POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

SEN. TRENBEATH REQUESTED that his remarks be printed in the Journal, which request was granted.

REMARKS OF SENATOR TRENBEATH

The Neche Indians, the Pembina Wildcats, The Walhalla Eagles - all names of sports teams of the past, and all of which were rivals during my high school years. We were class "C" in those days, and became Class "B" during the Sixties. In the Eighties, circumstances and a cooperative spirit made the Indians and the Wildcats into the North Border Bandits. This season the Eagles and the Bandits became the North Border Eagles. A first season and the pressures of treating everybody fairly would indicate a building year was at hand. On top of it all, the coach was only a part-time coach and full-time, multigenerational farmer. Petty jealousies never surfaced, but a cooperative spirit did.

Unnoticed, unheralded, respected only one game at a time, the North Border Eagles overcame the one hundred or so years of small town, interschool rivalries and found themselves regional champs with a ticket to the biggest show in North Dakota sports - the State Class "B" Basketball Tournament. Unranked but thrilled at just being "at the show", they met the defending state champs in the first round and prevailed. The balanced attack held together through the second round, and finally, this past Saturday night, the unranked North Border Eagles of Neche, Walhalla, and Pembina topped the number one ranked Cando Cubs to become champions of, arguably, the most popular sport in North Dakota. I offer my congratulations to Coach David "Cooter" Symington, his players and staff, the cheerleaders and their coach, and finally, to the people of Pembina, Neche, and Walhalla, who have once again demonstrated how cooperation leads to results. Thank you, Mr. President.

HOUSE AMENDMENTS TO ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2444

"SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Section 12.1-32-09 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

12.1-32-09. Dangerous special offenders - Habitual offenders - Extended sentences - Procedure.

1. A court may sentence a convicted offender to an extended sentence as a dangerous special offender or a habitual offender in accordance with ~~the provisions of~~ this section upon a finding of any one or more of the following:
 - a. The convicted offender is a dangerous, mentally abnormal person. ~~The court may not make such a finding unless the presentence report, including a psychiatric examination, concludes that the offender's~~ whose conduct has been characterized by persistent aggressive behavior, ~~and that such~~ the behavior makes the offender a serious danger to other persons.
 - b. The convicted offender is a professional criminal. ~~The court may not make such a finding unless the offender is an adult and the presentence report shows that the offender who~~ who has substantial income or resources derived from criminal activity.
 - c. The convicted offender is a habitual offender. The court may not make such a finding unless the offender is an adult and has previously been convicted in any state or states or by the United States of two felonies of class C or above committed at different times when the offender was an adult. For the purposes of this subdivision, a felony conviction in another state or under the laws of the United States ~~shall be~~ is considered a felony of class C or above if it is punishable by a maximum term of imprisonment of five years or more.
 - d. The offender was convicted of an offense ~~which~~ that seriously endangered the life of another person and the offender had previously been convicted of a similar offense.
 - e. The offender is especially dangerous because the offender used a firearm, dangerous weapon, or destructive device in the commission of the offense or during the flight therefrom.

A conviction shown on direct or collateral review or at the hearing to be invalid or for which the offender has been pardoned on the ground of innocence must be disregarded for purposes of subdivision c. In support of findings under subdivision b, it may be shown that the offender has had control of income or property not explained as derived from a source other than criminal activity. For purposes of subdivision b, a substantial source of income means a source of income which for any period of one year or more exceeds the minimum wage, determined on the basis of a forty-hour week and a fifty-week year, without reference to exceptions, under section 6(a)(1) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended, for an employee engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce, and which for the same period exceeds fifty percent of the offender's declared adjusted gross income under chapter 57-38.

2. The extended sentence may be imposed in the following manner:
 - a. If the offense for which the offender is convicted is a class A felony, the court may impose a sentence up to a maximum of life imprisonment.
 - b. If the offense for which the offender is convicted is a class B felony, the court may impose a sentence up to a maximum of imprisonment for twenty years.
 - c. If the offense for which the offender is convicted is a class C felony, the court may impose a sentence up to a maximum of imprisonment for ten years.
3. Whenever an attorney charged with the prosecution of a defendant in a court of this state for an alleged felony committed when the defendant was over the age of eighteen years has reason to believe that the defendant is a dangerous special offender or a habitual offender, the attorney, at a reasonable time before trial or acceptance by the court of a plea of guilty, may sign and file with the court, and may amend, a notice specifying that the defendant is a dangerous special offender or a habitual offender who upon conviction for the felony is subject to the imposition of a sentence under subsection 2, and setting out with particularity the reasons why the attorney believes the defendant to be a dangerous special offender or a habitual offender. In no case may the fact that the prosecuting attorney is seeking sentencing of the defendant as a dangerous special offender or a habitual offender be disclosed to the jury before a verdict. If the court finds that the filing of the notice as a public record may prejudice fair consideration of a pending criminal matter, ~~it the court~~ may order the notice sealed and the notices ~~shall~~ is not ~~be~~ subject to subpoena or public inspection during the pendency of ~~such~~ the criminal matter, except on order of the court, but ~~shall be~~ is subject to inspection by the defendant alleged to be a dangerous special offender or a habitual offender and the offender's counsel.
4. Upon any plea of guilty, or verdict or finding of guilt of the defendant of such felony, a hearing must be held, before sentence is imposed, ~~by the court sitting without a jury.~~ in accordance with this subsection as follows:
 - a. By a jury, or the court if a jury is waived by the defendant, if the notice alleges that the defendant is a dangerous special offender under subdivision a, b, d, or e of subsection 1. The jury, or the court if a jury is waived, must find that the defendant is a dangerous special offender under one or more of these subdivisions by proof beyond a reasonable doubt. However, in the case of a notice alleging only subdivision e of subsection 1, the trial jury, or the trial court if a jury is waived, may make a special finding of proof of this subdivision without an additional hearing subsequent to a verdict or finding of guilt.
 - b. By the court if the notice alleges that the defendant is a habitual offender under subdivision c of subsection 1. The court must find that the defendant is a habitual offender by a preponderance of the evidence.
5. Except in the most extraordinary cases, the court shall obtain a presentence report and may receive a diagnostic testing report under subsection 5 of section 12.1-32-02 before holding a hearing under this subsection. The court shall fix a time for the hearing and notice thereof must be given to the defendant and the prosecution at least five days prior thereto. The court shall permit the prosecution and counsel for the defendant, or the defendant if the defendant is not represented by counsel, to inspect the presentence report sufficiently ~~prior to~~ before the hearing as to afford a reasonable opportunity for verification. In extraordinary cases, the court may withhold material not relevant to a proper sentence, diagnostic opinion which that might seriously disrupt a program of rehabilitation, any source of information obtained on a promise of confidentiality, and material previously disclosed in open court. A court withholding all or part of a presentence report shall inform the parties of its action and place in the record the reasons therefor. The court may require parties inspecting all or part of a presentence report to give notice of any part thereof intended to be controverted. In connection with the hearing, the defendant is entitled to compulsory process and cross-examination of such witnesses as appear at the hearing. A duly authenticated copy of a former judgment or commitment is prima facie evidence of such former judgment or commitment. ~~If it appears by a preponderance of the information, including information submitted during the trial of such felony and the sentencing hearing and so much of the presentence report as the court relies upon the jury or the court finds, after hearing, one or more of the grounds set forth in subsection 1, that the defendant is a dangerous special offender or a habitual offender, the court shall sentence the defendant to imprisonment for an appropriate term within the limits specified in subsection 2. The court shall place in the record its findings including an identification of the information relied upon in making such findings and its reasons for the sentence imposed.~~"

SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Section 50-25.1-11 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

50-25.1-11. Confidentiality of records - Authorized disclosures. All reports made under this chapter, as well as any other information obtained, are confidential and must be made available to:

1. A physician who has before the physician a child whom the physician reasonably suspects may have been abused or neglected.
2. A person who is authorized to place a child in protective custody and has before the person a child whom the person reasonably suspects may have been abused or neglected and the person requires the information in order to determine whether to place ~~such~~the child in protective custody.
3. Authorized staff of the department, appropriate county social service boards, and appropriate state and local child protection team members.
4. Any person who is the subject of a report; provided, however, that the identity of persons reporting under this chapter is protected.
5. Public officials and their authorized agents who requires~~such~~ the information in connection with the discharge of their official duties.
6. A court whenever ~~#~~ the court determines that the information is necessary for the determination of an issue before the court.
7. A person engaged in a bona fide research purpose; provided, however, that no information identifying the subjects of a report is made available to the researcher unless the information is absolutely essential to the research purpose and the department gives prior approval.
8. A person who is identified in subsection 1 of section 50-25.1-03, and who has made a report of suspected child abuse or neglect, if the child is likely to or continues to come before the reporter in the reporter's official or professional capacity.
9. Parents or a legally appointed guardian of a child who is suspected of being, or having been, abused or neglected, provided the identity of persons making reports or supplying information under this chapter is protected. Unless the information under section 44-04-18.7 is confidential, when a decision is made that services are required to provide for the protection and treatment of an abused or neglected child, the department shall make a good-faith effort to provide written notice of the decision to persons identified in this subsection. The department shall consider any known domestic violence when providing notification under this section.
