

This map displays the city of Fargo, North Dakota, and its surrounding areas. The city is divided into several colored regions, each with a unique shape and color. The regions are labeled with their names and populations:

- West Fargo (Light Blue): Population 25,830.
- Fargo (Light Green): Population 105,549.
- Reed (Light Yellow): Population 1,175.
- Harwood (Light Orange): Population 718.
- North River (Light Purple): Population 1,175.
- Raymond (Light Blue): Population 254.
- Mapleton (Light Green): Population 762.
- Mapleton (Light Green): Population 188.
- Warren (Light Blue): Population 139.
- Horace (Light Orange): Population 2,430.
- Prarie Rose (Light Yellow): Population 73.
- Frontier (Light Yellow): Population 214.
- Brianwood (Light Purple): Population 73.
- Stanley (Light Orange): Population 1,218.
- Normanna (Light Blue): Population 333.
- Kindred (Light Yellow): Population 692.
- Pleasant (Light Orange): Population 468.
- Oxbow (Light Purple): Population 305.
- Walcott (Light Orange): Population 326.
- Eagle (Light Orange): Population 252.

The map also shows major roads, including Interstate 29 (I-29) and Interstate 94 (I-94), and various numbered roads (e.g., 10, 13, 16, 21, 22, 25, 27, 41, 44, 46, 81, 94). The city boundaries are marked with thick black lines.