Senate Concurrent Resolution A
Introduced by the Legislative Research Committee

RATIFICATION PROPOSED AMENDMENT U. S. CONSTITUTION

Ratification proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States relating to the terms of office of the President.

WHEREAS, the 80th Congress of the United States of America, at the first session, begun and held at the city of Washington on Friday, the third day of January, one thousand nine hundred and forty-seven, by a constitutional majority of two-thirds thereof, made and passed a proposal to amend the Constitution of the United States of America, which joint resolution was duly ratified by Congress and approved by the President of the United States, to-wit:

JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States relating to the terms of office of the President.

"Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled (two-thirds of each House concurring therein), That the following article is hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the Constitution when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several states:

“ARTICLE —

“SECTION 1. No person shall be elected to the office of the President more than twice, and no person who has held the office of President, or acted as President, for more than two years of a term to which some other person was elected President shall be elected to the office of President more than once. But this Article shall not apply to any person holding the office of President when this Article was proposed by the Congress, and shall not prevent any person who may be holding the office of President, or acting as President, during the term within which this Article becomes operative from holding the office of President or acting as President during the remainder of such term.

“SECTION 2. This Article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the Constitution by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several States within seven years from the date of its submission to the States by the Congress.”

Therefore, Be It Resolved, by the Senate of the State of North Dakota, the House of Representatives Concurring Therein:

That the said foregoing proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America be, and the same is, hereby ratified by the Legislative Assembly of the State of North Dakota,

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that certified copies of this Concurrent Resolution be forwarded by the Governor of this State to the Secretary of State for the United States of America at Washington, D. C., and to the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the National Congress.
