SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Section 4-18.1-04 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

4-18.1-04. Milk marketing board.

1. There is ~~hereby~~ created a milk marketing board to consist of five members appointed by the governor. The board consists of one ~~person~~ individual who is a dairy farmer selling to a processor, who must be selected by the governor from two names submitted to the governor by the North Dakota milk producers association; one ~~person~~ individual who is a processor, who must be selected by the governor from two names submitted to the governor by the North Dakota dairy industries association; one ~~person~~ individual who is a retailer, who must be selected by the governor from two names submitted to the governor by the North Dakota association of food retailers; and two ~~persons~~ individuals must be selected by the governor who are consumers, and who are not otherwise engaged in the milk business. An appointee may not have held elective or appointive public office during the period of two years immediately preceding appointment and may not hold any other public office, either elective or appointive, during the term of office as a member of the board. Not more than three members of the board may, at the time of the appointment or thereafter during their respective terms of office, reside on the same side of a continuous line following the eastern boundaries of Bottineau, McHenry, Wells, Kidder, Logan, and McIntosh Counties.
2. The members of the board must be appointed within thirty days after passage and approval of this chapter. The term of office of one member expires on July 1, 1968; the term of office of one member expires on July 1, 1969; the term of office of one member expires on July 1, 1970; the term of office of one member expires on July 1, 1971; the term of office of one member expires on July 1, 1972; and each succeeding member holds office for a term of five years and until a successor has been appointed and qualified. Any vacancy must be filled by appointment by the governor.
3. Three members of the board constitute a quorum for the regular transaction of business. The board shall choose one of its members as the chairman, who shall hold office as a chairman for one year; provided, election as chairman does not interfere with the member's right to vote on all matters before the board.
4. The board shall determine the amount of compensation payable to each member of the board. The amount payable may not exceed seventy-five dollars per day plus reimbursement for expenses as provided by law for state officers, while attending meetings or performing duties directed by the board. A member's per diem payments may not exceed fifteen hundred dollars in any one year.

5. Each member of the board shall give bond conditioned for the faithful performance of the member's duties ~~in the manner required by law in the sum of five thousand dollars.~~
- ~~6.~~ The board shall employ a director who serves under the direction and at the pleasure of the board and whose qualifications, duties, and compensation must be determined by the board. The director shall serve as financial officer of the board and is authorized to accept money paid to the board in accordance with this chapter. ~~Before beginning employment, the director shall execute and file a bond in an amount as may be fixed by the board or as may be provided by law for public officers.~~
- ~~7.~~ 6. The board shall employ, in addition to the director, such assistants and employees, permanent and temporary, as may be necessary to carry out the duties and responsibilities of the board under this chapter. The board shall determine the qualifications, duties, and compensation of such employees. The board may employ a licensed attorney of the state of North Dakota as its legal counsel, who shall serve on a full-time or a part-time basis, and the board may obtain the services of such additional attorneys as it deems necessary. The board may also contract for auditing, economic research, and other technical services, whenever it determines that such services are needed.
- ~~8.~~ 7. All expenditures under this chapter must be paid from the receipts ~~hereunder~~ under this chapter. Meetings of the board must be held at least every sixty days at the call of the chairman or a majority of the board.

SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Section 4-23-07 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

4-23-07. State agency to keep accounts - Accounts to be credited ~~—Employees to be bonded.~~ The state agency shall provide for the keeping of full and accurate accounts showing all receipts and expenditures of moneys, securities, or other property received, held, or expended under ~~the provisions of this chapter and shall provide for the auditing of all such these accounts and for the execution of surety bonds for all employees entrusted with moneys or securities under the provisions of this chapter.~~

SECTION 3. AMENDMENT. Section 15-19-06 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

15-19-06. Special funds - Deposit of collections - Transfers from general fund appropriations.

1. A special operating fund for the division of independent study must be maintained within the state treasury and all income and fees collected by the division of independent study from any source must be remitted monthly by the director to the state treasurer and credited to the special operating fund. All expenditures from the fund must be within the limits of legislative appropriations and must be made upon vouchers, signed and approved by the technology director appointed by the educational technology council. Upon approval of the vouchers by the office of the budget, warrant-checks must be prepared by the office of management and budget. The state treasurer shall make periodic transfers upon order of the director of the office of management and budget from the division of independent study general fund appropriation to the special operating fund whenever its balance falls so low as to require supplementation.
2. The educational technology council may establish an administrative operational fund, of not to exceed ten thousand dollars, out of the special operating fund for the division of independent study. The administrative operational fund must be deposited in the Bank of North Dakota and may be drawn upon by the state director of the division of independent study for the payment of necessary expenses in the administration and operation of the division of independent study within the limits and rules prescribed by the educational technology council. The director shall submit a full, minute, and itemized statement of every expenditure made during the month to the council in accordance with the rules adopted by the council, and thereafter the council may periodically authorize additional transfers to the administrative operational fund, but the balance in the fund may never exceed ten thousand dollars, and any unencumbered balance at the end of any biennium must revert to the state treasury. The administrative operational fund may not be used to pay salaries or expenses of the director. ~~The council shall determine the amount of the bond to be posted by the director.~~

3. The educational technology council may establish a scholarship fund to provide financial grants to students enrolled in courses offered through the division of independent study. The scholarship fund may consist only of those funds specifically appropriated by the legislative assembly and property received by the council or the division of independent study as a gift, devise, or bequest. Any gift, devise, or bequest of property received by the council or division of independent study which is designated by the council and donor for the scholarship fund must be deposited in the scholarship fund at the Bank of North Dakota. The state director of the division of independent study may draw only on the interest earned by the scholarship fund for the award of scholarships within the limits and rules adopted by the educational technology council. The interest earned by the scholarship fund is appropriated to the division of independent study.
