POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

REP. COATS: Mr. Speaker: I rise on a point of personal privilege and request that my remarks be printed in the Journal.

Mr. Speaker and Members of the Assembly: Since early in the session, we have heard of championship basketball teams, championship volleyball teams, championship football teams and championship hockey teams.

North Dakota, being the agricultural state it is, I think it is only fitting that we recognize a championship team and their coach and advisor visiting the House Chambers today. With us today is the State Champion FFA Livestock Judging Team whose members are David Boehm, Carey Entzel, Kathy Madler and Tony Boehm and the State FFA Individual Judging Champion, Julie Schaff. With these champions are their coach, Dick Tokach, who is the son of former Representative Tokach; and their advisor, Tracy Tebben. Needless to say, there is one very proud father sitting on the floor with us, Representative Jim Boehm, the father of David and Tony Boehm, who incidentally are both FFA State Farmers, as is Carey Entzel. Mandan is really proud of these people and I hope the members of the House will wish them well as they compete in the national contest later this year. Won't you please recognize these young North Dakotans, with us, in the chambers today. Thank you.

MESSAGE to the HOUSE from the SENATE (Marion Houn, Secretary)
