Minutes:

REP. BELTER Opened the hearing.

REP. STACY MICKELSON, MINOT, Introduced the bill, however, he testified that the bill would need to be killed, because in talking with the people back home who asked him and Rep. Maragos to support the bill, did further research after the bill was drafted, and came to the conclusion that under new fair trades laws, what they are proposing here, it would adversely affect the wholesalers of the state and put them at a disadvantage to the out-of-state distributors. With no further testimony, this hearing was closed.
