

JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

Forty-ninth Legislative Assembly

* * * * *

FIRST DAY

Bismarck, January 8, 1985

At the hour of twelve o'clock noon on the eighth day of January, 1985, according to the Constitution of North Dakota, the North Dakota Senate convened in its regular session, President Pro Tem Chester Reiten presiding.

The prayer was offered by Reverend Mel Wipf, Pastor, Bethlehem Lutheran Church, Ross, North Dakota.

From time immemorial there have been leaders and there have been those led. There have been those with the responsibility of looking after the welfare of their fellowman and those over whom this caring has taken place.

We gather in this legislative session as a gathering of persons elected by our peers to make decisions, adjust, and provide for the good of the people of the state of North Dakota. May we take our responsibility seriously, may we ever be sensitive to truth, justice, and the welfare of our fellowman. May it not be said of us that we came, we saw, we concurred, but may it be said of us when the session is over that we have been Christlike in our sensitivity to truth, justice, and the welfare of all that has come to us as a trust of responsibility.

With Solomon of old we pray that You would give us the wisdom we need to rule with justice and to know the difference between good and evil, right and wrong.

Again, Lord, bless this body, the North Dakota Senate, as it meets in this session of the legislature. Guide Ruth as she leads its various deliberations, and help that, out of it all, might come the meaningful, wise, and sensitive legislation needed to lead our state on in its history as the finest of places to live.

Yours in Christ, we pray, Amen.

LT. GOVERNOR RUTH MEIERS: Thank you for your warm reception. It is a great honor to preside over the Senate of the State of North Dakota. It is also something of an anniversary for me particularly, since my father first commenced serving here in 1935, fifty years ago approximately today. It is a great privilege and responsibility to serve in this Senate, and I am certain that each of you feel the significance of your presence here. My prayer is that each of you will be committed to serving the best interests of the state of North Dakota, and I believe that you will do so. I look forward to that service. I look forward to serving with each of you. I ask your indulgence, your acceptance, and your patience at times. We have a great mutual interest - North Dakota - its government, its people, its future. Let's all pledge to work diligently and effectively with that in mind. Thank you.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

SEN. HEIGAARD: Madam President: I rise on a point of personal privilege and request that my remarks be printed in the Journal.

Madam President, members of the Senate, this is indeed an historical moment with the North Dakota Legislature. North Dakota has long had a history of historical moments. We have had women serving in the legislature ever since they received the right to vote. We had the first woman Speaker of the House ever in North Dakota in 1933 when Minnie Craig was the Speaker of the House. North Dakota can be proud of its commitment to equal opportunities for everyone, especially in the legislative branch. Today is another historical moment in the North Dakota Legislature. We now have our first woman Lieutenant Governor, and Madam President, on behalf of the Democrat Caucus, and I think all of the Senate, the people of North Dakota, we welcome you to the North Dakota Senate, and we are very proud to have you here.

REVISION AND CORRECTION OF THE JOURNAL

MADAM PRESIDENT: Your Committee on Revision and Correction of the Journal has carefully examined the Journal of the Organizational and Orientation Session and finds the same to be correct.
