Minutes:

Chairman DeKrey: We will open the hearing on HB 1452.

Al Jaeger, Secretary of State: Support (attachment).

Rep. Dahl: Special elections, does that mean the candidate is picked, there is no primary election process. Is that correct.

Al Jaeger: Based on their timeline, there would not only be no chance for a convention, but they could certainly do that in short order to do what they want to do.

Rep. Koppelman: You talked about the Senate having a procedure that is different than this. How does that work.

Al Jaeger: I believe that they can appoint someone to fill the vacancy.

Rep. Koppelman: You said that this was passed by Congress in an appropriations bill, and want the states to adopt the law, that implies that the states had the authority to control this. Is there a uniform system now, or is there a patchwork system to fill vacancies now.

Al Jaeger: I don't think there is a system, that's why they did this.

Chairman DeKrey: Is this bill pretty much verbatim of what the congressional act said, or is there some leeway that you had here within your office that you actually tried to put in this bill.

Al Jaeger: We asked our attorney in the AG's office to review and set the policy as to what was adopted.

Rep. Delmore: Most states will be adopting something very similar to this, that's not verbatim.

Al Jaeger: I believe we will all be adopting this policy, because it said we shall. I don't believe it is optional.

Chairman DeKrey: Thank you. Further testimony in support. Testimony in opposition. We will close the hearing. What are the committee's wishes in regard to HB 1452.

Rep. Delmore: I move a Do Pass.

Rep. Wolf: Second.

Minutes:

Chairman Dever opened the public hearing on HB1452.

Al Jager: Secretary of State. See attached testimony #1.

Representative Rust: Representative David Rust District 2. This bill is a bill that calls for a special election to fill a vacancy in the United States House of Representatives. What we need to do as a state with regard to federal regulations and it does ask for a timeline for which to hold that election. I would defer questions to Mr. Jager.

Senator Dever: It seems to that part of the issue is to hold an election rather than a gubernatorial appointment.

Al Jager: The thing with this is, I make reference to what happened in 2005 in my testimony. It does provide for the filling of vacancies, they included the text in a legislative branch appropriations bill, that is why I gave you the extra handout with my testimony, and then you see what congress is doing. Our national office was not aware of it at all. So this is the first session we have been able to do anything with it, it doesn't match any of our timelines but this is what they have in federal law. We are bringing it forth because Congress says that the states will adopt this.

Senator Dever: Can you clarify for me the ability or inability of the governor to make an appointment?

Al Jager: The appointment that I understand it for vacancy is only applied to U.S. Senate; there is not an appointment provision for a member of congress.

Senator Oehlke: If it was not a catastrophe and only 98 Congressmen disappeared at once, then the process would not have to be followed like this at all?

Al Jager: Yes

Senator Horne: Is this something Congress has mandated of the states and these timelines that you gave us, we are just trying to cooperate with Congress?

Al Jager: Yes and when I am asked in the next survey I can say that we have adopted it.

Senator Dever: The bill makes sense but the idea that Congress can tell us, rubs me the wrong way. If we were to rather grant the governor the responsibility to appointment would it be in violation?

Al Jager: The timelines are not in keeping with anything the other states have.

Senator Dever: When we passed the bill for dist to fill a vacancy it was in the hope that if someone dies today then they can have someone in there the next day.

Al Jager: I just know that if there is a vacancy in the House the governor doesn't have an appointment.

Senator Nelson: Why do they use the word 'if' in sub section 3?

Senator Dever: They would have the ability to reject anyone we send to them.

Senator Cook: If this happens the chances that we could pull this off is hard.

Senator Nelson: What do they do if we do not pass this bill?

Al Jager: I brought it forth because I am supposed to and let's hope we never have to deal with it.

There was no further testimony and Chairman Dever closed the public hearing on HB1452.

RE: HB 1452 – Continuity in Representation – United States House of Representatives

The purpose of this bill is to enact the requirements of Title III of H.R. 2985, Legislative Branch Appropriations Act, 2006, presented to the President on July 29, 2005, which he signed on August 2, 2005 (see attachment).

It provides for a method of filling vacancies in the United States House of Representatives, in the event the number of vacancies in that body exceeds 100.

Unfortunately, because of the manner in which it was passed by Congress (tucked into a Legislative Branch Appropriations Bill); the need for its enactment by the states was not generally known until May 2007.

It was at that time when Congress asked the National Association of Secretaries of State to conduct a survey as to how many states had adopted the required legislation. The resulting survey revealed that very few states had known about Title III of H.R. 2985 and had not adopted the applicable laws enacting its provisions.

For North Dakota, this is the first legislative session since the requirement was known to enact a law to enact the required federal legislation.
