<sup>2</sup> The election reform line item is reduced by $296,494. Funding of $372,594 from counties included in the executive budget for the 5 percent state matching requirement for the $7,446,803 of federal election reform funds available to North Dakota is removed. Funding of $76,100 from the general fund is added to provide the state matching funds required. It is anticipated that previous expenditures made by the Secretary of State and counties may be used for the remaining $296,250 of state matching requirement. A section is added requiring the Secretary of State to collect $76,100 from counties during the 2005-07 biennium for deposit in the general fund to reimburse the general fund for the state matching funds appropriated in this bill. An emergency clause is added allowing the Secretary of State to access the federal election reform funding prior to July 1, 2005.
