Minutes:

Senator Karen Krebsbach, Chairman opens SB 2295. All senators present.

Senator Bercier introduces bill. It relates to filling of legislative officers and resignations. Last session we allowed opportunity of legislators after others resigned. This would have Governor call a special election for someone who resigns or dies.

Senator Dover: Is this identical to the House bill and do you know the status on that?

Senator Bercier: I do not know the status of that and I heard it was a mirror to that.

Senator Fairfield: I have heard that the house bill went down yesterday.

Senator Krebsbach: House action has nothing to do with what the Senate action takes.

Senator Krebsbach: This is language going back to what used to be the policy?

Senator Bercier: yes, it does go back to original language and it worked very well. vote was very close. Citizens have a right to hear who serves them.

Senator Krebsbach: We just heard a bill dealing with this. SB 2405 made some changes to the status that special elections can be called by petition as well as the governor.

Senator Bercier: It sounds like there is a lot of support for this. I would ask for a positive consideration.

Senator Dever: I think every member holds to this except when a seat is vacated. What are your thoughts on that?

Senator Bercier: Maybe I should have an amendment that would allow for an appointment during the session.
