¹ Adds funding included in the executive budget for the operating costs associated with the automated fingerprint identification system (AFIS). The House removed the funding.

² Adds positions in the Bureau of Criminal Investigation associated with the following federal programs (16 positions were included in the executive budget but removed by the House):

National instant check system	4 FTE - Funding that the House moved to operating expenses is returned to salaries and wages
National criminal history improvement project	2 FTE
Law enforcement programs	2 FTE

³ Adds funding included in the executive budget for the sex offender registration program. The House removed this funding and a .5 FTE.

⁴ Adds funding included in the executive budget for rewriting outdated data processing programs. The House removed this funding.

⁵ Reallocates the $183,000 from the general fund added to salaries and wages in the House for two criminal investigators as follows:

Salaries and wages	$143,214
Operating expenses	12,786
Equipment	27,000
Total	$183,000

⁶ Reduces general fund support and increases estimated income for salaries and wages in the Legal Services Division of the Attorney General's office.

7 Adds funding of $77,798 of federal funds and $23,310 of other funds for a narcotics prosecutor position. The Attorney General has an available FTE position that may be used for this purpose.

8 Removes funding for risk management premiums, of which $58,465 is from the general fund and $10,317 is from other funds.

9 Reduces operating expenses by $59,655 from the general fund for anticipated savings resulting from program efficiencies during the 1997-99 biennium.

A section is added increasing the annual license fee for manufacturers of pull tabs, pull tab dispensing devices, and bingo cards by $3,000, from $2,000 to $5,000. The increase is estimated to generate $48,000 of additional general fund revenues for the 1997-99 biennium.

A comparison of funding for the Attorney General in the various budget versions is listed below.
