

Sixty-first Legislative Assembly of North Dakota
In Regular Session Commencing Tuesday, January 6, 2009

HOUSE BILL NO. 1566
(Representatives Kasper, R. Kelsch, L. Meier)
(Senators Flakoll, Wardner)

AN ACT to require that the commissioner of higher education study the interplay between the North Dakota university system and tribally controlled community colleges.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. COMMISSIONER OF HIGHER EDUCATION - STUDY - HIGHER EDUCATION AND TRIBALLY CONTROLLED COMMUNITY COLLEGES. The state commissioner of higher education shall study during the 2009-10 interim, the interplay between the North Dakota university system and tribally controlled community colleges. Specifically, the commissioner shall address ways in which the North Dakota university system as a whole and the individual campuses can better interact with tribally controlled community colleges through improved communication, collaboration, and relationship-building activities. In addition, the commissioner shall focus on ways in which tribally controlled community colleges can encourage American Indians to pursue options in higher education, thereby bringing economic benefit to their families and communities and ways in which the university system and the individual campuses can work with tribally controlled community colleges to provide tutoring, mentoring, and other types of assistance necessary to ensure that the retention rates and graduation rates of American Indian students are increased. The commissioner shall report any findings and recommendations, together with any legislation required to implement the recommendations, to the sixty-second legislative assembly.
