

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Sixty-second Legislative Assembly

* * * * *

Bismarck, January 17, 2011

The House convened at 1:00 p.m., with Speaker Drovdal presiding.

The prayer was offered by Pastor Terry Kern, First Evangelical Free Church, Bismarck.

The roll was called and all members were present except Representatives Heilman and M. Nelson.

A quorum was declared by the Speaker.

SIXTH ORDER OF BUSINESS

SPEAKER DROVDAL DEEMED approval of the amendments to HB 1045, HB 1053, and HB 1131.

HB 1045, HB 1053, and HB 1131, as amended, were placed on the Eleventh order of business on the calendar for the succeeding legislative day.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

REP. CARLSON rose on a point of personal privilege.

REMARKS OF REPRESENTATIVE CARLSON

MR. SPEAKER: Members of the Assembly, it is a tradition that on this day we commemorate Martin Luther King. The Bismarck Tribune got it right today when they said "Helping others fulfills the American Spirit." Martin Luther King's call to action was: "What are you doing for others?" I think that exemplifies what today is all about.

Martin Luther King was assassinated on April 4, 1968 and many of us here remember that. Those of you who are too young to remember it should look it up in the history books, and learn about the unrest in that period of time.

In 1983 President Ronald Reagan signed the bill to establish Martin Luther King Day as a federal holiday. It has developed as a day of service and the best part is that community service need not and should not be limited to one day, but be part of every day. Similarly, civil rights are for every one of every color and in every state.

Many North Dakotans today recall the civil rights movement of the 1960's and remember a painful time in our nation's history. As those wounds continue to heal helping others is what Martin Luther King would probably like most. Helping others can fulfill the American dream and shows the American spirit.

MOTION

REP. CARLSON MOVED that his remarks be printed in the Journal, which motion prevailed.

MOTION

REP. VIGESAA MOVED that HB 1322 be returned to the House floor from the Energy and Natural Resources Committee and be rereferred to the Finance and Taxation Committee, which motion prevailed.

Pursuant to Rep. Vigesaa's motion, HB 1322 was rereferred.

MOTION

REP. VIGESAA MOVED that HB 1026 and HB 1071, which are on the Eleventh order, be laid over one legislative day, which motion prevailed.

5-03-06. Examination by tax commissioner - Penalty for improper returns.

The state tax commissioner may at any reasonable time make an examination of the books and premises of any retailer, wholesaler, manufacturer, domestic winery, domestic distillery, microbrew pub, direct shipper, or other person to determine if such person has fully complied with all statutes and rules pertaining to the person's business. If any manufacturer, wholesaler, domestic winery, domestic distillery, ~~or~~ microbrew pub, or direct shipper liable for any taxes imposed by this chapter fails to pay such tax on the date payment is due, there must be added to the tax a penalty of five percent of the total amount of the tax or five dollars, whichever is greater, plus interest of one percent of the tax per month or fraction of a month of delay, except the first month after the return or tax became due. Any manufacturer, wholesaler, domestic winery, domestic distillery, ~~or~~ microbrew pub, or direct shipper failing to furnish reports when required must be assessed a penalty of one hundred dollars for each day such reports are delinquent. The state tax commissioner may forgive all or part of any penalty for good cause shown. The tax commissioner shall give notice of the determination to the person liable for tax. If the determination of tax due relates to an incorrect or insufficient return filed by a taxpayer, notice of the determination must be given not later than three years after the last day on which the return was due or three years after the return was filed, whichever is later. If it is determined upon audit by the tax commissioner that the tax due was twenty-five percent or more above the amount reported on the return, notice of determination of tax due must be given not later than six years after the last day on which the return was due or six years after the return was filed, whichever was later. Notice of determination of tax due for any reporting period for which a taxpayer failed to file a return must be given not later than six years after the due date of the return, but if fraudulent information is given in a return or the failure to file a return is due to the fraudulent intent or willful attempt of the taxpayer in any manner to evade the tax, the time limitation provided in this section for giving notice of the determination of tax due does not apply. If any manufacturer, wholesaler, domestic winery, domestic distillery, or microbrew pub, or direct shipper files a fraudulent return, there must be added to the tax an amount equal to the tax evaded or attempted to be evaded and such manufacturer, wholesaler, domestic winery, domestic distillery, or microbrew pub, or direct shipper is also guilty of a class C felony. All such taxes and civil penalties may be collected by assessment or distraint, and no court of this state may enjoin the collection of any such tax or civil penalty. No wholesaler may purchase alcoholic beverages from a manufacturer after notice from the state tax commissioner that such manufacturer has failed to file required reports with the tax commissioner's office. Any manufacturer, wholesaler, domestic winery, domestic distillery, or microbrew pub, or direct shipper may have its license suspended or revoked for violation of any of the provisions of this title after a hearing conducted similar to that prescribed by this law."

57-43.2-37. Cooperative special fuels agreements ~~between states~~.

1. The director may enter into cooperative agreements with other states for exchange of information and auditing of users of special fuels used in fleets of motor vehicles operated or intended to operate interstate or internationally. An agreement or amendment to an agreement is not effective until filed in writing with the director.
2. An agreement under this section may provide for determining the base state for users, users' records requirements, audit procedures, exchange of information, persons eligible for tax licensing, defining qualified motor vehicles, determining if bonding is required, specifying reporting requirements and periods including defining the uniform penalty and interest rates for late reporting, determining methods for collecting and forwarding of special fuel taxes and penalties to another jurisdiction, and other provisions as will facilitate the administration of the agreement.
3. The director may, as required by the terms of the agreement, forward to ~~officers of another state~~ any information in the director's or commissioner's possession relative to the manufacture, receipt, sale, use, transportation, or shipment of special fuels by any person. The director may disclose to ~~officers of another state~~ the location of officers, motor vehicles, and other real and personal property of users of special fuels.
4. An agreement may provide for each state to audit the records of persons ~~based in the state~~ audits of users of special fuels used in fleets of motor vehicles operated or intended to operate interstate or internationally, to determine if the special fuel taxes due each state are properly reported and paid. ~~Each state shall forward the~~The findings of the audits performed on persons based in the state, to each state in which the person has that have a taxable use of special fuels may be shared among parties to a cooperative agreement. For persons not based in this state and who have taxable use of special fuel in this state, the director or the commissioner may serve the audit findings received from another state, in the form of an assessment, on the person as though an audit was conducted by the director or the commissioner.

5. Any agreement entered under this section does not preclude the director or the commissioner from auditing the records of any person covered by the provisions of this chapter.

6. The provisions of any agreement entered into under this section prevail over any conflicting rules adopted by the director or the commissioner."
