Engrossed Senate Bill 2271 changes the make-up of the State Water Commission from its current membership of nine to a total of ten. The bill also creates eight regional water resource districts. Expenses for the regional water resource board members would be paid by their respective counties ($34,200). N.D.C.C. § 61-02-12 provides for compensation and expenses for the appointive members of the Commission. Assuming Commission members appointed by the regional water resource districts are eligible for state compensation, Engrossed Senate Bill 2271 would increase the compensation costs by adding one additional member to the Commission. The Commission's budget includes funds for the existing membership. Therefore, the net state cost is $2,070.
