20 compensation for services and related expenses of counsel appointed by the court 21 for a party and the supreme court shall pay reasonable compensation for a

23 travel expense of witnesses incurred in the proceedings under this chapter in the 24 amount and at the rate provided for in section 31-01-16. Expenses of the state

1 include the cost of any necessary transportation for medical and other 2 examinations and treatment of a child ordered by the court if the child is in the legal 3 custody of a state agency in which case the cost must be reimbursed to the county
4 by that state agency at the state mileage rate, excluding meals and lodging, plus 5 twenty-nine cents per mile.

- 6 3. If, after due notice to the parents or other persons legally obligated to care for and

15 SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Section 29-07-01.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is 16 amended and reenacted as follows:

17 29-07-01.1. Payment of expenses for defense of indigents - Reimbursement of 18 indigent defense costs and expenses - Indigent defense administration fund - Continuing 19 appropriation.

- 20 1. Lawyers appointed to represent indigent persons must be compensated at a 21 reasonable rate to be determined by the ~~court~~ office of administrative hearings.
22 Expenses necessary for the adequate defense of an indigent person, when 23 approved by the judge, must be paid by the state if the action is prosecuted in 24 district court and by the city in which the alleged offense took place if the action is 25 prosecuted in municipal court. The city shall also pay the expenses in any appeal 26 taken to district court from a judgment of conviction in municipal court pursuant to 27 section 40-18-19. A defendant requesting representation by appointed counsel, or 28 for whom appointed counsel without a request is considered appropriate by the 29 court, shall submit an application for appointed defense services. For an 30 application for appointed defense services in the district court, a nonrefundable 31 application fee of twenty-five dollars must be paid at the time the application is submitted. The district court may extend the time for payment of the fee or may waive or reduce the fee if the court determines the defendant is financially unable to pay all or part of the fee. If the application fee is not paid before disposition of the case, the fee amount must be added to the amount to be reimbursed under this section. Application fees collected under this subsection must be forwarded for deposit in the indigent defense administration fund established under subsection 4.

2. A defendant with appointed counsel, subject to this subsection, shall reimburse the state or city such sums as the state or city expends on the defendant's behalf.

a. At the time counsel is appointed for a defendant, the appointing court shall advise the defendant of the defendant's potential obligation to reimburse the appropriate governmental entity the amounts expended on behalf of the defendant.

b. Within ninety days after its judgment of conviction or after conclusion of an appeal of its initial judgment of conviction, the court that appointed counsel for the defendant shall notify the defendant and the prosecuting attorney of the amount of indigent defense costs and expenses the defendant is obligated to reimburse if able to do so and of the defendant's right to a hearing on the reimbursement amount. It is a rebuttable presumption that reasonable reimbursement of costs and expenses consists of seventy-five dollars per hour for appointed counsel services plus reasonable expenses. If the defendant requests a hearing within thirty days of receiving notice under this subdivision, the court shall schedule a hearing at which the basis for the amount to be reimbursed must be demonstrated. In determining the amount of reimbursement and method of payment, the court shall consider the financial resources of the defendant and the nature of the burden that reimbursement of costs and expenses will impose.

c. A defendant who is required to reimburse indigent defense costs and expenses and who is not willfully in default in that reimbursement may at any time petition the court to waive reimbursement of all or any portion of the costs and expenses. If the court is satisfied that reimbursement of the amount due will impose undue hardship on the defendant or the defendant's

1 immediate family, the court may waive reimbursement of all or any portion of 2 the amount due or modify the method of payment.

3 3. The state's attorney of the county or prosecuting attorney of the city in which the 4 alleged offense took place, if reimbursement has not been received, shall seek civil 5 recovery of any amounts expended on the defendant's behalf any time the state's 6 attorney or city attorney determines the person for whom counsel was appointed 7 may have funds to repay the state or city within six years of the date such amount 8 was paid on that person's behalf. A person against whom civil recovery is sought 9 under this subsection is entitled to all exemptions accorded to other judgment
10 debtors. The state's attorney may contract with a private sector collection agency 11 for assistance in seeking recovery of such funds. Before referring the matter to a 12 collection agency, the state's attorney shall notify the person who is the subject of 13 the collection action.

14 4. The indigent defense administration fund is a special fund in the state treasury.
15 The state treasurer shall deposit in the fund all application fees collected under 16 subsection 1. ~~All~~ Forty percent of the moneys in the indigent defense 17 administration fund are appropriated on a continuing basis to the judicial branch 18 office of administrative hearings to be used in the administration of the indigent 19 defense system and sixty percent of the moneys in the fund are appropriated on a 20 continuing basis to the judicial branch to be used for the collection of indigent 21 defense costs and expenses required to be reimbursed under this section.

22 SECTION 3. A new section to chapter 54-57 of the North Dakota Century Code is 23 created and enacted as follows:

24 Office of administrative hearings to contract for indigent defense services. The 25 office of administrative hearings shall establish and implement a process of contracting for the 26 legal counsel services for indigents which are required to be provided under applicable court 27 rules, sections 27-20-26, 29-07-01.1, and 29-32.1-05, and any other statute that requires the 28 appointment of state-funded legal services for indigents. The contracts for indigent defense 29 services must provide for the reimbursement for those expenses determined by the office of 30 administrative hearings to be reasonable and necessary for the adequate defense of indigent 31 persons. The office of administrative hearings also shall establish a process for determining

- 1 rates for those indigent defense services provided outside of the contracts. Periodically the
- 2 office shall review the application process for determining eligibility for indigent defense
- 3 services.
