SCR 4010 was declared adopted on a voice vote.

MOTION

SEN. O'CONNELL MOVED that the remarks of Sen. Nelson be printed in the Journal, which motion prevailed.

REMARKS OF SENATOR NELSON

Jim Ployhar was a true musician - writer, composer, arranger, singer, piano player, band director, comedian and historian.

If you ever played in a junior high band, you played music composed or arranged by James D. Ployhar. If you lived in Lakota, Valley City or Fargo, perhaps you played in one of his bands. Mr. Ployhar was a regular at the International Music Camp and kids loved to play his music and in his bands. Over his lifetime, it is estimated that he wrote over 800 compositions.

Jim founded, and for many years directed, the Fargo Theatre Big Band All-Stars. He arranged music from earlier years that was no longer in print and wrote scripts to keep the show flowing. He was also the original director of the Fargo Theatre Singers.

His band and singers performed annually at events such as Silent Movie Night at the Fargo Theatre, Valley City High School class reunions, Fargo Elks, NDSU alumni 50th anniversary, MeritCare talent fest, Dollars for Scholars events, service club charity shows, the Hjemkomst Center gala, Plains Art Museum grand opening, Life's Options, etc.

In 1975 the Legislative Assembly passed HB 1160, which designated James D. Ployhar's "Spirit of the Land" as the official state march (1975 Session Laws, Chapter 462). Mr. Ployhar had been commissioned by the North Dakota Band Director's Association to compose a march appropriate for official state functions. "Spirit of the Land" was played in the Capitol's Great Hall by the Jamestown High School Band on the day the bill passed the House of Representatives in February 1975. Once designated as the state march, "Spirit of the Land" was sent to a publisher. The title happened to be nearly identical to another march. As a result, the publisher requested that a new title be selected. Mr. Ployhar agreed to "The Flickertail", a concert march. In 1989 the Legislative Assembly finally officially approved the change. In 1989 he also wrote the "Centennial Overture" in honor of our state's celebration.

Last November, Valley City State University honored Jim as the first enrollee of the VCSU Music Hall of Fame. Although seriously ill, he made the trip to Valley City for the event.

James Ployhar died on January 2. He is survived by his wife, Ruth, 5 children, 11 grandchildren and 1 great grandson. His funeral was January 6. It was truly a celebration with a 9th grade band playing his music, "The Lord's Prayer" sung by a grandson and a mini-big band to lead him out to lead the eternal big band. As stated in media, "It was a grand celebration of Jim Ployhar's musical life".

We honor him today. Thank you for your vote of acclamation.

MOTION

SEN. CHRISTMANN MOVED that the rules be suspended and that SCR 4010 be messaged to the House immediately, which motion prevailed.
