1 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

2 SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Section 1-02-06.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is
3 amended and reenacted as follows:

4 1-02-06.1. Journal entry rule - Presumption of validity of legislation. A bill or 5 resolution passed by the senate and the house of representatives of the legislative assembly as
6 evidenced by the journals of the senate and house is presumed to be the bill or resolution that
7 is signed by the presiding officers of the senate and house, presented to the governor, and filed
8 with the secretary of state. If there is a difference between versions of a bill, the legislative 9 council ~~staff~~ shall direct the publisher of the code to publish the law according to this section.
10 The law as published must be presumed valid until determined otherwise by an appropriate 11 court.

12 SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Subsection 2 of section 1-02-09 of the North Dakota
13 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

14 2. Whenever two or more concurrent resolutions, adopted during the same session of 15 the legislative assembly, propose to create or amend, or amend and repeal, the 16 same section of the Constitution of North Dakota, the secretary of state, in 17 consultation with the attorney general, shall determine if the proposals are 18 irreconcilable, and if they are irreconcilable, the resolution last adopted by the 19 legislative assembly, as determined by the legislative council ~~or its designee~~ must 20 be placed on the ballot for the appropriate election for approval or disapproval by 21 the electorate.

22 SECTION 3. AMENDMENT. Section 1-02-09.2 of the North Dakota Century Code is
23 amended and reenacted as follows:

24 1-02-09.2. Reconciliation of conflicting proposed amendments to the 25 constitution. If two or more concurrent resolutions propose to amend or create the same
26 section of the Constitution of North Dakota, and the proposed sections are reconcilable, the 27 legislative council, ~~or its designee~~, shall prepare a reconciled text and submit it to the secretary
28 of state for inclusion in the appropriate ballot.

29 SECTION 4. AMENDMENT. Section 4-05.1-19 of the North Dakota Century Code is
30 amended and reenacted as follows:

1 4-05.1-19. State board of agricultural research and education - Duties. Within the
2 policies of the state board of higher education, the state board of agricultural research and
3 education is responsible for budgeting and policymaking associated with the agricultural 4 experiment station and the North Dakota state university extension service. The state board of 5 agricultural research and education shall:

- 6 1. Determine the causes of any adverse economic impacts on crops and livestock
7 produced in this state;
- 8 2. Develop ongoing strategies for the provision of research solutions and resources 9 to negate adverse economic impacts on crops and livestock produced in this state;
- 10 3. Develop ongoing strategies for the dissemination of research information through 11 the extension service;
- 12 4. Implement the strategies developed under subsections 2 and 3, subject to 13 approval by the state board of higher education;
- 14 5. Develop, with the agricultural experiment station and the North Dakota state 15 university extension service, an annual budget for the operations of these entities;
- 16 6. Develop a biennial budget request and submit that request to the president of 17 North Dakota state university and the state board of higher education;
- 18 7. Maximize the use of existing financial resources, equipment, and facilities to 19 generate the greatest economic benefit from research and extension efforts and to 20 promote efficiency;
- 21 8. Annually evaluate the results of research and extension activities and expenditures
22 and report the findings to the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee and the state
23 board of higher education;
- 24 9. Advise the president of North Dakota state university regarding the recruitment, 25 selection, and performance of the vice president of agricultural affairs, the 26 extension service director, and the station director; and
- 27 10. Present a status report to the budget section of the legislative ~~council~~ executive 28 committee.

28 commissioner shall report to the legislative assembly or ~~a committee designated~~ 29 ~~by the legislative council~~ the findings of the commissioner.

30 SECTION 20. AMENDMENT. Section 28-32-03 of the North Dakota Century Code is
31 amended and reenacted as follows:

28-32-03. Emergency rules.

1. If the agency, with the approval of the governor, finds that emergency rulemaking is necessary, the agency may declare the proposed rule to be an interim final rule effective on a date no earlier than the date of filing with the legislative council of the notice required by section 28-32-10.
2. A proposed rule may be given effect on an emergency basis under this section if any of the following grounds exists regarding that rule:
 - a. Imminent peril threatens public health, safety, or welfare, which would be abated by emergency effectiveness;
 - b. A delay in the effective date of the rule is likely to cause a loss of funds appropriated to support a duty imposed by law upon the agency;
 - c. Emergency effectiveness is reasonably necessary to avoid a delay in implementing an appropriations measure; or
 - d. Emergency effectiveness is necessary to meet a mandate of federal law.
3. A final rule adopted after consideration of all written and oral submissions respecting the interim final rule, which is substantially similar to the interim final rule, is effective as of the declared effective date of the interim final rule.
4. The agency's finding, and a brief statement of the agency's reasons for the finding, must be filed with the ~~office of the~~ legislative council with the final adopted emergency rule.
5. The agency shall take appropriate measures to make interim final rules known to every person who may be affected by them.
6. An interim final rule is ineffective one hundred eighty days after its declared effective date unless first adopted as a final rule.

SECTION 21. AMENDMENT. Section 28-32-06 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

28-32-06. Force and effect of rules. Upon becoming effective, rules have the force and effect of law until amended or repealed by the agency, declared invalid by a final court decision, suspended or found to be void by the administrative rules committee, or determined repealed by the ~~office of the~~ legislative council because the authority for adoption of the rules is repealed or transferred to another agency.

1 SECTION 22. AMENDMENT. Section 28-32-07 of the North Dakota Century Code is
2 amended and reenacted as follows:

3 28-32-07. Deadline for rules to implement statutory change. Any rule change,
4 including a creation, amendment, or repeal, made to implement a statutory change must be
5 adopted and filed with the ~~office of the~~ legislative council within nine months of the effective
6 date of the statutory change. If an agency needs additional time for the rule change, a request
7 for additional time must be made to the legislative council. The legislative council may extend 8 the time within which the agency must adopt the rule change if the request by the agency is 9 supported by evidence that the agency needs more time through no deliberate fault of its own.

10 SECTION 23. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 28-32-10 of the North Dakota
11 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

- 12 1. An agency shall prepare a full notice and an abbreviated notice of rulemaking.
 - 13 a. The agency's full notice of the proposed adoption, amendment, or repeal of a 14 rule must include a short, specific explanation of the proposed rule and the 15 purpose of the proposed rule, a determination of whether the proposed 16 rulemaking is expected to have an impact on the regulated community in 17 excess of fifty thousand dollars, identify at least one location where interested 18 persons may review the text of the proposed rule, provide the address to 19 which written comments concerning the proposed rule may be sent, provide 20 the deadline for submission of written comments, provide a telephone number 21 at which a copy of the rules and regulatory analysis may be requested, and,
22 in the case of a substantive rule, provide the time and place set for each oral
23 hearing. The agency's full notice must be filed with the ~~office of the~~ legislative 24 council, and the agency shall request publication of an abbreviated
25 newspaper publication notice at least once in each official county newspaper
26 published in this state. The notice filed with the ~~office of the~~ legislative council 27 must be accompanied by a copy of the proposed rules.
 - 28 b. The abbreviated newspaper publication of notice must be in a display-type
29 format with a minimum width of one column of approximately two inches
30 [5.08 centimeters] and a depth of from three inches [7.62 centimeters] to four 31 inches [10.16 centimeters] with a headline describing the general topic of the proposed rules. The notice must also include the telephone number or address to use to obtain a copy of the proposed rules, the address to use and the deadline to submit written comments, and the location, date, and time of the public hearing on the rules.

SECTION 24. AMENDMENT. Section 28-32-15 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

28-32-15. Filing of rules for publication - Effective date of rules.

1. A copy of each rule adopted by an administrative agency, a copy of each written comment and a written summary of each oral comment on the rule, and the attorney general's opinion on the rule must be filed by the adopting agency with the ~~office of the~~ legislative council for publication of the rule in the North Dakota Administrative Code.
2. a. Nonemergency rules approved by the attorney general as to legality, adopted by an administrative agency, and filed with the ~~office of the~~ legislative council and not voided or held for consideration by the administrative rules committee become effective according to the following schedule:
 - (1) Rules filed with the legislative council from August sixteenth through November fifteenth become effective on the immediately succeeding January first.
 - (2) Rules filed with the legislative council from November sixteenth through February fifteenth become effective on the immediately succeeding April first.
 - (3) Rules filed with the legislative council from February sixteenth through May fifteenth become effective on the immediately succeeding July first.
 - (4) Rules filed with the legislative council from May sixteenth through August fifteenth become effective on the immediately succeeding October first.
- b. If publication is delayed for any reason other than action of the administrative rules committee, nonemergency rules, unless otherwise provided, become effective when publication would have occurred but for the delay.

- 1 c. A rule held for consideration by the administrative rules committee becomes
2 effective on the first effective date of rules under the schedule in subdivision a
3 following the meeting at which that rule is reconsidered by the committee.

4 SECTION 25. AMENDMENT. Section 28-32-17 of the North Dakota Century Code is
5 amended and reenacted as follows:

6 28-32-17. Administrative rules committee objection. If the legislative ~~council's~~
7 ~~executive committee's~~ administrative rules committee objects to all or any portion of a rule
8 because the committee deems it to be unreasonable, arbitrary, capricious, or beyond the 9 authority delegated to the adopting agency, the committee may file that objection in certified
10 form ~~in the office of~~ with the legislative council. The filed objection must contain a concise 11 statement of the committee's reasons for its action.

- 12 1. The ~~office of the~~ legislative council shall attach to each objection a certification of 13 the time and date of its filing and, as soon as possible, shall transmit a copy of the 14 objection and the certification to the agency adopting the rule in question. The 15 ~~office of the~~ legislative council also shall ~~also~~ maintain a permanent register of all 16 committee objections.
- 17 2. The ~~office of the~~ legislative council shall publish an objection filed pursuant to this 18 section in the next issue of the code supplement. In case of a filed committee
19 objection to a rule subject to the exceptions of the definition of rule in section 20 28-32-01, the agency shall indicate the existence of that objection adjacent to the 21 rule in any compilation containing that rule.
- 22 3. Within fourteen days after the filing of a committee objection to a rule, the adopting 23 agency shall respond in writing to the committee. After receipt of the response, the 24 committee may withdraw or modify its objection.
- 25 4. After the filing of a committee objection, the burden of persuasion is upon the 26 agency in any action for judicial review or for enforcement of the rule to establish 27 that the whole or portion thereof objected to is within the procedural and 28 substantive authority delegated to the agency. If the agency fails to meet its 29 burden of persuasion, the court shall declare the whole or portion of the rule
30 objected to invalid and judgment must be rendered against the agency for court costs. These court costs must include a reasonable attorney's fee and must be payable from the appropriation of the agency which adopted the rule in question.

SECTION 26. AMENDMENT. Section 28-32-18 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

28-32-18. Administrative rules committee may void rule - Grounds - Amendment by agreement of agency and committee.

1. The legislative ~~council's~~ executive committee's administrative rules committee may find that all or any portion of a rule is void if that rule is initially considered by the committee not later than the fifteenth day of the month before the date of the administrative code supplement in which the rule change is scheduled to appear. The administrative rules committee may find a rule or portion of a rule void if the committee makes the specific finding that, with regard to that rule or portion of a rule, there is:
 - a. An absence of statutory authority.
 - b. An emergency relating to public health, safety, or welfare.
 - c. A failure to comply with express legislative intent or to substantially meet the procedural requirements of this chapter for adoption of the rule.
 - d. A conflict with state law.
 - e. Arbitrariness and capriciousness.
 - f. A failure to make a written record of its consideration of written and oral submissions respecting the rule under section 28-32-11.
2. The administrative rules committee may find a rule void at the meeting at which the rule is initially considered by the committee or may hold consideration of that rule for one subsequent meeting. Within three business days after the administrative rules committee finds that a rule is void, the ~~office of the legislative council~~ shall provide written notice of that finding and the committee's specific finding under subdivisions a through f of subsection 1 to the adopting agency and to the chairman of the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee. Within fourteen days after receipt of the notice, the adopting agency may file a petition with the chairman of the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee for review by the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee of the decision of the administrative rules committee. If the adopting agency does not file a petition for review, the rule becomes void on the fifteenth day after the notice from the ~~office of the~~ legislative council to the adopting agency. If within sixty days after receipt of the petition from the adopting agency the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee has not disapproved by motion the finding of the administrative rules committee, the rule is void.

3. An agency may amend or repeal a rule or create a related rule if, after consideration of rules by the administrative rules committee, the agency and committee agree that the rule amendment, repeal, or creation is necessary to address any of the considerations under subsection 1. A rule amended, repealed, or created under this subsection is not subject to the other requirements of this chapter relating to adoption of administrative rules and may be published by the legislative council as amended, repealed, or created. If requested by the agency or any interested party, a rule amended, repealed, or created under this subsection must be reconsidered by the administrative rules committee at a subsequent meeting at which public comment on the agreed rule change must be allowed.

SECTION 27. AMENDMENT. Section 28-32-19 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

28-32-19. Publication of administrative code and code supplement.

1. The ~~office of the~~ legislative council shall compile, index, and publish all rules filed pursuant to this chapter in a publication which must be known as the North Dakota Administrative Code, in this chapter referred to as the code. The code also must ~~also~~ contain all objections filed with the ~~office of the~~ legislative council by the administrative rules committee pursuant to section 28-32-17. ~~The code must be printed or otherwise duplicated in looseleaf form.~~ The ~~office of the~~ legislative council shall revise all or part of the code as often as the legislative council ~~deems~~ determines necessary.
2. The ~~office of the~~ legislative council may prescribe a format, style, and arrangement for rules which are to be published in the code and may refuse to accept the filing of any rule that is not in substantial compliance therewith. In arranging rules for publication, the ~~office of the~~ legislative council may make such corrections in spelling, grammatical construction, format, and punctuation of the rules as ~~deemed~~

1 determined proper. The ~~office of the~~ legislative council shall keep and maintain a
2 permanent code of all rules filed, including superseded and repealed rules, which 3 must be open to public inspection during office hours.

- 4 3. The ~~office of the~~ legislative council shall compile and publish the North Dakota
5 Administrative Code supplement according to the schedule of effective dates of 6 rules in section 28-32-15.

7 a. The code supplement must contain all rules that have been filed with the 8 ~~office of the~~ legislative council or which have become effective since the 9 compilation and publication of the preceding issue of the code supplement.

10 b. The code supplement must contain all objections filed with the ~~office of the~~ 11 legislative council by the administrative rules committee pursuant to section 12 28-32-17.

13 e. ~~The code supplement must be printed or duplicated in the same style as the~~ 14 ~~code so as to permit changes to be inserted as pages in the code in lieu of~~ 15 ~~the pages containing superseded material and to permit additions to the code.~~

- 16 4. The ~~office of the~~ legislative council, with the consent of the adopting agency, may 17 omit from the code or code supplement any rule the publication of which would be 18 unduly cumbersome, expensive, or otherwise inexpedient, if the rule in printed or 19 duplicated form is made available on application to the agency, and if the code or 20 code supplement contains a notice stating the general subject matter of the 21 omitted rule and stating how a copy may be obtained.

- 22 5. The code must be arranged, indexed, and printed or duplicated in a manner to 23 permit separate publication of portions thereof relating to individual agencies. An 24 agency may print as many copies of such separate portions of the code as it may 25 require. If the ~~office of the~~ legislative council does not publish the code
26 supplement due to technological problems or lack of funds, the agency whose 27 rules would have been published in the code supplement shall provide a copy of 28 the rules to any person upon request. The agency may charge a fee for a copy of 29 the rules as allowed under section 44-04-18.

30 SECTION 28. AMENDMENT. Section 28-32-20 of the North Dakota Century Code is
31 amended and reenacted as follows:

28-32-20. Printing, sales, and distribution of code and code supplement.

1. The secretary of state shall distribute the code and code supplement and shall distribute copies of the code, revisions, and the code supplement without charge to the following:
 - a. Governor, one copy.
 - b. Attorney general, one copy.
 - c. Each supreme court judge, one copy.
 - d. Each district court judge, one copy.
 - e. Each county auditor of this state, for the use of county officials and the public, one copy.
 - f. Supreme court library, one copy.
 - g. State library, one copy.
 - h. Law library of the university of North Dakota, one copy.
 - i. Each of the five depository libraries in this state, one copy, upon request.
 - j. Secretary of state, one copy.
 - k. Legislative council, four copies.
 - l. Each member of the legislative assembly, one copy, upon request.
2. The ~~office of the~~ legislative council, each county auditor in the state, and the librarians for the supreme court library, the state library, the university of North Dakota law library, and the five depository libraries as designated according to subsection 1 and section 54-24-09 shall maintain a complete, current set of the code, including revisions and the code supplement.
3. The secretary of state shall make copies of and subscriptions to the code and code supplement available to any person upon payment of the appropriate subscription fee.
4. The ~~office of the~~ legislative council shall determine the appropriate fee for subscribing to the code and code supplement.
5. All fees collected by the secretary of state must be deposited in the general fund of the state treasury.

- 1 6. ~~The~~ If applicable, the administrative code, revisions to the administrative code, and
2 the code supplement must be considered sixth-class printing under sections
3 46-02-04 and 46-02-09.

4 SECTION 29. AMENDMENT. Subsection 3 of section 34-11.1-01 of the North Dakota
5 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

- 6 3. "Employee" means any person, whether employed, appointed, or under contract,
7 providing services for the state, county, city, or other political subdivision, for which 8 compensation is paid. "Employee" also includes a person subject to the civil 9 service or merit system or civil service laws of the state government, governmental
10 agency, or a political subdivision. "Employee" does not include:
11 a. A person elected to public office in the state or in a political subdivision.
12 b. A member of the legislative council ~~staff~~.
13 c. A person holding an appointive statutory office.
14 d. One deputy or principal assistant for each elected official or appointive
15 statutory official.
16 e. One secretary for each elected or appointive statutory official.
17 f. All members of the governor's staff.

18 SECTION 30. AMENDMENT. Subsection 2 of section 40-63-03 of the North Dakota
19 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

- 20 2. The department of commerce division of community services shall:
21 a. Review all applications for renaissance zone designation against the criteria
22 established in this section and designate zones.
23 b. Approve or reject the duration of renaissance zone status as submitted in an 24 application.
25 c. Approve or reject the geographic boundaries and total area of the 26 renaissance zone as submitted in an application.
27 d. Promote the renaissance zone program.
28 e. Monitor the progress of the designated renaissance zones against submitted 29 plans in an annual plan review.

- f. Report on renaissance zone progress to the governor and the legislative council ~~executive committee~~ on an annual basis until all designated zones expire.

SECTION 31. AMENDMENT. Section 44-04-18.6 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

44-04-18.6. Access to legislative records and information. The following records, regardless of form or characteristic, of or relating to the legislative council, the legislative executive committee, the legislative assembly, the house of representatives, the senate, or a member of the legislative assembly are not subject to section 44-04-18 and section 6 of article XI of the Constitution of North Dakota: a record of a purely personal or private nature, a record that is ~~attorney~~ legislative council work product or is ~~attorney-client~~ legislative council-client communication, a record that reveals the content of private communications between a member of the legislative assembly and any person, and, except with respect to a governmental entity determining the proper use of telephone service, a record of telephone usage which identifies the parties or lists the telephone numbers of the parties involved. This section does not apply to any record distributed at a meeting subject to section 44-04-19 and section 5 of article XI of the Constitution of North Dakota.

SECTION 32. AMENDMENT. Section 48-08-04 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

48-08-04. Use of legislative assembly rooms and halls. During the interim between legislative sessions, the committee rooms, halls, passageways, and other space in the capitol used by the legislative assembly may not be used without authorization of the legislative council ~~or its designee~~.

SECTION 33. AMENDMENT. Section 48-10-01 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

48-10-01. Capitol grounds planning commission. The capitol grounds planning commission consists of the lieutenant governor as chairman and eight other members selected biennially as provided in this section. The governor shall appoint two citizens, one licensed architect, and one representative from the state historical society as members, the president of the senate shall appoint two senators as members, and the speaker of the house of representatives shall appoint two representatives as members. Appointment to the commission

1 is for a term of two years. Legislative and citizen members of the planning commission are
2 entitled to per diem payments and expenses in such amount and in the same manner as
3 provided by law for members of the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee.

4 SECTION 34. AMENDMENT. Subsection 4 of section 49-23-03 of the North Dakota
5 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

- 6 4. A nonprofit corporation shall govern the notification center. The initial 7 incorporators of the corporation may solicit bids for any services provided for the 8 operation of the center. The corporation shall provide advance notice of the first 9 organizational meeting by publication in qualified legal newspapers and in 10 appropriate trade journals and by written notice to all appropriate trade 11 associations.
- 12 a. The nonprofit corporation must be incorporated by seventeen initial 13 incorporators, with one member representing the house of representatives
14 and one member representing the senate appointed by the legislative ~~council~~
15 executive committee, one member representing telecommunications
16 companies offering local exchange service to fewer than fifty thousand
17 subscribers, one member representing telecommunications companies
18 offering local exchange service to fifty thousand or more subscribers, one 19 member representing rural water systems, one member representing rural 20 electric cooperatives, one member representing investor-owned electric
21 utilities, one member representing investor-owned natural gas utilities, one 22 member representing cable television systems, one member representing 23 cities with a population of fewer than five thousand, one member representing 24 cities with a population of at least five thousand, one member representing 25 counties, one member representing underground interstate carriers of gas,
26 one member representing interstate carriers of petroleum, one member
27 representing interstate carriers of telecommunications services, one member
28 representing contractors who perform excavation services, and one member 29 representing the production sector of the American petroleum institute. The 30 initial incorporators must represent and be designated by operators, 31 excavators, and other persons eligible to participate in the center. The legislative members are entitled to the same compensation and expenses as provided for members of committees of the legislative council. The legislative council shall pay the compensation for the legislative members.

b. The initial incorporators shall establish, before August 1, 1996, a board of directors of the nonprofit corporation which consists of eight members representing the participants in the center. The board shall establish a competitive bidding procedure to select a vendor to provide the notification service, establish a procedure by which members of the center share the costs of the center on a fair, reasonable, and nondiscriminatory basis, and do all other things necessary to implement the purpose of the center. Any agreement between the center and a vendor for the notification service may be modified from time to time by the board, and any agreement shall be reviewed by the board at least once every three years, with an opportunity to receive new bids, if desired, by the board. An operator may submit a bid and be selected to contract to provide the notification center service.

c. Members of the board and any of its agents are immune from any liability of any kind based on any acts or omissions in the course of the performance of responsibilities in an official capacity except for bodily injury arising out of accidents caused by or contributed to by the negligence of the board member or agent.

d. The board shall aid the state's attorneys of the various counties in the enforcement of this chapter and the prosecution of any violations. The board may institute a civil action for an injunction to enjoin violations of this chapter without proof that anyone suffered actual damages.

e. The notification center must be in operation by March 1, 1998.

SECTION 35. AMENDMENT. Subsections 3 and 4 of section 50-09-29 of the North Dakota Century Code are amended and reenacted as follows:

3. If the department of human services determines, subject to the approval of the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee, that there is insufficient worker opportunity, due to increases in the unemployment rate, to participate in work activities, the department may administer the temporary assistance for needy families program in a manner different than provided in subsection 1.

4. If the department of human services determines, subject to the approval of the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee, that administration of the temporary assistance for needy families program, in the manner provided by subsection 1, causes otherwise eligible individuals to become a charge upon the counties under chapter 50-01, the department may administer the program in a manner that avoids that result.

SECTION 36. AMENDMENT. Section 52-02-18 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

52-02-18. Independent performance audit. The state auditor ~~shall~~, upon request of the legislative audit and fiscal review committee, shall cause a performance audit of job service North Dakota to be conducted within twelve months after receipt of the request. The state auditor may appoint an independent audit firm, with extensive expertise in job service practices and standards, to complete a performance audit or the state auditor may conduct the performance audit. If the state auditor completes the audit, the state auditor may contract with a consulting firm to aid in the state audit or to complete the audit and shall charge job service North Dakota for the audit, including the services of the consulting firm. The executive director of job service North Dakota and the auditor shall present the audit report and any action taken as a result of the audit to the ~~legislative council's~~ legislative audit and fiscal review committee and to the house and senate industry, business and labor standing committees during the next regular session of the legislative assembly following the audit.

SECTION 37. AMENDMENT. Section 54-03-02 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

54-03-02. When legislative assembly meets.

1. The legislative assembly shall meet at the seat of government in the month of December following the election of the members thereof for organizational and orientation purposes and shall thereafter recess until the time provided in subsection 2.
2. The legislative assembly shall reconvene at twelve noon on the first Tuesday after the third day in January of the year following the organizational session as provided in subsection 1 or at twelve noon on a date selected by the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee but not earlier than January second nor later than January eleventh of the year following the organizational session and, following the close of business of the regular session, shall adjourn subject to subsection 3.

3. Notwithstanding a motion to adjourn sine die, the legislative assembly shall reconvene as determined by the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee. The number of natural days used may not exceed the number of natural days available under the constitution which have not been previously used by that legislative assembly in regular session under subsection 2.

SECTION 38. AMENDMENT. Section 54-03-04 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

54-03-04. Organizational session - Calling to order - Officers - Term of office - Officers and chairmen to remain in office during special session. The secretary and officers of the senate and chief clerk and officers of the house serving at the close of a regular session, unless otherwise removed, shall remain in office until the first day of the organizational session. On the first day of the organizational session, at a time scheduled by the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee pursuant to section 54-03.1-02, the president of the senate and the speaker of the house from the previous session, if reelected, or in the speaker's absence a member of the majority party of the house with seniority based upon terms of service in the house, shall call the members of their respective houses so enrolled to order. In the absence of the president of the senate, the president pro tempore shall call the members of the senate to order. In the absence of both the president of the senate and the president pro tempore, then some member or other person selected by the members present shall call the members of the senate to order. If the speaker of the house from the previous session is not reelected and if no party has a majority in the house, the member of the house with seniority based upon terms of service in the house shall call the house to order. If two or more members of the house are tied for seniority and seniority is a factor in determining who shall call the house to order, the persons so tied for seniority shall draw lots to determine who shall call the house to order. The members of the respective houses then may proceed to the election of the necessary officers. The secretary and officers of the senate and chief clerk and officers of the house of representatives, and the chairmen of all procedural and substantive standing

1 legislative committees shall continue to serve in those positions during any special legislative
2 session which may be called, except in case of the death, resignation, or removal of one of
3 those persons, whereupon the position must be filled, upon the convening of the special
4 session, in the manner provided by law or legislative rule. Members serving on procedural or 5 substantive standing committees of the senate or house during a regular session shall continue
6 to serve on those committees during any special legislative session which may be called 7 following that regular session.

8 SECTION 39. AMENDMENT. Section 54-03-19.2 of the North Dakota Century Code is
9 amended and reenacted as follows:

10 54-03-19.2. Meetings - Powers and duties - Expenses. The commission shall meet
11 at the call of the chairman as often as may be necessary, but at least once during each
12 biennium. The commission shall determine levels of legislative compensation, expense
13 allowance, and insurance benefits to be paid for service upon interim committees and during 14 legislative sessions, which permit citizens to hold legislative office without undue financial 15 sacrifice or disadvantage. In formulating recommendations, the commission may consult with 16 the leadership of the legislative assembly, and review compensation, expense allowance, and 17 insurance benefits for legislative service in other states and in other areas of state and federal 18 service and private industry. The commission shall report its findings and recommendations
19 regarding legislative compensation policy to the legislative assembly. The commission may file
20 with the legislative council a bill incorporating its recommendations. Members of the legislative 21 compensation commission must be compensated for time spent in attendance at meetings of 22 the commission and for other travel as approved by the chairman of the legislative ~~council~~
23 executive committee at the rate of sixty-two dollars and fifty cents per day and must be 24 reimbursed for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the same manner as other 25 state officials. The expense allowance must be paid from appropriations then in effect for the 26 legislative assembly. The commission may solicit the assistance of the ~~staff of the~~ legislative 27 council to provide information, aid, and assistance in carrying out its duties.

28 SECTION 40. AMENDMENT. Subsection 2 of section 54-03-20 of the North Dakota
29 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

- 30 2. a. Each member of the legislative assembly is entitled to receive reimbursement 31 for lodging, which may not exceed a maximum of nine hundred dollars per calendar month for lodging in state, at the rates and in the manner provided in section 44-08-04 for each calendar day during the period of any organizational, special, or regular session.

b. Notwithstanding subdivision a:

(1) A member of the legislative assembly may elect to be reimbursed for less than the amount to which the legislator is entitled under this subsection by claiming the lesser amount on a voucher submitted with the receipt required by section 44-08-04.

(2) The legislative ~~council~~ executive committee may establish guidelines that may result in a reduced maximum reimbursement for a single dwelling in which two or more legislators share lodging and the total rent for that dwelling exceeds the amount to which a legislator is entitled under subdivision a.

SECTION 41. AMENDMENT. Section 54-03-26 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

54-03-26. Personal computers and associated software used by legislators - Fee - Continuing appropriation. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a member of the legislative assembly who is assigned a computer may use that computer and its associated equipment and software for any use that is not in violation of section 16.1-10-02 upon payment of a computer usage fee established by the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee.

SECTION 42. AMENDMENT. Section 54-03-27 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

54-03-27. Service in the legislative assembly - Leave of absence from employment. The executive officer in charge of a state agency, department, or institution or the governing body of any political subdivision or any other employer in this state may grant a leave of absence from employment to a full-time employee of that governmental entity or of that employer who is a member of the legislative assembly for service during any regular or special session of the legislative assembly and for attendance at a meeting of the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee or any of its committees. The leave of absence may be without pay, and the employer may reduce or eliminate the payment of any additional benefits normally due the employee while the employee is performing legislative service. If the leave of absence is

1 granted, the employer may not terminate the employment of an employee solely due to the fact
2 that the employee is absent from employment as the result of service in the legislative 3 assembly.

4 SECTION 43. AMENDMENT. Section 54-03.1-02 of the North Dakota Century Code is
5 amended and reenacted as follows:

6 54-03.1-02. Time and place of meeting - Who must attend. In each even-numbered
7 year on the first Monday in the month of December or on a date selected by the legislative
8 ~~council~~ executive committee but not earlier than December first nor later than December
9 fifteenth, all persons elected at the previous November general election as members of the 10 succeeding legislative session, and members whose terms do not expire until the first day of 11 December following the next November general election, shall meet in the state capitol in the 12 city of Bismarck, or at such other place as may be designated, at a time designated by the 13 legislative ~~council~~ executive committee for the purpose of conducting an organizational 14 session. The legislative ~~council~~ executive committee shall call the organizational session and 15 the legislative council shall make such arrangements as may be necessary for its operation of 16 the session.

17 SECTION 44. AMENDMENT. Section 54-03.2-02 of the North Dakota Century Code is
18 amended and reenacted as follows:

19 54-03.2-02. Definitions. As used in this code:

- 20 1. "Hearing" means any meeting in the course of an investigatory proceeding, other 21 than a preliminary conference or interview at which no testimony is taken under 22 oath, conducted by an investigating committee for the purpose of taking testimony
23 or receiving other evidence. A hearing may be open to the public or closed to the 24 public.
- 25 2. "Investigating committee" means any of the following:
 - 26 a. A standing or select committee of either house of the legislative assembly.
 - 27 b. A joint committee of both houses.
 - 28 c. An authorized subcommittee of a legislative committee.
 - 29 d. The legislative ~~council~~ executive committee and any interim committee of the 30 ~~council~~ legislative executive committee if specifically designated by the ~~council~~ legislative executive committee as an investigating committee with subpoena powers.

- e. Any other body created by law, the members of which may include nonlegislators.

Investigating committees ~~shall~~ have the power to issue subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum in the manner provided for in section 54-03.2-08. Nothing in this chapter may be construed as in derogation of any power to issue subpoenas which is inherent in the legislative assembly or any of its committees.

3. "Public hearing" means any hearing open to the public or the proceedings of which are made available to the public.

SECTION 45. AMENDMENT. Section 54-05.1-02 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

54-05.1-02. Applicability - Meaning of lobbyist.

1. This chapter applies to any person who, in any manner whatsoever, directly or indirectly, performs any of the following activities:
 - a. Attempts to secure the passage, amendment, or defeat of any legislation by the legislative assembly or the approval or veto of any legislation by the governor of the state.
 - b. Attempts to influence decisions made by the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee or by an interim committee of the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee.
2. This chapter does not apply to any person who is:
 - a. A legislator.
 - b. A private citizen appearing on the citizen's own behalf.
 - c. An employee, officer, board member, volunteer, or agent of the state or its political subdivisions whether elected or appointed and whether or not compensated, who is acting in that person's official capacity.
 - d. Invited by the chairman of the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee, an interim committee of the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee, or a standing committee of the legislative assembly to appear before the ~~council~~

1 legislative executive committee, interim committee, or standing committee for
2 the purpose of providing information.

3 e. An individual who appears before a legislative committee for the sole purpose
4 of presenting testimony on behalf of a trade or professional organization or a 5 business or industry if the individual is introduced to the committee by the 6 registered lobbyist for the trade or professional organization or the business
7 or industry.

8 3. For the purposes of this chapter, persons required to register under this chapter 9 because of the performance of the activities described in subsection 1 must be 10 known as "lobbyists".

11 SECTION 46. AMENDMENT. Subsections 3 and 4 of section 54-06-25 of the North
12 Dakota Century Code are amended and reenacted as follows:

13 3. The commission shall meet at the call of the chairman as often as may be
14 necessary, but at least once during each year of the biennium. The commission
15 shall consider proper levels of compensation and fringe benefits for state
16 employees and make its recommendations on these issues to the governor in time
17 for consideration in preparation of the executive budget to be submitted to the next 18 legislative assembly. The commission shall also submit its recommendations to 19 the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee at the biennial meeting at which the 20 legislative ~~council~~ executive committee receives the reports of its interim 21 committees.

22 4. The members of the legislative assembly who are commission members are 23 entitled to receive compensation from the legislative council for each day in 24 attendance at commission meetings in the same manner as provided for members 25 of the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee and reimbursement from the 26 legislative council for travel and other necessary expenses incurred in performing 27 commission duties in the amounts provided for state employees under section
28 54-06-09. The state employee members of the commission are entitled to receive 29 reimbursement for necessary expenses incurred in attending commission 30 meetings at the rates provided for state employees under section 54-06-09 and 31 may not be assessed any annual leave or loss of salary for attendance at meetings of the commission. The employing agency of state employee members shall pay their expenses.

SECTION 47. AMENDMENT. Section 54-06-31 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

54-06-31. State employee recruitment and retention bonus programs - Criteria - Limitations. State agencies may develop programs to provide bonuses to recruit or retain employees in hard-to-fill occupations.

1. State agencies may pay recruitment and retention bonuses under this section only if:
 - a. The agency has a written policy in place identifying eligible positions or occupations and provisions for providing and receiving bonuses;
 - b. The agency has filed a copy of the written policy with the North Dakota human resource management services; and
 - c. The agency reports to the North Dakota human resource management services each bonus provided to an employee under the program.
2. State agencies must fund bonus programs from within the agency salaries and wages budget.
3. The North Dakota human resource management services shall report periodically ~~report to a legislative committee designated by the legislative council~~ executive committee on the implementation, progress, and bonuses provided under agency recruitment and retention bonus programs.
4. Bonuses paid under this section are not fiscal irregularities under section 54-14-03.1.

SECTION 48. AMENDMENT. Section 54-35-01 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

54-35-01. ~~Council~~ Legislative executive committee - Created - Members - Vacancy - Terms. The North Dakota legislative ~~council, in this chapter referred to as the legislative council or the council,~~ executive committee consists of the majority and minority leaders of the house and of the senate plus six senators and seven representatives chosen biennially before the close of each regular legislative session. In the house of representatives the speaker of the house shall appoint to the ~~council~~ legislative executive committee four

1 members recommended by the majority leader and three members recommended by the
2 minority leader, except that the speaker must by virtue of office be one of the four members
3 appointed from the speaker's faction. In the senate the lieutenant governor shall appoint to the 4 ~~council~~ legislative executive committee four members recommended by the majority leader and
5 two members recommended by the minority leader. Any vacancy occurring when the 6 legislative assembly is not in session must be filled by the selection of another member of the 7 legislative assembly belonging to the same faction as the member originally appointed, the 8 selection to be made by the remaining senate or house members of the ~~council~~ legislative
9 executive committee, depending upon which body has the vacancy. Each senator and each
10 representative chosen to serve on the ~~council~~ legislative executive committee shall serve until a 11 new ~~council~~ legislative executive committee has been selected at the next regular legislative 12 session; provided, however, that no senator, not a holdover, who is not reelected to the senate,
13 and no representative, who is not reelected to the house of representatives, may serve as a 14 member of the ~~council~~ legislative executive committee beyond the closing day of the term to 15 which elected. Any vacancy occurring because any member of the ~~council~~ legislative executive 16 committee is not reelected must be filled for the period from the beginning of the session until a
17 new ~~council~~ legislative executive committee is selected, in the same manner as the original
18 ~~council~~ legislative executive committee is selected.

19 SECTION 49. AMENDMENT. Section 54-35-02 of the North Dakota Century Code is
20 amended and reenacted as follows:

21 54-35-02. Powers and duties. In addition to the other applicable provisions of this 22 chapter, the ~~council~~ legislative executive committee has the following powers and duties:

- 23 1. To study, consider, accumulate, compile, and assemble information on any subject 24 upon which the legislative assembly may legislate, and upon such subjects as the 25 legislative assembly may by concurrent or joint resolution authorize or direct, or 26 any subject requested by a member of the legislative assembly; provided, that the 27 ~~council~~ legislative executive committee may screen and prioritize studies assigned 28 by concurrent or joint resolution to maintain its workload within the limitations of 29 time and legislative appropriations.
- 30 2. To collect information concerning the government and general welfare of the state
31 and of its political subdivisions.

3. To study and consider important issues of public policy and questions of general interest.
4. To study and promote uniformity of legislation in the United States upon subjects upon which uniformity is desirable and to ~~confer with the commissioners or similar groups appointed for the same purpose by any other state in drafting uniform laws to be submitted for the approval and adoption by the several states and through such member or members or council staff persons as the council may appoint to meet annually with the conference of commissioners on uniform state laws for the promotion of uniformity of legislation in the United States and join with it in such measures as may be deemed most expedient to advance the objects of such conference.~~ The council shall receive, review, and make recommendations on uniform and model laws recommended to it by the state commission on uniform state laws.
5. To prepare proposed bills and resolutions for consideration of the succeeding legislative assembly.
6. To call to its assistance other members of the legislative assembly, and it may create committees consisting of its own members, or one or more of its own members and one or more other members of the legislative assembly and delegate by written resolution to such committees such of its powers and rights as it may deem advisable. Committees of the ~~council~~ legislative executive committee may also include nonlegislator members. Any member of the legislative assembly has the right to attend any meeting of the ~~council~~ legislative executive committee and may present that member's views on any subject which the ~~council~~ legislative executive committee may at any particular time be considering.
7. To issue subpoenas or subpoenas duces tecum in the manner provided in sections 54-03.2-08 and 54-03.2-09. Committees of the ~~council~~ legislative executive committee may issue subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum in the same manner if specifically authorized by the ~~council~~ legislative executive committee. Failure to obey a subpoena issued by the ~~council~~ legislative executive committee, or one of its committees, is contempt.

8. To control the use of the legislative chambers and permanent displays in memorial hallway. Guidelines may be established pursuant to this subsection and the legislative council, or its designee, shall administer any guidelines ~~which~~ that are established.

9. To determine access to legislative information services and impose fees for providing legislative information services and copies of legislative documents. This authority may not be exercised in a manner that contravenes access to legislative documents as otherwise provided by law.

SECTION 50. AMENDMENT. Section 54-35-02.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

54-35-02.1. Legislative audit and fiscal review committee. For the purposes of studying and reviewing the financial transactions of this state; to assure the collection and expenditure of its revenues and moneys in compliance with law and legislative intent and sound financial practices; and to provide the legislative assembly with formal, objective information on revenue collections and expenditures for a basis of legislative action to improve the fiscal structure and transactions of this state, the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee shall ~~create~~ appoint the legislative audit and fiscal review committee. The members of the committee must be appointed in the same manner as other members of ~~legislative council~~ interim committees of the legislative executive committee.

SECTION 51. AMENDMENT. Section 54-35-02.2 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

54-35-02.2. Powers and duties of the legislative audit and fiscal review committee. ~~It is the duty of the~~ The legislative audit and fiscal review committee ~~to~~ shall study and review audit reports as selected by the committee from those submitted by the state auditor, confer with the auditor and deputy auditors in regard to such reports, and when necessary, ~~to~~ confer with representatives of the department, agency, or institution audited in order to obtain full and complete information in regard to any and all fiscal transactions and governmental operations of any department, agency, or institution of the state. Each department, agency, or institution shall furnish to the committee such aid, information, and assistance in regard to fiscal transactions and governmental operations as it may from time to time request. Whenever the committee may determine or have reason to believe that there may have been a violation of law relating to the receipt, custody, or expenditure of public funds by any state officer or employee, the committee shall present such evidence or information as may be in its possession to the attorney general. The attorney general shall receive and accept such evidence or information and shall immediately commence such additional investigation as the attorney general ~~deems~~ determines necessary. Upon completion of the investigation, if the evidence supplied by the committee and through the investigation indicates the probability of a violation of law by any state official or employee, the attorney general ~~shall~~ immediately shall prosecute such official or employee as provided by law. The legislative ~~council~~ executive committee, through its committee on legislative audit and fiscal review, or such persons as may be directed or employed by ~~it~~ the legislative council, is authorized, within the limits of legislative appropriations, to make such audits, examinations, or studies of the fiscal transactions or governmental operations of departments, agencies, or institutions of the state as ~~it~~ the legislative executive committee may ~~deem~~ determine necessary.

SECTION 52. AMENDMENT. Section 54-35-02.3 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

54-35-02.3. Employee benefits programs committee - Appointment - Selection of chairman. The legislative ~~council~~ executive committee, during each biennium, shall appoint an employee benefits programs committee in the same manner as the ~~council~~ legislative executive committee appoints other interim committees. The ~~council~~ legislative executive committee shall appoint five members of the house of representatives and four members of the senate to the committee. The ~~council~~ legislative executive committee shall designate the chairman of the committee. The committee shall operate according to the statutes and procedure governing the operation of other legislative ~~council~~ executive committee interim committees.

SECTION 53. AMENDMENT. Section 54-35-02.4 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

54-35-02.4. Employee benefits programs committee - Powers and duties.

1. The employee benefits programs committee shall consider and report on those legislative measures and proposals over which it takes jurisdiction and which affect, actuarially or otherwise, the retirement programs of state employees or employees of any political subdivision, and health and retiree health plans of state employees or employees of any political subdivision. The committee shall make a thorough review of any measure or proposal which it takes under its jurisdiction, including an actuarial review. The committee shall take jurisdiction over any measure or proposal that authorizes an automatic increase or other change in benefits beyond the ensuing biennium which would not require legislative approval. The committee must include in the report of the committee a statement that the proposal would allow future changes without legislative involvement. The committee shall report its findings and recommendations, along with any necessary legislation, to the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee and to the legislative assembly.

2. To carry out its responsibilities, the committee, or its designee, may:
 - a. Enter ~~into~~ contracts, including retainer agreements, with an actuary or actuarial firm for expert assistance and consultation. Each retirement, insurance, or retiree insurance program shall pay, from its retirement, insurance, or retiree health benefits fund, as appropriate, and without the need for a prior appropriation, the cost of any actuarial report required by the committee which relates to that program.
 - b. Call on personnel from state agencies or political subdivisions to furnish such information and render such assistance as the committee may from time to time request.
 - c. Establish rules for its operation, including the submission and review of proposals and the establishing of standards for actuarial review.
3. The committee may solicit draft measures and proposals from interested persons during the interim between legislative sessions, and may also study measures and proposals referred to it by the legislative assembly or the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee.
4. A copy of the committee's report concerning any legislative measure shall, if that measure is introduced for consideration by a legislative assembly, be appended to the copy of that measure which is referred to a standing committee.
5. A legislative measure affecting a public employees retirement program, public employees health insurance program, or public employee retiree health insurance program may not be introduced in either house unless it is accompanied by a report from the committee. A majority of the members of the committee, acting through the chairman, has sole authority to determine whether any legislative measure affects a program.

6. Any amendment made during a legislative session to a legislative measure affecting a public employees retirement program, public employees health insurance program, or public employee retiree health insurance program may not be considered by a standing committee unless it is accompanied by a report from the employee benefits programs committee.

7. Any legislation enacted in contravention of this section is invalid and of no force and effect, and any benefits provided under such legislation must be reduced to the level current prior to enactment.

SECTION 54. AMENDMENT. Section 54-35-02.5 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

54-35-02.5. Administrative rules committee. The legislative ~~council~~ executive committee, during each biennium, shall appoint an administrative rules committee in the same manner as the ~~council~~ legislative executive committee appoints other interim committees. The legislative ~~council~~ executive committee shall designate the chairman of the committee. The committee shall operate according to the statutes and procedure governing the operation of other legislative ~~council~~ executive committee interim committees. The membership of the administrative rules committee must include at least one of the members who served during the most recently completed regular session of the legislative assembly from each of the standing committees of either the house of representatives or the senate.

SECTION 55. AMENDMENT. Section 54-35-02.6 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

54-35-02.6. Rules reviewed by administrative rules committee - Committee responsibility. The administrative rules committee shall review administrative rules adopted under chapter 28-32. The committee shall consider oral and written comments received concerning administrative rules. The committee shall study and review administrative rules and related statutes to determine whether:

1. Administrative agencies are properly implementing legislative purpose and intent.

2. There is dissatisfaction with administrative rules or with statutes relating to administrative rules.

3. There are unclear or ambiguous statutes relating to administrative rules.

The committee may make rule change recommendations to the adopting agency and may make recommendations to the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee for the amendment or repeal of statutes relating to administrative rules. The committee's failure to review proposed rules prior to publication in the North Dakota Administrative Code does not prevent rules from taking effect. Except for action pursuant to section 28-32-17 or 28-32-18, the recommendations or opinions of the committee do not affect the legality of any rule as determined by the attorney general.

SECTION 56. AMENDMENT. Section 54-35-02.7 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

54-35-02.7. Garrison diversion overview. The legislative ~~council~~ executive committee is responsible for legislative overview of the Garrison diversion project and related matters and for any necessary discussions with adjacent states on water-related topics.

SECTION 57. AMENDMENT. Section 54-35-02.8 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

54-35-02.8. Legislative ethics committee. The legislative ~~council~~ executive committee, during each biennium, shall appoint an ethics committee to consider or prepare a legislative code of ethics. The committee may recommend legislation relating to legislative ethics. The committee shall operate according to the laws and procedures governing the operation of other legislative ~~council~~ executive committee interim committees.

SECTION 58. AMENDMENT. Section 54-35-03 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

54-35-03. State departments, officers, and employees to cooperate. Each department, board, commission, agency, officer, or employee in the state government shall furnish such information and render such assistance to the legislative council and to the legislative executive committee as the legislative council or the legislative executive committee or its committees; may from time to time request.

SECTION 59. AMENDMENT. Section 54-35-04 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

1 54-35-04. Meetings - When held - How called - Quorum. The ~~council~~ legislative
2 executive committee or committee appointed by it, may sit at such time and place as it may
3 deem advisable, but the ~~council~~ legislative executive committee shall meet at least once in 4 each year and shall meet at any time upon the call of the chairman or a call signed by seven
5 members of the ~~council~~ legislative executive committee. At any meeting of the ~~council~~
6 legislative executive committee, seven members constitute a quorum and a majority of such
7 quorum has the authority to act in any matter falling within the jurisdiction of the ~~council~~
8 legislative executive committee.

9 SECTION 60. AMENDMENT. Section 54-35-05 of the North Dakota Century Code is
10 amended and reenacted as follows:

11 54-35-05. Governor sending messages to meetings. The governor may send 12 messages to such meetings of the ~~council~~ legislative executive committee as the governor
13 ~~deems~~ determines advisable.

14 SECTION 61. AMENDMENT. Section 54-35-06 of the North Dakota Century Code is
15 amended and reenacted as follows:

16 54-35-06. Officers - Accept funds - Expenditures. The ~~council~~ legislative executive 17 committee shall select a chairman and a vice chairman from its own members and may 18 prescribe its own rules of procedure. ~~It~~ The legislative executive committee may appoint a 19 secretary who need not be a member, and shall appoint a director who must be in charge of the 20 ~~offices and staff of the~~ legislative council and who must be paid such salary as the ~~council~~
21 legislative executive committee may determine. The ~~council~~ director may employ such ~~other~~
22 persons and obtain the assistance of such research agencies as ~~it may deem~~ determined
23 necessary. The legislative executive committee and the legislative council ~~is authorized to~~ may 24 accept and use any funds made available ~~to it~~ through the terms of any agreement ~~that it may~~
25 ~~make~~ made with any agency whatsoever for the accomplishment of the purpose of this chapter.
26 Expenditures of funds made available ~~to the council~~ by legislative appropriation must be made
27 in accordance with rules or motions duly approved by the ~~council~~ legislative executive 28 committee.

29 SECTION 62. AMENDMENT. Section 54-35-07 of the North Dakota Century Code is
30 amended and reenacted as follows:

1 54-35-07. Records - Reports. The ~~council~~ legislative executive committee shall keep
2 minutes of its meetings and a record of all its transactions and shall at the beginning of each
3 biennial legislative session, and may at any other time, make a report of its activities and 4 recommendations to the members of the legislative assembly and to the governor.

5 SECTION 63. AMENDMENT. Section 54-35-08 of the North Dakota Century Code is
6 amended and reenacted as follows:

7 54-35-08. Recommended legislation may be required in advance. The ~~council~~
8 legislative executive committee may require that any recommendation for legislation, which is 9 to be presented by any department, board, commission, agency, officer, official, or employee of 10 the state desiring the consideration of the ~~council~~ legislative executive committee, be presented
11 to it at least sixty days in advance of any regular legislative session.

12 SECTION 64. AMENDMENT. Section 54-35-09 of the North Dakota Century Code is
13 amended and reenacted as follows:

14 54-35-09. Recommendations - When made public - Distribution. The 15 recommendations of the ~~council~~ legislative executive committee must be completed and made 16 public prior to any session of the legislative assembly at which such recommendations are to 17 be submitted; and a copy of ~~said~~ the recommendations must be ~~mailed~~ distributed to each
18 member-elect of the legislative assembly, to each elective state officer, and to the state law
19 library.

20 SECTION 65. AMENDMENT. Section 54-35-10 of the North Dakota Century Code is
21 amended and reenacted as follows:

22 54-35-10. (Effective through June 30, 2009) Compensation of members and 23 leadership.

- 24 1. The members of the ~~council~~ legislative executive committee and the members of 25 any committee of the ~~council~~ legislative executive committee are entitled to be 26 compensated for the time spent in attendance at sessions of the ~~council~~ legislative 27 executive committee and of its committees at the rate of one hundred eight dollars
28 per day and must also be paid for expenses incurred in attending said meetings
29 and in the performance of their official duties in the amounts provided by law for 30 other state officers.

2. In addition to the compensation provided in subsection 1, the chairman of the ~~council shall~~ legislative executive committee is entitled to receive an additional five dollars for each day spent in attendance at sessions of the ~~council~~ legislative executive committee and of its committees, and the chairman of each of the ~~council's~~ legislative executive committee's committees ~~shall~~ is entitled to receive five dollars for each day spent in attendance at sessions of the ~~council~~ legislative executive committee or of the committee which the person chairs.

7 ~~It~~ The legislative council shall, ~~through its own actions or through its staff~~, carry out such duties
8 or projects and provide such service and assistance to the legislative assembly or its 9 committees, the legislative executive committee or its committees, and members of the 10 legislative assembly as may be requested by concurrent resolution of the legislative assembly
11 or ~~deemed~~ determined necessary or desirable in assisting the legislative assembly or the 12 legislative executive committee in meeting its responsibilities and carrying out its duties during 13 the legislative session or the interim between sessions.

14 SECTION 67. AMENDMENT. Section 54-35-12 of the North Dakota Century Code is
15 amended and reenacted as follows:

16 54-35-12. Legislative budget analyst and auditor. The legislative ~~council~~ executive 17 committee shall appoint a legislative budget analyst and auditor. A person is not eligible for the 18 appointment unless the person holds a baccalaureate degree from a recognized institution of 19 higher learning, is a certified public accountant, or has had five years' experience in 20 government accounting. The appointment of the legislative auditor must be based upon 21 qualifications of eligible persons without reference to partisan politics. The salary of the 22 legislative budget analyst and auditor must be determined by the legislative council and it may 23 employ additional persons as necessary to carry out sections 54-35-12 through 54-35-14.

24 SECTION 68. AMENDMENT. Section 54-35-15 of the North Dakota Century Code is
25 amended and reenacted as follows:

26 54-35-15. Information technology program - Staff - Powers and duties.

- 27 1. The legislative council, ~~or its designee~~, shall provide information technology 28 research and staff services to the legislative branch. The services must be 29 provided in accordance with the existing statutory authority of the legislative
30 council and within the framework of its other staff services.

2. The legislative council ~~staff office~~ shall provide information technology services, and the council, or its designee, may hire such additional staff as are necessary, and set compensation for any additional staff within the limits of legislative appropriations.

3. The legislative council, ~~or its designee~~, shall structure the provision of information technology services and assistance to the legislative assembly and shall receive such cooperation and assistance from other state agencies as ~~it may~~ the council reasonably may request.

SECTION 69. AMENDMENT. Section 54-35-15.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

54-35-15.1. Information technology committee - Appointment. The legislative ~~council~~ executive committee, during each biennium, shall appoint an information technology committee in the same manner as the ~~council~~ legislative executive committee appoints other interim committees. The ~~council~~ legislative executive committee shall appoint six members of the house of representatives and five members of the senate to the committee. The chief information officer of the state is an ex officio, nonvoting member of the committee. The ~~council~~ legislative executive committee shall designate the chairman of the committee. The committee shall operate according to the statutes and procedure governing the operation of other legislative ~~council~~ executive committee interim committees.

17 ~~council~~ legislative executive committee appoints other interim committees. The ~~council~~
18 legislative executive committee shall appoint six members of the house of representatives, four
19 of whom must be from the majority political party and two of whom must be from the minority
20 political party, and six members of the senate, four of whom must be from the majority political 21 party and two of whom must be from the minority political party. The chairman of the legislative
22 ~~council~~ executive committee shall designate the chairman of the committee. The committee
23 shall operate according to the statutes and procedure governing the operation of other 24 legislative ~~council~~ executive committee interim committees. The committee shall study the 25 impact of a comprehensive energy policy for the state and the development of each facet of the 26 energy industry, from the obtaining of the raw natural resource to the sale of the final product in 27 this state, other states, and other countries. The study may include the review of and 28 recommendations relating to policy affecting extraction, generation, processing, transmission,
29 transportation, marketing, distribution, and use of energy, and the taxation of shallow gas to 30 reduce energy costs for all North Dakota residents.

1 SECTION 73. AMENDMENT. Section 54-35-22 of the North Dakota Century Code is
2 amended and reenacted as follows:

3 54-35-22. Workers' compensation review committee.

- 4 1. During each interim, a legislative ~~council~~ executive committee's interim workers'
5 compensation review committee must be appointed as follows: two members of 6 the senate appointed by the majority leader of the senate of the legislative 7 assembly; one member of the senate appointed by the minority leader of the 8 senate of the legislative assembly; two members of the house of representatives
9 appointed by the majority leader of the house of representatives; and one member 10 of the house of representatives appointed by the minority leader of the house of 11 representatives. The chairman of the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee shall 12 designate the chairman of the committee. The committee shall operate according 13 to the laws and procedures governing the operation of other legislative ~~council~~
14 executive committee interim committees. The committee may recommend 15 legislation relating to workers' compensation. The committee shall meet once
16 each calendar quarter or less often if the committee chairman determines a 17 meeting that quarter is not necessary because there are no claims to review.
- 18 2. The committee shall review workers' compensation claims that are brought to the 19 committee by injured workers for the purpose of determining whether changes
20 should be made to the laws relating to workers' compensation. A claim may not be 21 reviewed by the committee unless workforce safety and insurance has issued a 22 final determination and either the injured worker has exhausted the administrative 23 and judicial appeals process or the period for appeal has expired. In order for the 24 committee to review a claim, the injured worker must first sign a release of 25 information for constituent authorization to allow the committee and legislative 26 council ~~staff~~ to review the injured worker's workforce safety and insurance records
27 and to allow the committee members and workforce safety and insurance
28 representatives to discuss the records in an interim committee hearing.
29 Notwithstanding any open meeting requirements, except as otherwise provided
30 under this section, the workforce safety and insurance records of an injured worker
31 whose case is reviewed by the committee are confidential. However, pursuant to the constituent's authorization, information contained in the records may be discussed by the committee members and workforce safety and insurance representatives in an interim committee hearing.

3. The committee shall accept testimony of an injured worker and of a representative designated by the injured worker. After the committee has received the testimony of the injured worker and the injured worker's representative, the committee shall request that workforce safety and insurance provide testimony.

SECTION 74. AMENDMENT. Section 54-35-23 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

54-35-23. (Effective through July 31, 2009) Committee on tribal and state relations - Membership - Duties.

1. The committee on tribal and state relations is composed of seven members as follows:
 - a. The chairman of the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee or the chairman's designee;
 - b. Three members of the house of representatives, two of whom must be selected by the leader representing the majority faction of the house of representatives and one of whom must be selected by the leader representing the minority faction of the house of representatives; and
 - c. Three members of the senate, two of whom must be selected by the leader representing the majority faction of the senate and one of whom must be selected by the leader representing the minority faction of the senate.
2. The chairman of the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee or the chairman's designee, shall serve as chairman of the committee.
3. The committee shall meet at such times and places as determined by the chairman. The legislative council shall provide staffing for the committee.
4. The committee shall conduct joint meetings with the native American tribal citizens' task force to study tribal-state issues, including government-to-government relations, the delivery of services, case management services, child support enforcement, and issues related to the promotion of economic development. After the joint meetings have concluded, the committee shall meet to prepare a report on its findings and recommendations, together with any legislation required to implement those recommendations, to the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee.

5. The members of the committee are entitled to compensation from the legislative council for attendance at committee meetings at the rate provided for members of the legislative assembly for attendance at interim committee meetings and are entitled to reimbursement for expenses incurred in attending the meetings in the amounts provided by law for other state officers.

6. a. The native American tribal citizens' task force is composed of six members as follows:

- (1) The executive director of the Indian affairs commission, or the executive director's designee;
- (2) The chairman of the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe, or the chairman's designee;
- (3) The chairman of the Spirit Lake Tribe, or the chairman's designee;
- (4) The chairman of the Three Affiliated Tribes, or the chairman's designee;
- (5) The chairman of the Turtle Mountain Band of Chippewa Indians, or the chairman's designee; and
- (6) The chairman of the Sisseton-Wahpeton Sioux Tribe, or the chairman's designee.

b. If the executive director of the Indian affairs commission or any of the tribal chairmen appoint a designee to serve on the task force, only one individual may serve as that designee during the biennium. A substitute designee may be appointed by the executive director of the Indian affairs commission or a tribal chairman in the event of the death, incapacity, resignation, or refusal to serve of the initial designee.

SECTION 75. AMENDMENT. Section 54-35.2-01 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

54-35.2-01. Advisory commission on intergovernmental relations - Membership - Terms - Meetings.

1. The advisory commission on intergovernmental relations consists of twelve members:
 - a. The North Dakota league of cities executive committee shall appoint two members of the commission.
 - b. The North Dakota association of counties executive committee shall appoint two members of the commission.
 - c. The North Dakota township officers association executive board of directors shall appoint one member of the commission.
 - d. The North Dakota recreation and park association executive board shall appoint one member of the commission.
 - e. The North Dakota school boards association board of directors shall appoint one member of the commission.
 - f. The governor or the governor's designee is a member of the commission.
 - g. The legislative ~~council~~ executive committee shall appoint four members of the legislative assembly as members of the commission.
2. The legislative ~~council~~ executive committee shall designate the chairman and vice chairman of the commission.
3. All members of the commission shall serve for a term of two years, beginning July first of each odd-numbered year, and may be reappointed for additional terms.
4. If any member of the commission resigns or ceases to be a member of the class the member represents, that person's membership on the commission ceases immediately and the appropriate appointing authority may appoint a new member for the remainder of the term.
5. The commission shall meet at least semiannually.

SECTION 76. AMENDMENT. Section 54-35.2-02 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

54-35.2-02. Functions and duties. The advisory commission on intergovernmental relations shall:

1. Serve as a forum for the discussion of resolution of intergovernmental problems.
2. Engage in activities and studies relating to the following subjects:
 - a. Local governmental structure.

- b. Fiscal and other powers and functions of local governments.
 - c. Relationships between and among local governments and the state or any other government.
 - d. Allocation of state and local resources.
 - e. Interstate issues involving local governments, including cooperation with appropriate authorities of other states.
 - f. Statutory changes required to implement commission recommendations.
3. Present reports and recommended legislative bills to the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee for consideration in the same manner as ~~interim~~ legislative ~~council~~ executive committee interim committees.
 4. Prepare model ordinances or resolutions for consideration by officials of political subdivisions.

SECTION 77. AMENDMENT. Section 54-35.2-04 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

54-35.2-04. Finances.

1. A member of the advisory commission on intergovernmental relations who is a member of the legislative assembly is entitled to receive, from funds available to the commission, compensation per day for each day spent in attendance at commission meetings in the same amount as provided for members of the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee and reimbursement for travel and other necessary expenses incurred in the performance of official duties in the amounts provided by law for other state officers. Members of the advisory commission on intergovernmental relations who are appointed by an organization representing political subdivisions may be reimbursed for attendance at commission meetings by the organization by which they were appointed.
2. The commission may apply for, contract for, receive, and expend for its purposes any appropriation or grant from any public or private source.
3. Political subdivisions of the state may appropriate funds to the commission to share in the cost of its operations.

SECTION 78. AMENDMENT. Section 54-35.2-05 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

1 54-35.2-05. Reports. The advisory commission on intergovernmental relations shall
2 report its findings and recommendations and any proposed legislation necessary to implement
3 the recommendations to the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee at the time and in the 4 manner reports are made by interim committees of the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee.
5 The legislative ~~council~~ executive committee may accept, reject, or amend the report of the 6 advisory commission on intergovernmental relations. The legislative ~~council~~ executive 7 committee shall include the report, or any portion of it, as accepted, rejected, or amended, in 8 the ~~council's~~ legislative executive committee's final report. Copies of the report of the advisory 9 commission on intergovernmental relations, as accepted, rejected, or amended by the 10 legislative ~~council~~ executive committee, must be available to counties, cities, townships,
11 appropriate state departments and agencies, and the public.

12 SECTION 79. AMENDMENT. Subsection 3 of section 54-40-01 of the North Dakota
13 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

- 14 3. An agency, department, or institution of this state may enter an agreement with the 15 state of South Dakota to form a bistate authority to jointly exercise any function
16 that the entity is authorized by law to perform. Any agreement entered under this 17 subsection must be submitted to the legislative assembly or, if the legislative 18 assembly is not in session, to the legislative ~~council~~ or a executive committee
19 ~~designated by the legislative council~~ for approval or rejection and may not become 20 effective until approved by the legislative assembly or the legislative ~~council~~
21 executive committee.

22 SECTION 80. AMENDMENT. Section 54-44.1-12.1 of the North Dakota Century Code
23 is amended and reenacted as follows:

24 54-44.1-12.1. Implementation of legislative intent - Legislative objection to 25 execution of budget - Effect of objection.

- 26 1. The budget section of the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee may object to 27 any allotment made under section 54-44.1-12, any expenditure of a budget unit, or 28 any failure to make an allotment or expenditure if the budget section ~~deems~~ 29 determines that the allotment or expenditure or the failure to make an allotment or 30 expenditure is contrary to legislative intent as recorded in any reliable legislative 31 records. The budget section shall file that objection in certified form ~~in the office of~~

1 with the legislative council. The filed objection must contain a concise statement of 2 the budget section's reasons for the objection.

3 2. The ~~office of the~~ legislative council shall attach to each objection a certification of 4 the time and date of the filing of the objection and, as soon as possible, shall
5 transmit a copy of the objection and the certification to the director of the budget
6 and the affected budget unit. The ~~office of the~~ legislative council shall maintain a 7 permanent register of all objections under this section.

8 3. Within fourteen days after the filing of an objection, the affected budget unit shall 9 respond in writing to the budget section. After receipt of that response, the budget
10 section may withdraw or modify its objection.

11 4. After the filing of an objection, the burden of persuasion is upon the budget unit in 12 any action for judicial review of whether the allotment or expenditure or the failure
13 to make an allotment or expenditure is contrary to law. If the budget unit fails to 14 meet its burden of persuasion, the court shall render judgment against the budget
15 unit for court costs. These court costs must include reasonable attorney's fees and 16 must be payable from the appropriation of the budget unit.

17 SECTION 81. AMENDMENT. Section 54-52.1-08.2 of the North Dakota Century Code
18 is amended and reenacted as follows:

19 54-52.1-08.2. Uniform group insurance program - Compliance with federal
20 requirements - Group purchasing arrangements. If the board determines that any section 21 or the phraseology of any section of this chapter does not comply with applicable federal 22 statutes or rules, the board shall adopt appropriate terminology with respect to that section to 23 comply with the federal statutes or rules, subject to the approval of the legislative ~~council's~~ 24 executive committee's employee benefits programs committee. The board may assume 25 responsibility for group purchasing arrangements as provided by federal law. Any plan
26 modifications made by the board under this section are effective until the effective date of any 27 measure enacted by the legislative assembly providing the necessary amendments to this
28 chapter to ensure compliance with the federal statutes or rules.

29 SECTION 82. AMENDMENT. Section 54-55-01 of the North Dakota Century Code is
30 amended and reenacted as follows:

1 54-55-01. Commission on uniform state laws - Membership. The commission on
2 uniform state laws consists of an individual engaged in the practice of law in this state, the dean
3 or a full-time member of the faculty of the law school of the university of North Dakota, a
4 law-trained judge of a court of record in this state, a member of the house of representatives
5 and a member of the senate of the legislative assembly, and a member of the legislative
6 council ~~staff~~. The commission also consists of any residents of this state who, because of long
7 service in the cause of uniformity of state legislation, have been elected life members of the 8 national conference of commissioners on uniform state laws, and may also consist of any 9 residents of this state who have been previously appointed to at least five years of service on 10 the commission. Commissioners, except the members of the legislative assembly, the member
11 of the legislative council staff, and life members, must be appointed by the governor for terms
12 of four years each, commencing on the first day of September following each presidential 13 election, and shall serve until their respective successors are appointed. The members of the 14 legislative assembly on the commission must be appointed by the legislative ~~council~~ executive 15 committee for a term not to exceed four years as prescribed by the legislative ~~council~~ executive
16 committee, and the member of the legislative council ~~staff~~ must be appointed by the chairman
17 of the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee.

18 SECTION 83. AMENDMENT. Section 54-55-04 of the North Dakota Century Code is
19 amended and reenacted as follows:

20 54-55-04. Duties of commissioners and commission. Each commissioner shall 21 attend the annual meeting of the national conference of commissioners on uniform state laws
22 and shall promote uniformity in state laws on those subjects where uniformity may be deemed
23 desirable and practicable. The commission shall also promote as far as practicable the uniform
24 judicial application and construction of all uniform state laws. During the interim between 25 legislative sessions, the commission may submit its recommendations for enactment of uniform
26 and model laws to the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee for its review and 27 recommendation. Commissioners shall provide such assistance to the legislative ~~council~~
28 executive committee as the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee requests with respect to its 29 review of uniform and model laws. During each biennial legislative session, and at any other 30 time as the commission may deem proper, the commission shall report to the legislative 31 assembly an account of its transactions and its advice and recommendations for legislation.

- 1 The report must include the recommendations of the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee
2 with respect to uniform and model laws recommended by the commission.

3 SECTION 84. AMENDMENT. Section 54-58-03 of the North Dakota Century Code is
4 amended and reenacted as follows:

5 54-58-03. Tribal-state gaming compact - Creation, renewals, and amendments.

6 The governor or the governor's designee may represent the state in any gaming negotiation in
7 which the state is required to participate pursuant to 25 U.S.C. 2701 et seq. by any federally
8 recognized Indian tribe and, on behalf of the state, may execute a gaming compact between 9 the state and a federally recognized Indian tribe, subject to the following:

- 10 1. If the legislative assembly is not in session at the time gaming negotiations are 11 being conducted, the chairman and vice chairman of the legislative ~~council~~
12 executive committee or the designee of the chairman or vice chairman may attend
13 all negotiations and brief the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee on the status
14 of the negotiations.
- 15 2. If the legislative assembly is in session at the time negotiations are being 16 conducted, the majority and minority leaders of both houses, or their designees,
17 may attend all negotiations and brief their respective houses on the status of the 18 negotiations.
- 19 3. The compact may authorize an Indian tribe to conduct gaming that is permitted in 20 the state for any purpose by any person, organization, or entity.
- 21 4. For the purposes of this chapter, the term "gaming that is permitted in the state for 22 any purpose by any person, organization, or entity" includes any game of chance
23 that any Indian tribe was permitted to conduct under a tribal-state gaming compact
24 that was in effect on August 1, 1997.
- 25 5. The compact may not authorize gaming to be conducted by an Indian tribe at any 26 off-reservation location not permitted under a tribal-state gaming compact in effect
27 on August 1, 1997, except that in the case of the tribal-state gaming compact
28 between the Turtle Mountain Band of Chippewa and the state, gaming may be 29 conducted on land within Rolette County held in trust for the Band by the United 30 States government which was in trust as of the effective date of the Indian Gaming
31 Regulatory Act of 1988 [Pub. L. 100-497; 102 Stat. 2467; 25 U.S.C. 2701 et seq.].

6. The compact may not obligate the state to appropriate state funds; provided, however, the state may perform services for reimbursement.

7. The negotiations between the tribe and the state must address the possibility of a mutual effort of the parties to address the issue of compulsive gambling.

8. If the legislative assembly is not in session when the negotiations are concluded, the governor shall forward a copy of the compact as finally negotiated to each member of the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee at least twenty-one days before the compact is signed.

9. If the legislative assembly is in session when the negotiations are concluded, the governor shall forward a copy of the compact as finally negotiated to each member of the legislative assembly at least twenty-one days before the compact is signed.

10. Before execution of any proposed tribal-state gaming compact or amendment thereto, the governor shall conduct one public hearing on the proposed compact or amendment.

SECTION 85. AMENDMENT. Section 54-59-07 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

54-59-07. State information technology advisory committee. The state information technology advisory committee consists of the chief information officer; the commissioner of higher education or the commissioner's designee; the attorney general or the attorney general's designee; the secretary of state or the secretary of state's designee; the tax commissioner or the commissioner's designee; the chief justice of the supreme court or the chief justice's designee; two members of the legislative assembly appointed by the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee; a minimum of eight members representing state agencies, appointed by the governor; and two members with technology management expertise representing private industry, appointed by the governor. The appointees of the governor serve at the pleasure of the governor. The governor shall designate the chairman of the committee. Additional members may be asked to participate at the request of the chairman. The department shall provide staff services to the committee. The members of the committee representing private industry are entitled to be compensated for time spent in attendance at meetings of the committee and for other travel as approved by the chairman of the committee at the rate of sixty-two dollars and fifty cents per day and are entitled to reimbursement for actual and

1 necessary expenses incurred in the same manner as other state officials. The compensation
2 and expenses are to be paid from appropriations for the department. The committee shall
3 advise the department regarding statewide information technology planning and budgeting,
4 services of the information technology department, and statewide information technology
5 initiatives and policy and shall review reports on major information technology projects as 6 required by this chapter and policies, standards, and guidelines developed by the department.
7 The chief information officer shall submit recommendations of the committee regarding 8 information technology issues to the information technology committee for its consideration.

9 SECTION 86. AMENDMENT. Section 54-59-11 of the North Dakota Century Code is
10 amended and reenacted as follows:

11 54-59-11. Information technology plans. Each executive branch state agency or 12 institution, excluding the institutions under the control of the board of higher education, shall 13 prepare an information technology plan, subject to acceptance by the department. The plan
14 must be submitted to the department by July fifteenth of each even-numbered year. The plan 15 must be prepared based on guidelines developed by the department; must provide the 16 information technology goals, objectives, and activities of the entity for the current biennium
17 and the next two bienniums; and must include an asset management plan relating to the 18 inventory of information technology assets owned, leased, or employed by the entity. Each
19 entity required to file a plan shall provide interim updates to its plan if major information
20 technology changes occur which affect its plan. The department shall review each entity's plan
21 for compliance with statewide information technology policies and standards and may require
22 an entity to change its plan to comply with statewide policies or standards or to resolve
23 conflicting directions among plans. Agencies of the judicial and legislative branches shall file
24 their information technology plans with the department by July fifteenth of each even-numbered
25 year. Each entity required to file a plan shall prepare its budget request for the next biennium
26 based on its information technology plan. The agency's budget request and the governor's 27 budget recommendation must include supporting information describing in detail how the 28 information technology plan relates to the budget request and recommendation. Any budget
29 adjustment by the budget office must include the corresponding change to the plan. Based on 30 the plans, the department shall prepare a statewide information technology plan and distribute 31 copies of that plan to members of the legislative assembly as requested by the legislative

1 council ~~or its designee~~. The statewide information technology plan must be developed with
2 emphasis on long-term strategic goals, objectives, and accomplishments. The statewide
3 information technology plan must contain:

- 4 1. A list of major projects started, ongoing, and completed during the biennium,
5 including related budgeted and actual costs and the estimated implementation
6 date for each project as well as the actual implementation date for completed 7 projects.
- 8 2. Information regarding evaluations of cost-benefit analyses for completed projects.
- 9 3. Information regarding the information technology plans, including the department's 10 plan review process, the number of plans reviewed, and the number of plans 11 accepted.
- 12 4. A description of the benefits to the state resulting from its investment in information 13 technology.

14 SECTION 87. AMENDMENT. Section 54-59-12 of the North Dakota Century Code is
15 amended and reenacted as follows:

16 54-59-12. Coordination of activities - Reports. The department shall cooperate with 17 each state entity providing access to any computer data base or electronically filed or stored
18 information under subsection 4 of section 44-04-18 to assist in providing economical, efficient,
19 and compatible access. The chief information officer shall conduct conferences and meetings
20 with political subdivisions to review and coordinate information technology. The chief 21 information officer and the commissioner of the board of higher education shall meet at least
22 twice each year to plan and coordinate their information technology. The chief information
23 officer and commissioner shall consider areas in which joint or coordinated information
24 technology may result in more efficient and effective state government operations. Upon 25 request, the chief information officer shall report to the legislative ~~council or its designated~~ 26 executive committee regarding the coordination of services with political subdivisions, and the 27 chief information officer and commissioner shall report to the legislative ~~council or its~~ 28 ~~designated~~ executive committee regarding their findings and recommendations.

29 SECTION 88. AMENDMENT. Section 54-59-23 of the North Dakota Century Code is
30 amended and reenacted as follows:

31 54-59-23. Information technology projects - Reports.

- 1 1. An executive, legislative, or judicial branch agency, except for institutions under
2 the control of the state board of higher education, shall report to the state
3 information technology advisory committee according to guidelines developed by 4 the department and reviewed by the state information technology advisory
5 committee regarding the plan for and status of any information technology project
6 that is estimated to cost more than two hundred fifty thousand dollars.
- 7 2. During the life of the project, the agency shall notify the state information
8 technology advisory committee if:
 - 9 a. At a project milestone, the amount expended on project costs exceeds the 10 planned budget for that milestone by twenty percent or more; or
 - 11 b. At a project milestone, the project schedule extends beyond the planned 12 schedule to attain that milestone by twenty percent or more.
- 13 3. A report under subsection 2 must specify corrective measures being undertaken to 14 address any cost or time of completion issue. If the agency has not taken 15 adequate corrective measures within ninety days after the report, the agency shall 16 submit a report to the legislative ~~council's~~ executive committee's information
17 technology committee regarding the project.
- 18 4. Upon completion of the project, the agency shall notify the state information
19 technology advisory committee if:
 - 20 a. The budget for the project exceeded the original budget by twenty percent or 21 more; or
 - 22 b. The final project completion date extended beyond the original project
23 scheduled completion date by twenty percent or more.

24 SECTION 89. AMENDMENT. Subsection 10 of section 54-60-03 of the North Dakota
25 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

- 26 10. Shall report between the first and tenth legislative days of each regular legislative 27 session to a standing committee of each house of the legislative assembly as 28 determined by the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee and shall report annually
29 to the foundation:
 - 30 a. On the department's goals and objectives since the last report;
 - 31 b. On the department's goals and objectives for the period until the next report;

- c. On the department's long-term goals and objectives;
- d. On the department's activities and measurable results occurring since the last report; and
- e. On commerce benchmarks, including the average annual wage in the state, the gross state product exclusive of agriculture, and the number of primary sector jobs in the state;

SECTION 90. AMENDMENT. Section 54-60-11 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

54-60-11. Target industries - Report to legislative council. The commissioner shall identify target industries on which the commissioner shall focus economic development efforts. The commissioner shall designate one of these target industries as a special focus target industry. In identifying and updating target industries, the commissioner shall solicit the advice of the foundation and the North Dakota university system. The commissioner may contract for the services of a third party in identifying target industries. The commissioner shall report biennially to the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee. This report must include information regarding the process used and factors considered in identifying and updating the target industries, the specific tactics the department has used to specifically address the needs of the target industries, the unique tactics and the specific incentives the department has used to support the growth of the special focus target industry, and any recommended legislative changes necessary to better focus economic development services on these industries.

SECTION 91. AMENDMENT. Section 54-62-03 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

54-62-03. Advisory commission. The advisory commission on faith-based and community initiatives is composed of seven members to include the following: the executive director of the department of human services or the director's designee; the director of the department of corrections and rehabilitation or the director's designee; two members of the legislative assembly, one of whom must be selected by the members of the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee representing the majority faction and one of whom must be selected by the members of the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee representing the minority faction; and three public members appointed by the governor, one of whom must represent a minority population. The term of office for the public members is three years. Of the first public members appointed, one must be appointed for a term of one year, one must be appointed for a term of two years, and one must be appointed for a term of three years. No public member may be appointed to more than two consecutive terms. A chairman of the commission must be chosen annually from the membership of the commission by a majority of its members at the first meeting of the advisory commission each year. The advisory commission shall advise the director of the office of faith-based and community initiatives in the establishment of policy regarding matters affecting the faith-based and community organizations, including making recommendations concerning the future of existing state programs and initiatives. The advisory commission on faith-based and community initiatives shall report periodically to the governor and provide the governor with information and recommendations for the governor's consideration. The members of the advisory commission are entitled to mileage and expenses as provided by law for state officers and employees.

SECTION 92. AMENDMENT. Section 57-40.6-12 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

57-40.6-12. Emergency services communications coordinating committee -
Membership - Duties.

1. The governing body of a city or county, which adopted a fee on assessed communications services under this chapter, shall make an annual report of the income, expenditures, and status of its emergency services communication system. The annual report must be submitted to the emergency services communications coordinating committee. The committee is composed of three members, one appointed by the North Dakota 911 association, one appointed by the North Dakota association of counties, and one appointed by the adjutant general to represent the division of state radio.
2. The committee shall:
 - a. Recommend to the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee changes to the operating standards for emergency services communications, including training or certification standards for dispatchers;
 - b. Develop guidelines regarding the allowable uses of the fee revenue collected under this chapter;

c. Request, receive, and compile reports from each governing body on the use of the proceeds of the fee imposed under this chapter, analyze the reports with respect to the guidelines, file its report with the legislative council by November first of each even-numbered year regarding the use of the fee revenue, and recommend to the legislative assembly the appropriate maximum fee allowed by section 57-40.6-02; and

d. Periodically evaluate chapter 57-40.6 and recommend changes to the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee.

3. The committee may initiate and administer statewide agreements among the governing bodies of the local governmental units with jurisdiction over an emergency 911 telephone system to coordinate the procurement of equipment and services, fund the research, administration, and activities of the committee, and contract for the necessary staff support for committee activities.

SECTION 93. AMENDMENT. Section 61-24-04 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

61-24-04. Compensation of directors. Each member of the board of directors of the district is entitled to receive as compensation from the district an amount determined by the board of directors not to exceed the amount provided for members of the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee under section 54-35-10 per day and must be reimbursed for the member's expenses in the amounts provided in sections 44-08-04 and 54-06-09 while attending meetings of the board or otherwise engaged in the official business of the district.

SECTION 94. AMENDMENT. Section 61-24.5-04 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

61-24.5-04. Board of directors - Officers - Meetings - Compensation. The authority must be governed by a board of directors who must be chosen in accordance with this chapter. One director must be elected from each county within the authority, and two directors must be elected in the city of Dickinson. The director from Stark County may not be a resident of the city of Dickinson. The board shall elect from the directors a chairman, vice chairman, and secretary. A majority of the directors constitutes a quorum for the purpose of conducting the business of the board. The board shall meet at the time and place designated by the secretary. Board members are entitled to receive as compensation an amount determined by the board not to exceed the amount per day provided members of the legislative ~~council~~ executive committee under section 54-35-10 and must be reimbursed for their mileage and expenses in the amount provided for by sections 44-08-04 and 54-06-09.

SECTION 95. AMENDMENT. Section 65-02-30 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

65-02-30. Independent performance evaluation - Organization development of performance measurements - Continuing appropriation. Biennially, the director shall request the state auditor to select a firm with extensive expertise in workforce safety and insurance practices and standards to complete a performance evaluation of the functions and operations of the organization during that biennium. This may not be construed to require the firm to be a certified public accounting firm. As determined necessary by the state auditor, but at least once every other biennium, the biennial independent performance evaluation must evaluate departments of the organization to determine whether the organization is providing quality service in an efficient and cost-effective manner; evaluate the effectiveness of safety and loss prevention programs under section 65-03-04; and evaluate the board to determine whether the board is operating within section 65-02-03.3 and within the board's bylaws. The firm's report must contain recommendations for departmental improvement or an explanation of why no recommendations are being made. The director, the chairman of the board, and a representative of the firm shall present the evaluation report and any action taken to the legislative ~~council's~~ executive committee's legislative audit and fiscal review committee and to the house and senate industry, business and labor standing committees during the next regular session of the legislative session following the performance evaluation. The director shall provide a copy of the performance evaluation report to the state auditor. The organization shall develop and maintain comprehensive, objective performance measurements. These measurements must be evaluated as part of the independent performance evaluation performed under this section. Money in the workforce safety and insurance fund is appropriated on a continuing basis for the payment of the expense of conducting the performance evaluation.
