

Introduced by

1 A concurrent resolution expressing legislative approval of the actions taken by the North Dakota
2 Supreme Court Joint Task Force on Family Law to facilitate and promote mediation as a 3 method of addressing family law matters.

4 WHEREAS, the North Dakota Supreme Court Joint Task Force on Family Law was 5 established in January 1995 and has a mission that includes reviewing dispute resolution 6 alternatives to determine potential application in the family law system, including divorce; and

7 WHEREAS, the traditional legal system is adversarial in nature and is usually 8 counterproductive in fostering communication, cooperation, and a working relationship between 9 parents, skills that may be integral to successful postdivorce childrearing; and

10 WHEREAS, mediation is based on communication and mutual agreement, which may 11 be productive in teaching problem-solving skills that may decrease postdivorce litigation; and

12 WHEREAS, the Joint Task Force on Family Law has invested a large amount of time 13 and expended a great amount of energy in drafting and promoting suggested local rules of 14 court that mandate mediation orientation in most divorce cases filed in district court; and

15 WHEREAS, mandatory mediation orientation should assist in improving the availability 16 of mediators in the rural communities and the western region of the state; and

17 WHEREAS, in response to the work of the Joint Task Force on Family Law, several 18 judicial districts have agreed to adopt local court rules that mandate mediation orientation in 19 most divorce cases;

20 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE _____ OF 21 NORTH DAKOTA, THE _____ CONCURRING THEREIN:

22 That the Fifty-sixth Legislative Assembly approves of the actions taken by the North
23 Dakota Supreme Court Joint Task Force on Family Law to facilitate and promote mediation as a 24 method of addressing family law matters; and

- 1           BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Secretary of State forward copies of this
- 2 resolution to the Chief Justice of the North Dakota Supreme Court and to each member of the
- 3 Supreme Court Joint Task Force on Family Law.
