

CHAPTER 42-02-04 POLICY REQUIREMENTS

Section

42-02-04-01	Policy for Satisfactory Progress [Repealed]
42-02-04-02	Policy for Students Who Delay or Interrupt Their Academic Programs [Repealed]
42-02-04-03	Policy for Refunds and Repayments

42-02-04-01. Policy for satisfactory progress.

Repealed effective April 1, 2024.

42-02-04-02. Policy for students who delay or interrupt their academic programs.

Repealed effective January 1, 2018.

42-02-04-03. Policy for refunds and repayments.

1. A student who withdraws after receiving a payment for the student's scholarship shall refund or repay the scholarship according to the stated refund or repayment policy of the institution the student is attending.
2. If a student meets the eligibility criteria at the time of disbursement, an institution is not required to return awards for subsequent changes to the student's financial aid package in the current academic term. However, eligibility criteria for future terms must be reviewed to ensure the eligibility criteria are met.
3. If funds are disbursed to a student and it is later determined that erroneous data was reported, making the student ineligible, the funds must be returned to the program.

History: Effective February 1, 2000; amended effective January 1, 2018; April 1, 2024.

General Authority: NDCC 15-63-02

Law Implemented: NDCC 15-63-02, 15-63-07