71-02-08-01. Participation.

Repealed effective January 1, 2025.

71-02-08-02. Withdrawal.

Any political subdivision may discontinue participation in the fund if the following requirements are met:

1. The political subdivision must provide the board with a copy of a resolution adopted by the governing authority authorizing the termination of participation in the fund.
2. Upon receiving a copy of the written resolution, an actuarial study must be done by the plan's actuary to determine the accrued benefit of all vested employees minus allocated assets from the date of participation. The interest assumption used must be two hundred basis points less than the plan's interest assumption used for funding purposes. The withdrawal liability must include an administrative expense assessment of five percent.
3. Any costs incurred by the fund, resulting from a political subdivision ceasing participation, including the actuarial fee study and the withdrawal liability, must be assessed against the political subdivision and paid in full before a political subdivision terminates its participation.
4. All employees of a political subdivision that has terminated participation in the fund must not be eligible for future benefit accruals or improvements granted to employees or former employees of participating governmental units after the date the employer's participation ceases.
5. An employee who is not vested at the time an employer ceases participation has the option of taking a refund or rollover of the employee's contribution plus interest.

History: Effective September 1, 1982; amended effective June 1, 1996; April 1, 2019.

71-02-08-03. Transfer of funds.

Repealed effective April 1, 2012.

71-02-08-04. Transfer date.

Repealed effective April 1, 2012.

71-02-08-05. Merger of eligible employer groups.

If a merger between two or more eligible employer groups occurs, the following requirements apply:

1. Written notification must be provided to the office no later than sixty days before the merger is final.
2. When two or more employer groups merge into one, and all do not presently participate in the public employees retirement system, the units merging must decide upon one of the following:
 - a. The participating employer or employers may elect to cease participation as of the date of the merger, subject to payment of any actuarial liabilities accrued. An actuarial study must be conducted at the cost of the exiting employer upon providing the public employees retirement system with written notice of the employer's election to cease participation.
 - b. Subject to executing a revised participation agreement, eligible employees who have not previously participated shall be given the opportunity to participate or waive participation effective the date of the merger. Any person hired in an eligible position after the consolidation date must participate.
