POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

SEN. OLAFSON rose on a point of personal privilege.

REMARKS OF SENATOR OLAFSON

MR. PRESIDENT: I would like to offer a congratulatory message to the North Star Bearcats, the 2011 High School Class B State Basketball Champions. I am joined today in offering this congratulatory message by Senator Dave Oehlke, who is absent today to attend an important meeting in his district.

On Saturday, March 5, the North Star School, which is comprised of the communities of Cando, Bisbee, and Egeland, joined an exclusive club by winning the State Class B Basketball Championship after an unblemished, undefeated season. The Bearcats, under the direction of Coach Jeff Hagler and Assistant Coach Brian Haugen, compiled a perfect 27-0 season record, an achievement which is difficult to attain.

The Bearcats' performance in the State Tournament was absolutely stellar, steamrolling over their opponents on the way to the championship game. The championship game with the Grafton Spoilers was a hard-fought battle, and the Spoilers put together a serious challenge to the Bearcats' formidable offense and defense. The championship game remained undecided until the final seconds, with the Bearcats finishing strong to win the championship.

Accentuating the Bearcats' great season was Grant Lindahl, who was named Tournament Most Valuable Player. He and Jake Hagler were both named All Tournament Team and Jeff Hagler received Coach of the Year honors.

Congratulations to the coaches, players, and the communities of Cando, Bisbee, and Egeland on what has truly been an amazing season.
