SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Section 54-34.4-03 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

54-34.4-03. State tourism policy.

1. The legislative assembly declares that:
  - a. This state is endowed with scenic beauty, historical sites, cultural resources, local festivals, attractions, recreational facilities, and a population whose ethnic diversity and traditions are attractive to visitors;
  - ~~b. These human and physical resources should be preserved and nurtured, not only because they are appreciated by other Americans and by visitors from other lands, but because they are valued by the state's residents;~~
  - e. Tourism contributes to economic well-being by creating job opportunities, generating revenues for local businesses, and creating new wealth in the economy;
  - ~~d. Tourism is an educational and informational medium for personal growth which informs residents about their state's geography and history, their political institutions, their cultural resources, their environment, and about each other;~~
  - ~~e.c.~~ Tourism instills state pride and a sense of common interest among the state's residents;
  - ~~f.d.~~ Tourism enhances the quality of life and well-being of the state's residents by affording opportunities for recreation, new experiences, and relief from job stress;
  - ~~g.e.~~ Tourism advertising and marketing improves the image of North Dakota and helps educate and create awareness among residents and visitors alike;
  - ~~h.f.~~ Tourism promotes international understanding and good will, and contributes to intercultural appreciation;
  - ~~i. Tourism engenders appreciation of the state's cultural, architectural, technological, agricultural, and industrial achievements and is helpful in attracting new residents;~~
  - ~~j. The development and promotion of tourism to and within the state is in the interest of the people of this state;~~
  - ~~k. Tourism should develop in an orderly manner in order to provide the maximum benefit to the state and its residents;~~

- ~~l.g.~~ The development of a strong and competitive state visitor industry depends upon the availability of trained personnel, necessary infrastructure, and a receptive climate for tourism investment; and
  - ~~m.h.~~ A comprehensive tourism policy is essential if tourism in the state is to grow in an orderly manner.
2. The legislative assembly declares it is the policy of this state to:
- a. ~~Encourage~~Promote and encourage the orderly growth and development of tourism to, and within, the state;
  - b. ~~Promote the availability of public tourism training to increase the skills and productivity of the tourism labor force and to broaden access to employment opportunities and the visitor industry;~~
  - c. ~~Encourage a healthy competitiveness in the visitor industry;~~
  - d. Promote the availability of reliable public highways and transport services between the state's principal tourism destinations and the main tourism generating markets;
  - e. ~~Expand off-season tourism to the state and thereby increase the productivity of the accommodation sector and reduce seasonal layoffs within the visitor and visitor-related industries;~~
  - ~~f.c.~~ Promote a sense of history in the state's young people by encouraging family visits to state historic sites, and promoting the preservation and restoration of historic sites, trails, buildings, and districts;
  - ~~g.d.~~ Promote the mental, emotional, and physical well-being of the American people by encouraging outdoor recreational activities within the state;
  - ~~h.~~ Encourage the talents and strengthen the economic independence of the state's residents by encouraging the preservation of traditional craft skills, the production of handicrafts and native and folk art by private artisans and crafts people, and the holding of craft demonstrations;
  - ~~i.~~ Encourage an optimum of satisfaction and high quality service to visitors;
  - ~~j.~~ Promote a tourist environment that respects our visitors' rights as consumers;
  - ~~k.~~ Afford visitors and residents the best possible conditions of public sanitation;
  - ~~l.e.~~ Facilitate tourism to, and within, the state by developing an essential tourism infrastructure, providing investment incentives to tourism businesses, and encouraging city and county officials to plan for tourism needs and capitalize on local tourism resources;
  - ~~m.~~ Promote a better understanding among the state's residents of the social and economic importance of tourism through appropriate formal and informal learning experiences about tourism, and foster among all citizens the capacity for courtesy to visitors;
  - ~~n.f.~~ Encourage the holding of conventions, trade shows, and expositions throughout the state;
  - ~~o.~~ Promote tourism in a manner that fosters visitors' understanding and respect for native and religious beliefs, customs, and ethnic traditions of the state's residents;

- ~~p.~~ Monitor tourist impact on the basic human rights of the state's residents and ensure equal access by visitors and residents to public recreational resources;
- ~~q-g.~~ Take measures to protect wildlife and natural resources in the preservation of geological, archaeological, and cultural treasures in tourist areas;
- ~~r-h.~~ Encourage, assist, and coordinate when possible the tourism activities of local and area promotional organizations and tribes; ~~and~~
- ~~i.~~ Provide hospitality training opportunities for frontline employees and provide resources to law enforcement personnel, border security, transportation security administration officials, and all state employees to assist, whenever possible, the tourism industry in helping visitors enjoy their North Dakota experience; and
- ~~s-j.~~ Ensure that the tourism interest of the state is considered fully by state agencies and the legislative assembly in their deliberations; and harmonize to the maximum extent possible, all state activities in support of tourism with the needs of the general public, the political subdivisions of the state, and the visitor industry.
