POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

REP. THOMPSON: Madam Speaker: I rise to a point of personal privilege and request that my remarks be printed in the Journal.

On Saturday night, a new State Class "B" Boy's Basketball Champion was crowned here in Bismarck--the Hettinger High School Black Devils. The championship game between the Devils and the powerful Patriots of Mayville-Portland High School had the ingredients of a real title game: two strong teams from opposite ends of the state; two teams who had ranked high on statewide polls throughout the season; teams who had not met previously; and two exceptional schools with exceptional community spirit performing before a capacity crowd from throughout the state in what has become North Dakota's sporting event of the year.

Congratulations are due all the teams that participated and the communities they represent. It's reassuring to see the cooperation achieved, the friendly competition pursued, and the friendships renewed and established at such an event as a state tournament, and then to realize that on the larger scale these are characteristics which still mark our lives as North Dakotans.

Those of us from the southwestern corner of the state, whose schools compete in the Badlands Conference and participate in Region 8, take a special pride in having the state "B" title returned to our area after a long absence. We join the rest of the state in saluting the students, teachers, parents, and all citizens of the Hettinger School system on their 1983 State Basketball Championship.
