NOMINATIONS FOR INTERIM PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

SEN. FISCHER: Mr. President, it is an honor for me to move the nomination of Senator Ralph Kilzer for the office of President Pro Tempore. Senator Kilzer has served in the Senate since 1999. Prior to that he served in the North Dakota House of Representatives. In his life away from the legislature, he is an orthopedic surgeon. He has practiced in this area for many years and he is recognized for many accomplishments. One of those is founding the Bone and Joint Clinic here in Bismarck.

His community involvement is second to none. He gives his time to many community efforts and has received numerous awards from his profession, community, and church.

Senator Kilzer's medical expertise has led him to serve on the Human Services Committee and now on the Appropriations Committee. His preparation for floor presentations include reviewing the issues in his spare time in this building, at home, and even on the road. He takes his job seriously and we are better for it. It has been a pleasure to serve with and learn from this Senator and gentleman.

Mr. President, again it is truly an honor to nominate my friend, Senator Ralph Kilzer, for the office of President Pro Tempore.

SEN. SCHNEIDER: Mr. President, I am honored to have the opportunity to nominate my friend, the Senator from District 9, Richard Marcellais to be President Pro Tem of the North Dakota Senate. Senator Marcellais's life has been one of service to his community, to his tribe, to his state, and to his country. His journey on the path of public service started at age 21, when he was drafted into the U.S. Army and called to serve in Vietnam just one week after his wedding.

Like many veterans who proudly served in uniform, Senator Marcellais returned home and became a leader within his community. He has a long record of service on the Turtle Mountain Community School Board and has pursued the goal of improving education for Native Americans across the country as a member of the National Indian School Board Association. Additionally, as we all know, Senator Marcellais is a former chairman of the Turtle Mountain Band of Chippewa- a capacity in which he has fought for better access to healthcare, investments in economic development, and an increased quality of life for his people.

Mr. President, I am proud to serve with this humble and thoughtful leader. I know Senator Marcellais will continue to bring dignity to the North Dakota Senate as President Pro Tem.

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARCELLAIS

Mr. President, it is an honor to have been nominated by my colleagues for the position of Interim President Pro Tem. I would like to extend a special thank you to my good friend, Senator Schneider, from District 42 for his warm and generous remarks in nominating me. Thanks to those of my colleagues for voting for me. This is only my third session in the legislature, so I am still learning the traditions of the Senate. I think the tradition that has the nominees voting for each other is a delightful tradition and one that I am happy to carry on, but I had thought that there was another tradition that more or less required the other members of each caucus to vote for their caucus nominee.

Mr. President, I move that the Senate cast a unanimous ballot in favor of electing Senator Kilzer, District 47, as Interim President Pro Tem.

MOTION

SEN. MARCELLAIS MOVED that the Senate cast a unanimous ballot in favor of electing Senator Kilzer for Interim President Pro Tempore, which motion prevailed.

MOTION

SEN. STENEHJEM MOVED that a committee of two be appointed to escort Interim President Pro Tempore Kilzer to the rostrum, which motion prevailed.

OATH OF OFFICE

PRESIDENT WRIGLEY APPOINTED Sens. Wardner and G. Lee to escort Sen. Kilzer to the rostrum for the Oath of Office, which was administered by President Wrigley.

REMARKS OF INTERIM PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE KILZER

Mr. President and members of the assembly, thank you very much for putting me in the position of President Pro Tem of the Senate. I accept your offer and promise to do to the best of my ability a good job. My best wishes to my colleague and friend, Senator Marcellais, and also to Senator Fischer who did a little research about me. I especially want to thank my wife, Marsha, who is sitting in the chamber upstairs, for putting up with my dabbling in politics for the past 15 years or so and to the rest of my family who have probably made more sacrifices than I have.

As my predecessor stressed earlier in this session when he gave his acceptance speech, he focused on the integrity and the openness and the teamwork that are important to the process of good legislation. All of us have lives outside of this capitol. In my profession, teamwork is right at the top. I still recall all the effort in the hospital as we prepared as a team for the first hip replacement surgery that was done by myself here in Bismarck 40 years ago. It takes teamwork to the nth degree in order to really create the best opportunity for success. So with full devotion to the task at hand and good coordination, we can expect the best results. And that holds true in this chamber, too. The people who put us here are expecting us to do what we are supposed to do and they will certainly judge by their standards as to how they feel we have succeeded. Please continue the good work. Conference committees as we know them actually bring out the best and the worst in us, but they certainly do deserve our best efforts. May God's blessing be upon us as we celebrate the feast of Good Friday. Happy Easter to everyone and may God bless the state of North Dakota and the United States of America.

MOTION

SEN. CHRISTMANN MOVED that the remarks of Interim President Pro Tempore Kilzer, and of Sens. Fischer, Schneider, and Marcellais be printed in the Journal, which motion prevailed.

The Senate resumed its regular orders of business with President Wrigley presiding.
