POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

REMARKS OF SENATOR WANZEK

MR. PRESIDENT: Over the weekend, the North Dakota High School Activities Association crowned a new Class B State Girls Basketball Champion. I rise today to offer congratulations to the Carrington Cardinals Girls Basketball team. The Lady Cardinals earned their first ever state basketball title this weekend with their hard-fought win over the Central Cass Squirrels, beating the formidable rival 54 to 46.

Coming into the Girls State B as the sixth ranked team, the Carrington Cardinals worked hard throughout the tournament, defeating Washburn 42-28 in their first game of the tournament and the #2-rated Kenmare Honkers in the semi-final game with an impressive score of 62 to 27.

The Cardinals were led by offensively by Becca Scherr, who scored 13 points in the final quarter alone and 19 points overall. Also demonstrating individual prowess and earning the title of Co-MVP's of the tournament were Emily Thompson and Sierra Rosenau. Each demonstrated excellent team leadership, consistently shooting the basket, blocking shots, and making rebounds. The two standouts had the honor of being accepted into this year's All-Tournament Team as well.

Though the championship game was a tooth-and-nail battle throughout, the cardinals rallied in the final quarter to make their season record an impressive 23-3. On behalf of myself and the North Dakota Senate, I would like to congratulate the Carrington Cardinals Girls Basketball team on their impressive season and victory at the Girls State "B". I would also like to commend the parents, teachers, school administrators, and community members who, together, helped make the team's state title possible. The result of hard work, put in by so many is inspiring and indeed impressive.
