Vice Chair Drovdal : We will open the hearing on HCR 3078 and ask the clerk to read the title.

Chairman R Kelsch : District 34. sponsor of HCR 3078 introduced the resolution. We know the importance of taking a look at state funding of education. Some school districts feel they are funding way too much and other are funding not enough with property taxes. They are not all funding at the same level. We need to take a look at equity.

Rep Johnson: District 12, sponsor of the bill. I almost feel that this should be an ongoing study without need of a resolution. A study would bring out the issues .

Rep Brandenburg : District 26, sponsor of the bill. spoke in support of HCR 3078.

Minutes:

SENATOR FREBORG opened the hearing on HCR3078.

REPRESENTATIVE MONSON, DISTRICT 10, testified in favor of HCR3078. We haven't had a comprehensive study on what this has been doing to equity and what is happening especially in rural areas where we are losing a lot of students and declining enrollment is becoming a bigger and bigger problem. That is the reason for this resolution, maybe we should go back and have an interim study where we would look at the whole formula, methods that we count our students, various issues like that.

SENATOR FREBORG closed the hearing on HCR3078.

SENATOR O'CONNELL : I move a DO PASS, place on consent calendar.
