Section

27-02-03-01 General Report Requirement
27-02-03-02 Employing Unit Reports

27-02-03-01. General report requirement.

Each employing unit shall make such reports as the bureau may require, and shall comply with instructions printed upon any report form issued by the bureau pertaining to the preparation and return of such report.

General Authority: NDCC 52-02-02

Law Implemented: NDCC 52-01-02, 52-04-08, 52-05-04

27-02-03-02. Employing unit reports.

1. Every individual or organization which becomes an employing unit and for which services are performed in employment shall file a report to determine liability (status report, NDUC-301) within twenty days after such first employment.
2. Any employing unit, not already an employer, which becomes an employer, shall immediately give notice to the bureau of that fact. The notice shall contain the employer's name and address and the business name and address.
3. Any employer who terminates business for any reason whatsoever or transfers or sells all of the employer's organization, trade, or business, or any part thereof, or except in the usual course of business, sells a substantial part of the employer's assets, or changes the trade name of such business or address thereof, shall within twenty days after such termination, transfer, sale, or change of name or address, give written notice to the bureau of that fact. The notice shall contain the employer's account number, name, former address and present address and, in the event of a transfer or sale, the name and address of any new owner, and business name and address.
