Minutes:CHAIRMAN FREBORG called the committee to order. Roll Call was taken with FIVE (5) members present and one (1) absent.

CHAIRMAN FREBORG opened the hearing on SB 2318 which relates to designation of the North Dakota art museum.

Testimony in support of SB 2318:

SENATOR ESPEGARD, Dist. 43, stated this bill would give the proper name to the ND Art Museum which the state calls the Art Galleries and would delete language in statute that states they never would come to the state for money.

SENATOR COOK asked if there had ever been any general fund monies used. SENATOR ESPEGARD stated no, there never has been.

MR. JERRY SKOGLEY, who sits on the Board, gave history on the Museum. He stated this is a repository for art and artifacts in North Dakota. It was operated through the Board of Higher Education and the administration of the University of ND. It did receive, for many years, student fees for part of its operating expense. The building and its maintenance were covered by the state. It continues to be supported by the university, as far as the facility is concerned, through gifts, memberships, foundation and corporate support. It is one of the top twenty-five art museums in the country. It is one of the top five as a contemporary art museum. This bill calls for the wording to change so it is brought up to what it is today. About five or six years ago it was separated from the university as a separate non-profit organization, which it is today. It is providing service to the students and the community of Grand Forks, ND.

There was no opposition to SB 2318.

SENATOR TAYLOR moved a DO PASS. Seconded by SENATOR CHRISTENSON.

SENATOR COOK stated he will support the bill but wonders if the sentence being struck as to not accepting money from the general fund will change their attitude about accepting money now. He wonders if that is why they have gotten their money from other sources. SENATOR CHRISTENSON doesn't think they will accept any state money anyway.

Roll Call Vote: 5 YES. 0 NO. 1 Absent.

Chairman Kelsch opened the hearing on HB 2318

Sen. Espgaard, District 43

The ND Museum of Art has been around for a long time. We are looking for a name change.

Gerald Skogley, member of the board for the ND Museum of Art

The ND Museum of Art was entered into the statutes of 1981 at that time it was the UND Art Gallery and the administration of the University and with the approval of Higher Education asked the Legislature to designate that gallery as the state's art museum so that there would be a repository for art in ND. It was the last state in the union to have such a designation. Today is one of the finest art museums in the US. It is generally recognized as such, but in the art world it is. In the 1990's it changed its legal status with the approval of the board of Higher Education to become a separate nonprofit organization. It is that today. The statute was not changed at that time to recognize that change in the legal identity. The bill before you does that. It recognizes in the statute what the museum actually is by name, it also takes out the wording to do with state funding. I have never received state funding. It is housed on the campus of the University and has a legal agreement between the art museum and the University of North Dakota. They provide the building and heat, light and water and the museum pays all other expenses. And that will continue into the future. I invite you to visit and see this great jewel that ND has.

Chairman Kelsch Does it just contain ND artist or is it art from all over.

Skogley: It is a collection is from all over, but it's focus is provide a repository for ND artist. The exhibits have come from all over the world on a rotating basis. Each year there is three or four shows that focus on ND art.

Rep. Mueller What is the difference between gallery and museum

Skogley: A gallery displays of art. A museum is a repository where they collect and own art.

Rep. Meier UND is in favor of his change of name.

Skogley: Yes, one of the board members is one of the CO-host for the University.
