To Clarence, this group was his "other" family. He had love and respect for everyone in this chamber. It was nice to come home on weekends, but by Sunday noon he was packed and ready to go back. He always had something to prepare for the next day and he so looked forward to seeing his friends.

We thank you so much for your being here for him and for us. You will always be remembered as special. May God bless you all. (Viola Martin, Francis and Cindy Martin, Laurie and Dan Haag, and Lynne and Kurt Ridl)
