3 children of the marriage as may seem necessary or proper, and may vacate or 4 modify the same at any time. Any award or change of ~~custody~~ parental 5 responsibility must be made in accordance with ~~the provisions of~~ chapter 14-09.
- 6 2. After making an ~~award of custody~~ allocation of parental responsibility, the court 7 ~~shall~~, upon request of the ~~noncustodial~~ parent of alternate residence, shall grant 8 such rights of visitation as will enable the child and the ~~noncustodial~~ parent of 9 alternate residence to maintain a parent-child relationship that will be beneficial to 10 the child, unless the court finds, after a hearing, that ~~visitation~~ parenting time is 11 likely to endanger the child's physical or emotional health.
- 12 3. If the court finds that a parent has perpetrated domestic violence and that parent 13 ~~does not have custody~~ has not been allocated parental responsibility, and there 14 exists one incident of domestic violence which resulted in serious bodily injury or 15 involved the use of a dangerous weapon or there exists a pattern of domestic 16 violence within a reasonable time proximate to the proceeding, the court shall allow 17 only supervised ~~child visitation~~ parenting time with that parent unless there is a 18 showing by clear and convincing evidence that unsupervised ~~visitation~~ parenting

- 20 4. If any court finds that a parent has sexually abused the parent's child, the court 21 shall prohibit all ~~visitation~~ parenting time and contact between the abusive parent 22 and the child until the court finds that the abusive parent has successfully

24 supervised visitation is in the child's best interest. Contact between the abusive 25 parent and the child may be allowed only in a therapeutic setting, facilitated by a 26 therapist as part of a sexual abuse treatment program, and only when the therapist

- 29 5. In any ~~custody~~ allocation of parental responsibility or ~~visitation~~ parenting time 30 proceeding in which a parent is found to have perpetrated domestic violence, and 31 there exists one incident of domestic violence which resulted in serious bodily

1 injury or involved the use of a dangerous weapon or there exists a pattern of 2 domestic violence within a reasonable time proximate to the proceeding, all court 3 costs, attorneys' fees, evaluation fees, and expert witness fees must be paid by the 12 the order may award ~~custody~~ parental responsibility of minor children to a party. The order may 13 be issued and served in accordance with the North Dakota Rules of Court. The court may 17 to the penalties established in section 14-07.1-06 and the arrest procedures authorized in 18 section 14-07.1-11.

19 SECTION 7. AMENDMENT. Section 14-05-25 of the North Dakota Century Code is 20 amended and reenacted as follows:

21 14-05-25. Security for alimony - Disposition of homestead. The court may require 22 either party to give reasonable security for providing maintenance or making any payments 23 required under ~~the provisions of~~ this chapter and may enforce the same by appointment of a 24 receiver or by any other remedy applicable to the case. When either the husband or the wife 25 has a separate estate sufficient to give a proper support, the court in its discretion may withhold 26 any allowance to that person out of the separate property of the other spouse. The court, in 27 rendering the decree of divorce, may assign the homestead or such part thereof as to the court 28 may seem just, to the innocent party, either absolutely or for a limited period, according to the 29 facts in the case and in consonance with the law relating to homesteads. The disposition of the 30 homestead by the court, and all orders and decrees touching the alimony and maintenance of 31 either party to a marriage and for the ~~custody~~ parental responsibility, education, and support of

13 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

14 4. The fact, if it is a fact, that either parent may have secured a divorce awarding the 15 custody of or parental responsibility for the child, in no manner relieves either 16 parent from the requirements and penalty of this section, except that compliance 17 with the terms of a child support order by a parent is an affirmative defense to a 18 charge under this section made against that parent.

19 SECTION 10. AMENDMENT. Subsection 4 of section 14-07.1-02 of the North Dakota
20 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

21 4. Upon a showing of actual or imminent domestic violence, the court may enter a 25 having contact with any other person.

26 b. Excluding either the respondent or any person with whom the respondent 27 lives from the dwelling they share, from the residence of another person

11 a party and any minor children of the parties and reasonable attorneys' fees 12 and costs.
- 13 f. Awarding temporary use of personal property, including motor vehicles, to 14 either party.
- 15 g. Requiring the respondent to surrender for safekeeping any firearm or other 16 specified dangerous weapon, as defined in section 12.1-01-04, in the

18 immediate control, if the court has probable cause to believe that the 19 respondent is likely to use, display, or threaten to use the firearm or other 20 dangerous weapon in any further acts of violence. If so ordered, the 21 respondent shall surrender the firearm or other dangerous weapon to the 22 sheriff, or the sheriff's designee, of the county in which the respondent resides 23 or to the chief of police, or the chief's designee, of the city in which the 29 divorce proceeding, ~~child custody~~ allocation of parental responsibility proceeding, ~~child~~ 30 ~~visitation~~ parenting time proceeding, separation proceeding, or termination of parental rights 31 proceeding is false and not made in good faith, the court shall order the party making the false

1 allegation to pay court costs and reasonable attorney's fees incurred by the other party in 2 responding to the allegation.

3 SECTION 12. AMENDMENT. Subsection 2 of section 14-07.1-03 of the North Dakota
4 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

- 5 2. An ex parte temporary protection order may include:
- 6 a. Restraining any party from having contact with or committing acts of domestic 7 violence on another person.
 - 8 b. Excluding the respondent or any person with whom the respondent lives from 9 the dwelling they share, from the residence of another person, or from a 10 domestic violence shelter care facility.
 - 11 c. Awarding temporary ~~custody~~ parental responsibility or establishing temporary 12 ~~visitation rights~~ parenting time with regard to minor children.
 - 13 d. Requiring the respondent to surrender for safekeeping any firearm or other 14 specified dangerous weapon, as defined in section 12.1-01-04, in the

16 immediate control, if the court has probable cause to believe that the 17 respondent is likely to use, display, or threaten to use the firearm or other 18 dangerous weapon in any further acts of violence. If so ordered, the 19 respondent shall surrender the firearm or other dangerous weapon to the 20 sheriff, or the sheriff's designee, of the county in which the respondent resides 21 or the chief of police, or the chief's designee, of the city in which the 22 respondent resides.

23 SECTION 13. AMENDMENT. Section 14-07.1-05.1 of the North Dakota Century Code 24 is amended and reenacted as follows:

25 14-07.1-05.1. Appointment of guardian ad litem for minor. The court, upon the 26 request of either party or upon its own motion, may appoint a guardian ad litem in an action for 27 a protection order to represent a minor concerning ~~custody~~ the allocation of parental 28 responsibility, support, or ~~visitation~~ parenting time if either party or the court has reason for 29 special concern as to the immediate future of the minor. The guardian ad litem may be 30 appointed at the time of a temporary protection order or at any time before the full hearing. The 31 role of the guardian ad litem consists of investigation and making a recommendation and report

1 to the court. At no time may the involvement of the guardian ad litem alter the requirements set 2 forth in section 14-07.1-03. The appointment of the guardian ad litem expires immediately after 3 the full hearing unless the court retains the right, upon specific finding of need, to continue the 4 appointment of a guardian ad litem to participate in ~~visitation~~ parenting time. The guardian ad 5 litem shall have access to records before the court except as otherwise provided by law. The 6 court may direct either or both parties to pay the guardian ad litem fees established by the 7 court. If neither party is able to pay the fees, the court, after notice to the state's attorney of the 8 county of venue, may direct the fees to be paid, in whole or in part, by the county of venue. The 9 court may direct either or both parties to reimburse the county, in whole or in part, for the 10 payment.

11 SECTION 14. AMENDMENT. Section 14-09-04 of the North Dakota Century Code is 12 amended and reenacted as follows:

13 14-09-04. ~~Custody of~~ Parental responsibility for legitimate child. The father and 14 mother of a legitimate unmarried minor child are entitled equally to ~~its custody~~ parental 15 responsibility, services, and earnings, and neither can transfer ~~such custody~~ parental 16 responsibility, services, and earnings to any other person, without the written consent of the 17 other, except in case of death, desertion, or abandonment.

18 SECTION 15. AMENDMENT. Section 14-09-05 of the North Dakota Century Code is 19 amended and reenacted as follows:

20 14-09-05. Custody of illegitimate child. When maternity and paternity of an 21 illegitimate child are positively established, the ~~custody rights~~ allocation of parental 22 responsibility must be equal as between mother and father and must serve the best interests of 23 the child. The ~~custodial~~ parent of primary residence is entitled to the child's services and 24 earnings.

25 SECTION 16. AMENDMENT. Section 14-09-06 of the North Dakota Century Code is 26 amended and reenacted as follows:

27 14-09-06. Priority of ~~custody~~ parental responsibility of father and mother. The 28 husband and father and wife and mother have equal rights with regard to the care, ~~custody~~ 29 parental responsibility, education, and control of the children of the marriage, while such 30 husband and wife live separate and apart from each other, and when they so live in a state of 31 separation without being divorced, the district court or judge thereof, upon application of either,

1 may grant a writ of habeas corpus to inquire into the ~~custody~~ parental responsibility of any 2 minor unmarried child of the marriage, and may award the ~~custody of such parental~~ 3 responsibility for the child to either for such time and under such regulations as the case may 4 require. The decision of the court or judge must be guided by the rules provided by law for 5 awarding the ~~custody of parental responsibility for a minor~~ or the appointment of a general 6 guardian.

7 SECTION 17. AMENDMENT. Section 14-09-06.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is 8 amended and reenacted as follows:

9 14-09-06.1. Awarding ~~custody~~ parental responsibility - Best interests and welfare
10 of child. An order ~~for custody of allocating parental responsibility for an unmarried minor child~~ 11 entered pursuant to this chapter must award the ~~custody of parental responsibility for the child~~ 12 to a person, agency, organization, or institution as will, in the opinion of the judge, promote the 13 best interests and welfare of the child. Between the mother and father, whether natural or 14 adoptive, there is no presumption as to who will better promote the best interests and welfare of 15 the child.

16 SECTION 18. AMENDMENT. Section 14-09-06.2 of the North Dakota Century Code is 17 amended and reenacted as follows:

18 14-09-06.2. Best interests and welfare of child - Court consideration - Factors.

- 19 1. For the purpose of ~~custody~~ allocating parental responsibility, the best interests and 20 welfare of the child is determined by the court's consideration and evaluation of all 21 factors affecting the best interests and welfare of the child. These factors include 22 all of the following when applicable:
- 23 a. The love, affection, and other emotional ties existing between the parents and 24 child.
 - 25 b. The capacity and disposition of the parents to give the child love, affection, 26 and guidance and to continue the education of the child.
 - 27 c. The disposition of the parents to provide the child with food, clothing, medical 28 care, or other remedial care recognized and permitted under the laws of this 29 state in lieu of medical care, and other material needs.
 - 30 d. The length of time the child has lived in a stable satisfactory environment and 31 the desirability of maintaining continuity.

- 1 e. The permanence, as a family unit, of the existing or proposed custodial home.
- 2 f. The moral fitness of the parents.
- 3 g. The mental and physical health of the parents.
- 4 h. The home, school, and community record of the child.
- 5 i. The reasonable preference of the child, if the court deems the child to be of
- 6 sufficient intelligence, understanding, and experience to express a preference.
- 7 j. Evidence of domestic violence. In ~~awarding custody~~ allocating parental
- 8 responsibility or ~~granting rights of visitation~~ parenting time, the court shall
- 9 consider evidence of domestic violence. If the court finds credible evidence
- 10 that domestic violence has occurred, and there exists one incident of
- 11 domestic violence which resulted in serious bodily injury or involved the use of
- 12 a dangerous weapon or there exists a pattern of domestic violence within a
- 13 reasonable time proximate to the proceeding, this combination creates a
- 14 rebuttable presumption that a parent who has perpetrated domestic violence
- 15 may not be awarded ~~sole or joint custody of a child~~ parental responsibility.
- 16 This presumption may be overcome only by clear and convincing evidence
- 17 that the best interests of the child require that parent's participation as a
- 18 ~~custodial parent~~ parent of primary residence. The court shall cite specific findings of
- 19 fact to show that the ~~custody~~ parental responsibility or ~~visitation~~ parenting
- 20 time arrangement best protects the child and the parent or other family or
- 21 household member who is the victim of domestic violence. If necessary to
- 22 protect the welfare of the child, ~~custody~~ parental responsibility may be
- 23 awarded to a suitable third person, provided that the person would not allow
- 24 access to a violent parent except as ordered by the court. If the court awards
- 25 ~~custody~~ parental responsibility to a third person, the court shall give priority to
- 26 the child's nearest suitable adult relative. The fact that the abused parent
- 27 suffers from the effects of the abuse may not be grounds for denying that
- 28 parent ~~custody~~ parental responsibility. As used in this subdivision, "domestic
- 29 violence" means domestic violence as defined in section 14-07.1-01. A court
- 30 may consider, but is not bound by, a finding of domestic violence in another
- 31 proceeding under chapter 14-07.1.

- 1 k. The interaction and interrelationship, or the potential for interaction and 2 interrelationship, of the child with any person who resides in, is present, or 3 frequents the household of a parent and who may significantly affect the 4 child's best interests. The court shall consider that person's history of 5 inflicting, or tendency to inflict, physical harm, bodily injury, assault, or the fear 6 of physical harm, bodily injury, or assault, on other persons.
- 7 l. The making of false allegations not made in good faith, by one parent against 8 the other, of harm to a child as defined in section 50-25.1-02.
- 9 m. Any other factors considered by the court to be relevant to a particular ~~child~~ 10 custody parental responsibility dispute.
- 11 2. In any proceeding under this chapter, the court, at any stage of the proceedings 12 after final judgment, may make orders about what security is to be given for the 13 care, ~~custody parental responsibility~~, and support of the unmarried minor children 14 of the marriage as from the circumstances of the parties and the nature of the case 15 is equitable.

16 SECTION 19. AMENDMENT. Section 14-09-06.3 of the North Dakota Century Code is 17 amended and reenacted as follows:

18 14-09-06.3. ~~Custody~~ Custody Parental responsibility investigations and reports - Costs.

- 19 1. In contested ~~custody parental responsibility~~ proceedings the court may, upon the 20 request of either party, or, upon its own motion, order an investigation and report 21 concerning custodial arrangements for the child. The court shall designate a 22 person or agency responsible for making the investigation and report, which 23 designees may include the county social service board, public health officer, school 24 officials, and any other public agency or private practitioner it deems qualified to 25 make the investigation.
- 26 2. The investigator may consult any person who may have information about the child 27 and any potential ~~custody parental responsibility~~ arrangements, and upon order of 28 the court may refer the child to any professional personnel for diagnosis.
- 29 3. The court shall mail the investigator's report to counsel and to any party not 30 represented by counsel at least thirty days before the hearing. The investigator 31 shall make available to any such counsel or party the complete file of data and

1 reports underlying the investigator's report and the names and addresses of all 2 persons whom the investigator has consulted. A party may call the investigator 3 and any person whom the investigator has consulted for cross-examination at the 4 hearing. A party may not waive the party's right of cross-examination before the 5 hearing.

6 4. The court shall enter an order for the costs of any such investigation against either 7 or both parties, except that if the parties are indigent the expenses must be borne 8 by the county.

9 SECTION 20. AMENDMENT. Section 14-09-06.4 of the North Dakota Century Code is 10 amended and reenacted as follows:

11 14-09-06.4. Appointment of guardian ad litem for children in ~~eustedy~~ allocation of 12 parental responsibility, support, and ~~visitation~~ parenting time proceedings. In any action 13 for an annulment, divorce, legal separation, or other action affecting marriage, where either 14 party has reason for special concern as to the future of the minor children, and in actions 15 affecting the marriage relationship where the custody of such children is contested, either party 16 to the action may petition the court for the appointment of a guardian ad litem to represent the 17 children concerning ~~eustedy~~ allocation of parental responsibility, support, and ~~visitation~~ 18 parenting time. The court, in its discretion, may appoint a guardian ad litem on its own motion.
19 If appointed, a guardian ad litem shall serve as an advocate of the children's best interests.
20 The court may direct either or both parties to pay the guardian ad litem fee established by the 21 court. If neither of the parties are able to pay the fee, the court may direct the fee to be paid, in 22 whole or in part, by the county of venue. The court may direct either or both parties to 23 reimburse the county, in whole or in part, for such payment.

24 SECTION 21. AMENDMENT. Section 14-09-06.6 of the North Dakota Century Code is 25 amended and reenacted as follows:

26 14-09-06.6. Limitations on postjudgment custody or allocation of parental 27 responsibility modifications.

28 1. Unless agreed to in writing by the parties, no motion to modify a custody or 29 parental responsibility order may be made earlier than two years after the date of 30 entry of an order establishing custody or parental responsibility, except in 31 accordance with subsection 3.

- 1 2. Unless agreed to in writing by the parties, if a motion for modification has been 2 disposed of upon its merits, no subsequent motion may be filed within two years of 3 disposition of the prior motion, except in accordance with subsection 3.
- 4 3. The time limitation in subsections 1 and 2 does not apply if the court finds:
- 5 a. The persistent and willful denial or interference with ~~visitation~~ parenting time;
- 6 b. The child's present environment may endanger the child's physical or 7 emotional health or impair the child's emotional development; or
- 8 c. The primary physical care of the child has changed to the other parent for 9 longer than six months.
- 10 4. A party seeking modification of a custody or parental responsibility order shall 11 serve and file moving papers and supporting affidavits and shall give notice to the 12 other party to the proceeding who may serve and file a response and opposing 13 affidavits. The court shall consider the motion on briefs and without oral argument
