POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

REMARKS OF REPRESENTATIVE WINRICH

MR. SPEAKER: In January of 1911, about 100 union members from Grand Forks, North Dakota and East Grand Forks, Minnesota gathered to hear union organizer John Fleming from Fargo. Fleming spoke of the benefits enjoyed by working men and women in the Fargo Moorhead area because of the Fargo Moorhead Labor Council that was formed in 1906. He urged them to organize such a Labor Council to represent working people in the greater Grand Forks area.

Three weeks later, one hundred years ago today, February 16, 1911, union members from Grand Forks and East Grand Forks again met and formed the Grand Forks Trades and Labor Assembly. Among the unions represented on the new council were Bricklayers, Blacksmith Helpers, Machinists, Carpenters, Street Car Employees, Barbers, Freight Handlers, Book Binders, and Pressmen. The first president was Ralph Bates of the Book Binders Union, who later went on to become the first president of the North Dakota American Federation of Labor when this organization was formed in Grand Forks on October 1, 1911.

The new council quickly gained the respect of city leaders in Grand Forks and East Grand Forks and a Grand Labor Day Celebration was planned at Riverside Park. Mayor M.F. Murphy of Grand Forks issued a proclamation which read in part:

"The members of the Grand Forks Trades and Labor Assembly have invited the people of Grand Forks to unite with them in observing the day with appropriate ceremonies, which invitation should be accepted by all."

"It is therefore recommended: That on Monday, September 4th, all business be suspended at 1:00 o'clock in the afternoon in order that all citizens may be afforded an opportunity to participate."

The Grand Forks Trades and Labor Assembly today has become the Northern Valley Labor

Council and organizations such as the Street Car Employees and the Blacksmith Helpers have given way to a membership list that now includes the United Auto Workers, the Communication Workers of America, the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, the North Dakota Public Employees Association, and the Plumbers and Pipefitters. The current president, Mark Froemke, is a member of the Bakery, Confectionary, Tobacco, and Grain Millers International union.

We congratulate the Northern Valley Labor Council as they celebrate 100 years of service and advocacy for the working men and women of the Grand Forks area and across the state of North Dakota.

REP. WINRICH REQUESTED that his remarks be printed in the Journal, which request was granted.
