with the affidavit of the printer or his foreman stating the length of time the same has been published, shall be filed with the city clerk and such affidavit shall be conclusive evidence of the publication thereof and the bill for such publication shall not be audited until such affidavit is so filed. [1911, ch. 77, § 44; 1907, ch. 45, § 44.]

§ 3815. Duties of officers generally. All other officers elected or appointed under and by virtue of the authority of this chapter shall perform such duties as are required to be performed by like officers under these statutes and also such as are prescribed by the board of city commissioners. [1911, ch. 77, § 45; 1907, ch. 45, § 45.]

§ 3816. Rules of commissioners. Quorum, confirmations. The board of city commissioners shall determine the rules of its own proceedings. A majority of the members thereof shall constitute a quorum, but a smaller number may adjourn; their sessions shall be open to the public; the ayes and nays may be required by any member; and on the adoption of any ordinance or resolution assessing or levying taxes or for the appropriation or disbursement of money or creating any liability or charge against the city or any fund thereof, the vote shall be taken by ayes and nays, and every such vote shall be entered at length upon the journal. The board of city commissioners shall be the judges of the election and qualifications of its own members, and may punish them or any persons present by fine for disorderly behavior; may compel the attendance of its members upon its meetings and may employ the police of the city for that purpose; may fine or expel any member for neglect of duty as such member, or for unnecessary absence from sessions of the board of city commissioners. [1911, ch. 77, § 46; 1907, ch. 45, § 46.]

§ 3817. Control of the finances. Authority of commissioners. The board of city commissioners shall have the management and control of the finances and of all the property of the city, except as herein otherwise provided, and shall likewise, in addition to all other powers herein and elsewhere in these statutes vested in them, have full power and authority to enact, ordain, establish, publish, enforce, alter, modify, amend and repeal all such rules, by-laws and regulations for the government and the good order of the city, for the benefit of its trade and commerce, and health of the inhabitants thereof, for the prevention of crime and for carrying into effect the powers vested in said board as they shall deem expedient; such board shall have the power to declare and impose penalties and enforce the same against any person or persons who may violate any of the provisions of such ordinances, by-laws or regulations; and such ordinances, rules, by-laws, and regulations shall have the force of law, provided that they be not repugnant to the constitution of the United States or of this state or of the laws thereof, and for the aforesaid purposes such board of city commissioners shall have authority by ordinance, resolution, by-law or regulation. [1911, ch. 77, § 47; 1907, ch. 45, § 47.]

§ 3818. General powers of commissioners. The board of city commissioners shall have power:

1. To control the finances and property of the corporation, to appropriate money for corporate purposes only, and provide for the payment of debts and expenses of the corporation.

2. To levy and collect taxes for general and special purposes on real and personal property.

3. To fix the amount, terms and manner of issuing and revoking licenses.

4. To borrow money on the credits of the corporation for corporation purposes, and to issue bonds therefor in such amounts and form and on such conditions as it shall prescribe, but no city shall become indebted in any manner or for any purpose to an amount, including existing indebtedness, exceeding five per cent of the taxable property therein, as determined by the last preceding assessment; provided that any incorporated city may, by a two-thirds vote at any special or general election increase such indebtedness to an amount equal to three per cent of such assessed valuation, beyond said five per cent limit and may issue bonds therefor; provided, further, that any city, when authorized by a majority vote at a general or special election, may become indebted in any amount not exceeding four per cent of such assessed value without regard to the existing indebtedness of such city, for the purpose of constructing or purchasing water works for the purpose of furnishing a supply of water to the inhabitants of such city, or for the purpose of constructing sewers, but for no other purpose whatever, and such city may issue bonds therefor; provided, further, that no bonds issued under the provisions of this section shall be sold for less than their par value, and the city issuing such bonds shall, at or before the time of issuing the same or incurring the indebtedness for which the same are to be issued, provide for the collection of a direct annual tax sufficient to pay the interest on such debt or such bond when it falls due, and to pay and discharge the principal thereof when the same becomes due, and such provision for the collection of such annual tax shall be irrevocable until such debt is paid; provided, further, that none of the hereinbefore mentioned bonds shall be issued either for special or general purposes, except as by law otherwise provided, unless at an election after twenty days' notice in a newspaper published in the city, stating the purpose for which said bonds are to be issued and the amount thereof, the legal voters of the city shall, by a majority vote, determine in favor of issuing such bonds; provided, further, that no bonds issued under the provisions of this chapter shall be issued for a longer period than twenty years.

See note to section 3599, paragraph 5.

5. To lay out, open, alter, establish, widen, grade, pave, park or otherwise improve streets, alleys, avenues, sidewalks, wharves, parks and public grounds and vacate the same, and to regulate the planting of trees thereon; to prevent and remove obstructions and encroachments upon the same; to provide for the lighting of the same, and to provide for the furnishing of lights to the inhabitants of the city.

See note to section 3599, paragraphs 7-11.

6. To provide for the cleaning and health of the city.

7. To regulate the laying of gas or water mains and pipes, and the building, laying or repairing of sewers, tunnels and drains, and erecting gas or electric light plants; provided, however, that any company heretofore organized under the general laws of this state or any association of persons organized or which may hereafter be organized for the purpose of manufacturing illuminating gas or electricity, to supply cities or the inhabitants thereof with the same, shall have the right, by the consent of the board of city commissioners, subject to existing rights, to erect gas or electric light works and lay down pipes or string wires on poles in streets or alleys of any city in this state, subject to such regulations as such city may by ordinance prescribe.

See note to section 3599, paragraph 13.

8. To regulate the use of sidewalks and all structures thereunder, and to require the owner or occupant of any premises to keep the sidewalks in front of or along the same free from snow or other obstruction.

Power to require separate license for each kind of second-hand goods dealt in. 5 L.R.A. (N.S.) 620.

§ 3819. Exercise of power through ordinances. When by this chapter the power is conferred upon the board of commissioners to do and perform any act or thing, and the manner of exercising the same is not specifically pointed out, the board of commissioners may provide by ordinance the details necessary for the full exercise of such power. [1911, ch. 77, § 49; 1907, ch. 45, § 49.]

§ 3820. Powers of commissioner of public health. The commissioner of public health shall have all the power and authority heretofore given or which hereafter may be given to boards of health by any general law and it shall be his duty to provide such additional rules and regulations as shall be proper and necessary for the preservation of the health of the people of the city, to prevent the spread of contagious diseases and to cause the removal of all objects detrimental to the health of such people and to enforce such rules and regulations as are hereinafter provided. [1911, ch. 77, § 50; 1907, ch. 45, § 50.]

§ 3821. Health regulations. All rules and regulations prepared by such commissioner shall be by him reported to the board of city commissioners, and if the board of city commissioners shall approve the same by a vote of the majority of its members, such rules and regulations shall have the force and effect of ordinances, and the violation thereof may be prosecuted and punished as in the case of ordinances. [1911, ch. 77, § 51; 1907, ch. 45, § 51.]

§ 3822. Sanitary recommendations. The commissioner of public health shall also, from time to time, recommend to the board of city commissioners such sanitary measures to be executed at the public expense as shall seem to him to be necessary for the preservation of the public health. [1911, ch. 77, § 52; 1907, ch. 45, § 52.]

§ 3823. Salary of commissioner of public health. Assistants. It shall be the duty of the board of city commissioners to fix the salary of said commissioner, which shall be paid out of the city treasury. The commissioner may appoint, subject to confirmation by the president of the board of city commissioners, such assistants as may be necessary, and all such appointees shall receive such salary or compensation as the board of city commissioners may fix. [1911, ch. 77, § 53; 1907, ch. 45, § 53.]

§ 3824. Authority to inspect premises. The commissioner of public health or any person acting under him shall have authority to enter into and examine at any time all buildings, lots and places of any description within the city for the purpose of ascertaining the condition thereof, so far as the public health may be affected thereby, and any person refusing to allow entrance into or upon his premises at reasonable hours for such purpose, shall, on conviction thereof, be fined not less than ten dollars nor more than one hundred dollars; and in all cases in which the commissioner shall deem it necessary for the protection of the health of the city to abate or remove any nuisance, source of filth, or cause of sickness which shall be found on private property, he shall cause a notice to be served on the owner or occupant thereof, requiring him to remove the same at his own expense within a reasonable time, not less than twenty-four hours; and if said owner or occupant shall refuse or neglect to comply with such notice, or if such nuisance, source of filth or cause of sickness exist on the property of nonresident owners or upon property the owners of which cannot be found, the commissioner shall cause the removal of such nuisance, source of filth or cause of sickness under his direction at the expense of the city, and the costs thereof shall be charged against the lots, pieces or parcels of land upon which said work has been done, and shall be assessed against said property in the manner provided for the assessment and certificate of sidewalk assessments. [1911, ch. 77, § 54; 1907, ch. 45, § 54.]

§ 3825. Contagious diseases. Duties of physicians. It shall be the duty of every physician practicing in any city which has adopted this charter to report in writing to the commissioner of public health every patient he shall have who is sick with smallpox, scarlet fever, diphtheria, typhoid fever, asiatic cholera or any other dangerous contagious disease within twenty-four hours after he shall ascertain or suspect the nature of such disease. The report shall be in such form as may be prescribed by the state board of health and shall state the name, sex, age and place of residence of the person whose sickness is reported, the nature of the disease and such additional facts as said board may prescribe. Any practicing physician who shall neglect or refuse to perform the duties required of him by this section or who shall make a false return of the facts required shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars for each offense or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not exceeding sixty days, or by both fine and imprisonment. [1911, ch. 77, § 55; 1907, ch. 45, § 55.]

§ 3826. Reports to state board of health. The commissioner of public health shall also discharge such duties not herein enumerated, as may from time to time be imposed upon him by the board of city commissioners by ordinance or resolution, and shall make such reports to the state board of health and generally perform such duties as are or may be required of health officers by these statutes. [1911, ch. 77, § 56; 1907, ch. 45, § 56.]

§ 3827. Duties of peace officers, as to health regulations. It shall be the duty of the members of the police force of the city and all magistrates and other civil officers and all citizens to aid to the utmost of their power the commissioner of public health in the discharge of his duties, and on his requisition it shall be the duty of the chief of police to serve or detail one or more of the policemen to serve the notices issued by said commissioner and to perform such other duties as he may require. [1911, ch. 77, § 57; 1907, ch. 45, § 57.]

§ 3829. Treasurer's liability. The city treasurer shall not pay out the funds in his hands which shall be appropriated by law for any special purpose except for the purpose for which such funds are appropriated, any direction of the board of city commissioners to the contrary notwithstanding. [1911, ch. 77, § 59; 1907, ch. 45, § 59.]

§ 3830. Treasurer's statement. The treasurer shall, on the first day of each month, deliver to the city auditor a statement showing the condition of the treasury at the close of the preceding month and a statement of all disbursements since the last report. [1911, ch. 77, § 60; 1907, ch. 45, § 60.]

§ 3831. Depository of funds. The board of city commissioners may designate by resolution the bank or banks where the money belonging to the city shall be deposited, and the security, to be approved by the president of the board of city commissioners and auditor to be given by such bank or banks, and when the money is so deposited the treasurer and his bondsmen shall not be liable for the loss thereof by reason of the failure of such bank or banks, and the interest arising therefrom shall be paid into the treasury; provided, such money shall not be deposited in any bank without this state. [1911, ch. 77, § 61; 1907, ch. 45, § 61.]

§ 3832. Interest on deposits. The board of city commissioners may contract with a bank receiving the city deposits for the payment of interest thereon. [1911, ch. 77, § 62; 1907, ch. 45, § 62.]

§ 3833. Meaning of phrases. Whenever, in the laws not repealed by this act, the words "town council, city council, or village board" appear, it shall mean board of city commissioners; the word "mayor" or "president" shall mean president of the board of city commissioners. Whenever the words "city commissioners" are used in this chapter they shall be construed to mean and include village commissioners. [1911, ch. 77, § 63; 1907, ch. 45, § 63.]

§ 3834. Succession of powers. All the provisions of law now in force or which may hereafter be passed by the legislative assembly in relation to the powers, duties or privileges of the president of boards of trustees of towns or villages, or mayors of cities, are hereby granted to the president of the board of city commissioners, and except where inapplicable all the provisions of law now in force or hereafter passed by the legislative assembly in relation to the powers, duties or privileges of town or village trustees, or other municipal boards thereof, or the powers, duties or privileges of city councils are hereby granted to the board of city commissioners provided for in this chapter; provided, cities incorporated under this chapter shall for all purposes according to their respective population retain the classification otherwise provided by law. [1911, ch. 77, § 64; 1907, ch. 45, § 64.]

CHAPTER 46.

CITIES UNDER COMMISSION FORM OF GOVERNMENT.

This chapter clearly supersedes Laws 1911, ch. 67, and is substantially identical in terms with the latter. An emergency section recites that "a doubt exists there being any law governing said recall commission form of government." It is quite probable that the doubt arose from the fact that Laws 1911, ch. 67, §§ 1 and 5 refer to "chapter 45 of the Laws of 1907," whereas the latter chapter was undoubtedly repealed by Laws 1911, ch. 77.

§ 3835. Recall. The holder of any elective office in cities which may adopt or have adopted the commission plan of government under any of the laws of this state applicable thereto may be removed at any time by the electors qualified to vote for a successor of such incumbent. The procedure to effect the removal of an incumbent of an elective office shall be as follows: A petition signed by electors entitled to vote for a successor to the incumbent sought to be removed, equal in number to at least thirty per centum of the entire vote for all candidates for the office of president of the city commission cast at the last preceding general municipal election, demanding an election of a successor of the person sought to be removed, shall be filed with the city auditor, which petition shall contain a general statement of the grounds for which the removal is sought. The signatures to the petition need not all be appended to one paper, but each signer shall add to his signature his place of residence, giving the street and number. One of the signers of each such paper shall make oath before an officer, competent to administer oaths, that the statements therein made are true as he believes, and that each signature to the paper appended is the genuine signature of the person whose name it purports to be. Within ten days from the date of filing such petition the city auditor shall examine, and from the voter's register ascertain whether or not said petition is signed by the requisite number of qualified electors, and if necessary, the board of city commissioners shall allow extra help for that purpose, and he shall attach to said petition his certificate showing the result of said examination. If, by the auditor's certificate, the petition is shown to be insufficient it may be amended within ten days from the date of said certificate. The auditor shall, within ten days after such amendment, make like examination of the amended petition, and if his certificate shall show the same to be insufficient, it shall be returned to the person filing the same; without prejudice, however, to the filing of a new petition of the same effect. If the petition shall be deemed to be sufficient, the auditor shall submit the same to the board of city commissioners without delay. If the petition shall be found to be sufficient, the board of city commissioners shall order and fix a date for holding the said election, not less than thirty days nor more than forty days from the date of the auditor's certificate to the board of city commissioners, that a sufficient petition is filed. The board of city commissioners shall make, or cause to be made, publication of notice and all arrangements for holding such election, and the same shall be conducted, returned and the result thereof declared in all respects as are other city elections. The successor of any officer so removed shall hold office during the unexpired term of his predecessor. Any person sought to be removed may be a candidate to succeed himself, and unless he requests otherwise in writing, the clerk shall place his name on the official ballot without nomination. In any such removal election, the candidate receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared elected. At such election if some other person than the incumbent receives the highest number of votes, the incumbent shall thereupon be deemed removed from the office upon qualification of his successor. In case the party who receives the highest number of votes should fail to qualify within ten days after receiving notification of election, the office shall be deemed vacant. If the incumbent receives the highest number of votes, he shall continue in office. This said method of removal shall be cumulative and additional to the methods heretofore provided by law. [1913, ch. 29, § 1; 1911, ch. 67, § 1.]

§ 3836. Initiative. Any proposed ordinance may be submitted to the board of city commissioners by petition signed by electors of the city equal in number to the percentage hereinafter required. The signatures, verification, authentication, inspection, certification, amendment and submission of such petition shall be the same as provided for petition under section 3835. If the petition accompanying the proposed ordinance be signed by electors equal in number to fifteen per centum of the votes cast for all candidates for president of the city commission at the last preceding general municipal election and contains a request that the said ordinance be submitted to a vote of the people if not passed by the board of city commissioners, such board of city commissioners shall either

(a) Pass said ordinance, without alteration, within twenty days after attachment of the auditor's certificate to the accompanying petition, or,

(b) Forthwith, after the auditor shall attach to the petition accompanying such ordinance his certificate of sufficiency, the board of city commissioners shall call a special election, unless a general municipal election is fixed within ninety days thereafter, and at such special or general municipal election, if one is so fixed, such ordinance shall be submitted without alteration to the vote of the electors of said city. But if the petition is signed by not less than twenty-five per centum of the electors, as above defined, then the board of city commissioners shall, within twenty days, pass said ordinance without change, or submit the same at the next general city election occurring not more than thirty days after the auditor's certificate of sufficiency is attached to said petition. The ballots used when voting upon said ordinance shall contain these words: "For the ordinance" (stating the nature of the proposed ordinance), and "Against the ordinance" (stating the nature of the proposed ordinance). If a majority of the qualified electors voting on the proposed ordinance shall vote in favor thereof, such ordinance shall thereupon become a valid and binding ordinance of the city, and any ordinance proposed by petition and which shall be adopted by vote of the people, cannot be repealed or amended except by a vote of the people as long as the city is under the commission form of government.

Any number of proposed ordinances may be voted upon at the same election, in accordance with the provisions of this section, but there shall not be more than one special election in any period of six months for such purposes.

The board of city commissioners may submit a proposition for the repeal of any such ordinance, or for amendments thereto, to be voted upon at any succeeding general city election; and should such proposition so submitted receive a majority of the votes cast thereon at such election, such ordinance shall be thereby repealed or amended accordingly. Whenever any ordinance or proposition is required by this chapter to be submitted to the voters of the city at any election, the city auditor shall cause such ordinance or proposition to be published once in each of the daily newspapers published in said city; such publication to be not more than twenty or less than five days before the submission of such proposition or ordinance to be voted on. [1913, ch. 79, § 2; 1911, ch. 67, § 2.]

§ 3837. Referendum. No ordinance passed by the board of city commissioners, except when otherwise required by the general laws of the state or by the provisions of this chapter, except an ordinance for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety, which contains a statement of its urgency and is passed by a four-fifths vote of the board of city commissioners, shall go into effect before ten days from the time of its final passage; and if during said ten days a petition signed by electors of the city equal in number to at least ten per centum of the entire votes cast for all candidates for president of the city commission at the last preceding general municipal election at which a president of the city commission was elected, protesting against the passage of such ordinance, be presented to the board of city commissioners, the same shall thereupon be suspended from going into operation, and it shall be the duty of the board of city commissioners to reconsider such ordinance, and if the same is not entirely repealed, the board of city commissioners shall submit the ordinance as is provided by subsection (b) of section 3836, to the vote of the electors of the city, either at the general election or at a special municipal election to be called for that purpose; and such ordinance shall not go into effect or become operative unless a majority of the qualified electors voting on the same shall vote in favor thereof. Said petition shall be in all respects in accordance with the provisions of said section 3836, except as to the percentage of signers, and be examined and certified to by the auditor in all respects as therein provided. [1913, ch. 79, § 3; 1911, ch. 67, § 3.]

§ 3838. Form of petition. Petitions provided for in this chapter shall be signed by none but legal voters of the city. Each petition shall contain, in addition to the names of the petitioners, the street and house number in which the petitioner resides, his age and length of residence in the city. It shall also be accompanied by the affidavit of one or more legal voters of the city, stating that the signers thereof were, at the time of signing, legal voters of said city, and the number of signers at the time the affidavit was made. [1913, ch. 79, § 4; 1911, ch. 67, § 4.]

§ 3839. Return to former system. Any city which shall have operated for more than six years under the provisions of this chapter may abandon such organization hereunder and accept the provisions of the general law of the state then applicable to cities of its population, or if now organized under special charter, may resume said special charter by proceeding as follows:

Upon petition of not less than forty per centum of the electors of such city a special election shall be called at which the following propositions only shall be submitted: " Shall the city (name of city) abandon its organization under the commission system and become a city under the general law governing cities of like population? " If a majority of the votes cast at such special election be in favor of such proposition, the officers elected at the next biennial election shall be those then prescribed by the general law of the state for cities of like population and upon the qualification of such officers such city shall become a city under such general law of the state; but such change shall not in any manner or degree affect the property, rights or liabilities of any nature of such city, but shall merely extend to such change in its form of government.

The sufficiency of such petition shall be determined, the election ordered and conducted, and the result declared generally as provided by section 3835 in so far as the provisions thereof are applicable. [1913, ch. 79, § 5; 1911, ch. 67, § 5.]

ARTICLE 1.—INCORPORATION OF VILLAGES.

§ 3840. Townsite to be surveyed and platted. Persons intending to make application for the incorporation of a village as hereinafter provided shall cause an accurate survey and map to be made of the territory intended to be embraced within the limits of such village; such survey shall be made by a practical surveyor, and show the courses and distances of the boundaries thereof, and the quantity of land contained therein, the accuracy of which survey and map shall be verified by the affidavit of such surveyor written thereon or annexed thereto. [R. C. 1905, § 2843; R. C. 1895, § 2344.]

Incorporated towns distinguished from towns or townships. Town of Dell Rapids v. Irving, 7 S. D. 310, 64 N. W. 149, 29 L.R.A. 861.

A town has no authority to assess abutting property for laying water mains. Lee v. Town of Mellette, 15 S. D. 586, 90 N. W. 355.

Who may maintain quo warranto to test validity of organization of village. 21 L.R.A. (N.S.) 685.

§ 3841. Census to be taken. Such persons shall cause an accurate census to be taken of the resident population of such territory as it may be, on some day not more than sixty days previous to the time of presenting such application to the board of county commissioners, as hereinafter provided; which census shall exhibit the name of every head of a family residing within such territory on such day and the number of persons then belonging to such family; and it shall be verified by the affidavit of the person taking the same. [R. C. 1905, § 2844; 1897, ch. 150; R. C. 1899, § 2345.]

§ 3842. Survey, map and census subject to examination. Such survey, map and census when completed and verified as aforesaid shall be left at some convenient place within said territory for examination by those having an interest in such application, for a period of not less than thirty days. [R. C. 1905, § 2845; R. C. 1899, § 2346.]

§ 3843. Petition for incorporation. Such application shall be by petition subscribed by the applicants, and also by not less than one-third of the whole number of qualified voters residing within such territory; and such petition shall set forth the boundaries thereof, the quantity of land embraced according to the survey, and the resident population therein contained according to such census, and such petition shall have attached thereto or written thereupon affidavits verifying the facts alleged therein, and it shall be presented at the time indicated in the notice of such application or as soon thereafter as the board can receive and consider the same. [R. C. 1905, § 2846; R. C. 1899, § 2347.]

§ 3844. Commissioners to make order of incorporation. The board of county commissioners on hearing such application shall first require proof either by affidavit or by oral examination of witnesses before them that the said survey, map and census were subject to examination in the manner and for the period required by section 3842; and if the board is satisfied that the requirements of this chapter have been fully complied with, it shall then make an order declaring that such territory shall with the assent of the qualified voters thereof as hereinafter provided be an incorporated village by the name specified in the application aforesaid, which name shall be different from that of every other town in this state, and it shall also include in such order a notice for a meeting of the qualified voters resident in said proposed village at a convenient place therein to be by them named, on some day within one month therefrom, to determine whether such territory shall be an incorporated village. [R. C. 1905, § 2847; R. C. 1895, § 2348.]

§ 3845. Notice of meeting to be given. The board shall cause ten days' notice to be given of such meeting by publication in a newspaper if one is published in the county, and by posting not less than ten copies of such notice in the most public places in said proposed incorporated village. [R. C. 1905, § 2848; R. C. 1895, § 2349.]

§ 3846. Opening of polls. At the meeting of the qualified voters as herein provided the polls shall be opened at nine o'clock in the forenoon of such day and shall be kept open until four o'clock in the afternoon, when they shall be closed. [R. C. 1905, § 2849; R. C. 1899, § 2350.]

§ 3847. Election of inspectors. The voters at such meeting shall first proceed to the election of three inspectors who, after being duly chosen and qualified and one of their number elected clerk, shall without delay proclaim to the meeting that the polls are now opened and that they are ready to receive the ballots of the voters. [R. C. 1905, § 2850; R. C. 1899, § 2351.]

§ 3848. Manner of voting. The qualified voters of said proposed incorporated village shall vote by ballot, having thereon the words, "for incorporation, yes," or the words "for incorporation, no;" and if a majority of the votes given at such meeting shall have thereon the word "no," the voters of such proposed village shall be deemed not to have assented to the incorporation thereof as a village and no further proceedings shall be had in reference thereto, but if a majority of such ballots shall have thereon the word "yes," such territory shall from that time be deemed an incorporated village and shall thereafter, for all purposes except the payment of any prior bonded indebtedness, be separate and disconnected from any civil township of which it theretofore formed a part and to have continuance thereafter by the name and style specified in the order made by the board of county commissioners as hereinbefore provided; and the inspectors of such election shall make a statement showing the whole number of ballots cast at such election, the number having the word "yes" thereon, and the number having the word "no" thereon, which statement shall be verified by the affidavit of such inspectors and shall be returned to the board of county commissioners at its next session which, if satisfied of the legality of such election, shall make an order declaring that said village has been incorporated by the name adopted, which order shall be conclusive of such incorporation in all suits by or against such corporation; and the existence of such corporation by the name and style aforesaid shall thereafter be judicially taken notice of in all courts in this state without specially pleading or alleging the same. [R. C. 1905, § 2851; 1893, ch. 129, § 1; R. C. 1895, § 2352.]

§ 3849. Division of village into districts. Such inspectors, when they shall have returned the statement as aforesaid, shall next proceed to divide said village into not less than three nor more than seven districts, having due regard to the equitable apportionment of the population among the same, and the convenience and contiguity of such districts. [R. C. 1905, § 2852; R. C. 1895, § 2353.]

§ 3850. Notice of election. They shall also give ten days' notice by publication in a newspaper if one is published in such village and by posting such notices in five public places therein, of an election to be held in such village for the purpose of electing officers thereof, naming the place therein and the day upon which the same will be held, but the day named shall be within twenty days from the posting of such notices. Notice of each subsequent election shall be given in like manner by the clerk of said village. [R. C. 1905, § 2853; R. C. 1895, § 2354.]

Mandamus from circuit court to compel president to call election when none held on regular election day. State v. Young, 6 S. D. 406, 61 N. W. 165.

§ 3851. Annual election, when held. An election for officers of said village, after the first election, shall be held annually on the third Tuesday of March of each year, and at every such election the preceding board of trustees or any of them shall act as inspectors thereof. [R. C. 1905, § 2854; R. C. 1895, § 2355; 1903, ch. 93, § 1.]

Failure to call annual election; mandamus proper remedy. State ex rel. McGregor v. Young, 6 S. D. 406, 61 N. W. 165.

§ 3852. How long polls shall remain open. At all elections in said village the polls shall be open at nine o'clock in the forenoon and shall not be finally closed until four o'clock in the afternoon of said day. [R. C. 1905, § 2855; R. C. 1895, § 2356.]

§ 3853. Inspectors to be judges of election. Such inspectors shall preside at such first election and be the inspectors thereof, and in the receiving and canvassing of votes shall be governed by the laws then existing, so far as they are applicable, for the election of county officers. [R. C. 1905, § 2856; R. C. 1899, § 2357.]

§ 3854. What village officers to be elected. There shall be elected at the first and at each subsequent election one trustee from each district in said village, and also a clerk, assessor, treasurer, marshal and justice of the peace, who shall respectively hold their offices until the third Tuesday in March next following or until their successors are elected and qualified; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the respective offices of clerk, treasurer, assessor and marshal from being held by one and the same person. [R. C. 1905, § 2857; R. C. 1899, § 2358; 1903, ch. 93, § 2.]

§ 3855. Highest number of votes elects. Duty of inspectors. The persons receiving the highest number of votes for the office of trustee shall be declared elected as such trustees, and the persons receiving the highest number of votes respectively for clerk, marshal, assessor, treasurer and justice of the peace, as designated by the ballot for such office, shall be declared elected; and if two or more shall receive an equal and the highest number of votes, and there is no choice, the inspectors of such election shall forthwith determine by lot which shall be deemed elected; and it shall further be the duty of such inspectors to make a certified statement over their own signatures, of the persons elected to fill the several offices in said village, and file the same with the county auditor of the county within ten days after the date of such election; and no act or ordinance of any board of trustees chosen at such election shall be valid until the provisions of this section are substantially complied with. [R. C. 1905, § 2858; R. C. 1895, § 2359.]

Failure of election officers to make certified statement of result of election will not render election void. State ex rel. Walkin v. Shanks, 25 S. D. 55, 125 N. W. 122.

§ 3856. County auditor to make record of statement. It shall be the duty of the county auditor of the proper county to make a record of such certified statement, for which services there shall be paid the same fee as is allowed for similar services in other cases. [R. C. 1905, § 2859; R. C. 1899, § 2360.]

§ 3857. Vacancy in board of trustees, how filled. A vacancy occurring in the board of trustees or in any corporation office shall be filled by appointment at a special meeting of the trustees called for that purpose, but such appointment shall be made from the district if a trustee is appointed, and shall in no case extend beyond the annual election provided for in this chapter. [R. C. 1905, § 2860; R. C. 1899, § 2361.]

§ 3858. Oath of officers. The board of trustees chosen as aforesaid shall elect a president from its own body, and such president, trustees and all other officers-elect shall within five days after such election take and subscribe before some person authorized to administer the same the usual oath or affirmation for the faithful performance of the duties of their respective offices. [R. C. 1905, § 2861; R. C. 1899, § 2362.]

§ 3859. Board of trustees a body corporate. The president and trustees of such village and their successors in office shall constitute a body politic and corporate, by the name of the "village of," and may prosecute and defend suits to which they are a party. [R. C. 1905, § 2862; R. C. 1895, § 2363.]

§ 3860. Notice of special meetings. Special meetings of the qualified voters may be called by the clerk by order of the trustees of said village, by giving ten days' notice thereof in a newspaper if any is printed in such village, otherwise by posting such notices in five public places therein, and such notice shall state the object for which such meeting is called. [R. C. 1905, § 2863; R. C. 1895, § 2364.]

ARTICLE 2.—POWERS OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

§ 3861. General powers. The boards of trustees shall have the following powers:

1. To have a common seal and alter the same.
2. To purchase, hold or convey any estate, real or personal, for the use of the corporation, so far as such purchase may be necessary, to carry out the objects contemplated by this chapter, to provide for the erection and care of all public buildings necessary for the use of the village, to purchase such real estate as they may determine shall be necessary for the purposes of streets, alleys, parks and public grounds, and to sell and dispose of the same when the necessity therefor no longer exists, and to control the finances and property of the corporation.
3. To organize fire companies, hook and ladder companies, to regulate their government and the times and manner of their exercise; to provide all necessary apparatus for the extinguishment of fires; to make owners of buildings provide ladders and fire buckets, which are hereby declared to be appurtenances to the real estate and exempt from execution, seizure or sale; and if the owner shall refuse to procure suitable ladders or fire buckets after reasonable notice, the trustees may procure and deliver the same to him; and in default of payment thereof may recover of said owner the value of said ladder and fire buckets, by suit before the justice of the peace of the village, and the costs accruing thereby; to regulate the storage of gunpowder and other material; to direct the construction of a place for the safe deposit of ashes; and may under any order by it entered upon the proper book of the board, visit or appoint one or more fire wardens to visit, and examine, at all reasonable hours, dwelling houses, lots, yards, inclosures and buildings of every description, discover if any of them are in a dangerous condition, and provide proper remedies for such dangers; to regulate the manner of putting up stoves and stovepipes; to prevent out-fires and the use of fireworks and the discharge of firearms within the limits of said corporation, or such parts thereof as it may think proper; to compel the inhabitants of such village to aid in extinguishment of fire and prevent its communication to other buildings, under such penalties as are in this chapter provided; to construct and preserve reservoirs, wells, pumps and other waterworks, and to regulate the use thereof and, generally, to establish other measures of prudence for the prevention or extinguishment of fires as it shall deem proper.

4. To construct and keep in repair culverts, drains, sewers, catch basins, manholes and cesspools, and to regulate the use thereof, and to regulate the construction and use of any culvert, drain, sewer, catch basin, manhole or cesspool within the corporate limits and to declare what shall constitute a nuisance, and to abate and remove the same, and impose fines upon persons who may create, continue or suffer nuisances to exist, and take such other measures for the preservation of the public health as it shall deem necessary; to license, tax, regulate, suppress and prohibit hawkers, peddlers, salesmen, pawnbrokers, keepers of ordinaries and other exhibitions, shows and amusements within the corporation.

5. To regulate, restrain and prohibit the running at large of horses, cattle, swine, sheep, goats, geese and dogs, and to impose a tax or license on dogs, not to exceed two dollars on each male dog and three dollars on each female dog owned or kept within such village.

6. To license, regulate, tax or prohibit and suppress pool, billiards, bagatelle, pigeonhole or any other tables or implements kept or used for a similar purpose in any place of public resort, pin alleys and ball alleys; to restrain, suppress and prohibit gambling and gambling houses, and other disorderly conduct and places, lotteries and all fraudulent devices and practices for the purpose of gambling or obtaining money or property, and to prohibit the sale or exhibition of obscene or immoral publications, print, pictures or illustrations, and authorize the seizure and destruction of gambling apparatus; to suppress bawdy and disorderly houses, houses of ill fame or assignation within the limits of the village, and within one mile of the outer boundaries of the village.

7. To license, regulate or restrain auction establishments, traveling peddlers and public exhibitions within the corporation.

8. To establish and regulate markets and build market houses.

9. To lay out, open, grade and otherwise improve the streets, alleys, sewers, sidewalks and crossings, and to keep them in repair, and to vacate the same.

10. To appoint street commissioners and also fire wardens, not exceeding three.

11. To regulate the building and use of sidewalks and all structures thereunder; to require the owner or occupant of any premises to keep sidewalks in front of or along the same free from snow and other obstructions, and to prohibit the riding or driving thereon, except to cross the same; to provide for the building, use and regulation of crosswalks, curbs and gutters; to regulate and prevent the use of streets, alleys, sidewalks and public grounds for signs, signposts, awnings, telegraph and telephone poles, horse troughs, scales, racks, posting handbills and advertisements; to regulate and prevent the throwing or depositing of ashes, offal, manure, dirt, garbage or anything offensive in, and to prevent injury to any street, avenue, alley or public ground; to regulate and prohibit the exhibition or carrying of banners, placards, advertisements or handbills in the streets or public grounds or upon the sidewalk; to regulate and prevent the flying of flags, banners or signs across the street or from houses; to regulate traffic and sales upon the streets, sidewalks and public places; to regulate the speed of horses and other animals, vehicles, bicycles, motorcycles, automobiles, cars, locomotives and traction engines within the limits of the corporation.

12. To establish and erect a jail for the confinement of disorderly persons, vagrants, tramps and idle persons, and persons convicted of violating any village ordinance, and make rules and regulations for the government of the same, and appoint necessary jailers and keepers; to prevent and suppress riots, routs, affrays, noises, disturbances and disorderly assemblies in any public or private place.

13. To insure the public property of such village.

14. To establish and regulate cemeteries within, or within one mile of the corporation, and acquire lands therefor by purchase or otherwise, and cause cemeteries to be removed and prohibit their establishment within one mile of the corporation.

15. To plant trees upon public grounds and along the streets of such village, and to provide for their culture and preservation, and to enclose any public square or other public grounds within said corporation.

16. To levy and collect annual taxes, not exceeding twenty mills on the dollar, assessed valuation.

17. To direct the location and regulate the management and construction of packing houses, smoke houses, renderies and slaughter houses; and prohibit any offensive or unwholesome business or establishment within, or within one mile of the limits of the corporation; to compel the owner of any grocery, cellar, stable, pigsty, sewer or other unwholesome or nauseous house or place; to cleanse, abate or remove the same, and regulate the location thereof.

18. To make and establish by-laws, ordinances and regulations not repugnant to the laws of this state as may be necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this chapter, and to repeal, alter or amend the same as shall seem to the board of trustees of such village to require; but every by-law, ordinance or regulation, unless in case of emergency, shall be published in a newspaper in such village, if one is printed therein, or posted in five public places, at least ten days before the same shall take effect.

19. To prescribe fines, penalties and forfeitures for violations of this chapter, or of any by-laws or ordinances by it established, not exceeding ten dollars and the costs of prosecution for any one offense, which may be recovered by action in the name of the corporation, but such board may remit the whole or any part of the fine, costs, penalty or forfeiture; provided, that the fine assessed for the violation of any ordinance requiring a license shall not be less than the amount required to be paid for such license, although it may exceed the sum of ten dollars.

20. To authorize the construction and maintenance of street railways, water mains, water pipes, gas mains, gas pipes, steam heating mains and steam heating pipes, electric light systems, power systems and telephone systems, along or through or under the streets and alleys and public grounds within the corporate limits, and to grant franchises and rights to persons, associations or corporations, for such purposes, for a period not exceeding twenty years, and to regulate the same. Provided, however, that all franchises granted pursuant to the provisions of this act shall not be deemed exclusive or irrevocable, but subject to the regulatory powers of the board of trustees herein. [1913, ch. 291; 1907, ch. 268; R. C. 1905, § 2864; 1897, ch. 148; R. C. 1899, § 2365; 1905, ch. 186.]

For power of city council as to matters covered by this section, see § 3599 and annotations thereto.

4. Decision of municipal corporation as to what shall constitute nuisance should be sustained on appeal to court unless palpably unreasonable. Colton v. South Dakota Central Land Co., 25 S. D. 309, 28 L.R.A. (N.S.) 122, 126 N. W. 507.

18. By-law passed by trustees, but never published or posted, of no force, in absence of emergency. O'Hara v. Town of Park River, 1 N. D. 279, 47 N. W. 380.

19. City or village ordinances are not "criminal laws." Litchville v. Hanson, 19 N. D. 672, 124 N. W. 1119, Ann. Cas. 1912D, 876.

§ 3862. Extended powers. All powers now by law conferred upon the city council in articles 17 and 18 of chapter 30 of the Political Code of 1905 and all acts amendatory thereto [sections 3689-3743 herein], are given to the boards of trustees of incorporated villages. [1913, ch. 288.]

The title of the foregoing is "An act extending the powers of the board of trustees of incorporated villages, relative to sidewalks, sewers, paving, and water mains."

§ 3863. Power to regulate use of streets. Registration and certification of vehicles. That in addition to the powers already conferred upon them by law, the boards of trustees of villages shall have and are hereby given the power to regulate by ordinance, the traffic over and use of their streets, alleys and public grounds by automobiles, motor cycles, motor trucks, motor cars and traction engines, and to provide for the registration and identification of such vehicles owned or operated within the corporate limits of such villages, and at the expense of the owners or operators thereof. Motor cycle as a motor vehicle within statutes regulating the latter and other similar vehicles. 21 L.R.A.(N.S.) 41.

§ 3864. Jurisdiction of trustees over public grounds. The trustees shall have jurisdiction over any commons or public grounds belonging to said village and shall have power to regulate with the consent of the majority of the owners thereof, the banks, shores and wharves of that portion of any navigable stream within the corporate limits, but no ferries heretofore, or which may hereafter be established by law shall be prejudiced or in any manner affected by the provisions of this section. [R. C. 1905, § 2865; R. C. 1895, § 2366.]

ARTICLE 3.—AUDITING AND PAYMENT OF ACCOUNTS.

§ 3865. Appropriation of moneys. All moneys, however derived, belonging to such corporation shall only be appropriated for such objects and defraying such expenses as accrue or necessarily arise in the exercise of powers granted by this chapter. No appropriation shall be made without an order to that effect entered upon a proper book to be kept for that purpose by such board. [R. C. 1905, § 2866; R. C. 1899, § 2367.]

§ 3866. Accounts must be audited. No account or claim against said village shall be audited or allowed by the board of trustees unless it is made out fully and itemized, and every such account audited shall be numbered from one upwards in the order they were presented and a memorandum of the same entered upon a book to be kept exclusively for that purpose. [R. C. 1905, § 2867; R. C. 1895, § 2368.]

§ 3867. Payment of accounts. No account or claim shall be paid unless audited and allowed by the board as aforesaid, and no moneys shall be drawn from the treasury except upon a warrant from the treasurer signed by the president of said village and attested by the clerk thereof. [R. C. 1905, § 2868; R. C. 1895, § 2369.]

ARTICLE 4.—CORPORATE INDEBTEDNESS.

§ 3868. Contracting loans. Payment of judgments. No village incorporated under this chapter shall have the power to borrow money or incur any indebtedness, liability or issue bonds to fund any existing indebtedness unless five-eighths of the citizen owners of the taxable property of such village as evidenced by the assessment roll of the preceding year, petition the board of trustees to contract such debt, loan or bonds, and such petition shall have attached thereto, affidavits establishing the genuineness of the signatures of the same; and for any debt created thereby the trustee shall add to the tax duplicate of each year successively, a levy sufficient to pay the annual interest on such debt or loan with an addition of not less than five cents on the one hundred dollars to create a sinking fund for the liquidation of the principal thereof; provided, further, that whenever any final judgment has been heretofore or may be hereafter obtained against a village and if there shall not be on hand sufficient funds applicable for the purpose of the payment of the same, the trustees shall in addition to all other levies provided for by law, and at the same time annually, levy a tax upon the taxable property of such village, not exceeding in amount one dollar on each one hundred dollars of the assessed valuation in any one year, which shall be used in the payment thereof; provided, further, that if the judgment, plus one year's interest, be not more than one per cent of the assessed valuation, then such levy shall provide for the payment of the same in one year, but if the judgment with one year's interest exceeds one per cent of the valuation, then the trustees shall in one resolution levy a tax for a sufficient number of years to pay the entire amount due; in the event that there is more than one judgment the same shall be paid as herein provided in the order of the docketing of the same with the clerk of the district court of the county in which such village is located; provided, further, that no execution shall issue on any such judgment or judgments nor shall the public property of the village be subject to levy or sold in satisfaction of any such judgments.

The county auditor shall make out, charge and extend upon the tax list against each description of real property and against all personal property, and upon all taxable property of the village all such taxes for judgments he is so notified have been levied by the village in which the property is situated and taxable in the same manner in which the village, county and state tax is extended and deliver it to the county treasurer at the same time.

Provided, further, that when the resolution of the village taxing officers provides for a levy for more than one year, then to annually thereafter and as long as such levy is in force, spread such levy in the manner above set forth without any further notice from such village officers.

After the final entry of any judgment against a village the trustees may issue certificates of indebtedness evidencing the debt, its amount and interest, and payable as funds are collected by the annual levies aforesaid; said certificates may be issued in the total sum of such judgment or may be issued in separate certificates of one hundred dollars each or any multiple or fraction thereof, as the trustees may determine, and shall be presented to the village treasurer on January first and July first of each year until fully paid, for indorsement of funds available on said date, for the satisfaction of the same; such certificates may be at any time, upon there being sufficient funds to fully pay the same, called in by the treasurer for payment, and unless the same shall be surrendered for payment within five days thereafter the interest thereon shall cease; such certificates shall bear the same rate of interest as the judgment or judgments which they represent, and such interest shall be payable semi-annually. Such certificates may be thereafter presented to the clerk of the district court of the county in which such judgment is docketed for certification as to the date of docketing and amount of said judgment, and may thereafter be presented to the auditor of the county in which such village is located who shall certify as to the date and amount of the tax levy provided for its payment. Such certificates so indorsed shall be assignable and negotiable.

The treasurer shall keep separate the funds so raised and to pay out of it the semi-annual interest on such judgments and the balance on the principal as fast as the same is accumulated. [1911, ch. 312; 1907, ch. 265; R. C. 1905, § 2869; R. C. 1895, § 2370.]

Petition by resident owners of five-eighths of taxable property gives jurisdiction to make improvements. Hubbell v. Town of Custer City, 15 S. D. 55, 87 N. W. 520.

ARTICLE 5.—QUALIFICATION OF OFFICERS.

§ 3869. Certain officers to give bonds. The clerk, assessor, treasurer, marshal and justice of the peace shall within ten days after their election or appointment each give a bond payable to the village with freehold sureties, to such an amount as the board of trustees shall direct; but the bonds of the treasurer and marshal shall respectively be for double the amount of the estimated tax duplicate for the current year. [R. C. 1905, § 2870; R. C. 1899, § 2371.]

§ 3780. Books, etc., to be delivered to successor. All books, vouchers, moneys or other property belonging to the corporation and in the charge or possession of an officer of the same shall be delivered to his successor when qualified. [R. C. 1905, § 2871; R. C. 1899, § 2372.]

ARTICLE 6.—LEVY AND COLLECTION OF TAXES.

In the title of the act of 1911 constituting this article it is recited that the act is to provide for the levy and collection of taxes in villages and to repeal §§ 2872, 2873, 2874, 2875, 2876, 2877, 2878, 2879, 2880, 2881, 2882, and 2883 of the Revised Codes of 1905.

§ 3871. Assessor, duties, compensation. The village assessor shall perform all duties necessary for the assessing of property within the village limits for the purpose of levying village, county, school and state taxes. Upon the completion of the assessment-roll he shall return it to the village clerk on or before the second Monday of June, and said village clerk shall deliver the same to the village board of equalization at the regular meeting thereof. The compensation of said village assessor shall be three dollars per day, and no more, for the time actually employed in making and completing said assessment. [1911, ch. 294, § 1.]

§ 3872. Board of equalization, meeting. The board of equalization shall be composed of the board of trustees of said village, and the village clerk, who shall act as clerk to the same, and shall meet on the second Monday in June in each year. The president of the board of trustees shall be chairman of the village board of equalization. [1911, ch. 294, § 2.]

§ 3873. Duties, complaints and grievances. The village board of equalization shall meet at the usual place of meeting of the village board, and they shall immediately proceed to examine, ascertain and see that all taxable property in their village has been properly placed upon the list and duly valued by the assessor; and in case any property, real or personal, shall have been omitted by inadvertence or otherwise, it shall be the duty of the said board to place the same upon the list, with the true value thereof, and proceed to correct the assessment so that each tract or lot of real property, and each article, parcel or class of personal property shall be entered on the assessment list at the true value thereof; but the assessment of the property of any person shall not be raised until each person shall have been duly notified of the intent of the board to do so, and on the application of any person considering himself aggrieved, they shall review the assessment and correct the same, as shall appear to them just; any two of said officers are authorized to act at such meeting, and they may adjourn from day to day until they shall finish the hearing of all cases presented on that day; provided, that they shall complete the equalization within ten days.

All complaints or grievances of individual residents of the village in reference to the assessments of real or personal property shall be heard and decided by the village board; provided, further, that the complaints of non-residents in reference to the assessment of any property, real or personal, and of others, in reference to any assessment made after the meeting of the village board of equalization, shall be heard and determined by the county board.

The clerk of the village board of equalization shall keep an accurate record of the proceedings of said board, a copy of which shall be furnished the county auditor and by him filed as a part of the assessment returns. [1911, ch. 294, § 3.]

§ 3874. Tax levy, made when. The board of trustees shall on the first Monday in July of each year, or within ten days thereafter, make a tax levy for the current fiscal year, and the clerk of said village shall immediately thereafter notify the county auditor in writing of amount of tax so levied. [1911, ch. 294, § 4.]

§ 3875. Duty of county auditor. It shall be the duty of the county auditor in making out the tax list for said year to place the amount of said village taxes, in accordance with said levy, in separate columns in the lists of both personal property and lands, opposite the respective names and parcels of land on said lists. [1911, ch. 294, § 5.]

§ 3876. Duty of county treasurer. The county treasurer of such county shall thereupon collect such taxes, together with the interest and penalty thereon, if any, in the same manner as the general taxes for that year, and shall pay over to the village treasurer of such village all sums so collected, at the end of each month, upon the demand of the village treasurer, and upon an order from the county auditor. [1911, ch. 294, § 6.]

§ 3877. Special taxes assessed to be a lien. All taxes assessed by the board of trustees of villages incorporated under the provisions of this chapter for the grading, paving or otherwise improving the streets of the village, or for the building or repairing sidewalks, shall be a lien on the lots or pieces of ground subject to the same from the time the amount thereof shall have been ascertained, and in case any error or irregularity should occur in the levying or collecting any such taxes, proceeding may be taken anew so as to obviate any such error or irregularity. [1911, ch. 294, § 7; R. C. 1905, § 2880; R. C. 1895, § 2381.]

§ 3878. What costs may be included in special tax. The costs and expenses of grading, filling, paving, macadamizing, culverting, curbing or ditching or otherwise improving streets, sidewalks, alleys, avenues or lanes at their intersections, may be included in the special tax levied for the improvement of any street, sidewalk, alley, avenue or lane as may be deemed best by the board of trustees of such village. [1911, ch. 294, § 8; R. C. 1905, § 2882; R. C. 1895, § 2383.]

Not authorized to make special assessment for laying water mains. Lee v. Town of Mellette, 15 S. D. 586, 90 N. W. 855.

§ 3879. Special taxes, how collectible. Such special tax shall be due and may be collected as the improvements are completed. It shall be the duty of the village clerk to deliver to the county auditor a duplicate of all assessments so levied on or before the first day of September of each year, and the county auditor shall extend the assessments so made in the proper column against the property assessed, and each shall be collected and the payment thereof enforced, and such assessments shall be paid over by the county treasurer when collected to the village treasurer in like manner as other taxes. [1911, ch. 294, § 9; R. C. 1905, § 2881; R. C. 1899, § 2382.]

ARTICLE 7.—SPECIAL VILLAGE TAXES.

§ 3880. Taxes for water and light plants. The board of trustees of any village in this state having before the passage of this act [article] installed a water and light plant in such village is authorized to levy a special tax sufficient to pay the cost therefor not exceeding in any case the sum of one per cent per annum upon the assessed valuation of all the taxable property within such village; said taxes shall be collected and paid over to the village treasurer the same as other taxes, and shall be used for no other purpose. [1913, ch. 289.]

ARTICLE 8.—VALIDATING SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS.

The title of the act constituting this article is as follows: "An act validating special assessments and taxes made or levied in cities and villages since 1903 and establishing certain rules of evidence relating thereto."

§ 3881. Special assessments, validated. Every special assessment or part thereof made or levied by the officers of any cities for any purpose authorized by law, heretofore and since the year 1903, and all taxes levied therefor by any board or officer authorized by law to make the same, is hereby legalized and made valid in all respects and purposes, without regard to any defects, errors or omissions in the proceedings therefor, the same as if in all things made in conformity to the laws then in force. [1911, ch. 72, § 1.]

§ 3882. Conclusive evidence. What is. In any action or proceedings where the legality or validity of any of the said taxes, assessments or the warrants issued thereon, is called into question, the production of evidence that any such special assessment was duly approved and confirmed by the city council or board of village trustees, shall be deemed conclusive evidence that every step in the proceedings therefor has been duly and regularly made in the manner and form provided by law. [1911, ch. 72, § 2.]

ARTICLE 9.—COLLECTION OF ROAD TAXES IN VILLAGES.

§ 3883. Board of trustees may levy road taxes. The board of trustees of each incorporated village shall have power to levy and collect a tax for the grading, improvement and maintenance of the streets, alleys and highways and for the construction and repair of crossings, culverts and bridges within the corporate limits of such villages. This tax shall be levied on or before the third Tuesday of May in each year. This tax shall be based upon and computed on the assessment of the village as returned by the state board of equalization for the preceding year. This tax shall be levied in a specific amount, and the rate thereof shall not exceed five mills on the dollar of the assessed valuation; but it shall not be considered as being any part of those village taxes which by laws now in effect are limited to ten mills on the dollar of the assessed valuation. [1907, ch. 267, § 1.]

§ 3884. Tax may be paid in work or cash. Any person against whom, or against whose property, such tax has been levied shall have the right to pay the same in work to be performed under the supervision and direction of the street commissioners at the rate of one dollar and fifty cents for eight hours of work of one man, or three dollars for eight hours' work of one man with one two-horse team. All taxes not paid in work or cash to the street commissioners shall be collected by the officer collecting the taxes for such village. [1907, ch. 267, § 2.]

§ 3885. Village clerk to provide road tax books. It shall be the duty of the village clerk to provide each street commissioner with a suitable book containing the name of each person, firm or corporation liable for road poll, personal property or real estate road taxes and the amount of such taxes and the description of the real property upon which the tax is levied. [1907, ch. 267, § 3.]

§ 3886. Duties of street commissioners. Each street commissioner shall give at least twenty-four hours' notice to each person against whom, or against whose property, a road tax has been levied of the time and place where the work is to be performed. He shall write the word "paid" opposite each item of tax paid to him in work or in cash and return the road tax book to the village clerk on or before the fifteenth day of September with his affidavit attached stating that each item of tax opposite which the word "paid" is written has been paid in work or in cash, and that each item of tax opposite which the word "paid" is not written remains unpaid and delinquent. [1907, ch. 267, § 4.]

§ 3887. Village clerk to make list of delinquent road taxes. In all cases where the village taxes are computed by the county auditor, it shall be the duty of the village clerk on or before the first day of October of each year to make out and deliver to the county auditor a complete statement of all unpaid road taxes in his village as the same appear in the road tax book returned to him by the street commissioners, and it shall be the duty of such county auditor to make proper entries of such delinquent road taxes on the tax list for the current year. In case the village is preparing its own tax list, the village clerk shall cause such delinquent road tax to be properly entered on the village tax list. [1907, ch. 267, § 5.]

§ 3888. Certain township laws applicable to villages. The same powers and duties in regard to the levy, collection and expenditure of road taxes, which are now by law conferred and imposed upon township supervisors, township road overseers, justices and constables are hereby conferred and imposed upon the corresponding village officers in so far as such powers and duties do not conflict with the provisions of this article. The village trustees shall also have power to expend any portion of the road taxes levied by and in such village in the improvement of public highways outside of the corporate limits of such village but leading thereto; provided, that the authorities having jurisdiction over such highways do not object. [1907, ch. 267, § 6.]

For the township laws referred to in this section, see sections 2004-2034.

ARTICLE 10.—POWERS AND DUTIES OF OFFICERS.

§ 3889. Duties of village treasurer. The treasurer of each incorporated village shall so keep his accounts as to show where and from what sources all moneys paid him have been derived and to whom and when such moneys or any part thereof have been paid. The treasurer shall grant all licenses authorized by this chapter upon the presentation of the receipt of the marshal that said money therefor has been paid to said marshal. His books, accounts and vouchers shall at all times be subject to the examination of the board of trustees, and it is its duty to examine the same at a regular meeting of such board on some day between the first and last Mondays of February in each year and have a settlement with said treasurer. [1909, ch. 229; R. C. 1905, § 2884; R. C. 1895, § 2385.]

§ 3890. Board of trustees to publish receipts and expenditures. It shall be the duty of the board of trustees immediately after the annual settlement with the treasurer of said corporation to publish in a newspaper if one is published therein, or if there is no newspaper then by posting in three or more public places, an exhibit of the receipts and expenditures specifying the sources of such receipts, what appropriations were made, for what objects, and the specific amount of each. [R. C. 1905, § 2885; R. C. 1899, § 2386.]

§ 3891. Duties of clerk. The clerk of such village shall have the custody of the records, books and papers of the board of trustees and shall attend all meetings and keep a record of the proceedings of said board, and shall perform all other duties appertaining to his office, as required of him by the by-laws. [R. C. 1905, § 2886; R. C. 1895, § 2387.]

§ 3892. Powers of marshal. The marshal of such village shall be a peace officer and shall possess the powers and be subject to the liabilities possessed and conferred by law upon sheriffs in executing the orders of the trustees or enforcing the by-laws and ordinances of said village, and shall have the same general powers to serve civil process as is now possessed by constables of the county. [1913, ch. 195; R. C. 1905, § 2887; R. C. 1895, § 2388.]

Laws 1907, ch. 269, amended R. C. 1905, § 2887, to read as follows: "Whereas, village marshals throughout the state have acted as constables by reason of a misapprehension as to the law, it is hereby provided that all past acts of said marshals, wherein they assumed to act as constables, is hereby legalized and made of the same effect and validity as if said marshals had been constables and that said marshals shall not be liable either civilly or criminally for so acting."

Acceptance by marshal of less than legal salary on bills rendered by him amounts to adjudication of claim. O'Hara v. Town of Park River, 1 N. D. 279, 47 N. W. 380.

§ 3893. Trustees to superintend grading, etc. The board of trustees shall superintend the grading, paving and improving of streets and the building and repairing of sidewalks. [R. C. 1905, § 2888; R. C. 1899, § 2389.]

§ 3894. Firewardens, duties of. The firewardens shall attend all fires and give their personal superintendence to extinguish the same, and do all other acts required by the by-laws and obey all orders given by the board of trustees in relation to the fire department. Trustees shall by virtue of their office be firewardens. [R. C. 1905, § 2889; R. C. 1899, § 2390.]

§ 3895. Compensation of village officers. The trustees, clerk, assessor, treasurer, marshal and justice of the peace shall respectively receive for their services such compensation as the board of trustees in their by-laws may decide; and the board shall cause other officers of such village to be paid for their services a just and reasonable compensation. [R. C. 1905, § 2890; R. C. 1895, § 2391.]

ARTICLE 11.—SIDEWALKS AND STREETS.

§ 3896. Sidewalks, streets, etc. Petition for building or repairing. Whenever two-thirds of the resident owners in number or in value of real estate bounding both sides of any street not less than one square, shall petition to have such street graded, paved or otherwise improved or the sidewalk thereof built or repaired, or when two-thirds of the owners of real estate in number or in value on one side of such street shall desire a sidewalk on that side, it shall be the duty of such board to levy and cause to be collected by tax upon the owners of the real estate on such street or part of street such a sum of money as is necessary for the improvement of said street or sidewalk or the building of said sidewalk in front of each of the respective lots or at the side of any corner lot or lots or real estate; provided, however, that no real estate shall be taxed as aforesaid for sidewalks built or improvements done at a greater distance from the front of said real estate than one-half the distance to the opposite side of said street. [R. C. 1905, § 2891; 1883, ch. 107, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 2392.]

Right of abutting owner to prevent construction of sidewalk in front of his property. 13 L.R.A.(N.S.) 1110.

Joining in petition for local improvement as estoppel to deny benefits. 36 L.R.A. (N.S.) 41.

§ 3897. No one exempt from highway tax. Nothing contained in this article shall exempt the inhabitants of any village from the payment of highway taxes legally assessed, nor from the formation of one or more road districts irrespective of the corporate limits of such village. [R. C. 1905, § 2892; R. C. 1895, § 2393.]

ARTICLE 12.—EXTENSION OF CORPORATE LIMITS.

§ 3898. Addition to corporation. When two-thirds of the owners of a tier of out-lots adjoining an incorporated village shall sign a petition asking that the corporate limits of said village be extended so as to include said out-lots, the board of trustees of said village shall cause said petition to be recorded and make an order that said tier of out-lots shall thereafter be included and constituted a part of said corporation, and the inhabitants residing thereon and owners thereof shall be subject to and entitled to all privileges of said corporation. [R. C. 1905, § 2893; R. C. 1895, § 2394.]

§ 3899. Annexing additional lots. Whenever there shall be lots laid off and platted, adjoining such village, and a record of the same is made in the register of deeds' office of the proper county, or whenever there shall be lots laid off and platted as above, adjacent but separated from said village by an unplatted strip of territory lying between the original plat and such additional platted territory, if said unplatted strip does not exceed one-fourth of the present area of such village, the board of trustees may by resolution extend the boundary of such village so as to include such lots or such lots and such strips as the case may be, and the lots, or lots and strip thus annexed, shall thereafter form a part of such village and be within the jurisdiction thereof. The trustees shall immediately thereafter file a copy of such resolution, together with a plat and map or survey defining the boundaries of such additionally included territory in the office of the register of deeds of the county. [1907, ch. 263; R. C. 1905, § 2894; R. C. 1895, § 2395.]

§ 3900. Proceedings of trustees to annex additions. When any village shall desire to annex contiguous territory thereto not platted or recorded, the trustees shall present to the board of county commissioners a petition setting forth the reasons for such annexation, and shall accompany the same with a map or plat accurately describing by metes and bounds the territory proposed to be attached, which shall be verified by affidavit. Such trustees shall give thirty days' notice by publication in a newspaper printed in such village, if any, otherwise in the county, and if there is none in the county then by posting such notice in five or more public places within the village; a copy of such notice shall be served upon the owner of such territory if known and is a resident of the county. [R. C. 1905, § 2895; R. C. 1895, § 2396.]

§ 3901. County commissioners to hear and order annexation. The board of county commissioners upon the reception of such petition shall consider the same and shall hear the testimony offered for or against such annexation, and if after inspection of the map and the testimony being heard such board is of the opinion that the prayer of such petition should be granted it shall cause an entry to be made on the order book specifying the territory annexed, with the boundaries thereof according to the survey, which entry or an attested copy thereof shall be conclusive evidence in all courts of such annexation. [R. C. 1905, § 2896; R. C. 1899, § 2397.]

ARTICLE 13.— DIVISION OF VILLAGE AND TOWNSHIP FUNDS.

§ 3902. Division of funds and property. Whenever any village organized under chapter 31 of the political code of North Dakota [chapter 47 herein] shall have been a part of the township for township purposes, and such village shall have determined, under the provisions of said chapter 31 [chapter 47 herein] to become a separate and independent municipality, and such village and township have, prior to such separation, owned property jointly and together, such joint property and any joint funds or debts of said village and township shall be divided between said village and township in proportion to the equalized valuation of the property of said village and township, as fixed and determined by the board of county commissioners of the county in which they are situated, being the last equalization made by said county board previous to such separation, and in making such division, if the property held is real estate situated within either the village or township, then such real estate shall belong to the municipality [in which it is situated, and such municipality] shall pay to the other its proportion of the value thereof and debts; and in case the authorities of such village and township cannot agree upon the value of such real estate, or upon the value of any indivisible property, held jointly, or their just proportion of indebtedness owed, then the authorities of either such village or township may, upon five days' notice of the time and place, apply to the county judge of said county, whose duty it shall be to appoint three arbitrators who shall be freeholders of said county, and not residents or taxpayers of said village or township, who shall be duly sworn to perform the duties of the trust imposed upon them, and such arbitrators shall view the property and appraise and fix the value thereof, for the purpose of such division, and in case of personal property, if no satisfactory arrangement can be otherwise made, the same shall be sold at auction to the highest bidder, the village or township having the right to bid at such sale. It is further provided that when any village has already become an independent municipality under the provisions of said chapter 31 of the political code of North Dakota [chapter 47 herein] and such village, before such separation, owned property or owed debts jointly with the township, and such property rights have not been adjusted, then the same may be determined and settled in accordance with the provisions of this article. [1907, ch. 264.]

ARTICLE 14.— DISSOLUTION OF CORPORATION.

§ 3903. Petition for election, etc. When an application signed by one-third of the legal voters of any incorporated village shall be presented to the board of trustees in writing asking for a dissolution of the corporation, setting forth the reasons therefor, it shall be competent for the board if it deems the reasons good to call a meeting of the voters of such village by giving ten days' notice thereof as provided in this chapter, to determine whether such corporation shall be dissolved. The board of trustees shall preside at such meeting and the polls shall be opened as at other elections, and the voters shall vote by ballot, "yes" or "no." If a majority of all the votes given shall have thereon the word "yes," and such votes shall have been given by two-fifths of all the legal voters in such village, a statement of the vote signed by the president and attested by the clerk shall be filed in the office of the register of deeds of the county, and such village shall at the expiration of six months from the time of holding such meeting cease to be a corporation, and the property belonging to such corporation after the payment of its debts and liabilities shall be disposed of in such manner as a majority of the voters of such village at any special meeting thereof may direct. [R. C. 1905, § 2897; R. C. 1895, § 2398.]

§ 3904. Dissolution not to affect contracts. No such dissolution shall affect the rights of any person in any contract or agreement to which such corporation is a party. [R. C. 1905, § 2898; R. C. 1899, § 2399.]

ARTICLE 15.— VILLAGE SIDEWALKS.

§ 3905. Sidewalks to be built or repaired. Notice of, how given. Powers of trustees. Duty of owners. It is hereby made the duty of all owners of land adjoining any street, lane or alley in any incorporated village in this state to construct, reconstruct and maintain in good repair such sidewalks along the side of the street, lane or alley next to the lands of such owner respectively as may have been heretofore constructed or shall hereafter be constructed or directed by the board of trustees to be built, and of such material and width and upon such place and grade as the board of trustees may, by resolution, prescribe. Whenever the board of trustees shall deem it necessary that any sidewalk shall be constructed or reconstructed, it shall by resolution direct such construction or reconstruction, specifying the width thereof and the material of which the same is to be constructed or reconstructed. The publication of such resolution twice in some paper printed or published in said village shall be sufficient notice to the owner of the land along which such sidewalk is to be built to construct the same, and unless such owners shall, each along his respective land, construct and fully complete such sidewalk within two weeks after the last publication of such resolution, as aforesaid, the board of trustees shall cause such portion of such sidewalks as have not been built by the owners of such lands to be built by the street commissioner, or upon contract, or in any other manner as the board may determine. The board of trustees shall assess and levy upon and against such lot and parcel of land along which such sidewalk has been constructed or reconstructed a sum sufficient to cover the cost of such sidewalk along and fronting upon the same lots and parcels of land respectively, which shall be in the following form:

The board of trustees of the village of.....doth hereby assess and levy upon and against the several lots and parcels of land below described the respective sums of money set against each lot or parcel. This assessment is made to defray the cost of a sidewalk along theside of from to in accordance with a resolution of the board of trustees, passed the.....day of..... A. D. 19...., and duly published in.....on the..... days of, A. D. 19.... The amount assessed against and levied upon each lot or parcel being the amount that it cost to construct or reconstruct such sidewalk along and fronting upon the same lot or parcel of land.

§ 3906. Duties of village clerks and county auditors. The village clerk shall on or before the first day of September of each year deliver to the county auditor a duplicate of all such assessment rolls, and the county auditor shall extend the assessments in proper column against the property assessed, and each assessment shall be collected and the payment thereof enforced as county and state taxes are collected and enforced, and such assessment shall be paid over by the county treasurer when collected to the village treasurer in like manner as other taxes. [R. C. 1905, § 2900; 1905, ch. 184, § 2.]

ARTICLE 16.—POLICE IN UNORGANIZED TOWNS.

§ 3907. Village policemen appointed by board of supervisors in unorganized towns upon petition. Whenever sixty per cent of the electors of any town or village of this state within the limits of any platted town, which village or town has no organized city or village government, shall petition the board of supervisors of the township in which it, or a greater portion thereof, is situated, praying for the appointment of a village policeman to serve as a night watchman in such town or village, and for the levy of a tax upon the property therein to pay such officer, which petition shall state the period for which such appointment is to be made, the name of such townsite in which such police officer is to be appointed, and if it appears that sixty per cent of the electors residing within such townsite have signed said petition it shall be the duty of said supervisors to fix the compensation of such officer for the period named in such petition for which such appointment is asked. [R. C. 1905, § 2901; 1905, ch. 185, § 1.]

§ 3908. Police tax levied by board of supervisors. Duty of county auditor. The said board of supervisors, if the petition is by them found sufficient under the provisions of the previous section, shall at the time the general township tax levy is made, levy upon all the property within said townsite from which said petition is received, the specific amount fixed by them as the compensation of such officer, under the provisions of said section, and the amount so levied shall be certified at the time of certifying other township taxes, by the proper authority to the county auditor, who shall calculate and fix the rate per cent necessary to raise that sum, and extend the same upon the tax list of such township against the property within said townsite in a column therein to be provided, headed "Police Tax." [R. C. 1905, § 2902; 1905, ch. 185, § 2.]

§ 3909. Tax collected and paid to township treasurer. The tax so levied shall be collected and paid over as other township taxes are collected and paid, and the treasurer of the township shall keep a separate account thereof. [R. C. 1905, § 2903; 1905, ch. 185, § 3.]

§ 3910. Policemen qualify and give bond as fixed by board. In season to serve at the time named in said petition, said board of supervisors shall appoint some suitable person as village policeman, who shall give bond and qualify as township constables are required, which bond shall be in the sum to be fixed by said board and approved and filed as other township officers' bonds. [R. C. 1905, § 2904; 1905, ch. 185, § 4.]

§ 3911. Powers and duties of police. Said village policeman shall have all the powers, duties and authority as the constable of such township, and during the period for which he is appointed he shall patrol said townsite each night from eight o'clock p. m. to six o'clock a. m., guard against fire, theft and burglary, preserve the peace and execute the laws of the state therein. [R. C. 1905, § 2905; 1905, ch. 185, § 5.]

§ 3912. How policemen are to be paid. From the fund herein provided such police officer shall be paid the compensation fixed by said supervisors by warrants drawn by their authority each month upon the township treasurer payable out of the fund herein created upon verified bills submitted by him. [R. C. 1905, § 2906; 1905, ch. 185, § 6.]

§ 3913. Tax levy and appointment made before July first. Supervisors' power to remove officer. No tax levy or appointment shall be made as herein provided in any year in which the petition herein provided for shall not be presented to such supervisors before the first day of July in each year, and said supervisors shall have authority to remove such police officer whenever they shall deem it expedient. [R. C. 1905, § 2907; 1905, ch. 185, § 7.]

ARTICLE 17.— MISCELLANEOUS.

§ 3914. Proof of compliance with law by village. Whenever any suit shall be instituted by an incorporated village it shall not be required to show its compliance with any of the provisions of this chapter as to its organization or publication of by-laws or ordinances, unless the same is controverted under oath. [R. C. 1905, § 2908; R. C. 1895, § 2400.]

§ 3915. Towns and villages may adopt this chapter. Any town or village heretofore incorporated may by resolution of the board of trustees or other municipal board thereof entered upon the record book of the corporation become incorporated under this chapter, but the same shall be deemed a surrender of all the rights and franchises acquired under any former act of incorporation or acts amendatory thereto. A copy of such resolution shall be filed with the register of deeds of the proper county and entered by him of record. Trustees and other officers of such incorporated towns or villages by whatever name designated, performing duties of a like nature to those required of officers, created by this chapter shall continue to be the officers of such towns or villages, under the names specified in this chapter, until their successors are elected and qualified. [R. C. 1905, § 2909; R. C. 1895, § 2401.]

§ 3916. When debt not nullified. No debt or liability due to or from any incorporated town or village shall be unpaid by reason of such town or village being brought within the provisions of this chapter and becoming incorporated under it. [R. C. 1905, § 2910; R. C. 1895, § 2402.]

ARTICLE 18.—PROCEDURE IN VILLAGE JUSTICE'S COURT.

§ 3918. Procedure in, how governed. Whenever complaint shall be made to the justice of the peace of such village, upon oath or affirmation of any person competent to testify against the accused, that an offense has been committed of which such justice of the peace has jurisdiction, said justice of the peace shall forthwith issue a warrant for the arrest of the offender, which warrant shall be served by the marshal of the village, the sheriff or any constable of the county, or any person specially appointed by the justice for that purpose, and in all preliminary examinations before such justice he shall be governed by the code of criminal procedure, and in all trials before such justice for offenses against the state he shall be governed by the justices' code. [R. C. 1905, § 2912; R. C. 1899, § 2404.]

§ 3919. Duty of justice when defendant appears. When any person shall be brought before such justice of the peace upon a warrant it shall be his duty to hear and determine the complaint alleged against him. [R. C. 1905, § 2913; R. C. 1899, § 2405.]

§ 3920. Proceedings when trial is postponed. Upon good cause shown such justice may postpone the trial of the cause to a day certain, in which case he shall require the defendant to enter into an undertaking with sufficient surety conditioned that he will appear before such justice at the time and place appointed, then and there to answer the complaint alleged against him. [R. C. 1905, § 2914; R. C. 1899, § 2406.]

§ 3921. Justice to summon witnesses. It shall be the duty of such justice to summon all persons whose testimony may be deemed material as witnesses at the trial, and to enforce their attendance by attachment, if necessary, and when a trial shall be continued by such justice he may verbally notify such witnesses as may be present to attend before him at the time to which the action is continued, to testify therein, and such verbal notice shall be as valid as a summons. [R. C. 1905, § 2915; R. C. 1899, § 2407.]

§ 3922. Trials, how governed. All trials before such justice shall be governed by the criminal procedure applicable to justices' courts. [R. C. 1905, § 2916; R. C. 1899, § 2408.]

§ 3923. Judgment when defendant found guilty. In all trials for offenses under the ordinances of the village, if the defendant is found guilty the justice shall render judgment accordingly. It shall be part of the judgment that the defendant stand committed until the judgment is satisfied, in no case to exceed one day for every seventy-five cents of the fine and costs assessed against such defendant. [R. C. 1905, § 2917; R. C. 1895, § 2409.]

§ 3924. Justice is peace officer. Court open every day. Such justice shall be a conservator of the peace and his court shall be opened every day except Sunday to hear and determine any and all cases cognizable before him; and he shall have power to bring persons forthwith before him for trial. No act shall be performed by him on Sunday except to receive complaints, issue process and take bail. [R. C. 1905, § 2918; R. C. 1899, § 2410.]

Waiver of failure to serve, or defects in service of, process, by appeal from justice's court to court where trial must be de novo. 34 L.R.A. (N.S.) 661.

§ 3926. Punishment for violation of ordinances. Any person convicted before such justice of an offense against the ordinances of the village shall be punished by fine as may be regulated by ordinance. [R. C. 1905, § 2920; R. C. 1895, § 2412.]

§ 3927. Power of justice. Jury. Appeals. The justice of the peace of the village shall have power to enforce obedience to all orders, rules, judgments and decrees made by him; and he may fine or imprison for contempt offered to him while holding court or to process issued or orders made by him, in the same manner and to the same extent as provided for courts of justices of the peace. From any final conviction, sentence or judgment of said court an appeal may be taken to the district court within the time and in the manner prescribed for taking appeals from justices' courts and the district court shall on such appeals take judicial notice of all the ordinances of such village. Actions before such justices of the peace, arising under village ordinances, shall be tried and determined by such justices of the peace without the intervention of a jury unless the defendant demands a trial by jury; and when a demand shall be so made the trial shall be by jury of twelve citizens of such village having the qualifications of jurors, who shall be summoned by the marshal upon a venire issued by such justice of the peace. The venire for a jury shall contain eighteen names, three of which shall be stricken off the list by the defendant and three by the marshal; the remaining twelve names shall constitute a jury for the trial of an action. If there is any challenge for cause such justice of the peace shall try the question in a summary manner, and he may examine the challenged jurors under oath. [R. C. 1905, § 2921; R. C. 1895, § 2413.]

Power of magistrate to punish witness for contempt. 1 L.R.A. (N.S.) 1135.

Number of jurors necessary to verdict in justice's court. 43 L.R.A. 51.

Consent and waiver as affecting number and agreement of jurors necessary to verdict on appeal. 43 L.R.A. 69.

§ 3928. Fees of jurors. Such jurors shall each be paid fifty cents for their services in each action. [R. C. 1905, § 2922; R. C. 1899, § 2414.]

§ 3929. Costs of jury taxed to defendant, when. In case the defendant is found guilty the costs of the jury shall be taxed against him as a part of the costs of the action and the amount thereof shall be a part of the judgment. [R. C. 1905, § 2923; R. C. 1899, § 2415.]

§ 3930. Proceedings, how governed. In all actions not herein specially provided for, the process and proceedings of the court of such justice of the peace shall be governed by the laws regulating proceedings in justices' courts in criminal actions. [R. C. 1905, § 2924; R. C. 1899, § 2416.]

ARTICLE 19.—ORDINANCES.

§ 3931. How ordinances may be proven. All ordinances of the village may be proven by the ordinance book or the certificate of the clerk of the village under the seal of the village; and when printed in a newspaper or published in book or pamphlet form and purporting to be published or printed by authority of the village, may be read and received in all courts and places without further proof. [R. C. 1905, § 2925; R. C. 1895, § 2417.]

CHAPTER 48.

ORGANIZATION OF VILLAGES IN TERRITORY EMBRACING MORE THAN ONE COUNTY.

§ 3932. When organized. Whenever any area of contiguous territory in this state, not exceeding four square miles, shall have residing thereon a population of not less than one hundred inhabitants, which shall not already have been included within the corporate limits of any legally incorporated village or city and which territory to be embraced in the limits of said village is in more than one county, such territory may become incorporated as a village, in the manner provided in chapter thirty-one (31) of the political code of North Dakota [of 1905], governing the incorporation of villages and said chapter 31 of the political code is hereby made applicable to the organization, power, duties and privileges of such village and as to the authority and duties of its officers, except as herein otherwise specifically provided for. [1911, ch. 314, § 1.]

The act constituting this chapter probably supersedes §§ 3564a-3564e so far as the latter relate to organization of villages.

Who may maintain quo warranto to test validity of organization of village. 21 L.R.A. (N.S.) 685.

§ 3933. Census and survey. Prior to the commencement of any proceedings to incorporate such territory as a village, a census as prescribed in section 2844 of the Revised Codes for 1905 [section 3841 herein], shall be taken and a survey of the territory so to be incorporated shall be made in accordance with section 2845 of said code [section 3842 herein], and furnish proof hereof in conformity to section 2847 R. C. [section 3844 herein]. [1911, ch. 314, § 2.]

§ 3934. Petition for incorporation. A petition signed by not less than one-third (1-3) of the qualified voters, residing within such territory, shall be filed in the office of the county auditor of the county where the greater part of the territory is situated, addressed to the board of county commissioners of such county, which petition shall define the boundaries of such proposed village and state the number of inhabitants residing within such limits, and also state the name of such proposed village, and submit a verified copy of the census taken and a duplicate map of the survey thereof, and such petition shall contain a prayer that the question be submitted to the qualified voters residing within such limits, whether they will organize as a village under said chapter. It shall be the duty of the board of county commissioners to make an order fixing a time and place within the boundaries of such proposed village, at which an election may be held to determine such question (providing that when such territory is situated in more than one county, the commissioners shall designate a separate election place in each county for that portion of territory to be embraced within the limits of the proposed village so to be incorporated) and such commissioners shall name the persons to act as judges in holding such election, and shall give notice thereof by causing the same to be published in a weekly newspaper for a period of ten days, if there is a newspaper published within such territory or by causing five notices to be posted in public places within such proposed village for ten days, and chapter 31 of the political code of 1905 [chapter 47 herein], applicable hereto relative to holding elections and manner of voting and form of ballot, except as herein otherwise specifically provided for. [1911, ch. 314, § 3.]

§ 3935. Commissioners canvass votes. The returns of such election shall be made to and canvassed by the board of county commissioners who ordered such election and the result of such election shall be entered upon the records of such county commissioners, and if a majority of the votes cast at such election shall be for incorporation, the board shall make an order declaring that such village has been incorporated by the name adopted (stating such name) and cause such order to be spread on the records of said commissioners, which order shall be conclusive of such incorporation in all suits by or against such village, and the existence of such corporation by the name and style aforesaid, shall thereafter be judicially taken notice of in all courts in this state. A certified copy of such order shall be at once transmitted to each county within which a portion of such territory may be situated and the auditor of such county shall likewise make a record thereof on the commissioners' books. [1911, ch. 314, § 4.]

§ 3936. Place of election. Whereas, this act [chapter] provides that villages may be incorporated embracing territory situated within more than one county; and

Whereas, a voter cannot cast his vote in a county other than the one in which he is a qualified voter,

Be it hereby provided for, and made a part of this act [chapter], that the territory embraced within the limits of such corporation be divided into as many election places as there are portions of counties embraced and the whole of such territory to be divided into districts in accordance with section 2852 of the Revised Codes [section 3849 herein]. There shall be a board of election, consisting of two judges and two clerks for each election place, appointed by the board of trustees at their regular meeting preceding the day of any election to be held within such village, and such election boards to make due returns to the board of trustees immediately after the votes are counted and recorded, and shall receive two dollars per day for their services. [1911, ch. 314, § 5.]

§ 3937. Office of village. The officers of a corporation created under and by virtue of this act [chapter] may maintain an office for the performance of their duties in any portion of the limits of said corporation, but all official proceedings must be headed with the name of the village, with the name of each county of which a portion is embraced in such corporate limits and the name of the state of North Dakota. The seal to be used by such village shall also contain the names as above set forth. [1911, ch. 314, § 6.]

§ 3938. Assessor, how elected. In addition to the officers to be elected by such village in accordance with section 2857, chapter 31 of Revised Codes of North Dakota [section 3854 herein], there shall be elected an assessor for each of the counties of which a portion is embraced within the limits of such village, and such assessor shall have the same powers and duties as assessors in villages situated within the limits of one county, and shall be governed accordingly. [1911, ch. 314, § 7.]

§ 3939. Board of equalization. The board of equalization shall consist of the same members as now provided for under chapter 31 [chapter 47 herein], governing villages, but the trustees shall require the clerk of such village to transmit assessment books together with a certified copy of the minutes showing the proceedings of the board of equalization, to the county auditor in each county in which such village is situated, and when the trustees have made a levy on the property assessed within such village to correctly proportion the amount to be certified to each county in accordance with the valuation returned by the assessor and as left by the equalization board. [1911, ch. 314, § 8.]

§ 3940. Duties, county treasurer. The county treasurer shall perform the same duties in relation to the collection of taxes for such villages as is now or may hereafter be provided for. [1911, ch. 314, § 9.]

§ 3941. Other provisions applicable. All acts and parts of acts contained in chapter thirty-one (31), of the political code of North Dakota [chapter 47 herein] relating to incorporation of villages, powers and duties of its officers, not conflicting herewith, are made applicable to the organization of villages hereunder. [1911, ch. 314, § 10.]

ARTICLE 1.—TOWN PLATS.

§ 3942. Survey and plat to be made. When any person wishes to lay out a town in this state or an addition or subdivision of out-lots, such person shall cause the same to be surveyed and a plat thereof made which shall particularly describe and set forth all the streets, alleys, commons or public grounds and all in and out-lots or fractional lots within or adjoining said town, giving the names, width, courses, boundaries and extent of all such streets and alleys. [R. C. 1905, § 2926; R. C. 1899, § 2418.]

§ 3943. Lots and squares numbered. All the in-lots intended for sale shall be numbered in progressive numbers or by squares in which they are situated, and their precise length and width shall be stated on said map or plat; and out-lots shall in like manner be surveyed and numbered and their precise length and width stated on the plat or map, together with any streets, alleys or roads which shall divide or border the same. [R. C. 1905, § 2927; 1887, ch. 106, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 2419.]

§ 3944. Base line, how formed. The proprietor of the town, addition or subdivision of out-lots, by himself or agent, shall at the time of surveying and laying the same out cause to be planted and firmly fixed in the ground on the line of the main streets of said town two good and sufficient stones of such size and dimension as the surveyor shall direct, said stones to be at least two hundred and fifty yards apart; and the line thus formed shall be a base line from which to make future surveys; and the point or points where the same may be found shall be distinguished on the plat or map. [R. C. 1905, § 2928; R. C. 1899, § 2420.]

§ 3945. Plat to be certified and acknowledged. The plat or map after having been completed shall be certified by the surveyor and the officers, and every person whose duty it shall be to comply with the foregoing requirements shall at or before the time of offering said plat or map for record acknowledge the same before some person authorized to take acknowledgments. A certificate of such acknowledgment shall by the officer taking the same be indorsed on the plat or map, which certificate of the survey and acknowledgment shall also be recorded and form a part of the record. [R. C. 1905, § 2929; R. C. 1899, § 2421.]

§ 3946. Lands donated or granted. Streets. When the plat or map shall have been made out and certified, acknowledged and recorded as required by this chapter every donation or grant to the public, or to any individual, religious society or corporation, marked or noted as such on said plat or map, shall be deemed a sufficient conveyance to vest the fee simple of such parcel or parcels of land as are therein expressed, and shall be considered to all intents and purposes a general warranty against such donors, their heirs or representatives, to said donees or grantees, for their use for the uses and purposes therein named, expressed and intended, and no other use and purpose whatever; and the land intended to be used for the streets, alleys, ways, commons or other public uses in any town, city or addition thereto shall be held in the corporate name thereof in trust to and for the use and purposes set forth and expressed or intended. [R. C. 1905, § 2930; R. C. 1899, § 2422.]

One who dedicates by plat does not convey absolute fee to public. Donovan v. Allert, 11 N. D. 289, 58 L.R.A. 775, 95 Am. St. Rep. 720, 91 N. W. 441.

As to right to acquire land for park purposes by common-law dedication. Cole v. Minnesota Loan & T. Co., 17 N. D. 409, 117 N. W. 354, 17 A. & E. Ann. Cas. 304.

The owner of property abutting on street dedicated by plat may recover for injury to trees planted by him. Lovejoy v. Campbell, 16 S. D. 231, 92 N. W. 24.

It is presumed that one who records plat of an addition containing undesignated spaces, which appear to form no part of any platted lots, dedicates such spaces as public streets. Atlas Lumber Co. v. Quirk, 28 S. D. 643, 135 N. W. 172.

§ 3947. Record of plat in unorganized counties. If the county in which said town or addition is situated shall not be organized, the plat or map shall be recorded in the office of the register of deeds of the county to which such county is at the time attached for judicial purposes. [R. C. 1905, § 2931; R. C. 1899, § 2423.]

§ 3948. Towns already laid out must comply with this chapter. When any town, addition or subdivision has been heretofore laid out and lots sold in this state by agents or proprietors, and a plat or map of the same has not been acknowledged and recorded in conformity with acts heretofore in force, it shall be the duty and it is hereby required of the county commissioners or majority of them in such county, or proprietor or proprietors who have laid out the same, or his or their legal representatives, to have the same fairly, fully and clearly made out, acknowledged and recorded in the proper county, in the form and manner required by this chapter; noticing and particularly describing the donation of lands or otherwise to individual societies, bodies politic, or for common or public purposes; provided, that if the lots shall have been differently numbered and sales made and they cannot be conveniently changed they shall be returned as originally stated; but in all other respects the plat or map shall conform to the requirements of this chapter. [R. C. 1905, § 2932; R. C. 1899, § 2424.]

§ 3949. Fees of surveyor and register. The surveyor who shall lay out, survey and plat any town or addition shall be entitled to receive twenty-five cents for each and every in and out-lot the same may contain, unless otherwise agreed, and the register of deeds of the county recording the same shall receive the sum of two cents for each and every lot as aforesaid; the said plat and survey to be by him transcribed or copied into a book to be provided for that purpose. [R. C. 1905, § 2933; R. C. 1899, § 2425.]

§ 3950. Penalty if sale or lease is offered before compliance with this article. If any person or persons shall dispose of, offer for sale or lease for any time any out or in-lots in any town, village or city or in any addition to any town, village or city or any part thereof, which shall hereafter be laid out, until all the foregoing requirements of this chapter shall have been complied with, every person so offending shall forfeit and pay the sum of ten dollars for each and every lot or part of a lot sold or disposed of, leased or offered for sale. [R. C. 1905, § 2934; R. C. 1899, § 2426.]

§ 3951. Penalty if officer or other person neglect to do duty. If any officer or person whose duty it is to comply with any of the requirements of this article shall neglect or refuse so to do, he shall forfeit and pay a sum not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars for each month he shall delay a compliance. [R. C. 1905, § 2935; R. C. 1899, § 2427.]

ARTICLE 2.—PRESERVATION OF PLATS AND PLANS.

§ 3953. Copies of originals on file with register of deeds. For the purpose of preserving from mutilation and impairment the plats and plans on file in the register of deeds office in each organized county, the board of county commissioners may, if they deem necessary, cause copies of the originals on file to be made on sheets of tracing cloth by a competent engineer, said sheets to be not less than thirty by twenty inches, nor more than thirty-one by twenty-one inches, and to be lettered in a workmanlike manner with suitable titles transcribed thereon, numbered, lettered and made up in one or more books, bound in suitable covers so that they may be readily removed for the purpose of making prints. These copies shall serve as negatives for prints, and shall be certified to by the engineer in charge of said work as being correct copies of the original. [1911, ch. 260, § 1.]

§ 3954. Bond of engineer making copies. The board of county commissioners may, if they deem advisable, require a bond of said engineer covering a period of five years. [1911, ch. 260, § 2.]

§ 3955. Written and printed matter to be typewritten and bound. All descriptions, dedications and written and printed matter that may be found on the original plats and plans shall be typewritten, properly paged, indexed and bound in books to correspond with the negatives heretofore mentioned, and shall be certified to by the engineer having said work in charge, as being correct copies. [1911, ch. 260, § 3.]

§ 3956. Typewritten copies filed, but not for general use. The negatives for the prints, and the typewritten copies of the description and dedications shall be filed and not used by the public except by persons authorized by the county commissioners to make additional copies. [1911, ch. 260, § 4.]

§ 3957. Prints, descriptions and dedications for general use. Said engineer shall furnish one set of prints from the negatives, either on paper or cloth, which prints shall be placed in substantial covers and bound in one or more books and each book furnished with an index thereto. He shall also furnish one set of descriptions and dedications which shall be bound and indexed to correspond with the prints. Said prints and supplementary descriptions and dedications shall be for the use of the general public, and the county commissioners are authorized to replace from time to time as may be needful, the prints and typewritten sheets that have become mutilated or worn out, and they may cause to be made at different times, prints and typewritten descriptions of all new plats and plans that hereafter may be added to the register of deeds office. [1911, ch. 260, § 5.]

§ 3958. Rate of pay for the work. The county commissioners shall not pay more than twenty dollars per sheet for such work performed, and this shall include the work necessary for making the negatives, one set of prints, the necessary covers, and two typewritten copies of descriptions and dedications heretofore mentioned. [1911, ch. 260, § 6.]

ARTICLE 3.—VACATION OF PLATS BY DISTRICT COURT.

§ 3959. District court may alter or vacate towns. The district court is authorized and empowered on application made by the proprietors of any town within the county to alter or vacate the same or any part thereof. [R. C. 1905, § 2937; R. C. 1899, § 2429.]

§ 3960. Notice of application, how given. If any proprietor of a town shall be desirous of altering or vacating the same or any part thereof, such proprietor shall give notice in writing of such intended application in at least two of the most public places in the county wherein such town may be situated, and insert a copy thereof in a newspaper printed or in circulation in said county if there is one, at least forty days prior to the sitting of the court to which he intends to make such application. [R. C. 1905, § 2938; R. C. 1899, § 2430.]

§ 3961. Proceedings for. If such applicant shall produce to the court satisfactory evidence that the notice required by the preceding section has been given, the court shall proceed to hear and determine such petition, and may alter or vacate such town or any part thereof, and order the proceedings thereon to be recorded by the clerk with the records of the court. [R. C. 1905, § 2939; R. C. 1899, § 2431.]

ARTICLE 4.—VACATION OF PLATS BY WRITTEN DECLARATION.

§ 3962. Plats, how vacated. Any plat of any town, village or city or addition thereto or any subdivision of land may be vacated by the proprietors thereof at any time before the sale of any lots therein by written instrument declaring the same to be vacated, duly executed, acknowledged or proved and recorded in the same office with the plat to be vacated; and the executing and recording of such writing shall operate to destroy the force and effect of the recording of the plat so vacated, and to divest all public rights in the streets, alleys, commons and public grounds laid out as described in such plat. And in cases where any lots have been sold the plat may be vacated as herein provided by all the owners of lots in such plat joining in the execution of the writing aforesaid; provided, that this article shall not be construed as applying to any of the territory included within the limits of any incorporated city, town or village created and organized under and by virtue of a special act. [R. C. 1905, § 2940; 1887, ch. 109, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 2432.]

§ 3963. Part of plat vacated, how. Any part of a plat may be vacated under the provisions and subject to the conditions of this article; provided, such vacating does not abridge or destroy any of the rights and privileges of other proprietors in said plat; and provided, further, that nothing contained in this section shall authorize the closing or obstructing of any public highways laid out according to law. [R. C. 1905, § 2941; 1887, ch. 109, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 2433.]

As to similar provision in Iowa Code 1897, § 919. see Lorenzen v. Preston, 53 Iowa, 580, 5 N. W. 764; Conner v. Iowa City, 66 Iowa, 419, 23 N. W. 904; McGrew v. Lettsville, 71 Iowa, 150, 32 N. W. 252.

§ 3964. Proprietors' rights, when vacated. When any part of a plat shall be vacated as aforesaid the proprietors of the lots so vacated may inclose the streets, alleys and public grounds adjoining said lots in equal proportion. [R. C. 1905, § 2942; 1887, ch. 109, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 2434.]

§ 3965. Register of deeds to mark plat. The register of deeds in whose office the plats aforesaid are recorded shall write in plain, legible letters across that part of said plat so vacated the word "vacated," and also make a reference on the same to the volume and page in which such instrument of vacation is recorded. [R. C. 1905, § 2943; 1887, ch. 109, § 4; R. C. 1899, § 2435.]

§ 3966. Owner may plat again. The owner of any lots in a plat so vacated may cause the same and a proportionate part of adjacent streets and public grounds to be platted and numbered by the county surveyor, and when such plat is acknowledged by such owner and recorded in the office of the register of deeds such lots may be conveyed and assessed by the numbers given them on such plat. [R. C. 1905, § 2944; 1887, ch. 109, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 2436.]

ARTICLE 5.— ERRORS AND DEFICIENCIES IN CITY PLATS.

§ 3967. Procedure for correction, method of correction, assessment for expenses. Whenever any platted addition, outlot or parcel of ground, or any subdivision of same within the corporate limits of any city shall be found to be inadequately or erroneously described in the plat, or when such plat or plats shall be found in error or deficient as to marked or scaled distances, angles, descriptions or have such other defects as will make said plat an incorrect and deficient plat and description of the property platted, the city council may by resolution declare it necessary to correct such plat or plats, or completely replat such property, and shall publish such resolutions in the official paper of the city once each week for three consecutive weeks.

Such resolution shall contain and stipulate: (a) The description of the property affected, (b) the nature of the errors or defects, (c) an outline of the proposed corrections, (d) an estimate of the probable cost of making the corrections as made by the city engineer or some competent engineer or surveyor designated for that purpose, (e) that any interested owner may file objections to the proposed work or the cost of same and that such objections will be heard and considered at a meeting designated for that purpose, (f) the time of such meeting when the council will meet to consider all objections. When all objections filed at or prior to the meeting designated for the purpose shall have been duly heard and considered, the city council shall if it deems such work advisable and if the owners of the majority of the property affected shall not have filed a protest against same, order the city engineer or such other competent engineer or surveyor as shall have been designated in the resolution declaring the work necessary, to do the work in accordance with said resolutions.

The engineer or surveyor designated to make the correction or replatting shall follow such original hubs, stakes, monuments and lines as are known to be correct and the original hubs, stakes, monuments and lines, and shall to the best of his ability by actual survey and measurements on the ground make the plat conform to the divisions, subdivisions, blocks, lots, outlots, pieces and parcels of land as originally laid out. All lost or disputed points, lines and angles shall be determined by actual survey and made to conform with the original survey, and shall be marked on the ground with substantial oak stakes in a manner customary and provided for in townsite surveys. All numbers, letterings and names of references to blocks, lots, outlots, additions, streets, avenues, alleys, etc., shall be the same as on the original plat, and the revised and corrected plat shall be a true plat of the survey as originally made. The surveyor shall make his affidavit and certification that the plat has been so made to the best of his ability and shall affix same to the plat.

The completed plat shall be filed with the city auditor who shall publish a notice of that fact once a week for three consecutive weeks, which notice shall stipulate that all interested parties may view same, and set forth a date when the city council will sit to hear objections to the survey as made and when it will consider same.

If in the opinion of the council an injustice has been done, it shall order such surveys and resurveys as it may deem necessary to determine the merit of any claim and shall adjourn from time to time or until such time as all the necessary information shall be available. [1911, ch. 289.]

The council then shall affirm or reject the plat by resolution. If passed by two-thirds vote of the members elected the plat shall be recorded in the county in which the city is located and shall be the true and correct map of the property described and shall supersede any and all previous plats. All costs and disbursements shall be assessed against the property benefited according to the benefits by the city engineer which assessment shall be published in full by the city auditor in the official paper of the city and be subject to the approval of the city council after due consideration and hearing of any and all objections at a meeting designated for that purpose in the notice and publication of the assessment. When approved by the city council such assessment shall be certified to the county auditor and shall be payable in one annual instalment as a special assessment tax.

Approved March 6, 1911.

ARTICLE 6.—CHANGING LIMITS OF CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES.

§ 3968. Limits may be extended. On petition in writing signed by not less than three-fourths of the legal voters and by the owners of not less than three-fourths, in value, of the property in any territory contiguous to any incorporated city or town or village and not embraced within the limits thereof, the city council of the city or the board of trustees of the town or village, as the case may be, may by ordinance annex such territory to such city, town or village upon filing a copy of such ordinance with an accurate map of the territory annexed, duly certified by the mayor of the city or the president of the board of trustees of the town or village in the office of the register of deeds of the county where the annexed territory or the greater portion of it is situated, and having the same recorded therein. [R. C. 1905, § 2945; 1887, ch. 104, § 1; R. C. 1895, § 2437.]

The word "territory" includes all the various pieces or parcels of land sought to be annexed or excluded. Oehler et al. v. Big Stone City, 16 S. D. 86, 91 N. W. 450.

Extension of city limits to include toll road as taking of property for which compensation must be made. 17 L.R.A.(N.S.) 1071.

Liability of annexed territory to pay proportionate share of existing debts. 27 L.R.A.(N.S.) 1147.

Municipal liability for defects or obstructions in streets in annexed territory. 20 L.R.A.(N.S.) 575.

Discrimination between residents or property owners in territory annexed, as to right to defend against annexation of territory to municipality. 17 L.R.A.(N.S.) 421.

§ 3969. Limits may be restricted. On petition in writing signed by not less than three-fourths of the legal voters and by the owners of not less than three-fourths, in value, of the property in any territory within any incorporated city, town or village, and being upon the border and within the limits thereof, the city council of the city or the board of trustees of the town or village, as the case may be, may disconnect and exclude such territory from such city, town or village; provided, that the provisions of this section shall only apply to lands not laid out into city, town or village lots or blocks. [R. C. 1905, § 2946; 1887, ch. 104, § 2; R. C. 1895, § 2438.]

Tract to be excluded need not be on border of town, but must be part of territory on border asked to be excluded. Oehler v. Big Stone City, 16 S. D. 86, 91 N. W. 450.

Land not necessary for public purposes may be excluded. Pelletier v. City of Ashton, 12 S. D. 366, 81 N. W. 735.

One signing a petition for extension of limits to include her property, and paying taxes for three years, is estopped to question legality of proceeding, where great injustice would result to others. State v. City of Pierre, 15 S. D. 559, 90 N. W. 1047.

Petition for exclusion of real property from city must show that preliminary steps before council have been taken to give circuit court jurisdiction. Weiland v. Ashton. 17 S. D. 621, 98 N. W. 87.

Petition for excluding territory signed by sole owner, where no one resides thereon, is sufficient. Coughran v. Huron, 17 S. D. 271, 96 N. W. 92.

Petitioners must prove the signing of petition for excluding territory from city by three-fourths of legal voters and property holders. Oehler v. Big Stone City, 16 S. D. 86, 91 N. W. 450.

Division of territory of municipality, town, or county, as affecting its assets and liabilities, in absence of statute on the point. 39 L.R.A.(N.S.) 285.

§ 3970. Notice of petition to be published. No final action shall be taken by the city council or the board of trustees, as the case may be, upon any petition presented in pursuance of the provisions of the last two sections until notice of the presentation of such petition has been given by the petitioners by publication at least once in each week for two successive weeks in some newspaper published in the city, town or village where the petition is presented; or if no newspaper is published therein, then in the newspaper published nearest thereto. [R. C. 1905, § 2947; 1887, ch. 104, § 3; R. C. 1895, § 2439.]

Preliminary steps must be complied with to give court jurisdiction. Weiland v. City of Ashton, 17 S. D. 621.

[§ 3971. Petition presented to district court, when. Upon the failure of the city council, or the board of trustees, as the case may be, to grant the request contained in any petition presented in accordance with the provisions of sections 3968 and 3969, for thirty days after the publication of the notice provided for in the last section, or upon a refusal to grant such request, the petitioners may present their petition to the district court of the county in which such city, town or village or the greater portion of it is situated, by filing such petition with the clerk of said court. Notice of such filing shall be served by the petitioners upon the mayor of the city or the president of the board of trustees, as the case may be, together with a notice of the time and place when and where a hearing will be had upon such petition, at least ten days before the date of such hearing. The hearing on the petition may be had at a regular or special term of the district court or by the court in vacation.] [R. C. 1905, § 2948; 1887, ch. 104, § 4; R. C. 1895, § 2440.]

[§ 3972. Duty of court. If upon the hearing the court shall find that the request of the petitioners ought to be granted and can be so granted without injustice to the inhabitants or persons interested the court shall so order. If the court shall find against the petitioners the petition shall be dismissed at the cost of the petitioners.] [R. C. 1905, § 2949; 1887, ch. 104, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 2441.]

Court may exclude land if necessary only to increase city's revenue, when council refuses to do so. Pelletier v. City of Ashton, 12 S. D. 366, 81 N. W. 735.

§ 3973. Map to be filed. When any territory is annexed by ordinance or by order of court to any city, town or village as provided in this article, it shall be the duty of the mayor of the city or of the president of the board of trustees of the town or village, as the case may be, to cause an accurate map of such added territory, together with a copy of the ordinance for the annexation or a copy of the order of court therefor, duly certified, to be filed and recorded in the office of the register of deeds of the county in which such added territory or the greater portion of it is situated. If territory is disconnected or excluded from any city, town or village a copy of the ordinance or judgment therefor shall be so filed and recorded, at the expense of the petitioners therefor. [R. C. 1905, § 2950; 1887, ch. 104, § 6; R. C. 1899, § 2442.]

ARTICLE 7.—CHANGING NAMES OF TOWNS OR VILLAGES.

§ 3974. Petition. When any number of the inhabitants of any town or village shall desire to change the name thereof, there shall be filed in the office of the county auditor a petition for that purpose, which must be signed by at least two-thirds of the qualified electors of said town or village, setting forth the name by which said town or village is known, its location as near as practicable, and giving the name which they desire the town shall thereafter be known by. [R. C. 1905, § 2951; 1885, ch. 31, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 2443.]

§ 3975. Notice. Notice of the filing of such petition and the time and place when the same shall be heard and the objects and purposes thereof shall be given by posting up a written or printed notice in at least five public places in the town or village, the name of which is sought to be changed, at least four weeks before the meeting of the board of county commissioners. [R. C. 1905, § 2952; 1885, ch. 31, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 2444.]

§ 3976. Duty of county commissioners. At the next regular meeting of the board after such notice shall have been posted as aforesaid, the board shall proceed to hear and determine the petition unless the hearing is for good cause continued until the next meeting; and the board shall on the hearing of said petition also hear any remonstrance against the proposed change; and if on hearing it shall appear to the board that two-thirds of the qualified electors of the town or village in good faith signed said petition for change of name and desired the same, then the board shall order said name to be changed as prayed for. [R. C. 1905, § 2953; 1885, ch. 31, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 2445.]

§ 3977. Record. The order of the board shall thereupon be entered of record, giving the name of the town or village as set forth in such petition, the new name given, the time when the change shall take effect, which shall not be less than thirty days thereafter, and directing that notice of said change shall be published in at least one newspaper published in the county, if any, and if there is no newspaper published in the county, then such notice shall be published by posting the same for four weeks on the front door of the court house in which the last term of the district court of said county was held. [R. C. 1905, § 2954; 1885, ch. 31, § 4; R. C. 1899, § 2446.]

§ 3978. Proof of publication to be filed. Proof of such publication shall be filed in the office of the county auditor; and on the day fixed by the board as aforesaid the change shall be complete; provided, that whenever the name of any town or village shall be changed under the provisions of this article the county auditor shall immediately notify the register of deeds who shall note the change of name upon the plat of said town or village with the date thereof. [R. C. 1905, § 2955; 1885, ch. 31, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 2447.]

§ 3979. Costs. In all cases arising under the provisions of this article where there is no remonstrance or opposition to said petition, the petitioners shall pay all costs; but in all other cases costs shall abide the result of the proceeding and be taxed to either party in the discretion of the board, or divided equitably between the parties. [R. C. 1905, § 2956; 1885, ch. 31, § 6; R. C. 1899, § 2448.]

ARTICLE 8.—CHANGING WARDS.

§ 3980. Petition. Notice. When a petition shall be presented to the mayor and council of any city or the president and trustees of any town or village, signed by a majority of the legal voters thereof, to be determined by the number of names on the poll list of the last regular election, praying for a change in the name, number or boundary of wards of said city, town or village, the council of such corporation shall at once cause to be published in a weekly newspaper of the city or village, in at least three issues, a notice of the day, hour and place of meeting at which they will consider such petition. [R. C. 1905, § 2957; 1887, ch. 110, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 2449.]

§ 3981. Council may order change, when. If it shall appear to the council or trustees that the change petitioned for is desirable and for the best interests of the city, town or village the council may by a majority vote of all the members elect order the change desired, but no such change shall take effect until the next regular election. [R. C. 1905, § 2958; 1887, ch. 110, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 2450.]

§ 3982. Plats and records to be changed. The council shall direct the corporation attorney to cause such needful changes in papers, plats and matters of record as the change may demand. [R. C. 1905, § 2959; 1887, ch. 110, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 2451.]

§ 3983. Duty of clerk. It shall be the duty of the town, village or city clerk or auditor to make such changes in the assessment lists as the change in wards necessitates. [R. C. 1905, § 2960; 1887, ch. 110, § 4; R. C. 1899, § 2452.]

§ 3984. Manner of holding election in new ward. Ten days before the next regular election the council shall designate the proper polling place or places for the new ward or wards, appoint judges and clerks, and make all necessary provisions for holding the election in the new ward or wards, naming the several officers to be chosen. [R. C. 1905, § 2961; 1887, ch. 110, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 2453.]

ARTICLE 9.—LOCATING AND VACATING STREETS AND ALLEYS.

§ 3985. Power to open, improve and vacate streets and alleys. Any city, town or village is authorized and empowered through its proper municipal officers, to lay out, open, grade and otherwise improve the streets, alleys, sewers, sidewalks and crossings therein and to vacate the same. When it becomes necessary in order to make any of the improvements herein specified, to take or damage private property, such municipal corporation may exercise the right of eminent domain for any public use authorized by law in the manner provided in chapter 36 of the code of civil procedure. In case private property is taken or damaged for a purpose not of direct benefit to the entire municipal corporation, the damages assessed by the jury shall be paid by the owners of real property who are to be directly benefited by the proposed local improvement, and the jury shall assess the amount to be paid by each owner of real property benefited, but the action shall be conducted by and in the name of the municipal corporation. [R. C. 1905, § 2962; 1897, ch. 102; R. C. 1899, § 2454.]

Damages how assessed and cost of improvement apportioned as provided by this section. City of Fargo v. Keeney et al., 11 N. D. 484, 92 N. W. 836.

Property devoted to public use may be appropriated under power of eminent domain. Winona & St. P. Ry. Co. v. Watertown, 4 S. D. 323, 56 N. W. 1077.

Right to take property for streets and alleys. 22 L.R.A.(N.S.) 111.

Compulsory use of private property in road work. 42 L.R.A.(N.S.) 1045.

Taking of property for sewers as a public purpose. 22 L.R.A.(N.S.) 168.

Extension of city limits to include toll road as taking of property for which compensation must be made. 17 L.R.A.(N.S.) 1071.

Liability of municipal corporation for removal of lateral or subjacent support of land. 68 L.R.A. 699.

Liability of municipality for injury to abutting property from bringing street to the grade established in the first instance, under constitutional provision against "damaging," private property for public use without compensation. 7 L.R.A.(N.S.) 108.

Necessity of making compensation on laying out street across railroad property. 24 L.R.A.(N.S.) 1226.

Right of railroad company to compensation for the crossing of its track, where it intersects a street or highway, by an electric road. 29 L.R.A. 485; 13 L.R.A.(N.S.) 916.

§ 3986. Surveys. Whenever the village board of trustees of any incorporated village shall deem it necessary to open, lay out, widen or enlarge any street or alley or public place within the village it shall cause an accurate survey and plat of the same to be made by the county surveyor or other competent civil engineer with an estimate of the probable cost of the improvement, and shall cause the same to be filed in the office of the village clerk and retain a copy in his office. [1907, ch. 262, § 1.]

purchase, or under the provisions of the code of civil procedure providing for the exercise of the right of eminent domain; and whenever any judgment for damages to property so taken for any such improvement shall be entered, the village board of trustees shall cause special assessments to be levied upon the property benefited thereby to pay such judgment; provided, that not more than one-fourth thereof may be paid by the levy of a general tax upon all taxable property in the village. [1907, ch. 262, § 2.]

§ 3988. Fixing grades. The village board of trustees of an incorporated village may by ordinance establish the grade of all streets, alleys and sidewalks in the village as the convenience of the inhabitants may require, and a record of the same shall be kept together with a profile thereof in the office of the village clerk; provided, that after the grade of any street has been established as provided in this section, the village shall, if it change the grade, be liable to the abutting property owners for any damages they may sustain by reason of any permanent improvements having been made by them to conform to the grade as first established. [1907, ch. 262, § 3.]

Municipal liability for injury to abutting property from changing street grade under constitutional provision against "damaging" private property for public use without compensation. 86 L.R.A.(N.S.) 1194.

§ 3989. Vacation of streets and alleys. Petition. Appeal. No public grounds, streets or alleys, or parts thereof over or under or through which shall have been constructed lengthwise sewers or watermains by the village, or watermains, gas, steam or other pipes or telephone or telegraph lines by the village's grantees of the right-of-way therefor, shall be vacated and no other public grounds, streets or alleys, or parts thereof, within the village shall be vacated or discontinued by the village board of trustees except upon a petition of a majority of the owners of property on the line of such public grounds, streets or alleys resident within the village. Such petition shall set forth the facts and reasons for such vacation accompanied by a plat of such public grounds, streets or alleys proposed to be vacated, and shall be verified by the oath of at least two of the petitioners, and the consent in writing of all the owners of the property adjoining the plat to be so vacated. The village board of trustees shall thereupon, if they deem it expedient that the matter should be proceeded with, order the petition to be filed with the clerk of the village, who shall give notice of publication in a legal newspaper of the village or if no legal newspaper is published in the village, then in any legal newspaper in the county wherein said village is located, for four weeks, at least once each week, to the effect that such petition has been filed as aforesaid, and stating in brief its object and that said petition will be heard and considered by the village board of trustees or a committee thereof on a certain day therein specified, not less than thirty days after the first publication of such notice. The village board of trustees or such committee as may be appointed by it for the purpose, at the time and place appointed, shall investigate and consider the matter, and shall hear the testimony and evidence of persons interested. The village board of trustees, thereupon after hearing the same, or upon the report of such committee favoring the granting of such petition, may by resolution passed by a two-thirds vote of all the members-elect declare such public grounds, streets or alleys or highways vacated, which resolution, before the same shall go into effect, shall be published as in the case of ordinances and thereupon a transcript of such resolution duly certified by the village clerk shall be filed for record and duly recorded in the office of the register of deeds of the county, and shall have the effect to convey to the abutting property owners all of the right and title of the village to the property so vacated. Any persons aggrieved thereby may within twenty days after publication of such resolution appeal to the district court of the county under the same regulations as in the case of opening streets and alleys, and the judgment of the court therein shall be final. All expenses incurred in vacating any such public grounds, streets or alleys, must be paid by the petitioners, who shall deposit with the village treasurer such sum as may be necessary therefor, before any such expense is incurred, and the amount so to be deposited shall be determined by the village board of trustees, and any part thereof not used for the expenses shall be returned. Injury to abutter's easement of light, air and access by vacating street. 14 L.R.A. 370.

ARTICLE 10.— WATERWORKS AND FIRE APPARATUS.

§ 3990. Authorized to purchase fire apparatus, etc. All cities, towns and villages in this state having a population of one thousand inhabitants or more are authorized and empowered to purchase, erect, lease, rent, manage and maintain any system or part of system of waterworks, hydrants and supply of water, telegraph fire signals or fire apparatus that may be of use in the prevention and extinguishment of fires; and to pass such ordinances, penal or otherwise, as may be necessary for the full protection, maintenance, management and control of the property so leased, purchased or erected. The city council or board of trustees of such city, or municipal corporation is authorized and empowered to assess, levy and collect taxes for the purposes aforesaid, and to do all acts necessary to carry such lease and contracts of purchase, erection or maintenance into effect, and to pay the stipulated rent or contract prices for the property so leased, purchased, erected or to be maintained; provided, that any such lease or contracts for purchase, erection or maintenance which shall stipulate for an annual payment greater than an annual levy of seven mills upon each dollar of the assessed valuation of such city or municipal corporation shall not be authorized until the contract providing therefor shall first have been submitted to a vote of the people of such city or municipal corporation at a general or special election and ratified by a majority of the voters of said city or municipal corporation voting at such election. § 3991. How construed. The last section shall not be construed to modify or affect the power of any city, town or village or the power of the city council or board of trustees thereof as authorized and granted by the charters of such cities, towns or villages or the laws under which they were incorporated, where said charter or law shall have expressly given to such municipality the power to lease, rent or maintain such property. [R. C. 1905, § 2964; 1887, ch. 105, § 2; R. C. 1895, § 2460.]

§ 3992. Election to determine sale. When any city, town or village shall own the waterworks system of such city, town or village, neither the city council nor the authorities of any such city, town or village shall have authority to sell or dispose of such waterworks system, mains, pumping stations or any part thereof, unless the proposition to sell the same shall first have been submitted to the legal voters of such city, town or village at a special election called for that purpose, and such sale shall have been authorized by a majority vote of all the votes cast at such election; provided, that nothing herein shall prevent the city council of any city from selling or disposing of any machinery, material or other property belonging to any such system which may have become inadequate or insufficient for the purpose for which the same was intended to be used. [R. C. 1905, § 2965; 1893, ch. 134, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 2461.]

ARTICLE 11.—INSURANCE TAX FOR FIRE DEPARTMENTS.

§ 3993. Duty of clerk. The clerk of each city, town or village in this state having an organized fire department shall on or before the thirty-first day of October in each year make and file with the state auditor his certificate stating the existence of such department, the date of its organization, the number of steam, hand or other engines, hook and ladder trucks, and hose carts in actual use, the number of organized companies, the number of members of each company, and the system of water supply in use in such department, together with such other facts as the auditor may require. [R. C. 1905, § 2966; 1887, ch. 53, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 2462.]

As to right of hose company to share of insurance premium moneys under statute. Continental Hose Co. No. 1 v. Fargo, 17 N. D. 5, 114 N. W. 834.

§ 3994. State auditor to furnish blanks. Insurance companies to make statements. The blanks required by law to be furnished by the state auditor to insurance companies shall contain the names of the cities, towns and villages entitled to benefits under this article, and every insurance company doing business in this state shall include in its annual statement the amount of all premiums received by them upon policies issued on property within the corporate limits of such city, town or village during the year ending on the preceding thirty-first day of December. [R. C. 1905, § 2967; 1887, ch. 53, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 2463.]

§ 3995. State auditor to issue warrants. The state auditor on the first day of June thereafter shall issue and deliver to the treasurer of such city, town or village, having an organized fire department entitled to the benefits of this article, his warrant upon the state treasurer for an amount equal to two per cent of the premium received upon policies issued on property in any city, town or village, which warrants shall be numbered consecutively, and shall each specify the date of its issuance and to whom payable, and such warrants shall be paid by the state treasurer to the treasurer of such city, town or village, upon presentation thereof, and when so received by said treasurer the same shall be paid over to the treasurer of each separate organized fire company or companies, in equal proportion, who are members in good standing in the North Dakota firemen's association, and having a membership of at least fifteen members for a period of eight months prior to the date of the certificate of the clerk, as provided in section 3993, and having the management of at least one steam, hand or fire engine, hook and ladder truck or hose cart, upon the written order of such company or companies, approved by the city, city council, trustees or other governing body of such city, town or village; provided, that in cities, towns and villages having a paid fire department, the amount so received by the city, town or village treasurer shall be placed in a fund to be disbursed by the city council, trustees or other governing body of such city, town or village in maintaining such fire department. [R. C. 1905, § 2968; R. C. 1899, § 2464; 1901, ch. 208, § 1.]

§ 3996. Qualifications of fire department and companies. No city, town or village having one or more organized fire companies therein, shall be entitled to any of the benefits arising from this article, unless the fire department or companies shall have been in actual existence eight months prior to the filing of the certificate required by section 3993, and unless such fire department or company shall have had for such period, as a part of its equipment, at least one steam, hand or other fire engine, truck or hose cart, with a membership of at least fifteen persons for said period of eight months. [R. C. 1905, § 2969; 1887, ch. 53, § 4; R. C. 1899, § 2465; 1901, ch. 208, § 1.]

§ 3997. Secretary to notify treasurer. It shall be the duty of the secretary of the North Dakota firemen's association to notify the treasurer of each city, town or village, entitled to the benefits of this article, on or before the first day of June each year, of the name of the treasurer of each department or separate organized company in good standing in the North Dakota firemen's association. [R. C. 1905, § 2970; 1901, ch. 208, § 2.]

§ 3998. Failure to file certificate a waiver. If the certificate required by section 3993 is not filed with the auditor on or before the thirty-first day of October in each year, the city, town or village so failing to file such certificate shall be deemed to have waived and relinquished its right for such year to the appropriation herein provided for; provided, however, that in case where any city has filed its certificate for three successive years and drawn money thereunder for such years, the certificate herein provided for may be filed at any time up to and including March first of the succeeding year without waiving the right to the appropriation herein named. [R. C. 1905, § 2971; 1887, ch. 53, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 2466; 1901, ch. 99.]

ARTICLE 12.—FIREMEN'S RELIEF ASSOCIATION PENSION FUND.

§ 3999. Paid fire department and firemen's relief association. In cities, towns and villages having a paid fire department and a duly organized and incorporated firemen's relief association, the amount received by the city, town or village treasurer, as provided in section 2968, of article 9, revised codes of North Dakota, 1905 [section 3995 herein], shall be apportioned as follows: One-half shall be placed in a fund to be disbursed by the city council, trustees or other governing body of such city, town or village in maintaining such fire department and one-half shall be paid to the treasurer of the fireman's relief association, to be disbursed only for the following purposes, viz.:

First: For the maintenance of the fireman's relief association.

Second: For pensions and the relief of sick, injured and disabled members of any fire department in such city, town or village and their widows and orphans.

Third: For the payment of service pensions as hereinafter provided in such amounts and in such manner as its articles of incorporation and by-laws shall designate. Every such fire department relief association organized under any law of this state may pay out of any funds received from the state, or other source, a service pension, in such amounts, not exceeding forty dollars per month, as may be provided by its by-laws to each of its members who have heretofore retired or may hereafter retire, who has reached or shall hereafter reach the age of fifty years, and who has done, or hereafter shall do, active duty for twenty years or more as a member of a volunteer, paid or partially paid and partially volunteer fire department in the municipality where such association exists, and who has been, or shall hereafter be a member of such fire department relief association at least ten years prior to such retirement, and who complies with such additional conditions as to age, service and membership as may be prescribed by the by-laws of such association. Such pensions shall be uniform in amount, but all may be decreased or increased, within the amount above specified, whenever the amount of funds on hand renders such action advisable. No such pensions shall be paid to any person while he remains a member of a fire department, and no person receiving such pension shall be entitled to other relief from such association. [1909, ch. 123, § 1.]

§ 4000. Qualifications for relief and pensions. The qualifications as to age and term of service, shall not apply to members of such fire department, who make application for a pension on account of injuries or disabilities, which unfit them for the duties of an active fireman, and such relief association shall pay a pension to such members, or to the widows and orphans of deceased firemen, in such sums and under such limitations and conditions, as its articles of incorporation and by-laws shall provide and permit. [1909, ch. 123, § 2.]

§ 4001. Association to reduce amount of pensions. Every such association shall at all times have and retain the right to reduce the amount of pensions or to increase them whenever the amount of funds on hand or for other good reasons, such reductions or increase seems advisable or proper to such relief association, but said pension shall not exceed the amount of forty dollars per month to any pensioner or to any one family. [1909, ch. 123, § 3.]

§ 4002. Secretary and treasurer of relief associations to make annual report. The secretary and treasurer of every such relief association shall prepare annually a report of all receipts and expenditures of such association for the previous year, showing for what purpose the money was paid and expended, and to whom, which report shall be filed in the office of the city auditor of the city and the clerk of the town or village in which such association is situated and a duplicate of such report shall also be filed with the state auditor before any money shall be paid to any such relief association. The money paid to such relief association shall be expended only for the pensioning and relief of sick, injured, disabled and retired members of any fire department in such city, town or village, and their widows and orphans as authorized and permitted by this article. [1909, ch. 123, § 4.]

§ 4003. Defining firemen entitled to pension or relief. For the purpose of this article no substitute fireman, or any one serving on probation, or any fireman in a city, town or village having a relief association in its fire department who is not a member of such association, shall be deemed to be a fireman within the meaning of this article. The treasurer of every such relief association before entering upon the duties of his office, shall give a good and sufficient bond to said relief association conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office, and for the safe keeping and paying over, according to law, of all moneys which come into his hands as such treasurer. [1909, ch. 123, § 5.]

§ 4004. Pensions not subject to legal process. No payments made or to be made by such association to any member on the pension roll shall be subject to judgment, garnishment or execution, or other legal process, and no persons entitled to such payments shall have the right to assign the same, nor shall the association have the authority to recognize any assignment, or pay over any sum which has been assigned. [1909, ch. 123, § 6.]

§ 4005. Public examiner to make annual examination. It shall be the duty of the public examiner to annually examine the books and accounts of the secretary and treasurer of such relief association receiving funds under the provisions of this article, and if he finds that the money or any part of it has been or is being expended for unauthorized purposes, he shall report the same to the governor. The governor shall thereupon direct the state auditor not to issue any warrants for the benefits of the fire department or relief association of such city, town or village, until it shall be made to appear to the public examiner, who shall report the fact to the governor, that all money wrongfully expended has been replaced. The governor may take such further action as the emergency may demand. [1909, ch. 123, § 7.]

§ 4006. Powers of association through trustees. Said association, through its board of trustees and officers shall have full charge, management and control, of said funds herein provided for, which said funds shall be derived from the following sources:

First: From interest, rents, gifts or money from other sources.

Second: From funds received from the state of North Dakota. [1909, ch. 123, § 8.]

ARTICLE 13.— FREE LIBRARIES.

§ 4007. Library fund, how provided. The city council of each city, not exceeding in population fifty thousand inhabitants, and each village or township board of every village and township containing over four hundred inhabitants, shall have the power to establish and maintain a public library and reading room, and for such purpose may annually levy and cause to be collected, as other taxes collected, a tax not exceeding four mills on each dollar of the taxable property of such city, village or township, to constitute the library fund, which fund shall be kept separate and apart from the other money of the city, village or township, by the treasurer thereof, and the same shall be used exclusively for such purpose, provided, that no library shall be so established without first receiving the approval of the majority of the electors of such city, village or township, voting on such question at any general election at which it may be submitted to a vote. [1911, ch. 179; 1909, ch. 155; R. C. 1905, § 2972; 1887, ch. 56, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 2467; 1901, ch. 97.]

§ 4008. Board of directors. Appointment. For the government of such library and reading room there shall be a board of five directors appointed from the citizens of such city, village or township, of both sexes, who shall be appointed by the board of education or school board of such city or village, or, where there is no incorporated city or village, by the board of supervisors of such township; and there shall be one member of such board of education or school board or board of supervisors appointed as one of the directors of such library and reading room. Such directors shall hold their office for three years from the first day of July in the year of their appointment, and until their successors are appointed, but upon their first appointment they shall divide themselves at their first meeting by lot into three classes, and one of such directors shall hold office for one year and two for two years and the remaining two for three years, and thereafter there shall be appointed in each year the requisite number to fill the vacancies caused by the expiration of the terms of those going out of office in such year. All vacancies shall be immediately reported by the board of directors to the board of education, school board or board of supervisors and filled by such board of education, school board or board of supervisors, and if for an unexpired term, for the residue of the term only. No compensation whatever shall be paid or allowed any director in such official capacity. [1909, ch. 155; R. C. 1905, § 2973; 1887, ch. 56, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 2468.]

§ 4009. Board of directors. Duties. Powers. Said directors shall immediately after their appointment meet and organize by electing from their number a president and secretary. They shall make and adopt such by-laws, rules and regulations relating to the duties of officers and for the management of the library and reading room as may be expedient, not inconsistent with this article. They shall have the exclusive control of the expenditures of all moneys collected for or contributed to the library fund, and the supervision, care and custody of the library property, rooms or buildings constructed, leased or set apart for that purpose, and such money shall be drawn from the treasury by the proper officers upon vouchers of the board of directors without being otherwise audited. They may, with the approval of the board of education or school board or board of township supervisors aforesaid, without which no lease, purchase or contract therefor shall be valid, build, lease or purchase an appropriate building and purchase a site therefor, not, however, employing in such purchase or building more than one-half of the income in any one year. [1909, ch. 155; R. C. 1905, § 2974; 1887, ch. 56, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 2469.]

§ 4010. Regulations governing use of library. Every library and reading room established under this article shall be forever free for the use of the inhabitants of the city, village or township where located, always subject to such reasonable rules and regulations as the board of directors may deem necessary to adopt and publish to render the use of said library and reading room of the greatest benefit, and the board may exclude from the use of said library and reading room any and all persons who shall willfully violate such rules. [1909, ch. 155; R. C. 1905, § 2975; 1887, ch. 56, § 4; R. C. 1899, § 2470.]

§ 4011. Annual report. The board of directors shall make an annual report on July first of each year to the said board of education or school board or board of supervisors stating the condition of the library and property, the various sums of money received from all sources, and how much money has been expended and for what purpose, the number of books and periodicals on hand, the number added by purchase or gift during the year, the number lost and loaned out, the character and kind of books contained in the library, with such other statistics, information and suggestions as they may deem of general interest and a copy of said report shall be filed with the city council or township board and the state library commission. [1909, ch. 155; R. C. 1905, § 2976; 1887, ch. 56, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 2471.]

§ 4012. Donations. All persons desirous of making donations of money, books, personal property or real estate for the benefit of such library shall have the right to vest the same in the board of directors, to be held and controlled by such board when accepted for the use of such library and reading room, and as to such accepted property said board shall be held and considered to be special trustees. [1909, ch. 155; R. C. 1905, § 2977; 1887, ch. 56, § 6; R. C. 1899, § 2472.]

§ 4013. City council appropriate funds. To aid and facilitate the organization of a library in any city, village or township, as in this article provided, where the same is required by the people thereof, and where in any city the sum of four hundred dollars or more shall have been donated and deposited with the city treasurer for that purpose, and in any village or township where the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars or more shall have been donated and deposited with the village or township treasurer for the benefit of such library, and also where such amount shall, prior to the passage of this code, have been donated and expended for the purchase of a library existing in any such city, village or township, the city council of such city is authorized and it shall be its duty to appropriate two hundred dollars from the general fund of such city for such library, for which amount a warrant shall be drawn on the city treasurer; and the board of trustees of such village or the board of supervisors of such township are authorized and it shall be their duty to appropriate one hundred dollars from the general fund of such village or township for such library, for which amount a warrant shall be drawn on such village or township treasurer; provided, that in the case of any library associations now existing it shall first agree to turn over to the library and reading room thus established all books, periodicals and other property. The treasurer of such city, village or township shall accept such warrant and apply the proceeds from the sale of the same to the library fund, which, together with the amount donated, shall be held subject to the order of the board of directors for such library, and the payment of such warrant shall be provided for in the next assessment of taxes in such city, village or township, and such library may be organized without submitting the same to a vote as provided in section one. [1909, ch. 155; R. C. 1905, § 2978; 1887, ch. 56, § 7; R. C. 1899, § 2473.]

ARTICLE 14.—BONDS OF MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS.

§ 4014. Bonded indebtedness. For what incurred. Limit of. Any city or municipal corporation in this state may incur a bonded indebtedness for the purpose of erecting public school buildings and other buildings for city purposes, purchasing fire apparatus, putting in water works, sinking public wells or cisterns and putting in sewers and improving streets, which said indebtedness, together with the indebtedness which then exists shall not, except as otherwise provided, exceed five per cent of the assessed valuation of the taxable property in such city or municipal corporation as shown by the return of the assessor for the year next preceding the time at which such indebtedness shall be incurred. Provided, that any incorporated city may by a three-fourths vote of resident property owners increase such indebtedness three per centum on such assessed value beyond said five per cent limit. [1911, ch. 76; R. C. 1905, § 2979; 1887, ch. 16, § 1; 1890, ch. 97, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 2474.]

Right of taxpayer, in absence of statute, to enjoin issuance or payment of municipal bonds. 36 L.R.A. (N.S.) 3.

§ 4015. Bonds, how issued. Election. The bonds issued for the purposes mentioned in the last section shall be issued by the city council or board of trustees of any city or municipal corporation only upon a majority vote of the qualified electors of such city or municipal corporation voting thereon at an election regularly called for that purpose and in accordance with the provisions of the charter of such city or municipal corporation governing the issuance and sale of bonds; provided, that in all cities and municipal corporations where the charter does not provide the manner of calling and holding an election for the purpose aforesaid, a special election shall be called and held as herein provided, or such question may be submitted at any annual election. The city council or board of trustees at any regular meeting thereof may decide to call a special election to vote bonds for any of the purposes stated in section 4014, and they shall give at least fifteen days' public notice of such election by at least two publications thereof in a weekly newspaper published therein, or if there is no such newspaper then by posting such notice in five public places in such city. Such notice shall state the amount and denomination of the bonds to be voted for, the rate of interest thereof, the purpose for which such bonds are to be issued, the form of the ballots to be used and the time and place of holding such election. The judges and clerks shall be appointed and the election shall be conducted as provided by the charter of said city for conducting annual elections, and the returns shall be canvassed and in like manner returned. This article shall not be construed to limit or restrict the powers already conferred by any special charter upon the council of any city or municipal corporation. The bonds voted as provided for in this article shall be sold at not less than par value. [R. C. 1905, § 2980; 1887, ch. 16, §§ 2, 3; R. C. 1899, § 2475.]

ARTICLE 15.— CITY BONDS FOR AUDITORIUM, GYMNASIUM, PLAY GROUNDS, PUBLIC BATHS, ETC.

§ 4016. Bonded indebtedness, purposes for which incurred. The board of city commissioners or the city council of any city shall have the power to submit to a vote of the electors at any general or special election propositions for the issuing of bonds for the erection of a municipal auditorium, armory, the erection of a joint auditorium and armory, public play grounds, a public gymnasium, public baths, or other public places of amusements or entertainment, and for the purchase of suitable sites for such erection or purpose; and in case a majority of the electors voting on any such proposition vote for the same at any regular election, or at any special election called for that purpose it shall be the duty of the board of city commissioners, or of the city council and mayor of any city, forthwith to issue such bonds and proceed to carry out such proposition so submitted. [1913, ch. 71, § 1.]

This section evidently supersedes paragraph 74 of section 3818.

§ 4017. Bonded indebtedness limit. Bonds for such purposes shall not be voted or issued in a sum which shall increase the indebtedness of such city to an amount exceeding five per cent of the assessed valuation of the taxable property therein, as determined by the last preceding city assessment, except when by a two-thirds vote at a general or special election such city has voted, or at the election authorizing such bond issue, votes by a two-thirds vote, to increase such indebtedness three per centum on such assessed value beyond said five per cent limit. Such limitation shall, however, in no manner affect the right of any city when authorized by a majority vote at any general or special election to become indebted in an amount not exceeding four per cent of such value without regard for the existing indebtedness of such city, for the purpose of constructing or purchasing water works for the purpose of furnishing the water supply to the inhabitants of such city, or for the purpose of constructing sewers, as now by law provided, nor shall bonds so issued for the purpose of constructing or purchasing water works for the purpose of furnishing a water supply to the inhabitants of said city, or for the purpose of constructing sewers be considered or included in determining the debt limit of any city in the matter of issuing bonds for any of the purposes hereinbefore provided. [1913, ch. 71, § 2.]

Refunding bonds as indebtedness within meaning of debt limit provisions. 37 L.R.A. (N.S.) 1099.

§ 4018. Bonds paid, how. No bonds issued under the provisions of this article shall be sold for less than their par value, and the city issuing such bonds shall, at or before the time of issuing the same or incurring the indebtedness for which the same are to be issued, provide for the collection of a direct annual tax sufficient to pay the interest on such debt or such bond when it falls due, and to pay and discharge the principal thereof when the same becomes due, and such provision for the collection of such annual tax shall be irrevocable until such debt is paid; provided, further, that none of the hereinbefore mentioned bonds shall be issued unless at an election after twenty days' notice in a newspaper published in the city, stating the purpose for which said bonds are to be issued and the amount thereof, the legal voters of the city shall, by a majority vote, determine in favor of issuing such bonds; provided, further, that no bonds issued under the provisions of this article shall be issued for a longer period than twenty years. [1913, ch. 71, § 3.]

Payment of commissions for sales of bonds as violating requirement that bonds shall not be sold for less than par. 39 L.R.A. (N.S.) 248.

Accrued interest as part of par value within prohibition against sale of bonds at less than par. 35 L.R.A. (N.S.) 789.

ARTICLE 16.— REFUNDING CITY BONDS.

§ 4019. Refunding authorized. Each incorporated city in this state is authorized and empowered, by and through its city council, when deemed in the judgment of said council to be to the best interests of the city, to issue its negotiable bonds in the name of the city for the sole purpose of funding the outstanding indebtedness of such city, represented by the city warrants, bonds or orders of such city existing against the city, which is at the time due and payable, or is about to become due and payable, or whenever said indebtedness can be refunded at a lower rate of interest than the then existing rate of interest on said indebtedness. [R. C. 1905, § 2981; 1893, ch. 32, § 1; R. C. 1895, § 2476.]

§ 4020. Bonds, denominations, interest. Each bond issued under the provisions of this article shall recite upon its face that it is so issued. Such bonds shall be in denominations of not less than five hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars; shall severally show and bear the date of their issue and the date when payable, and shall be made payable in not less than five years nor more than twenty years from their date; shall be made payable to the purchaser or bearer and made payable anywhere in the United States; shall bear interest not exceeding the rate of six per cent per annum, payable annually or semi-annually as may be agreed upon, and shall have interest coupons attached. Said bonds shall be engraved or lithographed on bond paper, and said bonds and each of said coupons shall be signed by the mayor and attested by the city clerk or auditor of the city in whose name they are issued, and to each bond, but not to the coupons the seal of such city shall be affixed. [R. C. 1905, § 2982; 1893, ch. 32, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 2477.]

§ 4021. Sale of bonds. Such bonds may be sold by the city council at not less than their par value, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied solely to the payment of the outstanding indebtedness of such city represented by city warrants, bonds or orders which are authorized to be funded under the provisions of section 4019; or said bonds issued as herein provided may be exchanged at not less than par value for not less than an equal amount, at par value, of such outstanding bonds, warrants or orders of said city as are authorized to be funded under the provisions of section 4019, and when such exchange shall be made said outstanding bonds, warrants or orders so paid by the issue of bonds as herein provided, shall be marked respectively, "paid by bond No. . . . (stating number of such bond)," and shall be retained by the city treasurer until his settlement with the city council, and shall then be compared with the new bond registered, and after such comparison shall be placed in the custody of the city clerk or auditor whose duty it shall be to preserve the same. [R. C. 1905, § 2983; 1893, ch. 32, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 2478.]

Payment of commissions for sales of bonds as violating requirement that bonds shall not be sold for less than par. 39 L.R.A. (N.S.) 248.

Accrued interest as part of par value within prohibition against sale of bonds at less than par. 35 L.R.A. (N.S.) 789.

§ 4022. Record of bonds. The bonds issued as herein provided shall before delivery thereof to the purchaser be presented by the city clerk or auditor to the city treasurer who shall register them in a book to be kept for that purpose and known as the "bond register," wherein he shall enter the number of each of said bonds, its date, the date of its maturity, its amount and rate of interest and to whom and where payable. [R. C. 1905, § 2984; 1893, ch. 32, § 4; R. C. 1899, § 2479.]

§ 4023. Tax for interest. Sinking fund. The city council shall, each year, levy upon the taxable property in the city a sufficient tax to pay the interest on such bonds as the same shall accrue and also, within a reasonable time before the maturity of said bonds, a sufficient tax to provide a sinking fund for the payment of such bonds at maturity. [R. C. 1905, § 2985; 1893, ch. 32, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 2480.]

§ 4024. Duty of treasurer. On presentation of such bonds and the several coupons thereto attached at their maturity, respectively, it shall be the duty of the city treasurer to pay the same out of any funds in his hands applicable thereto and to cancel the same by writing or stamping across the face of each bond or coupon so paid, "cancelled by payment this day of..... (inserting the date of such payment)." [R. C. 1905, § 2986; 1893, ch. 32, § 6; R. C. 1899, § 2481.]

§ 4025. Bonds negotiable. All bonds issued in substantial conformity to the provisions of the preceding six sections shall in law be considered negotiable. [R. C. 1905, § 2987; 1893, ch. 32, § 7; R. C. 1899, § 2482.]

ARTICLE 17.—REFUNDING BONDED SCHOOL INDEBTEDNESS.

§ 4026. Bonds may be refunded. All bonds heretofore issued by any city or by or under the authority of the board of education of any city in this state for school or school house purposes may be refunded in the discretion of said board in the manner hereinafter provided, whenever there is not sufficient money in the treasury of such city applicable thereto, to pay such bonds. [R. C. 1905, § 2988; 1887, ch. 12, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 2483.]

§ 4027. Denomination of bonds. Said bonds shall be in denominations of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, shall be numbered consecutively from one upward, shall bear the date of their issue, shall be made payable to the purchaser or bearer, shall be payable ten years from date, and shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding seven per cent per annum payable annually, with interest coupons attached, and principal and interest shall be made payable at such place as may be designated by the board of education. The bonds and each coupon shall be signed by the mayor and attested by the city clerk or auditor under the seal of the city. Said bonds shall be printed, engraved or lithographed on bond paper, and a duly authenticated copy of this article shall be printed on the back of each bond. [R. C. 1905, § 2989; 1887, ch. 12, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 2484.]

§ 4028. Board of education to levy tax. The board of education shall levy each year upon the taxable property of such city a tax sufficient to pay the interest on said bonds as the same accrues, and after five years from the date of said bonds an annual sinking fund tax sufficient for the payment of said bonds at maturity, which taxes shall become due and be collected the same as other city taxes. [R. C. 1905, § 2990; 1887, ch. 12, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 2485.]

§ 4029. Bonds, how executed. The refunding of indebtedness and the issuance of bonds provided in this article shall be under the control and direction of the board of education, and a resolution of said board directing the execution of such bonds and specifying the number and amount of each bond shall authorize and require the mayor and city clerk or auditor to execute the same in the manner herein provided, and deliver the bonds so executed to the board of education, who shall provide for the sale and negotiation thereof or for the exchange of said bonds for outstanding bonds authorized to be refunded under this article, as they may deem best; provided, that such refunding bonds shall not be sold or exchanged at less than par value. Both principal and interest of said bonds shall be paid by the city treasurer by warrants drawn upon the funds created therefor and issued under the direction of the board of education. A duly certified copy of the resolution of the board of education authorizing and directing the execution of such bonds by the mayor and city clerk or auditor shall be printed on the back of each bond. A register of all bonds so executed shall be made by the city clerk or auditor and kept in his office as a public record, showing the number, date, amount, interest, name of payee and when and where payable, of each and all bonds executed under the provisions of this article. And after such outstanding bonds shall have been so refunded the same shall be placed in the hands of the city clerk or auditor after having had first marked across the face thereof in red ink the words "refunded bond;" and the city clerk or auditor shall thereupon make a record of each bond in the same manner provided herein for bonds issued under this article and at the next regular meeting of the city council shall cancel and burn said bonds in the presence of the city council and make a record of such action in the proceedings of the council. [R. C. 1905, § 2991; 1887, ch. 12, § 4; R. C. 1899, § 2486.]

ARTICLE 18.—REFUNDING CERTAIN MUNICIPAL BONDS.

§ 4030. What corporation may issue. Each incorporated town or village, school district or township in this state, that has heretofore issued, or shall hereafter issue bonds, purporting to have been issued for any purpose authorized by law, which bonds have been actually sold and delivered to purchasers for value, so that the same constitute a valid and existing indebtedness, may at any time after maturity or before maturity, with the consent of the holder, and while said bonds are a valid and existing indebtedness against such town or village, school district or township, refund the same and issue and negotiate new bonds for the amount of such indebtedness or any part thereof. [R. C. 1905, § 2992; 1905, ch. 54, § 1.]

§ 4031. Authority for issue. The necessity for issuing and negotiating bonds under the provisions of this article shall be determined as follows: In case of incorporated towns or villages, by the board of trustees: In case of school districts, by the board of school directors: In case of townships, by the board of supervisors. [R. C. 1905, § 2993; 1905, ch. 54, § 2.]

§ 4032. Bonds, how issued. When in the judgment of the board of any of the municipal corporations herein enumerated, it shall be deemed to be to the best interests of such municipal corporation to issue its negotiable bonds in the name of such corporation for the purpose of refunding or paying the outstanding bonded indebtedness of such corporation, as enumerated in section 4030, refunding bonds may be issued by resolutions duly and legally passed at a regular or special meeting of such board. Such bonds may be signed the same as the bonds refunded or by such officers of the municipal corporation issuing the same as may be designated in the resolutions providing for their issuance. Such bonds shall be made payable in not less than five and not more than twenty years from the date of their issue, and shall not draw a higher rate of interest than the bonds refunded. Such bonds shall be in such denominations as shall be designated in the resolutions authorizing their issuance, shall bear the date of their issue and date of maturity, and shall recite on their face that they are issued under and by authority of this article, and shall be payable to the purchaser or bearer, and shall have interest coupons attached to each bond representing each interest payment. [R. C. 1905, § 2994; 1905, ch. 54, § 3.]

§ 4033. Bonds may be exchanged or sold. Said bonds may be exchanged at par for an equal amount of the old bonds of said municipal corporation with the holder of said indebtedness, or may be sold by the board at not less than their par value and the proceeds applied solely to the payment of the indebtedness for which they are issued. [R. C. 1905, § 2995; 1905, ch. 54, § 4.]

§ 4034. Bonds to be registered by the treasurer. A record of each and every bond issued under this article shall be kept by the treasurer of the municipal corporation issuing the same, showing the number of each bond, its date, amount, rate of interest, date due, where payable and to whom sold. [R. C. 1905, § 2996; 1905, ch. 54, § 5.]

§ 4035. Tax to be levied. The resolutions authorizing the issuance of such bonds shall provide for the levy and collection of an annual tax sufficient to pay the interest and principal of such bonds, as provided by section 184 of the constitution, and the fund arising from such tax levy shall be kept by the treasurer of such corporation in a special fund to be used solely for the payment of the interest and principal of such bonds. [R. C. 1905, § 2997; 1905, ch. 54, § 6.]

§ 4036. Limit of issue. No more of such bonds shall be issued than are necessary for the purpose of paying the outstanding bonds of the municipal corporations issuing the same, as stated in section 4030 of this article, after applying the cash in the treasury available for the payment of the said maturing bonds, and no bonds issued under authority of this article shall be issued or negotiated for less than their par value. [R. C. 1905, § 2998; 1905, ch. 54, § 7.]

§ 4037. Bonds negotiable, when. Bonds issued in substantial conformity with the provisions of this article, shall in law be deemed negotiable. [R. C. 1905, § 2999; 1905, ch. 54, § 8.]

ARTICLE 19.—TAXES IN CERTAIN CORPORATIONS.

§ 4038. Interest fund. Any city, town or village in this state having not less than three thousand inhabitants is authorized and empowered through its proper officers to levy and collect taxes not exceeding twelve mills on the dollar of the assessed valuation of said city, town or village, for the purpose of creating an interest fund with which to pay interest upon the existing bonded indebtedness of such municipality, including bonds, if any, issued under the direction of the respective boards of education therein. If any officer of such municipality shall use the moneys collected by virtue of this section for any other purpose than that expressed herein, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars or imprisoned in the county jail not less than thirty days nor more than one year. [R. C. 1905, § 3000; 1887, ch. 139, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 2487.]

§ 4039. Sinking fund. They may also levy and collect taxes not exceeding four mills on the dollar for the purpose of creating a sinking fund to pay the bonds of the municipality as the same may mature; and the proper officers of the municipality may invest the money in said fund in interest bearing securities of the state or of any organized county therein or of the municipality, and shall in no other manner dispose of the money in said fund, and if any officer of such municipalities shall use the money in said fund in any other manner than as provided in this section he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. [R. C. 1905, § 3001; 1887, ch. 139, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 2488.]

§ 4040. For school purposes. They may also levy and collect taxes for school purposes not to exceed twenty mills on the dollar, the taxes so levied and collected to be kept in a fund to be called the school fund to be expended under the direction of the board of education. [R. C. 1905, § 3002; 1887, ch. 139, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 2489.]

§ 4041. For other municipal purposes. They may also levy and collect taxes not exceeding twenty mills on the dollar for all other municipal purposes in any one year, on all taxable property within said municipality, and taxes so levied and collected shall be kept in a fund to be called the general fund. [R. C. 1905, § 3003; 1887, ch. 139, § 4; 1890, ch. 98, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 2490.]

Tax cannot be levied for purely private objects. Manning v. City of Devils Lake, 13 N. D. 47, 99 N. W. 51.

§ 4043. Limitation of indebtedness. It shall be unlawful for the officers of such municipality to incur any greater indebtedness in any one year than three thousand dollars in excess of the taxes levied for that year, unless authorized and directed so to do by a vote of the electors of such municipality at an election held for that purpose. Any officer or officers contracting the same shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and if any officer of said municipality shall issue any evidence of such indebtedness he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. [R. C. 1905, § 3005; 1887, ch. 139, § 6; R. C. 1899, § 2492.]

ARTICLE 20.— COLLECTION OF CITY TAXES.

§ 4044. City property, how assessed. The assessors of the several incorporated cities of the state having city assessors shall make out and deliver to the county auditors of their respective counties the assessment roll of said city or cities at the time and in the manner provided by the general laws of the state for county and township assessors; provided, that in all incorporated cities of this state, whether incorporated under special acts, or otherwise, not having city assessors, the assessment roll of all property subject to taxation in any such city made and equalized for county purposes shall be and constitute the assessment roll for said city and the county auditor of the county in which any such city is situated shall, as soon as said assessment roll is completed, certify to the city council of every such city within his county the aggregate amount of the valuation of the taxable property in any such city as shown by said assessment roll; provided, further, that all taxes in any such city levied before the passage and approval of this code shall be collected as now provided by law or ordinance. [R. C. 1905, § 3006; 1887, ch. 142, § 1; 1889, ch. 27, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 2493.]

§ 4045. Tax levy, made when. The common council of such cities shall, on or before the first Monday in September of each year, or within ten days thereafter, make the tax levy for the current fiscal year, and fix the rate of taxation upon the property in such city, and the auditor of such city shall forthwith transmit the same to the county auditor. [R. C. 1905, § 3007; 1887, ch. 142, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 2494; 1903, ch. 160.]

1905, § 3009; 1887, ch. 142, § 4; 1889, ch. 29, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 2496; 1901, ch. 149.]

The amendment of 1901 to this section does not by implication repeal section 1575. City of Fargo v. Ross, Co. Treas., 11 N. D. 369, 92 N. W. 449.

§ 4048. Salaries of city treasurers. The city council of all such cities shall have authority to regulate and fix the compensation and salaries of city treasurers within their respective cities, whether such cities have heretofore had such power under their charters or not, and such salaries shall in no case exceed six hundred dollars. [R. C. 1905, § 3010; 1887, ch. 142, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 2497.]

§ 4049. Does not apply to taxes for special improvements. This article shall not apply to taxes levied by such cities for special improvements therein. [R. C. 1905, § 3011; 1887, ch. 142, § 6; R. C. 1899, § 2498.]

ARTICLE 21.—ROAD AND BRIDGE TAXES.

§ 4050. Road funds to be turned over. All road taxes collected as personal taxes from residents of any incorporated city, town or village, and all road taxes collected on account of real or personal property situated within any incorporated city, town or village by the treasurer of the county in which such city or town is located, shall be turned over quarterly by such treasurer to the treasurer of such incorporated city, town or village to be expended under the direction of the city council of such city or of the board of trustees of such town or village, as the case may be, in the improvement of the streets or bridges thereof or of the roads approaching thereto. [R. C. 1905, § 3012; 1887, ch. 147, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 2499.]

Words "incorporated city or town" does not include civil townships, not merely incorporated municipalities. Blue Grass Twp. v. Morton County, 21 N. D. 557, 132 N. W. 148.

§ 4051. Bridge funds to be turned over to city. The county treasurer of each county wherein any city or municipal corporation shall have constructed a bridge or shall hereafter construct a bridge over any navigable stream shall pay to the city treasurer of such city or municipality whereby such bridge has been constructed or is about to be constructed, all money in the county treasury or which may come into the county treasury in the bridge fund of such county, which may have been or shall be levied, assessed and collected from persons and property, or either, in said city or municipality. [R. C. 1905, § 3013; 1890, ch. 39, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 2500.]

Is constitutional. State ex rel. Hagen v. Anderson, 22 N. D. 65, 132 N. W. 433.

ARTICLE 22.—LOCAL IMPROVEMENTS IN CERTAIN CITIES.

§ 4052. Assessments for. The city council of any city not organized under the general law for the incorporation of cities shall have power to make assessments for local improvements on property adjoining or benefited thereby, including extension of water mains in such cities, owning and operating exclusively a public system of water works, to collect the same in the manner hereinafter provided, and to fix and determine and collect penalties for nonpayment of any such special assessment and taxes. [R. C. 1905, § 3014; 1890, ch. 96, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 2501.]

§ 4053. Improvements, how made. When the city council of such city shall deem it necessary to open, widen, extend, grade, pave, macadamize, bridge, curb, gutter, drain or otherwise improve any street, alley, lane or highway or other public grounds within the city limits, or extend or improve any public system of water works exclusively owned and operated by the said city for which a special assessment is to be levied, as herein provided, the city council shall, by resolution, declare such work or improvement necessary to be done, and such resolution shall be published for three consecutive weeks, at least once a week, in the official newspaper of the city, and unless a majority, in value, of the owners of the property liable to be assessed therefor, shall, within twenty days after the expiration of such publication, file with the city clerk or auditor a written protest against such improvement, then the city council shall have power to cause such improvement to be made and to contract therefor, and to levy and collect the assessment upon the property so benefited in the manner and at the time other taxes are collected, and all work done under this section shall be let by contract to the lowest responsible bidder therefor. [R. C. 1905, § 3015; 1890, ch. 96, § 2; R. C. 1899, § 2502.]

ARTICLE 23.—PARKS AND PUBLIC GROUNDS.

§ 4054. Cities may acquire real estate for. Cities and villages in this state are empowered and authorized to receive by gift or devise, real estate within their corporate limits or within five miles thereof for purposes of parks or public grounds. Such real estate shall be vested in the city or village upon the conditions imposed by the donors, and upon the acceptance thereof by the mayor and city council or the board of trustees, the jurisdiction of the city council or board of trustees shall be extended over such real estate. The city council and board of trustees of villages shall have power to enact by-laws, rules and ordinances for the protection and preservation of any real estate acquired as herein contemplated, and to provide suitable penalties for the violation of any such by-laws, rules or ordinances. The police powers of any city or village that shall acquire any real estate as herein contemplated shall be at once extended over the same by virtue of this article. [R. C. 1905, § 3016; 1890, ch. 99, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 2503.]

As to right to acquire land for park purposes by common-law dedication. Cole v. Minnesota Loan & T. Co., 17 N. D. 409, 117 N. W. 354, 17 A. & E. Ann. Cas. 304.

ARTICLE 24.—PARKS AND PARK DISTRICTS.

§ 4055. Procedure. Any incorporated city of the state of North Dakota may by a two-thirds vote of its council by yeas and nays at a regular meeting thereof, take advantage of the provisions of this article. [1907, ch. 179, § 1; R. C. 1905, § 3017; 1905, ch. 143, § 1.]

Not unconstitutional as delegating legislative power to council. Vallely v. Park Comrs., 16 N. D. 25, 15 L.R.A.(N.S.) 61, 111 N. W. 615.

§ 4056. Park districts, how created. Any city desiring to take advantage of this article shall do so by ordinance expressing its intent and desire so to do, whereupon the territory embraced in such city shall be deemed and it is hereby declared to be a park district of the state of North Dakota. [1907, ch. 179, § 2; R. C. 1905, § 3018; 1905, ch. 143, § 2.]

§ 4057. How designated. Powers of. Each park district of the state shall be known as "park district of the city of," and as such shall have a seal and perpetual succession, with power to sue and be sued, contract and be contracted with, acquire by purchase, gift, devise or otherwise, and hold, own, possess and maintain real and personal property in trust for the purpose of parks, boulevards and ways, and to exercise all the powers hereinafter designated or which may hereafter be conferred upon it. [1907, ch. 179, § 3; R. C. 1905, § 3019; 1905, ch. 143, § 3.]

§ 4058. Election of commissioners. Filling vacancies. The powers of each park district shall be exercised by a board of park commissioners consisting of five members who shall hold office for the period of five years from and after the date of their election and qualification and until their successors are duly elected and qualified, except the members of the first board, who shall hold office as follows: One member until the third Tuesday in April of the year following their election, one member until one year from the last mentioned date, one member until two years from the last mentioned date, one member until three years from the last mentioned date and one member until four years from such last mentioned date. The members of the park commission shall qualify by taking and filing with the city auditor of the city the oath prescribed by section 211 of the constitution. The city treasurer shall be ex-officio treasurer of the park district. He shall take the oath prescribed by section 211 of the constitution and shall furnish such bond as may be required by the commission. The members of the commission shall be elected by the qualified electors of the park district at the annual city election held on the first Monday of April of each year, shall qualify within ten days after their election, and shall on the third Tuesday of April organize by the selection of a president and vice-president. The first board may be elected at a regular annual city election or at a special election for that purpose called by the city council. The members of the board shall receive no compensation for their services as such, and shall have the qualifications of electors of such district. They shall not be interested in any contract entered into by said commission. Vacancies on such board shall be filled by the board until the next regular election of members of the board, when such vacancies shall be filled by election. Removal of residence from the park district by any member of the commission shall create a vacancy. [1907, ch. 179, § 4; B. C. 1905, § 3020; 1905, ch. 143, § 4.]

§ 4059. Powers of commission. The park commission shall have power:

1. To acquire by purchase, gift, devise, condemnation or otherwise, land within its territorial limits, or within two miles therefrom, for parks, boulevards and ways, and shall have sole and exclusive authority to maintain, govern, erect and improve the same.

2. To lay out, open, grade, curb, pave and otherwise improve any path, way or street, in, through or around said parks, and to construct, erect, build, maintain, manage, govern and erect any and all buildings, pavilions, play and pleasure grounds or fields and such other improvements of a like character as may be deemed necessary.

3. To pass all ordinances necessary, requisite and needful for the regulation and government thereof, and to make, change and enforce any order with reference thereto.

4. To levy special assessments on all property specially benefited by the purchase, opening, establishment and improvement of such parks, boulevards and ways or streets or ways about the same.

5. To require the services of the city engineer of the city included in such park district, who shall be ex-officio engineer and surveyor of such commission, and to require the services of a clerk, and such clerk shall be paid by such commission for his services as clerk a salary not to exceed twenty-five dollars ($25.00) per month, to appoint other employes for the performance of manual labor, including such police force as may be deemed necessary.

6. To issue the negotiable bonds of the park district in a sum not to exceed one and one-half per cent of the taxable property therein situated, for the sole and exclusive purposes of purchasing and acquiring lands for such parks, boulevards and ways, and for the permanent improvement thereof, including the erection and construction of buildings, pavilions, plays and pleasure fields; provided, such bonds shall not bear a rate of interest to exceed six per cent; and provided, further, that upon the affirmative vote of the electors of such district, as by law provided, such commission may be authorized to issue such bonds in any amount in the aggregate not to exceed five per cent of the value of the taxable property in such district.

7. To levy taxes upon all property within said district for the purpose of maintaining and improving said parks, boulevards and ways, and to defray the expenses of such board; provided, that such tax so levied shall in no year exceed the sum of three mills on each dollar of taxable property within said district.

8. To establish building lines for all property fronting on any park, boulevard or way under the direction and control of such commission, and to control the subdivision and planting of property within four hundred feet thereof.

9. To borrow money in anticipation of taxes already levied to defray the expenses of the year and to issue therefor the notes or obligations of the district.

10. To connect any park or parks owned or controlled by it with any other park or parks, and for that purpose to select and take charge of any connecting street or streets or parts thereof, and the said park commission shall have sole and exclusive charge and control of such street or streets so taken for such purpose.

11. To plant, set out, maintain, protect and care for shade trees in any of the public streets or highways of their respective districts, and to specify and regulate the kinds of trees that shall be planted or set out in such streets or highways, the size and location of such trees and the methods to be used in the planting and cultivation thereof, and to pass such ordinances as may be requisite, necessary or needful for the protection and control of such trees. [1911, ch. 75; 1909, ch. 176, § 5; 1907, ch. 179, § 5; R. C. 1905, § 3021; 1905, ch. 143, § 5.]

3. Prohibiting use of automobiles in parks. 1 L.R.A.(N.S.) 221.

4. Power to improve streets for park purposes at expense of abutting owner. 32 L.R.A.(N.S.) 1056.

§ 4060. Meetings, where held. Ordinances. The park commission shall hold a regular meeting on the first Tuesday of each month at such hour as it may by rule designate, and such special meetings as it may deem necessary. Special meetings may be called by the president and must be called by him upon the request in writing of two members of the board. The commission shall have power to adopt such rules of procedure as it may deem necessary. The powers of the commission shall be exercised by ordinance unless otherwise provided. All ordinances shall be read twice and at least eight days shall intervene between the readings. They shall be adopted by yea and nay vote and shall be approved by the president and published in the official newspaper of the city and shall go into effect upon such publication. The enacting clause of all ordinances shall be as follows: "Be it enacted by the park commissioners of the park district of the city of" The yea and nay votes shall be taken on all propositions involving the expenditure of money, and levying of taxes or the issuance of bonds or other certificates of indebtedness. All contracts shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder after advertisement in the official newspaper of the city for three successive weeks, once in each week; provided, that such commission shall have the power to reject all bids. All contracts shall be in writing and signed by the president and clerk of the board and unless so executed shall be void. At no time shall the debt of the park district exceed five per cent of the taxable property within the district, according to the last preceding assessment. No bill, claim, account or demand against the district shall be audited, allowed or paid until a full itemized statement in writing properly verified shall be filed with the park commission. All claims against the park district arising out of negligence shall be in writing and verified by the claimant, and shall contain a full, clear and concise statement of the transaction out of which it is alleged to arise, giving time, place, extent of injury or damage, and shall be filed within thirty days from the date thereof with the clerk of the board. No action shall be maintained unless begun after thirty days and within six months from the date of the filing of the claim. [1907, ch. 179, § 6; R. C. 1905, § 3022; 1905, ch. 143, § 6.]

—for negligence of park commissioners. 2 L.R.A.(N.S.) 147.

Municipal liability for injuries through unsafe conditions in parks or public grounds other than streets. 33 L.R.A.(N.S.) 523.

§ 4061. Police magistrate to have jurisdiction. The police magistrate of the city shall have exclusive jurisdiction to try and determine all causes of action for violation of the rules or ordinances enacted by the board and the procedure therein with the right of appeal shall be as prescribed by general law. [1907, ch. 179, § 7; R. C. 1905, § 3023; 1905, ch. 143, § 7.]

§ 4062. General law governs commissioners. In the issuing of bonds, warrants, certificates of indebtedness and in levying any tax or special assessment and in otherwise carrying out, enforcing or making effective any of the powers herein granted, the park commissioners and their officers and the park district shall be governed by and shall follow the laws enacted for the government of cities, except as herein otherwise specially provided. [1907, ch. 179, § 8; R. C. 1905, § 3024; 1905, ch. 143, § 8.]

§ 4063. Repeal. Chapter 143 of the laws of North Dakota of 1905 is hereby repealed, but in so far as said law has not been held to be unconstitutional and void, this article, so far as consistent therewith, shall be held and construed to be a continuation of and not a repeal of such law. [1907, ch. 179, § 9.]

Chapter 143 of the Laws of 1905, here repealed, constitutes sections 3017-3024 of the Revised Codes of 1905.

ARTICLE 25.—VILLAGE PARKS.

§ 4064. Procedure. Any incorporated village of the state of North Dakota may, by a majority vote of its board of trustees by yeas and nays at a regular meeting thereof, take advantage of the provisions of this article. [1913, ch. 290, § 1.]

§ 4065. Creation of park districts. Any village desiring to take advantage of this article shall do so by ordinance or resolution regularly adopted, expressing its intent or desire so to do, whereupon the territory embraced in such village, or within the park which may be acquired under this article if not within the village limits, shall be deemed and is hereby declared to be a park district of the state of North Dakota. [1913, ch. 290, § 2.]

§ 4066. How designated. Power of. Each park district under this article shall be known as "park district of the village of," and as such district shall have a seal and perpetual succession, with power to sue and be sued, contract and be contracted with, acquire by purchase, gift, devise or otherwise, and hold, own, possess and maintain real and personal property in trust for the purpose of parks, boulevards and ways, and to exercise all the powers herein designated, or which may hereafter be conferred upon it. [1913, ch. 290, § 3.]

§ 4067. Commissioners, election thereof and filling of vacancies. The powers of each park district shall be exercised by a board of commissioners consisting of three members, who shall hold office for a period of three years from and after the date of their election and qualification, except the members of the first board, who shall hold office as follows: One member until the first annual village election following their election; one member until one year from the last mentioned date and one member until two years from such last mentioned date. The members of the park commission shall qualify by taking and filing with the village clerk the oath prescribed by section 211 of the constitution. The village treasurer shall be ex-officio treasurer of the park district, and he shall take the oath prescribed by section 211 of the constitution, and shall furnish and file such bond as may be required by the commission. The members of the park commission shall be elected by the qualified electors of the village at the annual village election, and shall qualify within ten days after their election, and shall organize, within ten days after so qualifying, by the selection of a president, vice-president and secretary. The first board may be elected at a regular or special meeting called therefor by the board of trustees of the village. The members shall receive no compensation for their services, and shall have the qualifications of electors of the village. They shall not be interested in any contract entered into by said commission. Vacancies on the board shall be filled by the remaining members of the board until the next regular village election when such vacancies shall be filled by election. [1913, ch. 290, § 4.]

§ 4068. Powers of the commission. The park commission shall have power:

(a) To acquire by purchase, gift, devise, condemnation or otherwise, land within its territorial limits or within one mile therefrom, for parks, boulevards and ways, and shall have sole and exclusive power and authority to maintain, govern, erect and improve the same.

(b) To lay out, open, grade, curb, pave and otherwise improve any path, way or street, in, through or around said parks, and to construct, erect, build, maintain, manage, govern, any and all buildings pavilions, play and pleasure grounds or fields, and such other improvements (of) or a like character as they may deem necessary.

(c) To pass and promulgate all rules and regulations, either by ordinance or resolution, requisite and needful for the regulation and government thereof, and to make, change and enforce any order with reference thereto.

(d) To levy special assessments on all property specially benefited by the purchase, establishment and improvements of such parks, boulevards and ways or streets about the same.

(e) To employ such engineers, surveyors and clerks or other employes, including such police force as may be necessary, and to define and prescribe their respective duties and to fix their compensation.

(f) To issue negotiable bonds of the park district in a sum not to exceed one and one-half per cent of the taxable property therein situated, for the sole and exclusive purpose of purchasing and acquiring lands for such parks, boulevards and ways, and for the permanent improvements thereof, including the erection of the necessary buildings, pavilions, play and pleasure fields; provided, however, that such bonds shall not bear a rate of interest to exceed six per cent per annum.

(g) To levy taxes upon all property within said district for the purpose of maintaining and improving said parks, boulevards and ways, and to defray the expenses of such board and their employes; provided, however, that such taxes so levied shall in no year exceed the sum of three mills on each dollar of taxable property within said district.

(h) To establish building and street lines for all property fronting on any park, boulevard or way, under the direction and control of said commission, and to control the subdivision and platting of property within two hundred feet thereof.

(i) To borrow money in anticipation of taxes already levied to defray the expenses of the year, and to issue therefor warrants or other obligation of the district.

(j) To plant, to set out, maintain and protect and care for shade trees in any of the public streets or highways of said parks or park districts, and to specify and regulate the kind of trees that shall be planted or set out in such streets or highways, the size and location of such trees and the method to be used in planting and cultivating the same, and to pass such resolutions or ordinances as may be necessary or needful for their control and protection. [1913, ch. 290, § 5.]

See annotation to section 4059.

§ 4069. Meetings are held, ordinances and resolutions. The park commission shall hold a regular meeting on the first Monday of each and every month at such hour as it may deem most convenient, and such special meetings as it shall deem necessary. Special meetings may be called by the president, and shall be subject to the same regulations as the calling of special meetings of the board of trustees of the village. The powers of the commission shall be exercised by resolution or ordinance. All resolutions or ordinances shall be read once, and shall be adopted by the yeas and nays, be approved by the president and upon the same being published once in the official paper of the village, they shall go into effect within three days after the publication thereof. No expenditure of money, or levying of taxes, or the issuance of bonds, or other certificate of indebtedness, shall be made excepting upon the yeas and nays vote of the commission. The letting of all contracts shall be subject to the same regulations and restrictions as provided for the letting of contracts by the village, and shall be signed by the president and secretary. At no time shall the debt of the park district exceed five per cent of the taxable property within the district, according to the last preceding assessment. All bills, claims and accounts or demands against said district shall be audited, allowed and paid in the same manner as bills against the village, and no action of any kind shall be maintained unless such claim, bill or demand has been regularly presented. [1913, ch. 290, § 6.]

§ 4070. Justice of the peace. Jurisdiction. The village justice of the peace shall have the full and exclusive jurisdiction to try and determine all causes of action for the violation of any rules, ordinances or resolutions enacted by the board, and all procedure before the justice shall be the same as is now prescribed for the trying of offenses against the village ordinances. [1913, ch. 290, § 7.]

§ 4071. General laws govern commission. In the issuing of bonds, warrants, certificates of indebtedness and in levying on taxes or special assessments, and in otherwise carrying on, enforcing or making effective any of the powers herein granted, the park commissioners and their officers, and the park district, shall be governed by and shall follow the laws enacted for the government of villages, except as herein otherwise specially provided. [1913, ch. 290, § 8.]

ARTICLE 1.—HOW ORGANIZED AND NAMED.

§ 4072. Petition for organization of township. Whenever a majority of the legal voters of any congressional township in this state having an assessed valuation exceeding forty thousand dollars and containing twenty-five legal voters petition the board of county commissioners to be organized as a township under this article such board shall forthwith proceed to fix and determine the boundaries of such new township and to name the same; and the board shall make a full report of all its proceedings in relation to laying off such township and file the same with the county auditor. [R. C. 1905, § 3047; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 2526; 1905, ch. 179.]

§ 4073. Fragment of township attached to adjoining township. A fraction of a township may be attached by such board to an adjoining township or be divided between two or more townships or organized separately, according to the wishes of a majority of the legal voters to be affected thereby; and when rivers, lakes or creeks so divide a township as to make it inconvenient to do township business, such board may dispose of any fraction so formed by annexing the same to an adjoining township in the same county if it shall seem to it proper, whenever petitioned to do so by not less than two-thirds of the legal voters residing in such fraction, and the fact that any such petition is signed by two-thirds of such voters may be proved by the affidavit of any legal voter residing in such fraction having knowledge of the fact; and townships having two or more villages or cities, each containing two hundred or more inhabitants, may petition the board of county commissioners for division; and whenever the board is so petitioned, it may, if it thinks the interest of such township will be subserved thereby, divide such townships in such manner as will best suit the convenience of the territory, and the board of county commissioners of any county lying west of the Missouri river may unite not less than two congressional townships into one civil township, or may add not more than three congressional townships to any congressional township already organized as a civil township, when petitioned by a majority of the legal voters affected thereby, if in the opinion of the board the best interests of such townships will be subserved thereby; provided, that at least twenty days' notice shall be given by the board of county commissioners to the chairman of the board of supervisors of each township affected by the change before action is taken thereon; provided, further, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to release any property in or belonging to that part of any township so detached from any tax levied or assessed prior to such division being made; provided, also, that the portion of any township annexed to any other township, and any village or city separated from any township, under the provisions of this article, shall not be released from nor in any way discharged from the payment of any bonded or other indebtedness that may exist against the township from which separation has been made. [1913, ch. 91; R. C. 1905, § 3048; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 2; 1885, Spl. ch. 50, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 2527.]

§ 4074. Name of township. Townships thus formed shall be named in accordance with the expressed wish of a majority of the legal voters residing therein, but if they fail to designate a name the board of county commissioners may select a name. [R. C. 1905, § 3049; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 2528.]

§ 4075. First township meeting. The board of county commissioners shall thereupon make out notices designating a suitable place for holding the first township meeting in each township, which shall be held within twenty days after the township is organized; and the county auditor shall deliver such notice to the sheriff of the county, who shall cause the same to be posted in each township not less than ten days before the day set for such meeting. [R. C. 1905, § 3050; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 4; R. C. 1899, § 2529.]

§ 4076. County auditor transmits name to state auditor. Each county auditor shall, within thirty days after such township is organized, transmit by mail to the state auditor an abstract of such report, giving the bounds of each township and the name designated; and the county auditor shall record in a book kept for that purpose a full description of each township. [R. C. 1905, § 3051; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 2530.]

§ 4077. When similar names are adopted by different townships. If the state auditor on comparing the abstract of the reports from the several counties finds that any two or more townships have the same name he shall transmit to the county auditor of the proper county the name of the township to be altered; and the board of county commissioners shall at its next meeting thereafter adopt for such township some name different from those theretofore named, so that no two townships organized under this chapter shall have the same name, and when such name is adopted the county auditor shall inform the state auditor as before directed. [R. C. 1905, § 3052; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 6; R. C. 1899, § 2531.]

§ 4078. Present boundaries to remain. The boundary lines of each organized township shall remain as now established until otherwise provided by the board of county commissioners under authority of law. [R. C. 1905, § 3053; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 7; R. C. 1899, § 2532.]

ARTICLE 2.—DIVISION OF ORGANIZED TOWNSHIPS.

§ 4079. Civil townships, how formed. Any congressional township or fraction thereof, bordering on a lake or bordering on a river, containing more than eighteen sections of land, which has residing therein one hundred or more inhabitants, and forming a part of an organized civil township, may be set apart and organized as a separate civil township in the manner herein provided, and when duly organized shall have the same powers and privileges and be subject to the same liabilities and restrictions as other civil townships, except as herein otherwise provided; but no civil township shall be so formed under the provisions of this article as to leave residing in the township from which it is separated less than one hundred inhabitants; provided, such separation shall be made only upon congressional township lines. [1909, ch. 221; R. C. 1905, § 3054; 1899, ch. 60; R. C. 1899, § 2533.]

§ 4080. Petition county commissioners. Notice published. The legal voters residing in such congressional or fractional township bordering on a lake, may petition the board of county commissioners of the county in which it is situated, at any regular meeting of said board, to be set off as a separate civil township, upon at least thirty days' previous notice thereof, and of the time and place of application, which notice shall be published at least three times in the newspaper in which the proceedings of said board are published, or, if there is none such, notice shall be posted in at least three public places in the proposed new township, and as many more elsewhere in the township affected thereby, one of which shall be at the place where the last election was held. [R. C. 1905, § 3055; 1899, ch. 60; R. C. 1899, § 2534.]

§ 4081. When boards shall set off townships. Election. Upon presentation of such petition signed by a majority of the legal voters residing within such proposed township and due proof of notice as herein provided and of the further fact that the territory has the requisite number of inhabitants and the petition the requisite number of competent signers as aforesaid the board shall proceed to set off said congressional or fractional township bordering on a lake as a separate civil township and constitute the same an election precinct, and designate the place of holding elections and the time and place of holding the first township meeting therein, and the name adopted for such township, and notice thereof shall be given as in other cases. The board of county commissioners, within thirty days after such election, shall meet as a board of arbitrators together with the county auditor and judge of the county court and determine, subject to appeal to the district court, upon a just and fair distribution of the property and apportionment of the debt of said township between the townships so formed from said original township. [R. C. 1905, § 3056; 1899, ch. 60; R. C. 1899, § 2535.]

§ 4082. Proportional share of moneys. Liabilities. The new township shall succeed to a proportional share of the moneys and other property of the former township and to a like share of its debts and liabilities existing at the time of the division, such proportion to be determined by the relative value of the property of the respective parts as shown by the last preceding assessment and the account shall be settled between them by the board of county commissioners at its next regular meeting after the organization of the new township from the best evidence obtainable and for that purpose said board shall have power to bring before it the necessary witnesses, books and papers upon subpoenas to be issued by the clerk of the district court upon request of the chairman, and the statement of such account shall be conclusive as between the respective townships unless appealed from as provided by law, but the enforcement of their respective obligations thereon must be left to the courts; provided, however, that no division of a civil township as herein provided shall operate to prevent the enforcement of obligations existing prior thereto to the same extent as if no division was made. [R. C. 1905, § 3057; 1895, ch. 30, § 4; R. C. 1899, § 2536.]

Division of territory of town as affecting its assets and liabilities. 39 L.R.A.(N.S.) 285.

Liability of territory annexed to township to pay proportionate share of existing debts. 27 L.R.A.(N.S.) 1147.

ARTICLE 3.—CORPORATE POWERS.

§ 4083. Powers of township. Each township is a body corporate and has capacity:

1. To sue and be sued.
2. To purchase and hold lands within its limits and for the use of its inhabitants, subject to the powers of the legislative assembly.
3. To make such contracts and purchase and hold such personal property as may be necessary for the exercise of its corporate or administrative powers.
4. To make such orders for the disposition, regulation or use of its corporate property as may be deemed conducive to the interests of its inhabitants. [R. C. 1905, § 3058; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 8; R. C. 1899, § 2537.]

§ 4084. Powers of, limited. No township shall possess or exercise any corporate powers except such as are enumerated in this chapter, or specially given by law or necessary to the exercise of the powers so enumerated or granted. [R. C. 1905, § 3059; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 9; R. C. 1899, § 2538.]

Supervisors possess only powers expressly conferred by statute. Aldrich v. Collins, 3 S. D. 154, 52 N. W. 854; Van Antwerp v. Dell Rapids Township, 3 S. D. 305, 53 N. W. 82.

Right to exercise any corporate power denied if in doubt. Aldrich v. Collins, 3 S. D. 154, 52 N. W. 854; Van Antwerp v. Dell Rapids Township, 3 S. D. 305, 53 N. W. 82.

Power of town to remove officer in absence of statutory authority. 9 L.R.A.(N.S.) 572; 39 L.R.A.(N.S.) 519.

Power of town board to appoint officers or make contract for term of office extending beyond its own term. 29 L.R.A.(N.S.) 652.

Liability of township on negotiable paper executed by officer of town. 21 L.R.A.(N.S.) 1078.

§ 4085. Actions to be in corporate name. All actions or proceedings by or against a township in its corporate capacity shall be in the name of such township; but each conveyance of land within the limits of such township, made in any manner for the use or benefit of its inhabitants, has the same effect as if made to the township by name. [R. C. 1905, § 3060; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 10; R. C. 1899, § 2539.]

ARTICLE 4.— ANNUAL TOWNSHIP MEETINGS.

§ 4086. Annual township meeting, when held. The citizens of the several townships of this state, qualified to vote at general elections, shall annually assemble and hold township meetings in their respective townships, on the third Tuesday in March at such place in each township as the electors thereof at their annual township meetings from time to time appoint; and notice of the time and place of holding such meetings shall be given by the township clerk, by posting up written or printed notices in three of the most public places in such township at least ten days prior to such meetings; provided, that before any change of place of holding meetings is made, notice of such contemplated change may be given by any member of the township board to the township clerk, who shall in his regularly printed or written notices as above provided, incorporate the special notice of the contemplated change of place of holding such meetings. [R. C. 1905, § 3061; 1899, ch. 159; R. C. 1899, § 2540; 1901, ch. 203.]

Township election day not legal holiday. State v. Currie, 8 N. D. 545, 80 N. W. 475.
On right to raise money for highway purposes at annual town meeting and disposition of fund illegally raised. Miner v. Clifton Twp., 30 S. D. 127, 137 N. W. 585.

§ 4087. Township officers, when elected. Term of office. There shall be elected at the annual township meeting in each township one supervisor for a term of three years; one township clerk, one assessor, one treasurer, two justices of the peace and two constables shall be elected once in two years, except to fill vacancies.

In the event that the county commissioners have not at their regular meeting after April first appointed a county superintendent of highways, then the board of supervisors shall appoint one overseer of highways for each township, who shall hold his office during the pleasure of the board.

At the first annual township meeting in each township after the taking effect of this article, there shall be elected at large for each township, three supervisors, one to serve until the first annual township meeting, one to serve until the second annual township meeting and one to serve until the third annual township meeting thereafter; provided, that the provisions hereof shall not affect the terms of supervisors elected prior to the taking effect of this act [section 4087].

The board of supervisors at the first regular meeting shall elect one of their members as chairman to serve for a period of one year. [1913, ch. 90; 1911, ch. 306; R. C. 1905, § 3062; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 12; R. C. 1899, § 2541; 1905, ch. 182.]

Supervisors not empowered to purchase road machine without electors' authority. F. C. Austin Mfg. Co. v. Twin Brooks Twp., 16 S. D. 126, 91 N. W. 470.

§ 4088. Powers of electors. The electors of each township have power at the annual township meeting:

1. To determine the number of poundmasters and the location of pounds.
2. To select such township officers as are required to be chosen.
3. To direct the institution or defense of actions in all controversies where such township is interested.
4. To direct such sums to be raised in such township for the prosecuting or defending such actions as they may deem necessary.
5. To make all rules and regulations for impounding of animals.
6. To impose such penalties on persons offending against any rule or regulation established by the township as they think proper, not exceeding ten dollars for each offense, except as herein otherwise provided.

7. To apply such penalties when collected in such manner as they deem most conducive to the interests of the township.

8. To ratify or reject recommendations offered by the township board of supervisors for the expenditure of funds for the purpose of purchasing building sites and purchase, location, erection or removal of any building or erection for township purposes; provided, that no such recommendation shall be adopted otherwise than by a two-thirds vote of the electors present and voting at any annual township meeting.

9. To authorize and empower the board of township supervisors to purchase liquids, compounds or other ingredients to cause the destruction of noxious weeds, and to authorize the purchase of sprinklers to be used in spraying said liquids or compounds for the destruction of noxious weeds; but that no township shall purchase more than two such sprinklers in any one year. [1909, ch. 223; 1907, ch. 255, § 1; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 13; R. C. 1899, § 2542.]

§ 4089. Certain tax levies legalized. The levy of taxes as made by the various township boards of supervisors in this state for road and general purposes, for the years 1899 and 1900 where said levy did not exceed eight mills and where said levy was not authorized at the regular township meetings, is hereby legalized and made valid in all respects and for all purposes, the same as if it had been authorized in conformity to the laws then in force. [R. C. 1905, § 3064; 1901, ch. 157.]

ARTICLE 5.—PAVING AND OTHER PUBLIC IMPROVEMENTS IN CERTAIN CIVIL TOWNSHIPS.

Laws 1907, ch. 252, consisting of fifty sections, was entitled "An act to provide for paving, curbing or macadamizing the highways in civil townships adjoining incorporated cities of not less than six thousand inhabitants, and for the construction of sewers and water mains therein, connecting with city sewers and water mains or with their own trunk sewers, and for the construction of sidewalks."

Section 49 of that chapter expressly repealed "article 5 of chapter 33 of the Revised Codes of 1905." But the substantive provisions in said chapter 252 were held unconstitutional in Morton v. Holes, 17 N. D. 154, 115 N. W. 256. Pursuant to the general rule that where an act expressly repealing another act and providing a substitute therefor is found to be invalid, the repealing must also be held to be invalid (36 Cyc. 1099), article 5 in the Revised Codes above mentioned is considered as still in force and constitutes sections 4090—4102 herein.

§ 4090. What civil townships may pave, grade or macadamize streets. Any civil township in this state adjoining an incorporated city having by the last census at least six thousand inhabitants and which shall have paved, graded, curbed or macadamized its streets leading to the boundaries of such civil township or shall have constructed sewers or water mains in such streets, may pave, grade or macadamize the highways of such township connecting with such city streets, or with such highways so paved or highways running along the boundaries of such city, or construct sewers or water mains therein as provided by this article; provided, that such township shall not so improve any portion of such highways not lying within its boundaries. [R. C. 1905, § 3065; 1905, ch. 177, § 1.]

§ 4091. How accomplished. Whenever the owners of real property abutting on such highway, or part thereof, in such civil township, sought to be improved as provided in this article, and representing a majority by feet of the frontage of said property so abutting, shall desire to improve such highway, or part thereof, as herein provided, they shall petition the board of supervisors of such township in writing, setting forth and describing specifically in such petition, the kind, character and extent of the improvement desired, specifying the width and material of pavement, if any, and the size and material of any sewers or water mains, the number and location of manholes and catch basins for such sewers, and the number and location of fire hydrants for such water mains, which petition shall be accompanied by an affidavit of each signer thereof, stating his place of residence, and that he is the owner of certain real property abutting on the part of such highway sought to be improved, describing such property, and stating the number of feet frontage thereof abutting on such street, which petition shall be filed in the office of the township clerk. [R. C. 1905, § 3066; 1905, ch. 177, § 2.]

§ 4092. Township board to have working plans made. The board of township supervisors shall, upon the filing of such petition, procure the making, by some competent civil engineer, of complete working plans and specifications for the improvement designated in such petition, together with an estimate of the probable cost thereof, which plans, specifications and estimate, when completed, shall be filed in the office of the township clerk. [R. C. 1905, § 3067; 1905, ch. 177, § 3.]

§ 4093. Township clerk to advertise for bids. The township clerk shall thereupon advertise in some newspaper of general circulation, published in such adjoining incorporated city, for bids for the construction of such improvement according to such plans and specifications, stating the time and place at which such bids will be received and opened, which time shall not be less than twenty-five days after the first publication of such advertisement, which shall be published in such newspaper three times, once in each week for three successive weeks, and such advertisement shall state that such improvement is to be paid for by special assessments made for that purpose. [R. C. 1905, § 3068; 1905, ch. 177, § 4.]

§ 4094. Bids to be accompanied by certified check. Each bid for such work shall be accompanied by a certified check payable or indorsed to said civil township for at least fifty per cent of the amount thereof and no bid shall be considered which is not accompanied by such check. [R. C. 1905, § 3069; 1905, ch. 177, § 5.]

§ 4095. Contracts, how let. At the time stated in such advertisement for opening such bids, the board of township supervisors shall meet at the place designated in such advertisement, and open said bids, and award the contract for the construction of such improvements to the lowest bidder therefor, and shall thereupon return to each of the unsuccessful bidders the certified check accompanying his bid, and shall retain the certified check of the successful bidder until the making of the contract and giving of the bond hereinafter provided, and when such contract and bond shall have been executed and filed, the said certified check shall thereupon be returned, but in case the successful bidder fails or refuses to enter into such contract or to give such bond, said certified check shall be retained by said civil township as liquidated damages for such failure to enter into said contract, and give said bond. When such contract has been awarded, the board of township supervisors shall have the same prepared and may employ a competent attorney for that purpose, and such contract shall state the time on or before which such work shall be finished, and shall provide that such work shall be done in accordance with the plans and specifications therefor on file in the office of the township clerk, and in accordance with the bid of the contractor therefor and subject to the approval of such engineer as shall be selected by the board of township supervisors for inspecting and approving such work, and shall further contain a clause that the consideration of said contract is to be paid in warrants, drawn upon the special assessment fund created for the payment of such improvement, and no such civil township shall be or become in any way liable for the payment of any part of the consideration of such contract by general taxation, or from the funds of said township, or otherwise than from such special assessment fund. Such contract shall be entered into in the name of such civil township and be signed on behalf thereof by the chairman of its board of supervisors, and attested by the township clerk, and when signed by the contractor shall be filed in the office of the township clerk. [R. C. 1905, § 3070; 1905, ch. 177, § 6.]

In absence of charter or statutory requirement municipal contracts need not be let under competitive bidding. Price v. Fargo, 24 N. D. 440, 139 N. W. 1054.

Validity of contract for material patented or held in monopoly where a public letting to the lowest bidder is required. 5 L.R.A.(N.S.) 680.

§ 4096. Contractor to give bond. The contractor under said contract shall at the time of making the same, execute and file with the township clerk a bond in a penal sum equal to the consideration of said contract, conditioned for the faithful performance of said work according to such plans, specifications and contract, and within the time fixed in said contract, subject to the approval of said engineer, and further conditioned for the payment by said contractor for all material and labor used in said work, which bond shall be signed by the contractor and two sufficient sureties and shall be subject to the approval of the board of township supervisors, and when approved by them shall be filed in the office of the township clerk. [R. C. 1905, § 3071; 1905, ch. 177, § 7.]

Penalty as limit of liability on contractor's bond. 55 L.R.A. 393.

Discretion as to bond of bidder for public contract. 38 L.R.A.(N.S.) 664.

§ 4097. Township clerk to apportion cost of work. When such contract shall have been fully performed, and the work thereunder approved by such engineer as hereinbefore provided, and the expense connected with such work has been determined, the township clerk shall compute the same, and ascertain the total cost of said improvement, including all expenses in connection therewith of every kind and character, and shall thereupon forthwith calculate the amount to be assessed for such improvement against each lot and parcel of ground abutting on such improvement. And in estimating such assessment he shall take the entire cost of such improvement and divide the same by the number of feet front abutting upon the same, and the quotient shall be the sum to be assessed per foot upon all land so bounding or abutting. And the township clerk shall make and file in his office an assessment list containing the names of the owners of said lands as appears from said affidavits, and of other owners if known to him, together with a description of the lands assessed, which description shall include all such lands between the line of such highway and a line three hundred feet distant therefrom and parallel therewith, and no others. The township clerk shall thereupon cause said assessment to be published in the newspaper in which said advertisement for bids was published, with a notice of the time and place when and where the board of township supervisors will meet to approve such assessment, which notice shall be published in said newspaper once, at least ten days prior to the date fixed therein for the meeting of said township board of supervisors. Said assessment list shall contain or have attached thereto the certificate of the township clerk that the same is correct, and the township clerk shall file in his office with said assessment, an itemized statement of all the expenses of such improvement included therein. [R. C. 1905, § 3072; 1905, ch. 177, § 8.]

§ 4098. County auditor to assess against property. When such assessment shall have been approved by the board of township supervisors, the township clerk shall thereupon transmit to the county auditor a certified copy thereof, and the county auditor shall thereupon enter the amount of such assessment against the property assessed therefor on the tax list of the current year, and shall add thereto one per cent of the amount so assessed for the expense of the collection thereof, and such assessment shall be collected and paid over to the township treasurer, with interest and penalties collected, in the same manner as other township taxes, and shall be credited by the township treasurer to the special assessment fund for such improvement, and shall be diverted to no other purpose. [R. C. 1905, § 3073; 1905, ch. 177, § 9.]

§ 4099. Penalty for nonpayment. In case such assessments are not paid the same penalties shall be added thereto and the same proceedings shall be had for the sale of said lands upon which the same are levied, as are had in case of special assessments in incorporated cities, and all the provisions of the statutes with reference to such sales and redemption therefrom in incorporated cities shall apply to special assessments under this article. [R. C. 1905, § 3074; 1905, ch. 177, § 10.]

§ 4100. Assessments a lien against property. Such assessment shall be a lien, from the time they are approved by the board of township supervisors, upon the lands abutting upon said improvement to a distance of three hundred feet from the line of such highway and parallel thereto, which lien shall be paramount to all other liens upon such land except ordinary taxes, and such assessments shall become due and payable fifteen days after their approval, and shall bear interest at the rate of seven per cent per annum after they become due. [R. C. 1905, § 3075; 1905, ch. 177, § 11.]

§ 4101. How contractor paid. When any work contracted for under this article shall have been completed according to the contract therefor and approved as hereinbefore provided, the contractor shall be paid therefor in warrants drawn on the special assessment fund herein provided and not otherwise. [R. C. 1905, § 3076; 1905, ch. 177, § 12.]

§ 4102-4137. Cities and townships to pay for improvements on streets and highways. The expense of improving streets and highways lying on the boundary line between any such city and township under this article may be done and paid for by such city and by such township, in such proportion as may be mutually agreed on between them, and any such incorporated city may permit such township to connect with its sewer system and water mains, on such terms as shall be just, and fully compensate said city therefor and for all water furnished to said township mains. [R. C. 1905, § 3077; 1905, ch. 177, § 13.]

ARTICLE 6.—SPECIAL MEETINGS.

§ 4138. Special meetings held, when. Special meetings may be held for the purpose of electing township officers to fill vacancies that occur, also for the purpose of transacting any lawful business, whenever the supervisors, township clerk and justices of the peace, or any two of them, together with at least twelve freeholders of the township file in the office of the township clerk a written statement that a special meeting is necessary. [R. C. 1905, § 3078; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 16; R. C. 1899, § 2543.]

§ 4139. Clerk to give notice of meeting. Each clerk with whom such statement is filed as required in the preceding section, shall record the same and immediately cause notice to be posted in five of the most public places in the township, giving at least ten days' notice of such special meeting; and if there is a newspaper published in the township he shall cause a copy of such notice to be published therein at least three days before the time appointed for such meeting. [R. C. 1905, § 3079; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 17; R. C. 1899, § 2544.]

§ 4140. What notice must specify. Each notice given for a special meeting shall specify the purpose for which it is to be held, and no other business shall be transacted at such meeting than such as is specified in such notice. If vacancies in office are to be filled at such meeting the notice shall specify in what office vacancies exist, how they occurred, who was the last incumbent and when the term of each office expires. [R. C. 1905, § 3080; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 18; R. C. 1899, § 2545.]

ARTICLE 7.—MODE OF CONDUCTING TOWNSHIP MEETINGS.

§ 4141. Organization of meeting. The electors present at any time between nine and ten o'clock in the forenoon of the day of the annual or special meeting shall be called to order by the township clerk, if present; in case he is not present then the voters may elect by acclamation one of their number chairman and three of their number judges of such meeting, who shall be duly sworn and be judges of the qualifications of township electors. They shall then proceed to choose one of their number to preside as moderator of such meeting. The clerk last before elected shall be clerk of the meeting and keep full minutes of its proceedings, in which he shall enter at length every order or direction and all rules and regulations made by the meeting. If the clerk is absent, then some person shall be elected to act as clerk of the meeting. [R. C. 1905, § 3081; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 19; R. C. 1899, § 2546.]

§ 4142. Duty of moderator. Reconsideration of vote. At the opening of each meeting the moderator shall state the business to be transacted, and the order in which it shall be entertained, and no proposition to vote a tax shall be acted on out of the order of business as stated by the moderator, and no proposition to reconsider any vote shall be entertained at any meeting unless such proposition to reconsider is made within one hour from the time such vote was passed, or the motion for such reconsideration is sustained by a number of voters equal to a majority of all the names entered upon the poll list at such election up to the time such motion is made; and all questions upon motions made at township meetings shall be determined by a majority of the electors voting; and the moderator shall ascertain and declare the result of the votes on each question. [R. C. 1905, § 3082; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 20; R. C. 1899, § 2547.]

Supervisors not empowered to purchase road machine without electors' authority. F. C. Austin Mfg. Co. v. Twin Brooks Twp., 16 S. D. 126, 91 N. W. 470.

§ 4144. Who are voters. No person shall vote at any township meeting unless he is qualified to vote at general elections, and has been for the last ninety days an actual resident of the township wherein he offers to vote. [R. C. 1905, § 3084; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 22; R. C. 1899, § 2549.]

§ 4145. Challenge to voter. If any person offering to vote at any election or upon any question arising at such township meeting is challenged as unqualified, the judges of the meeting shall proceed thereupon in like manner as the judges at the general election are required to proceed, adapting the oath to the circumstances of the township meeting. [R. C. 1905, § 3085; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 23; R. C. 1899, § 2550.]

§ 4146. Certain officers to be elected by ballot. The supervisors, treasurer, township clerk, assessor, justice of the peace, constables and overseer of highways in each township shall be elected by ballot. All other officers, if not otherwise provided by law, shall be chosen either by yeas and nays or by a division, as the electors determine. [R. C. 1905, § 3086; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 24; R. C. 1899, § 2551.]

§ 4147. All candidates on one ballot. When the electors vote by ballot all the candidates voted for shall be named on one ballot, which shall contain, written or printed, or partly written and partly printed, the names of the persons voted for and the offices to which such persons are intended to be chosen, and shall be delivered to one of the judges so folded as to conceal its contents. [R. C. 1905, § 3087; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 25; R. C. 1899, § 2552.]

§ 4148. Poll list. When the election is by ballot a poll list shall be kept by the clerk of the meeting, on which shall be entered the name of each person whose vote is received. [R. C. 1905, § 3088; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 26; R. C. 1899, § 2553.]

§ 4149. Judges to deposit ballots. When the election is by ballot one of the judges shall deposit the ballots in a box provided for that purpose. [R. C. 1905, § 3089; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 27; R. C. 1899, § 2554.]

§ 4150. Judges to canvass the votes. At the close of every election by ballot the judges shall proceed publicly to canvass the votes, which canvass when commenced shall continue without adjournment or interruption until the same is completed. [R. C. 1905, § 3090; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 28; R. C. 1899, § 2555.]

§ 4151. Manner of canvassing. The canvass shall be conducted by taking one ballot at a time from the ballot box and counting until the number of ballots is equal to the number of names on the poll list, and if there are any left in the box they shall be immediately destroyed; and the person having the greatest number of votes for any office shall be declared duly elected; provided, that if two or more persons have an equal and the highest number of votes for any office, the judges of election shall at once publicly by lot determine who of such persons shall be declared elected. If on opening the ballots two or more ballots are found to be so folded that it is apparent that the same person voted them the board shall immediately destroy the ballots. [R. C. 1905, § 3091; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 29; R. C. 1899, § 2556.]

§ 4152. Result to be announced. The canvass being completed, a statement of the result shall be entered at length by the clerk of the meeting in the minutes of its proceedings to be kept by him as before required, which shall be publicly read by him to the meeting, and such reading shall be deemed notice of the result of the election to every person whose name is entered on the poll list as a voter. [R. C. 1905, § 3092; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 30; R. C. 1889, § 2557.]

§ 4153. Minutes to be filed. The minutes of the proceedings of each meeting, subscribed by the clerk of said meeting and by the judges, shall be filed in the office of the township clerk within two days after such meeting. [R. C. 1905, § 3093; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 31; R. C. 1899, § 2558.]

Conclusiveness of records of meetings of towns and the power to amend. 13 Am. St. Rep. 550.

§ 4154. Duty of township clerk. The clerk of each township meeting shall, immediately after the votes are canvassed, transmit to each person elected to any township office, a notice of his election. [R. C. 1905, § 3094; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 32; R. C. 1899, § 2559; 1903, ch. 92.]

§ 4155. Proceedings when meeting fails to elect. In case any township refuses or neglects to organize and elect township officers at the time fixed by law for holding annual township meetings, twelve freeholders of the township may call a township meeting for the purpose aforesaid, by posting notices in three public places in such township, giving at least ten days' notice of such meeting; which notice shall set forth the time, place and object of such meeting; and the electors when assembled by virtue of such notice shall possess all the powers conferred upon them at the annual township meeting. In case no such notice is given as aforesaid within thirty days after the time for holding the annual meeting, the board of county commissioners of the county shall, on the affidavit of any freeholder of the township, filed in the office of the clerk of the board, setting forth the facts, at any regular or special meeting of the board, appoint the necessary township officers of such township, and the persons so appointed shall hold their respective offices until others are elected and qualified in their places, and shall have the same power and be subject to the same duties as if they had been duly elected. [R. C. 1905, § 3095; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 33; R. C. 1899, § 2560.]

ARTICLE 8.—BY-LAWS.

§ 4156. By-laws. No by-law made by any township shall take effect before the same is published by posting copies thereof in three of the most public places in the township; and such by-laws, duly made and so published, are binding upon all persons coming within the limits of the township as well as upon the inhabitants thereof, and shall remain in force until altered or repealed at some subsequent township meeting. [R. C. 1905, § 3096; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 14; R. C. 1899, § 2561.]

§ 4157. Clerk shall post by-laws. The township clerk shall post in three of the most public places in his township, copies of all by-laws made by such township, and shall make an entry in the township records of the time when, and the places where such by-laws were posted. [R. C. 1905, § 3097; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 15; R. C. 1899, § 2562.]

ARTICLE 9.—QUALIFICATION OF OFFICERS.

§ 4158. Voter eligible to office. Each person qualified to vote at township meetings is eligible to any township office. [R. C. 1905, § 3098; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 34; R. C. 1899, § 2563.]

§ 4159. Officers to take oath. Each person elected or appointed to the office of supervisor, township clerk, assessor, treasurer, constable or road overseer, shall, within ten days after he is notified of his election or appointment, take and subscribe, before the township clerk or justice of the peace, the oath prescribed in section 211 of the constitution. Such oath shall be administered without fee and certified by the officer by whom it is taken, with the date of taking the same. [R. C. 1905, § 3099; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 35; R. C. 1899, § 2564; 1901, ch. 204.]

§ 4160. Certificate of oath to be filed. The person taking such oath shall immediately and before entering upon the duties of his office file the certificate of such oath in the office of the township clerk. [R. C. 1905, § 3100; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 36; R. C. 1899, § 2565.]

§ 4161. Justice to take oath and give bond. Each person elected or appointed to the office of justice of the peace shall within ten days after receiving notice thereof take and subscribe before any officer authorized to administer oaths the oath prescribed in section 211 of the constitution. Such justice shall also execute a bond as provided in chapter 6 [chapter 7 herein] of this code and file the same with the clerk of the district court of the proper county for the benefit of any person aggrieved by the acts of such justice, and any person aggrieved may maintain an action on said bond in his own name against such justice and his sureties. [R. C. 1905, § 3101; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 37; R. C. 1899, § 2566.]

§ 4162. Certificate to official acts of justice. The bond and oath of office of a justice of the peace, filed in the office of the clerk of the district court for the county or judicial subdivision, are sufficient authority for said clerk to certify to the official acts and signature of such justice of the peace. § 4205. To keep account of receipts and disbursements. Each township treasurer shall keep a true account of all moneys by him received by virtue of his office, and the manner in which the same are disbursed, in a book provided at the expense of the township for that purpose, and exhibit such account, together with his vouchers, to the township board at its annual meeting, for adjustment; and he shall deliver all books and property belonging to his office and the balance of all moneys in his hands as such treasurer, to his successor in office, on demand after such successor has qualified according to law. [R. C. 1905, § 3146; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 72; R. C. 1899, § 2610.]

§ 4206. Treasurer to draw moneys from the county. The township treasurer shall, from time to time, draw from the county treasury such moneys as have been received by the county treasurer for the use of his township and on the receipt of such moneys shall deliver proper vouchers therefor. Each township treasurer shall be allowed and entitled to retain two per cent of all moneys paid out of the township treasury, for receiving, safely keeping, and paying over the same according to law; provided, that the township treasurer shall not be allowed two per cent on the balance turned over to his successor. [1913, ch. 87; R. C. 1905, § 3147; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 73; R. C. 1899, § 2611; 1901, ch. 202.]

§ 4207. Treasurer to make statement. Each township treasurer within five days preceding the annual township meeting shall make out a statement in writing of the moneys by him received into the township treasury from the county treasurer and from all other officers and persons, and also of all moneys paid out by him as such treasurer, in which statement he shall set forth particularly from whom and on what account such moneys were received by him, with the amount received from each officer or person and the date of receiving the same, also to whom and for what purpose any moneys have been paid out by him, with the amount and date of each payment. He shall also state therein the amount of moneys remaining in his hands as treasurer. Such statement shall be filed by him in the office of the township clerk, and shall be by such clerk carefully preserved and recorded in the township book of records, and a duplicate of such statement shall at the same time be filed by the township treasurer with the county auditor of his county. [R. C. 1905, § 3148; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 74; 1887, ch. 157, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 2612.]

§ 4208. Penalty for neglect. Each township treasurer who refuses or neglects to comply with the provisions of the four preceding sections shall forfeit not more than two thousand dollars, to be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction, the amount to be fixed by the jury trying the cause, or by the court, if there is no jury impaneled, and may be recovered by a civil action in the name of the person who prosecutes the same, with costs of the suit; one-half shall go to the person so prosecuting, and the remainder to the township of which such delinquent is or has been treasurer. [R. C. 1905, § 3149; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 75; R. C. 1899, § 2613.]

§ 4209. Depositing township moneys in own name prohibited. It shall be unlawful for any township treasurer to deposit any moneys belonging to the township in any bank, savings bank, trust company or other fiduciary institution, in his own name. All such moneys shall be deposited in the name of the township, and any interest on such moneys shall be credited to and accrue to the township fund. [1913, ch. 89, § 1.]

§ 4210. Penalty. Any person violating the provision of the preceding section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. [1913, ch. 89, § 2.]

§ 4211. Warrant record. Indorsement of warrants not paid. Each township treasurer shall keep a suitable book to be provided at the expense of the township in which he shall enter the township orders that he cannot pay for want of funds when presented to him for payment, which orders when presented shall be indorsed by such treasurer by putting upon the back of the same the words "not paid for want of funds," giving the date of such indorsement, signing his name as township treasurer, which order when so indorsed shall bear interest from that date until paid. All township orders shall be paid in the order that they are registered, out of the first moneys that come into the treasurer's hands for such purposes. [R. C. 1905, § 3150; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 76; R. C. 1899, § 2614.]

Township warrants nonnegotiable. Gilman v. Township of Gilby, 8 N. D. 627, 80 N. W. 889.

ASSESSORS.

§ 4212. Assessors, how governed. The township assessor shall be governed by and make assessments and returns as provided in the chapter on revenue and taxation of this code, and shall be paid for his service out of the township treasury. [R. C. 1905, § 3151; 1879, ch. 59, § 55; R. C. 1899, § 2615.]

ARTICLE 14.—BOARD OF AUDITORS.

§ 4213. Supervisors to audit accounts. The supervisors constitute a board of audit for the purpose of auditing all accounts payable by the township; and if for any cause there are not three supervisors present to constitute such board the chairman, and in his absence either of the supervisors may notify any one or as many of the justices of the peace of the township as will, together with the supervisors present, make a board of three; and the board so constituted shall have authority to act as the township board. [R. C. 1905, § 3152; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 77; R. C. 1899, § 2616.]

§ 4214. Meetings of board. Auditing accounts of treasurer. The board shall meet on the Tuesday next preceding the annual township meeting and on the last Tuesday of October in each year, and at such other times as it deems necessary and expedient for the purpose of auditing and settling all charges against the township, and it shall state on each account the amount allowed by it; but no allowance shall be made for any account which does not specifically state each item of the same and the nature thereof. At the regular meeting on the Tuesday next preceding the annual town meeting (being the second Tuesday of March) in each year, the board shall examine and audit accounts of the township treasurer for all moneys received and disbursed by him as such officer; and at said meeting shall audit the accounts of all other township officers who are authorized by law to receive or disburse any money of the township by virtue of their offices. [1909, ch. 225; R. C. 1905, § 3153; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 78; 1887, ch. 155, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 2617.]

Presentation of claim for audit not a condition precedent to bringing suit. Short v. Township, 8 S. D. 148, 65 N. W. 432.

§ 4215. Board to report accounts audited and allowed. Such board shall make a report, stating in detail the items of account audited and allowed, the nature of each account, and the name of the person to whom such account was allowed, including a statement of the fiscal concerns of the township, and an estimate of the sum necessary for the current expenses thereof, the support of the poor and other incidental expenses for the ensuing year. [R. C. 1905, § 3155; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 80; R. C. 1899, § 2619.]

§ 4216. Report to be read at township meeting. Such report shall be produced and publicly read by the township clerk at the next ensuing township meeting, and the whole or any portion of such report may be referred by order of the meeting to a committee, whose duty it shall be to examine the same and report thereon to such meeting. [R. C. 1905, § 3156; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 81; R. C. 1899, § 2620.]

§ 4217. Treasurer shall pay all orders. The amount of any account audited and allowed by the board and the amount of any account voted to be allowed at any township meeting shall be paid by the township treasurer on the order of the board signed by the chairman and countersigned by the clerk; and all orders issued to any person by the board for any sum due from such township shall be receivable in payment of township taxes of such township. [R. C. 1905, § 3157; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 82; R. C. 1899, § 2621.]

§ 4218. Clerk of the board of supervisors. The township clerk shall be clerk of the township board, and shall keep in his office a true record of all its proceedings. [R. C. 1905, § 3158; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 83; R. C. 1899, § 2622.]

ARTICLE 15.—FEES OF OFFICERS.

§ 4219. Compensation of assessor. The township assessor shall receive for his services three dollars per day for each day necessarily devoted by him to the service of the township while engaged in his duties as such assessor; provided, that such compensation shall not exceed the sum of sixty dollars in any one congressional township. [R. C. 1905, § 3159; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 86; 1889, ch. 126, § 1; R. C. 1895, § 2623.]

§ 4220. Compensation of clerk and supervisors. The township clerk and supervisors shall receive for their services one dollar and fifty cents per day for each day necessarily devoted by them to the service of the township when attending to business in their township, and two dollars when attending to business out of the township; no township supervisor shall receive more than thirty-five dollars compensation in any one year; provided, that the township clerk shall be paid fees for the following, and not a per diem: For serving notices of election upon township officers, as required by law, twenty-five cents each; for filing any paper required by law to be filed in his office, ten cents each; for posting notices required by law, twenty-five cents each; for recording any order or any instrument or writing authorized by law, ten cents for each one hundred words; for copying any record or instrument on file in his office and certifying the same, ten cents for each one hundred words, to be paid for by the person applying for the same. [R. C. 1905, § 3160; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 86; R. C. 1899, § 2624.]

§ 4221. Compensation, increasing or reducing. At any township meeting before the electors commence balloting for officers they may by resolution reduce or increase the compensation of officers, but no such increase shall exceed one hundred per cent. [R. C. 1905, § 3161; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 86; R. C. 1899, § 2625.]

ARTICLE 16.—CLAIMS AGAINST TOWNSHIPS OR COUNTIES.

§ 4222. Claims against townships. Accounts stated, how. Before any account, claim or demand against any township or county of this state for any property or services for which such township or county shall be liable shall be audited or allowed by the board or officers authorized by law to audit and allow the same, the person in whose favor such account, claim or demand shall be, or his agent, shall reduce the same to writing in items and shall verify the same to the effect that such account, claim or demand is just and true, that the money therein charged was actually paid for the purposes therein stated, or that the property therein charged for was actually delivered or used for the purposes therein stated and was of the value therein charged, or that the services therein charged were actually rendered and of the value therein charged, or in case such services were official for which fees are prescribed by law then that the fees or amounts charged therefor are such as are allowed by law; and that no part of such account, claim or demand has been paid; provided, that the provisions of this article shall not apply to any claim or demand for an annual salary or per diem of jurors or witnesses fixed by or in pursuance of any statute. [R. C. 1905, § 3162; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 87; R. C. 1899, § 2626.]

Acceptance of warrant for claim against county, which has been duly presented and allowed in part, is presumed to be in full of claims presented. Paulson v. Ward County, 23 N. D. 601, 42 L.R.A.(N.S.) 111, 137 N. W. 486.

Liability of township on negotiable paper executed by officer of town. 21 L.R.A.(N.S.) 1078.

§ 4223. Accounts must be verified. The verification required by the preceding section may be made before any officer authorized by law to administer oaths, or before any member of the board to which the account, claim or demand shall be presented to be audited, and each member of such board is hereby authorized to administer the proper oath in such cases; and each person who willfully or knowingly swears falsely on any such claim shall be deemed guilty of perjury and be punished accordingly. [R. C. 1905, § 3163; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 88; R. C. 1899, § 2627.]

§ 4224. What accounts need not be verified. In case any such account, claim or demand shall be made or presented by any administrator or executor on behalf of the estate of a deceased person he shall not be required to verify the same, but may prove the same otherwise to the satisfaction of the board. [R. C. 1905, § 3164; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 88; R. C. 1899, § 2628.]

§ 4225. Consideration of account and action thereon. Whenever an account, claim or demand against any township or county shall have been verified in the manner prescribed in this article, the board to whom the same is presented may receive and consider the same and may allow or disallow the same in whole or in part, as to such board or officers shall appear just or lawful, saving to such claimants the right of appeal. [R. C. 1905, § 3165; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 89; R. C. 1899, § 2629.]

Right of town authorities to reconsider action as to allowance of claim. 21 L.R.A.(N.S.) 289.

Right of town to surrender valid claim upon partial payment thereof. 19 L.R.A.(N.S.) 320.

§ 4226. Penalty for auditing an account not verified. Any member of such board who shall audit and allow any account, claim or demand required by this article to be itemized and verified, without the same having been first duly itemized and verified, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and be punished by a fine of not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months, or by both. [R. C. 1905, § 3166; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 90; R. C. 1899, § 2630.]

§ 4227. Claims against counties offset by taxes due. It shall be the duty of the board of county commissioners of any county in this state, when any bill or claim is presented to them to be audited in favor of any person, corporation or society to ascertain from the tax records of such county if the person, corporation or society to whom said credit originally accrued or presenting same is indebted to any school district, municipal corporation, county or state for personal taxes due or delinquent, and if such indebtedness shall be found to exist, to deduct the same from the bill so presented. Or if the taxes shall exceed the demands so presented, then to have the claim entered as a credit on the tax books of such county in favor of the person, corporation or society to whom said credit originally accrued, if found to be indebted for taxes due or delinquent as above provided. If no such indebtedness exists against such party, then to deduct any part due or delinquent taxes owing by the person, corporation or society presenting same and the right to offset such taxes shall be deemed to have accrued from the day the county became indebted to any person, corporation or society. Any sale, transfer or assignment thereof shall not defeat the right of the county to make such credit or offset. [R. C. 1905, § 3167; 1901, ch. 162.]

ARTICLE 17.—SUITS BY AND AGAINST TOWNSHIP.

§ 4228. Proceedings in. Whenever any controversy or cause of action exists between townships or between a township and an individual or corporation, a civil action may be commenced and prosecuted for the purpose of trying and settling such controversy, and the same shall be conducted in the same manner, and the judgment therein shall have the like effect, as in other actions or proceedings of a similar kind between individuals and corporations. [R. C. 1905, § 3168; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 91; R. C. 1899, § 2631.]

When limitations begin to run against action on township warrant. 10 L.R.A.(N.S.) 478.

§ 4229. Township to sue in its name. In all such actions and proceedings the township shall sue and be sued in its name, except where township officers are authorized by law to sue in their name of office for the benefit of the township. [R. C. 1905, § 3169; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 92; R. C. 1899, § 2632.]

§ 4230. Service, on whom. In legal proceedings against a township by name all papers shall be served on the chairman of the board of supervisors, and in case of his absence on the township clerk, and whenever any action or proceeding is commenced the chairman shall attend to the defense thereof, and lay before the electors of the township at the first township meeting a full statement of such proceedings, for their election in regard to the defense thereof. [R. C. 1905, § 3170; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 94; R. C. 1899, § 2633.]

§ 4231. Jurisdiction. No action in favor of any township shall be brought before any justice of the peace residing in such township. [R. C. 1905, § 3171; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 95; R. C. 1899, § 2634.]

§ 4232. Recovery in cases of trespass. Whenever any action is brought to recover a penalty imposed for any trespass committed on the lands belonging to the township, if it appears on the trial thereof that the actual amount of injury to such township lands in consequence of such trespass exceeds the sum of twelve dollars and fifty cents, then the amount of actual damage with costs of suit shall be recovered in such action, instead of any penalty for such trespass imposed by the township meeting, and such recovery shall be a bar to all other actions for the same trespass. [R. C. 1905, § 3172; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 96; R. C. 1899, § 2635.]

§ 4233. Court may partition lands, when. Whenever by judgment or decision in any action or proceeding brought to settle any controversy in relation to township commons or other lands, the common property of a township, or for the partition thereof, the rights of any township are settled and confirmed, the court in which such proceedings are had may partition such lands according to the rights of the parties. [R. C. 1905, § 3173; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 97; R. C. 1899, § 2636.]

§ 4234. Payment of judgment. When a judgment is recovered against any township or against any township officers in an action prosecuted by or against them in their name of office, no execution shall be awarded or issued upon such judgment, but the same, unless reversed or stayed on appeal, shall be paid by the township treasurer upon demand and the delivery to him of a certified copy of the docket of the judgment, if there is sufficient money of such township in his hands not otherwise appropriated. If he fails to do so he shall be personally liable for the amount, unless the collection thereof is afterwards stayed upon appeal. If payment is not made within thirty days after the time fixed by law for the county treasurer to pay over to the township treasurer the money in his hands belonging to such township levied for the purpose of paying such judgment, next after the rendition of such judgment, execution may be issued, but only township property shall be liable thereon. [R. C. 1905, § 3174; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 98; R. C. 1899, § 2637.]

§ 4235. When judgment is not satisfied. If judgment for the recovery of money is rendered against any township, and the judgment is not satisfied or proceedings thereon stayed by appeal or otherwise before the next annual meeting of the township, a certified copy of the docket of the judgment may be presented to such township, at said annual meeting. The supervisors of the township shall thereupon cause the amount due on the judgment, with interest from the date of its recovery, to be added to the tax of such township and the same certified to the county auditor and collected as other township taxes are collected. [R. C. 1905, § 3175; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 99; R. C. 1899, § 2638.]

ARTICLE 18.—TOWNSHIP CHARGES AND LEVIES.

§ 4236. Township charges, what are. The following shall be deemed township charges:

1. The compensation of township officers for services rendered their respective townships.
2. Contingent expenses necessarily incurred for the use and benefit of the township.
3. The moneys authorized to be raised by the vote of the township meeting for any township purpose.
4. Each sum directed by law to be raised for any township purpose; provided, that no tax for township purposes shall exceed the amount voted to be raised at the annual meeting as provided in section 1540. [R. C. 1905, § 3176; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 100; R. C. 1899, § 2639; 1903, ch. 172.]

§ 4237. Clerk to notify county auditor of levy. It is the duty of the township clerk immediately after the board of supervisors have made the levy of taxes, or within three days thereafter, to notify the county auditor of the amount levied, who shall enter the same on the county tax list, to be collected by the county treasurer as county taxes are collected. [R. C. 1905, § 3177; 1879, ch. 59, § 33; R. C. 1899, § 2641.]

See also section 2149.

ARTICLE 19.— BOOKS AND PAPERS OF OUTGOING OFFICERS.

§ 4238. Successor in office to demand records. Whenever the term of any supervisor, township clerk or assessor expires, and another person is appointed or elected to such office, such successor immediately after he enters upon the duties of his office shall demand of his predecessor all books and papers under his control belonging to such office. [R. C. 1905, § 3178; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 102; R. C. 1899, § 2642.]

§ 4239. Same, vacancy. Whenever either of the officers above named resigns, or the office becomes vacant in any way, and another person is elected or appointed in his stead, the person so elected shall make such demand of his predecessors or of any person having charge of such books and papers. [R. C. 1905, § 3179; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 103; R. C. 1899, § 2643.]

§ 4240. Records to be delivered. Each person so going out of office, whenever thereto required pursuant to the foregoing provisions, shall deliver upon oath all records, books and papers in his possession or under his control, belonging to the office held by him, which oath may be administered by the officer to whom such delivery is made. [R. C. 1905, § 3180; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 104; R. C. 1899, § 2644.]

§ 4241. Demand for records in case of death. Upon the death of any of the officers enumerated, the successor of such officer shall make such demand as above provided of the executor or administrator of such deceased officer, and such executor or administrator shall deliver upon like oath all records, books, papers or moneys in his possession or under his control, belonging to the office held by his testator or intestate. [R. C. 1905, § 3181; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 105; R. C. 1899, § 2645.]

ARTICLE 20.— SECTION CORNERS.

§ 4242. Township supervisors to employ surveyors to run lines and erect monuments on corners. Whenever it appears advisable to any board of township supervisors in this state to erect permanent monuments to perpetuate the boundaries as fixed by the United States survey, they may employ a competent surveyor or civil engineer to run the lines and to mark the section corners, and may on the corners so marked place a stone monument eight inches square on each end, and fifteen inches long, which monument shall be buried in the earth so that one end thereof eight inches square shall be flush with the surface of the road or grade, and so that the center thereof shall mark the intersection of the four section lines converging at that point, and so that the said lines shall run diagonally across the face of the said stone monument. [R. C. 1905, § 3182; 1905, ch. 180, § 1.]

Location of land marks only presumptively correct. Webster v. White, 8 S. D. 479, 66 N. W. 1145.

§ 4243. When petitioned, supervisors shall call election to vote on question of placing monuments. Whenever the township supervisors of any organized township in this state shall be petitioned by not less than twelve freeholders of said township to call an election to ascertain the will of the majority of the voters of said township on the question of erecting such monuments, the said board of township supervisors shall submit the question of whether or not such monuments shall be placed in said township, which election shall be held the same time as the usual spring election for township officers, and if a majority of those voting in said township at such spring election vote in favor of erecting said monuments, then the said board of township supervisors shall immediately thereafter cause such monuments to be placed as provided in section 3182. [R. C. 1905, § 3183; 1905, ch. 180, § 2.]

§ 4244. Cost of monuments to be charged to townships. Whenever it is decided by the board of township supervisors of any organized township to erect such monument, or whenever, as the result of an election, the township board proceeds to erect said monuments the cost thereof shall be a proper charge upon the funds of said township and the township board is authorized to pay the cost thereof, or to lay a tax upon the property of the township for the purpose of paying the same. [R. C. 1905, § 3184; 1905, ch. 180, § 3.]

§ 4245. Penalty for destroying or removing. Any person who shall destroy, remove, deface or in any way injure or damage such monuments, when so erected, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor. [R. C. 1905, § 3185; 1905, ch. 180, § 4.]

§ 4246. Board authorized to establish monuments in unorganized townships. The board of county commissioners shall have the same authority to establish, fix and erect monuments in unorganized townships as is given township boards of supervisors under the provisions of this article, and also for the establishment of lost corners. [R. C. 1905, § 3186; 1905, ch. 180, § 5.]

ARTICLE 21.—GUIDE POSTS.

§ 4247. Township to erect guide posts. Each township shall erect and maintain guide posts on the highways and other ways within the township, at such places as are necessary or convenient for the direction of travelers. [1913, ch. 86; R. C. 1905, § 3187; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 106; R. C. 1899, § 2646.]

ARTICLE 22.—PUBLIC PLACES.

§ 4248. Voters shall designate. At the annual township meeting in each year the legal voters present at each meeting shall determine and designate three places in the township as public or the most public places of such township, and that all legal notices required to be posted in three public or the most public places of a township shall be posted at such places at least, and they shall make provision for the erection and maintenance of posts on which to post notices as aforesaid in all places so designated, in which there is no sufficient natural convenience for that purpose. [R. C. 1905, § 3192; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 111; R. C. 1899, § 2651.]

ARTICLE 23.—POUNDS AND POUND MASTERS.

§ 4249. Pounds located. Whenever the electors of any township determine at their annual township meeting to erect one or more pounds therein, the same shall be under the care and direction of such pound masters as are chosen or appointed for that purpose. [R. C. 1905, § 3193; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 112; R. C. 1899, § 2652.]

§ 4250. Discontinuing pounds. The electors of any township may at any annual township meeting discontinue any pounds therein. [R. C. 1905, § 3194; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 113; R. C. 1899, § 2653.]

§ 4251. Fees of pound master and notice of taking up estrays. Sales. The pound master is allowed to charge and collect the following fees: For taking into pound or discharging therefrom any horse, ass or mule, and all neat cattle, twenty cents each; for every sheep or lamb, ten cents each; and for every hog, large or small, ten cents each; and twenty-five cents for keeping each twenty-four hours in pound; and the pound master has a lien on all such animals for the full amount of his legal charges and expenses, and shall be entitled to the possession of such animals until the same are paid; and if the same are not paid and said animals removed within ten days after they are impounded the pound master shall give notice as provided in chapter 117 of the session laws of 1907, and also by posting in three of the most public places in the township, notices that said animals, describing them, are impounded, and that unless the same are taken away and fees paid within thirty days after the date of such notice, he will sell the same at public vendue at the place where the township meetings of such township are usually held; and on the day designated in such notice the pound master shall expose such animals for sale and sell the same to the highest bidder for cash, for which service he shall receive two per cent of the purchase money for each animal. [1909, ch. 121; R. C. 1905, § 3195; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 114; R. C. 1899, § 2654.]

"Chapter 117 of the session laws of 1907, to which this section refers, was amended in 1913 and now constitutes section 2658 herein.

§ 4252. Proceeds, disposition of. Out of the money realized from such sale the pound master shall deduct all his legal fees and charges and pay the balance, if any, to the chairman of the township supervisors, at the same time giving to the supervisors an accurate description of the animals sold and the amount received by him for each animal, and shall take a receipt and duplicate therefor and file one of them with the township clerk; provided, the supervisors shall at any time within six months, upon sufficient proof from the owner of any animal so sold, pay to such owner the balance due as received from said pound master; but if said money is not claimed within that time then the sum so received shall be retained for the use of the township; provided, that in unorganized townships and in townships which have been dissolved as civil townships, the county commissioners are hereby authorized on the petition of a majority of the legal voters of such townships to do and perform any and all acts that the electors might do of a civil township as prescribed in sections 3193, 3194 and 3195. [R. C. 1905, § 3196; 1899, ch. 121; R. C. 1899, § 2655.]

ARTICLE 24.—DEBTS AND BONDS.

§ 4253. Limit of debt of townships. No township has power to contract debts or make expenditures for any one year in a larger sum than the amount of taxes assessed for such year without having been authorized by a majority of the voters of such township, and no township shall assess for township purposes more than ten mills on the dollar of taxable property for any one year. [R. C. 1905, § 3197; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 115; R. C. 1899, § 2656.]

On what basis majority essential to adoption of proposition for issuing municipal bonds is to be computed. 22 L.R.A. (N.S.) 478.

§ 4254. Bonds of townships issued. How and when. The boards of supervisors of the organized townships of this state, or those that may hereafter be organized, are authorized and empowered to issue the bonds or orders of their respective townships, with coupons attached, and in such amounts and at such periods as they may be directed by two-thirds of the legal voters present and voting at any legally called township meeting held for that purpose; such bonds or orders to be payable in such amounts and at such times, not exceeding twenty years from date, as two-thirds of the legal voters present and voting at such meeting shall determine, with interest thereon not to exceed seven per cent per annum, payable annually, which bonds or orders and coupons shall be signed by the chairman of the board of supervisors and countersigned by the clerk of the township; provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to authorize the issuing of such bonds or orders unless the same shall have first been voted for by ballot by two-thirds of all legal voters present and voting at any annual or special township meeting called for that purpose, notices of which, particularly specifying the object for which such meeting was called, have been posted in at least three public places in the township for not less than ten days prior to the time of calling the same. Provided, further, that any township may in the manner provided in this section issue bonds to aid in the construction of a bridge across a navigable stream on the boundary line of its county even though a portion of such bridge may be located within the corporate limits of a city. [1911, ch. 307; 1909, ch. 224; R. C. 1905, § 3198; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 116; R. C. 1899, § 2657.]

Holders as necessary parties to proceedings to invalidate moneyed obligations of towns. 3 L.R.A. (N.S.) 256.

§ 4255. Bonds must be sold at par. No bonds or orders issued under the authority of this article shall be issued or negotiated for less than par value; nor shall such bonds or orders or the proceeds thereof be used or appropriated for any purpose whatever other than as specified in this article. [R. C. 1905, § 3199; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 117; R. C. 1899, § 2658.]

Accrued interest as part of par value within prohibition against sale of bonds at less than par. 35 L.R.A.(N.S.) 789.

Payment of commissions for sales of bonds as violating requirement that bonds shall not be sold for less than par. 39 L.R.A.(N.S.) 248.

§ 4256. Levying bond tax. The board of supervisors and its successors are authorized and it is their duty on or before the first day of September next after the date of such bonds or orders, and in each and every year thereafter on or before the first day of September, until the payment of such bonds or orders and interest is fully provided for, to levy and in due form to certify to the county auditor of the county in which said township is situated, a tax upon the taxable property of the township equal to the amount of principal and interest maturing next after such levy, and in the discretion of the board, such further sums as it shall deem expedient, not exceeding twenty per cent of such maturing bonds or orders and interest, which taxes shall be payable in money and shall constitute a fund for the payment of said bonds or orders and the interest thereon. [R. C. 1905, § 3200; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 118; R. C. 1899, § 2659.]

ARTICLE 25.—REFUNDING BONDS.

§ 4257. To be issued when. Each organized township in this state is authorized and empowered by and through its board of supervisors, when in the judgment of such board it is deemed for the best interests of the township, to issue its negotiable bonds in the name of such township for the sole purpose of refunding any outstanding bonded indebtedness of such township. [R. C. 1905, § 3201; R. C. 1895, § 2660.]

§ 4258. Issuance, how determined. Denomination. Form. The necessity of issuing and negotiating bonds under the provisions of this article shall be determined by the board of supervisors of such township. Such bonds shall be in denominations of not more than one thousand dollars nor less than one hundred dollars, shall bear the date of their issue and shall be made payable to the purchaser or bearer, and be payable in not less than five nor more than fifteen years from their date; and shall bear interest at a rate not higher than the bonds refunded and shall have coupons attached for each interest payment; such bonds and coupons shall be signed by the chairman of the board of supervisors and shall be attested by the township clerk. Each bond shall state on its face that it is issued in accordance with this article. Such bonds may be made payable at such place as may be agreed upon. [R. C. 1905, § 3202; R. C. 1895, § 2661.]

§ 4259. Record to be kept. A record of each bond so issued shall be kept by the township clerk, showing the number of each bond, its date, amount, rate of interest, when and where payable, the amount received therefor, to whom sold and how the proceeds were disposed of. [R. C. 1905, § 3203; R. C. 1895, § 2662.]

§ 4260. Annual tax to pay principal and interest. At or before the time of issuing any bonds pursuant to the provisions of this article, it shall be the duty of the board of supervisors to provide for the collection of an annual tax sufficient to pay the interest and also the principal thereof when due. [R. C. 1905, § 3204; R. C. 1895, § 2663.]

§ 4261. Payment of, at maturity. Cancellation. When such bonds and the coupons thereto attached mature it shall be the duty of the township treasurer to pay the same on presentation out of any funds in his hands applicable thereto; and he shall then properly cancel the same. [R. C. 1905, § 3205; R. C. 1895, § 2664.]

ARTICLE 26.—IRRIGATION.

§ 4262. Petition. Election. Whenever ten legal voters of any organized township petition the township board fifteen days previous to any annual township meeting to submit the question of irrigation by building dams to create ponds or reservoirs on any of the creeks or coulees in the township, it shall be the duty of the board to submit the question to the voters at the next annual township meeting and the township clerk shall cause three notices to be posted specifying the place and nature of such proposed improvements. [R. C. 1905, § 3206; 1890, ch. 43, § 1; R. C. 1895, § 2665.]

§ 4263. Tax. Whenever two-thirds of the legal voters of any organized township in this state, at their annual township meeting, agree that it is advisable and for the public good that certain specified creeks or coulees should be improved to increase the water supply and for the purpose of irrigation, it shall be lawful for such voters to levy a tax upon said township, to be expended in building dams to create ponds and reservoirs, by and under the direction of the board of supervisors of the township; provided, such improvements shall be wholly in said township; and no lands shall be flooded without the consent of the owner or without just compensation therefor, which compensation shall be determined as provided in the chapter on eminent domain in the code of civil procedure. [R. C. 1905, § 3207; 1890, ch. 43, § 2; R. C. 1895, § 2666.]

Taking of property for irrigation as a public purpose. 22 L.R.A.(N.S.) 162.

§ 4264. Maximum levy. The tax authorized to be levied by the last section shall not exceed two mills on the dollar of the assessed valuation of the township. [R. C. 1905, § 3208; 1890, ch. 43, § 3; R. C. 1899, § 2667.]

ARTICLE 27.—CONTRACT SYSTEM OF HIGHWAY LABOR.

§ 4265. Township boards have supervision over. The several township boards of organized townships in the state shall have general supervision over the roads, highways and bridges throughout their several townships. [R. C. 1905, § 3209; 1895, ch. 91, § 1; R. C. 1899, § 2668.]

Township immune from liability for the acts or negligence of its officers as to repairs of roads and defective bridges. Township acts merely as the instrumentality of the state. Vail v. Town of Amenia, 4 N. D. 239, 59 N. W. 1092.

Township not liable for loss suffered by land owner from increased flow of surface water, resulting solely from improvement of a highway, without negligence. Carroll v. Township of Rye, 13 N. D. 458, 101 N. W. 894.

—for obstruction or defect outside of traveled portion of highway. 40 L.R.A.(N.S.) 182.

—for injury to employe engaged in repairing highway. 41 L.R.A.(N.S.) 1074.

—for injury by interference of bridge with flow of water. 59 L.R.A. 856.

Effect on liability for injury on defective highway of division of territory of town. 39 L.R.A.(N.S.) 285.

Duty of town to maintain barriers along rural highway or bridges. 42 L.R.A. 267.

—to provide barriers to protect traveler from obstructions outside of highway. 20 L.R.A.(N.S.) 980.

§ 4266. Plans and specifications. The several township boards whenever in their judgment it is for the best interest of the township may at the next annual meeting cause a vote to be taken by a ballot on which shall be written or printed the words "for contract system," "against contract system," and if a majority of the votes cast are in favor of the contract system then the township board shall at the next meeting succeeding the annual meeting advertise in one of the county papers for bids for two successive weeks for the improvement and repairing of highways and bridges in its township in the following manner:

1. The board shall furnish plans and specifications for all work and improvements to be done and performed in the several townships which shall be filed in the office of the township clerk.

2. It shall at the time of advertising for bids give at least ten days' notice, to be posted in conspicuous places in said township, that bids will be received at a time and place mentioned in said notice, and said contracts shall be let to the lowest bidder in accordance with such plans and specifications as are furnished by said board, and the said board shall require upon the letting of such contract or contracts a good and sufficient bond for the faithful performance of the work to be done and performed in said contract, and said board shall have authority to reject any and all bids. Whenever the "contract system" has been adopted, as provided herein, township road taxes shall be paid in money only. [R. C. 1905, § 3210; 1899, ch. 141; R. C. 1899, § 2669.]

§ 4267. Special fund. All moneys raised in pursuance of the provisions hereof shall constitute a special fund for the improvement of highways and shall be collected, paid out and expended in the manner provided for warrants drawn on the treasurer of each township for general expenses thereof, and such fund shall be kept separate and shall not be used for any other purpose whatsoever. [R. C. 1905, § 3211; 1895, ch. 91, § 4; R. C. 1899, § 2671.]

§ 4268. Assessments, how collected. Upon failure to pay any tax assessed for the purposes herein named the same shall become delinquent and shall be collected in the same manner as other taxes. [R. C. 1905, § 3212; 1895, ch. 91, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 2672.]

§ 4269. Road machinery. In townships owning road machinery, the township board shall have authority to make such disposition of the same as in its discretion is best for the interests of the township, or it may purchase or lease such machinery as may be necessary for the purpose of carrying out the provisions hereof, and the performance of contracts in reference thereto; provided, that no machinery shall be purchased or sold to exceed in value the sum of two hundred and eighty dollars, except such sale or purchase shall be ordered at the annual township meeting by a majority vote of the legal voters of such township assembled at such meeting or at a special election called for that purpose by said board upon petition of twelve freeholders of said township. [1911, ch. 146; R. C. 1905, § 3213; 1895, ch. 91, § 6; R. C. 1899, § 2673; 1905, ch. 181.]

Supervisors' purchase of road machine must be authorized by electors. F. C. Austin Mfg. Co. v. Township, 16 S. D. 126, 91 N. W. 470.

ARTICLE 28.— MISCELLANEOUS.

§ 4270. Officers not to be interested in contracts. No township officer shall become a party to or be interested directly or indirectly in any contract made by the board of which he may be a member; and every contract or payment voted for or made contrary to the provisions of this section is void; and any violation of this section shall constitute malfeasance in office which will subject the officer so offending to be removed from office. [R. C. 1905, § 3214; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 119; R. C. 1899, § 2674.]

§ 4271. Election districts. Each township organized under this chapter, or any law heretofore in force, constitutes an election district. [R. C. 1905, § 3215; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 120; R. C. 1899, § 2675.]

§ 4272. City to have same powers as township. Nothing in this chapter contained shall in any way apply to any portion of the state which is embraced within the limits of any incorporated city; but each incorporated city shall have and exercise within its limits, in addition to its powers, the same powers conferred by this chapter upon townships in the manner prescribed by law. [R. C. 1905, § 3216; 1883, ch. 112, sub-ch. 1, § 121; R. C. 1899, § 2676.]

§ 4273. Constable, powers of. Any constable in any organized township containing any village not incorporated, shall be a proper officer for arresting and detaining any person for disorderly conduct within the village arising from drunkenness or otherwise, without process first issuing, and any person deemed guilty of such disorderly conduct shall be taken before any justice of the peace of such township, and upon conviction thereof be fined in the sum of not less than five nor more than ten dollars and all costs arising from such complaint and trial. [R. C. 1905, § 3217; 1879, ch. 59, § 95; R. C. 1899, § 2677.]

§ 4274. To provide for confinement of prisoners. Any township with any such village not incorporated shall at the annual township meeting have power to vote any appropriations necessary for providing a place of confinement, and may adopt such regulations as may be necessary in relation thereto. [R. C. 1905, § 3218; R. C. 1899, § 2678.]

Right of action for imprisonment in unhealthful or unfit prison or jail. 36 L.R.A. 293; 2 L.R.A. (N.S.) 95.

Liability of municipality for tort in connection with jails and prisons. 25 L.R.A. (N.S.) 98.

— for negligence or other tort of keeper or inmate of municipal prison. 25 L.R.A. (N.S.) 180.

— for injury to neighboring property from maintenance of prison. 34 L.R.A. (N.S.) 461.

§ 4275. Notice to be given. Any township providing such place of confinement shall cause notice thereof to be published in the newspaper having the largest circulation in such township, if there is any, or cause the township clerk to post notice thereof in three of the most public places in such township. [R. C. 1905, § 3219; R. C. 1899, § 2769.]

§ 4276. Convicted person confined. Any person convicted under the preceding sections shall be confined in the calaboose until all fines and costs are paid, not less than one day nor more than ten days. [R. C. 1905, § 3220; R. C. 1899, § 2680.]

ARTICLE 29.—DISSOLUTION OF TOWNSHIPS.

§ 4277. Petition for dissolution. Notice of elections. What notice shall specify. When an application signed by one-third of the legal voters of any organized civil township within this state shall be presented to the board of supervisors of such civil township, in writing, at least ten days prior to the fourth Monday of June in any year, asking for a dissolution of the civil township, setting forth the reasons therefor, such petition shall be considered by such board of supervisors at its regular meeting on the fourth Monday in June in such year, and it shall be competent for the board, if it deems the reasons good, to call a meeting of the voters of such civil township, by giving at least ten days' notice thereof, to determine whether such civil township shall be dissolved. Said notice shall be signed by the town clerk of such civil township, and shall be by him posted in five of the most public places in such civil township, at least ten days prior to such meeting of said voters, and also, if there is a newspaper published in such civil township, he shall cause a copy of such notice to be published once therein, at least five days before the time appointed for such meeting. Each notice given for such a meeting shall specify the purpose for which it is to be held, and no other business shall be transacted at such meeting than such as is specified in such notice. [R. C. 1905, § 3221; 1897, ch. 139, §§ 1, 2, 3; R. C. 1899, § 2680a.]

§ 4278. Shall vote by ballot. The board of supervisors of such civil township shall preside at such meeting, and the polls shall be opened and closed as at other township meetings, and the voters shall vote by ballot, "yes" or "no," and the result of the vote shall be publicly announced after the polls close and as soon as ascertained by the officers of such meeting, and if a majority of all the votes shall be "yes" and shall have been given by a majority of all the legal voters in such civil township, a statement of the vote signed by the chairman of the board of supervisors of such civil township, and attested by the clerk thereof, shall be filed in the office of the county auditor of the county within which such civil township lies, and such civil township shall on the first day of January next succeeding the time of holding such meeting cease to be a corporation; provided, the property belonging to such civil township, after the payment of its debts and liabilities, shall be disposed of in such manner as a majority of the voters of such civil township at any special meeting may have directed. And all of the records of such civil township shall be turned over by the officers of said civil township to the county auditor of the county wherein said district lies, for preservation and safe keeping. [R. C. 1905, § 3222; 1897, ch. 139, § 4; R. C. 1899, § 2680b; 1903, ch. 199, § 1.]

§ 4279. Personal rights not affected. No such dissolution shall affect the right of any person in any contract or agreement to which such corporation is a party. [R. C. 1905, § 3223; 1897, ch. 139, § 5; R. C. 1899, § 2680c.]

§ 4280. Assessment and levy. Upon the dissolution of any civil township, it shall be the duty of the board of county commissioners of the county within which such civil township lies, to attach the territory embraced within such township for the purpose of assessment and taxation to such assessment district of such county as such board may deem advisable or practicable, and to levy on the taxable property, in such township, in addition to the other levies provided by law, a sum sufficient to discharge all debts and liabilities existing against said township at the time of its dissolution, and the county auditor shall enter the same on the county tax list, to be collected by the county treasurer as other county taxes are collected, and it shall be the duty of said treasurer to credit the money derived from such levy to a special fund to be used in the payment of said debts and liabilities, and any balance remaining in said fund after the payment of said debts and liabilities, shall be transferred to the credit of such district, to be used in the construction of roads and bridges therein. [R. C. 1905, § 3224; 1897, ch. 139, § 6; R. C. 1899, § 2680d; 1903, ch. 199, § 2.]

§ 4281. Duty of county auditor. It shall be the duty of the county auditor of such county, upon the dissolution of any civil township therein, to immediately notify the state auditor thereof, and, further, to enter upon the proper record book in his office the fact of such dissolution. [R. C. 1905, § 3225; 1897, ch. 139, § 7; R. C. 1899, § 2680e.]

ARTICLE 30.—CONSOLIDATION OF TOWNSHIPS.

§ 4282. Supervisors and clerks of townships dissolved must determine amount due on annexation. When a township or a fraction of a township has been dissolved and attached to another township, by the county commissioners as now provided by law, it shall be the duty of the several boards of supervisors with the clerks of the townships affected by the change to meet prior to the annual town meeting at the usual meeting place and according to the notice of the township clerk of the township to which annexation has been made for the purpose of determining the financial amount due consequent to the said annexation. [R. C. 1905, § 3226; 1905, ch. 178, § 1.]

Division of territory of town as affecting its assets. 39 L.R.A.(N.S.) 285.

Liability of territory annexed to township to pay proportionate share of existing debts. 27 L.R.A.(N.S.) 1147.

§ 4283. To determine value of property belonging to township. At such meeting, such board of supervisors, with the clerks, shall determine the value of town hall, jail, graders, plows, scrapers and all other property legally owned and used by said township in conducting the business of said township, to which said annexation has been made, together with the moneys in the treasury and also the money due said township from the county and other sources, and also all back or unpaid taxes shall constitute the assets and they shall deduct therefrom all bonds and legal debts against said township which shall constitute the liabilities and the difference between the two shall constitute the net assets or net liabilities. [R. C. 1905, § 3227; 1905, ch. 178, § 2.]

Roads and bridges do not constitute public property owned by county within meaning of section 2336 of Revised Codes, 1905. State ex rel. Mountrail County v. Amundson, 23 N. D. 238, 135 N. W. 1117.

§ 4284. To determine the pro rata amount due from annexed territory. When it is shown that there is a net asset it shall be the duty of the several boards of supervisors with the clerks to determine the pro rata amount due from the annexed territory in proportion to the assessed valuation of one to the other. All questions herein shall be determined by a majority vote of the board hereinbefore provided. [R. C. 1905, § 3228; 1905, ch. 178, § 3.]

§ 4285. Tax to be levied against territory annexed. At the first annual township meeting there shall be levied against the fractional township or township annexed, the sum hereinbefore found to be due the township affected by the annexation, thereby in addition to the levies provided by law. [R. C. 1905, § 3229; 1905, ch. 178, § 4.]

CHAPTER 51.

PRESERVATION OF LAND MARKS.

§ 4286. Boards responsible for preservation of corner monuments. The board of supervisors in all organized townships are hereby made responsible for the safe preservation of all section corner, quarter corner and meander corner monuments in any organized township in this state. The board of county commissioners are hereby made responsible for the preservation of all such corner monuments in unorganized townships in any organized county in the state, the town board in any incorporated town or village is hereby made responsible for the preservation of all such corner monuments in any incorporated town or village, and the city council in any incorporated city is hereby made responsible for the preservation of all such corner monuments in any incorporated city in the state. [1911, ch. 288, § 1.]

§ 4287. Notice of corner monuments about to be destroyed. It is hereby made the duty of all officers having in charge the construction or repair of streets and highways, whenever a quarter corner, section corner or meander corner monument is about to be destroyed by the wear of travel or the grading of said streets or highways, to notify the chairman of the board of supervisors in any organized township or the chairman of the town board in any incorporated town or village, or the mayor of any city, or the chairman of the board of county commissioners, as the case may be, that such monument or monuments are about to be destroyed. [1911, ch. 288, § 2.]

§ 4288. County surveyor to replace corner monuments. Upon the request of the mayor of any city or the chairman of any town board, or the chairman of the board of supervisors in any organized township, or the chairman of the board of county commissioners, it is hereby made the duty of the county surveyor to take immediate steps to replace such monument, in case it is about to be destroyed by travel, in such a manner that the travel will not further affect it, and in the case that it is about to be destroyed by the grading of any street or highway, to reference such monument in such manner that it can be replaced after the grading is completed, and to replace the same after said grading is completed. In replacing such monuments the county surveyor may replace the original, if in his opinion it is in good condition and will serve the purpose. If the original monument is not in good condition for replacement he shall sink into the earth a column of concrete or cement block at least two feet in length, twelve inches square at the base, six inches square at the top, and carefully describe the same in the records of his survey. [1911, ch. 288, § 3.]

§ 4289. Fees and expenses for replacing. For such services rendered, the county surveyor shall be paid the fees and expenses as now provided by law for the surveying of county roads, upon the presentation of properly prepared vouchers by the city, town, village, organized township or county from which the request came. In case the county has no county surveyor, the work to be done as provided in section 4288 may be done by any competent surveyor or engineer designated by the board of county commissioners, and for such services rendered he shall be paid the same fees and in the same manner as provided for the county surveyor in this section. [1911, ch. 288, § 4.]

§ 4290. Penalty for destroying or removing corner monuments. Any person who destroys, defaces, changes or removes to another place any section corner, quarter section corner or meander corner monument or any government line of survey, or cuts down any witness trees, or any trees blazed to mark the line of government survey, or to deface or remove any monument or bench mark of any government survey until after the same has been referenced by the county surveyor or some competent surveyor or engineer, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than ten dollars nor more than fifty dollars. [1911, ch. 288, § 5.]

CHAPTER 52.

FOREST FIRE WARDENS.

§ 4291. Office of forest fire warden created. Who shall serve as wardens. The office of forest fire warden is hereby created. It shall be the duty of each supervisor of a civil township in this state in which at least twenty-five per cent of the total area is woodland to act as forest fire warden therein. At the second March meeting each year, the township supervisors shall divide their township into three forest fire warden districts, one for each warden. For unorganized townships having at least twenty-five per cent of woodland, the board of county commissioners shall at the regular January meeting of each year, appoint two or more forest fire wardens for each township, each warden to have supervision over such portion thereof as the board may designate, and to serve for a period of one year. [1909, ch. 125, § 1.]

§ 4292. Powers and duties of wardens. Each warden shall be empowered and it shall be his duty to take such precautions against the kindling and spreading of forest fires as he may deem necessary, especially in dry and dangerous seasons of the year. He shall have power, and it shall be his duty, whenever his district is threatened with approaching fire, or suffering from forest fires, to call to his assistance any number of able-bodied men within his district to proceed to the place of danger and extinguish the fire. Whenever a forest fire has occurred in his district it shall be his duty to proceed immediately to a strict inquiry into the cause and origin of the fire, and in all cases where such fire has been found to have originated through the unlawful act of any person it shall be his special duty to make complaint before the proper magistrate. [1909, ch. 125, § 2.]

§ 4293. Compensation. Each forest fire warden shall receive a compensation of three dollars per day for the time actually and necessarily employed in the discharge of his duties. Any employe engaged in like service shall receive a compensation of two and fifty one-hundredths dollars per day. In civil townships such compensation shall be paid out of the township general fund; in unorganized townships such compensation shall be paid out of the county general fund. [1909, ch. 125, § 3.]

CHAPTER 53.

PARTITION FENCES.

§ 4294. Legal fences defined. All fences four and a half feet high and in good repair, consisting of rails, timber, boards or stone walls, or any combination thereof, and all brooks, rivers, ponds, creeks, ditches and hedges, or other things, which shall be equivalent thereto, in the judgment of the fence viewers within whose jurisdiction the same may be, or any such fences as the parties interested may agree upon, shall be deemed legal and sufficient fences. [R. C. 1905, § 3230; 1903, ch. 100, § 1.]

Sufficiency of fences. 22 L.R.A. 105.

§ 4295. Wire fence legal. In all cases where any law of this state requires to be erected or maintained any fence or fences for any purpose whatever, it shall be sufficient and a compliance with such law, if there shall be erected and maintained a barbed wire fence, consisting of two barbed wires and one smooth wire, with at least forty barbs to the rod, the wire to be firmly fastened to the posts not more than two rods apart, with one stay between the posts, the top wire to be not more than fifty-two inches high or less than forty-eight, and the bottom wire not less than sixteen inches from the ground; or four smooth wires with posts not more than two rods apart, and with good stays not to exceed eight feet apart, the top wire to be not more than fifty-six inches high nor less than forty-eight, and the bottom wire not less than sixteen inches nor more than twenty inches from the ground; provided, that five smooth wires shall be required to constitute a legal partition fence; provided, that any other fence authorized by law shall also be held a legal fence. [R. C. 1905, § 3231; 1903, ch. 100, § 2.]

Inapplicable to case where corral fence for protection of haystacks is required. Johnson v. Rickford, 18 N. D. 268, 122 N. W. 386.

§ 4296. Partition fences, maintained how. The respective occupants of land inclosed with fences shall keep up and maintain partition fences between their own and the next adjoining inclosures, in equal shares, so long as both parties continue to improve the same. [R. C. 1905, § 3232; 1903, ch. 100, § 3.]

Applicability of statutory provision for joint construction of line or division fence, where lands of one of adjoining owners are otherwise uninclosed. 20 L.R.A. (N.S.) 1092.

Effect of joint building of line fence on adverse possession. 33 L.R.A. (N.S.) 937.

Effect of agreement to move line fence on adverse possession. 33 L.R.A. (N.S.) 939.

Injunction to compel or prevent erection, maintenance or removal of fences. 7 L.R.A. (N.S.) 55.

Validity of oral agreement as to erection or maintenance of fences. 27 L.R.A. (N.S.) 226.

Liability for injuries arising from defects in partition fences. 54 Am. St. Rep. 513.

§ 4297. Penalty for neglect. In case any party neglects to repair or rebuild any partition fence which of right he ought to maintain, the aggrieved party may complain to the civil township supervisors or a majority of them, who, after due notice to each party, shall proceed to examine the same and if they determine that the fence is insufficient, they shall signify the same in writing to the delinquent occupant of the land, and direct him to repair or rebuild the same within such time as they may deem reasonable; and if such fence is not repaired or rebuilt accordingly, it shall be lawful for the complainant to repair or rebuild the same. [R. C. 1905, § 3233; 1903, ch. 100, § 4.]

§ 4298. Same. Value of repairs, etc., recoverable. When any deficient fence, built or repaired by any complainant as provided in the preceding section, is adjudged sufficient by two or more of said supervisors, and the value of such repairing or building up, together with their fees, is ascertained by a certificate under their hands, the complainant shall have a right to demand, either of the owner or occupant of the land where the fence was deficient, the sum so ascertained; and in case of neglect or refusal to pay the sum so due for one month after demand thereof is made, the complainant may recover the same, with interest at one per cent a month, in civil action. [R. C. 1905, § 3234; 1903, ch. 100, § 5.]

§ 4299. Controversy, how settled. When any controversy arises about the rights of respective occupants in partition fences, or their obligation to maintain same, either party may apply to a majority of the supervisors of the civil township where the lands lie, who, after due notice to each party, may, in writing, assign to each his share thereof and direct the time within which each party shall erect or repair his share of the fence, in the manner before provided; which assignment, being recorded in the registry of deeds, shall be binding upon the parties and upon all the succeeding occupants of the lands; and they shall be obliged always thereafter to maintain their respective portions of said fence. [R. C. 1905, § 3235; 1903, ch. 100, § 6.]

§ 4300. Party neglecting to maintain fence. How liable. In case any party refuses to erect or maintain the part of any fence assigned to him as aforesaid, the same may be erected and maintained by the aggrieved party, in the manner before provided, and he shall be entitled to the value thereof, ascertained in the manner aforesaid, and be recovered in like manner. [R. C. 1905, § 3236; 1903, ch. 100, § 7.]

§ 4301. Division of fences valid. All divisions of fences made by supervisors according to the provisions of this chapter, or which shall be made by the owners of adjoining lands, in writing, witnessed by two witnesses, signed, sealed and acknowledged by the parties making the same, being recorded in the registry of deeds, shall be good and valid against the parties thereto, and their heirs and assigns. [R. C. 1905, § 3237; 1903, ch. 100, § 8.]

§ 4302. Party voluntarily erecting whole fence may recover, when. When any controversy that may arise between the occupants of adjoining lands, as to their respective rights in any partition fence, it shall appear to the supervisors that either of the occupants had, before any complaint made to them, voluntarily erected the whole fence, or more than his just share of the same, or otherwise become proprietor thereof, the other occupant shall pay for as much as shall be assigned to him to repair and maintain, the value of which shall be ascertained and recorded in the manner provided in this chapter. [R. C. 1905, § 3238; 1903, ch. 100, § 9.]

§ 4303. Fences to be kept in repair throughout the year. All partition fences shall be kept in good repair throughout the year, unless the occupants of the lands on both sides otherwise mutually agree. [R. C. 1905, § 3239; 1903, ch. 100, § 10.]

§ 4304. Proceedings when land is bounded by rivers. When lands of different persons which are required to be fenced are bounded upon or divided by any river, brook, pond or creek, which of itself, in the judgment of the supervisors, is not a sufficient fence, and it is in their opinion impracticable, without unreasonable expense, for the partition fence to be made in such waters, in the place where the true boundary line is, if in such case the occupant of the land on one side refuses or neglects to join with the occupant of the land on the other side, in making a partition fence on the one side or the other, or if such person disagrees respecting the same, then two or more supervisors of the civil township in which such lands lie, on application to them made, shall forthwith proceed to view such river, brook, pond or creek. [R. C. 1905, § 3240; 1903, ch. 100, § 11.]

§ 4305. Supervisors to give notice and render decision. If such supervisors determine that such river, brook, pond or creek will not answer the purpose of a sufficient fence, and that it is impracticable, without unreasonable expense, to build a fence on the true boundary line they shall, after giving notice to the parties, determine how, or on which side thereof, the fence shall be set up and maintained, or whether partly on one side and partly on the other side, and shall reduce such determination to writing and sign the same; and if either party refuses or neglects to make or maintain his part of the fence, according to the determination of said supervisors, the same may be made and maintained by the other party as before provided in this chapter, and the delinquent party shall be subject to the same charges and costs, to be recovered in like manner. [R. C. 1905, § 3241; 1903, ch. 100, § 12.]

§ 4306. Lands occupied in common. How fenced. When any lands belonging to different persons in severalty have been occupied in common without a partition fence between them, and one of the occupants is desirous to occupy his part in severalty, and the occupant refuses or neglects, on demand, to divide with him the line where the fence ought to be built, or to build a sufficient fence on his part of the lines when divided, the party desiring it may have the same divided and assigned by a majority of the supervisors of the same civil township, in the manner provided in this chapter. [R. C. 1905, § 3242; 1903, ch. 100, § 13.]

§ 4307. Supervisors to assign time for making fence. Upon the division and assignment as provided in the preceding section, the supervisors may, in writing under their hands, assign a reasonable time for making the fence, having regard to the season of the year; and, if either party shall not make his part of the fence within the time assigned, the other party may, after having completed his part of the fence, make the part of the other, and recover therefor the ascertained expense thereof, together with the fees of the supervisors, in the manner provided in this chapter. [R. C. 1905, § 3243; 1903, ch. 100, § 14.]

§ 4308. Partition fence, when removable. When one party ceases to improve his land, or opens his inclosure, he shall not take away any part of the partition fence belonging to him, and adjoining the next inclosure, if the owner or occupant of such adjoining inclosure will, within two months after the same is ascertained, pay therefor such sum as a majority of the supervisors shall, in writing under their hands, determine to be the value of such partition fence belonging to such parties. [R. C. 1905, § 3244; 1903, ch. 100, § 15.]

§ 4309. Rule in case of uninclosed lands afterwards fenced. When any uninclosed grounds are afterwards inclosed, the owner or occupant thereof shall pay one-half of each partition fence, standing upon the line between his land and the inclosure of any other owner or occupant, and the value thereof shall be ascertained by a majority of the supervisors of the civil township, in writing under their hands, in case the parties do not agree; and if such owner or occupant neglects or refuses for sixty days after the value has been ascertained and demand made to pay for one-half of such partition fence, the proprietor of each fence may maintain a civil action for such value and the cost of ascertaining the same. [R. C. 1905, § 3245; 1903, ch. 100, § 16.]

§ 4310. Supervisors, how selected in certain cases. In all cases where the line upon which the partition fence is to be made, or to be divided is the boundary line between civil townships, or partly in one civil township and partly in another, a supervisor shall be taken from each civil township. [R. C. 1905, § 3246; 1903, ch. 100, § 17.]

§ 4311. Rule when partition fence runs into water. When a partition fence running into the water is necessary to be made, the same shall be done in equal shares, unless otherwise agreed by the parties; and in case either party refuses or neglects to make or maintain the share belonging to him, similar proceedings shall be had as in case of the other fences, and with like effect. [R. C. 1905, § 3247; 1903, ch. 100, § 18.]

shall erect and support said fence agreeably to such divisions. [R. C. 1905, § 3248; 1903, ch. 100, § 19.]

§ 4313. Notice of determination not to improve lands. If any person determines not to improve any of his lands adjoining any partition fence that may have been divided according to the provisions of this chapter, and gives six months' notice of such determination to all the adjoining occupants of the lands, he shall not be required to keep up or support any part of such fence during the time his lands are open and unimproved, and he may thereafter remove his portion thereof, if the owner or occupant of the adjoining inclosure will not pay therefor, as provided in section 4307. [R. C. 1905, § 3249; 1903, ch. 100, § 20.]

§ 4314. Supervisor neglecting to perform duty. Penalty. Any supervisor who shall, when requested, unreasonably neglect to view any fence, or to perform any other duty required of him in this chapter, shall forfeit the sum of five dollars, and shall be liable to the party injured for all damages consequent upon such neglect. [R. C. 1905, § 3250; 1903, ch. 100, § 21.]

§ 4315. Fees of supervisors. Each supervisor shall be paid by the person employing him, at the rate of one dollar per day for the time he is so employed; and if such person neglects to pay the same within thirty days after the service is performed, each supervisor having performed any such service may recover in civil action the amount of such fees. [R. C. 1905, § 3251; 1903, ch. 100, § 22.]

§ 4316. Fence viewers. In all counties not divided into civil townships, the county commissioners shall act as fence viewers, and be governed by the provisions of this chapter; provided, the provisions of this chapter shall apply to the respective occupants of the land inclosed with fences for the purpose of pasturage or grazing. [R. C. 1905, § 3252; 1903, ch. 100, § 23.]

§ 4317. Civil action for failure to build. Recovery. In case any person neglects or refuses to erect or maintain the part of any such fence assigned to him to erect or maintain, the same may be erected and maintained by the party aggrieved thereby in a good and substantial manner, and he may recover of the party so neglecting or refusing, in a civil action in any court having jurisdiction of the amount involved, the value of that part of said fence so erected or maintained which was assigned to the party so neglecting or refusing, together with all the costs and expenses of such action, and all the costs and expenses of the assignment provided in section 4294. CHAPTER 54.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

§ 4318. Code not retroactive unless so declared. No part of this code is retroactive unless expressly so declared. [R. C. 1905, § 3254; R. C. 1895, § 2681.]

Inapplicable to redemptions under former sales. Blakemore v. Cooper, 15 N. D. 5, 4 L.R.A. (N.S.) 1074, 125 Am. St. Rep. 574, 106n.

§ 4319. Rule of construction of code. The rule of the common law, that statutes in derogation thereof are to be strictly construed, has no application to this code. The code establishes the law of this state respecting the subjects to which it relates, and its provisions and all proceedings under it are to be liberally construed, with a view to effect its objects and to promote justice. [R. C. 1905, § 3255; R. C. 1895, § 2582.]

§ 4320. Same. The provisions of this code, so far as they are substantially the same as existing statutes, must be construed as continuations thereof, and not as new enactments. [R. C. 1905, § 3256; R. C. 1895, § 2683.]

§ 4321. Offices under acts repealed by code are continued, when. All persons who, at the time this code takes effect, hold office under any of the acts repealed, continue to hold the same according to the tenure thereof, except those offices which are not continued by one of the codes adopted at this session of the legislative assembly, and excepting offices filled by appointment. [R. C. 1905, § 3257; R. C. 1895, § 2684.]

§ 4322. Same. When any office is abolished by the repeal of any act, and such act is not in substance re-enacted or continued in either of the codes, such office ceases at the time the codes take effect. [R. C. 1905, § 3258; R. C. 1895, § 2685.]

§ 4323. Pending actions or proceedings not affected by code. No action or proceeding commenced before this code takes effect, and no right accrued, is affected by its provisions, but the proceedings therein must conform to the requirements of this code as far as practicable. [R. C. 1905, § 3259; R. C. 1895, § 2686.]

As to repealing statute not affecting right to redeem from tax sale. Blakemore v. Cooper, 15 N. D. 5, 4 L.R.A.(N.S.) 1074, 125 Am. St. Rep. 574, 106 N. W. 566.

Lien upon personal property acquired under certain statute is unaffected by repeal of statute. Hagler v. Kelly, 14 N. D. 218, 103 N. W. 629.

§ 4324. Limitations, how reckoned. When a limitation or period of time prescribed in any existing statute for acquiring a right or barring a remedy, or for any other purpose, has begun to run before this code goes into effect, and the same or any limitation of time is prescribed in this code, the time which has already run shall be deemed part of the time prescribed as such limitation by this code. [R. C. 1905, § 3260; R. C. 1895, § 2687.]

§ 4325. This act, how referred to. This act, whenever cited, enumerated, referred to or amended may be designated simply as the political code, adding when necessary, the number of the section. [R. C. 1905, § 3261; R. C. 1895, § 2688.]
