1. History and function. The 2005 legislative assembly passed the Marriage and Family Therapy Practice Act, codified as North Dakota Century Code chapter 43-53. This chapter requires the governor to appoint the board. The board, generally speaking, monitors the relationship and interaction between the licenseholder and the public. It is the responsibility of the board to protect the public against poorly trained marriage and family therapists.
2. Board membership. The board consists of five members, of which at least three must be licensed practicing marriage and family therapists and at least one must represent the general public. Board members are appointed by the governor. The members serve four-year terms.
3. Inquiries. Inquiries regarding the board may be addressed to:
