 - f. Holds a trademark or service mark registered in the manner provided in chapter 47-22.
6. The use of a name by a limited liability company in violation of this section does not affect or vitiate its limited liability company existence. However, a court in this state may, upon application of the state or of an interested or affected person, enjoin the limited liability company from doing business under a name assumed in violation of this section, although its articles of organization may have been filed with the secretary of state and a certificate of organization issued.
7. A limited liability company whose period of existence has expired or that is involuntarily terminated by the secretary of state pursuant to section 10-32.1-90 may reacquire the right to use that name by refiling articles of organization pursuant to section 10-32.1-20, unless the name has been adopted for use or reserved by another person, in which case the filing will be rejected unless the filing is accompanied by a written consent or judgment pursuant to subsection 3. A limited liability company that cannot reacquire the use of its limited liability company name shall adopt a new limited liability company name which complies with the provisions of this section:
 - a. By refiling the articles of organization pursuant to section 10-32.1-20;
 - b. By amending pursuant to section 10-32.1-21; or
 - c. By reinstating pursuant to section 10-32.1-91.
8. Subject to section 10-32.1-73, this section applies to a foreign limited liability company transacting business in this state, having a certificate of authority to transact business in this state, or applying for a certificate of authority.
9. An amendment that only changes the name of the limited liability company may be authorized by a resolution approved by the board and may be submitted to and approved by the members as provided in subdivision b of subsection 1 of section 10-32.1-21.

10. A limited liability company that files its articles of organization with an effective date later than the date of filing as provided in subdivision b of subsection 2 of section 10-32.1-20 shall maintain the right to the name until the effective date.

10-32.1-12. Reserved name.

1. The exclusive right to the use of a limited liability company name otherwise permitted by section 10-32.1-11 may be reserved by any person.
2. The reservation is made by filing a request with the secretary of state that the name be reserved together with the fees provided in section 10-32.1-92.
 - a. If the name is available for use by the applicant, then the secretary of state shall reserve the name for the exclusive use of the applicant for a period of twelve months.
 - b. The reservation may be renewed for successive twelve-month periods.
3. The right to the exclusive use of a limited liability company name reserved pursuant to this section may be transferred to another person by or on behalf of the applicant for whom the name was reserved by filing with the secretary of state a notice of the transfer and specifying the name and address of the transferee together with the fees provided in section 10-32.1-92.
4. The right to the exclusive use of a limited liability company name reserved pursuant to this section may be canceled by or on behalf of the applicant for whom the name was reserved by filing with the secretary of state a notice of the cancellation together with the fees provided in section 10-32.1-92.
5. The secretary of state may destroy all reserved name requests and index thereof one year after expiration.

10-32.1-13. Operating agreement - Scope - Function - Limitations.

1. Except as otherwise provided in subsections 2 and 3, the operating agreement governs:
 - a. Relations among the members as members and between the members and the limited liability company;
 - b. The rights and duties under this chapter of a person in the capacity of manager or governor;
 - c. The activities of the company and the conduct of those activities; and
 - d. The means and conditions for amending the operating agreement.
2. To the extent the operating agreement does not otherwise provide for a matter described in subsection 1, this chapter governs the matter.
3. An operating agreement may not:
 - a. Vary the capacity of a limited liability company under section 10-32.1-08 to sue and be sued in its own name;
 - b. Vary the law applicable under section 10-32.1-09;
 - c. Vary the power of the court under section 10-32.1-22;
 - d. Subject to subsections 4 through 7, eliminate the duty of loyalty, the duty of care, or any other fiduciary duty;
 - e. Subject to subsections 4 through 7, eliminate the contractual obligation of good faith and fair dealing under subsection 4 of section 10-32.1-41;
 - f. Unreasonably restrict the duties and rights stated in section 10-32.1-42;
 - g. Vary the power of a court to decree dissolution in the circumstances specified in subdivisions d and e of subsection 1 of section 10-32.1-50;
 - h. Vary the requirement to wind up the business of a limited liability company as specified in subsection 1 and subdivision a of subsection 2 of section 10-32.1-51;
 - i. Unreasonably restrict the right of a member to maintain an action under sections 10-32.1-33 through 10-32.1-38;

- j. Restrict the right to approve a merger, conversion, or domestication under section 10-32.1-71 to a member that will have personal liability with respect to a surviving, converted, or domesticated organization; or
 - k. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2 of section 10-32.1-15, restrict the rights under this chapter of a person other than a member, manager, or governor.
4. If not manifestly unreasonable, and without limiting the terms that may be included in an operating agreement, the operating agreement may:
 - a. Restrict or eliminate the duty:
 - (1) As required in subdivision a of subsection 2 and in subsections 7 and 8 of section 10-32.1-41, to account to the limited liability company and to hold as trustee for it any property, profit, or benefit derived by the member in the conduct or winding up of the company's business, from a use by the member of the company's property, or from the appropriation of a limited liability company opportunity;
 - (2) As required in subdivision b of subsection 2 and in subsections 7 and 8 of section 10-32.1-41, to refrain from dealing with the company in the conduct or winding up of the company's business as or on behalf of a party having an interest adverse to the company; and
 - (3) As required by subdivision c of subsection 2 and in subsections 7 and 8 of section 10-32.1-41, to refrain from competing with the company in the conduct of the business of the company before the dissolution of the company;
 - b. Identify specific types or categories of activities that do not violate the duty of loyalty;
 - c. Alter the duty of care, except to authorize intentional misconduct or knowing violation of law;
 - d. Alter any other fiduciary duty, including eliminating particular aspects of that duty; and
 - e. Prescribe the standards by which to measure the performance of the contractual obligation of good faith and fair dealing under subsection 4 of section 10-32.1-41.
 5. The operating agreement may specify the method by which a specific act or transaction that would otherwise violate the duty of loyalty may be authorized or ratified by one or more disinterested and independent persons after full disclosure of all material facts.
 6. To the extent the operating agreement of a member-managed limited liability company expressly relieves a member of a responsibility that the member would otherwise have under this chapter and imposes the responsibility on one or more other members, the operating agreement may, to the benefit of the member that the operating agreement relieves of the responsibility, also eliminate or limit any fiduciary duty that would have pertained to the responsibility.
 7. The operating agreement may alter or eliminate the indemnification for a member, manager, or governor provided by subsection 2 of section 10-32.1-40, and may eliminate or limit the liability of a member, manager, or governor to the limited liability company and members for money damages, except for:
 - a. Breach of the duty of loyalty;
 - b. A financial benefit received by the member or manager to which the member or manager is not entitled;
 - c. A breach of a duty under section 10-32.1-32;
 - d. Intentional infliction of harm on the company or a member; or
 - e. An intentional violation of criminal law.
 8. The court shall decide any claim under subsection 4 that a term of an operating agreement is manifestly unreasonable. The court:
 - a. Shall make its determination as of the time the challenged term became part of the operating agreement and by considering only circumstances existing at that time; and

- b. May invalidate the term only if, in light of the purposes and activities of the limited liability company, it is readily apparent that:
 - (1) The objective of the term is unreasonable; or
 - (2) The term is an unreasonable means to achieve the objective of the provision.

10-32.1-14. Operating agreement effect on a limited liability company and persons becoming members - Preformation agreement.

1. A limited liability company is bound by and may enforce the operating agreement, whether or not the company has itself manifested assent to the operating agreement.
2. A person that becomes a member of a limited liability company is deemed to assent to the operating agreement.
3. Two or more persons intending to become the initial members of a limited liability company may make an agreement providing that upon the formation of the company the agreement will become the operating agreement. One person intending to become the initial member of a limited liability company may assent to terms providing that upon the formation of the company the terms will become the operating agreement.

10-32.1-15. Operating agreement - Effect on third parties and relationship to records effective on behalf of a limited liability company.

1. An operating agreement may specify that its amendment requires the approval of a person that is not a party to the operating agreement or the satisfaction of a condition. An amendment is ineffective if its adoption does not include the required approval or satisfy the specified condition.
2. The obligations of a limited liability company and its members to a person in the capacity of the person as a transferee or dissociated member are governed by the operating agreement. Subject only to any court order issued under section 10-32.1-45, to effectuate a charging order, an amendment to the operating agreement made after a person becomes a transferee or dissociated member is effective with regard to any debt, obligation, or other liability of the limited liability company or its members to the person in the capacity of the person as a transferee or dissociated member.
3. If a record that has been delivered by a limited liability company to the secretary of state for filing has become effective under this chapter and contains a provision that would be ineffective under subsection 3 of section 10-32.1-13, if contained in the operating agreement, then the provision is likewise ineffective in the record.
4. Subject to subsection 3, if a record that has been delivered by a limited liability company to the secretary of state for filing has become effective under this chapter and conflicts with a provision of the operating agreement, then:
 - a. The operating agreement prevails as to members, dissociated members, transferees, managers, and governors; and
 - b. The record prevails as to other persons to the extent they reasonably rely on the record.

10-32.1-16. Registered office and registered agent.

Every limited liability company shall have a registered office and a registered agent, in the manner prescribed by chapter 10-01.1.

10-32.1-17. Change of registered office or registered agent.

Every limited liability company may change its registered office or change its registered agent, and the agent may resign or change its business address or name, in the manner prescribed by chapter 10-01.1.

10-32.1-18. Resignation of registered agent.

The registered agent of every limited liability company may resign in the manner prescribed by chapter 10-01.1.

10-32.1-19. Service of process on a limited liability company, foreign limited liability company, and nonresident managers and governors.

1. A registered agent appointed by a limited liability company or foreign limited liability company is an agent of the company for service of any process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law to be served on the company.
2. If a limited liability company or foreign limited liability company does not maintain a registered agent in this state or if the registered agent with reasonable diligence cannot be found at the address of the registered agent, then the secretary of state is an agent of the company upon whom process, notice, or demand may be served.
3. Any process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law to be served on the limited liability company, the foreign limited liability company, a manager, a governor, or a member of a member-managed limited liability company may be served upon the secretary of state as provided in section 10-01.1-13.
4. This section does not affect the right to serve process, notice, or demand in any other manner provided by law.

10-32.1-20. Formation of a limited liability company - Articles of organization.

1. One or more individuals of the age of eighteen years or more or other persons may act as organizers to form a limited liability company by signing and filing with the secretary of state articles of organization together with the fees provided in section 10-32.1-92.
2. The articles of organization:
 - a. Must state:
 - (1) The name of the limited liability company, which must comply with section 10-32.1-11;
 - (2) With respect to the registered agent:
 - (a) The name of the commercial registered agent of the limited liability company as provided in chapter 10-01.1; or
 - (b) The name and address of a noncommercial registered agent in this state as provided in chapter 10-01.1;
 - (c) The address of the principal executive office;
 - (d) The name and address of each organizer; and
 - b. May state an effective date of organization, which must not be later than ninety days from the date of filing with the secretary of state.
3. Subject to subsection 3 of section 10-32.1-15, articles of organization may also contain statements as to matters other than those required by subsection 2. However, a statement in articles of organization is not effective as a statement of authority.
4. With respect to formation:
 - a. A limited liability company is formed when articles of organization have been filed with the secretary of state or at a later date as specified in the articles of organization.
 - b. If the secretary of state finds that the articles of organization conform to law and that all fees have been paid under section 10-32.1-92, then the secretary of state shall file the articles of organization and issue a certificate of organization to the organizers or their representative.
 - c. Except as against this state in a proceeding to terminate or revoke the certificate of organization or in a judicial proceeding pursuant to section 10-32.1-51, the filing of the articles of organization by the secretary of state is conclusive proof that the organizer satisfied all conditions to the formation of a limited liability company.
 - d. The formation of a limited liability company does not by itself cause any person to become a member. However, this chapter does not preclude an agreement, made before or after formation of a limited liability company, which provides that one or more persons will become members, or acknowledging that one or more persons became members, upon or otherwise in connection with the formation of the limited liability company.

10-32.1-21. Amendment or restatement of articles of organization.

1. Articles of organization may be amended or restated at any time.
 - a. Before any contribution is reflected in the required records of a limited liability company, the articles of organization may be amended by the organizers or by the board. The articles of organization may also be amended by the board to establish or fix the rights and preferences of a class or series of membership interests before any contribution pertaining to that class or series is reflected in the records of the limited liability company by filing articles of amendment with the secretary of state.
 - b. With respect to amendment after contribution:
 - (1) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision a, after any contribution has been reflected in the records of a limited liability company, the articles of organization may be amended in the manner set forth in this subdivision.
 - (2) A resolution approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the governors present, or proposed by a member or members owning five percent or more of the voting power of the members entitled to vote, that sets forth the proposed amendment must be submitted to a vote at the next regular or special meeting of the members of which notice has not yet been given but still can be timely given. Any number of amendments may be submitted to the members and voted upon at one meeting, but the same or substantially the same amendment proposed by a member or members need not be submitted to the members or be voted upon at more than one meeting during a fifteen-month period. The resolution may amend the articles of organization in their entirety to restate and supersede the original articles of organization and all amendments to them.
 - (3) Written notice of the meeting of the members setting forth the substance of the proposed amendment must be given to each member entitled to vote in the manner provided in subsection 5 of section 10-32.1-39 for the giving of notice of meetings of members.
 - (4) The proposed amendment is adopted:
 - (a) When approved by the affirmative vote of the members required by section 10-32.1-39; or
 - (b) If the articles of organization provide for a specified proportion equal to or larger than the majority necessary to transact a specified type of business at a meeting, or if it is proposed to amend the articles to provide for a specified proportion equal to or larger than the majority necessary to transact a specified type of business at a meeting, then the affirmative vote necessary to add the provision to, or to amend an existing provision in, the articles of organization is the larger of:
 - [1] The specified proportion or number or, in the absence of a specific provision, the affirmative vote necessary to transact the type of business described in the proposed amendment at a meeting immediately before the effectiveness of the proposed amendment; or
 - [2] The specified proportion or number that would, upon effectiveness of the proposed amendment, be necessary to transact the specified type of business at a meeting.
2. To amend its articles of organization, a limited liability company must file with the secretary of state an amendment stating:
 - a. The name of the company;
 - b. The changes the amendment makes to the articles of organization as most recently amended or restated; and
 - c. A statement that the amendment was adopted pursuant to this chapter.
3. If only a change of address of the principal executive office is required, then an amendment need not be filed. However, the change of address of the principal

- executive office must then be reported in the next annual report filed after the change or be submitted in writing to the secretary of state without a filing fee.
4. To restate its articles of organization, a limited liability company must file with the secretary of state a restatement, designated as such in its heading, stating:
 - a. In the heading or an introductory paragraph, the present name of the company; and
 - b. The changes the restatement makes to the articles of organization as most recently amended or restated, except that the name and address of each organizer may be omitted.
 5. Subject to subsection 3 of section 10-32.1-15 and subsection 3 of section 10-32.1-87, an amendment to or restatement of articles of organization is effective when filed with the secretary of state or at a later date as specified in the amendment to, or restatement of, the articles of organization.
 6. The owners of the outstanding transferable interests of a class or series are entitled to vote as a class or series upon a proposed amendment to the articles of organization, whether or not entitled to vote on the amendment by the provisions of the articles of organization, if the amendment would:
 - a. Effect an exchange, reclassification, or cancellation of all or part of the membership interests of the class or series, or effect a combination of outstanding membership interests of a class or series into a lesser number of membership interests of the class or series if each other class or series is not subject to a similar combination;
 - b. Effect an exchange, or create a right of exchange, of all or any part of the membership interests of another class or series for the membership interests of the class or series;
 - c. Change the rights or preferences of the membership interests of the class or series;
 - d. Create a new class or series of membership interests having rights and preferences prior and superior to the membership interests of that class or series, or increase the rights and preferences or the number of membership interests, of a class or series having rights and preferences prior or superior to the membership interests of that class or series;
 - e. Divide the membership interests of the class into series and determine the designation of each series and the variations in the relative rights and preferences between the membership interests of each series or authorize the board to do so;
 - f. Limit or deny any existing pre-emptive rights of the membership interests of the class or series; or
 - g. Cancel or otherwise affect distributions on the membership interests of the class or series.
 7. With respect to the effect of the amendment:
 - a. An amendment does not affect an existing cause of action in favor of or against the limited liability company, nor a pending suit to which the limited liability company is a party, nor the existing rights of persons other than members.
 - b. If the limited liability company name is changed by the amendment, a suit brought by or against the limited liability company under its former name does not abate for that reason.
 - c. An amendment restating the articles in their entirety supersedes the original articles and all amendments to the original articles.
 8. If the secretary of state finds that the articles of amendment conform to law, and that all fees have been paid as provided in section 10-32.1-92, then the articles of amendment must be recorded in the office of the secretary of state.
 9. A limited liability company that amends its name and which is the owner of a service mark, trademark, or trade name, is a general partner named in a fictitious name certificate, is a general partner in a limited partnership or a limited liability limited partnership, or is a managing partner of a limited liability partnership that is on file with - the secretary of state must change or amend the name of the limited liability company in each registration when the limited liability company files an amendment.

10. With respect to the amendment of articles of organization in court-supervised reorganization:
 - a. Whenever a plan of reorganization of a limited liability company has been confirmed by decree or order of a court of competent jurisdiction in proceedings for the reorganization of the limited liability company, pursuant to the provisions of any applicable statute of the United States relating to reorganization of limited liability companies, the articles may be amended, in the manner provided in this section, in as many respects as may be necessary to carry out the plan and to put it into effect, so long as the articles as amended contain only provisions which might be lawfully contained in original articles of organization at the time of making the amendment. In particular, and without limitation upon any general power of amendment, the articles may be amended to:
 - (1) Change the limited liability company name, period of duration, or organizational purposes of the limited liability company.
 - (2) Repeal, alter, or amend the bylaws of the limited liability company.
 - (3) Change the preferences, limitations, relative rights in respect of all or any part of the membership interests of the limited liability company, and classify, reclassify, or cancel all or any part thereof.
 - (4) Authorize the issuance of bonds, debentures, or other obligations of the limited liability company, whether convertible into membership interests of any class or bearing warrants or other evidence of optional rights to purchase or subscribe for membership interests of any class, and fix the terms and conditions thereof.
 - (5) Constitute or reconstitute and classify or reclassify the board and appoint governors and managers in place of or in addition to all or any of the governors or managers then in office.
 - b. Amendments to the articles pursuant to subdivision a must be made in the following manner:
 - (1) Articles of amendment approved by decree or order of the court must be signed and verified in duplicate by the person or persons designated or appointed by the court for that purpose and must set forth the name of the limited liability company, the amendments of the articles approved by the court, the date of the decree or order approving the articles of amendment, the title of the proceedings in which the decree or order was entered by a court having jurisdiction of the proceedings for the reorganization of the limited liability company pursuant to the provisions of an applicable statute of the United States.
 - (2) An original of the articles of amendment must be filed with the secretary of state. If the secretary of state finds that the articles of amendment conform to law, and that all fees have been paid as provided in section 10-32.1-92, then the articles of amendment must be recorded in the office of the secretary of state.
 - c. The articles of amendment become effective upon their acceptance by the secretary of state or at any other time within ninety days after their acceptance if the articles of amendment so provide.
 - d. The articles are deemed to be amended accordingly, without any action by the governors or members of the limited liability company and with the same effect as if the amendment had been adopted by the unanimous action provided for in section 10-32.1-39.
 11. If a member-managed limited liability company, a manager of a manager-managed limited liability company, or a governor of a board-managed limited liability company, knows that any information in articles of organization filed with the secretary of state was inaccurate when the articles were filed, or has become inaccurate owing to changed circumstances, the member, manager, or governor shall promptly:

- a. Cause the articles to be amended; or
- b. If appropriate, file with the secretary of state a change of registered agent or change of registered office in the manner prescribed by chapter 10-01.1.

10-32.1-22. Signing and filing pursuant to a judicial order.

1. If a person required by this chapter to sign a record or file a record with the secretary of state does not do so, then any other person that is aggrieved may petition the appropriate court to order:
 - a. The person to sign the record;
 - b. The person to file the record with the secretary of state for filing; or
 - c. The secretary of state to file the record unsigned.
2. If a petitioner under subsection 1 is not the limited liability company or foreign limited liability company to which the record pertains, then the petitioner shall make the company a party to the action.

10-32.1-23. No agency power of a member as a member.

1. A member is not an agent of a limited liability company solely by reason of being a member.
2. The status of a person as a member does not prevent or restrict law other than this chapter from imposing liability on a limited liability company because of the conduct of the person.

10-32.1-24. Statement of authority.

1. A limited liability company may file with the secretary of state a statement of authority. The statement:
 - a. Must include the name of the company and the address of its registered office;
 - b. With respect to any position that exists in or with respect to the company, may state the authority, or limitations on the authority, of all persons holding the position to:
 - (1) Execute an instrument transferring real property held in the name of the company; or
 - (2) Enter into other transactions on behalf of, or otherwise act for or bind, the company; and
 - c. May state the authority, or limitations on the authority, of a specific person to:
 - (1) Execute an instrument transferring real property held in the name of the company; or
 - (2) Enter into other transactions on behalf of, or otherwise act for or bind, the company.
2. To amend or cancel a statement of authority filed with the secretary of state under subsection 1 of section 10-32.1-86, a limited liability company must file with the secretary of state an amendment or cancellation stating:
 - a. The name of the company;
 - b. The address of its registered office;
 - c. The caption of the statement being amended or canceled and the date the statement being affected became effective; and
 - d. The contents of the amendment or a declaration that the statement being affected is canceled.
3. A statement of authority affects only the power of a person to bind a limited liability company to persons that are not members.
4. Subject to subsection 4 of section 10-32.1-04 and to subsection 3, and except as otherwise provided in subsections 6, 7, and 8, a limitation on the authority of a person or a position contained in an effective statement of authority is not by itself evidence of knowledge or notice of the limitation by any person.
5. Subject to subsection 3, a grant of authority not pertaining to transfers of real property and contained in an effective statement of authority is conclusive in favor of a person that gives value in reliance on the grant, except to the extent that when the person gives value:

- a. The person has knowledge to the contrary;
 - b. The statement has been canceled or restrictively amended under subsection 2; or
 - c. A limitation on the grant is contained in another statement of authority that became effective after the statement containing the grant became effective.
6. Subject to subsection 3, an effective statement of authority that grants authority to transfer real property held in the name of the limited liability company, whether or not a certified copy of the statement is recorded in the real property records, is conclusive in favor of a person that gives value in reliance on the grant without knowledge to the contrary, except to the extent that when the person gives value:
- a. The statement has been canceled or restrictively amended under subsection 2 and a certified copy of the cancellation or restrictive amendment has been recorded in the real property records; or
 - b. A limitation on the grant is contained in another statement of authority that became effective after the statement containing the grant became effective and a certified copy of the later-effective statement is recorded in the real property records.
7. Subject to subsection 3, if a certified copy of an effective statement containing a limitation on the authority to transfer real property held in the name of a limited liability company is recorded in the real property records, then all persons are deemed to know of the limitation.
8. Subject to subsection 9, an effective notice of dissolution is a cancellation of any filed statement of authority for the purposes of subsection 6 and is a limitation on authority for the purposes of subsection 7.
9. After a notice of dissolution becomes effective, a limited liability company may file with the secretary of state and, if appropriate, may record in the real property records, a statement of authority that is designated as a postdissolution statement of authority. The statement operates as provided in subsections 6 and 7.
10. An effective statement of denial operates as a restrictive amendment under this section and may be recorded by certified copy in the real property records for the purposes of subdivision a of subsection 6.

10-32.1-25. Statement of denial.

A person named in a filed statement of authority granting that person authority may file with the secretary of state for filing a statement of denial that:

1. Provides the name of the limited liability company and the caption of the statement of authority to which the statement of denial pertains; and
2. Denies the grant of authority.

10-32.1-26. Liability of members, managers, and governors.

1. The debts, obligations, or other liabilities of a limited liability company, whether arising in contract, tort, or otherwise:
 - a. Are solely the debts, obligations, or other liabilities of the company; and
 - b. Do not become the debts, obligations, or other liabilities of a member, manager, or governor solely by reason of the member acting as a member, manager acting as a manager, or governor acting as a governor.
2. The failure of a limited liability company to observe formalities relating exclusively to the management of its internal affairs is not a ground for imposing liability on the members, managers, or governors for the debts, obligations, or other liabilities of the company.
3. Except as relates to the failure of a limited liability company to observe any formalities relating exclusively to the management of its internal affairs, the case law that states the conditions and circumstances under which the corporate veil of a corporation may be pierced under North Dakota law also applies to limited liability companies.

10-32.1-27. Becoming a member.

1. If a limited liability company is to have only one member upon formation, then the person becomes a member as agreed by that person and the organizer of the company. That person and the organizer may be, but need not be, different persons. If different, then the organizer acts on behalf of the initial member.
2. If a limited liability company is to have more than one member upon formation, then those persons become members as agreed by the persons before the formation of the company. The organizer acts on behalf of the persons in forming the company and may be, but need not be, one of the persons.
3. A shelf limited liability company shall not be allowed under this chapter.
4. After a limited liability company has or has had at least one member, a person becomes a member:
 - a. As provided in the operating agreement;
 - b. As the result of a transaction effective under sections 10-32.1-55 through 10-32.1-71;
 - c. With the consent of all the members; or
 - d. If, within ninety consecutive days after the company ceases to have any members:
 - (1) The last person to have been a member, or the legal representative of that person, designates a person to become a member; and
 - (2) The designated person consents to become a member.
5. A person may become a member without acquiring a transferable interest and without making or being obligated to make a contribution to the limited liability company.

10-32.1-28. Form of contribution.

A contribution may consist of tangible or intangible property or other benefit to a limited liability company, including money, services performed, promissory notes, other agreements to contribute money or property, and contracts for services to be performed.

10-32.1-29. Liability for contributions.

1. The obligation of a person to make a contribution to a limited liability company is not excused by the death, disability, or other inability of the person to perform personally. If a person does not make a required contribution, then the person or the estate of the person is obligated to contribute money equal to the value of the part of the contribution which has not been made, at the option of the company.
2. A creditor of a limited liability company which extends credit or otherwise acts in reliance on an obligation described in subsection 1 may enforce the obligation.

10-32.1-30. Sharing of and right to distributions before dissolution.

1. Except as provided in subsection 5 and subject to paragraphs 1 through 4 of subdivision c of subsection 4 of section 10-32.1-05, any distributions made by a limited liability company before its dissolution and winding up must be in equal shares among members and dissociated members, except to the extent necessary to comply with any transfer effective under section 10-32.1-44 and any charging order in effect under section 10-32.1-45.
2. A person has a right to a distribution before the dissolution and winding up of a limited liability company only if the company decides to make an interim distribution. The dissociation of a person does not entitle the person to a distribution.
3. A person does not have a right to demand or receive a distribution from a limited liability company in any form other than money. Except as otherwise provided in section 10-32.1-54, a limited liability company may distribute an asset in kind if each part of the asset is fungible with each other part and each person receives a percentage of the asset equal in value to the share of distributions of the person.

4. If a member or transferee becomes entitled to receive a distribution, then the member or transferee has the status of, and is entitled to all remedies available to, a creditor of the limited liability company with respect to the distribution.
5. Notwithstanding subsection 1, subject to paragraphs 1 through 4 of subdivision c of subsection 4 of section 10-32.1-05 and unless otherwise provided in the articles of organization or in an operating agreement, for a limited liability company created after July 31, 2017, any distributions among members and dissociated members made by a limited liability company before its dissolution and winding up must be in proportion to the value of the contributions of the members, except to the extent necessary to comply with any transfer effective under section 10-32.1-44 and any charging order in effect under section 10-32.1-45.

10-32.1-30.1. Sharing of profits and loss.

Unless otherwise provided in the articles of organization, or in an operating agreement, the profits and losses of a limited liability company created after July 31, 2017, must be allocated among the members and among classes and series of members in proportion to the value of the contributions of the members.

10-32.1-31. Limitations on distribution.

1. A limited liability company may not make a distribution if after the distribution:
 - a. The company would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the ordinary course of the activities of the company; or
 - b. The total assets of the company would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus the amount that would be needed, if the company were to be dissolved, wound up, and terminated at the time of the distribution, to satisfy the preferential rights upon dissolution, winding up, and termination of members whose preferential rights are superior to those of persons receiving the distribution.
2. A limited liability company may base a determination that a distribution is not prohibited under subsection 1 on financial statements prepared on the basis of accounting practices and principles that are reasonable in the circumstances or on a fair valuation or other method that is reasonable under the circumstances.
3. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 6, the effect of a distribution under subsection 1 is measured:
 - a. In the case of a distribution by purchase, redemption, or other acquisition of a transferable interest in the company, as of the date money or other property is transferred or debt incurred by the company; and
 - b. In all other cases, as of the date:
 - (1) The distribution is authorized, if the payment occurs within one hundred twenty days after that date; or
 - (2) The payment is made, if the payment occurs more than one hundred twenty days after the distribution is authorized.
4. The indebtedness of a limited liability company to a member incurred by reason of a distribution made according to this section is at parity with the indebtedness of the company to its general, unsecured creditors.
5. The indebtedness of a limited liability company, including indebtedness issued in connection with or as part of a distribution, is not a liability for purposes of subsection 1 if the terms of the indebtedness provide that payment of principal and interest are made only to the extent that a distribution could be made to members under this section.
6. If indebtedness is issued as a distribution, then each payment of principal or interest on the indebtedness is treated as a distribution, the effect of which is measured on the date the payment is made.
7. In subsection 1, "distribution" does not include amounts constituting reasonable compensation for present or past services or reasonable payments made in the ordinary course of business under a bona fide retirement plan or other benefits program.

10-32.1-32. Liability for improper distributions.

1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, if a member of a member-managed limited liability company, manager of a manager-managed limited liability company, or governor of a board-managed limited liability company consents to a distribution made in violation of section 10-32.1-31 and in consenting to the distribution fails to comply with section 10-32.1-41, then the member, manager, or governor is personally liable to the company for the amount of the distribution that exceeds the amount that could have been distributed without the violation of section 10-32.1-31.
2. To the extent the operating agreement of a member-managed limited liability company expressly relieves a member of the authority and responsibility to consent to distributions and imposes that authority and responsibility on one or more other members, the liability stated in subsection 1 applies to the other members and not the member that the operating agreement relieves of authority and responsibility.
3. A person that receives a distribution knowing that the distribution to that person was made in violation of section 10-32.1-31 is personally liable to the limited liability company but only to the extent that the distribution received by the person exceeded the amount that could have been properly paid under section 10-32.1-31.
4. A person against which an action is commenced because the person is liable under subsection 1 may:
 - a. Implead any other person that is subject to liability under subsection 1 and seek to compel pro rata contribution from the person in that action to the extent of the liability of the person as provided in subsection 1; and
 - b. Implead any person that received a distribution in violation of section 10-32.1-31 and seek to compel contribution from the person in the amount by which the distribution received by the person exceeded the amount that could have been properly paid under section 10-32.1-31.
5. An action under this section is barred if not commenced within two years after the distribution.

10-32.1-33. Direct action by a member.

1. Subject to subsection 2, a member may maintain a direct action against another member, a manager, a governor, or the limited liability company to enforce the rights of the member and otherwise protect the interests of the member, including rights and interests under the operating agreement or this chapter or arising independently of the membership relationship.
2. A member maintaining a direct action under this section must plead and prove an actual or threatened injury that is not solely the result of an injury suffered or threatened to be suffered by the limited liability company.

10-32.1-34. Derivative action.

A member may maintain a derivative action to enforce a right of a limited liability company if:

1. The member first makes a demand on the other members in a member-managed or board-managed limited liability company, the managers of a manager-managed limited liability company, or the board of governors of a board-managed limited liability company requesting that they cause the company to bring an action to enforce the right, and the member, manager, or board does not bring the action within a reasonable time; or
2. A demand under subsection 1 would be futile.

10-32.1-35. Proper plaintiff.

1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, a derivative action under section 10-32.1-34 may be maintained only by a person that is a member at the time the action is commenced and remains a member while the action continues.

2. If the sole plaintiff in a derivative action dies while the action is pending, then the court may permit another member of the limited liability company to be substituted as plaintiff.

10-32.1-36. Pleading.

In a derivative action under section 10-32.1-34, the complaint must state with particularity:

1. The date and content of the demand of the plaintiff and the response to the demand by the other members, managers, or board of governors; or
2. If a demand has not been made, the reasons a demand under subsection 1 of section 10-32.1-34, would be futile.

10-32.1-37. Special litigation committee.

1. If a limited liability company is named as or made a party in a derivative proceeding, then the company may appoint a special litigation committee to investigate the claims asserted in the proceeding and determine whether pursuing the action is in the best interests of the company. If the company appoints a special litigation committee, then on motion by the committee made in the name of the company, except for good cause shown, the court shall stay discovery for the time reasonably necessary to permit the committee to make its investigation. This subsection does not prevent the court from enforcing the right of a person to information under section 10-32.1-42 or, for good cause shown, granting extraordinary relief in the form of a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction.
2. A special litigation committee may be composed of one or more disinterested and independent individuals, who may be members.
3. A special litigation committee may be appointed:
 - a. In a member-managed limited liability company:
 - (1) By the consent of a majority of the members not named as defendants or plaintiffs in the proceeding; and
 - (2) If all members are named as defendants or plaintiffs in the proceeding, then by a majority of the members named as defendants;
 - b. In a manager-managed limited liability company:
 - (1) By a majority of the managers not named as defendants or plaintiffs in the proceeding; and
 - (2) If all managers are named as defendants or plaintiffs in the proceeding, then by a majority of the managers named as defendants; and
 - c. In a board-managed limited liability company:
 - (1) By a majority of governors not named as defendants or plaintiffs in the proceeding; and
 - (2) If all governors are named as defendants or plaintiffs in the proceeding, then by a majority of the governors named as defendants.
4. After appropriate investigation, a special litigation committee may determine that it is in the best interests of the limited liability company that the proceeding:
 - a. Continue under the control of the plaintiff;
 - b. Continue under the control of the committee;
 - c. Be settled on terms approved by the committee; or
 - d. Be dismissed.
5. After making a determination under subsection 4, a special litigation committee shall file with the court a statement of its determination and its report supporting its determination, giving notice to the plaintiff. The court shall determine whether the members of the committee were disinterested and independent and whether the committee conducted its investigation and made its recommendation in good faith, independently, and with reasonable care, with the committee having the burden of proof. If the court finds that the members of the committee were disinterested and independent and that the committee acted in good faith, independently, and with reasonable care, then the court shall enforce the determination of the committee.

Otherwise, the court shall dissolve the stay of discovery entered under subsection 1 and allow the action to proceed under the direction of the plaintiff.

10-32.1-38. Proceeds and expenses.

1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2:
 - a. Any proceeds or other benefits of a derivative action under section 10-32.1-34, whether by judgment, compromise, or settlement, belong to the limited liability company and not to the plaintiff; and
 - b. If the plaintiff receives any proceeds, then the plaintiff shall remit them immediately to the company.
2. If a derivative action under section 10-32.1-34 is successful in whole or in part, then the court may award the plaintiff reasonable expenses, including reasonable attorney fees and costs, from the recovery of the limited liability company.

10-32.1-39. Management of a limited liability company.

1. A limited liability company is a member-managed limited liability company unless the operating agreement:
 - a. Expressly provides that:
 - (1) The company is or will be "manager-managed" or "board-managed";
 - (2) The company is or will be "managed by managers" or "managed by a board"; or
 - (3) Management of the company is or will be "vested in managers" or "vested in a board"; or
 - b. Includes words of similar import.
2. a. Except as provided in subdivision b, in a member-managed limited liability company, the following rules apply:
 - (1) The management and conduct of the company are vested in the members.
 - (2) Each member has equal rights in the management and conduct of the activities of the company.
 - (3) A difference arising among members as to a matter in the ordinary course of the activities of the company may be decided by a majority of the members.
 - (4) An act outside the ordinary course of the activities of the company may be undertaken only with the consent of all members, except member consent is not required for the grant of a lien on or security interest in all or substantially all of the company's property and assets, whether in the usual and regular course of the company's business, or for the transfer of any or all of the company's property to an organization, all of the ownership interests that are directly or indirectly owned through wholly owned organizations, by the company.
 - (5) The operating agreement may be amended only with the consent of all members.
- b. Notwithstanding subdivision a, in a member-managed limited liability company created after July 31, 2017, the following rules apply:
 - (1) The management and conduct of the company are vested in the members.
 - (2) Unless otherwise provided in the articles of organization or in an operating agreement, each member possesses voting power in the management and conduct of the activities of the company in proportion to the interest of the member in distributions of the limited liability company before dissolution and winding up.
 - (3) A difference arising among members as to a matter in the ordinary course of the activities of the company may be decided by a majority of the voting power of the transferable interest of the members.
 - (4) An act outside the ordinary course of the activities of the company may be undertaken only with the consent of all members.
 - (5) The operating agreement may be amended only with the consent of all members.

3. In a manager-managed limited liability company, the following rules apply:
 - a. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this chapter, any matter relating to the activities of the company is decided exclusively by the managers.
 - b. Each manager has equal rights in the management and conduct of the activities of the company.
 - c. A difference arising among managers as to a matter in the ordinary course of the activities of the company may be decided by a majority of the managers.
 - d. The consent of all members is required to:
 - (1) Sell, lease, exchange, or otherwise dispose of all, or substantially all, of the property of the company, with or without the good will, outside the ordinary course of the activities of the company, except member consent is not required for the grant of a lien on or security interest in all or substantially all of the company's property and assets, whether in the usual and regular course of the company's business, or for the transfer of any or all of the company's property to an organization, all of the ownership interests that are directly or indirectly owned through wholly owned organizations, by the company;
 - (2) Approve a merger, conversion, or domestication under sections 10-32.1-55 through 10-32.1-71;
 - (3) Undertake any other act outside the ordinary course of the activities of the company; or
 - (4) Amend the operating agreement.
 - e. A manager may be chosen at any time by the consent of a majority of the members and remains a manager until a successor has been chosen, unless the manager at an earlier time resigns, is removed, or dies, or, in the case of a manager that is not an individual, terminates. A manager may be removed at any time by the consent of a majority of the members without notice or cause.
 - f. A person need not be a member to be a manager, but the dissociation of a member that is also a manager removes the person as a manager. If a person that is both a manager and a member ceases to be a manager, that cessation does not by itself dissociate the person as a member.
 - g. The ceasing of a person to be a manager does not discharge any debt, obligation, or other liability to the limited liability company or members which the person incurred while a manager.
4. In a board-managed limited liability company, the following rules apply:
 - a. The activities and affairs of a limited liability company are to be managed by and under the direction of a board of governors, which shall consist of one or more governors as determined by members holding a majority of the voting power of the members. Except as specifically stated in this subsection and in subsection 11 of section 10-32.1-21 and subject to section 10-32.1-24:
 - (1) The board acts only through an act of the board;
 - (2) No individual governor has any right or power to act for the limited liability company; and
 - (3) Only officers, managers, or other agents designated by the board or through a process approved by the board have the right to act for the limited liability company, and that right extends only to the extent consistent with the terms of the designation.
 - b. A governor must be an individual. An individual need not be a member to be a governor, but the dissociation of a member who is an individual and who also a governor disqualifies the individual as a governor. If an individual who is both a governor and a member ceases to be a governor, that cessation does not by itself dissociate the individual as a member. The ceasing of an individual to be a governor does not discharge any debt, obligation, or other liability to the limited liability company or members which the individual incurred while a governor.
 - c. The method of election and any additional qualifications for governors will be as determined by members holding a majority of the voting power of the members.

Governors are elected by a plurality of the voting power present and entitled to vote on the election of governors at a duly called or held meeting at which a quorum is present.

- d. A member may waive notice of a meeting for the election of governors. The waiver of notice by a member under this subdivision is effective whether given before, at, or after the meeting, and whether given in a record, orally, or by attendance. Attendance by a member at a meeting for election of governors is a waiver of notice of that meeting, except where the member objects at the beginning of the meeting to the transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened and does not participate in the meeting after the objection.
- e. Once elected, a governor holds office for the term for which the governor was elected and until a successor is elected, or until the earlier death, resignation, disqualification, or removal of the governor. A governor may resign at any time. A governor may be removed at any time, without cause and without advance notice, by a majority of the voting power of all of the members. The existence of vacancies does not affect the power of the board to function if at least one governor remains in office.
- f. When a vacancy occurs, the limited liability company shall immediately notify all members in a record of the vacancy, stating the cause of the vacancy and the date the notice is sent. Within thirty days of that date, the members may fill the vacancy in the same method the members may elect governors under subdivision c. If the vacancy is not filled by the members under this subdivision, then the vacancy may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining governors, even though less than a quorum.
- g. The board shall meet from time to time as determined by members holding a majority of the voting power of the members, at a place decided by the board. If the day or date, time, and place of a board of governors meeting have been provided in a board resolution, or announced at a previous meeting of the board of governors, then no notice is required. Notice of an adjourned meeting need not be given other than by announcement at the meeting at which adjournment is taken. If notice is required for a meeting, then notice shall be made in the manner stated in subdivision h.
- h. A governor may call a board meeting by giving at least ten days' notice in a record to all governors of the date, time, and place of the meeting. The notice need not state the purpose of the meeting. As to each governor, the notice is effective when given.
 - i. "Notice" shall be determined as provided in subsection 35 of section 10-32.1-02.
- j. A governor may waive notice of a meeting of the board of governors. A waiver of notice by a governor entitled to notice is effective whether given before, at, or after the meeting, and whether given in a record, orally, or by attendance. Attendance by a governor at a meeting is a waiver of notice of that meeting, except where the governor objects at the beginning of the meeting to the transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened and does not participate in the meeting after the objection.
- k. A majority of the governors currently holding office is a quorum for the transaction of business. When a quorum is present at a duly called or held meeting of the board, the vote of a majority of the directors present constitutes an act of the board. If a quorum is present when a duly called or held meeting is convened, then the governors present may continue to transact business until adjournment, even though the withdrawal of a number of governors originally present leaves less than the proportion or number otherwise required for a quorum.
- l. Any meeting among governors may be conducted solely by one or more means of remote communication through which all of the governors may participate with each other during the meeting, if the number of governors participating in the - meeting would be sufficient to constitute a quorum. Participation in a meeting through remote communication constitutes presence in person at the meeting.

- m. A governor may participate in a board of governors meeting by means of remote communication, through which the governor, other governors so participating, and all governors physically present at the meeting may participate with each other during the meeting. Participation in a meeting through remote communication constitutes presence in person at the meeting.
 - n. An action required or permitted to be taken at a board meeting may be taken by written action signed by the number of governors that would be required to take the same action at a meeting of the board of governors at which all governors were present. The written action is effective when signed by the required number of governors, unless a different effective time is provided in the written action. When written action is permitted to be taken by less than all governors, then all governors must be notified immediately of its text and effective date. Failure to provide the notice does not invalidate the written action. A governor who does not sign or consent to the written action has no liability for the action or actions taken by the written action.
 - o. If the board designates a person as "chief manager", "president", "chief executive officer", or another title of similar import, then that person shall:
 - (1) Serve as an agent of the limited liability company at the will of the board, without prejudice to any rights the person may have under a contract with the limited liability company;
 - (2) Have general active management of the business of the limited liability company, subject to the supervision and control of the board;
 - (3) See that all orders and resolutions of the board of governors are carried into effect;
 - (4) Sign and deliver in the name of the limited liability company any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts, or other instruments pertaining to the business of the limited liability company, except in cases in which the authority to sign and deliver is required by law to be exercised by another person or is expressly delegated by the board of governors to some other officer or agent of the limited liability company;
 - (5) Maintain records of and, whenever necessary, certify all proceedings of the board of governors and the members; and
 - (6) Perform other duties prescribed by the board of governors.
 - p. If the board designates a person as "treasurer", "chief financial officer", or another title of similar import, then that person shall:
 - (1) Serve as an agent of the limited liability company at the will of the board, without prejudice to any rights the person may have under a contract with the limited liability company;
 - (2) Keep accurate financial records for the limited liability company;
 - (3) Deposit all money, drafts, and checks in the name of and to the credit of the limited liability company in the banks and depositories designated by the board of governors;
 - (4) Endorse for deposit all notes, checks, and drafts received by the limited liability company as ordered by the board of governors, making proper vouchers for them;
 - (5) Disburse limited liability company funds and issue checks and drafts in the name of the limited liability company, as ordered by the board of governors;
 - (6) Give to the chief executive officer and the board of governors, whenever requested, an account of all transactions by the chief financial officer and of the financial condition of the limited liability company; and
 - (7) Perform other duties prescribed by the board of governors or by the chief executive officer.
 - q. The consent of all members is required to:

- (1) Sell, lease, exchange, or otherwise dispose of all, or substantially all, of the property of the company, with or without the good will, outside the ordinary course of the activities of the company, except member consent is not required for the grant of a lien on or security interest in all or substantially all of the company's property and assets, whether in the usual and regular course of the company's business, or for the transfer of any or all of the company's property to an organization, all of the ownership interests that are directly or indirectly owned through wholly owned organizations, by the company;
 - (2) Approve a merger, conversion, or domestication under sections 10-32.1-55 through 10-32.1-71; and
 - (3) Amend the operating agreement.
- r. Subject to subsection 4 of section 10-32.1-05, for purposes of this subsection, each member possesses voting power in proportion to the interest of the member in distributions of the limited liability company before dissolution and a majority of the voting power of the members is a quorum at a meeting of the members.
5. Any member may demand a meeting of the members to take action requiring consent of members under this chapter upon not less than twenty days' notice to each member in a record of the date and time of the meeting. Any meeting held upon member notice shall be held at the principal executive office of the limited liability company if located within this state, and at the registered office if the principal executive office is not located within the state. Any action requiring the consent of members under this chapter may be taken or approved without a meeting by the written consent of the members holding the voting power required to take such action at a duly called meeting at which all members were present. A member may appoint a proxy or other agent to consent or otherwise act for the member by signing an appointing record, personally or by the agent of the member.
6. The dissolution of a limited liability company does not affect the applicability of this section. However, a person that wrongfully causes dissolution of the company loses the right to participate in management in any capacity.
7. This chapter does not entitle a member to remuneration for services performed for a member-managed limited liability company, except for reasonable compensation for services rendered in winding up the activities of the company.

10-32.1-40. Indemnification and insurance.

1. For purposes of this section, unless the context otherwise requires:
 - a. "Limited liability company" includes a domestic or foreign limited liability company that was the predecessor of the limited liability company referred to in this section in a merger or other transaction in which the existence of the predecessor ceased upon consummation of the transaction.
 - b. "Official capacity" means:
 - (1) With respect to a member of a member-managed company, a manager of a manager-managed company, or a governor of a board-managed company, actions taken in that capacity;
 - (2) With respect to a person other than a member of a member-managed company, a manager of a manager-managed company, or a governor of a board-managed company:
 - (a) The elective or appointive office or position held by a manager or officer, member of a committee of the board of governors;
 - (b) The employment relationship undertaken by an employee of the limited liability company; or
 - (c) The scope of the services provided by members of the limited liability company who provide services to the limited liability company; and
 - (3) With respect to a governor, manager, member, or employee of the limited liability company who, while a member, governor, manager, or employee of the limited liability company, is or was serving at the request of the limited

- liability company or whose duties in that position involve or involved service as a governor, director, manager, officer, member, partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another organization or employee benefit plan, the position of that person as a governor, director, manager, officer, member, partner, trustee, employee, or agent, as the case may be, of the other organization or employee benefit plan.
- c. "Proceeding" means a threatened, pending, or completed civil, criminal, administrative, arbitration, or investigative proceeding, including a proceeding by or in the right of the limited liability company.
 - d. "Special legal counsel" means counsel who has not in the preceding five years:
 - (1) Represented the limited liability company or a related organization in a capacity other than special legal counsel; or
 - (2) Represented a member, governor, manager, member of a committee of the board of governors, or employee, or other person whose indemnification is in issue.
2. With respect to indemnification:
- a. Subject to the provisions of subsection 4, a limited liability company shall indemnify a person made or threatened to be made a party to a proceeding by reason of the former or present official capacity of the person against judgments, penalties, fines, including, without limitation, excise taxes assessed against the person with respect to an employee benefit plan, settlements, and reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees and disbursements, incurred by the person in connection with the proceeding, if, with respect to the acts or omissions of the person complained of in the proceeding, the person:
 - (1) Has not been indemnified by another organization or employee benefit plan for the same judgments, penalties, fines, including, without limitation, excise taxes assessed against the person with respect to an employee benefit plan, settlements, and reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees and disbursements, incurred by the person in connection with the proceeding with respect to the same acts or omissions;
 - (2) Acted in good faith;
 - (3) Received no improper personal benefit and complied with the duties stated in sections 10-32.1-31 and 10-32.1-41, if applicable;
 - (4) In the case of a criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct was unlawful; and
 - (5) In the case of acts or omissions occurring in the official capacity described in paragraph 1 or 2 of subdivision b of subsection 1, reasonably believed that the conduct was in the best interests of the limited liability company, or in the case of acts or omissions occurring in the official capacity described in paragraph 3 of subdivision b of subsection 1, reasonably believed that the conduct was not opposed to the best interests of the limited liability company. If the acts or omissions of the person complained of in the proceeding relate to conduct as a director, officer, trustee, employee, or agent of an employee benefit plan, then the conduct is not considered to be opposed to the best interests of the limited liability company if the person reasonably believed that the conduct was in the best interests of the participants or beneficiaries of the employee benefit plan.
 - b. The termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent does not, of itself, establish that the person did not meet the criteria set forth in this subsection.
3. Subject to the provisions of subsection 4, if a person is made or threatened to be made a party to a proceeding, then the person is entitled, upon written request to the limited liability company, to payment or reimbursement by the limited liability company of reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees and disbursements, incurred by the person in advance of the final disposition of the proceeding:

- a. Upon receipt by the limited liability company of a written affirmation by the person of a good faith belief that the criteria for indemnification in subsection 2 have been satisfied and a written undertaking by the person to repay all amounts so paid or reimbursed by the limited liability company, if it is ultimately determined that the criteria for indemnification have not been satisfied;
 - b. After a determination that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under this section; and
 - c. The written undertaking required by subdivision a is an unlimited general obligation of the person making it, but need not be secured and shall be accepted without reference to financial ability to make the repayment.
4. The articles of organization or the operating agreement either may prohibit indemnification or advances of expenses otherwise required by this section or may impose conditions on indemnification or advances of expenses in addition to the conditions contained in subsections 2 and 3, including, without limitation, monetary limits on indemnification or advances of expenses, if the conditions apply equally to all persons or to all persons within a given class. A prohibition or limit on indemnification or advances may not apply to or affect the right of a person to indemnification or advances of expenses with respect to any acts or omissions of the person occurring before the effective date of a provision in the articles of organization, a member control agreement, or the date of adoption of a provision in the bylaws establishing the prohibition or limit on indemnification or advances.
5. This section does not require, or limit the ability of, a limited liability company to reimburse expenses, including attorney fees and disbursements, incurred by a person in connection with an appearance as a witness in a proceeding at a time when the person has not been made or threatened to be made a party to a proceeding.
6. With respect to the determination of eligibility:
 - a. All determinations whether indemnification of a person is required because the criteria in subsection 2 have been satisfied and whether a person is entitled to payment or reimbursement of expenses in advance of the final disposition of a proceeding as provided in subsection 3 must be made:
 - (1) In a board-managed limited liability company:
 - (a) By the board of governors by a majority of a quorum, provided that governors who are, at the time, parties to the proceeding shall not be counted for determining either a majority or the presence of a quorum;
 - (b) If a quorum under subparagraph a cannot be obtained, then by a majority of a committee of the board of governors, consisting solely of two or more governors not at the time parties to the proceeding, duly designated to act in the matter by a majority of the full board of governors including governors who are parties; and
 - (c) If a determination is not made under subparagraph a or b, then by special legal counsel, selected either by a majority of the board of governors or a committee by vote pursuant to subparagraph a or b or, if the requisite quorum of the full board of governors cannot be obtained and the committee cannot be established, then by a majority of the full board of governors including governors who are parties.
 - (2) In all other cases, then by the affirmative vote of the members, subject to subsection 4 of section 10-32.1-05 with each member having voting power in proportion to the interest of the member in distributions of the limited liability company before dissolution, but the membership interests held by parties to the proceeding must not be counted in determining the presence of a quorum and are not considered to be present and entitled to vote on the determination; or
 - (3) If an adverse determination is made under subparagraphs a or b, or if no determination is made under subparagraphs a or b then within sixty days after:

- (a) The later to occur of the termination of a proceeding or a written request for indemnification to the limited liability company; or
 - (b) A written request for an advance of expenses, as the case may be, by a court in this state, which may be the same court in which the proceeding involving the liability of the person took place, upon application of the person and any notice which the court requires. The person seeking indemnification or payment or reimbursement of expenses pursuant to this subdivision has the burden of establishing that the person is entitled to indemnification or payment or reimbursement of expenses.
- b. With respect to a person who is not, and was not at the time of the acts or omissions complained of in the proceedings, a member, governor, manager, or person possessing, directly or indirectly, the power to direct or cause the direction of the management or policies of the limited liability company, the determination whether indemnification of this person is required because the criteria set forth in subsection 2 have been satisfied and whether this person is entitled to payment or reimbursement of expenses in advance of the final disposition of a proceeding as provided in subsection 3 may be made:
 - (1) In a board-managed limited liability company, by an annually appointed committee of the board of governors, having at least one member who is a governor, which committee shall report at least annually to the board of governors concerning its actions; and
 - (2) In all other cases by a committee appointed annually by the members, having at least one committee member who is a member of the limited liability company, which committee shall report at least annually to the board of governors concerning its actions.
- 7. A limited liability company may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of a member, manager, or governor of the company against liability asserted against or incurred by the member, manager, or governor in that capacity or arising from that status even if, under subsection 7 of section 10-32.1-13, the operating agreement could not eliminate or limit the liability of a person to the company for the conduct giving rise to the liability and whether or not the limited liability company would have been required to indemnify the person against the liability under this section.
- 8. A limited liability company that indemnifies or advances expenses to a person according to this section in connection with a proceeding by or on behalf of the limited liability company shall report to the members in writing the amount of the indemnification or advance and to whom and on whose behalf it was paid not later than the next meeting of members.
- 9. Nothing in this section must be construed to limit the power of the limited liability company to indemnify persons other than a governor, manager, member, employee, or member of a committee of the board of the limited liability company, by contract or otherwise.

10-32.1-41. Standards of conduct for members, managers, and governors.

- 1. A member of a member-managed limited liability company owes to the company and, subject to subsection 2 of section 10-32.1-33, the other members the fiduciary duties of loyalty and care stated in subsections 2 and 3.
- 2. The duty of loyalty of a member in a member-managed limited liability company includes the duties:

 - c. To refrain from competing with the company in the conduct of the activities of the company before the dissolution of the company.
3. Subject to the business judgment rule, the duty of care of a member of a member-managed limited liability company in the conduct and winding up of the activities of the company is to act with the care that a person in a like position would reasonably exercise under similar circumstances and in a manner the member reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the company. In discharging this duty, a member may rely in good faith on opinions, reports, statements, or other information provided by another person that the member reasonably believes is a competent and reliable source for the information.
 4. A member in a limited liability company shall discharge the duties of the member and exercise any rights under this chapter or under the operating agreement consistently with the contractual obligation of good faith and fair dealing, including acting in a manner, in light of the operating agreement, that is honest, fair, and reasonable.
 5. It is a defense to a claim under subdivision b of subsection 2, and any comparable claim in equity or at common law that the transaction was fair to the limited liability company.
 6. All of the members of a member-managed limited liability company or a manager-managed limited liability company may authorize or ratify, after full disclosure of all material facts, a specific act or transaction that otherwise would violate the duty of loyalty.
 7. In a manager-managed limited liability company, the following rules apply:
 - a. Subsections 1, 2, 3, and 5 apply to the manager or managers and not the members.
 - b. The duty stated under subdivision c of subsection 2 continues until winding up is completed.
 - c. Subsection 4 applies to the members and managers.
 - d. Subsection 6 applies only to the members.
 - e. A member does not have any fiduciary duty to the company or to any other member solely by reason of being a member.

 - a. Subsections 1, 2, 3, and 5 apply to the governors and not the members.
 - b. The duty stated under subdivision c of subsection 2 continues until winding up is completed.

 - d. Subsection 6 applies only to the members.
 - e. A member does not have any fiduciary duty to the company or to any other member solely by reason of being a member.

10-32.1-42. Right of members, managers, governors, and dissociated members to information.

1. In a member-managed or board-managed limited liability company, the following rules apply:
 - a. On reasonable notice, a member may inspect and copy during regular business hours, at a reasonable location specified by the company, any record maintained by the company regarding the activities, financial condition, and other circumstances of the company, to the extent the information is material to the rights and duties of the member under the operating agreement or this chapter.
 - b. The company shall furnish to each member:
 - (1) Without demand, any information concerning the activities, financial condition, and other circumstances of the company which the company knows and is material to the proper exercise of the rights and duties of the member under the operating agreement or this chapter, except to the extent

- the company can establish that it reasonably believes the member already knows the information; and
- (2) On demand, any other information concerning the activities, financial condition, and other circumstances of the company, except to the extent the demand or information demanded is unreasonable or otherwise improper under the circumstances.
- c. The duty to furnish information under subdivision b also applies to each member to the extent the member knows any of the information described in subdivision b.
2. In a manager-managed limited liability company, the following rules apply:
 - a. The informational rights stated in subsection 1 and the duty stated in subdivision c of subsection 1, apply to the managers or governors and not the members.
 - b. During regular business hours and at a reasonable location specified by the company, a member may obtain from the company and inspect and copy full information regarding the activities, financial condition, and other circumstances of the company as is just and reasonable if:
 - (1) The member seeks the information for a purpose material to the interest of the member as a member;
 - (2) The member makes a demand in a record received by the company, describing with reasonable particularity the information sought and the purpose for seeking the information; and
 - (3) The information sought is directly connected to the purpose of the member.
 - c. Within ten days after receiving a demand pursuant to paragraph 3 of subdivision b, the company shall in a record inform the member that made the demand:
 - (1) Of the information that the company will provide in response to the demand and when and where the company will provide the information; and
 - (2) If the company declines to provide any demanded information, then the reasons of the company for declining.
 - d. Whenever this chapter or an operating agreement provides for a member to give or withhold consent to a matter, before the consent is given or withheld, the company shall, without demand, provide the member with all information that is known to the company and is material to the decision of the member.
3. On ten days' demand made in a record received by a limited liability company, a dissociated member may have access to information to which the person was entitled while a member if the information pertains to the period during which the person was a member, the person seeks the information in good faith, and the person satisfies the requirements imposed on a member by subdivision b of subsection 2. The company shall respond to a demand made pursuant to this subsection in the manner provided in subdivision c of subsection 2.
 4. A limited liability company may charge a person that makes a demand under this section the reasonable costs of copying, limited to the costs of labor and material.
 5. A member or dissociated member may exercise rights under this section through an agent or, in the case of an individual under legal disability, a legal representative. Any restriction or condition imposed by the operating agreement or under subsection 7 applies both to the agent or legal representative and the member or dissociated member.
 6. The rights under this section do not extend to a person as transferee.
 7. In addition to any restriction or condition stated in its operating agreement, a limited liability company, as a matter within the ordinary course of its activities, may impose reasonable restrictions and conditions on access to and use of information to be furnished under this section, including designating information confidential and imposing nondisclosure and safeguarding obligations on the recipient. In a dispute concerning the reasonableness of a restriction under this subsection, the company has the burden of proving reasonableness.

10-32.1-43. Nature of a transferable interest.

A transferable interest is personal property.

10-32.1-44. Transfer of a transferable interest.

1. A transfer, in whole or in part, of a transferable interest:
 - a. Is permissible;
 - b. Does not by itself cause the dissociation of a member or a dissolution and winding up of the activities of the limited liability company; and
 - c. Subject to section 10-32.1-46, does not entitle the transferee to:
 - (1) Participate in the management or conduct of the activities of the company; or
 - (2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3, have access to records or other information concerning the activities of the company.
2. A transferee has the right to receive, in accordance with the transfer, distributions to which the transferor would otherwise be entitled.
3. In a dissolution and winding up of a limited liability company, a transferee is entitled to an account of the transactions of the company only from the date of dissolution.
4. A transferable interest may be evidenced by a certificate of the interest issued by the limited liability company in a record, and, subject to this section, the interest represented by the certificate may be transferred by a transfer of the certificate.
5. A limited liability company need not give effect to the rights of a transferee under this section until the company has notice of the transfer.
6. A transfer of a transferable interest in violation of a restriction on transfer contained in the operating agreement is ineffective as to a person having notice of the restriction at the time of transfer.
7. Except as otherwise provided in subdivision b of subsection 4 of section 10-32.1-48, when a member transfers a transferable interest, the transferor retains the rights of a member other than the interest in distributions transferred and retains all duties and obligations of a member.
8. When a member transfers a transferable interest to a person that becomes a member with respect to the transferred interest, the transferee is liable for the obligations of the member under section 10-32.1-29 and subsection 3 of section 10-32.1-32, known to the transferee when the transferee becomes a member.

10-32.1-45. Charging order.

1. On application by a judgment creditor of a member or transferee and following notice to the limited liability company of the application, a court may enter a charging order against the transferable interest of the judgment debtor for the unsatisfied amount of the judgment.
2. A charging order constitutes a lien on the transferable interest of a judgment debtor and requires the limited liability company to pay over to the person to which the charging order was issued any distribution that would otherwise be paid to the judgment debtor.
3. The member or transferee whose transferable interest is subject to a charging order may extinguish the charging order by satisfying the judgment and filing a certified copy of the satisfaction with the court that issued the charging order.
4. At any time before extinguishment under subsection 3, a limited liability company or one or more members whose transferable interests are not subject to the charging order may pay to the judgment creditor the full amount due under the judgment and thereby succeed to the rights of the judgment creditor, including the charging order.
5. This chapter does not deprive any member or transferee of the benefit of any exemption laws applicable to the transferable interest of the member or transferee.
6. This section provides the exclusive remedy by which a person seeking to enforce a judgment against a member or transferee may, in the capacity of judgment creditor, satisfy the judgment from the transferable interest of the judgment debtor.

- a. No other remedy, including foreclosure of the transferable interest or a court order for directions, accounts, and inquiries that the debtor member might have made, is available to the judgment creditor that is attempting to satisfy the judgment out of the judgment debtor's interest in the limited liability company.
 - b. No creditor of a member or transferee has any right to obtain possession of or otherwise exercise legal or equitable remedies with respect to a property of the company.
7. This section applies to single member limited liability companies and limited liability companies with more than one member.

10-32.1-46. Power of the personal representative of a deceased member.

If a member dies, then the personal representative of the deceased member or other legal representative may exercise the rights of a transferee provided in subsection 3 of section 10-32.1-44, and, for the purposes of settling the estate, the rights of a current member under section 10-32.1-42.

10-32.1-47. Power of a member to dissociate - Wrongful dissociation.

1. A person has the power to dissociate as a member at any time, rightfully or wrongfully, by withdrawing as a member by express will under subsection 1 of section 10-32.1-48.

 - (2) The person is expelled as a member by judicial order under subsection 5 of section 10-32.1-48;
 - (3) The person is dissociated under subdivision a of subsection 7 of section 10-32.1-48, by becoming a debtor in bankruptcy; or
 - (4) In the case of a person that is not a trust other than a business trust, an estate, or an individual, the person is expelled or otherwise dissociated as a member because it willfully dissolved or terminated.
3. A person that wrongfully dissociates as a member is liable to the limited liability company and, subject to section 10-32.1-33, to the other members for damages caused by the dissociation. The liability is in addition to any other debt, obligation, or other liability of the member to the company or the other members.

10-32.1-48. Events causing dissociation.

A person is dissociated as a member from a limited liability company when:

1. The company has notice of the express will of the person to withdraw as a member, but, if the person specified a withdrawal date later than the date the company had notice, then on that later date;
2. An event stated in the operating agreement as causing the dissociation of the person occurs;
3. The person is expelled as a member pursuant to the operating agreement;
4. The person is expelled as a member by the unanimous consent of the other members if:

- c. Subject to sections 10-32.1-46 and 10-32.1-55 through 10-32.1-71, any transferable interest owned by the person immediately before dissociation in the capacity of the person as a member is owned by the person solely as a transferee.
2. The dissociation of a person as a member of a limited liability company does not of itself discharge the person from any debt, obligation, or other liability to the company or the other members that the person incurred while a member.

10-32.1-50. Events causing dissolution.

1. A limited liability company is dissolved, and its activities must be wound up, upon the occurrence of any of the following:

A remedy other than dissolution may be ordered in any case where that remedy would be appropriate under all the facts and circumstances of the case.
3. A proceeding brought under subdivision e of subsection 1 must be brought in a court within the county in which the registered office of the limited liability company is located. It is not necessary to make members parties to the action or proceeding unless relief is sought against them personally.

If a limited liability company has adopted and approved a plan of domestication under section 10-32.1-68 providing for the company to be domesticated in a foreign jurisdiction, then a statement surrendering the articles of organization of the company must be filed with the secretary of state setting forth:

1. If a member of a constituent, converting, or domesticating limited liability company will have personal liability with respect to a surviving, constituent, converted, or domesticated organization, then approval or amendment of a plan of merger, exchange, conversion, or domestication is ineffective without the consent of the member, unless:
 - a. The operating agreement of the company provides for approval of a merger, exchange, conversion, or domestication with the consent of fewer than all the members; and
 - b. The member has consented to the provision of the operating agreement.
2. A member does not give the consent required by subsection 1 merely by consenting to a provision of the operating agreement that permits the operating agreement to be amended with the consent of fewer than all the members.

10-32.1-72. Foreign limited liability company - Governing law.

1. The law of the state or other jurisdiction under which a foreign limited liability company is formed governs:

3. A foreign limited liability company holding a valid certificate of authority in this state has no greater rights and privileges than a domestic limited liability company. A certificate of authority does not authorize a foreign limited liability company to engage in any business or exercise any power that a limited liability company may not engage in or exercise in this state.

10-32.1-73. Foreign limited liability company - Name.

A foreign limited liability company may apply for a certificate of authority under any name that would be available to a domestic limited liability company, whether or not the name is the name under which it is authorized in its jurisdiction of organization.  - g. Any additional information deemed appropriate by the secretary of state to determine whether the foreign limited liability company is entitled to a certificate of authority to transact business in this state.
2. The application must be on forms prescribed by the secretary of state and accompanied by payment of the fees provided in section 10-32.1-92 together with a certificate of good standing or a certificate of existence duly authenticated by the organizing officer of the state or country where the foreign limited liability company is organized.

10-32.1-77. Foreign limited liability company - Amendments to a certificate of authority.

1. If any statement in the application for a certificate of authority by a foreign limited liability company is false when made or if the foreign limited liability company changes the name of the foreign limited liability company or purposes sought in this state, then the foreign limited liability company promptly shall file with the secretary of state an application for an amended certificate of authority executed by an authorized person on forms prescribed by the secretary of state correcting the statement and in the case of a change in the name of the foreign limited liability company, a certificate to that effect authenticated by the proper officer of the state or country under the laws of which the foreign limited liability company is organized.
2. In the case of a termination or merger, a foreign limited liability company that is not the surviving organization need not file an application for an amended certificate of authority but shall promptly file with the secretary of state a certificate to that effect authenticated by the proper officer of the state or country under the laws of which the foreign limited liability company is organized.
3. A foreign limited liability company that changes the name of the foreign limited liability company and applies for an amended certificate of authority and that is the owner of a service mark, trademark, or trade name, a general partner named in a fictitious name certificate, a general partner in a limited partnership or a limited liability limited partnership, or a managing partner in a limited liability partnership that is on file with the secretary of state shall change the name of the foreign limited liability company in each of the foregoing registrations which is applicable when the foreign limited liability company files an application for an amended certificate of authority.

If a foreign limited liability company authorized to transact business in this state is a party to a statutory merger permitted by the laws of the state or country under which the foreign limited liability company is organized, and the limited liability company is not the surviving organization, then the surviving organization shall, within thirty days after the merger becomes effective, file with the secretary of state a certified statement of merger duly authenticated by the proper officer of the state or country where the statutory merger was effected. Any foreign organization, which is the surviving organization in a merger and which will continue to transact business in this state, shall procure a certificate of authority if not previously authorized to transact business in this state.

10-32.1-80. Foreign limited liability company - Conversion of a foreign limited liability company authorized to transact business in this state.

If a foreign limited liability company authorized to transact business in this state converts to another organization permitted by its governing statute, then within thirty days after the conversion becomes effective, the newly created organization resulting from the conversion shall file with the secretary of state a certified statement of conversion duly authenticated by the proper officer of the jurisdiction in which the statutory conversion was effected. Any foreign organization that is the converted organization in a conversion and which will continue to transact business in this state shall obtain a certificate of authority or applicable registration in accordance with the North Dakota governing statute applicable to the converted organization.

2. The filing with the secretary of state of articles of dissolution and termination, or a certificate of merger if the foreign limited liability company is not the surviving organization, from the proper officer of the state or country under the laws of which the foreign limited liability company is organized constitutes a valid application of withdrawal and the authority of the foreign limited liability company to transact business in this state shall cease upon filing of the certificate.

10-32.1-82. Foreign limited liability company - Transactions not constituting transacting business.

1. A foreign limited liability company shall not be considered to be transacting business in this state for the purposes of this chapter solely by reason of carrying on in this state any one or more of the following, including:
 - a. Maintaining or defending any action or suit or any administrative or arbitration proceeding, or effecting the settlement thereof or the settlement of claims or disputes;
 - b. Holding meetings of its managers, governors, or members or carrying on other activities concerning its internal affairs;

3. A member, manager, or governor of a foreign limited liability company is not liable for the debts, obligations, or other liabilities of the company solely because the company transacted business in this state without a certificate of authority.
4. If a foreign limited liability company transacts business in this state without a certificate of authority or cancels its certificate of authority, then it appoints the secretary of state as its agent for service of process for rights of action arising out of the transaction of business in this state.

6. The civil penalties set forth in subsection 5 may be recovered in an action brought within the district court of Burleigh County by the attorney general. Upon a finding by the court that a foreign limited liability company or any of its members, governors, or agents have transacted business in this state in violation of this chapter, the court shall issue, in addition to the imposition of a civil penalty, an injunction restraining the further transaction of the business of the foreign limited liability company and the further exercise of the rights and privileges of the foreign limited liability company in this state. The foreign limited liability company must be enjoined from transacting business in this state until all civil penalties plus any interest and court costs that the court may assess have been paid and until the foreign limited liability company has otherwise complied with the provisions of this chapter.

10-32.1-85. Secretary of state - Powers - Enforcement.

1. The secretary of state has the power and authority reasonably necessary to efficiently administer this chapter and to perform the duties imposed thereby.

subdivision b of subsection 1, applies to those other members and not to the member that the operating agreement relieves of the responsibility.

A member shall cease to be a member of a series upon the divestment of all the member's transferable interests of the series. The fact a person ceases to be a member of a particular series must not by itself cause the person to cease to be a member of the limited liability company or any other series thereof or cause the termination of the series, regardless of whether the person was the last remaining member of the series; or
 - b. If the operating agreement provides for the management of the series in whole or in part by a manager, the management must be vested in one or more managers who must be chosen as provided in the operating agreement and who must hold the offices and have the responsibilities as specified in the agreement. A manager ceases to be a manager of a series as provided in an operating agreement and subject to subdivision e of subsection 3 of section 10-32.1-39. A member that receives a distribution knowing the distribution was made in violation of this subsection is personally liable to the series for the amount of the distribution.

 - b. For purposes of this subsection, "distribution" does not include amounts constituting reasonable compensation for present or past services or reasonable payments made in the ordinary course of business under a bona fide retirement plan or other benefits program.
11. Subject to section 10-32.1-51, a series established under this section may be terminated and its affairs wound up without causing the dissolution of the limited liability company. The termination of the series does not affect the limitations on liabilities of the series as provided in subsection 3. A series is terminated and its affairs must be wound up upon the occurrence of any of the following:
 - a. The dissolution of the limited liability company under section 10-32.1-51;
 - b. The time or happening of events specified in the operating agreement;
 - c. The vote or consent of members of the series who own more than two-thirds of the interests in the profits of the series; or

The person shall provide for the claims and obligations of the series and distribute the assets of the series as provided in section 10-32.1-54. Any action taken in accordance with this subsection does not affect the liability of members and does not impose liability on a liquidating trustee appointed in accordance with this subsection.  - a. A manager of the series who has not wrongfully terminated the series;
 - b. If the series has no manager who qualifies under subdivision a, the members of the series or a person approved by the members;
