POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

REP. MOORE: Madam Speaker: I rise to a point of personal privilege and request that my remarks be printed in the Journal.

The legislative intent of HB 1072 and HB 1073 is to adopt all of the provisions formerly found in chapters 57-50, 57-52, 57-53, 57-54, 57-54.1 and 57-56. Those six chapters have been combined into the three chapters created in HB 1072 and HB 1073 to cover all fuels taxes. The intent of HB 1072 and HB 1073 is to incorporate completely all of the provisions found in those six chapters which are being repealed. No substantive changes are intended by the rewrite of these chapters and any provisions of HB 1072 or HB 1073 which are in conflict with the old statutes governing fuels taxes are inadvertent and are the result of error or omission rather than an effort by the House to change any of the existing provisions of the motor fuel, special fuel and aviation fuel taxes.
