

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSEFifty-seventh Legislative Assembly

* * * * *

Bismarck, March 19, 2001

The House convened at 1:00 p.m., with Speaker Bernstein presiding.

The prayer was offered by Pastor Bruce Vold, Trinity Lutheran Church, Carrinton.

The roll was called and all members were present except Representatives Fairfield, R. Kelsch, Kempenich, Kliniske, and Nicholas.

A quorum was declared by the Speaker.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

REP. TIEMAN: Mr. Speaker: I rise on a point of personal privilege and request that my remarks be printed in the Journal.

REQUEST

REP. TIEMAN REQUESTED that his remarks be printed in the Journal, which request was granted.

Congratulations to the North Border Eagles on winning the Class B Boys Basketball Championship.

We are proud of these young people who showed that hard work, good sportsmanship, and dedication to team plan can result in a victory for all of us.

The North Border Eagles are a first-year basketball cooperative of the three communities of Walhalla, Neche, and Pembina in the Northeast corner of our great state.

They were a balanced team as evidenced not only by their good play, but also by their representation from all three communities. The six main players who show this balance are Warren Eagen and Nathan Carriere from Walhalla, Aaron Bonaime and Dennis Delude who attend Neche High, and Jason Tryan and Matt Defoe are students at Pembina. The Head coach, David "Cooter" Symington, is a Neche farmer while one assistant is from Walhalla and the other is from Pembina.

Congratulations as well to the Eagles on earning the Sportsmanship Banner and the State Tourney Spirit Award. Selected to the All Tournament Team were Aaron Bonaime, Nathan Carriere, and Dennis Delude.

The Eagles dedicated their season in memory of Denae Stegman, the mother of reserve forward Travis, and cheerleader Nicole. Denae lost her four year battle with cancer last month. Players, coaches, cheerleaders, and fans wore pink ribbons in her memory through the conclusion of the regular season and into the tournament play. As Denae looks down from Heaven, imagine the pride that she has for her Eagles.

I commend the entire team, Coach Symington, the students, and the fans in all three communities. You are an inspiration to all participants and fans of North Dakota High School Athletics.

"SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. If House Bill No. 1126 becomes effective, section 43-10.1-03.1 of the North Dakota Century Code, as created by section 3 of House Bill No. 1126, as approved by the fifty-seventh legislative assembly, is amended and reenacted as follows:

43-10.1-03.1. Payments on pre-need funeral contracts to be deposited - Depository shall keep record of deposit - Personal property storage. Whenever payments are made to any person upon pre-need funeral service contracts, one hundred percent of the funds collected under the contracts for the sale of professional service or personal property to be used in funeral services and fifty percent of the funds collected under the contracts for the sale of cemetery merchandise must be deposited in or transferred to a trust company in this state or to a federally insured bank, credit union, or savings and loan association in this state, within ten days. The deposit must be placed in a federal deposit insurance corporation or national credit union administration insured certificate of deposit or negotiable debt obligation of the United States government. Payments received from the sale of professional service or personal property to be used in funeral services or cemetery merchandise which cannot or would not be serviced by a licensed funeral establishment or cemetery association in the area where the service or property was sold are specifically included, whether or not the sales might otherwise be considered pre-need funeral service contracts, within the payments to be deposited under this section. The funds may be released or transferred by the bank, credit union, savings and loan association, or trust company to the depositor upon the death of the person for whose benefit the funds were paid. A certified copy of the certificate of death must be furnished to the bank, credit union, savings and loan association, or trust company as prima facie evidence of death. The funds may be released or transferred by the bank, credit union, savings and loan association, or trust company to the person making the payment, before the death of the person for whose benefit the funds are paid, upon a five-day written notice by registered or certified mail made by the bank, credit union, savings and loan association, or trust company to the depositor or transferor at the request of the person making the payment. Upon written request, however, a purchaser of a pre-need funeral service contract may make a certain amount of the pre-need funds irrevocable. The irrevocable amount may not exceed the amount of the allowable asset exclusion used for determining eligibility for medical assistance under section 50-24.1-02.3 at the time the contract is entered. A purchaser of a pre-need funeral service contract has forty-five days from entering the contract to cancel the irrevocable part of the contract by giving notice to the cemetery association or licensed funeral establishment with whom the contract was entered. Any pre-need funeral service contract held by a cemetery association or a licensed funeral establishment must be fully transferable to another cemetery association or funeral establishment licensed under chapter 43-10 or a substantially similar law of another jurisdiction which agrees to accept the obligations.

A bank, credit union, savings and loan association, or trust company receiving such a deposit or transfer shall keep a complete record of the deposit or transfer, showing the name of the depositor or transferor, name of the person making payment, name of the person for whose benefit payment is made, and any other pertinent information.

Any personal property to be used in funeral services or cemetery merchandise which is sold to a purchaser on the basis that it will be identified and marked as belonging to such purchaser, and stored or warehoused for the purchaser, must be stored or warehoused at some location within this state."
