50-02-07.1-01. License fees.

The fee for licensure in North Dakota, whether it be by qualification, compact, locum tenens, or special license, is two hundred dollars per year. The fee to convert from a locum tenens license to permanent licensure status is two hundred dollars.

History: Effective January 1, 2010; amended effective October 1, 2011; October 1, 2022.
General Authority: NDCC 43-17-27.1
Law Implemented: NDCC 43-17-25

50-02-07.1-02. Unlicensed practice fees.

A physician seeking to renew a license who has failed to complete the registration process within three years from the expiration date must be assessed a fee equal to five hundred dollars, in addition to such other penalties as are authorized by law, if that physician is found to have been practicing medicine in this state after the physician's license expired.

History: Effective January 1, 2010; amended effective October 1, 2022; April 1, 2024.
General Authority: NDCC 43-17-25, 43-17-26.1
Law Implemented: NDCC 43-17-26.1

50-02-07.1-02.1. Arrearage.

A physician whose license has expired may renew the expired license upon payment of two hundred dollars per year, up to three years, for each year past the renewal deadline.

History: Effective October 1, 2022.
General Authority: NDCC 43-17-25
Law Implemented: NDCC 43-17-26.1

50-02-07.1-03. Administrative sanction.

An administrative sanction must be imposed in the amount of five hundred dollars for any applicant or licensed physician who provides false or deceptive information with regard to any material fact concerning eligibility for initial licensure or renewal after verifying or certifying that the information provided is true. This includes all material information provided in an initial license application, an annual registration renewal, or a report of compliance with mandatory continuing education requirements.

The imposition of an administrative sanction under this section is not a disciplinary action of the board; however, it does not preclude the board from also imposing disciplinary action, or other penalties provided by law, for the same conduct in appropriate cases.

An applicant or licensed physician may challenge the imposition of an administrative sanction under this section in a hearing under North Dakota Century Code chapter 28-32 before an administrative law judge.

History: Effective January 1, 2010; amended effective April 1, 2024.

General Authority: NDCC 43-17-07.1(3)
Law Implemented: NDCC 43-17-25
