Minutes: Senator Nething, Chairman

Relating to the commission on legal counsel for indigents.

Jean Delaney – Deputy Director on Legal Council for Indigents – See written testimony.

Senator Nething – Asks about the language the bill cleans up.

Delaney – The cleanup is using the party verses the defendant. So far there have been no problems. They represent parties so thought it would be appropriate to change the language.

Senator Fiebiger – Would like to know if the written policies are in place.

Delaney - Responds, yes they have policies and guidelines in place.

Senator Nething – Asks if there was a problem with the court trying to determine what indigent was.

Delaney – Said, on occasion courts have wanted to appoint an attorney that they have for indigent services to represent someone who has not been determined to be indigent and most likely isn't. Just difficult to deal with.

2009 TESTIMONY

HB 1146

HB 1146
Senate Judiciary Committee
February 16, 2009
Testimony of H. Jean Delaney
North Dakota Commission on Legal Counsel for Indigents

House Bill 1146 deals with a couple of changes to the Chapter that governs this agency. It clarifies that services are provided to "indigent" persons, and that determinations of indigency are made based on consistent standards across the state. It also cleans up the language in section 54-61-04 to provide that certain records regarding a "party," not just a "defendant" are confidential. The Commission provides indigent services to juveniles, and others, who are not technically "defendants."
